STORYLINES:

- Lions return to court rested after five days.
- Penn State takes last shot at a road victory this season, looks to post first in two seasons in the Big Ten.
- Travis on pace for highest B1G rebounding ranking since 2007.
- Lions' schedule ranked third nationally
- Lions look to rebound after largest loss under Coach Patrick Chambers.

THE GAME: Penn State will continue a two-game road swing at Northwestern on Thursday. Northwestern is the only Big Ten series Penn State leads (26-15) and only Big Ten opponent it has a winning record at (10-9). The Wildcats have won the last three meetings, including a 70-54 win in State College in early January. Northwestern posted a 68-56 win in Evanston last year, ending a string of six straight Lion wins in the series. Penn State will look to end a 19-game road losing skid, dating to a victory at Boston College in November 2011, and a 17-game Big Ten road losing skid dating to a victory at Minnesota on March 6, 2011.

ALUMNI WEEKEND: Penn State will close out the regular season on Sunday vs. Wisconsin in the BJC and is expecting a large number of Nittany Lion basketball alumni to return for Alumni Weekend events, which begin Saturday. Among those expected to return are two members of the 1954 NCAA Final Four team (David Edwards and Ruddy Marisa) and five of the Lions Top 10 all-time scorers, including Joe Crispin (No. 3, 1,986), Pete Lisicky (No. 4, 1,605), Geary Claxton (No. 7, 1,542), Jarrett Stephens (No. 9, 1,372) and Titus Ivory (No. 10, 1,369). Ivory, who is recovering from a stroke suffered in October, will be the honored alumni for this year's events.

NOTES TO KNOW:

- Three Lions are shooting better than 45% from three over the last five games (Marshall, Newbill and Colella) after no Lion (with more than five attempts) shot better than 30% from the arc over the first 11 Big Ten games.
- Ross Travis ranks 5th in the Big Ten in rebounding (7.1) on pace for the highest B1G finish and average by a PSU player and since Geary Claxton finished 2nd (8.0) in 2007. It will mark the seventh time in the last eight seasons a player 6-6 or under has led the Lions in rebounding.

- Jermaine Marshall posted back-to-back 20-point games vs. Michigan (25) and Illinois (20), logging a career-best in threes in two straight games including six (6-10) vs. Michigan.
- D.J. Newbill ranks third in assists and fourth in scoring in B1G conference games and is the ONLY Big Ten player to appear in the conference's overall statistical rankings in scoring (5th), rebounding (19th) and assists (4th).
- Sasa Borovnjak is posting 12.8 ppg while shooting 63.4% from the floor in his last five.

LAST TIME OUT

MINNESOTA 73, PENN STATE 44
March 2, 2013 • Minneapolis, Minn.

Emotionally and physically drained after a huge upset of No. 4 Michigan in the previous game, Penn State missed its first 11 shots and didn't score until a D.J. Newbill jumper at the 8:42 mark of the first half as Minnesota took a 16-0 lead and never looked back. The Gophers led 34-12 at the half and extended the margin to as much as 35 in the second half as Penn State's offense never got on track. The Lions shot 27 percent from the floor and 3-of-14 from three, while being out-rebounded 46-30. Minnesota had five players reach double-figures and shot 50 percent. Newbill led Penn State with 15 points, but shot just 2-of-16. Jermaine Marshall, who drew his third foul early in the first half and had foul trouble all day, scored 10. Trevor Mbakwe led the Gophers with 13 points and 13 rebounds and Andre Hollins added 11 on 3-of-4 from three. Penn State trailed by double-digits for 33 minutes and by 20 or more the entire second half.

The Lions are shooting 29.0% from the arc in conference games. The Lions have shot less than 40% from the arc in 24 games and less than 30% in 13 on the year.

Penn State is 5-3 in games decided by seven points or less on the year, including two overtime wins. The Lions went 4-7 in 11 games decided by seven points or less last year, having just one home loss come by more than six points.

Penn State has allowed 16 opponents to eclipse 70 points, winning four of those games, and having 12 losses on the year come to opponents scoring 70+. Penn State is 5-25 under Patrick Chambers when opponents break 70 points.

