TIM FRAZIER INJURY: WHAT'S MISSING

■ TIM FRAZIER was named to the preseason All-Big Ten team by conference media voters. Frazier was named a first-team All-Big Ten selection last year after leading the Big Ten in assists (6.2) and finishing second in scoring (18.8) and steals (2.4).

■ stands 6th on the Penn State career assist charts with 459 after posting a record 198 last year and is 151 assists shy of breaking the all-time career record of 600 set by Freddie Barnes in 1992.

■ scored 208 field goals and had 198 assists to lead the nation being involved in 58.4% of Penn State's field goals last year. Only two other players in Division I were involved in 50% or more of their teams scoring.

■ was the ONLY player in NCAA Division I to post at least 17 points and 6 rebounds a game last year.

■ had led Penn State in scoring in 28 of the last 35 games, including 15 of 19 games vs. Big Ten opponents, and scored 20 or more points in 9 of his last 13 games before his injury. Was averaging 21.7 ppg through the first three games of the season.

BUILDING A TWITTER FOLLOWING: Coach Patrick Chambers twitter account (@Coach_Chambers) eclipsed 10K followers in early January. Chambers was ranked among the Top 25 most followed Division I basketball coaches, and fourth among Big Ten coaches, in a preseason survey by the basketball blog runthefloor.com. He has gained more than 1,000 followers since that survey.

GREAT GUARDS: Penn State's high scoring guard trio will all return for the 2013-14 season. With Jermaine Marshall and D.J. Newbill on pace to finish the 2012-13 campaign with around 800 career points each, they could give the Lions three 1,000-point scorers on the floor during the 2014 Big Ten season.

	Career Pts	20+ games	Double-digit	CH
Frazier	1,035	20	43	30
Marshall	722	6	38	29
Newbill	622	8	31	27
TOTALS	2,379	34	112

A NEW MARSHALL IN TOWN: Junior Jermaine Marshall has emerged as not only one of Penn State's main weapons, ranking 7th in the Big Ten scoring 15.2 ppg, but a primary ball handler, sharing duties at the point with D.J. Newbill, and a generator of turnovers, leading the team with 33 steals (6th in the Big Ten, 1.6 spg). He posted his FIRST CAREER DOUBLE-DOUBLE with career highs of 29 points and 10 rebounds vs. Michigan State (1/16) and his combined point and rebound total (39) were the most by a Nittany Lion since Tolor Battle posted 28 points and 13 rebounds (41) in a 69-61 win over Michigan in 2008. He has two 20-point games on the year. He led Penn State in scoring in four straight games immediately following the injury to Tim Frazier and has led the team in points NINE times on the year. He logged a career high five assists vs. two turnovers in the win over Delaware State for his best floor game of the year and followed that with a career high five steals in the win over New Hampshire. Marshall is the Lions' leading active career scorer (discounting the injured Tim Frazier) with 722 points and three-point shooter with 85 career threes.

NEWBILL ON POINT: D.J. Newbill, a natural off-guard, has taken over point guard duties since the injury to Tim Frazier in the fourth game of the season. He is logging big minutes at the position playing 36.1 per game to rank second in the Big Ten. Working through growing pains at the position, He posted his best floor game with just one turnover and six assists to go with 15 points in 39 minutes vs. Ohio State Aaron Craft (1/26). He posted 10-straight double-digit scoring games after taking over, a streak snapped vs. Indiana, and has posted double-digit points in 18 of 21 games with SEVEN 20-point outings, including a career high 27 vs. Michigan State (1/16). He has led the Lions in scoring SEVEN times since Frazier's injury, posting career highs on four occasions including a 23-point, 12-rebound effort vs. Duquesne for his first double-double at Penn State and seventh career. His seven 20-point outings on the year are third most in the Big Ten.

