NITTANY LIONS OPEN SEASON IN IRELAND AGAINST UCF

A number of firsts will take place when Penn State travels to Dublin, Ireland to face UCF in the Croke Park Classic on Saturday, Aug. 30 at 8:30 a.m. ET. It will be the beginning of the James Franklin era and mark the first international contest in Penn State's 128-year football history.

This will be the fourth meeting between the Nittany Lions and Knights on the football field, with Penn State looking to reverse last season's 34-31 loss at Beaver Stadium. Penn State claimed the first two on-field meetings with UCF in 2002 and 2004.

The Blue and White enter the 2014 season opener with seven returning starters on both offense and defense. Sophomore quarterback Christian Hackenberg will look to add to his impressive freshman campaign that saw him throw for 2,955 yards and 20 touchdowns. A talented running back corps returns in seniors Bill Belton and Zach Zwinak, along with sophomore Akeel Lynch, and a deep and athletic tight end corps will look to help a youthful, but gifted, wide receivers unit that will need to replace two-time Big Ten Receiver of the Year Allen Robinson, who was a second round pick of the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Senior linebacker Mike Hull will captain an experienced defense from the middle linebacker post after ranking second on the team with 78 tackles last season. Adrian Amos and Jordan Lucas return to lead the secondary, while C.J. Olanijan and Deion Barnes are just two members of a talented and tenacious defensive front.

UCF also returns the bulk of its roster for 2014, but will have to replace quarterback Blake Bortles, who was the No. 3 overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft, and NFL-bound running back Storm Johnson and a trio of offensive linemen. The Knights posted a 12-1 overall mark in 2013 and defeated Baylor, 52-42, in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl to earn their first AP top-10 finish in school history (No. 10).

The Knights return a talented corps of wide receivers return, led by Ranell Hall, J.J. Worton and Breshad Perriman. The trio combined for 143 catches, over 2,400 yards and 16 touchdowns. Running the offense will be redshirt freshman Pete DiNovo, who was named the starter midway through fall camp by head coach George O'Leary.

Penn State departs late Tuesday evening and returns Saturday evening. The Nittany Lions will practice at University College Dublin.

James Franklin, a Pennsylvania native who is one of the nation's most successful and dynamic coaches, is in his first season as the Penn State head football coach.

Franklin was named the 16th head football coach in the storied 128-year history of the Nittany Lion program on January 11, 2014.

The enthusiastic and passionate Franklin led Vanderbilt University to unprecedented success as head coach from 2011-13, winning nine games in each of the past two years, finishing in the Top 25 and winning bowl games in consecutive seasons, all for the first time in school history.

From Langhorne, Pa., a Philadelphia suburb, Franklin vowed to "Dominate The State" during his introductory news conference in Beaver Stadium. He has electrified Nittany Nation with his passion and vision for the program and ability to recruit premier student-athletes from across the nation. Franklin assembled a coaching staff that features a record of success and tremendous chemistry and familiarity with each other, Penn State and the region.

From Day 1, Franklin has reinforced the four core values for the Penn State program to return to national championship contention — a positive attitude, great work-ethic, competing on and off the field and the ability to sacrifice.

Penn State and Vanderbilt annually rank among the nation's top institutions in the graduation of its football student-athletes. In the NCAA Graduation Success Rate data from October 2013, the Nittany Lions and Commodores both ranked among the leaders in the Football Bowl Subdivision. Penn State's 85 percent Graduation Success Rate was tied for 12th among the nation's 124 FBS programs and Vanderbilt's 82 percent GSR was tied for the best in the Southeastern Conference. Both programs were well above the 70 percent FBS graduation rate average.

Franklin's tireless efforts and enthusiasm resulted in taking Vanderbilt to new heights over the past three years, posting a 24-15 record, including marks of 9-4 during each of the past two seasons, capped by bowl victories. The Commodores finished the 2013 season with five consecutive victories, with wins over Florida, Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky in Southeastern Conference play, along with a win over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl. Franklin's 2012 squad finished the season with seven consecutive victories and posted Vanderbilt's first nine-win season since 1915.

A two-time All-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) quarterback at East Stroudsburg University, Franklin has demonstrated the ability to recruit, teach and motivate talented student-athletes throughout his coaching tenure. He was named Vanderbilt's head coach on December 17, 2010 after three years as the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Maryland, his second stint with the Terps. Franklin was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Kansas State in 2006-07 and the wide receivers coach of the NFL's Green Bay Packers (2005) prior to arriving in Nashville.

Just days before he was named the Nittany Lions' head coach, the engaging and highly-detailed Franklin spent the day in Pasadena, Calif., appearing on multiple ESPN platforms throughout the day during the network's coverage of the BCS National Championship Game in the Rose Bowl.

Following spring practice and individual meetings with every player, Franklin spent a good portion of May criss-crossing the Commonwealth and Mid-Atlantic region on the Penn State Coaches Caravan. Attending all 17 Caravan events, Franklin met and spoke with more than 6,000 Penn State alumni, students, fans and former players in Maryland, New Jersey, New York and Washington, D.C. He did more than 50 interviews with local and national media over the three weeks to assist in introducing himself to Penn Staters and potential recruits and spreading his core values and vision of Penn State football.

