QUICK KICKS

HOME PITCH ADVANTAGE

- The Knights have not lost a match at the UCF Soccer Complex in 362 days and have not dropped a home opener since the 2020-21 season.
- The squad had a 6-1-1 record at home in 2022, with the only loss coming against Ole Miss on Sept. 4, 2022.
- The 362-day undefeated streak at home is the longest in the Big 12.
- UCF also holds the Big 12 record for most consecutive matches with a goal scored, dating back to the Aug. 28, 2022 home match against FGCU.

AIR NETZEL

- Xavier transfer Chloe Netzel has made an instant impact with the Knights, collecting three goal contributions in as many matches.
- Against North Florida, Netzel headed in the match-winning goal to give the Knights the 2-1 advantage. The score was her second consecutive match with a heading goal, as she gave UCF a first-half lead at Georgia on a corner kick from Katie Bradley, her 30th career point.
- The last Knight to have five points through the team's first three matches of the season was Darya Rajae in 2021.
- Netzel leads the squad in both goal contributions (three) and goals (two).

SPREADING THE WEALTH

- Six Knights each have one assist to their name as UCF has seen an impact throughout the squad.
- Chloe Netzel picked up her first assist as a Knight and the team's first of the season at Purdue. At Georgia, the set piece specialist Katie Bradley played in a perfect corner that Netzel put away.
- In the home opener, four Knights notched assists including Dayana Martin, Mia Asenjo (first in her career), Sanja Homann, and Polly Watson.
- This marks the first time under Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak that six different Knights have assists under their belts in the first three matches of the season.

PREVIOUS STARTING LINEUP

ADDITIONAL KNIGHT KICKS

CAROL AT THE BACK

- Caroline DeLisle returns for her fifth season as the Knights starting goalkeeper.
• The Tampa native collected her second consecutive AAC Goalkeeper of the Year honor in 2022 after recording nine shutouts and a career-high .847 save percentage.
• DeLisle is currently fourth in program history in saves (241), tied for fourth in shutouts (27) and seventh in goals-against average (.82).
• The 5th-year is currently tied for second nationally in career shutouts, behind only Emily Puricelli from Saint Louis, who has 30 career clean sheets.

FIRST TWO IN THE BOOKS

- The Knights defeated Purdue 1-0 in their first match of the season in front of a record crowd at Folk Field in West Lafayette, Indiana (4,096).
• A second-half goal from Dayana Martin (10th career) secured the fourth consecutive opening-match win for the Knights. Martin has now scored in two consecutive opening matches, having notched her first goal of the season in 2022 in a 3-0 victory over Florida.
• Dating back to 2020, UCF has outscored opponents 11-0 in its first match of the season; in 2020 (at Temple, 3-0), 2021 (vs Texas, 4-0), 2022 (vs Florida, 3-0), 2023 (at Purdue, 1-0). Caroline DeLisle has started and played all 360 minutes across each of the matches. Her 27th career shutout against the Boilermaker moved her to fourth in program history (tied with Aline Reis).
• The Knights struck first against Georgia, with Chloe Netzel earning her first goal with the Knights on a perfect header off a Katie Bradley corner kick. The squad was able to maintain the lead until the 83rd minute, when the Bulldogs pulled ahead thanks to two quick goals in the final seven minutes of the match.

INSTANT IMPACT

- Transfers Chloe Netzel (Xavier) and Kyleigh Thelen (Stetson) played a combined 146 minutes at Purdue
• Netzel notched her fourth career assist as she played a perfect ball to Martin for the winner.
• Thelen has played a full 90 alongside Ariel Young as the center-back pairing in both matches this season, which was crucial in protecting the lead, eventually securing its first clean sheet of the season against Purdue, and keeping Georgia scoreless until the 83rd minute.