BOROVNJAK STRONG IN FINAL CAMPAIGN:

Senior Sasa Borovnjak, who is in his fourth year in the program but redshirted the 2010-11 campaign due to a knee injury suffered prior to the season and is eligible for a fifth season of eligibility, has made the decision to make this his final season of of collegiate competition and plans to graduate in May. Since discussing the decision with coach Patrick Chambers, he has played the best basketball of his career and started 13 straight games. His nine points vs. No. 14 Ohio State marked his most ever in a Big Ten game. He posted three-straight double-digit scoring games to close out the non-conference season culminating with 14 vs. Duquesne on 7-of-9 shooting. He tied a career high with eight rebounds for the second time in three games vs. Delaware State and added 14 points on a career best 8-of-10 from the foul line for the best statistical game of his career. He followed with 11 points vs. New Hampshire for his first back-to-back double-digit scoring games. Averaging 1.7 ppg and 2.4 rpg in his first seven games, he has raised his averages to 5.7 ppg and 3.4 rpg.

TRAVIS GETS AGGRESSIVE:

Ross Travis has staked a claim as one of the top rebounders in the Big Ten posting four double-digit rebounding games on the season, including 11 in the Big Ten opener at Wisconsin, to rank SIXTH in the Big Ten posting 6.8 rpg. Having worked hard on his jump shot in the off-season, he has also asserted himself offensively posting back-to-back double-digit scoring outings for the first time in his career (12 at La Salle and 14 vs. Army) and has five double-digit scoring games on the year (he had five all of last season). He led Penn State in scoring for the first time on his career with 14 points vs. Indiana while taking a career high 17 field goal attempts. Travis scored eight of the Lions first 14 points at La Salle and seven of Penn State's first nine vs. Army and shot 11-of-22 (50%) combined in the games. He logged his second career double-double with 14 points and 10 boards vs. Army.

QUOTABLE

"We're playing hard. We're playing together. We just need that one stop, or we need that one shot to go down. I feel like we're getting better."

- Chambers after loss at Iowa (1/31)

"He's like Rocky Balboa...he kept coming and coming. He took a 1,000 punches from Oladipo, Hulls and Sheehey, but he kept coming. He has a boxer's mentality. He's just going to keep throwing punches. I think you saw a leader emerge. I was really proud of him."

- Chambers on D.J. Newbill's play at Indiana (1/23)

"They're so physical, they're great at going in and kind of seeking contact and bouncing you off and scoring the ball. They're really strong guys. That backcourt with (Tim) Frazier next year is going to be really good."

- Nebraska coach Tim Miles on PSU guards (1/19)

"I'm looking at that player in the suit (Frazier) that was there today, and that player would make a big difference on that team. Those two wing guys and then a player of his caliber at the point - it's going to be an impressive team next year."

- Michigan State Coach Tom Izzo (1/16)

"Do I miss him?...I don't miss him. He's attached to my hip everyday. This is going to turn out to be a blessing in the long run. I really believe that. He helped run practice the other day. I ran the blue team and Tim ran the white team."

- Patrick Chambers on Tim Frazier

"This is definitely a different group in the way they approach things. I think the mentality is different; this isn't the same old Penn State. This is a group that is playing with confidence, this is a group that doesn't fear failure."

- Patrick Chambers on his team

"I wanted someone to help D.J. lead the team. They have to earn it. They have to bring it everyday...It has to be a consistent 30 days. Those two guys for the last month or so since Tim has gone down, have stepped up. They've earned the right to be named captains"

- Patrick Chambers on naming Nick Colella and Jermaine Marshall to join D.J. Newbill as team captains prior to Big Ten play.

"I think Pat's (Chambers) doing a fantastic, fantastic job, maybe one of the best jobs in the country. I played against his team when they had (Tim) Frazier and for them to be doing what they're doing without him, that's a major, major credit to Pat and those kids."

- Jim Ferry, Duquesne Head Coach

"I think it's those 15 guys in the locker room. They know what people say about them. They hear it, they read it and they see it on Facebook and Twitter. They're a resilient bunch and they're going to keep pressing on and keep competing and getting better."