Five of Penn State's eight primary contributors (following the loss of Tim Frazier) are freshmen or sophomores, including three of the top five scorers and rebounders.

Penn State has fielded one of the nation's youngest squads the last two years. This year, two sophomores and a freshman have been in the starting line-up accounting for 72 of 125 starts on the year. Last year eight of 10 primary contributors were in their first or second season of Division I play.

HEATING UP FROM THREE: Penn State has posted season-bests in number of threes and its best three, three-point percentages in three of the last five games. The Lions 10 threes vs. Michigan marked a season-best as did their 50% (10-20) from the arc, equalling the best ever under Patrick Chambers. The Lions 47.1% (8-17) vs. Iowa and 42.1% (8-19) at Illinois are the second-best marks on the season in percentage and number of threes. Three Lions are shooting 45% or better from three over the last five games: D.J. Newbill (45%, 9-20), Nick Colella (6-13, 46.2%) and Jermaine Marshall (15-33, 45.5%). No Lion with more than five attempts was shooting better than 30% over the first 11 Big Ten games. The Lions have outscored five opponents and equaled one from the arc in the last eight games.

FOUR GAME OFFENSIVE SURGE: Penn State experienced an offensive surge to close out February with three or more players scoring in double-figures in four straight games after having no more than two in the first 11 Big Ten games • PSU scored at 71.5 ppg, well above its average of 54.8 ppg in the first 11 Big Ten games • The Lions out-shoot opponents 43% to 28% from three, and shot well above their season average of 29% from the arc. • PSU shot 44% from the floor vs. 35% in the first 11 Big Ten • PSU posted season bests of 17, 15 and 15 assists in the stretch and 14.5 assists vs. 11.0 turnovers in the games compared to an 8.2 to 13.0 mark in the first 11 Big Ten games for an assist to turnover ratio of 1.3 vs. 0.6 in the first 11 • Three Lions posted better than 14 pts per game over the span: Jermaine Marshall (19.0), D.J. Newbill (16.5) and Sasa Borovnjak (14.3).

LIONS DOWN NO. 4 MICHIGAN: Penn State's victory over No. 4 Michigan on Feb. 27 in the Bryce Jordan Center marked the highest ranked opponent Penn State has ever beaten at home. For the second-straight season, coach Patrick Chambers' team defeated a ranked opponent in the BJC after downing No. 22/25 Illinois, 54-52, last year. Michigan marked the highest ranked team Penn State has beaten since downing No. 2/3 Michigan State, 65-63, in the 2001 Big Ten Tournament and just the program's third ever victory against a team ranked in the top four of the AP poll. All have occurred since 2000, with Penn State downing AP No. 4 Ohio State, 71-66, in the 2000 Big Ten Tournament.

MARSHALLING RESOURCES: Junior Jermaine Marshall snapped out of an early February shooting slump to play some of the best basketball of his career posting back-to-back 20-point games for the first time in his career with 20 at Illinois and 27 vs. Michigan while shooting a combined 10-of-18 (55.5%) from three and posting career-best three-point totals (4 & 6) in back-to-back games. He made his 100th career three vs. Michigan to tie Tony Ward for 13th all-time at Penn State. Marshall was the Lions' leading scorer over its four game offensive surge to end February, posting 19.0 ppg while tying for the team lead with 17 assists, leading the team with seven steals and ranking second with 5.0 rebounds. Marshall went 13-28 (46.4%) from three over the stretch.

CLOSE LOSSES: Eight of Penn State's 15 Big Ten losses have been by single digits. Five of the Lions last seven losses have been by single digits. The Lions have lost three games by 20 points or more in the Big Ten. Three teams have more 20+ point losses in Big Ten play.

70+ POINTS: Penn State's four 70-point games in Big Ten play are its most since posting four in 2010. The Lions have eight 70+ point outings on the year, more than the seven posted last year (with one in Big Ten play) and the team's most since posting eight in 2009-10. The Lions' streak of four straight games of 70+ points to end the non-con season was their longest since posting seven in November and December of 2008.

FOUL LINE DEFICIT: Penn State is being outscored 19.9 to 12.9 ppg at the foul line by Big Ten foes, having been outscored at the foul line in every Big Ten game before besting No. 4 Michigan (20-13) and Minnesota (15-14). Big Ten opponents have made more free throws (318) than PSU has taken (292) and have 171 more attempts. Seven Big Ten foes have shot 30 or more free throws and 11 have attempted 25 or more.

