THE MATCHUP

Nebraska makes its final road trip of the season on Saturday when the Huskers travel east to take on Penn State in a matchup of two of college football's traditional powers. Game time for the contest at Penn State's Beaver Stadium is set for 3:30 p.m. local time in State College (2:30 p.m. CT), with the game televised by BTN.

Nebraska enters the game at 7-3 overall and 4-2 in Big Ten Conference play following a 41-28 loss to Michigan State last Saturday in Lincoln. The Huskers battled the division-leading Spartans, but could not overcome five costly turnovers in the setback. The loss to the Spartans ended Nebraska's hopes of returning to Indianapolis for the Big Ten Conference Championship Game. With two remaining regular-season games and a bowl game, Nebraska will be looking for a victory that will move them closer to a sixth straight nine-win season.

Penn State comes into the contest with a 6-4 overall mark, including a 3-3 record in Big Ten Conference play. The Nittany Lions are coming off a 45-21 victory over Purdue on Saturday at Beaver Stadium, improving to 5-1 at home this season. Penn State has won each of its three Big Ten home games, including overtime wins over Michigan and Illinois.

The Nittany Lions feature a strong passing attack that averages better than 255 yards per game, helping Penn State average 434.6 yards per game in total offense.

THE SERIES

Nebraska has won the first two meetings between the schools as members of the Big Ten Conference and three straight overall in the series. The three-game win streak has given the Huskers an 8-7 edge in the overall series between the schools. Penn State holds a 5-2 series lead in State College.

THE COACHES

Nebraska: Bo Pelini (Ohio State, '90) owns a 56-23 record (.709) in his sixth season. Pelini has guided NU to nine or more wins in each of his first five seasons as head coach, joining Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne in accomplishing that feat at Nebraska. Pelini is one of five coaches in Nebraska history to win 50 games on the NU sideline, joining Dana Bible, Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Frank Solich.

Penn State: Bill O'Brien (Brown, '92) is in his second season as the head coach at Penn State and owns a 14-8 record with the Nittany Lions. O'Brien guided Penn State to eight victories last season. Before taking over at Penn State, O'Brien served for five seasons as an assistant with the New England Patriots. He had college assistant coaching stops at Duke, Maryland, Georgia Tech and Brown.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Nebraska is 863-356-40 all-time, one of just eight schools with 800 all-time victories ♦ Nebraska has won five national championships (1970, 1971, 1994, 1995, 1997). ♦ The Cornhuskers have won 43 conference championships. ♦ NU's 49 all-time bowl appearances rank third nationally. ♦ Since 1970, NU has 429 wins, 25 more than any other school. ♦ Nebraska's 106 football Academic All-Americans lead the nation. ♦ The Huskers have 110 first-team All-Americans in school history.

NOTING GAME 10...MICHIGAN STATE 41, NEBRASKA 28

► Michigan State's victory over Nebraska marked the Spartans' first win in eight games in the series. The loss also ended Nebraska's streak of seven straight wins in the month of November.

► The loss ended a streak of seven straight wins in Big Ten home games for Nebraska and dropped the Huskers to 9-2 in Big Ten home games since joining the league in 2011.

► Nebraska lost its second straight home game against a ranked opponent (UCLA) after winning its four previous games at Memorial Stadium against ranked teams.

► As a team, Nebraska rushed for 182 yards on 32 carries against the Spartans, becoming the first team to rush for more than 100 yards against Michigan State since NU ran for 313 yards on 40 carries last season in East Lansing. MSU was allowing just 43.4 rushing yards per game entering the contest. Nebraska had two of the three longest runs of the season against Michigan State, a 51-yard TD run by Imani Cross and a 29-yard run by Ameer Abdullah.

► Junior I-back Ameer Abdullah rushed 22 times for 123 yards, the most against Michigan State's top-ranked rush defense in 2013. Abdullah is the first runner to top the century mark against Michigan State since 2012 when Abdullah rushed for 110 yards against the Spartans, and quarterback Taylor Martinez had 205 yards rushing against the MSU defense.

► With his 123 rushing yards, Abdullah pushed his season rushing total to 1,336 good for ninth place on the NU single-season rushing list. Abdullah's rushing total is the sixth-most yards for a Nebraska player through 10 games.

► Abdullah rushed for 100 yards for the ninth time in 10 games in 2013 and the 15th time in his career. The nine 100-yard rushing games ties for the fourth-most in a season in Nebraska history, and the 15 career 100-yard rushing games are tied for fifth in school history. Abdullah's seven straight 100-yard rushing games are tied for the fifth-longest streak in school history.

► Abdullah increased his career rushing total to 2,623 and moved up two spots to 14th on the NU career rushing list, passing Correll Buckhalter (2,522) and Jammal Lord (2,573).

► Sophomore I-back Imani Cross had a 51-yard touchdown run in the third quarter to cut the Michigan State lead to 20-14. The 51-yard run was the longest of Cross' career, bettering a 44-yard run last season against Arkansas State. The TD run was Cross' team-leading 10th of the season and the 17th of his career.

► Nebraska senior defensive back Ciante Evans had an eight-yard sack in the second quarter, his 10th tackle for loss of the season. He added a TFL later in the game to give him 11 TFL on the season, the most ever by a Nebraska defensive back, surpassing the previous record of nine TFL by cornerback Al Larson in 1969. All 11 of Evans' TFL have come in Big Ten Conference play. Evans finished the game tied with four other Huskers for the team lead with eight tackles.

► Nebraska sophomore defensive end Randy Gregory recorded a nine-yard sack in the second quarter, pushing his season total to a Big Ten leading 8.5 sacks, with eight of those coming in Big Ten Conference games. Gregory finished the game with eight tackles and four quarterback hurries.

► Junior receiver Kenny Bell tied his season high with seven receptions for a season-high 81 yards, including a 38-yard touchdown in the third quarter. With his 81 receiving yards, Bell increased his career receiving yardage total to 1,790 to move into third place on the Husker career receiving yardage list, passing Terrence Nunn (1,762 yards).

► Bell's 38-yard TD reception was his fourth in 2013 and the 15th of his Nebraska career. Bell's 15 career TD receptions are tied for fourth in NU history. Each of his last 13 touchdown receptions have covered at least 20 yards.

► Nebraska sophomore receiver Sam Burtch caught a career-high five passes for 86 yards, including a career-long 32-yard touchdown in the first quarter. Burtch had 58 yards receiving on the scoring drive, also adding a 26-yard catch. Burtch's previous career high for receiving yards was 26 yards (one catch, TD) against Southern Miss.

► Michigan State converted 11-of-21 first down attempts. The Huskers entered the game ranked third nationally in third-down defense at 27.1 percent.

NEBRASKA HEAD COACH BO PELINI

Bo Pelini is in his sixth season as Nebraska's head coach and owns a 56-23 record with the Huskers. Pelini added a Big Ten Legends Division title in 2012 to three straight Big 12 North Division crowns from 2008 to 2010, when Pelini was the the first coach in the history of the Big 12 to win at least a share of a division title in each of his first three years.

He has guided Nebraska to at least nine wins each of his first five seasons in Lincoln, and three 10-win seasons. With the win over Wyoming in the opener, Pelini reached 50 career wins at Nebraska, making him just the fifth Husker coach to reach that milestone, joining Tom Osborne, Bob Devaney, Frank Solich and Dana X. Bible.

Pelini took charge of the Huskers after a highly successful five-year run as a collegiate defensive coordinator, including orchestrating NU's defensive efforts in 2003. Pelini picked up his first college head coaching victory as NU's interim coach in the 2003 Alamo Bowl against Michigan State.

Following his one season at Nebraska, Pelini served as the co-defensive coordinator at Oklahoma in 2004, helping the Sooners to the Big 12 title and BCS title game. He then followed with three seasons as the defensive coordinator at LSU. With the Tigers, Pelini led three consecutive defenses to No. 3 national rankings in total defense. He culminated his time in Baton Rouge by helping the Tigers to the 2007 national championship.

In addition to his five seasons as an assistant at the collegiate level, Pelini coached in the NFL for nine seasons, serving three years each with the San Francisco 49ers, New England Patriots and Green Bay Packers. Pelini was a team captain and four-year letterman as a safety at Ohio State from 1987 to 1990.

PELINI STACKS UP WELL WITH PEERS

- In guiding Nebraska to a 56-23 record, Pelini has put himself in some impressive company.
- » Among schools currently in a BCS-AQ conference, Pelini was just the 11th head coach in college football history to win at least nine games in each of his first five seasons on the job at that school. The group includes three Nebraska coaches (Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne, Pelini).
- » When looking only at coaches in their first head coaching job at a BCS school, Pelini is one of only four to win nine games in each of their first five years, joining Osborne, Barry Switzer (Oklahoma) and Larry Coker (Miami).
- » Pelini was among a group of 18 FBS head coaches who were hired for their jobs beginning with the 2008 season. Pelini leads that group of 18 head coaches in victories over the past five-plus years with 55 wins. In fact, Pelini is one of only six coaches in the group of 18 still in the job they were hired for prior to the 2008 season.

PELINI CONTINUES DEFENSIVE ACCOMPLISHMENTS AT NEBRASKA

At Nebraska, Pelini has continued his history of building championship defenses. In 2009, the Huskers led the nation in scoring defense and had the nation's best scoring defensive improvement (18.1 ppg). When combining statistics from the past four-plus seasons, NU ranks third in pass efficiency defense, third in passing defense, 16th in scoring defense and 15th in total defense.

- With Pelini's previous track record, the success of his Nebraska defenses is no surprise.
- ▶ Pelini led the 2003 Blackshirts to a school-record 47 takeaways, including a Big 12-record 32 interceptions, and finished second nationally in scoring defense, first in pass efficiency defense and 11th in total defense.
- ▶ Pelini guided LSU defenses to No. 3 national finishes in total defense each of his three seasons in Baton Rouge.
- ▶ In 145 games as a collegiate coach, Pelini's defenses have posted 10 shutouts, held the opposition to seven points or less 41 times and to 20 points or less 91 times.

HUSKER STAFF RETURNS INTACT FOR 2013 SEASON

Nebraska's coaching staff has a familiar look in 2013, as all nine assistants returned to Coach Bo Pelini's staff. Nebraska's staff is one of 18 coaching staffs in the country to return intact this season.

Tim Beck is in his third season as offensive coordinator in 2013, after guiding Nebraska's offense to a top-10 national rushing effort last season. Seventh-year Nebraska assistant Barney Cotton adds the role of run game coordinator and will tutor the Nebraska tight ends this fall, in addition to his role with the offensive line. Ron Brown (running backs), Rich Fisher (wide receivers) and John Garrison (offensive line) also return to the offensive staff.

The defensive staff is under the direction of second-year coordinator John Papuchis. Last season, the Blackshirts ranked among the nation's top units in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Returning to the defensive staff along with Papuchis are Ross Els (linebackers), Terry Joseph (secondary) and Rick Kaczinski (defensive line).

SCOUTING PENN STATE

Penn State is coming off a 45-21 win over Purdue last weekend, and the Nittany Lions bring a 6-4 overall record into Saturday's game. PSU is 3-3 in Big Ten Conference play.

Nebraska and Penn State are similar teams on paper. Both teams have defeated Illinois, Michigan and Purdue this season and both teams have also lost at Minnesota. Statistically, Penn State averages 435 yards of total offense, just six yards fewer than Nebraska. Defensively, the Nittany Lions allow 376 yards per game, only two yards more than the Huskers. Both teams have also struggled with turnovers, as Penn State ranks 99th nationally with an average turnover margin per game of -0.6, while Nebraska is 106th at -0.8.

While the teams match up statistically in yards gained and yards allowed, Penn State hasn't been as successful as Nebraska in scoring offense or scoring defense. The Nittany Lions average 29 points per game, six fewer than Nebraska. Defensively, Penn State is surrendering an average of 27 points per game, two more than Nebraska.

The PSU offense is led by freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg, one of the nation's top recruits last year. The Big Ten's top recruits last year. The Big Ten's third-leading passer, Hackenberg has thrown for 2,399 yards this season, completing 59 percent of his passes for 14 touchdowns and nine interceptions. One of Hackenberg's favorite targets has been All-America candidate Allen Robinson, who leads the Big Ten with 81 catches and 1,204 receiving yards. He has caught 16 more passes than any other Big Ten receiver while averaging 120.4 receiving yards per contest.

On the ground, the duo of Bill Belton and Zach Zwinak have combined for 1,521 rushing yards this fall. Belton has rushed for 796 yards and five touchdowns on one more carry than Zwinak, while Zwinak has rushed for 725 yards and a team-high 12 touchdowns, one off the Big Ten lead.

