MITTANY LIONS ROUT MICHIGAN

No. 9 Penn State scored the first 10 goals on Saturday (Feb. 8) at Holuba Hall en route to a 22-7 win over future Big Ten rival Michigan. Shane Sturgis tallied a career-high six goals and TJ Sanders scored five goals for the fourth time in career in the win. Kyle Baier added his first career hat trick, while redshirt-freshman faceoff man Drake Kreinz went 15-7 at the X while scoring his first career goal and assist. In all, 11 Nittany Lions scored a goal and 13 earned a point. Goalkeeper Austin Kaut saved six shots in 39:45 of work as Penn State built up leads of 8-0 after the first period, 11-1 at halftime and 18-4 after three quarters.

IT'S BEEN ALMOST 20 YEARS SINCE...

The Nittany Lions scored the most goals since a 21-7 victory over Lafayette on March 26, 1994. Prior to that, Penn State scored 25 goals against Kutztown April 8, 1990 in a 21-goal romp.

The six goals by Shane Sturgis were the most by a Penn State player since 2009 when Jack Forster notched the feat vs. St. John's on April 11, 2009. Sturgis tallied seven points in the game, a career high and the most since Forster tallied eight against the Wolverines Feb. 16, 2011. The 15-goal margin was the largest since a 20-4 victory over Stony Brook on April 8, 1995.

THE FIVE-GOAL MAN: TJ SANDERS

Sophomore TJ Sanders scored his fourth five-goal game of his career against Michigan. Sanders' five-goal outing against the Wolverines was the first since April 13, 2013 vs. Towson, a 10-8 Penn State victory. No one else on the current Penn State roster had scored five goals or more in a game until Shane Sturgis scored six against UM.

LIGHTS KAUT

Last season's Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award winner as the nation's top collegiate goalie, senior Austin Kaut will be relied upon as the backbone of the Nittany Lion defense. Kaut registered the nation's third-best goals-against average (7.37), while making a career-best 194 saves. His dominance showed through by making 10 or more saves in 12 games along with three 16-save showings. His .610 save percentage ranked second in the nation en route to CAA Player and Defensive Player of the Year honors.

This season started on a positive note with a six-save, three-goals against showing vs. Michigan on Saturday. Kaut played a shade under 40 minutes before giving way to redshirt-freshman Connor Darcey.

Austin Kaut	W-L	GA	GAA	Sv.	Sv. %
2011	7-7	110	8.19	191	.635
2012	9-6	119	7.93	167	.584
2013	12-5	124	7.37	194	.610
2014	1-0	3	4.53	6	.667
Total	29-18	356	7.75	558	.611

CLIMBING UP THE LEADERBOARD

Austin Kaut has made his stamp in the Penn State record books with the 2014 season remaining. In net, Kaut now ranks fourth all-time in saves with 558. He only needs eight saves to match Kevin Keenan (564, 1996-99) and 13 to catch Joe Guterding (571, 1979-82). Drew Adams (2006-09) is the all-time saves leader with 694. If Kaut continues his career pace of 11.9 saves per game, he'd surpass Adams in mid-April.

HAT TRICK HEROES

The first game of 2014 featured three Nittany Lions who scored a hat trick including a newcomer to the list in Kyle Baier. In all, Penn State features seven scorers who have tallied hat tricks in their careers: TJ Sanders (10 times), Shane Sturgis (7), Tom LaCrosse (3), Gavin Ahern (2), Kyle Baier (1), Kyle VanThof (1) and Steve Aitken (1).

YEAR-TO-YEAR IMPROVEMENT

Penn State's offensive output improved mightily from 2012 to 2013, nearly a two-goal increase. With 80 percent of the starting lineup still intact from last season, those numbers look to improve for the 2014 season.

