what you need to know about spartan hockey

• Michigan State officially opens the 2024 portion of its schedule with a series on the road at No. 20/19 Penn State. MSU trails in the all-time series by a 17-21-6 margin, but is currently riding a five-game unbeaten streak against PSU, its longest in series history. The two teams met back in November in East Lansing, with the Nittany Lions rallying from a 3-0 deficit in the first game to forge a 3-3 tie (and win the shootout), before the Spartans rebounded with a 5-3 Saturday victory.

• MSU welcomes the return of four players who competed in the IIHF World Junior Championships. Winning a gold medal for team USA was goalie Trey Augustine and forward Isaac Howard, with Howard scoring twice in the gold medal game and earning Player of the Game honors. Slovakian blueliner Maxim Štrbák and Finnish forward Tommi Männistö each were named top-three performers for their national teams in the tournament.

• At 13-4-3, the Spartans are off to their best start since the 2000-01 season when MSU went 14-1-4 prior to the new calendar year.   MSU is 7-1-2 in Big Ten play and its only loss came in overtime, and is currently second in the B1G standings (25) points, five points behind Wisconsin with two games in hand on the Badgers.

• The all-sophomore line of Karsen Dorwart centering Isaac Howard and Daniel Russell is nearly tied as MSU's highest-producing trio on the season, with a combined 20-35-55 in 18 games. The all-newcomer line of Gavin O'Connell-Red Savage-Joey Larson has 26-30-56 in 20 games. Larson earned a spot on the Great Lakes Invitational All-Tournament Team with a pair of goals in the championship game, and leads all Spartans with a 11-11-22 scoring line.

• MSU regularly skates four freshmen defensemen (Artyom Levshunov, Maxim Štrbák, Patrick Geary, and Austin Oravetz) and has two freshmen goaltenders, Trey Augustine and Luca Di Pasquo. Senior anchor Nash Nienhuis (+15) owns a career-best six goals and his 15 points is rapidly approaching his career-best 19 he had as a junior. He is paired with Levshunov on the blueline, and the duo are the only two defensemen among the double-digit point scorers on MSU's roster.   Levshunov averages just under a point per game (5-14-19) - second nationally in scoring among freshmen defensemen.   He is a team-best +17 (second B1G/sixth nationally).

• Di Pasquo played in both games of the GLI, earning a win and a tie with a 1.92 GAA and .923 save percentage. He stopped 48 of 52 shots against.   Augustine missed the GLI with his USA Hockey obligations for the World Juniors. He has started 17 games this season, with a .916 save percentage, 2.97 GAA, and 11-3-2 record. He has yet to lose a regulation Big Ten game (7-1-2), with a 2.55 GAA and .929 save percentage in conference contests.

weekend particulars

• Michigan State officially opens the 2024 portion of its schedule with a series on the road at No. 20/19 Penn State.

• Scott Moore and Rob Woodward have reunited for an 19th season calling Spartan hockey for the Spartan Media Network. The games will air live on WJIM 1240 AM and will also be available on the web via MSUSpartans.com.

• Saturday's game (4:30 pm) will air live on the Big Ten Network. Jason Ross Jr. and Paul Caponigri will be on the call.

• Big Ten Network Plus is the online streaming home of all home MSU hockey games which are not televised, and will carry Friday night's game from Pegula Ice Arena. Links to all broadcasts, webstreams, and live statistics can be found on MSUSpartans.com.

the nittany lions series

• Penn State enters the weekend with a 10-7-3 overall record, and began 2024 with a come-from-behind victory (7-6) over Army last weekend. The Nittany Lions are 2-5-3 in Big Ten play through 10 games, and sit in sixth place with 11 points.

• MSU trails in the all-time series by a 17-21-6 margin, but is currently riding a five-game unbeaten streak against PSU, its longest in series history. MSU is 3-0-2 in that stretch - all under head coach Adam Nightingale. MSU is 1-1 at Pegula Ice Arena under Nightingale.

• The two teams met back in November in East Lansing, with the Nittany Lions rallying from a 3-0 deficit in the first game to forge a 3-3 tie (and win the shootout), before the Spartans rebounded with a 5-3 Saturday victory. Six different Nittany Lions scored their goals on the weekend, while Noah Grannan (32 saves) and Liam Souliere (23 stops) each played a game in the PSU crease.

• In the November series, freshman Gavin O'Connell had a pair of goals while Isaac Howard and Artyom Levshunov each had a goal and two assists in the series. Trey Augustine allowed six goals in the two games, stopping 71 of 77 shots against (.922). Three of the Spartans' goals in the series came via special teams - two on the power play and one shorthanded marker by Patrick Geary.

• The Nittany Lions are scoring 3.95 goals per game (third in the B1G/sixth nationally), but just 3.10 in B1G games. By comparison, MSU is averaging 4.15 overall (first B1G/third nationally), but is averaging 4.20 in conference contests.

team notes

• MSU welcomes the return of four players who competed in the IIHF World Junior Championships. Winning a gold medal for team USA was goalie Trey Augustine and forward Isaac Howard, with Howard scoring twice in the gold medal game and earning Player of the Game honors. Slovakian blueliner Maxim Štrbák and Finnish forward Tommi Männistö each were named top-three performers for their national teams in the tournament.