In his 20th year in coaching, Franklin directed Vanderbilt to consecutive Top 25 finishes for the first time in the 124-year history of the program. The Commodores finished the 2013 season No. 24 in the Associated Press poll and No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches survey. The 2012 Vanderbilt squad finished No. 23 and 20, respectively, marking its first AP final ranking since 1948. Franklin's 24 wins tied Dan McGugin for the most by a Vanderbilt coach in his first three seasons.

Franklin led Vanderbilt to a bowl game in each of his three seasons in Nashville, with the last two years resulting in wins over North Carolina State (Music City Bowl) and Houston (BBVA Compass Bowl). The Commodores had played in four bowl games all-time in the 121 seasons prior to his arrival, none in consecutive years.

Vanderbilt has posted four nine-win seasons in program history, with Franklin's last two teams comprising half of the total. Over the last 20 games during the 2012-13 seasons, the Commodores' 16-4 record was second-best in the SEC to Alabama's 17-3 mark.

Franklin inherited a Vanderbilt team that finished 2-10 in both 2009 and 2010, including a 1-15 SEC mark. From 1983-2010, the Commodores had just one winning season (2008) prior to his arrival. His drive, coaching acumen and enthusiasm drove a quick turnaround in Vanderbilt's fortunes, as the team posted a 6-6 regular-season record and earned a berth in the Liberty Bowl during his first season. The 2011 bowl berth was Vanderbilt's second since 1983 and running back Zac Stacy broke the Vanderbilt season record with 1,193 rushing yards.

The Commodores had a breakthrough campaign in 2012 under Franklin, finishing on a seven-game winning streak (longest since 1948) to compile a 9-4 mark, Vanderbilt's most wins in 97 years. A victory at Missouri sparked an 8-1 finish, which included three consecutive SEC road wins for the first time in program history. The Commodores were 5-3 in SEC play, winning five SEC games for the first time since 1935, and recorded two shutouts for the first time since 1968. Vanderbilt defeated North Carolina State, 38-24, in the Liberty Bowl and Franklin was among five finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach-of-the-Year. Stacy became the first player in Vanderbilt history to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons, gaining 1,141 yards to finish with a school-record 3,143 yards and 30 rushing touchdowns. Stacy started 12 games and ran for 973 yards and seven touchdowns as a rookie with the St. Louis Rams in 2013. Wide receiver Jordan Matthews broke the Vanderbilt season receiving record with 1,363 yards on 94 catches.

Vanderbilt continued its historic rise under Franklin during the 2013 season, capping a school-record second consecutive 9-4 campaign with a 41-24 win over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl. The Commodores defeated Florida, Georgia and Tennessee in the same season for the first time in program history, winning in Gainesville and Knoxville, and finished 4-4 in the SEC. Franklin helped Matthews develop into a two-time All-American and first-team All-SEC honoree, having compiled 262 career receptions for 3,759 yards and 24 touchdowns. He broke the SEC season record with 112 receptions for 1,477 yards and seven touchdowns this past season, becoming the first SEC receiver to make 100 catches in a season. Tackle Wesley Johnson also earned first-team All-SEC honors from the coaches and the Associated Press.

Franklin began his coaching career as the wide receivers coach at Kutztown University (1995) and was a graduate assistant coach at East Stroudsburg in 1996, working with the secondary. He then was the wide receivers coach at James Madison (1997), a graduate assistant (tight ends) at Washington State in 1998 and the wide receivers coach at Idaho State (1999).

In 2000, Franklin was named the wide receivers coach at Maryland under head coach Ron Vanderlinden, who would go on to coach the Penn State linebackers from 2001-13. Franklin continued in that role under new head coach Ralph Friedgen in 2002 and '03 and helped the Terps to three consecutive 10-win seasons, including an appearance in the 2002 FedEx Orange Bowl. In 2003, Franklin added duties as recruiting coordinator and directed back-to-back recruiting classes ranked in the Top 25 nationally. Franklin and former Nittany Lion head coach Bill O'Brien (running backs) were Maryland assistant coaches in 2003 and '04 under Friedgen.

After five successful years at Maryland, Franklin was named wide receivers coach on Mike Sherman's Green Bay Packers staff in 2005. During that season, Green Bay ranked third in the NFL in receptions (383) and seventh in receiving yards (3,766). Donald Driver was among the top receivers in the NFL, ranking second in receptions and eighth in receiving yards, with a then-career-high 86 catches for 1,221 yards.

Franklin served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Kansas State during the 2006-07 seasons under head coach Ron Prince. In 2006, he helped the Wildcats to their first winning season in four years. Franklin coached quarterback Josh Freeman and oversaw an offense that produced a 3,000-yard passer (Freeman), 1,500-yard receiver (All-American wide receiver Jordy Nelson) and 1,000-yard rusher (James Johnson) during the 2007 season, a first in school history. Freeman would go on to become the Wildcats' highest NFL offensive draft pick since 1954 when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected him 17th overall in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Franklin returned to Maryland in 2008 as the Terps' assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He helped the Terrapins to victories in the 2008 Humanitarian Bowl and the 2010 Military Bowl. The 2010 squad was among the national leaders in scoring offense at 32.2 points per game and was led by ACC Rookie-of-the-Year quarterback Danny O'Brien. He threw for 2,438 yards, 22 touchdowns and only eight interceptions in 2010, with All-ACC receiver Torrey Smith making 67 catches for 1,055 yards and 12 scores.