SCOUTING THE GREYHOUNDS

No. 12 Loyola (0-1) lost a wild heartbreaking 14-13 game at No. 7 Virginia on Thursday, Feb. 6. Loyola trailed 12-4 entering the fourth quarter and proceeded to score the next nine goals to take a 13-12 lead with 17 seconds remaining. Nevertheless, Virginia scored at the buzzer to force overtime and the Wahoos finished the Greyhounds off. Eight different Greyhounds contributed to Loyola's scoring with five scoring two goals apiece. Of the 13 goals, 10 came from the starting attack or starting midfield. Last year's leading scorers, midfielder Matt Sawyer (36 goals in 2013) and Justin Ward (27), tallied two goals and one goal, respectively. The balanced attack featured five Greyhounds with three points Nikko Pontrello, Brian Schultz and Brian Sherlock joining Ward and Sawyer on that list. Freshman midfielder Dennis Romar scored twice off the bench to be named Patriot League Rookie of the Week.

Loyola went 2-for-3 on the extra-man and was 12-for-13 on clears. At the faceoff X, junior Blake Burkhart started, but went 2-for-10 before freshman Graham Savio went 11-for-18 to end the game. Defensively, Loyola is led by U.S. National Team member Joe Fletcher, the only collegiate player on the 30-man roster. In net, Jack Runkel made his 33rd consecutive start, but was pulled after 41:29 of action as he gave up 11 goals and made just three saves. Pat McEnerney allowed three goals, including the game-winner, and made one save. Runkel has a 8.15 collegiate GAA with a .538 save percentage, while boasting a 27-6 record and the 2012 NCAA title.

NEXT TIME OUT: AT NOTRE DAME

Penn State travels to No. 5 Notre Dame with a shot at redemption following last year's 10-9 overtime loss at Holuba Hall. PSU plays its next three games on the road against teams ranked in the top 15: No. 5 Notre Dame, No. 14 Ohio State and No. 4 Denver.

PENN STATE LACROSSE

PENN STATE RANKED IN TOP TEN

Penn State is ranked seventh and ninth by both nationally recognized preseason polls as announced on Monday, Jan. 27. The Warrior/Inside Lacrosse rankings peg Penn State seventh, while the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) has PSU ranked ninth, tying the highest preseason ranking in school history (1992).

The Nittany Lions have continued their rise to national prominence under fourth-year head coach Jeff Tambroni following the program's third NCAA Tournament appearance in 2013. Penn State faces a challenging schedule with six opponents being ranked in each poll.

RUNNING THE GAUNTLET

Penn State will once again feature one of the toughest non-conference schedules in Division I lacrosse. The Nittany Lions face six teams ranked in the USILA Coaches and Warrior/Inside Lacrosse Media polls this season. Using the coaches poll alone, the Nittany Lions see three top 10 teams and five in the top 15. Beginning next week, PSU faces four straight ranked opponents in No. 12 Loyola, No. 5 Notre Dame, No. 14 Ohio State and No. 4 Denver, with the last three of those coming on the road. Just two non-conference games are to be played against unranked teams: Michigan (Saturday) and Dartmouth (March 18). March 22-April 12 presents another set of challenges when No. 10 Albany and No. 20 Villanova come to Happy Valley before PSU hits the road for its only two road CAA games at Drexel and Towson.

NITTANY LIONS PICKED TO WIN CAA AGAIN

Penn State was predicted to win the Colonial Athletic Association for a second straight year it was announced Wednesday afternoon (Jan. 22) in voting conducted by the coaches.

The Nittany Lions, which went 6-0 in CAA play last season and has won its past 11 regular-season games, received 23 points including three first-place votes. Trailing Penn State in the preseason poll was Towson (21 points, 2 first-place votes) and Drexel (18, 1) in second and third, respectively. UMass (12), Hofstra (11) and Delaware (5) rounded out the six-team order.

Penn State's CAA regular-season title was just its second conference trophy (ECAC, 2005) and the first outright championship. The 2014 season will serve as the final year in the CAA before the Nittany Lions enter the Big Ten in 2015. The Nittany Lions will not participate in the CAA Tournament due to conference by-laws pertaining to departing members.