Defensively, Penn State ranks in the top five in the conference and among the top 45 teams nationally in sacks and tackles for loss. Defensive tackle DaQuan Jones is tied for fourth in the league with 11.5 TFLs this fall, while defensive end C.J. Olaniyan leads PSU with 4.0 sacks. Penn State has also been a disciplined team this season. The Nittany Lions are penalized only 33 yards per game this season, the fewest of any Big Ten team and the ninth-fewest penalty yards of any team in the nation.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska leads the all-time series with Penn State, 8-7. The Huskers have won three straight in the series, including each of the two matchups as Big Ten Conference foes. The 19th-ranked Huskers upset No. 12 Penn State, 17-14, in State College in 2011. Last year in Lincoln, 18th-ranked Nebraska rallied from a 14-point halftime deficit to defeat Penn State, 32-23. Saturday's game will snap a streak of nine consecutive meetings dating back to 1979 where either Nebraska, Penn State or both teams were ranked at kickoff.

Neither team has won more than three straight games in the series, and Nebraska will be going for its fourth straight victory on Saturday. Penn State owns a 5-2 record in State College.

PENN STATE HEAD COACH BILL O'BRIEN

Bill O'Brien is in his second season at Penn State, his first head coaching job. He owns a 14-8 record at PSU, including an 0-1 mark against Nebraska. Despite facing NCAA sanctions that include reduced scholarships, O'Brien guided the Nittany Lions to an 8-4 record in 2012, although Penn State did not advance to a bowl game due to its NCAA sanctions. PSU is 6-4 in 2013, with three of its losses coming to top-25 opponents.

Before taking the Penn State job in January of 2012, O'Brien had spent five years in the NFL. He was with the New England Patriots from 2007 to 2011, ending his stint with the Patriots as offensive coordinator in 2011. Previously, he had coached both New England's quarterbacks and wide receivers.

O'Brien began his coaching career in the collegiate ranks at Brown, his alma mater, in 1993 and 1994. He coached at Georgia Tech from 1995 to 2002, before coaching at Maryland in 2003 and 2004 and Duke in 2005 and 2006.

HUSKERS, NITTANY LIONS SQUARE OFF FOR FINAL TIME UNTIL 2017

Nebraska and Penn State have met each of the first three seasons the Huskers have been in the Big Ten. While the schools are in opposite divisions, they have been protected cross-over opponents. With the Big Ten realigning its divisions for next season, it will no longer have protected cross-over games. The next time the schools are scheduled to meet is in 2017 at Penn State. In fact, the 2017 meeting is the only matchup scheduled between the schools between 2014 and 2019.

HUSKERS LOOK FOR STRONG NOVEMBER FINISH

Nebraska opened the month of November with a pair of dramatic victories over Northwestern and Michigan. Despite a setback against Michigan State, Nebraska remains in position for another strong performance in November. The loss to the Spartans ended Nebraska's seven-game November win streak.

► Nebraska is 18-5 in the month of November in Bo Pelini's six seasons as head coach, including perfect records in the month of November in 2009 and 2012.

► Nebraska's streak of seven straight November wins that ended last week was NU's second-longest under Pelini. Nebraska won nine straight November games from 2008 to 2010.

► Nebraska has posted fourth-quarter comebacks in four of the seven wins in its current November streak.

► Nebraska is 8-3 in November since joining the Big Ten, including a pair of victories over Penn State.

HUSKERS CONTINUE TO SHOW ABILITY TO RALLY; WIN CLOSE GAMES

Nebraska defeated Michigan 17-13 on Nov. 9, driving 75 yards in the fourth quarter for the game-winning points. The four-point win marked the second straight game Nebraska had won by seven or fewer points and improved Nebraska to 3-0 in that situation in 2013. Nebraska has won seven straight games in games decided by seven or fewer points, tying for the second-longest winning such streak in the country, behind Arkansas State's eight wins.

► Nebraska rallied from a 21-7 deficit for a win against Northwestern on Nov. 2. That game marked Nebraska's fifth win in Big Ten play over the last two seasons when trailing by double digits. Nebraska also rallied from double-figure deficits for conference wins last season against Wisconsin (17 points), Northwestern (12 points), Michigan State (10 points) and Penn State (14 points).

► Nebraska has won six Big Ten games in the past two seasons after trailing in the fourth quarter. In addition to the wins in back-to-back games this season, Nebraska also trailed Wisconsin, Northwestern, Michigan State and Penn State in the fourth quarter before winning last season.

NEBRASKA AMONG BIG TEN LEADERS IN WINS SINCE JOINING CONFERENCE

Nebraska stands at 4-2 in Big Ten play in 2013. Nebraska has won 16 of 22 regular-season Big Ten games since joining the conference in 2011. The 16 wins since the start of the 2011 season are tied for the second-most Big Ten victories in that time period.

Nebraska captured the Legends Division crown and made a trip to the Big Ten Conference Championship Game in 2012. The Huskers have won 10 of their last 12 regular-season Big Ten games heading into Saturday's matchup at Penn State.

NU SHOOTS FOR SIXTH STRAIGHT YEAR WITH NINE OR MORE WINS

Nebraska posted a 10-4 record in 2012, giving the Huskers nine or more victories in each of Bo Pelini's first five seasons as head coach. The streak of five straight nine-win seasons puts Nebraska in an elite class nationally. Nebraska sits at 7-3 overall with two regular-season games and a bowl game left on its 2013 slate. The Huskers will need to win two of three games to continue their nine-win streak.

► Nebraska is one of four schools that has won at least nine games each of the past five seasons. The others in that group include Alabama, Boise State and Oregon. Alabama and Oregon have secured nine-win seasons in 2013, while Boise State and Nebraska sit at seven wins each.

► Pelini has guided Nebraska to 10-win seasons in three of the last four years.

► The five straight years of at least nine wins marks the first time NU has accomplished that since its NCAA record streak of 33 straight nine-win seasons from 1969 to 2001.

► Nebraska has 47 nine-win seasons in school history, including 39 since 1969.

NU KEEPS RUNNING GAME IN HIGH GEAR IN 2013

Nebraska has featured one of the nation's top rushing attacks each of the past three seasons, and the Huskers are proving to be a dominant running team again in 2013.

The Husker running game came out of the gate fast in 2013, rushing for 375 yards in the season opener against Wyoming, with four players topping 75 yards on the ground. NU also eclipsed 300 yards on the ground against South Dakota State and Illinois, rushing for 335 yards in each of those games. Nebraska is averaging 240.3 rushing yards per game to rank third in the Big Ten and 16th nationally.

► Nebraska's 375 rushing yards vs. Wyoming were its most in a season opener since 2007. With back-to-back 300-yard games against South Dakota State and Illinois, Nebraska has topped 300 yards on the ground 15 times under Pelini, with six of those games coming since the start of the 2012 season. Nebraska is 15-0 in those games.

► Nebraska's 335 rushing yards against Illinois marked its second-highest total in a Big Ten Conference game and its most since rushing for 346 yards at Minnesota in 2011.

► Nebraska has reached at least 200 rushing yards in 17 of 24 games since the start of the 2012 season, including five times this season. Nebraska is 5-0 in 2013 when rushing for at least 200 yards.

► Despite not hitting the 200-yard rushing mark, Nebraska had one of its top games on the ground against Michigan State. The Huskers rushed for 182 yards on a Spartan defense that was allowing just 43.4 rushing yards per game. Nebraska was the first team to top 100 yards rushing against MSU since the Huskers ran for 313 yards last year in East Lansing.

► Through 10 games, Nebraska I-backs Ameer Abdullah (1,336 yards), Imani Cross (407) and Terrell Newby (293) have combined for 2,036 rushing yards and 19 rushing touchdowns. The group averages 6.1 yards per carry.

► Abdullah has reached 100 rushing yards in nine of 10 games, including each of the last seven games and all six Big Ten games. He rushed for a career-high 225 yards against Illinois. Abdullah has 15 career 100-yard rushing games. Cross also topped the century mark against Wyoming, giving Nebraska 10 100-yard rushing games this season.

► Newby rushed 15 times for 76 yards in the season opener against Wyoming. Newby's rushing attempts and yards were the most by a true freshman in an opener since 2007. (Quentin Castille, 18-78)

► Cross scored two touchdowns each against Wyoming, South Dakota State and Purdue and has five career games with two rushing touchdowns. Cross has 17 rushing touchdowns on 128 career carries, a touchdown every 7.5 carries.

► The four players reaching at least 75 yards rushing vs. Wyoming marked the first time NU has reached that group milestone since four Huskers topped the century mark on the ground at Baylor in 2001.

This year's rushing surge continues Nebraska's success on the ground. A year ago, NU averaged 253.4 rushing yards per game to lead the Big Ten and rank eighth nationally in rushing offense. The rushing average per game was the best by NU since the Huskers ran for 268.7 yards per game in 2002.

► Nebraska has averaged better than 200 rushing yards per game for three straight seasons and ranked in the top 15 nationally in that category each year from 2010 to 2012. In 2010, Nebraska ranked first in the Big 12 and ninth nationally, and in 2011 NU rushed for 217.2 yards per game, good for third in the Big Ten and 15th nationally.

► With Abdullah posting 1,336 rushing yards in 2013, Nebraska has had a 1,000-yard rusher each of the past five seasons. That is the longest stretch for NU since the Huskers had at least one 1,000-yard rusher from 1991 to 1995.

► Nebraska posted a total of 15 individual 100-yard rushing games last season, and four games with a pair of 100-yard rushers. With Abdullah and Cross both surpassing 100 yards in the season opener, Nebraska now has 75 all-time games with two 100-yard rushers.

HUSKERS STRIVING FOR BALANCED ATTACK AGAIN IN 2013

While leading the Big Ten in rushing in 2012, Nebraska also averaged better than 200 yards passing per game. The Huskers were one of only 19 schools in the country to average better than 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing in 2012, and the only Big Ten school in the 200-200 club last season.

Nebraska is looking for similar balance this season, and is averaging 240.3 rushing yards per game, and 200.3 passing yards per contest. Nebraska is one of only 17 teams in the country averaging 200 yards per game both rushing and passing, also including Ohio State in the Big Ten.

ABDULLAH RUNNING AT IMPRESSIVE PACE IN 2013

Junior I-back Ameer Abdullah has been one of the nation's top running backs in 2013. The Homewood, Ala., native has emerged as a strong candidate for All-America honors and is one of 10 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award.

Abdullah has nine 100-yard rushing games, including a career-high 225 rushing yards against Illinois. Abdullah has rushed for 1,336 yards and seven touchdowns in 2013, while averaging an impressive 6.5 yards per carry. Abdullah's average of 133.6 rushing yards per game leads the Big Ten and ranks sixth nationally. In conference games only, Abdullah averages 145.2 yards per game to rank second in the league in rushing.

▶ With 1,336 rushing yards through 10 games, Abdullah's rushing total stacks up well in recent Husker history. His 10-game rushing total is the sixth-best for Nebraska players since World War II.

▶ Abdullah was the first Nebraska player to reach 1,000 rushing yards in eight or fewer games since Ahman Green in 1997.

▶ Abdullah is well on his way to one of the top rushing seasons in school history. He currently sits in ninth place on the single-season rushing list and needs 162 rushing yards in the season's final three games to reach the top five on that chart.

ABDULLAH POSTS BACK-TO-BACK 1,000-YARD RUSHING SEASONS

Abdullah first emerged as one of the Big Ten's top running backs in 2012, as he posted a 1,000-yard rushing season. Abdullah carried a heavy load in the rushing game, teaming with quarterback Taylor Martinez to give Nebraska a pair of 1,000-yard rushers. Abdullah has repeated the feat in 2013, with 1,336 rushing yards in 10 games.

Abdullah has rushed for more than 100 yards in nine of 10 games this season, while falling just short with 98 rushing yards against UCLA. Abdullah ran for 114 yards in the opener against Wyoming, including a career-long 62-yard run. Abdullah closed out non-conference play by rushing for 139 yards on 15 carries against South Dakota State. Abdullah carried the ball just once after halftime in the win over the Jackrabbits.

The non-conference season set the stage for a career day for Abdullah in the Big Ten opener against Illinois. Abdullah rushed 20 times for a career-high 225 yards and two touchdowns. He had three runs of better than 30 yards in the game, including a highlight-reel 43-yard TD run in the third quarter.

His 225 yards against Illinois were the most by a Husker since Roy Helu Jr. ran for a school-record 307 yards against Missouri in 2010. For his performance, Abdullah was named Big Ten Co-Offensive Player of the Week. It was the first time Abdullah had earned the offensive player-of-the-week honors, but his fourth Big Ten weekly honor. He previously earned the Special Teams Player of the Week twice, and was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week once in 2011.

Abdullah has backed up the Illinois performance by rushing for more than 100 yards in every Big Ten game. He ran for 126 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries at Purdue on Oct. 12. At Minnesota, Abdullah ran for 165 yards on 19 carries, an impressive 8.7 yards per carry. He added 127 rushing yards and 197 all-purpose yards against Northwestern.