- Patrick Chambers on team finishing non-con season 6-2 since loss of Tim Frazier

"Awesome, just awesome. I love it. That's what it's supposed to be. That's a Philly guard. If you don't come out of a game with blood or scraped up knees and two different sneakers, then you didn't play hard. He's obviously played extremely hard for 39 minutes."

- Patrick Chambers on D.J. Newbill's effort vs. Duquesne in which he had just short shorts due to blood and blew out the side of one of his shoes.

NOTES FROM RECENT OUTINGS

NOTES FROM LOSS AT IOWA:

- Penn State led 10-3 when it suffered a five-minute scoreless drought and saw Iowa go on a 14-0 run.
- D.J. Newbill posted his seventh 20-point game of the year (20) and led Penn State in scoring for the seventh time on the season.
- Newbill and Jermaine Marshall (15) both reached double-figures for the fifth straight game.
- Penn State committed 26 fouls and saw Iowa hit 31-of-39 at the foul line, a season high in attempts for an opponent. The Lions had a 23-point deficit in scoring at the foul line.
- Penn State committed 18 turnovers, its third game with 18 or more in Big Ten play.
- Penn State fell at Iowa for the 10th straight time and has not won at Iowa since 2001. The Lions fell to 0-5 in road games on the year and have now lost 15 straight on the road.

NOTES FROM LOSS TO NO. 14 OHIO STATE:

- Penn State held Big Ten leading scorer Deshaun Thomas (20.5) to a season low 11 points.
- Penn State committed a season low four turnovers, its lowest number since committing just 3 vs. Wisconsin in 2006.
- D.J. Newbill posted 15 points and six assists and had just one turnover in 39 minutes vs. Aaron Craft.
- Jermaine Marshall led the Lions in scoring for the eighth time on the year with 16 points.
- Penn State had a season low 25 rebounds and two offensive boards in the game.
- Sasa Borovnjak's nine points marked his most ever in a Big Ten game.

TAYLOR A THREE-POINT THREAT: Freshman Brandon Taylor has proven to be an efficient offensive performer early in his career when he can avoid early foul trouble that limits his minutes. A pick and pop, stretch four, he led Penn State in scoring for the first time on his career with 11 at Purdue (1/13). He shot a team-best 37.8% from the arc during the non-conference season, but has seen that dip to 31.8 percent (27-85). He has made at least one three in 14 of 18 games since taking on a larger role following Tim Frazier's injury. His 27 threes rank second on the team. He posted back-to-back double-digit outings vs. Akron and Bucknell (hitting 62.5% (6-12) from three). Taylor's 14 points vs. Army and 10 vs. New Hampshire gave him five double-digit scoring outings on the year.

COLELLA LEADS LIONS IN CHARGES TAKEN & DIVES:

Among the team leaders in overall "Attitude Points" on the season, senior Nick Colella leads the team with 13 charges taken and 55 dives on the year emblematic of the grit and hustle of a former walk-on. After a rough start to the season that saw him shoot 5-of-27 from three in the first eight games, he found his shot in the final four non-conference games going a team-best 11-of-20 (55%) from three to average 9.0 ppg. Included in that effort was a career high 15 points on a career-best 5-of-7 from three and a career-best four boards in the win vs. Duquesne. His five threes marked the most by a PSU player on the season. He is now third on the team with 22 threes on the year and has raised his three-point percentage to a team-leading 33.8%.

FRAZIER HITS 8-WEEK MILESTONE: Tim Frazier had successful surgery to repair his ruptured left Achilles tendon on Nov. 20. He hit the eight-week milestone since the surgery on Jan. 15 and marked the day by no longer requiring use of a walking boot. He will wear a wedge under his left heel for the next 2-3 weeks as he continues to stretch the tendon. He is currently walking in a pool and undergoing rehab to stretch the tendon and remove scar tissue. He is expected to begin walking on a weight suspended treadmill at the 10-week mark post surgery and to begin jumping rope in weeks 14 to 18. Frazier was in a cast for about three weeks before moving to a walking boot that gradually flattened his foot as the tendon stretched. He is expected to have about a six-month recovery period and, at the completion of the 2012-13 campaign, will apply for an NCAA Hardship Waiver to return for the 2013-14 season.