• MSU most recently skated to a 5-2 exhibition victory over the US National Team Development Program last Friday at Munn. The Spartan goals were scored by Austin Oravetz, Karsen Dorwart, Joey Larson, Gavin O'Connell, and Daniel Russell; one of the two USNTDP goals was scored by MSU commit Austin Baker. Luca Di Pasquo made 17 saves in 50 minutes before making way for senior Jon Mor, who made three stops in 10 minutes.

• At 13-4-3, the Spartans are off to their best start since the 2000-01 season when MSU went 14-1-4 prior to the new calendar year.

• MSU is 7-1-2 in Big Ten play and its only loss came in overtime. This is the Spartans' strongest start in B1G play since the start of the conference a decade ago. MSU has won more B1G conference games than it did in all but four previous seasons: the Spartans won 11 B1G games in 2014-15 and 2019-20, and won 10 games a year ago, and captured eight wins in 2018-19.

• MSU has scored 83 goals, tied for the second-most of any team in the country behind Denver (94). Its 4.15 goals per game is first in the Big Ten and third nationally; the Spartans also lead the league and rank second nationally in assists (151) and points (234).

• With 83 scores through 20 games, MSU is well on its way to surpass the 107 goals it scored in 38 games a year ago. Last year, the Spartans surpassed the 100-goal plateau for the first time since 2011-12. MSU has scored fewer than three goals just twice this season: once at Boston College (5-1 L) and in its second win over Notre Dame (2-1).

• MSU ranks in a tie for fourth nationally in shorthanded goals (5), which is its most since the 2016-17 campaign (5). Three of the Spartans' shorthanded markers have been scored by defensemen.

• The Spartan penalty kill went 3-for-4 in the Great Lakes Invitational, and MSU's kill is at .819 (68-of-83), which is second in the Big Ten.

• The Spartans took just two minor penalties in each of the two games at the GLI, which is the fewest in any game for MSU this season.

• MSU's power play is operating at .281 (16-of-57) on the year (second B1G, sixth nationally). The Spartans have a power play goal in 12 of 18 games.

• Opposing goalies have posted 50 or more saves twice this season: Notre Dame's Ryan Bischel made 51 on Dec. 8 (a 5-3 MSU win) and Tech's Blake Pietila made 54 in a 3-3 tie in the GLI final.

• MSU maintains the No. 8 slot in both the USCHO and USA Hockey polls. MSU has been ranked between No. 7 and No 12 in each of the nine polls this season.

• The Spartans accomplished two rare feats in the first month of Big Ten play. In the opening B1G series at Ohio State, MSU swept its first conference road series since Feb. 19-20, 2016 at Wisconsin. That was MSU's only previous road sweep in Big Ten play. With its sweep of No. 1 Wisconsin (Nov. 17-18), it was the Spartans' first sweep of a No. 1 team since 1974.

• MSU has swept 12 all-time B1G series at home, as well as one home-and-home series with Michigan. Three of MSU's 15 all-time weekend sweeps in Big Ten play came during the 2022-23 season, and the Spartans have matched that three so far in the first 10 games of B1G action.

• All 24 Spartan skaters have played at least two games, 21 players have scored at least two points, and MSU has three players averaging a point per game.

• MSU completed its non-conference schedule with a 6-3-1 overall record, and its schedule included two games at No. 3/3 Boston College and RV Michigan Tech in the GLI. MSU went 6-4 in non-conference games a year ago.

• MSU owns a 9-0-1 record at home this season with 14 countable games at Mason Rink on the schedule (plus one exhibition, which it won). The Spartans are one of just two teams who remain unbeaten at home (Maine is 7-0-2 at Alfond Arena).

• MSU ranks ninth nationally in total attendance (64,302) and average attendance (6,430).

• Through the first semester, MSU has sold out nine of 10 home games this season and 17 of its last 18 home games dating back to the start of 2023. With the recent Munn renovations, seating capacity was established at the current 6,117 with a SRO capacity of 6,555. The Spartans have had just one crowd below 6,000 this season- MSU had 5,992 in the building for the Thursday game (10/19) vs. Canisius. MSU also had a sellout crowd for the USNTDP exhibition on Jan. 5.

• MSU continues to spread out its scoring throughout the lineup, as the Spartans had five different goal scorers and 14 players with at least one point in the GLI, where the Spartans had a combined seven goals.

• The all-sophomore line of Karsen Dorwart centering Isaac Howard and Daniel Russell is nearly tied as MSU's highest-producing trio on the season, with a combined 20-35-55 in 18 games. The all-newcomer line of Gavin O'Connell-Red Savage-Joey Larson has 26-30-56 in 20 games. Howard's return from World Juniors reunites him with Dorwart and Russell.

• Joey Larson earned a spot on the Great Lakes Invitational All-Tournament Team with a pair of goals in the championship game.