In 1998, Franklin began his participation in the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, starting with a stint with the Miami Dolphins and working with Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Franklin also worked with Donovan McNabb with the Philadelphia Eagles (1999) and Minnesota Vikings (2008) in the NFL program.

Franklin was a four-year letterman at quarterback and a two-time All-PSAC selection at East Stroudsburg. He set seven school records as a senior to earn team MVP honors and was a Harlon Hill Trophy nominee as the NCAA Division II Player-of-the-Year. Among the season records he set were for total offense (3,128 yards), passing yards (2,586) and touchdown passes (19). Franklin graduated having broken or tied 23 school records.

Franklin graduated from East Stroudsburg in 1995 with a degree in psychology and earned a master's degree in educational leadership from Washington State University. Franklin graduated from Neshaminy High School in Langhorne.

Franklin and his wife, Fumi (foo-ME), have two daughters, Ava and Addison.

TEAM CAPTAINS

Penn State head football coach James Franklin announced on Aug. 13 that seven Nittany Lions were elected co-captains by their teammates and the coaching staff. Two offensive and two defensive co-captains were elected and three special teams co-captains were elected.

The defensive co-captains are senior linebacker Mike Hull and senior defensive end C.J. Olaniyan.

The offensive co-captains are senior guard Miles Dieffenbach and quarterback Christian Hackenberg, who becomes the first sophomore to be selected a Penn State football captain.

The special teams co-captains are senior safeties Jesse Della Valle and Ryan Keiser and senior placekicker Sam Ficken.

"The players and the coaches voted on the team captains and these players have clearly earned the respect of their teammates and coaches," Franklin said. "We are trying to promote and develop leadership throughout the entire program and I'm really excited about the role our captains will have throughout the season."

The seven co-captains are tied for the most in Penn State's illustrious 128 years of varsity football with the 1976 squad coached by Joe Paterno. The 1991 squad featured six captains.

Hackenberg, the 2013 Big Ten Freshman of the Year, is the second-youngest Nittany Lion to be named a team captain. Freshman John Chuckran was the captain of the 1944 squad during World War II.

UCF NEWS & NOTES

UCF HEAD COACH GEORGE O'LEARY

George O'Leary is in his 18th season as a head coach and his 11th season as the leader of the UCF program. He owns a career record of 124-89 and is 72-56 as head coach of the Knights.

O'Leary was the head coach at Georgia Tech from 1994-2001, where he led the Yellow Jackets to five straight bowl game appearances. He took the head job at UCF in 2004.

He helped Tech earn the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship in 1998.

Last season, O'Leary guided UCF to new heights with a school record 12 wins - seven coming away from Orlando - and a nine-game winning streak which is still active heading into 2014. UCF was undefeated in conference play for the first time (8-0) en route to the outright AAC title.

The 2013 squad posted UCF's first two wins over top-10 teams (No. 8/6 Louisville and No. 6/5 Baylor) captured the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl with a 52-42 triumph over Big 12 champion Baylor. The Fiesta Bowl win helped O'Leary's program grab their first top-10 ranking by placing 10th in the final AP Top 25 Poll.

Prior to joining the AAC, O'Leary helped UCF to the Conference USA East Division Championship four times. The Knights also won the Conference USA Championship Game twice (2007, 2010).

SCOUTING THE KNIGHTS

UCF may have lost starting quarterback Blake Bortles and running back Storm Johnson, but they return 49 letterwinners and 15 starters (9 Defense, 6 Offense) from a squad that went 12-1 and won the Fiesta Bowl.

The offense was hit hardest with departures after 2013, with Bortles, Johnson and a trio of offensive linemen off to the NFL, but a talented corps of wide receivers return, led by Ranell Hall, J.J. Worton and Breshad Perriman. The trio combined for 143 catches, over 2,400 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Sophomore William Stanback will lead the rushing attack in to 2014 after gaining 443 yards on 105 carries (4.2 ypc) and six scores.

Running the offense will be redshirt freshman Pete DiNovo, who was named the starter midway through fall camp by head coach George O'Leary. DiNovo hasn't thrown a pass for the Knights, but was the Scout Team Player of the Year in 2013 and the 2012 Tampa Bay Times Suncoast Player of the Year as a senior at East Lake High School.

The defense returns nearly all of the major players from last season's 12-1 squad, including the top two tackles on the squad in linebacker Terrance Plummer (110 tkls) and safety Clayton Geathers (100 tkls).

Placekicker and leading scorer Shawn Moffitt is back in 2014 and will look to build off of a season that saw him set a single season school record by hitting 91-percent of his field goal tries. He was 21-of-23 on field goals and hit all 49 of his extra point tries to total 112 points.

LAST MEETING

The two teams met at Beaver Stadium for the third time in the short history of the series, but UCF's 34-31 victory over Penn State was not short on memorable moments.

Penn State trailed 21-10 at halftime and entered the fourth quarter behind 31-17 before mounting a comeback that fell just short.