72 VS. MSU ENDS BIG TEN SCORING DROUGHT: Penn State's 47 points against Michigan State in the second half marked a high for a half in two seasons under Coach Chambers. The Lions eclipsed 70 points for the fifth time on the season and fifth in a stretch of seven home game. The 72 points and 48% shooting marked a PSU high in Big Ten play on the year. MSU entered the game ranked second in the Big Ten in scoring defense (57.7 ppg) and defensive shooting percentage (37.6%) and had allowed just one opponent to reach 70, a 74-70 win over Boise State. PSU posted 78.5 ppg in its final four non-conference

DIFFERENT

STARTING LINE-UPS:

6 on the year;

63 of 105 starts on the year by freshmen or sophomores.

Penn State employed 14 different starting line-ups on the 2011-12 season, nine in Big Ten play.

games, but failed to eclipse 54 points in its first four Big Ten games, posting 49.5 ppg over that stretch. The Lions have logged three straight games with season lows in shooting (31.7% vs. Indiana, 31.6% vs. Northwestern in the Jordan Center and 25.9% (the lowest mark under Patrick Chambers) at Purdue) prior to the MSU game. The Lions 42 points in the loss at Purdue marked the fewest scored in two seasons under head coach Patrick Chambers.

WHAT ARE THE CHANCES?: On January 13, Nittany Lion freshman Brandon Taylor and Lady Lion senior Alex Bentley made half court shots just prior to halftime on the same day, approximately two hours apart. Taylor tossed in a 50-foot bomb at the halftime buzzer for the last of his 11 points in a road loss at Purdue. Meanwhile, two hours later at the Bryce Jordan Center Bentley tossed one in from the Nittany Lion logo to give Penn State a 40-27 halftime lead in an eventual victory over Nebraska.

FOUR STRAIGHT 70-POINT GAMES TO CLOSE NON-CON: Penn State posted its four best point (78, 80, 72 & 84) and assist totals (13, 15, 13 & 12) of the season in the last four non-conference games and three of its top for shooting games. The Lions shot 47% and scored 78.5 ppg in the last four non-con outings, an increase of nearly 20 ppg over their 58.9 ppg average over the first eight games of the year. The Lions' streak of four straight games of 70+ points was their longest since posting seven in November and December of 2008 and their 84-point outing vs. Duquesne in the final non-con game was their most since 2009.

■ Penn State went 6-2 in the eight non-con games after losing do-everything guard Tim Frazier to a season-ending Achilles injury. The Lions 8-4 record in the non-con season equaled their win total from last year (8-5), despite losing Frazier early in the fourth game of the year.

WE CAN RELATE: Penn State coach Patrick Chambers can relate to star guard Tim Frazier's recent injury, in fact Frazier is using the exact same motorized scooter Chambers used this summer after he underwent arthroplastic surgery to repair the knee joint on his left leg and was limited to riding the scooter and non-weight bearing crutches for six weeks and the use of crutches for two months. Chambers has said the insertion of a wedge and six screws to re-align his knee joint was one of the toughest things he's had to deal with and will use the recent experience to help guide Frazier through his rehabilitation. Frazier's sister, Krystal, also suffered a ruptured Achilles, during a standout basketball career at Rice that saw her earn All-Conference USA honors. She returned from the injury to post 10 ppg in her senior season.

FRAZIER REMAINS ACTIVE LEADER: Since his season-ending Achilles injury, Tim Frazier has remained a vocal and active presence on the team attending every practice and shouting instructions and pulling teammates aside during breaks in the action. He is a virtual assistant coach in games, even delivering the pre-game scout in the locker room prior to the win over Delaware State. He has been particularly active in helping to guide D.J. Newbill in his transition to the point guard position.