At Michigan, Abdullah ran for 105 hard-fought yards, including a touchdown, while catching a game-winning five-yard touchdown pass in the final minutes. Against Michigan State, Abdullah became the first player to reach 100 rushing yards against the Spartans, running for 123 yards on 22 carries. He also caught a 12-yard touchdown pass.

▶ Abdullah leads the Big Ten and ranks sixth nationally in rushing yards per game at 133.6 per contest. In Big Ten games only, Abdullah averages 145.2 rushing yards per game to rank second in the league.

▶ Abdullah has 15 career 100-yard rushing efforts, including nine in 2013. His 15 100-yard rushing games tie for the fifth-most in Nebraska history and are sixth among active FBS players.

▶ Abdullah's nine 100-yard rushing games this season tie for the most in the country in 2013. The total is also the fourth-most in a season in Nebraska history, and his seven straight 100-yard rushing games is also tied for the fourth-longest streak in a season in NU history.

▶ Abdullah has an opportunity to join Iowa's Shonn Greene (2008) as the only Big Ten running backs in the past decade to rush for 100 yards in every conference game.

▶ Abdullah is just the eighth player in school history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Abdullah ran for 1,137 yards last season.

▶ Abdullah has shown big-play rushing ability this season. He has seven rushes of 30 yards or more in 2013, including a career-long 62-yard run against Wyoming. He had three runs of 30 yards or more in his career effort against Illinois.

▶ Abdullah is the 28th player in Nebraska history to surpass 2,000 career rushing yards, and cracked the top 20 on the NU career rushing list against Northwestern.

▶ Abdullah moved up four spots on the career rushing list at Michigan, and two more places against Michigan State. With 2,623 career rushing yards, Abdullah is 14th in school history and is 156 yards from the career top 10.

▶ Abdullah was just the 12th player to reach the 2,000-yard mark before his senior season, and is one of only eight players to reach 2,500 yards before their senior season.

▶ In addition to his running skills, Abdullah is a receiving threat out of the backfield, with 22 receptions for 191 yards and two touchdowns this season. His 156.6 all-purpose yards per game lead the Big Ten and rank 13th nationally.

▶ Abdullah has 1,566 all-purpose yards this season and 4,346 in his career. His career all-purpose yardage total is third in school history, trailing only Heisman Trophy winners Johnny Rodgers (5,586 yards) and Mike Rozier (5,445 yards).

▶ Abdullah was one of the nation's top kickoff return threats in 2011 and 2012. He has just two kickoff returns this season but has been on the top kickoff return unit during Big Ten play.

▶ Abdullah is one of only three active players in the country with a rushing, receiving, punt return and kickoff return touchdown in their career.

Abdullah finished the 2012 season with 1,137 yards, while averaging 5.0 yards per rushing attempt. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the league's coaches, while being an honorable-mention pick by the media. Abdullah and Martinez posted the 32nd and 33rd 1,000-yard rushing seasons in NU history, and Abdullah's 1,000-yard campaign was the eighth in school history by a sophomore. His 1,137 yards rank as the 20th-best single-season effort at Nebraska.

Abdullah had 1,884 all-purpose yards in 2012 to rank sixth on the NU single-season all-purpose yardage list. It was the most all-purpose yards for a Husker since 1997.

▶ Abdullah rushed for better than 100 yards in each of his first five career starts in 2012. He was the first Nebraska player to record 100-yard rushing games in each of his first five starts since Lawrence Phillips topped 100 yards in each of his first 11 starts in 1994.

▶ Abdullah was an explosive all-purpose threat for the Huskers in several areas in 2012. Abdullah averaged 13.1 yards per punt return, including an 81-yard return for a score against Idaho State. He also averaged 21.2 yards per kickoff return and had an 83-yard kickoff return against Wisconsin. Abdullah's 134.6 all-purpose yards per game were fourth in the Big Ten and 31st nationally.

ENUNWA PRODUCING MONSTER SENIOR SEASON

Nebraska's passing game in 2013 has been paced by the play of senior receiver Quincy Enunwa, one of four Nebraska captains.

The 6-2, 225-pound Enunwa has turned into the favorite red zone target for Nebraska's quarterbacks in 2013. Enunwa has caught eight touchdowns, including a pair of touchdowns against both Southern Miss and UCLA. Enunwa is second in the Big Ten and ranks 21st nationally in touchdown receptions.

Enunwa entered the 2013 season with three career touchdowns, but has more than doubled that total this season. If Enunwa were to add a third multiple-TD catch game in 2013, he would be the first Husker with three games with two or more TD catches in a season since Irving Fryar in 1983. With his eight touchdowns, Enunwa is already tied for fourth on the Nebraska single-season TD receptions list and is within striking distance of the school record of 11 touchdown catches by Johnny Rodgers in 1971.

Enunwa has team-leading totals of 41 receptions and 536 yards this fall. He set a career-high with seven catches for 69 yards at Michigan, bettering four previous games in his career with six catches. Enunwa had a season-high 80 receiving yards on four catches against Illinois.

▶ Enunwa continues to move up the Nebraska career receptions list. Enunwa has 105 career receptions, good for seventh place on the NU career receptions list.

▶ Enunwa eclipsed the 1,000-yard career receiving yardage mark against Illinois, becoming the 22nd Nebraska player to accomplish that feat. Against Michigan, Enunwa moved into the top 10 on the NU career receiving yardage list. His total of 1,309 career receiving yards is 10th in school history.

▶ Enunwa had a streak of 23 straight games with at least one catch end against Michigan State. The 23-game streak tied for the third-longest streak in school history.

▶ Enunwa caught 42 passes last season and has produced back-to-back 40-catch seasons with his 41 receptions in 2013. Enunwa is just the fourth player in Nebraska history to record two seasons with 40-plus receptions, joining Johnny Rodgers, Nate Swift and Terrence Nunn.

▶ Last season Enunwa and fellow wideout Kenny Bell became just the fifth Nebraska duo to top 40 catches in the same season. Bell needs one catch for the twosome to duplicate the feat in 2013.

BELL MOVING NEAR TOP OF NEBRASKA RECEIVING CHARTS

Junior receiver Kenny Bell has continued to be a big-play threat for the Huskers in 2013, while nearing the top of the Nebraska receiving charts. Bell has been slowed by nagging injuries in recent weeks, but remains one of the Big Ten's top receivers.

Bell has 39 catches for 466 yards and four touchdowns in 2013. Against Michigan State, Bell tied his season high with seven receptions good for a season-high 81 yards. His day included a 38-yard touchdown grab, for his fourth receiving score of the season. The seven catches tied his output in the opener against Wyoming and represent the second-highest receptions total of his career.

Following his seven-catch effort in the season opener, Bell added three catches, including a 21-yard touchdown grab against Southern Miss, then followed with six receptions for 68 yards, including a 22-yard TD grab against UCLA.

Bell had two catches against South Dakota State to push his career receptions total to 100, making him the seventh Husker player with 100 career receptions. He had four catches for 65 yards against Illinois, including a spectacular 37-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter. Bell had a clutch 26-yard grab on fourth down at Michigan to set up the Huskers' game-winning touchdown.

Bell moved into third place on the Nebraska career receiving yardage list against Michigan State with 1,790 career yards. Bell has 121 career receptions to rank fifth in school history, and he is well on his way to threatening the Nebraska career receptions record of 166 by Nate Swift from 2005 to 2008.

With four touchdown catches this season, Bell has pushed his career TD reception total to 15, good for a tie for fourth on the NU career TD reception list. He is one touchdown catch from moving into a tie for third on the career chart. Bell has a knack for the big play. Each of his last 13 touchdown receptions have covered at least 20 yards, including all four of his TD catches in 2013.

Bell has 39 receptions this season, and needs just one more catch to post his second season with more than 40 catches. Bell would be just the fifth player in school history to accomplish that feat, joining teammate Quincy Enunwa, Johnny Rodgers, Terrence Nunn and Nate Swift.

Bell was a second-team All-Big Ten selection as a sophomore, when he led Nebraska with 50 receptions for 863 yards and eight touchdowns. The 50 receptions marked just the seventh time in school history a Husker player had reached 50 catches, and the 863 receiving yards were the fourth-highest single-season total in NU history. The receiving yardage was the most ever by an NU sophomore, shattering the previous mark of 665 yards by Johnny Rodgers in 1970.

- ▶ Bell's 50 receptions in 2012 ranked seventh on the NU single-season list.
- ▶ Bell had career highs of nine receptions for 136 yards and two touchdowns against Minnesota last season. His 136 receiving yards were the most by a Husker in three seasons and bettered his career high of 133 yards at Ohio State.
- ▶ Bell's 17.3 yards per catch in 2012 ranked second in the Big Ten and eighth nationally among players in the top 100 in receiving yards per game. His average was the 10th-best in NU history among players with at least 30 catches.
- ▶ Bell had 16 receptions in 2012 that covered at least 20 yards, with all eight of his touchdown catches coming from 25 yards or more. Bell had a career-long 74-yard reception at Ohio State on Oct. 6. In 2013, Bell has six receptions of 20 yards or more, including each of his four touchdowns.
- ▶ Bell had a streak of 23 straight games with a catch end at Iowa in 2012, the third-longest streak in NU history.
- ▶ Bell reached the 1,000-yard career receiving mark in 20 games, making him the second-fastest Husker to reach that mark. Only Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers reached 1,000 career receiving yards in fewer games.

ARMSTRONG HANDLING REINS OF AILING HUSKER OFFENSE

Redshirt freshman Tommy Armstrong Jr. was thrust into the forefront of the Nebraska offense with the injuries to fifth-year senior Taylor Martinez. Armstrong has started six of the past seven games and along with senior Ron Kellogg III has guided a banged-up Nebraska offense.

Despite injuries to more than half of the Huskers' regular offensive starters, Armstrong has guided Nebraska to a 5-1 record as the starting quarterback. Armstrong won his first five starts, matching Martinez's 5-0 mark as a redshirt freshman to begin the 2010 season. The last Nebraska quarterback to win more consecutive games to begin his career as a starter than Armstrong's five wins was when senior Brook Berringer won all seven of his starts in 1994.

Under the direction of Armstrong and Kellogg, Nebraska has averaged 456.4 yards of total offense and 35.7 points per game.

▶ Armstrong guided Nebraska to a touchdown on its opening possession in each of his first four starts this season. Against Michigan, Armstrong led scoring drives on the second and third drives of the afternoon.

▶ Nebraska did not punt in the first half against either South Dakota State or Illinois, the first two games that Armstrong started.

▶ Nebraska rushed for 335 yards against both South Dakota State and Illinois, and had 251 yards on the ground against Purdue. NU posted 277 passing yards in the win over Northwestern.

The injury to Martinez is only a small part of the injury story for the Nebraska offense. During the second half of the Northwestern game, Nebraska was without six of its regular offensive starters. Since then, Nebraska has suffered several additional injuries, forcing the Huskers to shuffle their offensive personnel, particularly on the offensive line.

HUSKERS CONTINUE TO LIGHT THE SCOREBOARD IN 2013

Nebraska is averaging 35.1 points per game to rank fourth in the Big Ten and xxth nationally in scoring. The Huskers topped 50 points against both Southern Miss and South Dakota State.

► The Huskers' 59 points against South Dakota State were the second-most Nebraska has scored in six seasons under Head Coach Bo Pelini, while the 56 points against Southern Miss tied for the third most. The two games give Nebraska eight 50-plus point outings under Pelini.

► Since the start of the 2012 season, Nebraska has scored at least 30 points in 15 of 24 games.

That group of injured players includes a pair of returning All-Big Ten players in Martinez and right guard Spencer Long, who was lost for the season with a knee injury at Purdue. Starting left guard Jake Cotton suffered a sprained knee against Northwestern causing Nebraska to shuffle its offensive line.

Starting senior tackle Jeremiah Sirles suffered a similar injury against Michigan, and was expected to miss the Michigan State game, but started and played the majority of the first half before sitting out the second half. In practice prior to the Michigan State game, offensive guard Mike Moudy who originally replaced Spencer Long in the starting lineup suffered a shoulder injury and missed the MSU contest.

Tight end Jake Long missed three straight games before returning to duty at Michigan. Receiver Jamal Turner was injured against Minnesota and has missed the past three games, while fellow receiver Kenny Bell played only a handful of snaps against Northwestern before leaving with an injury. Bell returned to play against Michigan. Receivers Jordan Westerkamp and Alonzo Moore have also been banged up in recent weeks.

HUSKER O-LINE CONTINUES MOVING FORWARD DESPITE INJURIES TO LONG, OTHERS

The veteran Nebraska offensive line lost its leader when senior guard Spencer Long suffered a knee injury against Purdue. Long underwent surgery and is lost for the season. The 6-4, 315-pound Long had started every game at right guard since the start of the 2011 season, a streak of 33 straight games. Long's play was a key factor in Nebraska fielding one of the nation's top rushing offenses each of the past three seasons.