Zach Zwinak piled up 147 all purpose yards and scored three rushing touchdowns and quarterback Christian Hackenberg was 21-of-28 passing for 262 yards and a touchdown, but it wasn't enough in Penn State's first loss of the season.

Of Hackenberg's passing totals, 143 of those yards came on nine catches by Allen Robinson. The duo also connected on a touchdown with 2:51 left in the game to pull the score within a field goal at 34-31, but the Knights ran the clock out behind a strong rushing performance from Storm Johnson.

Johnson ended the game with 117 yards rushing, including a 58-yard touchdown run. Quarterback Blake Bortles threw for three scores and totaled 288 passing yards.

FIRST TIME TRAVELERS

Although many of the players on the Penn State football team have done their fair share of traveling, this will be the first time that a major portion of the squad will travel outside of North America.

Approximately 85-percent of the players that comprise the Nittany Lions' roster will be making their first trip outside of North America when the team plane departs for Dublin, Ireland and the Croke Park Classic.

PSU-UCF COACHING CONNECTIONS

Penn State offensive coordinator/tight ends coach John Donovan worked with UCF head coach George O'Leary for three years at Georgia Tech as an offensive graduate assistant from 1998-2000. Donovan also worked with former Penn State head coach Bill O'Brien while on O'Leary's staff at Georgia Tech.

During that time, the Yellow Jackets made three straight bowl appearances and claimed a share of the 1998 ACC championship with a 10-2 overall record.

Penn State head coach James Franklin and Donovan both worked with UCF offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Charlie Taaffe while at Maryland from 2001-04. Taaffe served as the OC/QB coach, while Franklin coached the Terrapins wide receivers. Donovan was the programs recruiting coordinator.

Josh Gattis will look across the field at two familiar faces, in UCF special teams coach Mike Buscemi and tight ends coach Allen Mogridge. While Gattis was an offensive graduate assistant and wide receivers coach at North Carolina in 2010 he worked with Buscemi (offensive quality control) and Mogridge (tight ends/recruiting coordinator).

Terry Smith also worked with Mogridge, with the two serving on the offensive staff at Temple in 2013. Smith coached the wide receivers and Mogridge tutored the offensive line for the Owls.

ACROSS THE POND FOR SEASON-OPENER

Penn State will play its first international game since the program's 1887 inception when it opens the season against UCF in the Croke Park Classic on August 30 in Dublin, Ireland. The contest will be played at Croke Park, the headquarters of the Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA), and will have a capacity of 69,000 for the contest.

UCF also will be playing in its first international game. The Knights were 12-1 last season, defeating Baylor in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, and finishing No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll.

The Penn State-UCF contest will be the eighth American college football game held in Ireland. The last American football game hosted in Croke Park was in 1996 when Notre Dame played Navy. The Irish and Middies played in Dublin's Aviva Stadium to open the 2012 season.

Penn State will be the first Big Ten Conference team to play internationally since Michigan State and Wisconsin met in Tokyo in the 1993 regular-season finale.

2013 COIN TOSS COMMEMORATED CROKE PARK CLASSIC

When Penn State hosted UCF at Beaver Stadium in 2012, officials from Ireland's Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA) and Croke Park Stadium attended the contest to continue their planning for the 2014 Croke Park Classic between the two schools.

Among the dignitaries visiting Happy Valley were Páraic Duffy, GAA Director General and Dan Rooney, the Pittsburgh Steelers' team chairman and former U.S. Ambassador to Ireland. Duffy and Rooney participated in pregame the coin toss.

The winning team in the Croke Park Classic will earn the Dan Rooney Trophy. The Dan Rooney Trophy is a replica football made of bog yew and Pittsburgh steel. The yew comes from what remains of forests which grew six to seven thousand years ago and lie deep in the Irish midlands.

The steel is from Heinz Field, home of the National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL ON THE EMERALD ISLE

When Penn State and UCF land in at Dublin Airport, they will begin preparations for the eighth college football game ever played in Ireland.

- This will mark the eighth overall college football game played in Ireland, with five of them taking place in Dublin (*), one in Galway (#) and one in Limerick (^).

SIX BOWL TEAMS ON 2014 SCHEDULE

The Nittany Lions will face six teams that played in bowl games last year, with three of those games played at Beaver Stadium, two on the road and one at a neutral site.

- Penn State will open the season with the Croke Park Classic in Dublin, Ireland against UCF, which won the Fiesta Bowl over Baylor in 2013.
- Among the teams coming to Beaver Stadium this fall are 2013 bowl teams: Ohio State (Orange), Maryland (Military) and Michigan State (Rose).
- The Nittany Lions will travel to take on 2013 bowl attendees Michigan (Buffalo Wide Wings) and Rutgers (PinStripe).

ZWINAK IN RARE AIR AMONG LION RUSHERS

Senior running back Zach Zwinak won't blow you away with his 40 time, but he will bowl you over on his way to another first down or one of his 18 career touchdowns.

After making just three runs during his freshman season, Zwinak has been a workhorse for the Nittany Lions over the past two seasons and is closing in on some significant milestones entering 2014.

Records Watch on Page 15.