FRAZIER SUFFERS SEASON-ENDING INJURY: Senior guard Tim Frazier, a pre-season candidate for both the Wooden and Naismith national player of the year awards, will miss the remainder of the 2012-13 season due to an injury suffered in the Nittany Lions' third game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off in Bayamon, Puerto Rico. Frazier had played in every game (101) the last three plus seasons. He suffered a ruptured Achilles tendon in his left leg and the 2012 first-team All-Big Ten guard underwent surgery to repair the injury on Nov. 20. A pre-season All-Big Ten selection, Frazier was leading Penn State with 21.7 ppg and 5.0 apg per game and was second with 6.0 rebounds per game through three games. He suffered the injury in the Nittany Lions' fourth game, a Nov. 18 contest vs. Akron in Puerto Rico, leaving the floor at the 14:30 mark of the first half. Frazier, a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection on schedule to graduate in May with a degree in Supply Chain and Information Systems from the Smeal College of Business, is eligible to apply for an NCAA medical Hardship Waiver after the completion of the 2012-13 campaign. He had posted 25 straight double-digit scoring game, 14 of which were 20+ point outings, and had led Penn State in scoring in 28 of the last 35 games, scoring 20+ points in nine of his last 13, prior to the Akron game.

LIONS HIT OFFENSIVE & REBOUNDING HIGH VS. DUQUESNE: Penn State shot a season-best 40% from three (8-20) making a season high eight and eclipsed 70 points for the fourth straight game in the win vs. Duquesne. Its 84 points marked the Lions most since posting 104 vs. Gardner-Webb in 2009. Penn State out-rebounded Duquesne 50-28 (+22), posting its most rebounds since logging 52 vs. UMBC in 2009. The Lions 16 offensive boards produced a 23-7 advantage in second chance points. FRAZIER NAMED TO WOODEN TOP 50: Tim Frazier was named to the Wooden Award Men's Preseason Top 50. He is the second Nittany Lion in the last three years to be named to the preseason list joining Talor Battle who was named prior to the 2010-11 season. Frazier was among nine Big Ten players named to the list.

FRAZIER PRESEASON ALL-BIG TEN: Senior guard Tim Frazier was named to the Preseason All-Big Ten team by conference media voters. Frazier, the lone returning first-team All-Big Ten selection from last year, was joined on the preseason team by Ohio State's Aaron Craft and Deshaun Thomas, Michigan's Trey Burke and Indiana's Cody Zeller who was also named the preseason POY.

BIGGER, STRONGER, FASTER: Some highlights of Penn State's physical improvement under strength coach Brad Pantall:

TIM FRAZIER: Added 18 reps to his 185-pound bench press since arriving at Penn State and can now do 19, one shy of the 2012 NBA Combine best...improved his max bench press by more than 115 pounds to over 300 pounds entering his final season...posted a pro-lane agility time (10.0) and 3/4 court sprint time (3.09) better than the NBA combine bests...has added 30 pounds of muscle since arriving at Penn State.

JON GRAHAM: Added four inches to his vertical leap...added 11 reps to his 185-pound bench press to now be able to perform a team high 24, far above the 2012 NBA Combine best of 20...increased his max bench press from 215 to 325.

ROSS TRAVIS: In the past year, Travis has increased his bench press max from 245 to 310 and his reps on the 185-pound bench from 10 to 22. He increased his leg press max from 325 to 615 and added 2.5 inches to his vertical (31.5). He increased his weight from 203 to 220 while maintaining his body fat and can touch a team-best 16 inches above the rim.

NICK COLELLA: Added more than six inches to his vertical leap and improved his pro-lane agility time to 10.0, tying the Penn State team record and beating the 2012 NBA Combine best...improved his bench press by 75 pounds to over 300 pounds.

SASA BOROVNJAK: Cut his weight from 242 to 230 pounds and reduced his body fat by five percent...Improved his bench over 300 pounds while cutting one second off his pro-lane agility time.