The injury to Long was just the first in a series of setbacks for the Husker front line. The injury bug has also hit starting left guard Jake Cotton, starting tackle Jeremiah Sirles and guard Mike Moudy. Regular starters Andrew Rodriguez and Cole Pensick have been asked to move from tackle and center, respectively, to fill the depleted guard spots.

Long was the most decorated of the veteran line coming into 2013, after he was recognized for his efforts in 2012. The former walk-on earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from both the league media and coaches, and was a second-team All-America pick by the Associated Press and the Walter Camp Foundation. Long became the first NU offensive lineman since 2001 to be named a first- or second-team All-American. He is the first returning All-American on the offensive line since 1997. Long was on his way for similar honors this season, being named a third-team Mid-Season All-American by Phil Steele.

Long is still a candidate for honors off the field. He was named an Academic All-District VII selection last week, marking the third straight year he has been on that team. Long is a strong candidate for first-team academic All-America honors this year. Long has also been named as one of 16 recipients of the National Football Foundation/College Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athlete Award.

Long's fellow offensive linemen are honoring him for the rest of the 2013 season, with one player wearing No. 61 each week. Center Mark Pelini is expected to wear the number at Penn State.

Long is far from the only veteran on the line. Sirles has started 38 games in his career, including 24 straight games the past two seasons. Fellow senior tackle Brent Qvale earned 13 starts at left tackle in 2012, and has started the past two games. He has played in 50 games in his Nebraska career.

They are joined on the line by fellow seniors Rodriguez and Pensick, who both had starting experience prior to this season. Pensick split time between guard and center in 2012, before starting the final two games at center, and each of the first 10 games this season. Rodriguez was the top reserve at tackle in 2012, and has 18 career starts, including every game this season, eight at tackle and two at guard.

► In addition to plowing the way for a dominant rushing attack, the offensive line has also done an outstanding job of protecting all three Nebraska quarterbacks. Nebraska has allowed 12 sacks in 10 games and ranks 19th in the nation in that category. NU did not allow a sack against Michigan State, the nation's top-ranked defense.

MARTINEZ UNLIKELY TO RETURN IN REGULAR SEASON

Nebraska senior quarterback Taylor Martinez has missed six of the past seven games with several injuries, and is unlikely to return in 2013. Martinez started 32 straight games at quarterback before being sidelined against South Dakota State. He returned to play at Minnesota on Oct. 26, but has not played in Nebraska's past three games.

Martinez became the first quarterback in school history to start four consecutive season openers against Wyoming. Only Tommie Frazier (1993-94-95) and Steve Taylor (1986-87-88) had previously started three season openers at quarterback in NU school history. Martinez was one of just seven quarterbacks in the FBS ranks who started their fourth consecutive season opener in 2013, and he is the only player in the group to post a 4-0 record in those games.

Martinez has made 43 career starts, the most ever for an NU quarterback.

MARTINEZ HOLDS PROMINENT PLACE IN NEBRASKA RECORD BOOK

Regardless of whether he returns to action in 2013, Martinez has made a huge mark in the Nebraska school record book with 37 school records. He also ranks statistically ranking among the top run-pass quarterbacks in college football history.

The Corona, Calif., native has put up remarkable numbers, including:

- ▶ Martinez holds Nebraska’s career total offense record with 10,233 yards. He set the Nebraska record midway through the 2012 season, surpassing the previous record of 7,915 yards by 2001 Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch.
- ▶ Martinez established a season total offense record in 2012, with 3,890 yards of total offense. He broke the previous record of 3,826 yards by Joe Ganz in 2008. Martinez has the top total offense seasons in school history for a freshman, sophomore and junior.
- ▶ Martinez threw for 2,871 yards in 2012, the third-best single-season total in Nebraska history. He has 7,258 career passing yards at Nebraska. The previous career record of 5,850 yards was set by Zac Taylor in 2005-06.
- ▶ Martinez had 23 passing touchdowns in 2012, and has thrown for 10 touchdowns in 2013. Martinez has a school-record 56 TD passes in his career, bettering Zac Taylor’s career total of 45 passing touchdowns. Martinez opened the 2013 season with three passing touchdowns in each of the first three games and has six career games with three or more touchdown passes.
- ▶ Martinez accounted for a school-record 33 touchdowns in 2012 (23 pass, 10 rush), bettering the previous record of 32 by Gerry Gdowski in 1989. With 10 touchdowns in 2013, Martinez has accounted for 87 touchdowns in his career, three shy of the school record of 90 by Crouch.
- ▶ With 1,019 rushing yards in 2012, Martinez posted the fourth 1,000-yard rushing season in school history by a NU quarterback. Martinez has 2,975 career rushing yards, second among quarterbacks in school history, trailing only Crouch’s 3,434 yards. Martinez is eighth on the NU career rushing list, just 25 yards shy of reaching 3,000 career rushing yards. He would become just the 16th quarterback in FBS history and third in Big Ten history to rush for 3,000 career yards if he were to hit that milestone.

MARTINEZ STATS STACK UP WELL ON NCAA ALL-TIME CHARTS

Martinez’s statistics compare favorably with a number of quarterbacks on the national level.

- ▶ Before being hit with injuries this season, Martinez was on pace to push for 9,000 career passing yards and 3,000 rushing yards. He would have joined Colin Kaepernick as the only players in FBS history to reach the 9,000/3,000 career mark.
- ▶ Martinez is one of only four players to reach 6,000 passing yards and 2,500 rushing yards before the end of their junior season. He joined Kaepernick, Vince Young (Texas) and Brad Smith (Missouri) in that club. He is 25 rushing yards from becoming the fifth player in FBS history with 7,000 career passing yards and 3,000 career rushing yards. He would join Kaepernick, Smith, Josh Cribbs (Akron) and Antwaan Randle El (Indiana) in that category.
- ▶ Martinez’s 10,233 yards of total offense are eighth among active players. Earlier this season, Martinez became just the ninth player in Big Ten history with 10,000 career total offense yards.

BLACKSHIRTS MAKING BIG IMPROVEMENTS IN BIG TEN PLAY;

POST DOMINANT EFFORT AT MICHIGAN

The Nebraska defense has made significant strides in recent weeks, ranking as one of the league’s top defenses in conference play. The surge by the Blackshirts was highlighted by one of its most dominant defensive efforts in recent years in a 17-13 win at Michigan on Nov. 9. The Blackshirt defense allowed only 175 total yards, including -21 rushing yards, fueled by seven sacks and 16 tackles for loss.

The effort against the Wolverines was notable in several ways, including...

- ▶ The 175 yards of total offense for Michigan was the fewest by a Nebraska opponent since Kansas had just 87 yards of offense in 2010.
- ▶ Nebraska limited Michigan to less than 200 yards for the second consecutive season after the Wolverines had just 188 total yards last year in Lincoln.
- ▶ The -21 rushing yards for Michigan tied for the sixth-best rushing defense effort in school history by Nebraska. It was the best rush defense effort for the Blackshirts since NU allowed -25 rushing yards against Troy State in 2001. Michigan’s longest run in the game was seven yards.
- ▶ Nebraska’s seven sacks were a season-high and Nebraska’s most since also having seven sacks against Idaho State last season in Lincoln.
- ▶ The Husker defense totaled 16 tackles for loss, the most since Nebraska had a school-record 18 tackles for loss against Maine in 2005.
- ▶ The Blackshirts held up on short fields against Michigan. The Wolverines started three drives in Nebraska territory, including two following second-half turnovers. On those drives, Michigan gained a total of nine yards on 10 offensive snaps. The drives ended on downs, a punt and a Michigan field goal after taking over at the NU 26.

EFFORT AT MICHIGAN CONTINUES STRONG DEFENSIVE EFFORT IN BIG TEN PLAY

Nebraska's defensive numbers in Big Ten play stack up well with their Big Ten counterparts. In Big Ten games, the Nebraska defense is allowing 313.3 yards per game to rank third in the conference in defense in league contests. Nebraska's defense was particularly strong in back-to-back games against Northwestern and Michigan.

▶ Since falling behind Northwestern 21-7 early in the second quarter, the Wildcats and Wolverines had a combined 25 drives. Nebraska allowed just one touchdown and three field goals on those 25 drives. Two of the field goals occurred after a Husker turnover deep in their own territory.

▶ Michigan and Northwestern combined for just 318 yards on 108 plays in that stretch, an average of just 2.9 yards per play.

▶ Nebraska has been very tough against the pass in Big Ten play. Nebraska leads the conference, allowing just 165.0 passing yards per contest in six Big Ten games, 17 yards fewer than the next lowest average. Nebraska's six league foes have completed just 48.2 percent of their passes, the best mark in the conference. Wisconsin has the next-best opponent completion percentage at 52.0 percent in Big Ten games. Nebraska has allowed just four passing touchdowns in conference games.

▶ For the season, Nebraska has allowed opponents to complete 54.8 percent, the fourth-best mark in the Big Ten.

▶ Success against the pass is nothing new for Nebraska defenses. When combining stats since the start of the 2009 season, Nebraska ranks third nationally in pass efficiency defense and third in passing yards allowed per game. Nebraska led the nation in opposing pass completion percentage in 2012.

NEBRASKA WINNING THIRD-DOWN BATTLE

Nebraska has had good success on both sides of the football on third down in 2013. The Nebraska offense is converting 44.4 percent (63-of-142) of its third-down attempts this season to rank fifth in the Big Ten and 37th nationally.

Meanwhile, the Nebraska defense has been among the nation's best on third downs. Nebraska has allowed opponents to convert just 43-of-139 third-down attempts (30.9 percent) into first downs. That total ranks third in the Big Ten and seventh nationally.

▶ The Husker defense was stout on third downs against Northwestern. After allowing the Wildcats to convert their first two third-down attempts of the day, Northwestern was 0-of-12 on third downs the rest of the contest. NU came back with another excellent effort at Michigan, holding the Wolverines to just 3-of-15 on third downs.

▶ Nebraska's +13.5 percent differential in third-down conversions is fourth in the Big Ten Conference.

▶ In Nebraska's seven wins, the Huskers are converting 49.0 percent of its third downs, while allowing opponents to convert just 22.2 percent (20-90). Nebraska is 7-0 when winning the third-down battle and 0-3 when the opponent wins in that category.

BLACKSHIRTS SHOWING PLAY-MAKING ABILITY IN 2013

Nebraska's defense had one of its most explosive games in recent years early in the season against Southern Miss, and that game was an indication that the 2013 Blackshirts would have the ability to take the ball away from the opposition and make plays in the opposition's backfield.

Against Michigan, Nebraska had seven sacks for 43 yards, including three sacks by sophomore defensive end Randy Gregory. The Blackshirt defense also recorded 16 tackles for loss, the most by Nebraska since recording a school-record 18 tackles for loss against Maine in 2005.

▶ The Blackshirts are among the nation's best at harrasing opposing passers. The Huskers are tied with Ohio State for the Big Ten lead with 32 sacks in 10 games, an average of 3.2 per contest. That figure ranks fourth nationally.

▶ Nebraska has surpassed last year's sack total of 31 sacks in 14 games. The Huskers last topped 40 sacks in 2009, when NU registered 44 sacks.

▶ Nebraska has had at least three sacks in six of the past eight games, including five sacks each against South Dakota State, Purdue and Northwestern and seven sacks against Michigan.

▶ Nebraska has had six games with at least eight tackles for loss, including each of the past three games. In addition to the Michigan contest, Nebraska reached double figures with 10 tackles for loss against Illinois, had nine each against UCLA, South Dakota State and Northwestern, and eight against Michigan State.

The Huskers were especially opportunistic early in the season and have shown the ability to make opponents pay for turnovers.

▶ Nebraska has turned its 15 takeaways this season into 76 points.

NU STREAKS...THE HUSKERS HAVE...

- ▶ won 98 straight when rushing for 400 yards
- ▶ scored in 227 consecutive games
- ▶ scored in 297 straight home games
- ▶ shut out opponents 105 times

- ▶ The Huskers' 12 interceptions rank fourth in the Big Ten.
- ▶ Defensive end Avery Moss intercepted a pass against Northwestern and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown. The pick-six was the fourth by Nebraska this season, one shy of the school record of five in 1971 and 1995.
- ▶ Nebraska returned a pair of interceptions for touchdowns against Southern Miss, with Stanley Jean-Baptiste and Ciante Evans each finding the end zone. That marked the first two-TD game for the Blackshirts since 2010.
- ▶ The two interception returns for scores against Southern Miss were part of a four-INT day for the defense. The four interceptions were the most since a 2010 victory over Idaho when the Huskers had five picks.
- ▶ Nebraska's four takeaways against Southern Miss marked the first time NU has had four takeaways since forcing six turnovers against Idaho in that 2010 game, a span of 41 games.
- ▶ Jean-Baptiste had an interception in each of Nebraska's four games this season. His streak of four straight games with an interception tied the NU school record. He was the first player to accomplish that feat since All-American safety Josh Bullocks intercepted a pass in four straight games in 2003.
- ▶ Jean-Baptiste has 134 interception return yards, the most by a Husker since Daniel Bullocks had a school-record 187 interception return yards in 2004.
- ▶ With four interceptions, Jean-Baptiste is first in the Big Ten and tied for 22nd nationally in interceptions at 0.4 per game. Evans has three interceptions to rank eighth in the Big Ten. Last season, Daimion Stafford led Nebraska with four interceptions, while the team leader in 2011 had just two picks.
- ▶ Evans had two interceptions against the Golden Eagles. The last time a Husker had picked off two or more opponent passes occurred in 2009 when safety Matt O'Hanlon had three interceptions against Oklahoma.
- ▶ Nebraska was even or positive in turnover margin in each of the first five games of the season. The Huskers are 2-0 when forcing three or more turnovers, and 17-2 under Pelini when the defense has at least three takeaways.