FIVE LIONS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-CAA

Reigning CAA Player and Defensive Player of the Year Austin Kaut was tabbed by the league's coaches to repeat that honor in 2014. Kaut swept the CAA yearly accolades last year before being named the nation's top goalie and Penn State's first USILA All-American first-teamer in over 80 years.

Joining Kaut on the Preseason All-CAA Team are 2013 All-CAA First Team honorees Tom LaCrosse, Steven Bogert and Tyler Travis as well as 2013 All-CAA Second Team pick TJ Sanders. Senior attackman Shane Sturgis and junior close defenseman JP Burnside were two of five honorable mention candidates for the preseason All-CAA team.

The Nittany Lions led all CAA members with five preseason picks followed by Towson (4) and Drexel (2). UMass, Hofstra and Delaware each had one representative on the 14-player list. Including the honorable mentions, PSU led the way with seven laurels with UMass adding two honorable mentions and Drexel having one.

KAUT A PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN

On Dec. 10, senior Austin Kaut was named to the Inside Lacrosse Preseason All-America Second Team. A 2013 first-team USILA All-American honoree, Kaut is a three-time All-CAA First Team goaltender, and was named the Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. winner as the nation's best collegiate goalie. Senior midfielder Tom LaCrosse and sophomore attackman TJ Sanders earned honorable mention from the Inside Lacrosse staff.

CAN A FRESHMAN PHENOM BE A SOPHOMORE SENSATION?

Sophomore TJ Sanders enters 2014 with bigger expectations than a year ago. Sanders, the leading scorer on the team from last season with 44 goals, tied for 15th in the nation in goals per game (2.59) following a stellar freshman season in 2013. Sanders was named the CAA's Rookie of the Year after leading the conference in scoring, while garnering a spot in the All-CAA Second Team, the only freshman recognized on either of the All-CAA teams. Sanders' 2014 season has begun like his 2013 campaign: with a five-goal performance against Michigan.

THE POWER OF 10

Penn State's success last year revolved around the number 10: as in goals scored and goals allowed. When Penn State tallied 10 or more goals the Nittany Lions were 10-2. More importantly, when PSU allowed less than 10 goals, Penn State went an unblemished 11-0. All five losses came when allowing at least 10 goals and only once did Penn State yield a victory (15-12 vs. Denver on Feb. 19). So far this year, Penn State is 1-0 after allowing just seven goals in a victory over Michigan.

WRAPPING UP A HISTORIC 2013 SEASON

The Nittany Lions had one of the finest seasons in the storied history of the program. Penn State set a program record with 12 wins, 17 games played, its first USILA First-Team All-American in over 80 years and the program's first outright conference title. Over the previous two seasons, Penn State has won 21 games, tying the program's most wins in a two-season span (1995-96). Moreover, Penn State earned its first berth in the NCAA Tournament since 2005.

ROAD WINNING STREAK

Most teams fare better at home, but not the Nittany Lions. Penn State excels on the road, especially in true road games. With last year's win at Hofstra to close the regular season, Penn State has ticked off a school-record 12 straight true road wins. In 2013, Penn State went 7-0 on the road after going 5-0 in 2012. The Lions' last road loss was Apr. 30, 2011 at Hofstra. Penn State has won 14 of its last 15 true road games.

WIN STREAK HISTORY

Penn State rattled off the most consecutive wins in NCAA Division I in 2013 with a 10-game streak from March 16 to May 1. The 10-game streak is the longest single-season win streak in PSU history and was just one off the all-time mark. The 1991-92 teams strung together an 11-game win streak from April 20, 1991-April 11, 1992.

VETERAN LEADERSHIP

The senior trio of Gavin Ahern, Tom LaCrosse and Tyler Travis were selected as Penn State men's lacrosse captains announced Tuesday, Oct. 8 by head coach Jeff Tambroni.

LaCrosse was Penn State's top scoring midfielder last year during the Lions' run to the NCAA Tournament. LaCrosse bagged 23 goals, five assists and 28 points en route to an All-CAA First Team selection and a USILA honorable mention All-America nod. During the team's annual awards banquet, LaCrosse was given the Hard Hat Award for his hard work, persistence, work ethic and "blue collar" standard.