POTENT TRIO OF GUARDS TO RETURN: Penn State's high scoring guard trio will all return for the 2013-14 season. With Jermaine Marshall and D.J. Newbill on pace to finish the 2012-13 campaign with around 800 career points each, they could give the Lions three 1,000-point scorers that have combined to produce 37 20-point games on the floor during the 2014 Big Ten season. What will be a combination of two seniors and a junior with more than 250 games played and 170 career starts under their belts prior to the 2013-14 campaign, they could bring combined career totals of more than 3,000 points, 1,000 rebounds and 800 assists to the floor during the 2014 Big Ten season.

DO IT ALL D.J.: Sophomore D.J. Newbill was selected a team captain before he ever played a game for Penn State after he excelled in a redshirt season upon transferring from Southern Mississippi. With the loss of Tim Frazier to injury in the fourth game, he was thrust into point guard duties and

TIM FRAZIER INJURY: WHAT'S MISSING

■ TIM FRAZIER was named to the preseason All-Big Ten team by conference media voters. Frazier was named a first-team All-Big Ten selection last year after leading the Big Ten in assists (6.2) and finishing second in scoring (18.8) and steals (2.4).

■ stands 6th on the Penn State career assist charts with 459 after posting a record 198 last year and is 151 assists shy of breaking the all-time career record of 600 set by Freddie Barnes in 1992.

■ scored 208 field goals and had 198 assists to lead the nation being involved in 58.4% of Penn State's field goals last year. Only two other players in Division I were involved in 50% or more of their teams scoring.

■ was the ONLY player in NCAA Division I to post at least 17 points and 6 rebounds a game last year.

■ had led Penn State in scoring in 28 of the last 35 games, including 15 of 19 games vs. Big Ten opponents, and scored 20 or more points in 9 of his last 13 games before his injury. Was averaging 21.7 ppg through the first three games of the season.

in that role has produced in a major way in virtually every category for Penn State:

■ He leads the team in scoring, assists, minutes, free throws and free throw attempts.

■ He ranks second in rebounding and steals and is the team's top defender often assigned to corral an opponent's top threat, including match-ups such as guarding 6-8 Iowa forward Aaron White.

■ He is a strong and vocal leader on and off the floor.

WALK-ON MINUTES: Three players that joined Penn State as walk-ons have seen significant action in Big Ten play. Nick Colella (now on scholarship), Kevin Montminy and Alan Wisniewski all have played significant first half minutes, and in fact were all on the floor at once in the first half at No. 4 Michigan. Colella has started 10 straight games and is averaging 25.6 mpg while playing in every Big Ten game. Montminy has seen action in 13 Big Ten games while playing 3.0 mpg, including a career high 12 vs. Northwestern and first half minutes in 10 games. Wisniewski joined the rotation at Nebraska (2/9) and posted six points and eight rebounds. He has played first half minutes in five games.

NEWBILL LONE PLAYER TO APPEAR IN THREE BIG TEN RANKINGS:

D.J. Newbill is riding a career best double-digit scoring string of 12 straight games and now stands third in Big Ten games posting 4.2 assists per game. He stands fifth in the Big Ten in scoring (15.9), fourth in assists (4.1) and 19th in rebounding (5.3) making him THE ONLY BIG TEN PLAYER to appear in the rankings of those three categories in the conference. During his 12-game double-digit scoring run he has three of his eight 20-point games on the year (including season highs of 27 points vs. Michigan State and 26 vs. Iowa) and posted a career-best 3-of-5 (60%) from three vs. Iowa.

NEWBILL ON POINT: D.J. Newbill, a natural off-guard, has taken over point guard duties since the injury to Tim Frazier in the fourth game of the season. He is logging big minutes at the position playing 36.2 per game to rank second in the Big Ten.