- Zwinak enters the season just four yards shy of becoming the 18th player in school history to eclipse the 2,000-yard barrier in a career.
- He currently ranks tied for 10th in school history with 11 games over 100-yards rushing (Dozier). He notched six 100-yard game in 2012 and added five such efforts in 2013.
- His 12 rushing touchdowns in 2013 are tied for ninth on the single season charts and marked the first double-digit rushing TD season since 2008 (Royster).
- Zwinak has posted eight of his 11 100-yard rushing games in November.
- He enters the season with 18 career rushing touchdowns and is just two shy of becoming the 18th player with 20 career rushing scores.

FIFTEEN NITTANY LION STARTERS RETURN

The Nittany Lions return 15 starters — seven on defense, seven on offense and placekicker Sam Ficken. Six additional defensive players and three more offensive players also have starting experience.

Among the Nittany Lions' returning starters are seven players who earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition last season: safety Adrian Amos, placekicker Sam Ficken, quarterback Christian Hackenberg, tight end Jesse James, cornerback Jordan Lucas, defensive end C.J. Olaniyan and tackle Donovan Smith.

BELTON, ZWINAK EACH OVER 1,000 CAREER YARDS ENTERING 2014

Seniors Bill Belton and Zach Zwinak both enter the 2014 campaign among the elite runners in Penn State history. The duo has 14 combined 100-yard rushing efforts and over 3,000-yards rushing combined over the last three seasons.

Records Watch on Page 15.

- Only 41 players in Penn State history have totaled 1,000 career rushing yards. Zwinak (1,996) and Belton (1,131) are both among that group.
- Zwinak enters the season just four yards shy of becoming the 18th player in school history to eclipse the 2,000-yard barrier in a career.
- Belton currently ranks 35th in school history with 1,131 rushing yards and is just 200-yards shy of moving into the top-20 in Penn State history.
- The duo has combined for 14 career 100-yard rushing games. Belton has three such efforts, including becoming the 15th PSU player with 200-yard in a game vs. Illinois in 2013, while Zwinak ranks tied for 10th in school history with 11 games over 100-yards rushing.

PENN STATE RETURNS 40 LETTERMEN

Penn State returns 40 lettermen from last year's 7-5 squad — 23 on defense, 15 on offense and two specialists. Of the 40 lettermen returning, 23 have starting experience — 13 on defense, eight on offense and the starting placekicker.

The Nittany Lions have lost the services of 19 letterwinners — 13 on offense, five on defense and one specialist.

HACKENBERG LOOKS TO BUILD OFF STRONG ROOKIE CAMPAIGN

Quarterback Christian Hackenberg impressed everyone with his abilities and moxie during his freshman campaign in 2013. The second-year signal caller will look to build on his impressive rookie campaign when the season begins against UCF.

Records Watch on Page 15.

- Hackenberg completed 231-of-392 passes (59 percent), for 2,955 passing yards and 20 touchdown passes in 12 starts last season.
- He broke the Penn State freshman single game record for passing yards twice in 2013. He threw for 340 yards at Indiana on Oct. 5 after a 311-yard effort against Eastern Michigan on Sept. 7. Zack Mills twice threw for 280 yards (Ohio State & Southern Miss) during his freshman year in 2001.
- His nine games with at least 200 yards broke Mills' freshman record of five from the 2001 season. He currently ranks tied for eighth with Todd Blackledge and Wally Richardson in career 200-yard passing games in career.
- He is one of only four quarterbacks in PSU history to post multiple 300-plus yard passing games in career, ranking tied for second with Kerry Collins in school history with four such games. Hackenberg trails Matt McGloin (six) on the career 300-yard passing games list.
- Hackenberg's 55 passing attempts at Indiana in 2013 marked just the fourth time in PSU history a signal caller amassed 50 passing attempts in a game. It broke Collins' school record of 54 in 1992 at BYU.
- Eight of his 20 scoring strikes were 45 yards or longer, including a career-long 68 touchdown pass to Adam Breneman in the 2013 season finale at Wisconsin.
- He ranked second in the Big Ten and is 35th in the nation in completions per game (19.25) and was third and 34th, respectively, in passing yards per game (2246.3).
- Hackenberg has thrown for at least 250 yards in five of the team's 11 games, including three 300-yard efforts, and
- He had 14 completions of 40-plus yards or longer in 2013, which tied for eighth nationally. That total was also tied for tops among freshman quarterbacks in the NCAA (Winston, FSU).
- On the awards front, Hackenberg is a preseason candidate for the Maxwell and O'Brien Awards.
- In 2013 he was named the Big Ten Thompson-Randle El Freshman of the Year, earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week five times and garnered Freshman All-American honors from Athlon Sports, Phil Steele's College Football and CollegeFootballNews.com.

LIONS BACKFIELD PRIMED FOR SUCCESS

When Penn State takes the field at Croke Park in Dublin, Ireland the Nittany Lions will have one of the most formidable backfields in the Big Ten.

Among the components will be a pair of career 1,000-yard backs, a sophomore that averaged six yards per carry, the star of the 2014 Blue-White Game and a stable of highly touted rookies.

Seniors Zach Zwinak and Bill Belton headline the group, while sophomores Akeel Lynch and Cole Chiappialle had strong showings in the spring and fall.

They will also have four other experienced returnees and a rookie trio of Mark Allen, Nick Scott and Johnathan Thomas.

