JEFF TAMBRONI

Head Coach • 13th Season
Hobart '92

Record at PSU: 96-72 (.571)
Overall Record: 205-112 (.647)

2009 USILA DI COACH OF THE YEAR
2011 CAA CO-COACH OF THE YEAR
2013 CAA COACH OF THE YEAR
2014 U.S. MEN'S NATIONAL TEAM ASSISTANT COACH
HOBART HALL OF FAME (CLASS OF '18)
2019 BIG TEN COACH OF THE YEAR

Jeff Tambroni returns for his 13th year as the head coach of Penn State men's lacrosse in 2023. One of the sport's most decorated coaches, he enters the season seventh among all active Division I coaches in career wins with 205.

During Tambroni's time in Happy Valley, Penn State players have earned 28 All-America awards, eight USILA Scholar All-America honors, and 38 all-conference accolades. He coached the 2019 NCAA Attackman of the Year and Big Ten Offensive Player of the year (Grant Ament), the 2018 Big Ten Specialist of the Year (Gerard Arceri), the 2019 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year (Chris Sabia), the 2013 CAA Player of the Year and 2013 and 2014 CAA Defensive Player of the Year (Austin Kaut). Additionally, Mac O'Keefe's 221 goals from 2017-2021 set the NCAA Division I career scoring record. He has led the Lions to two regular season conference championships and one conference tournament title.

After a shortened 2020 season that saw Penn State spend time as the top-ranked team in the nation, the Lions returned to the field in 2021 and saw multiple milestones hit and records broken. The highlight of the season was O'Keefe becoming the NCAA Division I leader in career goals with 221. The record came in a game in which O'Keefe scored six goals, including the game-winner with three seconds left in overtime to beat Michigan on Senior Day. The 2021 season also saw Tambroni reach the 200-win milestone, doing so against Johns Hopkins on March 28.

The 2019 Nittany Lions racked up program firsts on their way to a 16-2 record, winning their first-ever Big Ten regular season and Tournament titles and advancing to their first-ever NCAA Semifinal. They went a perfect 5-0 against league opponents during the regular season, including the team's first-ever varsity win over Maryland, which led to Tambroni being named the Big Ten Coach of the Year. A program-record nine players were recognized on the USILA All-America list, including Ament and Sabia on the first team. Nick Spillane and O'Keefe earned spots on the second team, Arceri and Jack Kelly made the third team, and Colby Kneese, Tommy Wright, and Nick Cardile were selected as honorable mentions. Ament was selected as the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, while Sabia was the Defensive Player of the Year.

The 2019 team was easily the top offensive team in the nation, finishing first in the NCAA in assists per game (10.83), man-up offense (.613), points per game (28.78), scoring margin (+6.89), scoring offense (17.94), and shot percentage (.434). The Lions broke single-season school records in wins (16), goals (323), and winning streak (13), and a single-game record for goals with 27 in a win over

Robert Morris.

Ament and O'Keefe led the charge for the nation's top offense. Ament was a finalist for the prestigious Tewaaraton Award while setting NCAA records for assists (96) and assists per game (5.65), and a Big Ten and program record points (129). O'Keefe tied a Big Ten and program record for goals in a season (78).

In 2018, the Nittany Lions went 8-6, 2-3 in Big Ten play. Throughout the season, Penn State grabbed ranked wins over No. 13 Penn, 10-7, and the program's first win over No. 5 Johns Hopkins, 14-12. Gerard Arceri made a name for himself on a national level with a 68.1-winning percentage at the 'x,' earning 216 wins on the season. He scooped up an impressive 145 ground balls, for 10.36 per game, adding a career-best six goals, while dishing out one assist. His percentage at the face and his ground balls per game were both good for fourth in the NCAA and led the Big Ten. He was named the Big Ten Specialist of the Year, first Team All-Big Ten, and a USILA Third Team All-American. Mac O'Keefe was also named first Team All-Big Ten, and was a USILA honorable mention All-American along with Chris Sabia. Ryan Keenan was selected to the USILA North-South Teams, and was drafted 54th in the MLL Draft to the Ohio Machine.