GREGORY A DOMINANT FORCE ON HUSKER DEFENSIVE FRONT

Sophomore defensive end Randy Gregory showed early in the season he was one of the Big Ten's top newcomers. In recent weeks, Gregory has reached another level, proving to be one of the conference's top defenders, and is a leading contender for All-Big Ten honors this season. Last week, Gregory was one of 18 defensive ends who were named to the mid-season watch list for the Hendricks Award, given to the nation's top defensive end.

Gregory was a dominant force at Michigan, keying a Blackshirt defense that recorded seven sacks and limited Michigan to -21 rushing yards. Gregory had three sacks for 14 yards in losses, including a key sack on the Wolverines' final offensive possession. He added a 10-yard tackle for loss in the second quarter. Gregory's play was recognized as he was the co-Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week.

The effort at Michigan highlighted a dominant season for Gregory. The 6-6, 255-pound Gregory leads the Big Ten with 8.5 sacks for 60 yards in losses. Gregory's 0.85 sacks per game rank 15th nationally. Gregory has been at his best in conference play with eight of his sacks coming in Big Ten action. Gregory's eight sacks in conference play are three more than any other Big Ten defender. In addition to his three sacks at Michigan, Gregory had 2.5 sacks against Purdue, with one of those resulting in a Husker safety. Gregory heads into the Penn State game with a sack in each of his past five games.

Gregory also has a team-leading 15 TFL for 96 yards in losses and has a team-high 15 quarterback hurries, including four against Michigan State. He added an interception return for a touchdown against South Dakota State and has also recovered a fumble and forced a fumble.

EVANS CONTINUES TO MAKE MARK ON NEBRASKA DEFENSE

Nebraska senior defensive back Ciante Evans has been a key player in the Nebraska defense each of the past three seasons. A standout cornerback, Evans regularly mans the important nickel spot in the Huskers' defensive scheme, and Evans excels in the role.

Evans has outstanding cover skills, shown by his three interceptions and five pass breakups. However, Evans also has an uncanny knack for finding his way into the opposing backfield to make plays.

- ▶ Evans has 11 tackles for loss this season, with all of those coming in Big Ten action. His TFL total in conference play leads all Big Ten defenders, just ahead of teammate Randy Gregory and Ohio State linebacker Ryan Shazier.
- ▶ The 11 TFL are the most ever by a Husker defensive back, bettering the previous record of nine by cornerback Al Larson in 1969.
- ▶ Evans had five tackles for loss against Northwestern, the most ever by a Nebraska defensive back. The previous position record was three tackles for loss in a game.
- ▶ Evans has three sacks this season, tying the season position record for defensive backs. Joe Walker (1999) and Toby Wright (1992) also had three sacks in a season from the defensive back position.

HUSKERS NAME CAPTAINS FOR 2013 SEASON

Nebraska has named season-long team captains for the 2013 season, a first in the Bo Pelini era. Leading the Huskers as captains are senior quarterback Taylor Martinez, senior wide receiver Quincy Enunwa, senior offensive guard Spencer Long and senior cornerback Ciante Evans.

In each of the previous five seasons under Pelini, Nebraska has named captains on a game-by-game basis throughout the regular season, before electing season captains at the end of the year.

The four 2013 captains bring a great deal of experience to the Huskers. As a group, the four players have played in a total of 169 games with a combined 137 starts.

Player	GP	Starts
Quincy Enunwa	47	31
Ciante Evans	45	30
Taylor Martinez	44	43
Spencer Long	33	33
Totals	169	137

Martinez also holds the distinction of being one of just seven multi-year captains in school history. Four of those have come under Bo Pelini, including Martinez, Rex Burkhead, Brett Maher and Alex Henery. Prior to Henery in 2009 and 2010, the most recent two-time captain was Ed Weir in 1924-25, while the first two-time captains were James H. Johnson in 1891-92 and John Westover in 1901-02.

HUSKER YOUTH MAKING A BIG IMPACT IN 2013

Nebraska's freshmen have been a big part of the story for Nebraska in 2013. That was most evident in Nebraska's win over South Dakota State. A total of 24 true or redshirt freshmen saw the field against the Jackrabbits including offensive starters Cethan Carter (TE) and Tommy Armstrong Jr. (QB) and defensive starters Vincent Valentine (DT), Nathan Gerry (LB) and Josh Banderas (LB). The SDSU game is believed to be the first time in modern school history that NU has started five freshmen in the same game.

Overall, the Huskers have played seven true freshmen this fall, the most in Bo Pelini's six seasons as head coach. The group includes, Carter, Banderas, Gerry, I-back Terrell Newby, defensive tackle Kevin Maurice, defensive tackle Maliek Collins and long snapper Gabriel Miller.

► Against Southern Miss, UCLA and South Dakota State, Banderas and Gerry were both on the field as starters on defense. They marked the first true freshmen defenders to start since Cianti Evans started at Iowa State in 2011. It also marked the first time Nebraska started two true freshmen in a game since NU had two freshmen starters against Kansas State in 2007.

Nebraska also started two redshirt freshmen on defense against both Illinois (Afalava, M. Rose), Purdue (Moss, LeRoy Alexander) and Michigan (M. Rose, Moss). Those games marked the first time Nebraska had started two true freshmen on defense since Erwin Swiney and Joe Walker started against Texas Tech in 1997.

► Nebraska had three true freshmen in the starting lineup against UCLA and South Dakota State as Carter joined Gerry and Banderas in the starting lineup.

► Nebraska has a significant youth movement in the front seven of its defense. The Huskers feature 12 sophomores, redshirt freshmen or true freshmen in the two-deep of its front seven on defense.

► Nebraska is much more experienced on offense, but Newby and Carter have emerged as play-makers as true freshmen. Newby has 53 carries for 230 yards and two touchdowns, while Carter has been Nebraska's No. 1 tight end with Jake Long injured and has six receptions for 79 yards.

HUSKERS SECURE BOWL ELIGIBILITY

Nebraska stands at 7-3 and has secured bowl eligibility for the season, putting the Huskers in position to continue their long postseason tradition.

► A bowl trip this season would mark Nebraska's sixth straight bowl appearance under Bo Pelini, and give Nebraska 43 bowl appearances in the past 45 seasons dating back to 1969.

► Nebraska is 24-25 all-time in bowl games, and would make its 50th bowl appearance in 2013. Only Alabama (59) and Texas (51) have reached 50 bowl appearances, while Tennessee could also reach that milestone this season.

SEVEN HUSKERS PLACED ON SCHOLARSHIP FOR 2013 SEASON

Nebraska Head Coach Bo Pelini announced on Aug. 24 that seven Husker players who originally joined the program as walk-ons would be on scholarship for the 2013 season. The group includes three 2013 seniors who were on scholarship during the spring semester and will remain on scholarship for their final season as Huskers. That trio includes quarterback Ron Kellogg III, tight end Jake Long and safety Wil Richards.

Kellogg III served as Nebraska's No. 2 quarterback last season and is one of three quarterbacks who have played key roles in 2013. Long was part of Nebraska's regular rotation at tight end the past two seasons and is the starter at the position in 2013. Jake Long joins his twin brother, Spencer, as walk-ons who have gone on to earn a scholarship, as Spencer Long received the honor last fall. Richards has been a key member of the Nebraska special teams the past three years, before being lost for the season with an ankle injury against Northwestern.

Four additional Huskers have been placed on scholarship for the first time including senior defensive tackle Brodrick Nickens, senior linebacker Colby Starkebaum, junior center Mark Pelini and sophomore fullback Andy Janovich.

Nickens made the move from offensive line to defensive tackle in the spring, and add depth there this fall. Starkebaum is a second-generation Husker, following in the footsteps of his father, John, who lettered for NU from 1972-74. The younger Starkebaum has been a reserve linebacker and key scout team performer throughout his career, and is seeing action on special teams this fall.

FRAZIER SALUTED FOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTION

Former NU quarterback Tommie Frazier was honored at halftime of the UCLA game on Sept. 14. The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame honored Frazier with an NFF/College Hall of Fame On-Campus Salute. Frazier was one of 14 FBS players selected for the College Football Hall of Fame in May, and he will be officially inducted later this year in New York City.

Frazier will become the 16th NU player in the College Football Hall of Fame, along with six former Cornhusker coaches. Frazier earned induction into the College Hall of Fame in his third year on the ballot. He is the third Husker in the past five years to be named to the Hall, joining 2009 inductee Grant Wistrom and 2011 honoree Will Shields.

Frazier is the first NU quarterback to be selected for the College Football Hall of Fame. The Bradenton, Fla., native was a four-year starter at quarterback for the Huskers from 1992 to 1995, guiding Nebraska to three straight national title games in his final three seasons, including national championships in 1994 and 1995. Frazier posted a 33-3 record as a starting quarterback for the Huskers.

HUSKERS EXTEND WINNING NON-CONFERENCE STREAK

Nebraska's 59-20 victory over South Dakota State gave the Huskers a 3-1 non-conference record in 2013. The 3-1 record marks the 32nd consecutive season NU has had a winning non-conference season, dating back to a 2-2 non-league mark in 1981, when NU lost to Iowa and Penn State, while posting victories over Florida State and Auburn.

SEASON-OPENING WIN STREAK CONTINUES

Nebraska extended a remarkable streak of success in season openers with a 37-34 win over Wyoming. The win was Nebraska's 28th straight win in a season opener, dating back to a 1985 loss to Florida State.

The streak leads the nation, bettering Florida's 24 straight season-opening wins. Nebraska has scored at least 37 points in each of its six season openers under Coach Bo Pelini, and has scored 40 or more points in 20 of the past 28 seasons. During the win streak, NU has limited opponents to 14 points or less 18 times.

HUSKERS HIT 300-300 MARK AGAINST SOUTH DAKOTA STATE

The Nebraska offense marked a first in school history in its 59-20 win over South Dakota State. Nebraska rolled to 335 rushing yards, while adding 310 yards passing, marking the first time in school history, the Huskers have eclipsed 300 yards in both rushing and passing.

▶ The 645 yards of total offense marked the most for Nebraska in Bo Pelini's six seasons as head coach and ranked as the 21st most total yards in NU history.

▶ Nebraska gained better than 300 yards on the ground for the second time this season, and for the 14th time in Pelini's tenure as head coach.

▶ In addition to the total offensive explosion, Nebraska also posted 59 points in the win. The game marked the second time in 2013 NU has topped 50 points and the eighth time in Pelini's six seasons as head coach. The 59 points were the second-most of the Pelini era, trailing a 73-point outburst against Idaho State in 2012.

▶ The Huskers' 34 first downs against South Dakota State were the most in the past six seasons under Pelini, and NU's most since posting 35 first downs against Kansas State in 2007.

Pelini alternates at the center position after serving as the backup at the spot last season. He earned his first career start against Michigan State. Janovich played as a true freshman at fullback last season and shares playing time with the top unit in 2013. Janovich earned a scholarship in just his second season in the program, the quickest any player has moved from walk-on to scholarship under Pelini.

Overall, the group of new scholarship recipients includes four native Nebraskans in Kellogg, Long, Janovich and Nickens. Richards joined the NU program from Lee's Summit, Mo., Pelini is a Youngstown, Ohio native, while Starkebaum joined the NU program from Sterling, Colo.

The announcement continues a long Husker tradition of walk-ons earning scholarships during their career at Nebraska. Pelini has now placed 26 former walk-ons on scholarship during his six seasons as Nebraska's head coach.

NCAA RECORD SELLOUT STREAK CONTINUES IN 2013

One of the most remarkable streaks in collegiate sports passed its 50th anniversary last fall, and continues into the 2013 season. Nebraska has sold out every game at Memorial Stadium since Nov. 3, 1962, and the streak now sits at 332 games.