- Is shooting 9-20 (45%) from three the last five games.
- He posted his best floor game with just one turnover and six assists to go with 15 points in 39 minutes vs. Ohio State's Aaron Craft (1/26).
- He has posted double-digit points in 25 of 28 games, including a current career-best string of 12 straight, with EIGHT 20-point outings, including a career high 27 vs. Michigan State (1/16) and 26 vs. Iowa (2/14).
- He has led the Lions in scoring 11 times since Frazier's injury with career highs on four occasions, 23 points and 12 rebounds vs. Duquesne for his first double-double at PSU and seventh career.

QUOTABLE

"Words cannot express how I feel right now. They didn't lose the fight or the fire, and I knew we were going to win one down the line. They will never forget that for as long as they live. They have earned it by going above and beyond."

- Patrick Chambers on win over No. 4 Michigan

"I think what you saw today is why we all love college basketball. I've been seeing this coming with Pat Chambers' team for the last month. We've watched a lot of video and they're just really getting used to playing well together. They make every extra pass, took four or five charges against us. They beat us fair and square, and in the last ten minutes really outplayed us. They had a great plan, really did a great job on Trey Burke and their guys hit shots that they can hit."

- Michigan coach John Beilein

"Patrick Chambers has not allowed his team to be discouraged. He just won't accept it. And they have remained onboard. It's been an amazing trick... It's not where Chambers and his guys have been. It's where they're going. And, by now, they must think he has a hell of a good compass."

- David Jones, Harrisburg Patriot-News (2/28)

"I have great respect for the players/staff of PSU...great heart/enthusiasm while searching for 1st W...If Pat Chambers kids can stay healthy, add some recruits/maintain same energy/toughness and improvement this program will rise very quickly"

- ESPN's Dan Dakich via Twitter (2/22)

"The energy, attitude and resolve we've had has been incredible. We're getting better. A couple weeks ago, we wouldn't have been in this game."

- Chambers after 79-71 loss at Michigan (2/17)

"It speaks to the quality of effort Penn State puts forth."

- Shon Morris, BTN on Penn State's close game at No. 4 Michigan (2/17)

"I think we learned today, Penn State does not have a glass jaw."

- Tom Hamilton, BTN, at No. 4 Michigan (2/17)

"We're playing hard. We're playing together. We just need that one stop, or we need that one shot to go down. I feel like we're getting better."

- Chambers after loss at Iowa (1/31)

"He's like Rocky Balboa...he kept coming and coming. He took a 1,000 punches from Oladipo, Hulls and Sheehey, but he kept coming. He has a boxer's mentality. He's just going to keep throwing punches. I think you saw a leader emerge. I was really proud of him."

- Chambers on D.J. Newbill's play at Indiana (1/23)

"They're so physical, they're great at going in and kind of seeking contact and bouncing you off and scoring the ball. They're really strong guys. That backcourt with (Tim) Frazier next year is going to be really good."

- Nebraska coach Tim Miles on PSU guards (1/19)

"I'm looking at that player in the suit (Frazier) that was there today, and that player would make a big difference on that team. Those two wing guys and then a player of his caliber at the point - it's going to be an impressive team next year."

- Michigan State Coach Tom Izzo (1/16)

"Do I miss him?...I don't miss him. He's attached to my hip everyday. This is going to turn out to be a blessing in the long run. I really believe that. He helped run practice the other day. I ran the blue team and Tim ran the white team."

- Patrick Chambers on Tim Frazier

"I think Pat's (Chambers) doing a fantastic, fantastic job, maybe one of the best jobs in the country. I played against his team when they had (Tim) Frazier and for them to be doing what they're doing without him, that's a major, major credit to Pat and those kids."

- Jim Ferry, Duquesne Head Coach

COLELLA LEADS LIONS IN CHARGES TAKEN & DIVES: Among the team leaders in overall "Attitude Points" on the season, senior Nick Colella leads the team with 16 charges taken and 62 dives on the year emblematic of the grit and hustle of a former walk-on.

- A team-best 6-of-13 from three over the last five games and 35% in Big Ten play.
- Posted the best all-around game of his career at No. 4 Michigan (2/17) posting a career high four assists, tying a career high with six rebounds and posting nine points, his most in a Big Ten game since February of 2012.
- Found his shot in the final four non-conference games going a team-best 11-of-20 (55%) from three to average 9.0 ppg. Included in that effort was a career high 15 points on a career-best 5-of-7 from three and a career-best four boards in the win vs. Duquesne. His five threes marked the most by a PSU player on the season.
- Third on the team with 28 threes on the year and has a team-leading three-point percentage of 34.7%.
- The senior captain has started the last nine games. He made six straight starts in Big Ten play last year.