Travis has become a reliable shutdown defender for the Nittany Lions that was also an All-CAA First Team honoree in 2013. Tyler forced 14 turnovers, fourth on the team, along with 31 ground ball pickups, which ranked fifth for the Lions. Last season was Travis's first full season with PSU following injuries and will complete his fifth year this season.

Ahern, the 2013 recipient of the inaugural Tom Hayes Nittany Lion Teammate Award, has been the consummate teammate for the Blue and white. As a junior attackman off the bench, Ahern notched six goals, three assists and nine points in 17 appearances. Ahern has 27 career goals along with nine assists in his first three years at Penn State.

COACH TAMBRONI IN YEAR FOUR

Head coach Jeff Tambroni is in his fourth year on the Penn State sidelines, winning 28 games in the past three years and taking the 2013 team to the NCAA Tournament. Tambroni's side ascended to eighth in the USILA poll, the highest ranking ever, and would go on to win 10 straight games at one point. Despite falling in the NCAA Tournament to Yale, Penn State hosted its first ever NCAA Tournament game following the hosting of the entire 2013 CAA Tournament. Tambroni has also led Penn State to three straight top two finishes in the CAA and has a 15-3 regular-season record in the conference in three years. More information on Tambroni and his career can be found on page 8.

TAMBRONI, DOCTOR SET TO COACH AT FIL WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

Head coach Jeff Tambroni and assistant coach Chris Doctor will be assistant coaches for the United States and Iroquois Nationals Teams. Tambroni has been with the U.S. team since 2012 and Doctor was added to the Iroquois side in August. The FIL World Championships are set for July 10-19 in Denver, Colo.

PENN STATERS MAKE 30-MAN U.S. CUT

Two Penn State men's lacrosse alumni will fight for a spot on the U.S. team that goes to the World Championships this July in Denver. Drew Adams ('09) and Matt Mackrides ('12) are among the 30 players left in the candidate pool. In all, 23 members will be on the official roster come July.

PSU WELCOMES 11 NEWCOMERS

Head coach Jeff Tambroni welcomed the newest class of Nittany Lions in August including two transfers. The most experienced of the group is Cole Yeager, a graduate student transfer from Yale who will feature at the faceoff X. Yeager missed 2013 due to injury, but as a sophomore in 2011, ranked fourth in the country with a 64.8 faceoff winning percentage.

Five freshmen were ranked by Inside Lacrosse in the top 100 including 29th-ranked Nick Aponte, 36th-ranked Mike Sutton, 44th-ranked Nick Mazza, 83rd-ranked Lucas Maloney and 100th-ranked Peter Triolo. Rounding out the class are freshmen Billy Lombardi, Dan Craig, Tyler Chambers, Cole Rainier and sophomore transfer Anthony Santo.

LACROSSE GOING BIG TIME

June 3, 2013 will go down as a momentous day in collegiate lacrosse as the Big Ten Conference formally announced the establishment of men's and women's lacrosse as conference sports. The official announcement, which took place at Johns Hopkins University, adds lacrosse with corresponding championships for the 2015 spring season.

The men's Big Ten lacrosse lineup features current Big Ten members Penn State, Ohio State and Michigan, while Rutgers and Maryland join in all sports July 1. Johns Hopkins will join the Big Ten as an associate sport-affiliate member in men's lacrosse only as approved by the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C).

"Our staff is thrilled about the formation of the Big Ten Lacrosse Conference," Head coach Jeff Tambroni said. "It is symbolic of the expansion of our sport and the beginning of an exciting new chapter for Penn State lacrosse. Penn State's men's team will play one final season in the Colonial Athletic Association in 2014 with the formation of a potential Big Ten Conference tournament to be announced at a later date.