- Belton, Lynch and Zwinak all posted 100-yard rushing games in 2013. The last time Penn State had three 100-yard rushers in the same season was during the 2007 season when senior Rodney Kinlaw, freshman Evan Royster and senior Austin Scott all delivered such games.

- Zwinak enters the season just four yards shy of cracking the 2,000 career yard mark. The senior has 1,996 yards in his career to rank 18th on the all-time list. He also ranks tied for 10th in Penn State history with 11 100-yard rushing games.
- Belton became the 41st player in school history to rush for 1,000 career yards in 2013 and currently ranks 35th on the PSU charts with 1,131 rushing yards.
- Belton and Lynch both posted 100-yards rushing against Eastern Michigan in 2013 to mark the 32nd time in program history Penn State had two 100-yard rushers in the same game. It was the first time since 2010 against Northwestern that two players topped the 100-yard rushing mark.

CARTER INDUCTED INTO ROSE BOWL HALL OF FAME

Penn State All-American running back Ki-Jana Carter has been selected for induction into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2014, joining legendary coaches Knute Rockne and Dick Vermell. Carter was a key member of the 1995 Rose Bowl Championship squad that capped off a perfect 12-0 season with a 38-20 win over Oregon on Jan. 2, 1995.

Coach Joe Paterno's 1994 squad, led by first-team All-Americans Carter, Kyle Brady, Kerry Collins, Bobby Engram and Jeff Hartings, will be recognized at the home-opener against Akron on Saturday, Sept. 6 as part of their 20-year reunion. Kickoff is set for noon at Beaver Stadium for Coach James Franklin's first home game.

- Carter finished second in the 1994 Heisman Trophy voting (Rashaan Salaam, Colorado) and was consensus first-team All-American, earned co-MVP honors in the Rose Bowl after rushing for 156 yards and three touchdowns on 21 carries.
- He ran for an 83-yard touchdown on the first offensive play of the game, which is the third-longest run in Rose Bowl history and the longest run in Penn State bowl history.
- The 1994 Nittany Lions won their first Big Ten Championship in just their second year in the conference.
- Penn State became the first Big Ten team to post a perfect 12-0 mark, making the Nittany Lions the first conference team to post an unblemished record since the 1968 Ohio State team.
- Carter's Rose Bowl performance capped an outstanding junior season in which he finished fourth nationally in rushing (139.9), second in scoring (10.8 ppg) and fifth in all-purpose yardage (158.4). His 1,539 yards rushing in 1994 remains the third-best season total in Penn State history, and 23 touchdowns are tied for second to Lydell Mitchell's 29 TDs in 1971.
- Carter opted to forego his final season of eligibility to enter the NFL Draft and became the first Nittany Lion to be chosen No. 1 overall when he was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals. He spent six seasons with the Bengals (1995-00), two years with Washington (2001-02) and two seasons with the New Orleans Saints (2003-04).
- He still among Penn State's all-time Top 10 in rushing (9th) with 2,829 yards in his three seasons.
- The Rose Bowl Hall of Fame was established in 1989 and the Induction Ceremony will take place on December 30 at the Pasadena Convention Center, two days before the 101st Rose Bowl Game presented by Northwestern Mutual.

FICKEN NEARS RECORD BOOKS AFTER SUCCESSFUL 2013 SEASON

There aren't many people who would have believed that Sam Ficken would be among the top kickers in Penn State history after a five-miss game at Virginia in 2012.

However, entering his senior season Ficken has already set two school records and is approaching rare company on a pair of scoring lists.

Records Watch on Page 15.

- Ficken connected on a then-career-long 47-yard field goal in the second quarter against UCF to mark his 15th consecutive successful FG attempt, which is now the school standard. Ficken made his final 10 attempts of 2012 and then connected on his first five field goals in 2013 to break Craig Fayak's previous mark of 13 straight makes in 1992.
- One of just 11 Nittany Lions to convert 30 career field goals, Ficken is just five successful tries away from moving into the top-10 on career field goals made. His 30 field goals trail only Chris Bahr's 35 from 1973-75 for 10th on the career list.
- Ficken is just 20 points shy of pushing his name into the top-15 in school history in points scored. He has 171 points in his career, making 30 field goals and 81 extra points.
- Ficken again wrote his name into the Penn State record books on Sept. 21 vs. Kent State when he converted a career-best 54-yard field goal. His effort was the longest field goal by a Penn State player in home game history and tied for fifth in the NCAA in 2012.
- The 54-yard field goal also ranks tied for fourth on the career charts with Herb Menhardt (1979) and trails only three 55-yard conversions by Chris Bahr in 1975. The other four field goals all came on the road.

HULL AMONG PRESEASON SELECTIONS FOR BUTKUS AWARD

Senior linebacker Mike Hull was selected as one of 51 players named to the Butkus Award Preseason Watch List.

Presented annually to the nation's top linebacker since 1985, "Linebacker U." All-Americans LaVar Arrington (1999) and Paul Posluszny (2005) are former winners of the Butkus Award.

Hull was second on the team with 78 tackles (44 solo) last year despite missing two full games and most of two others due to injury. He added 4.5 tackles for loss, 0.5 sacks, one forced and one recovered fumble.

NEUTRAL SITE

Since 1974, Penn State has played 34 neutral site contests and owns an on-field of 28-5-1 in games played on a neutral field.