WHAT A WONDERFUL WIZ HE WAS: Junior walk-on Alan Wisniewski (6-9) saw the first significant action of his career at Nebraska (2/9) and delivered with six points and eight rebounds in 17 minutes of play. It marked his first career points and rebounds in a game for the Michigan native who is an Industrial Engineering major and holds a job making sandwiches at a downtown Quiznos. Wisniewski is the fourth current or former walk-on to play first half minutes for Penn State this season joining Nick Colella, Kevin Montminy and Kevin Onyeaka.

GET HIM A CUT MAN: Sophomore walk-on Kevin Montminy has earned a reputation as one of the toughest and hardest working Nittany Lions with a history of playing with all out abandon in practice and in games. Twice this season he has required stitches following a diving play in practice. He suffered a two-inch gash in his right shin after flying into the arena stands in mid-January. He played in a game two days after the injury and still wears a wrap on the leg to protect the injury. In practice on Feb. 13 he again went flying and suffered a cut to his head that required stitches. The following day in a game vs. Iowa (Feb. 14) he suffered a cut above his eye which was glued together.

- Montminy has played first half minutes in TEN Big Ten games this season.
- He posted a career day vs. Iowa scoring five points on 2-of-2 shooting (one three).
- He has scored in five Big Ten games, making a three in three of them.
- He played a career high 12 minutes vs. Northwestern and six at No. 4 Michigan.
- Montminy grew up and went to school in Penns Valley, just 20 minutes from the Bryce Jordan Center. He was valedictorian (4.0) at Penns Valley HS and the school's all-time leading scorer (1,498).
- He is a Dean's List student in the Smeal College of Business.

LIONS FIND OFFENSIVE BALANCE/POST 70 IN BACK-TO-BACK GAMES: Penn State posted two of its best efforts of the season in close losses to Iowa (74-72) and at No. 4 Michigan (79-71), logging 70 points in back-to-back Big Ten games for the first time since the 2006 season. The 71 points at Michigan marked the most in a Big Ten road game since an 81-70 win at Northwestern on Feb. 17, 2010. After playing the first 11 Big Ten games with no more than two players reaching double-figure scoring in a game and averaging 54.8 ppg, the Lions have had three or more reach the mark in the last three games. PSU's four at Michigan were the Lions' most since four scored in double-digits vs. New Hampshire on Dec. 23.

DEFENDING THE THREE: Penn State has made considerable improvement in limiting opponent's threes, including an 0-10 effort by Purdue (2/5) for the first opponent shutout from the arc since November of 2006. Penn State is giving up just 5.6 threes per game to Big Ten opponents, a big improvement over the 7.9 per game allowed last season to Big Ten foes and 8.0 per game allowed in the non-conference season this year. The Lions have held NINE Big Ten foes to five threes or less.

72 VS. MSU ENDS BIG TEN SCORING DROUGHT: Penn State's 47 points against Michigan State in the second half were then a high for a half in two seasons under Coach Chambers. The Lions eclipsed 70 points for the fifth time on the season and fifth in a stretch of seven home games. The 72 points and 48% shooting marked a PSU high in Big Ten play on the year. MSU entered the game ranked second in the Big Ten in scoring defense (57.7 ppg) and defensive shooting percentage (37.6%) and had allowed just one opponent to reach 70, a 74-70 win over Boise State. PSU posted 78.5 ppg in its final four non-conference games, but failed to eclipse 54 points in its first four Big Ten games, posting 49.5 ppg over that stretch. The Lions had logged three straight games with season lows in shooting (31.7% vs. Indiana, 31.6% vs. Northwestern in the Jordan Center and 25.9% (the lowest mark under Patrick Chambers) at Purdue) prior to the MSU game. The Lions 42 points in the loss at Purdue marked the fewest scored in two seasons under head coach Patrick Chambers.