FUTURE BIG TEN LACROSSE BY THE NUMBERS

The future Big Ten men's lacrosse conference boasts an impressive number of NCAA Tournament appearances (92), NCAA Tournament victories (120), NCAA semifinal appearances (50) and championships (11) among the six members. This past season alone had Ohio State, Maryland and Penn State in the NCAA Tournament hosting games as the three, six and eight seeds, respectively. Hopkins, which had made 41 straight NCAA appearances before 2013, has nine NCAA titles to its name as the most storied program in lacrosse history. The Blue Jays have won a total of 44 national championships since 1898 when including victories prior to the NCAA lacrosse era, which began in 1972.

JEFF TAMBRONI

Head Coach • Fourth Year
HOBART '92

PENN STATE RECORD 29-18 (.617)
OVERALL RECORD 138-58 (.704)

2009 USILA DIVISION I COACH OF THE YEAR
2011 CAA CO-COACH OF THE YEAR
2013 CAA COACH OF THE YEAR

Jeff Tambroni completed his third season in 2013 by leading the Nittany Lions to one of their greatest seasons in program history while celebrating its 100th season. The Nittany Lions set new records for wins (12) and earned the program's first outright regular season conference title by sweeping the CAA with a 6-0 record. PSU rattled off 10 straight wins during the months of March, April and May to earn the school's third NCAA bid and first chance to host an NCAA game.

Tambroni was named CAA Coach of the Year for the second time in his career (2011), while goalkeeper Austin Kaut (under Tambroni's tutelage) was named Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award for the nation's best goalie. Also, Kaut was CAA Player and Defensive Player of the Year. Freshman TJ Sanders was named Rookie of the Year and the Nittany Lions placed six on the All-CAA First Team.

During the 2012 campaign, Tambroni led the Nittany Lions to a second-place CAA finish with two USILA All-Americans and six All-CAA honorees. Penn State finished with a 9-6 overall record and a 5-1 mark in conference action.

The 2011 CAA Co-Coach of the Year, Tambroni led the Nittany Lions to a 7-7 record and their first-ever CAA tournament berth during his first year at the program's helm.

In 2011, eight Nittany Lions garnered All-CAA recognition and freshman goalkeeper Austin Kaut earned Rookie of the Year honors while being named a USILA Honorable Mention All-American.

Prior to Penn State, Tambroni spent 10 seasons as head coach at Cornell (2001-10). He guided the Big Red to a 109-40 record and three NCAA Final Four appearances (2007, 2009-10), including the 2009 national championship game.

Tambroni was named USILA Division I Coach of the Year following the 2009 season and was tabbed the 2007 and 2009 Field Turf/ NCAA Division I Coach of the Year. Tambroni was also the 2004 and 2009 Ithaca Journal Male Coach of the Year and a three-time National Coach of the Week.

While at Cornell, Tambroni became the 10th-fastest coach to reach the 100-win mark when he accomplished the feat in his 134th career game in March 2010.

During his tenure, his players earned 37 first-team All-Ivy honors, including five Ivy League awards, and three conference Rookie of the Year selections. In addition, 39 players garnered All-America recognition.

Prior to serving as Cornell's head coach, he spent four seasons as a Big Red assistant coach (1997-2000). Tambroni also served as assistant coach at Loyola College in 1997 and at his alma mater, Hobart College, for three seasons. With the Statesmen, he helped the program reach the 1994 NCAA Division III national championship game.

A 1992 graduate, Tambroni earned his bachelor's degree in American studies. He earned first-team All-America honors as a senior and was twice named a second-team All-American (1990-91). The MVP of the 1990 NCAA title game, Tambroni helped lead the team to back-to-back NCAA championships (1990-91) and left Hobart tied for seventh on the school's all-time scoring list with 202 points.

Before embarking upon his collegiate coaching career, Tambroni coached the Heaton Mersey Lacrosse Club of the English Lacrosse Union for one year and served as a visiting coach for the Czech-American Lacrosse Foundation in Prague in the summer of 1996.

Tambroni and his wife, Michelle, have three daughters, Carissa, Madison and Ella. Michelle played field hockey at Penn State from 1988-90 and earned All-America honors as a senior.