Here are a few quick note regarding the Nittany Lions' neutral site history.

- Seven times Penn State has opened their season in a neutral site contest. The Nittany Lions are 6-2 in those contests.
- The 2014 season will mark the second time in program history Penn State will play consecutive season openers at a neutral site. The last was '77 & '78 seasons.
- The Croke Park Classic will mark the first international contest in Penn State football's 128-year history.
- Penn State will be the first Big Ten Conference team to play internationally since Michigan State and Wisconsin met in Tokyo in the 1993 regular-season finale.

UPLIFTING ATHLETES

The 12th Annual Penn State Uplifting Athletes "Lift For Life" was a tremendous success on Saturday, raising the 2014 total to a record $140,000 and the cumulative total to nearly $1 million to benefit the Kidney Cancer Association.

More than 100 members of Coach James Franklin's squad participated in Saturday's Lift For Life, breaking their fundraising efforts record for the sixth consecutive year, surpassing the 2013 event total of $133,506.

More than $990,000 have been raised in the battle against rare diseases by Penn State Uplifting Athletes since the inaugural Lift For Life was held in 2003. The inaugural event raised just under $13,000. The last four Penn State Lift For Life events have all raised in excess of $100,000, pushing the cumulative total to the brink of $1 million.

Contributions to Penn State Uplifting Athletes in the fight against kidney cancer for 2013-14 will be accepted through September 30. Fans can make a Lift For Life donation by visiting the Penn State Uplifting Athletes donation page at:

<http://give.upliftingathletes.org/psliftforlife2014>

The Penn State Lift For Life was held outdoors at the Penn State Lacrosse Field for the third consecutive year, with approximately 2,500 fans in attendance. The offense posted a 30-24 victory over the defense during the seven strength and conditioning competitions. The competitions included a 225-pound bench max, dead lift, sled push, tire flip, shuttle, tug run and the tug of war. The defense won two of the three tug-of-war battles to conclude the event.

The 2014 Penn State Lift For Life included a kids clinic for the first time, which was run by the Nittany Lion freshmen football student-athletes. The event concluded with an autograph session with team. Members of the Penn State men's basketball and women's volleyball teams attended the event to support Penn State football. Uplifting Athletes also partnered with the State College Spikes to raise funds at one of their home games.

In addition, the Success With Honor organization coordinated all the volunteers at the Penn State Lift For Life.

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has approved eight new therapies for the treatment of kidney cancer in the U.S. since the first Lift For Life in 2003. The Kidney Cancer Association has credited the Penn State Lift For Life as being a catalyst for the new treatments, according to Scott Shirley, Uplifting Athletes Executive Director.

Founded by Penn State Football teammates Scott Shirley, Dave Costlow and Damone Jones in 2003, Lift For Life has continued to build awareness and raise funds for the Kidney Cancer Association.

The event is organized by Penn State Football Uplifting Athletes, whose members are on the Penn State football team, led this year by Ben Kline, president of the chapter. Joining Kline as chapter officers are: running back Deron Thompson (vice president); tight end Adam Breneman (secretary); tight end Jesse James (director of marketing); running back Akeel Lynch (compliance manager) and tight end Brent Wilkerson (director of fundraising). Former football squad members and current Penn State students Joe Marvin (treasurer) and Bryce Wilson (director of operations) also are officers.

About Uplifting Athletes: Uplifting Athletes is a full-service national nonprofit organization aligning college football with rare diseases and raising them as a national priority through research, outreach, education and advocacy. What makes Uplifting Athletes unique is that the university chapters are run by current football student-athletes, providing them with an opportunity to gain management and leadership skills while learning how to leverage their assets and abilities to make a positive and lasting impact.

PENN STATE CLAIMS UNPRECEDENTED 29TH LAMBERT TROPHY IN 2013

Penn State captured an unprecedented 29th Lambert Trophy, symbolic of Eastern football supremacy, for the 2013 season. The Nittany Lions were honored March 27 at the Eastern College Football Awards Banquet, hosted by the ECAC, at MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J.

Prior to 2013, Penn State's most recent Lambert Trophy selection had been in 2009, which was the 24th Lambert Trophy title captured under Coach Joe Paterno.

Eighteen institutions have captured the Lambert Meadowslands Trophy, but no four schools combined can match Penn State's 29 titles.

Established in 1936 by brothers Victor and Henry Lambert in memory of their father, August, the Lambert Trophy was first captured by Penn State in 1947 under Coach Bob Higgins. Coach Rip Engle guided Lambert Trophy winners in 1961, '64 and '65. The first of Paterno's Lambert titles came in 1967.

Penn State finished the 2013 season with a 31-24 victory over No. 14 Wisconsin, claiming its first on-field Top 15 win since beating No. 13 LSU in the 2010 Capital One Bowl.

CAPPELLETTI'S NO. 22 TO BE RETIRED

John Cappelletti, who won the Heisman Trophy in leading Penn State to a 12-0 record in 1973, will have his No. 22 jersey retired.

The announcement was made by Director of Athletics Dave Joyner during the Sept. 7, 2013 game against Eastern Michigan, as the 1973 team celebrated its 40th reunion.

Cappelletti is the first Penn State student-athlete to have his or her number retired.