NEW YEAR, NEW FACES

- UCF welcomes nine new faces to the squad in 2023, four transfers and five freshmen.
• Transfers Daniella Chung from South Florida, Chloe Netzel from Xavier, Kyleigh Thelen from Stetson and Morgan O'Connor from Ole Miss will all add valuable experience to the squad.
• Netzel garnered Big East All-Freshman honors along with a nod to the All-Tournament team. O'Connor was named to the All-SEC Second Team her senior season.
• The five freshman include Genesis Perez Watson, Lilly Nava, Natalia Ballinas, Jada Silvest and Jalen Haas.
• Jessica McCullen and Audrey Buck will look to add versatility to the squad after redshirting their freshman seasons.

UCF IN THE BIG 12

- The University of Central Florida officially joined the Big 12 Conference on July 1, 2023.
• UCF enters the Power 5 as the youngest school, having been founded in 1963 to supply NASA with engineers.
• The Knights, along with Cincinnati, Houston and BYU, push the conference 14 programs.
• UCF is 28-13-4 against current Big 12 teams all-time.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES

- Dayana Martin was named to the Preseason All-Big 12 team, the first Knight in program history to receive Big 12 honors.
• In 2022, Martin led the squad with five assists and was second in goals with five, both career highs, landing her on the All-Conference First Team.
• Four of her five goals came on the road, with her last of the season in the NCAA Second Round at UCLA.

THE ROAD AHEAD

- Three of the Knights first four fixtures are on the road, all against Power Five opponents. This will be the first time UCF will start the season on the road since the shortened 2020-21 season.
• Following the opening match at Purdue, the first meeting between the two programs since 1999, UCF will travel to Georgia. The Knights cap off their road non-conference schedule with familiar foes Penn State (ranked No. 6 in the week 2 United Soccer Coaches Poll), the second meeting in three seasons between the schools.

EXPECTATION NOTED

- The Knights were tabbed sixth on the preseason Big 12 poll, voted upon by the coaches.
• UCF was the highest among the former American Athletic Conference competitors, slotting in ahead of Houston (10) and Cincinnati (13).
• Full poll: BYU (1), TCU (2), Texas (3), West Virginia (4), Texas Tech (5), UCF (6), Oklahoma State (7), Kansas (8), Oklahoma (9), Houston (10), Baylor (11), Kansas State (12), Cincinnati (13), Iowa State (14)
• For the first time since 2018, the Knights were among the top 25 on the preseason United Soccer Coaches poll, slotting in at No. 24. UCF was also featured on the preseason College Soccer News poll at No. 28.

TO BE THE BEST, PLAY THE BEST

- Head coach Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak has stressed the importance of playing a tough schedule and the Knights 2023 slate is no different.
• Three opponents are currently ranked in the United Soccer Coaches week 1 poll (BYU, Penn State and Texas).
• In 2022, UCF faced four ranked opponents, including No. 2 North Carolina, No. 14 Ole Miss and No. 20 Texas during in the regular season, before facing eventual National Champions UCLA in the NCAA Tournament Second Round.

A YEAR AGO

- In 2022, UCF bid farewell to the AAC with a dominant campaign that saw the Knights go undefeated during conference play. The Knights went 6-0-1 en route to the program's fourth AAC Regular Season title.
• Four Knights landed on the All-Conference First Team, while former Knight Kristen Scott was named the Offensive Player of the Year. Mia Asenjo was named to the All-Rookie team after her first full season with the Knights.

KNIGHTS ON THE GLOBAL STAGE

- UCF was well represented at the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup. Freshman Genesis Perez Watson (Costa Rica), along with former Knights Kathellen Sousa (Brazil) and Konya Plummer (Jamaica) all represented their nations at the global event.
• In 2019, Plummer captained Jamaica to its first-ever World Cup appearance. In 2023, Jamaica advanced to the knockout round, becoming the first Caribbean nation to do so.
• Head coach Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak served as an assistant coach with the United States Womens National Team. A member of the historical 1999 United States squad that won the World Cup, Roberts Sahaydak began coaching with the national team in 2022.

TIFFANY ROBERTS SAHAYDAK

Head Coach - 11th Season

An Olympic gold medalist, World Cup champion and two-time NCAA champion, Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak was named head women's soccer coach at UCF in May 2013.