NU celebrated the 300th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium on Sept. 26, 2009, against Louisiana-Lafayette, with a then-stadium record crowd of 86,304. Notre Dame is second in all-time consecutive sellouts with 238, 94 fewer than the Huskers. Nebraska established a new stadium record for attendance against UCLA on Sept. 14 with a crowd of 91,471. The crowd ranks as the ninth-largest to see any Nebraska game.

HUSKERS LOOK TO CONTINUE DOMINANCE AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

Nebraska has rewarded the loyalty of its fans with incredible success at Memorial Stadium through the years.

» Nebraska has won at least six home games in 22 of the past 27 seasons, and is 5-2 at home in 2013. Nebraska is 153-22 (.874) at home in the last 25 seasons (since 1989).

» Nebraska finished 7-0 at home in 2012 and is 24-4 at home the past four seasons. Nebraska's perfect home season in 2012 was its first since 2001.

» NU had a seven-game Big Ten home win streak snapped against Michigan State. The Huskers are 9-2 in Big Ten home contests since joining the league in 2011.

» During Nebraska's run of success at home in the past three decades, NU has had three home winning streaks of 20 or more games, and overall has posted 41 unbeaten and untied home seasons.

» The Huskers are 522-141-20 (.779, 683 games, 124 years) in Lincoln, and 397-118-13 (.764, 528 games, 90 years) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923).

» The 2013 marks the 45th straight season Nebraska has had a winning season at Memorial Stadium.

MEMORIAL STADIUM CONSTRUCTION COMPLETE FOR 2013 SEASON

Fans coming to Memorial Stadium this fall are greeted by a new look to the East side of Memorial Stadium. The East Stadium expansion pushed average attendance beyond 90,000. While adding nearly 6,000 seats, including a combination of club seats, suites and general public seating, the addition preserves the rich tradition and original architecture of Memorial Stadium.

The East Stadium addition also includes dedicated restrooms and concessions areas. A new grand lobby, expanded concourse and additional first-aid areas also were added. No East Stadium seats were removed during the expansion and no season ticket holders were required to relocate their seats as part of this project.

The addition includes dedicated areas on the ground floor for research, both for Athletics and UNL Research. The 50,000-square foot research area is a unique collaboration between Athletics and Academics. The Nebraska Athletic Performance Lab is housed on the north end of the facility, and is operated by the Athletic Department. The Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior is housed in the south half of the facility.

Along with the additions on the East Stadium, Nebraska also replaced the FieldTurf at Memorial Stadium this summer. The field features the "Tom Osborne Field" lettering for the first time since the 1998 season.

NEBRASKA AMONG LEADERS IN

ASSOCIATED PRESS NATIONAL TITLES

Notre Dame and Alabama lead the nation by winning eight Associated Press national titles since 1936, with Oklahoma (7), Miami (5), USC (5), Nebraska (4) and Minnesota (4) next in line. While the Huskers were awarded the national title by the coaches in 1997, NU finished second to Michigan in the AP poll.

In 1970, Nebraska was awarded the AP national title, but not the coaches (Texas was first, Ohio State second and NU third) as the final poll was released before the bowl games were played. In the coaches poll (since 1950), NU is tied for fourth with Miami and Texas with four titles, behind Alabama (8), Oklahoma (6) and USC (5).

CONFERENCE CROWNS

Nebraska has won 43 football conference championships in school history and is looking for its first Big Ten Conference crown in 2013. The Huskers won 13 conference titles under Tom Osborne and eight under Bob Devaney.

During its 15-year history in the Big 12 Conference, Nebraska won league titles in 1997 and 1999, and also appeared in the Big 12 Championship Game in 1996, 2006, 2009 and 2010. Nebraska was one of just three teams to capture two or more Big 12 titles in the first 15 years of the league, joining Oklahoma and Texas. Nebraska's six Big 12 title game appearances were second only to Oklahoma's eight. Nebraska made its first appearance in the Big Ten Championship Game in 2012.

NEBRASKA THIRD IN ALL-TIME

BOWL APPEARANCES

Nebraska played in its 49th all-time bowl game with its appearance in the 2013 Capital One Bowl. The Huskers have played in the postseason in 42 of the past 44 seasons, including an NCAA-record 35 straight bowl games from 1969 to 2003. NU is 2-3 in bowl games during Bo Pelini's five full seasons as head coach and owns a 24-25 all-time bowl record.

The Huskers' 49 all-time bowl appearances overall tie for third, trailing only Alabama (59) and Texas (51) and tying with Tennessee (49). Nebraska's 24 bowl victories rank seventh nationally.

Nebraska played the first of its 49 bowls in the Rose Bowl, when No. 7 Nebraska lost to No. 2 Stanford, 21-13, following the 1940 season. Nebraska's 35 consecutive bowls began with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl, and ended following its appearance in the 2003 Alamo Bowl. The Huskers have been successful in recent years, winning 10 of their last 16 bowl games since the 1994 season.

NEBRASKA UNVEILS STATUE OF BOB DEVANEY IN EAST STADIUM

The University of Nebraska unveiled a statue of Hall-of-Fame Football Coach and former Husker Athletic Director Bob Devaney the day before the 2013 season opener. The statue was installed in the new East Stadium Plaza which serves as the doorstep to a 52,000 square-foot research facility, 38 new suites, 6,000 new seats and a graphic-rich tribute to Nebraska football tradition inside the historic Gate 20 entrance.

The life-sized bronze statue of Devaney, sculpted by Omaha artist Joe Putjenter, was unveiled in a ceremony attended by Mike Devaney and Rob Devaney, Bob's respective son and grandson, Nebraska Director of Athletics Shawn Eichorst, Tom Osborne, Nebraska's former head coach and athletic director, and UNL Chancellor Harvey Perlman.

Nebraska had only three winning teams in the 21 seasons before Devaney arrived. Devaney's teams won back-to-back national championships in 1970 and '71 and captured eight conference championships in his 11 years as head coach. His overall 101-20-2 record in 11 years at Nebraska included a 32-game unbeaten streak. His career head coaching record at both schools was 136-30-7 for winning percentage of .806. While he was head coach at Nebraska, Memorial Stadium attendance more than doubled to 72,700.

Devaney and Osborne became the third coaching duo to post back-to-back 100-win careers at the same institutions, but the first pair to accomplish that feat in just 22 years. Devaney served as Nebraska's Athletic Director for 26 years from 1967 to 1993.

2013 HUSKERS LOOK TO CONTINUE ACADEMIC SUCCESS; THREE EARN ALL-DISTRICT

Nebraska has a long history of academic success in its football program. In 2012, Nebraska had two academic All-Americans in first-team selection Rex Burkhead and second-teamer Sean Fisher. The two football academic All-Americans put Nebraska over the 300-mark in academic All-Americans in all sports and Nebraska has a nation-leading 106 football academic All-Americans.

The 2013 Huskers are hoping to continue Nebraska's outstanding academic tradition. Last week three Huskers were named to the Academic All-District VII team, earning them a spot on the national academic All-America ballot. Twin brothers Spencer and Jake Long and fellow Omaha native C.J. Zimmerer were each honored with all-district honors. Spencer Long was named to the team for the third straight year, while Jake Long made the squad for a second straight season.

Nebraska's three all-district picks were the most in District 7.

GRADS FILL 2013 HUSKER ROSTER

Coach Bo Pelini's Husker teams have an excellent tradition of excelling in the classroom and the 2013 team is no different. Among the 23 members of Nebraska's 2013 senior class, six players had earned their degrees by the end of the spring semester. Another three players finished in August, while place-kicker Pat Smith joined the NU program as a Western Illinois graduate. Nebraska's 10 graduate students during the 2013 season ranks sixth among all FBS schools.

Offensive lineman Cole Pensick and fullback C.J. Zimmerer graduated last December, while defensive end Jason Ankrah, cornerback Stanley Jean-Baptiste and offensive linemen Brent Qvale and Jeremiah Sirles finished their degree work in May. Andrew Green, Thad Randle and Mo Seisay joined the group as graduates in August.

SPENCER LONG NAMED NFF NATIONAL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE

Nebraska senior offensive guard Spencer Long has been selected as one of 16 recipients of the National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete Awards presented by Fidelity Investments.

The honor is one of the top awards a college football student-athlete can earn and the honorees also comprise the list of finalists for the 2013 William V. Campbell Trophy, which recognizes an individual as the best football scholar-athlete in the country.

Each member of the 2013 National Scholar-Athlete Class will travel to New York City to be honored Dec. 10 during the 56th NFF Annual Awards Dinner. Each of the honorees receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship, and one member of the class will also be announced live at the event as the recipient of the 2013 Campbell Trophy. The winner of the Campbell Trophy will receive a $7,000 increase in postgraduate funds for a total scholarship of $25,000.

Long is the 22nd Husker football player to be honored as an NFF Scholar-Athlete, the most of any school in the country. This marks the second straight season Coach Bo Pelini's team has had an NFF honoree, after Rex Burkhead was one of 15 honorees in 2012.

A graduate of Elkhorn High School, Long is a model student-athlete. He carries a 3.792 cumulative grade-point average in biological sciences/pre-medicine and he is on track to graduate in December. Long plans to pursue a career in medicine following graduation.

Long is a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-District VII selection and a strong candidate for Academic All-America honors this season. He is also a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree.

On the field, Long has been a fixture on the Nebraska offensive line since 2011. He started 33 consecutive games at right guard before being injured at Purdue on Oct. 12. Originally a walk-on to the Husker program, Long was a second-team All-Big Ten choice as a sophomore in 2011. Last season, Long earned first-team All-Big Ten honors and was a second-team All-America selection.

Long has also been active in the community during his time at Nebraska. He was selected as a member of the 2013 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his outreach work, which has included volunteering his time with local school and hospital visits, as well as the NFL Fuel Up to Play 60 event.

Long is one of four Big Ten players honored as an NFF National Scholar-Athlete, joining Michigan State's Max Bullough, Iowa's James Morris and John Urschel of Penn State.

HUSKERS PROMINENT ON NFL ROSTERS

Nebraska has a long-standing tradition of placing large numbers of players in the NFL. As of Nov. 17, Nebraska had 24 players on active NFL rosters, and two additional players on practice squads. The 26 players represent 18 teams.

Nebraska owns one of the most impressive histories of any school in producing NFL-caliber players. Since 1997, Nebraska has had 78 players selected in the NFL Draft, including 50 defensive players. Nebraska has had at least two players selected in the draft each of the past 44 seasons.

NEWEST HALL OF FAME

MEMBERS RECOGNIZED

The 2013 Nebraska Football Hall of Fame Class was recognized before the start of the South Dakota State game after an induction ceremony and dinner the previous night. Four former Husker greats, including a trio of defensive backs, lead the 2013 class of inductees into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame.

All-American cornerback Keyuo Craver and All-Big Eight safeties Reggie Cooper and Russell Gary anchor an award-winning group of Blackshirts being inducted into the Hall of Fame. The trio of ball-hawking defenders is joined by All-Big Eight offensive lineman John Havokost, who helped his 1978 Husker team lead the nation in total offense.

Nebraska Wesleyan All-America wide receiver Tim Beebe joined the Huskers in this year's class. Beebe earned All-America honors at NWU in 1987. The Hall also recognized Ernie and Jan Thayer of Grand Island with its Clarence E. Swanson Meritorious Service Award. Tom and Mary Hansen of Papillion were honored with the Lyell Bremser Special Merit Award.

C.J. ZIMMERER NAMED TO AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM

Fullback C.J. Zimmerer was honored for his efforts on and off the field on Sept. 17, as he was named to the 2013 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®. Zimmerer's award was recognized on the field before the South Dakota State game.

Zimmerer, a senior fullback from Omaha, has been a mainstay on offense and special teams throughout his career. Zimmerer served as the inaugural president of the Uplifting Athletes chapter at Nebraska during the 2012-13 year, raising money and awareness for pediatric brain cancer. A two-time member of the Brook Berringer Citizenship team, Zimmerer has also volunteered his time with team hospital and school visits, including Madonna Rehabilitation Center, Cub Scouts, School is Cool Week, Husker Hotline, Husker Connect and the YWCA. In the classroom, he graduated in 3.5 years and is a candidate for CoSIDA Academic All-America honors.

The Allstate AFCA Good Works Team® recognizes college football players at all levels of the sport for inspiring acts of service and off-the-field achievements. This summer, the program received a record 150 nominations from colleges and universities across the country. From the nominations, a voting panel selected 11 players from the FBS Subdivision and 11 players from the FCS Subdivision, Divisions II, III and the NAIA to comprise the 22-player team.

Zimmerer is the 14th NU football player to earn the honor since its inception in 1992, a total which ties Georgia for the national lead. Last year, Rex Burkhead claimed the honor and was selected as the team captain based on fan voting.

OSBORNE NAMED TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF COMMITTEE

Former Nebraska Head Coach and Athletic Director Tom Osborne was one of 13 individuals named to the committee that will select the four teams that will participate in the College Football Playoff.