The No. 22 jersey will be retired at the end of the career of redshirt sophomore running back Akeel Lynch, a request that was made by Cappelletti.

From Upper Darby, Pa., Cappelletti was a consensus first-team All-America running back in 1973 for Coach Joe Paterno and won the Maxwell Award, and the Walter Camp, ABC-TV and UPI Player-of-the-Year in addition to the Heisman.

A defensive back his first two years as a Nittany Lion, Cappelletti ran for 1,522 yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior in 1973. His 1,522 yards remain No. 4 on the Penn State season list. His 2,639 career rushing yards rank No. 11 in Penn State history and he scored 29 career touchdowns.

Cappelletti posted 13 100-yard rushing games and strung together three consecutive 200-yard games in the final month of the 1973 season, topped by 220 yards in a win over North Carolina State.

Cappelletti captured the nation's heart when he dedicated the Heisman Trophy to his younger brother, Joey, who would pass away from childhood leukemia. The story of Cappelletti's family and the 1973 season inspired the TV movie "Something For Joey."

A first-round draft choice of the NFL's Los Angeles Rams, Cappelletti played 10 seasons in the NFL, six with the Rams and four with the San Diego Chargers.

Cappelletti was enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1993.

The Nittany Lions joined the 2012 Wisconsin squad as the only two Big Ten teams to ever play three overtime games in one season, with the Badgers playing two overtime games at home and one on the road (at Penn State).

Four of Penn State's last five Big Ten home games have gone into overtime; three in 2013 and the 2012 season-finale with Wisconsin.

Penn State's previous high for overtime games in a season was two during the 2002 campaign.

MARYLAND, RUTGERS ENTER BIG TEN; EAST-WEST DIVISION ALIGNMENTS BEGINS

A pair of old Penn State rivals, Maryland and Rutgers, will become members of the Big Ten on July 1, 2014 and join the Nittany Lions in the conference's East Division starting this season.

Penn State will provide the opposition for the Scarlet Knights' first Big Ten game, on Sept. 13, 2014 in Piscataway, N.J. The meeting also will be the opening game of the Big Ten's 119th football season. The Nittany Lions have played Rutgers nine times in New Jersey, but the last six meetings came at Giants Stadium, most recently in 1995. Penn State has played at Rutgers in 1951, '53 and '55. The teams have met 24 times, with the first game in 1918 and the last meeting in 1995. From 1977-95, the Nittany Lions and Scarlet Knights played every season except in 1980 and '81.

The Terrapins will visit Beaver Stadium on Nov. 1 for the first time since a Sept. 26, 1992 contest. Penn State and Maryland have met 37 times, with the first game in 1917 and the last contest in 1993 in College Park. From 1960-93, the Nittany Lions and Terrapins played every year except 1976, '81 and '83.

The Nittany Lions and Spartans will end the 2014-16 campaigns against each other as they did from 1993-2010 in the battle for the Land Grant Trophy. In 2017, Penn State will visit Maryland in the regular-season finale.

NITTANY LIONS WIN LONGEST GAME IN BIG TEN HISTORY

When Penn State running back Bill Belton scored the game-winning touchdown in the fourth overtime against Michigan on Oct. 12, 2013, he capped a 10-point comeback in the final 6:35 and ended the longest game in the 118-year gridiron history of the Big Ten Conference.

The four extra frames were the longest Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) game during the 2013 season.

Penn State's previous longest game was its 26-23, three-overtime victory over Florida State in the 2006 FedEx Orange Bowl.

'UNRIVALED: THE PENN STATE FOOTBALL STORY' PRESENTED BY PEPSI PREMIERES AUGUST 28

Penn State Athletics and Penn State Public Media are continuing their partnership this fall to produce "Unrivaled: The Penn State Football Story," Presented by Pepsi, a weekly preview show that will chronicle Coach James Franklin's Nittany Lions throughout the 2014 season.

"Unrivaled: The Penn State Football Story" Presented by Pepsi will debut August 28 in some markets and air on WPSU-TV, across the Commonwealth and in numerous markets in the Mid-Atlantic and Northeast (see affiliates and schedule below).

The 30-minute preview program will debut on Thursday, August 28, two days before the Nittany Lions meet UCF in the Croke Park Classic in Dublin, Ireland.

The program will provide a fast-paced, intimate look inside the Nittany Lion football program. It will include a look at game week preparation, an all-access look at the coaching staff and visits with selected players on and off the field throughout the season.

The coverage also may include a review of the previous week's game with highlights, sideline and locker room coverage. An enhanced game highlight package from each week's game can be found on the Penn State All-Access Channel on www.GoPSUsports.com for free every Sunday following a game.

Penn State Public Media is in its third year working with Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics to produce the Nittany Lion football team's weekly in-season TV show. Last year's program, "Penn State Football 2013 - The Next Chapter," recently was nominated for a Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award.

Penn State Public Media also works in partnership with Penn State Athletics to produce weekly in-season TV shows for men's basketball, "Penn State Basketball: In The Paint" and women's basketball, "Courtside With Coquese." "In The Paint" was nominated for a 2013 Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award. "Courtside With Coquese" received a Mid-Atlantic Emmy award in 2008 and was nominated for an Emmy in 2013.