A four-time American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Roberts Sahaydak has wasted no time in putting her stamp on UCF's successful program. Under her guidance, the Knights have earned five NCAA Tournament bids and four American Athletic Conference championships while boasting 18 Conference Player of the Year awards and 67 all-league

In 2016, four student-athletes were named to the All-American Athletic Conference Teams. Saga Fredriksson was named to the All-Northeast Region Team and recognized as the American Athletic Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Off the field, the Knights earned recognition for their academic success as they received the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Team Academic Award.

Roberts Sahaydak tackled the 2015 season with team that featured more newcomers (14) than returners (12) and lost three key members due to injury for the year before the season-opening weekend was in the books. Eight of their starters, including their American Athletic Conference Offensive Player, Defensive Player and Goalkeeper of the Year, had moved on from the year before. But the Knights earned a berth to their ninth-straight NCAA Tournament (20th overall) and nabbed a hosting gig for the first round for the fifth straight season. In addition, Carol Rodrigues was named the American's Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2014, she guided the Knights to their second NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in four years and the American regular season title. Under her direction, three Knights were recognized as conference Players of the Year: Tatiana Coleman (Co-Offensive); Carleigh Williams (Defensive); and Connie Organ (Goalkeeper). UCF posted its first undefeated home slate (11-0) since 1999, matched the school record for wins in a season (18) and was nationally ranked through much of the year.

In her first season (2013), she led UCF to a school-record unbeaten streak (18 matches), an NSCAA national standing through much of the year and the program's first undefeated conference season since 1999. In addition, UCF made history as the first program to win an American Athletic Conference Championship. Roberts Sahaydak came to Orlando after serving six seasons at VCU alongside her co-head coach, husband and current UCF associate head coach Tim Sahaydak. Roberts Sahaydak spent a decade with the U.S. National Team from 1994-2004, earning 110 caps (with 60 starts). Her career was highlighted by three women's World Cups - among them, the unforgettable 1999 championship - and a gold medal with the 1996 Olympic team.

After retiring from the USWNT, she has served as an ambassador for U.S. Soccer with the U.S. Department of State Sports Envoy Program since 2007, promoting the power and benefit of sport internationally. With the program, she has visited Indonesia, Uganda, the Philippines, Thailand, Namibia, Brazil and France. In 2014, she was appointed to President Barack Obama's Presidential Delegation to the Federative Republic of Brazil at the opening of the FIFA World Cup in Brazil.

She is a native of San Ramon, Calif., and was selected as the 1994 California High School Player of the Year. She was a three-time Parade High School All-American, a three-time NSCAA All-American and was the two-time National Girl's High School Player of the Year. She debuted for the Stars and Stripes in 1994 when she was only 16 as one of the youngest players ever to suit up for the National Team. She played in her first FIFA Women's World Cup a month after her 18th birthday and won Olympic gold before she was out of her teens (USSoccer.com).

As a collegian, Roberts Sahaydak was a standout midfielder for North Carolina (1995-98) as a three-time All-ACC First Team selection. She led the Tar Heels to two NCAA titles (1996, 1997) during her tenure, was voted the 1998 ACC Tournament MVP and finished third in voting for collegiate soccer's highest honor, the Hermann Trophy. She still ranks among the top five for career starts in UNC's record book.

She was a two-time captain for the Carolina Courage in the first fully professional U.S. women's league (Women's United Soccer Association). She helped the Courage win the 2002 title after finishing last in the team's inaugural campaign one year prior. Roberts Sahaydak took over VCU's program in 2007 and led the Rams to three conference championship game appearances. She was voted as the 2011 Colonial Athletic Association Co-Head Coach of the Year, along with her husband Tim. The duo mentored two CAA Defenders of the Year, one CAA Rookie of the Year and 20 all-conference players, including six first-team honorees.