Bill Hancock, executive director of the College Football Playoff, made the announcement on Oct. 16. The 13 members were unanimously chosen by the College Football Playoff Management Committee, the commissioners of the conferences overseeing the new playoff. The playoff will begin at the end of the 2014 season.

In aggregate, the selection committee members have roughly 230 years of experience in college football. The group includes 10 people who played college football, two former top-level university administrators, five current athletics directors, three members of the College Football Hall of Fame, three former college football head coaches, a former United States Secretary of State, a former member of Congress, and a retired three-star general.

Osborne served as Nebraska's head coach from 1973 to 1997. In his 25-year run as the Huskers' head coach Osborne compiled a 255-49-3 overall record and won three national championships in 1994, 1995 and 1997. Osborne's final five Husker teams compiled a remarkable 60-3 record. Osborne served as Nebraska's Athletic Director from October of 2007 until his retirement on Jan. 2, 2013.

HUSKERS, OREGON AGREE TO HOME-AND-HOME SERIES

Nebraska announced an addition of a home-and-home series with Oregon and adjustments to future series with Tennessee and Wyoming on Oct. 14. Nebraska and Tennessee officials agreed to change the dates of the future games between the schools to accommodate a requested schedule change from Tennessee. The games originally scheduled between the Huskers and Tennessee in 2016 and 2017 have been pushed back a decade. Nebraska and the Vols will now meet in the 2026 and 2027 seasons.

The Huskers will play host to Tennessee on Sept. 12, 2026, and travel to Knoxville and Neyland Stadium on Sept. 11, 2027. The games will be the first-ever regular-season matchups between the schools.

With the change in dates of the future matchups with Tennessee, Nebraska announced it has agreed to a home-and-home series in 2016 and 2017 with the University of Oregon. The Huskers and Ducks will square off in Lincoln on Sept. 17, 2016. Nebraska will travel to Oregon's Autzen Stadium for the second game in the series on Sept. 9, 2017.

The matchups will be the first between the schools since Oregon traveled to Lincoln in 1985 and 1986, with Nebraska winning both of those contests. The two schools have met six times overall, with NU holding a 5-1 advantage in the series.

Oregon has been one of the nation's top programs over the past decade. The Ducks have won at least 10 games each of the past five seasons, including 12 wins each season from 2010 to 2012. Oregon currently sits at 7-0 this season and is ranked No. 2 in both polls. The Ducks will be looking for a fifth straight BCS bowl appearance in 2013.

The final adjustment to the Huskers' future schedule is moving the date of a 2016 matchup with Wyoming. Nebraska and Wyoming will meet on Sept. 10, 2016, at Memorial Stadium, after originally being scheduled to play on Sept. 17, 2016. The matchup with Wyoming completes a three-game series with the Cowboys. NU defeated Wyoming in the season opener in Lincoln this fall, and traveled to Laramie, Wyo., in 2011.

2018 AND 2019 BIG TEN CONFERENCE SCHEDULES ANNOUNCED

The Big Ten Conference announced the conference football schedules for the 2018 and 2019 seasons on Oct. 15. In both years, Nebraska will face each of the other six members of the Big Ten's West Division as part of its conference slate, including Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Northwestern, Purdue and Wisconsin. In addition, the Huskers will take on three members of the East Division each season.

Nebraska will open the 2018 conference season on Sept. 22 with a game at Michigan, one of five Big Ten road games that season. The Huskers will also travel to Wisconsin (Oct. 6), Northwestern (Oct. 13), Ohio State (Nov. 3) and Iowa (Nov. 23). Nebraska will play host to Purdue (Sept. 29), Minnesota (Oct. 20), Illinois (Nov. 10) and Michigan State (Nov. 17) at Memorial Stadium in 2018.

The 2019 Big Ten schedule will feature five home conference games for the Huskers, beginning with a Sept. 28 visit from Ohio State. Nebraska will also welcome Northwestern (Oct. 12), Indiana (Oct. 26), Wisconsin (Nov. 16) and Iowa (Nov. 29) to Memorial Stadium during the 2019 campaign. The Huskers' 2019 conference road games include the league opener at Illinois (Sept. 21), as well as trips to Minnesota (Oct. 12), Purdue (Nov. 2) and Maryland (Nov. 23).

With the announcement, Nebraska's Big Ten schedules for 2014 through 2019 are finalized. The Big Ten announced the 2014 through 2017 schedules this past summer. Nebraska has just two remaining non-conference openings to fill in the same time period, with one game yet to be scheduled in both 2017 and 2018.

SPENCER LONG TO RECEIVE

JAKE YOUNG MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraskasenioroffensiveguard Spencer Long was honored with the Jake Young Memorial Endowed Scholarship before the start of the Michigan State game.

Long is one of Nebraska's most decorated players on and off the field. An All-Big Ten selection and second-team All-American in 2012, Long was on the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award watch lists this season. His senior year has been cut short by a knee injury.

Long is also a standout off the field. This week he was named an academic all-district selection for the third straight year and is a strong contender for Academic All-America honors. He is also a two-time Academic All-Big Ten choice. Long was one of 16 football student-athletes named as a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, an honor that carries an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship.

The Jake Young Scholarship is presented to a football student-athlete who demonstrates a high level of athletic and academic achievement and effective leadership skills. The scholarship honors the former Nebraska All-America and Academic All-America center who was killed in a terrorist attack in Bali in 2002.

CROSS RECEIVES BERRINGER SCHOLARSHIP

Sophomore I-back Imani Cross was presented with the Brook Berringer Memorial Scholarship at the UCLA game. The scholarship was endowed in the memory of former Nebraska quarterback Brook Berringer, who died in a plane crash on April 18, 1996, just three months after helping Nebraska to a second straight national championship.

Cross, who has not declared a major, earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll last fall. He also earned a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership award in 2013, in addition to being named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team, which is also named in honor of the late Husker quarterback. To be eligible for the Brook Berringer Memorial Scholarship, a football student-athlete must be involved in community service with high ideals, excellent character and integrity.

JAKE LONG RECEIVES

SULLIVAN SCHOLARSHIP

Tight end Jake Long was presented with the George Sullivan Endowed Scholarship before the Southern Miss game on Sept. 7. The scholarship, presented by the Touchdown Club and friends, is named in honor of George Sullivan, who served as NU's head athletic trainer from 1977 to 1995 and as an assistant athletic trainer and head physical therapist from 1953 to 1977.

Long, a senior biological sciences/pre-medicine major, will earn his degree this December. He carries a cumulative grade-point average above 3.85 and is a strong candidate for CoSIDA Academic All-America honors this fall, after earning a spot on the all-district team in 2012. Long has also been a member of the honor roll every semester of his career.

The scholarship was fully endowed in Sullivan's honor in 2008 by the Touchdown Club of Nebraska, Inc., and many former Husker student-athletes graciously contributed to the fund. The scholarship is presented annually to a "Nebraska varsity football student-athlete who has demonstrated a high level of athletic and academic achievement, with a strong commitment to community, effective leadership skills, a high degree of integrity, and commitment to excellence in all endeavors." Preference is given to student-athletes who intend to pursue a career in a health-related field.

Game 1 | No. 18 Nebraska 37, Wyoming 34

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
Wyoming	7	7	7	13	34
Nebraska	10	7	14	6	37

Lincoln (Aug. 31) --- No. 18 Nebraska rushed for 375 yards and amassed 530 total yards on its way to a 37-34 victory over Wyoming for the Huskers' 28th consecutive season-opening win.

Playing in front of a school-record 91,185 fans at Memorial Stadium, Nebraska rolled up 375 yards on 63 rushes, including 114 yards from junior I-back Ameer Abdullah and 105 yards and a pair of touchdowns for sophomore I-back Imani Cross. Senior quarterback Taylor Martinez also completed 17-of-22 passes for 155 yards and three touchdowns, including a pair of scoring strikes to Quincy Enunwa.

Despite the impressive offensive totals for the Huskers, a pair of late NU turnovers allowed the visiting Cowboys to put a scare into the Big Red.

NU led 37-21 with the ball on the Wyoming 25 with just under seven minutes left in the game, but a Martinez pass was intercepted by Wyoming's Blair Burns and returned to the Wyoming 48. It took quarterback Brett Smith and the Cowboys just two plays and 24 seconds to find paydirt, as Smith hit receiver Jalen Claiborne to trim NU's lead to 37-27, after Wyoming's two-point conversion attempt was smothered by Husker defensive back Josh Mitchell. After another turnover, Smith struck quickly again, hitting receiver Robert Herron on a 47-yard touchdown pass just 29 seconds later to pull Wyoming within 37-34.

On NU's ensuing drive, Wyoming forced a three-and-out by the Huskers, who got a clutch 31-yard punt from Sam Foltz that was caught by NU's Kenny Bell at the Wyoming 6. Smith got a chance at the upset, but the Husker defense held Wyoming without a shot at the end zone to escape with the victory. Smith completed 29-of-43 passes for 383 yards with four touchdowns in a losing effort, although Ciente Evans and Stanley Jean-Baptiste each pulled down interceptions for the Huskers.

Overall, the two teams combined for 1,132 yards of total offense, as Wyoming finished with 602 total yards, including 219 yards on the ground. The Cowboys' total yards marked the eighth-highest mark against the Big Red in school history.

Game 2 | No. 22 Nebraska 56, Southern Miss 13

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
Southern Miss	3	3	7	0	13
Nebraska	21	14	14	7	56

Lincoln (Sept. 7) --- No. 22 Nebraska's Blackshirt defense hauled in four interceptions, including two for scores, while Taylor Martinez threw three touchdown passes in a 56-13 win over Southern Miss.

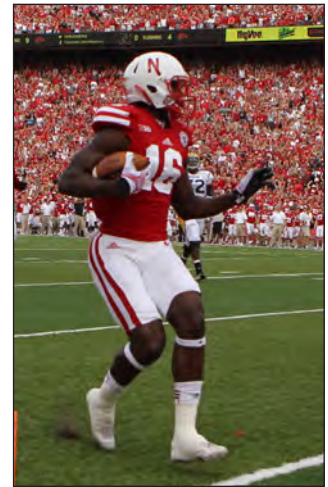

Nebraska's opportunistic defense was the story, as Stanley Jean-Baptiste and Ciente Evans both returned passes for TDs, as the Huskers jumped out to a 21-3 first-quarter lead and never looked back. Nebraska turned four USM turnovers into 21 points in picking up its 10th straight home victory.

Nebraska finished the night with 479 total yards, including 285 rushing and 194 passing. I-back Ameer Abdullah led NU's ground game with 17 carries for 114 yards and touchdown runs of 3 and 37 yards. Martinez went 15-for-23 through the air for 170 yards and three scores in just over two and a half quarters of action.

While the offense enjoyed substituting freely and spreading the ball around with the lopsided win, the Blackshirts celebrated a strong effort. Nebraska's defense intercepted four passes, including a pair by senior Ciente Evans. Jean-Baptiste set the tone early, returning Allan Bridgford's pass 43 yards for a score on USM's first offensive series.

The Blackshirts held Southern Miss to 284 total yards, including 62 on the ground. In fact, USM had just four rushing yards until midway through the fourth quarter. In addition to the three combined interceptions by Evans (2) and Jean-Baptiste, Corey Cooper grabbed the first interception of his career for Nebraska.

The Blackshirts also notched nine tackles for loss on the day. Harvey Jackson led the Huskers with seven tackles, including a tackle for loss that helped thwart a late USM scoring threat.

No. 23 Nebraska	14	7	0	0	21

Lincoln (Sept. 14) -- In a tale of two halves, No. 23 Nebraska bolted to a 21-3 lead, but No. 16 UCLA closed with 38 unanswered points in the final two-and-half quarters to leave Memorial Stadium with a 41-21 victory over the Huskers.

Playing in front of the NCAA-record 328th consecutive sellout and the largest crowd (91,471) in Memorial Stadium history, the Huskers had their 14-game home non-conference winning streak snapped, along with their streak of 10-straight home wins.

Nebraska used defense and special teams to bolt to an early lead against the Bruins. On UCLA's second possession, Stanley Jean-Baptiste picked off a Brett Hundley pass and returned it 34 yards to give NU great field position. Moments later, Martinez found Quincy Enunwa for an 11-yard scoring strike.

Leading 7-3, NU went on a 17-play, 92-yard drive capped by another Martinez to Enunwa touchdown play, this time from 18 yards. In the second quarter, NU took advantage of a botched punt snap, as Randy Gregory tackled UCLA punter Sean Covington at the UCLA 26. Two plays later, Martinez found Kenny Bell on a 22-yard TD pass to push the Husker lead to 21-3.

The Bruins' high-powered finally found the end zone against the Blackshirts with 57 seconds left in the first half to trim the NU margin to 11 points.