In 2017, Tambroni led the Nittany Lions to a 12-4 record, just the seventh season with double-digit win season, and just the second in the last 20 seasons (2013, 2017). Penn State set a program record after opening the season with a 10-0 record, the best start in school history. The 10th win highlighted the streak as Penn State took down No. 5 Ohio State, 9-4, to earn just the eighth win in program history over a top-five team. Penn State also earned their first winning record in Big Ten play, going 3-2. Tambroni saw three earn USILA All-American honorable mention honors, while Nick Aponte added a USILA Scholar All-American honor as well.

During the 2016 season, Tambroni guided Penn State to its fifth season going .500 or above under his guidance. Most notably of the 2016 campaign, he led Penn State to defeat a top-ranked opponent for the first time in program history on March 26, when the Nittany Lions earned a 15-10 victory over defending national champions and No. 1 ranked Denver, snapping the opponent's 20-game win streak. Penn State notched two other wins over ranked opponents during the 2016 campaign as well, knocking off No. 18 Cornell and No. 8 Harvard in the process.

Tambroni led Penn State to be one of the most efficient teams in the country in 2016, with the team finishing second in Division I in turnovers per game while finishing sixth in the country in shooting percentage. Penn State earned its first unanimous All-Big Ten selection in attackman Nick Aponte, while Grant Ament and Mike Aronow earned All-Big Ten honorable mentions. Tambroni also led TJ Sanders to be named Penn State's ninth USILA Scholar All-America selection.

Tambroni guided the Nittany Lions through a historic season in 2015 that brought Penn State's first appearance in the Big Ten Tournament following the first ever season of Big Ten lacrosse. The Nittany Lions opened the season ranked No. 14 in the USILA DI Preseason Coaches' Poll and knocked off No. 16/11 Penn during the 2015 season. Tambroni also led Penn State to its first two Big Ten conference victories as well as a berth to the conference tournament. He also mentored rising senior TJ Sanders to USILA All-America honorable mention honors.

In 2014, Tambroni led Penn State to its fourth consecutive above-.500 season. His student-athletes earned the eighth USILA All-American and third Scholar All-America honors of Tambroni's Penn State career. He also coached goalkeeper Austin Kaut to his school record third All-America honor and conference-best All-CAA first team award.

Penn State's 2013 campaign saw Tambroni lead Penn State to one of the greatest seasons in program history while celebrating its 100th season. The Nittany Lions set records for wins (12) and earned the program's first outright regular season conference title by sweeping the CAA with a 6-0 record. PSU rattled off 10 straight wins from March through May to earn the school's third NCAA bid and first chance to host an NCAA game.

Tambroni was named CAA Coach of the Year for the second time in his career (2011), while Kaut (under Tambroni's tutelage) was named Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award for the nation's best goalie. Also, Kaut was CAA Player and Defensive Player of the Year. Sanders was named Rookie of the Year and the Nittany Lions placed six on the All-CAA first team.

During the 2012 campaign, Tambroni led the Nittany Lions to a second-place CAA finish with two USILA All-Americans and six All-CAA honorees. Penn State finished with a 9-6 overall record and a 5-1 mark in conference action.

The 2011 CAA Co-Coach of the Year, Tambroni led the Nittany Lions to a 7-7 record and their first-ever CAA tournament berth during his first year at the program's helm.

In 2011, eight Nittany Lions garnered All-CAA recognition and freshman Kaut earned Rookie of the Year honors while being named a USILA Honorable Mention All-American.

Prior to Penn State, Tambroni spent 10 seasons as head coach at Cornell (2001-10). He guided the Big Red to a 109-40 record and three NCAA Semifinal appearances (2007, 2009-10), including the 2009 National Championship game.

Tambroni was named USILA Division I Coach of the Year following the 2009 season and was tabbed the 2007 and 2009 Field Turf/NCAA Division I Coach of the Year. Tambroni was also the 2004 and 2009 Ithaca Journal Male Coach of the Year and a three-time National Coach of the Week.

While at Cornell, Tambroni became the 10th-fastest coach to reach the 100-win mark when he accomplished the feat in his 134th career game in March 2010.

During his tenure, his players earned 37 first-team All-Ivy honors, including five Ivy League awards, and three conference Rookie of the Year selections. In addition, 39 players garnered All-America recognition.