FRAZIER REHAB GOING VERY WELL 14 WEEKS IN: Tim Frazier had successful surgery to repair his ruptured left Achilles tendon on Nov. 20. and has since focused on two-week incremental goals set by team trainer Jon Salazer. He hit week 14 on Feb. 25 and ran for the first time using an Alter G anti-gravity treadmill which uses air to suspend him at 1/2 his body weight while he runs. He ran or 10 minutes. He will begin jumping rope in weeks 14 to 18 post surgery. Frazier was in a cast for about three weeks before moving to a walking boot that gradually flattened his foot as the tendon stretched. He removed the walking boot on Jan. 15. He is expected to have about a six-month recovery period and, at the completion of the 2012-13 campaign, will apply for an NCAA Hardship Waiver to return for the 2013-14 season.

In his previous five seasons as a member of the Villanova coaching staff and two as head coach at Boston University, all of his teams reached post-season play including six NCAA Tournament appearances and one CBI appearance. Chambers has been a part of 17 NCAA Tournament games, helping Villanova advance to the tournament every year and make four NCAA Sweet 16 appearances and reach the 2009 NCAA Final Four. In his first season at BU, he guided the Terriers to their first post-season win since 1959 with a victory in the CBI and the following year led BU to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2002.

WE CAN RELATE: Penn State coach Patrick Chambers can relate to star guard Tim Frazier's recent injury, in fact Frazier is using the exact same motorized scooter Chambers used this summer after he underwent arthroplastic surgery to repair the knee joint on his left leg and was limited to riding the scooter and non-weight bearing crutches for six weeks and the use of crutches for two months. Chambers has said the insertion of a wedge and six screws to re-align his knee joint was one of the toughest things he's had to deal with and will use the recent experience to help guide Frazier through his rehabilitation. Frazier's sister, Krystal, also suffered a ruptured Achilles, during a standout basketball career at Rice that saw her earn All-Conference USA honors. She returned from the injury to post 10 ppg in her senior season.

FRAZIER REMAINS ACTIVE LEADER: Since his season-ending Achilles injury, Tim Frazier has remained a vocal and active presence on the team attending every practice and shouting instructions and pulling teammates aside during breaks in the action. He is a virtual assistant coach in games, even delivering the pre-game scout in the locker room prior to the win over Delaware State. He has been particularly active in helping to guide D.J. Newbill in his transition to the point guard position. The pair room together on road trips and often watch film of previous games against the upcoming opponent the night before the game in their room, with Frazier helping to point out tendencies and opportunities for Newbill to attack.

FRAZIER SUFFERS SEASON-ENDING INJURY: Senior guard Tim Frazier, a preseason candidate for both the Wooden and Naismith national player of the year awards, will miss the remainder of the 2012-13 season due to an injury suffered in the Nittany Lions' third game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off in Bayamon, Puerto Rico. Frazier had played in every game (101) the last three plus seasons. He suffered a ruptured Achilles tendon in his left leg and the 2012 first-team All-Big Ten guard underwent surgery to repair the injury on Nov. 20. A preseason All-Big Ten selection, Frazier was leading Penn State with 21.7 ppg and 5.0 apg per game and was second with 6.0 rebounds per game through three games. He suffered the injury in the Nittany Lions' fourth game, a Nov. 18 contest vs. Akron in Puerto Rico, leaving the floor at the 14:30 mark of the first half. Frazier, a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection on schedule to graduate in May with a degree in Supply Chain and Information Systems from the Smeal College of Business, is eligible to apply for an NCAA medical Hardship Waiver after the completion of the 2012-13 campaign. He had posted 25 straight double-digit scoring game, 14 of which were 20+ point outings, and had led Penn State in scoring in 28 of the last 35 games, scoring 20+ points in nine of his last 13, prior to the Akron game.

BIGGER, STRONGER, FASTER: Some highlights of Penn State's physical improvement under strength coach Brad Pantall:

TIM FRAZIER: Added 18 reps to his 185-pound bench press since arriving at Penn State and can now do 19, one shy of the 2012 NBA Combine best...improved his max bench press by more than 115 pounds to over 300 pounds entering his final season...posted a pro-lane agility time (10.0) and 3/4 court sprint time (3.09) better than the NBA combine bests...has added 30 pounds of muscle since arriving at Penn State.