• Larson's 11-11-22 scoring line puts him atop MSU's statistical sheet in both goals and points, and his +10 is second among forwards. He ranks fourth in the Big Ten in goals (0.55 gpg, fourth B1G), is tied for third in the B1G in points, and leads the league in power play goals (5). He leads the Spartans in power play points (5-2-7).

• Larson's 86 shots on goal is third in the Big Ten and fourth nationally. Howard is 10th nationally and seventh in the B1G with 63 SOG.

• Savage centers O'Connell and Larson, and owns a 7-13-20 scoring line on the season. He is third on the team in assists (tied for seventh in the B1G) and second in points, (T-eighth, B1G). He leads all forwards with a +12.

Adam Nightingale, a Spartan alumnus with hockey experience at the international, professional, collegiate and youth levels, was named the eighth head coach in Michigan State hockey history in May 2022 and had an impressive first season at the helm in 2022-23.

Nightingale's coaching trajectory includes quality experience at every level of competitive hockey. Whether at the top high school for developing young talent (Shattuck-St. Mary's), the United States National Team Development Program (USNTDP), collegiately at Michigan State, and with experience as both a video and bench coach in the NHL, the Spartan mentor has built a reputation of exceptional player development. At every steo of his career, Nightingale has developed strong recruiting ties and professional relationships through all levels of hockey, helping him identify, coach, and develop young talent to reach their goals both on the ice and for life beyond hockey.

Nightingale's goal to recreate a culture of winning hockey within the Spartan program took a huge step forward in his first season. Winning 18 games – the third-most for a first-year head coach in program history – the Spartans finished in fifth place in the Big Ten standings after being selected seventh in the pre-season coaches poll. The squad posted a six-win improvement from the 2021-22 campaign, which was also the most victories for a Spartan team in more than a decade. In the postseason, Michigan State earned its first-ever Big Ten Tournament victory over Notre Dame, and went on to defeat the Irish in the best-of-three quarterfinal series to earn their way into the semifinals against top-ranked Minnesota. Nightingale was one of three finalists for Big Ten Coach of the Year at season's end.

While asking his charges to focus on process and improvement, nine Spartans posted career-best offensive numbers during Nightingale's first season, including two seniors – Nicolas Müller and Jagger Joshua – who more than doubled their three-season career totals. Joshua and graduate transfer Dylan St. Cyr (who also far surpassed his previous career bests in all statistical categories) both earned postseason All-Big Ten honors.

The summer of 2023 yielded a pair of NHL draft picks - MSU had two picks in the top two rounds of the same draft for the first time since 2006. Trey Augustine (41st overall, Detroit Red Wings) and Maxim Štrbák (45th overall, Buffalo Sabres) went just four picks apart in the second round.

Prior to coming back to his alma mater, Nightingale served as head coach at the US National Team Development Program in Plymouth, Mich. Guiding some of the top talent in world in the age group, he led his team to a silver medal at the U.S. Under-18 Men's World Championships in 2022. His roster boasted 22 Division I commitments.

Nightingale has supported seven U.S. teams on the international stage, which includes his head coaching duties with the U18's in 2022 and as a coach for the bronze medal-winning 2021 U.S. Men's World Championship Team. Previously, he was video coach for the U.S. Men's National Team three consecutive years (2017-19), including for the bronze medal-winning 2018 squad. He was also the video coach for the 2015 U.S. National Junior Team.

Prior to his time with the USNTDP, the Cheboygan, Michigan, native spent four seasons on NHL staffs. From 2017-20, he was a member of the Detroit Red Wings organization. As an assistant coach in 2019-20, he was responsible for player development, pre-scouting opponents and running the penalty kill. He worked as the video coach for his first two years in Detroit, a role he also held for the Buffalo Sabres in 2016-17.

Before joining the pro ranks, Nightingale served as head coach of the Shattuck-St. Mary's 14U (Bantam) Team in Faribault, Minnesota for two seasons (2014-16), leading the team to a national championship in 2016 as well as two years (2008-10) as the head coach of the Shattuck midget AA squad.

Between his stints at Shattuck, Nightingale was the director of hockey operations at Michigan State, serving at his alma mater overseeing all team video as well as team travel.

Adam Nightingale While he began his collegiate career at Lake Superior State, (2000-02), the final two seasons of Nightingale's collegiate playing career came at Michigan State (2003-05). Over a combined 118 games, he totaled 37 points (18g-19a). At MSU, he served as alternate captain for both of his playing seasons, and won the Spartan Fitness Award in 2004. Nightingale then went on to play parts of four seasons in the ECHL with the Gwinnett Gladiators, Greenville Grrrowl and Charlotte Checkers.

Nightingale's family includes his wife, Kristin, and three children, Trevor, Emmerson and Keeton. His older brother, Jason, is the Assistant Director of Amateur Scouting for the Buffalo Sabres, while his younger brother, Jared, is also a Spartan alumnus and is currently the assistant coach for the Rockford Ice Hogs of the AHL.