Prior to serving as Cornell's head coach, he spent four seasons as a Big Red assistant coach (1997-2000). Tambroni also served as assistant coach at Loyola College in 1997 and at his alma mater, Hobart College, for three seasons. With the Statesmen, he helped the program reach the 1994 NCAA Division III National Championship game.

A 1992 graduate, Tambroni earned his bachelor's degree in American studies. He earned first-team All-America honors as a senior and was twice named a second-team All-American (1990-91). The MVP of the 1990 NCAA title game, Tambroni helped lead the team to back-to-back NCAA championships (1990-91) and left Hobart tied for seventh on the school's all-time scoring list with 202 points.

Before embarking upon his collegiate coaching career, Tambroni coached the Heaton Mersey Lacrosse Club of the English Lacrosse Union for one year and served as a visiting coach for the Czech-American Lacrosse Foundation in Prague in the summer of 1996.

Tambroni and his wife, Michelle, have three daughters, Carissa, Madison, and Ella. Michelle played field hockey at Penn State from 1988-90 and earned All-America honors as a senior. Carissa is on the field hockey team at James Madison, while Madison is on the field hockey team at Penn State.

JOHN
HAUS
Maryland '13
Assistant Coach
6th Season

John Haus is set to begin his sixth season as an assistant coach for the Penn State men's lacrosse team in 2023 after joining the program in July of 2017.

As an assistant to head coach Jeff Tambroni in guiding the team's offense, including his responsibility in running the man-up offense, Haus played an integral role in the the 2019 team setting a program record with 323 goals, including a school-record 27 in a win over Robert Morris. The Lions, who went 16-2 and won their first-ever Big Ten regular season and tournament titles, led the NCAA in assists per game (10.83), man-up offense (.613), points per game (28.78), scoring margin (+6.89), scoring offense (17.94), and shot percentage (.434). Individually, Grant Ament set NCAA records for assists (96) and assists per game (5.65), while Mac O'Keefe set a Big Ten and program record for goals (78). Ament was selected as the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Tewaaraton Award.

The most recent offensive record for the Penn State program was a big one as Mac O'Keefe became the NCAA's all-time goals leader during the 2021 season. He finished his career with 221 and was then selected in the first round of the Premier Lacrosse League Draft by the Chaos.

Haus, a former three-time All American and Major League Lacrosse (MLL) All-Star, joined the Nittany Lions after serving as an assistant coach and the offensive coordinator at Furman University for two seasons. During his tenure with the Paladins, he assisted in all aspects of the program, including player development, recruitment and video breakdown. In his most recent season, he mentored the Southern Conference Freshman of the Year, while five other players earned second-team All-SoCon honors.

Prior to his time at Furman, Haus was an assistant coach at High Point University for one season, where he led the goalie unit. Under his leadership, the team logged a 57-percent save percentage, while starting goalkeeper Austin Geisler finished 16th in the nation in save percentage. In addition to his work with the goalie unit, Haus helped with offensive game plans and scouting reports.

Haus began his post-graduate coaching career at Dickinson College, serving as the assistant coach and offensive coordinator for the team for one season.

Haus was selected by the Charlotte Hounds with the 15th pick of the 2013 MLL Draft and played in the 2013 championship game. He was a captain for the Hounds starting in 2015 and was an All-Star game participant during the 2015 and 2016 seasons. Haus went on to play three seasons for the Whipsnakes in the PLL, helping the team earn titles in each of the first two seasons before finishing as the runner-up in his final season.

In January 2017, Haus was named to the 23-player travel roster that represented the United States in the Federation of International Lacrosse Men's World Championship July 12-21, 2018 in Netanya, Israel.

A standout at the University of Maryland, Haus was a first-team All-ACC and USILA first-team All-America selection in 2013, playing in the Terrapins' midfield. During his time in College Park, Haus earned the team's awards for the team's top midfielder (2013) and the team's unsung hero (2012). A 2012 and 2011 USILA All-America honorable mention, he helped guide the Terps to an ACC Championship in 2011.

JOE BUCCI
Georgetown '15
Assistant Coach
1st Season

Joe Bucci is set to begin his first season as an assistant coach on the Penn State men's lacrosse staff. He joined the Nittany Lions in June of 2022 after spending the past six seasons at UMBC, where he helped the Retrievers' defensive unit establish itself as one of the best in the country.