JON GRAHAM: Added four inches to his vertical leap...added 11 reps to his 185-pound bench press to now be able to perform a team high 24, far above the 2012 NBA Combine best of 20...increased his max bench press from 215 to 325.

ROSS TRAVIS: In the past year, Travis has increased his bench press max from 245 to 310 and his reps on the 185-pound bench from 10 to 22. He increased his leg press max from 325 to 615 and added 2.5 inches to his vertical (31.5). He increased his weight from 203 to 220 while maintaining his body fat and can touch a team-best 16 inches above the rim.

NICK COLELLA: Added more than six inches to his vertical leap and improved his pro-lane agility time to 10.0, tying the Penn State team record and beating the 2012 NBA Combine best...improved his bench press by 75 pounds to over 300 pounds.

SASA BOROVNJAK: Cut his weight from 242 to 230 pounds and reduced his body fat by five percent...Improved his bench over 300 pounds while cutting one second off his pro-lane agility time.

CHAMBERS HAS AN EVENTFUL OFF-SEASON: It was an eventful off-season for head coach Patrick Chambers as he and wife, Courtney, welcomed their third child, Caitlin, to the family on March 23, he underwent reconstructive knee surgery on his left leg on May 11 and his father, John "Rube", passed away on June 11 after a long battle with Alzheimers. Chambers underwent arthroplastic surgery, which involved resetting the top of the tibia below the knee to change the angle of the joint. The energetic coach was limited to riding a scooter and non-weight bearing crutches for six weeks and was on crutches for two months. He began walking short distances without crutches on July 6 and after months of rehab returned to normal mobility in August.

STAFF TIES: Patrick Chambers began forming his first Penn State coaching staff by naming his former Episcopal Academy high school teammate Eugene Burroughs as associate head coach, the first of three assistants with strong ties to Philadelphia. Chambers and Burroughs both played for legendary coach Dan Dougherty in Philadelphia in the late 80's early 90's. Burroughs previously had worked as associate head coach at Navy. Former Villanova assistant Keith Urgo also joined the staff as an assistant. The pair worked together on Villanova's 2009 NCAA Final Four staff and Urgo worked under Jay Wright for four seasons. Brian Daly followed Chambers from Boston University where he was associate head coach under Chambers. Daly is a former Philadelphia high school standout and player at Saint Joseph's and was a highly successful high school coach at his alma mater, Monsignor Bonner HS in Philadelphia.

GET ON THE FLOOR: Patrick Chambers places an emphasis on "dives" during a basketball game and has his staff chart them with a goal of achieving at least 14 "dives" per game. Chambers has established an "Attitude Club" in which players attempt to record enough hustle points during practices and games to become a member. Penn State charts "Attitude Points" during every practice and game and announces winners at the end of every practice. Modeled after similar programs used by longtime NBA coach Pat Riley and Chambers' mentor, Villanova's Jay Wright, the club charts hustle plays, extra passes, charges drawn, dives on the floor, screen assists, shot contests, tap backs, deflections, etc.

CHAMBERS A VERY ACTIVE & VISIBLE PRESENCE IN THE COMMUNITY:

Since arriving on campus in June of 2011, Penn State coach Patrick Chambers has made a tremendous effort to form a bond with the Penn State community and has been a very active and visible presence throughout his two seasons leading the Nittany Lion program. Some of the highlights:

- Donated $14,200 to THON 2013 after pledging $10 for every Penn State student that attended the Nittany Lions game with Iowa on Feb. 14, 2013. Presented the check to a packed Jordan Center prior to event kickoff.

- Went behind the counter to serve 200 free Big Macs, at a personal cost of $800, at a downtown State College McDonald's after a Lions 67-51 home victory over Nebraska in 2012 in which PSU held the ball instead of shoot in the final minutes. A Penn State promotion promises free Big Macs to all ticket holders when the Lions score 70.

- Kicked off the "No Hair, Don't Care" fund raising effort in support of THON 2013, by being the first to shave his head after being e-mailed by a Penn State freshman student.

- Paid for several student's season tickets on the spot during several appearances at the student union during a week-long student season basketball ticket sale prior to the 2012-13 season.