CHAMBERS HAS AN EVENTFUL OFF-SEASON: It was an eventful off-season for head coach Patrick Chambers as he and wife, Courtney, welcomed their third child, Caitlin, to the family on March 23, he underwent reconstructive knee surgery on his left leg on May 11 and his father, John "Rube", passed away on June 11 after a long battle with Alzheimers. Chambers underwent arthroplastic surgery, which involved resetting the top of the tibia below the knee to change the angle of the joint. The energetic coach was limited to riding a scooter and non-weight bearing crutches for six weeks and was on crutches for two months. He began walking short distances without crutches on July 6 and after months of rehab returned to normal mobility in August.

CHAMBERS & THE POST-SEASON: Coach Patrick Chambers missed having a team play in the post-season for the first time in his collegiate coaching career last season and has been a part of the post-season in seven of his eight seasons as a collegiate coach. In his previous five seasons as a member of the Villanova coaching staff and two as head coach at Boston University, all of his teams reached post-season play including six NCAA Tournament appearances and one CBI appearance. Chambers has been a part of 17 NCAA Tournament games, helping Villanova advance to the tournament every year and make four NCAA Sweet 16 appearances and reach the 2009 NCAA Final Four. In his first season at BU, he guided the Terriers to their first post-season win since 1959 with a victory in the CBI and the following year led BU to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2002.

STAFF TIES: Patrick Chambers began forming his first Penn State coaching staff by naming his former Episcopal Academy high school teammate Eugene Burroughs as associate head coach, the first of three assistants with strong ties to Philadelphia. Chambers and Burroughs both played for legendary coach Dan Dougherty in Philadelphia in the late 80's early 90's. Burroughs previously had worked as associate head coach at Navy. Former Villanova assistant Keith Urgo also joined the staff as an assistant. The pair worked together on Villanova's 2009 NCAA Final Four staff and Urgo worked under Jay Wright for four seasons. Brian Daly followed Chambers from Boston University where he was associate head coach under Chambers. Daly is a former Philadelphia high school standout and player at Saint Joseph's and was a highly successful high school coach at his alma mater, Monsignor Bonner HS in Philadelphia.

GET ON THE FLOOR: Patrick Chambers places an emphasis on "dives" during a basketball game and has his staff chart them with a goal of achieving at least 14 "dives" per game. Chambers has established an "Attitude Club" in which players attempt to record enough hustle points during practices and games to become a member. Penn State charts "Attitude Points" during every practice and game and announces winners at the end of every practice. Modeled after similar programs used by longtime NBA coach Pat Riley and Chambers' mentor, Villanova's Jay Wright, the club charts hustle plays, extra passes, charges drawn, dives on the floor, screen assists, shot contests, tap backs, deflections, etc.

MAKING A RUN

Coach Patrick Chambers has instilled a "never say die" attitude in his Nittany Lion teams. To that end, Penn State has battled back from several double-digit second half deficits in Big Ten play in the last two seasons to challenge some of the top teams in the league both at home and on the road, refusing to go quietly.

GREAT GRAD RATE

Coach Patrick Chambers' Nittany Lions ranked second in the Big Ten with a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 92 percent, 24 percent higher than the national average (68%), according to statistical information released by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). The NCAA's annual study of institutions nationwide revealed that Penn State student-athletes at the University Park campus earned a GSR of 88 percent compared to the 80 percent average for all Division I institutions for students entering from 2002-03 through 2005-06. The 88 percent figure was third to Northwestern (97) and Illinois (89) among Big Ten Conference institutions. Penn State basketball's NCAA four-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score of 995 through 2009-10 tied for the best among men's basketball teams in the Big Ten and was well above the national average of 945. Penn State and Michigan State tied for the Big Ten's highest APR figure, marking the fourth consecutive year the Nittany Lions ranked among the top three in the Big Ten. The four-year federal graduation rate average for University Park student-athletes was 78 percent, second to Northwestern (88) among Big Ten schools, and significantly above the 64 percent Division I average.

Following completion of the fall semester, two Nittany Lions (Kevin Montminy & Tim Frazier) earned Dean's List honors with a 3.5 GPA or higher and seven Lions posted a 3.0 GPA or higher. Montminy posted a 4.0 GPA.