Bucci joined the UMBC coaching staff as a volunteer assistant in 2017 and spent two seasons in that role. He was elevated to assistant coach in 2019 and then took over the defense for the 2021 and 2022 seasons. The Retrievers had the sixth-ranked scoring defense in the nation and were the America East regular season co-champions in 2021. They posted the nation's ninth-ranked scoring defense and advanced to the America East Tournament championship game in 2022.

During Bucci's time as defensive coordinator, he helped guide three defensive players to the All-America East first team, four to the second team, and two to the All-Rookie Team. He was the goalie coach for all six seasons and mentored Tom Lingner to a top-10 ranking in GAA average four times, including the nation's best GAA in 2018.

Prior to his time as the defensive coordinator, Bucci assisted as the Retrievers finished first in the nation in scoring defense in 2018 and sixth in 2019. They won the 2019 America East Tournament title and went on to defeat Marist in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Bucci was a team captain of the Georgetown men's lacrosse team during his junior and senior seasons in 2015-16. He was a three-year starter in the midfield for the Hoyas and earned second-team All-Big East recognition in 2016 after leading the team with 20 goals.

A two-time graduate of Georgetown, Bucci earned a bachelor's degree in government in 2015 and a master's degree in professional studies: sports industry management in 2016. He served as the lacrosse program's representative to the student-athlete advisory council and was a two-time Academic All-Big East honoree.

Volunteer Assistant Coach
2nd Season

Nick Hourigan is set to begin his second season as a volunteer assistant coach on the Penn State men's lacrosse staff. He comes to Happy Valley after spending the previous five seasons as an assistant coach at Ithaca College.

During his time at Ithaca, Hourigan helped guide the Bombers to a 46-21 overall record and 22-8 mark in league play, which included one season in the Empire 8 and four seasons in the Liberty League. Highlighting those five seasons was a trip to the 2018 NCAA Division III Tournament. The Bombers went 16-4 that year and advanced to the NCAA Third Round with a win over Stevenson.

Hourigan helped coach 12 total USILA All-American honorees at Ithaca. Additionally, he mentored 11 IMLCA All-Region selections and 28 all-conference honorees.

Hourigan joined the Bombers' men's lacrosse program after a one-year stint as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator at Skidmore College. He did extensive work in creating and implementing both practice and game plans, while he also coordinated film sessions and the Thoroughbreds' strength and conditioning programs. His in-game responsibilities were mostly focused on defense, as he served as defensive coordinator, goalie coach and conducted the program's faceoff strategy.

A graduate of Le Moyne College in May of 2015, Hourigan enjoyed a decorated collegiate career as a four-year member of the Dolphins' men's lacrosse team. He played an integral role on one of the stingiest defenses in NCAA Division II, as the Dolphins had the lowest goals-against average in the country in three of his four seasons, which included the lowest season average (4.39) in Division II history in 2012.

Over the course of his career, he helped lead the Dolphins to two Northeast-10 conference titles, while Le Moyne qualified for the NCAA Division II Tournament during all four of his years with the program. The Dolphins advanced to the Division II National Championship Game twice, while they took home the National Title in 2013. Hourigan was named a team captain during his senior season, while he also earned InsideLacrosse Faceoff-Yearbook Preseason All-America honors. He made 58 career appearances, finishing his career with 110 ground balls and 44 caused turnovers.

Hourigan is a native of Clifton Park, N.Y., where he attended Shenendehowa High School. He was a three-year starter and two-time captain on the men's lacrosse team, earning First-Team All-Suburban Council, as well as First-Team honors from both the Troy Record and the Saratogian news outlets during his senior season. Hourigan was also a two-time NYSPHSAA Scholar-Athlete.

#11

The #11 is presented to a young man who has persevered in the face of adversity. The jersey number 11, worn by Michael Jacober, 2002-05, has become symbolic of the strength and compassion of the 2005 Penn State lacrosse team who rallied around Michael after his family was tragically killed in a plane crash during his senior season year

#16

The #16 has been presented annually, since 2016, to a senior who best represents the "Heart of a Competitor" in honor of our "Teammate for Life" Connor Darcey. Connor passed away tragically on June 12, 2015 in a car accident, prior to his redshirt junior season. The #16 is passed down by the student athlete who had the honor of wearing the #16 during the previous season.