The Huskers went to halftime with a 21-10 edge, but the second half belonged to Hundley and the Bruins, as UCLA scored touchdowns on all four of its third-quarter possessions to take control of the game. The sophomore quarterback finished 16-of-24 for 294 yards and three second-half touchdowns passes. He also ran 19 times for 61 yards. James Jordan led the UCLA ground game with 105 yards and a touchdown on 22 carries. Overall, UCLA amassed 504 total yards, including 210 on the ground and 294 through the air. The Bruins rolled up 157 rushing yards in the second half.

Nebraska managed 326 total yards for the game, but just 130 in the second half, including just 43 yards on the ground after halftime. Martinez completed 21-of-35 passes for 203 yards and three touchdowns in the game. Abdullah led the NU ground game with 98 yards on 23 carries, while adding three receptions for 50 yards. But Martinez was thrown for minus-13 yards rushing on 10 attempts. No other Husker back managed 20 yards. Enunwa had three catches for 39 yards and two scores, while Bell led the Husker receivers with six catches for 68 yards.

Game 4 | Nebraska 59, South Dakota State 20

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
South Dakota State	17	0	0	3	20
Nebraska	14	24	14	7	59

Lincoln (Sept. 21) -- Tommy Armstrong Jr. and Ron Kellogg III led Nebraska in place of injured starting quarterback Taylor Martinez, and the Husker offense produced the biggest total offense day under Bo Pelini in a 59-20 victory over South Dakota State.

Armstrong Jr. earned the first start of his career and helped the Huskers amass 645 yards of total offense with the first 300-yard rushing/300-yard passing day as a team in school history. Armstrong Jr. completed 12-of-15 passes for 169 yards and a touchdown pass, while Kellogg III was equally productive, completing 8-of-9 passes for 136 yards and a touchdown strike of his own. Armstrong Jr. and Kellogg III engineered scoring drives on eight of their 10 offensive possessions.

NU finished with 310 passing yards and 335 rushing yards, led by Ameer Abdullah's 139 yards and a touchdown on 15 carries. Imani Cross added 60 yards and two scores on just 10 carries, while freshman Terrell Newby contributed 52 yards and two touchdowns on eight carries. Armstrong Jr. pitched in 38 yards on five totes. Senior Quincy Enunwa led the Husker receivers with six catches for 78 yards. Abdullah contributed three receptions for 46 yards, while Tyler Wullenwaber added a pair of receptions for 47 yards, including his first career touchdown.

While the offense was firing on all cylinders, the defense also made some significant contributions. The Blackshirts forced a trio of Jackrabbit turnovers, including defensive end Randy Gregory's first career interception and touchdown, which came after a 33-yard return early in the fourth quarter. Gregory finished with five tackles, including two for loss and a half sack.

Stanley Jean-Baptiste added his fourth interception of the season and a 15-yard return, giving him an interception in each of NU's first four games of the year. Jonathan Rose added a fourth-quarter fumble recovery for the Huskers, who held a high-powered SDSU offense to just three points in the final three quarters.

Lincoln, Neb. (Oct. 5) – Ameer Abdullah rushed for a career-high 225 yards and two touchdowns to lead Nebraska to a 39-19 Big Ten-opening win over Illinois on Homecoming at Memorial Stadium.

Abdullah carried the load throughout the day for the Huskers, powering a Nebraska rushing attack that amassed 335 yards on the ground. Abdullah carried 20 times, including a highlight reel 43-yard touchdown run on NU's opening drive of the second half to put the Huskers up 30-5. He also opened the scoring for the Big Red with a two-yard run on the Huskers' first drive of the game, to help spark a quick 17-0 NU lead.

Nebraska rolled up 521 yards of total offense against the Illini. Imani Cross added 76 yards and a touchdown run on 15 carries, while Terrell Newby pitched in 19 yards on four carries.

Quarterback Tommy Armstrong Jr. had another solid performance in his second career start, completing 8-of-13 passes for 135 yards and two scores. His four-yard pass to senior wide receiver Quincy Enunwa midway through the first quarter put the Huskers up 14-0. He added a spectacular 37-yard connection with junior wide receiver Kenny Bell in the third quarter to give the Huskers a 36-12 lead at the end of three quarters.

Enunwa finished the day with four catches for 80 yards, while crossing the 1,000-yard receiving mark for his career. Bell added four catches for 65 yards. Redshirt freshman tight end Sam Cotton added the first catch of his career, while fellow tight end Jake Long pitched in one catch for nine yards.

The Blackshirts provided a solid defensive presence, holding the Fighting Illini to just 10 offensive points until the final minute of the game. Illinois finished with 372 total yards, including 195 on the ground and 177 through the air. The Blackshirts held quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase to just 13-of-26 passing for 135 yards, while limiting Scheelhaase to just 11 yards on nine carries. Josh Ferguson carried 19 times for 114 yards and a score to lead the Illini, while adding eight receptions for 82 yards out of the backfield.

Redshirt freshman linebacker Michael Rose led the Husker defense with 11 tackles, while junior safety Corey Cooper added 10 stops with a TFL. Sophomore Randy Gregory wreaked havoc from his defensive end spot throughout the day with eight tackles, including a TFL and a quarterback hurry. Defensive back Ciente Evans also made plays all over the field, including forcing a fumble on the Illini's first drive that helped the Huskers jump to a 14-0 lead. Evans, who finished with four tackles, notched a sack among his two tackles for loss while adding a pass breakup and a quarterback hurry. Jason Ankrh added two tackles for loss and a sack, while pulling down an interception on pass hurried by Evans in the second half.

Purdue	0	0	0	7	7

West Lafayette, Ind. (Oct. 12) --- Nebraska's Blackshirt defense just missed its first shutout since 2009, as the Big Red rolled to a 44-7 victory at Purdue. Nebraska's defense was dynamic from start to finish, holding Purdue to just 216 yards of total offense, while recording five sacks and forcing a pair of turnovers.

Defensive end Randy Gregory led the Huskers with two tackles for loss - both sacks for a total of 28 yards lost. His second sack of Danny Etling went for 17 yards and a third-quarter safety that put NU up 30-0. Gregory added a second-quarter fumble recovery that Ameer Abdullah and the Husker offense converted into a 28-yard touchdown run on the game's next play. Abdullah powered the NU offense with his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season. The junior I-back finished with 126 yards on 20 carries.

Nebraska amassed 435 yards of total offense, including 251 yards on the ground and 184 through the air. Tommy Armstrong completed just 6-of-18 passes for 43 yards on the day and managed just five rushing yards on four carries. However, he did score the game's first touchdown by leading the Huskers to paydirt on their first possession. Armstrong's three-yard touchdown run gave Nebraska a 7-0 lead just over five minutes into the game. It was the first of five rushing touchdowns on the day, including a pair of short blasts by sophomore I-back Imani Cross. His first plunge was a one-yard dive on fourth down to end the first quarter and give the Huskers a 14-0 lead. His second touchdown came from two yards out to put NU up 28-0 midway through the third quarter. Cross finished with 56 yards on 16 carries

Senior Ron Kellogg III produced a solid afternoon in Nebraska's two-quarterback rotation. Kellogg completed 10-of-13 passes for 141 yards, including a short touchdown pass to senior wide receiver Quincy Enunwa early in the fourth quarter. Enunwa led the Husker receiving corps with four catches for 72 yards, while redshirt freshman Jordan Westerkamp added career highs of three catches for 53 yards. Kenny Bell, Cethan Carter and Abdullah each added a pair of receptions for the Huskers, as NU finished 15-of-31 for 184 yards in the passing department.

In addition to Abdullah's 126 rushing yards, freshman Terrell Newby helped the Husker ground game with 10 carries for 61 yards, while King Frazier contributed three carries for nine yards and Nebraska's final touchdown on a two-yard blast with 50 seconds left.

Game 9 | Nebraska 17, Michigan 13

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
Nebraska	10	0	0	7	17
Michigan	0	3	7	3	13

Ann Arbor, Mich. (Nov. 9)— In a game dominated by the defenses, it was late heroics by Ameer Abdullah and Tommy Armstrong Jr. that propelled the Huskers to a come-from-behind fourth-quarter win in a 17-13 victory at Michigan.

With the victory, Nebraska improved to 7-2 overall and 4-1 in the Big Ten. The Huskers snapped Michigan's 19-game home winning streak and stayed within striking distance of Big Ten Legends Division leader Michigan State.

Abdullah's five-yard touchdown plunge off a forward option pitch from Armstrong capped a clutch 75-yard drive that took more than six minutes. Abdullah's second touchdown of the day gave the Huskers a 17-13 lead, and the Blackshirts made it hold up.

Abdullah's gutsy run after the catch capped NU's comeback and was his only reception of the day. The junior I-back was brilliant on the ground again, cutting his way to 105 yards on 27 carries for his eighth 100-yard rushing performance of the season.

Armstrong, who finished the day 11-for-19 for 139 yards through the air, was brilliant on the winning drive, going 5-for-7 for 59 yards. He hooked up twice with Kenny Bell for 38 yards on the 14-play march.

On Michigan's final drive, defensive end Randy Gregory made a key third-down tackle of Devin Gardner in the Michigan backfield, before defensive back Josh Mitchell helped break up Gardner's fourth-down pass with a minute left to give the Big Red another big win.

Gregory and the Blackshirts wreaked havoc on Gardner and the Michigan offense all day long, notching 15 tackles for loss and a season-high seven sacks. Nebraska's 15 TFLs went for 57 yards in losses, while the seven sacks threw Gardner back 43 yards, as Michigan was held to -21 yards rushing.

Gregory did the most damage for the Blackshirts, posting a career-high three sacks for 14 yards lost on Gardner. Zaire Anderson added a pair of sacks for 15 yards lost, while Thad Randle and Avery Moss also had one apiece.

While the Blackshirts made Michigan completely one dimensional in limiting the Wolverines to 175 yards of total offense, Abdullah powered the NU rushing attack. The Huskers finished with 128 yards on the ground, including 105 from Abdullah, while adding 145 passing, including 139 from Armstrong, who improved to 5-0 as the Big Red starter.

Senior Quincy Enunwa led the Big Red receivers with a career-high seven receptions for 69 yards, while Bell added three catches for 44 yards.

Nebraska jumped to a quick 10-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, before being shut out by the Wolverine defense for three full quarters until the game-winning score.

Michigan mustered a second-quarter field goal, before scoring on the opening drive of the second half to tie the score at 10. The Wolverines took a 13-10 lead on Brendan Gibbons' 40-yard field goal that hit the right upright and bounced through with 8:08 left in the game, but Nebraska marched down the field for the go-ahead score.

Game 10 | Michigan State 41, Nebraska 28

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
No. 14 Michigan State	10	10	7	14	41
Nebraska	7	0	14	7	28

Lincoln, Neb. (Nov. 16)— Nebraska was unable to overcome five turnovers, all in its own territory, as No. 14 Michigan State clinched a share of the Big Ten Legends Division title with a 41-28 victory.

The Huskers rolled up 392 yards against the nation's best defense, but the five turnovers led to 24 Michigan State points, as the Spartans held the ball for 38:37 against the Huskers.

Ameer Abdullah and the Nebraska rushing attack pounded out 182 yards on 32 carries, including 123 yards from Abdullah. The Spartans, who allowed 43.4 yards rushing per game, were spiced by Abdullah, who became the first MSU opponent in 2013 to rush for 100 yards.

Jeremy Langford led MSU's offense with a career-high 151 yards on the ground and tied a career-high with three touchdowns. Quarterback Connor Cook was 15-for-31 for 193 yards and one score, while leading a Spartan offense that was 11-of-21 on third down.

The Husker defense did all it could, but ran out of steam after being on the field for nearly two-thirds of the game. Ciente Evans and David Santos each produced a pair of TFLs, as NU totaled eight on the day. Evans and Randy Gregory each came through with one sack, including Gregory's eighth sack during league play.

Michigan State took advantage of three first-quarter turnovers to jump out to a 10-0 lead before the Huskers regrouped. The Husker offense responded with a five-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. After Abdullah picked up a first down on a pair of runs, Armstrong connected with Sam Burtch for 26 yards, then ran for five yards and again found Burtch wide open for a 32-yard score. Burtch had career bests in both catches (5) and yards (86).

Trailing 13-7, Nebraska's fourth turnover of the half was costly, as MSU drove 22 yards after an Armstrong fumble to extend the lead to 20-7.

Nebraska fought back, as the Huskers pulled to within 20-14 after Imani Cross' 51-yard score on NU's first third-quarter drive. After another turnover led to a Spartan touchdown, Armstrong led the Huskers on an 11-play drive, capped by a Kenny Bell's 38-yard touchdown grab to make it 27-21.

Nebraska had more chances to take the lead with a touchdown before Michigan State put the game out of reach. With 13:42 left on the clock, the Spartans put together a 10-play scoring drive that was extended on a fake field goal on 4th-and-1 from the Nebraska 27. Four plays later, Cook connected with Keith Mumphery for a 27-yard touchdown on 3rd-and-13.