In their final season in the AAC, the Knights boasted a 9-2-7 (7-0-1 AAC) record, going undefeated in conference play and picking up nine clean sheets along the way to becoming AAC Regular Season Champions. With the first victory of the season, Roberts Sahaydak earned her 100th win at UCF as a head coach. The Black and Gold collected a bid to the NCAA Tournament and advanced past NC State in the first round to face eventual national champion UCLA, where they fell in penalty kicks. Kristen Scott picked up Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Caroline DeLisle earned her second-straight Goalkeeper of the Year award. DeLisle and Scott were joined by Dayana Martin and Darya Rajaei on the All-Conference First Team, with Georgia Eaton-Collins being named to the All-Conference Second Team and Mia Asenjo earning unanimous selection to the All-Rookie Team.

In 2021, Roberts Sahaydak coached the Knights to an 8-7-1 (3-4-1 American Athletic Conference) and entered the American Athletic Conference Championship tournament as a six seed. With the Knights sixth victory of the season, Roberts Sahaydak earned her 150th career win as a collegiate head coach. Under Roberts Sahaydak, Caroline DeLisle and Darya Rajaei earned their first selections to the All-Conference First Team. In total, four Knights earned conference awards with Caroline DeLisle also earning Goalkeeper of the Year and Darya Rajaei also earning Midfielder of the Year while Ariel Young earned All-Rookie Team honors and Kristen Scott earned All-Conference First Team.

In an unconventional 2020-21 campaign due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Roberts Sahaydak led the Black & Gold to picking up five all-league selections as the Knights finished the spring season with a 2-4-1 mark. Four Knights picked up honors, with Sarai Linder representing the Knights on the First Team All-Conference and All-Rookie Teams, Ellie Moreno and Madsion Murnin were named to the Second Team All-Conference, and Katie Bradley joins Sarai Linder on the All-Rookie Team.

In 2019, Roberts Sahaydak led the Knights to a 11-4-4 (5-2-2 American Athletic Conference) and earned a No. 3 seed to the American Athletic Conference Championship. The Knights posted a six-game unbeaten streak and climbed to as high No. 21 in the United Soccer Coaches Polls. Under Roberts Sahaydak, Konya Plummer was named First Team All-Region by the United Soccer Coaches Association, as well as the American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year. In total, six student-athletes were recognized by the Conference coaches with Plummer also earning First Team All-Conference, while Senior Zandy Soree and sophomore Kristen Scott earned Second Team All-Conference honors. Caroline DeLisle, Ally Gudorf, and Ellie Moreno picked up All-Rookie accolades.

The Knights finished the 2018 campaign at 10-7-1 (6-3 American Athletic Conference) and entered the American Athletic Conference Championship tournament as a third seed. Under Roberts Sahaydak, three Knights earned All-Southeast Region honors - Stefanie Sanders earned second team all-region, while Vera Varis and Carrie Lawrence collected third team all-region recognition. Additionally, five student-athletes were recognized by the league coaches at the conclusion of the regular season. Vera Varis was named Goalkeeper of the Year and named to First Team All-Conference. Stefanie Sanders joined Veris with First Team All-Conference honors while Dina Orschmann and Carrie Lawrence earned Second Team All-Conference accolades and Kristen Scott was named to the All-Rookie team.

In 2017, Roberts Sahaydak coached the Knights to a 13-2-3 record, the most wins since the 2014 campaign. UCF climbed as high as No. 6 and finished the regular season ranked eighth. The Knights posted a 16-match unbeaten streak, the longest since the 2013 campaign, captured the American Athletic Conference regular season championship and made their 21st NCAA Tournament appearance.

Under Roberts Sahaydak's tutelage, five members of the team received All-Southeast Region recognition and goalkeeper Vera Varis was named to the United Soccer Coaches Association All-American Third Team. In addition, five of her starters were recognized as American Athletic Conference Players of the Year, including Morgan Ferrara (Offensive), Kathellen Sousa (Co-Defensive), Vera Varis (Goalkeeper), Kayla Adamek (Midfielder), and Dina Orschmann (Rookie). A total of seven Knights were placed on the All-American Athletic Conference Teams, and three were recognized on the all-tournament team.