- Dressed as standout out Nittany Lion linebacker Michael Mauti and made a flying tackle of a tackling dummy to kickoff a 2012 Rally In The Valley event in Rec Hall prior to Penn State's clash with Ohio State. Also addressed Penn State's Nittanyville student section outside the gates of Beaver Stadium dressed in football gear and eye black just prior to the Lions 2011 clash with Alabama. He regularly delivers pizzas to Nittanyville during football season.

- Served as co-chairman of the 2012 Toys For Tots campaign and participated with Penn State players in wrapping gifts during the holiday season.

- Has served as honorary starter/host for numerous events around State College including: The Resolution 5K (New Year's eve), Alzheimer's Walk, Autism Speaks 5K and CVC 5K among many.

- Traveled with five players to visit the Hershey Cancer Institute, a two-hour drive from State College, and deliver presents and encouragement to both adult and pediatric cancer patients.

- Ordered two Nittany Lion Basketball golf carts and makes regular spur-of-the-moment trips on campus distributing T-shirts and his infectious energy.

- Has kept a full calendar speaking to numerous Penn State classes and student organizations as well as community leaders and business groups and alumni groups and Nittany Lion clubs around the state.

- Distributes "Attitude" wrist bands to students and supporters he meets around campus and in the community.

- Hosts a year-round slate of Coaches vs. Cancer events in the community as the chairman of CVC-Penn State.

FRAZIER NAMED TO WOODEN TOP 50: Tim Frazier was named to the Wooden Award Men's Preseason Top 50. He is the second Nittany Lion in the last three years to be named to the preseason list joining Talor Battle who was named prior to the 2010-11 season. Frazier was among nine Big Ten players named to the list.

FRAZIER PRESEASON ALL-BIG TEN: Senior guard Tim Frazier was named to the Preseason All-Big Ten team by conference media voters. Frazier, the lone returning first-team All-Big Ten selection from last year, was joined on the preseason team by Ohio State's Aaron Craft and Deshaun Thomas, Michigan's Trey Burke and Indiana's Cody Zeller who was also named the preseason POY.

21st BIG TEN SEASON

Penn State opened its 21st season of Big Ten Conference play with a road game at Wisconsin (Jan. 3). It marked the fourth straight season Penn State opened the Big Ten with a road game. Penn State posted a 4-14 mark during the Big Ten regular season in 2011-12 to finish in a tie for 11th place. Penn State has posted a .500 or better record in Big Ten play five times. Penn State has finished fourth in the Big Ten regular season twice in the last four seasons. Penn State's best Big Ten finish came in 1996 as the Lions went 12-6 to finish second in the conference.

GREAT GRAD RATE

Coach Patrick Chambers' Nittany Lions ranked second in the Big Ten with a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 92 percent, 24 percent higher than the national average (68%), according to statistical information released by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). The NCAA's annual study of institutions nationwide revealed that Penn State student-athletes at the University Park campus earned a GSR of 88 percent compared to the 80 percent average for all Division I institutions for students entering from 2002-03 through 2005-06. The 88 percent figure was third to Northwestern (97) and Illinois (89) among Big Ten Conference institutions. Penn State basketball's NCAA four-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score of 995 through 2009-10 tied for the best among men's basketball teams in the Big Ten and was well above the national average of 945. Penn State and Michigan State tied for the Big Ten's highest APR figure, marking the fourth consecutive year the Nittany Lions ranked among the top three in the Big Ten. The four-year federal graduation rate average for University Park student-athletes was 78 percent, second to Northwestern (88) among Big Ten schools, and significantly above the 64 percent Division I average.

■ Following completion of the fall semester, two Nittany Lions (Kevin Montminy & Tim Frazier) earned Dean's List honors with a 3.5 GPA or higher and seven Lions posted a 3.0 GPA or higher. Montminy posted a 4.0 GPA.

CHAMBERS LEADS COACHES VS CANCER:

Patrick Chambers immediately embraced the mantle of leadership of Coaches vs. Cancer-Penn State, now embarking on its 18th year, when he took over the Nittany Lion program.

• CVC-Penn State has raised nearly $2 million in the last 17 years to fight cancer and help support those affected by the disease.
