THE GAME: Penn State will return to the floor after a week off for final exams. The Lions will look to snap a three-game losing skid, equaling the team's longest in the last two seasons, vs. Mount St. Mary's, which lost a close game at Maryland on Dec. 7 but brings its own seven-game losing skid into the contest. Sunday's game will be a double-header with the Lady Lions who tip off at 1:00 p.m. vs. Wagner. Penn State is 6-0 all-time vs. The Mount, winning 57-53 last year in the Jordan Center, and 23-1 vs. NEC teams. This will be the fourth meeting since 2005 for the teams. The previous two were both decided by five points or less. Senior Cammeron Woodyard's father, Bruce, played at The Mount in the 1980's. Penn State will be looking for its seventh non-conference win to equal the number of non-con wins from last year's NCAA Tournament team that went 7-4 in the pre-Big Ten season.

LAST TIME VS. THE MOUNT: Penn State found itself in a tie game with The Mount with under 30 seconds to play last year, when Talor Battle dribbled down the shot clock and buried a 28-foot three with 1.3 seconds left. Battle scored the Lions' last eight points and led the team with 13 despite a 3-of-14 shooting night in a low scoring affair, 57-53, that saw the Lions shoot 42 percent (4-12 from three) and Mount St. Mary's hit 39 percent (5-13 from three). The Mount scored 18 points off 15 Penn State turnovers to stay close. The Lions led 31-22 at the half, but shot just 38 percent in the second and committed nine turnovers. Cammeron Woodyard had eight points and Tim Frazier three among Penn State returners. MSM was led by 16 points from Lamar Trice. Julian Norfleet (6) and Danny Thompson (6) led MSM players that return for this year's contest.

YOUNG LIONS: Penn State's six underclassmen playing at least 10 minutes per game ranks tied for the most among Big Ten teams. Illinois, Minnesota and Ohio State also play six underclassmen significant minutes. Through the first 11 games, three freshmen & three sophomores are averaging at least 14 minutes per game for Penn State and have made a total of 27 starts. True-freshmen Trey Lewis (5) and Ross Travis (5) have combined for 10 starts. The Lions have just three upperclassmen playing more than 10 minutes per game.

The Lions posted a best-ever 16-2 record vs. non-conference teams during the 2008-09 season, which included a run to the 2009 NIT title.

NON-CON ROAD WIN: Penn State's victory at B.C. snapped a string of four-straight non-conference road losses (going 0-2 last year at Mississippi and Virginia Tech) and was its first non-con road win since winning at Virginia (69-66) as part of the 2009 Challenge.

LIONS WIN 4TH BIG TEN/ACC CHALLENGE GAME IN LAST FIVE: Penn State improved to 5-6 overall in Big Ten/ACC Challenge games and posted its fourth win in its last five Challenge contests with a 62-54 victory at Boston College, Nov. 30, which gave the Eagles their first-ever Challenge loss in six games. It marked Penn State's third-straight win in a Challenge road game, having also won at Georgia Tech (2008) and at Virginia (2009). Penn State, which was the first Big Ten team to claim a Challenge victory in three-straight seasons, now ranks sixth among Big Ten teams with five Challenge wins. The Big Ten won the Challenge for the third-straight year posting an 8-4 edge, the Big Ten's largest-ever winning margin and equaling the most number of wins in a season in the series. The ACC also won eight in 2006 and 2007 and won the initial 10 Challenges.

FRAZIER GOES FOR 20 & 10 AGAIN!: Three times in the first six games of the season, junior Tim Frazier posted at least 20 points and 10 assists in a game.

- In Penn State's win over Youngstown State (11/23), Frazier shot 8-of-11 from the floor for a team-high 26 points and added a career-best 11 assists, tying the eighth best game total in Penn State history.
- It marked Frazier's fourth career double-double (third of the season) and fifth career 20-point game.

HOT VS YSU: Penn State hit 60 percent from the floor and 7-of-10 from three in the first half of its win over Youngstown State (11/23). Penn State's 56.5 percent shooting for the game vs. YSU is a season high and equaled the Lions' season-best posted last year. The Lions finished 11-of-22 from three in the game, also a season high.

FRAZIER BACK-TO-BACK DOUBLE-DOUBLES: Tim Frazier posted back-to-back double-doubles, 20-point games and career-best assist totals in two outings vs. Radford and LIU.

- He is the first PSU player to post back-to-back double-doubles since Geary Claxton posted three straight in January of 2008.
- Frazier was spectacular in the Lions' win over Long Island posting a then career-high 26 points on 9-of-18 shooting and logging a career-best 10 assists for the second-straight game.
- Frazier went for 20 points, 10 assists, six rebounds and three steals in the Lions previous victory vs. Radford.

FRAZIER LOOKING TO SCORE:

- Tim Frazier finished fifth in the Big Ten last year averaging 5.1 assists per game while taking just 4.8 shot attempts per contest to average 6.3 ppg.
- Frazier averaged just 4.6 shots per game while playing in every one of Penn State's 65 games over his first two seasons.
- Frazier currently FOURTH the Big Ten scoring 17.4 ppg and has posted FIVE 20-point games (6 career) while leading the Lions in scoring in EIGHT games.
- Frazier is averaging 13.5 shots and 5.6 field goals made per game while shooting 42 percent thus far on the season.
- He showed glimpses of his scoring ability in the Lions' run to the 2011 NCAA Tournament, including posting a career-high 22 points on a career most nine field goals and 13 field goal attempts vs. Michigan State in a Big Ten Tournament semifinal victory. Frazier followed that up with 15 points vs. Temple in the Lions' NCAA Tournament loss to the Owls.

FRAZIER NAMED TO TIP-OFF TOURNAMENT ALL-TOURNEY TEAM: Tim Frazier averaged 21.0 ppg, 6.7 apg and 5.8 rpg while posting three 20-point games, two career-high points totals, back-to-back doubles and two career-best assist totals (10) in four games while leading the Lions in scoring in every game to earn All-Tournament Team honors in the Basketball Hall of Fame Tip-off Tournament the week of Nov. 14-20. Frazier logged a then career-high 26 points to go with 10 assists in a win over Long Island, his second-straight 20 & 10 double-double, before bettering his scoring mark with 27 points, 19 in the second half, in a come-from behind win over South Florida. Penn State went 3-1 in the tournament, playing in its first pre-season tournament since the 2009 Charleston Classic.

TRAVIS & GLOVER SHINE IN SECOND HALF VS UK: Penn State struggled in the game, but saw two newcomers shine in the second half of the Lions' loss to Kentucky on Saturday. Freshman Ross Travis and sophomore transfer Matt Glover scored all of their career high point totals in the second half vs. Kentucky. Glover hit his first three three-point attempts of the second half before finishing 3-of-4 from three for nine points in 21 minutes. Ross Travis hit a pair of threes in the second half on his way to a career-best 10 points and eight rebounds to lead the Lions on the boards.

20th BIG TEN SEASON: Penn State will open its 20th season of Big Ten Conference play with a pair of road games at Michigan (Dec. 29) and at Northwestern (Jan. 1). It marks the second straight season Penn State will open the Big Ten with a pair of road games (winning at Indiana and falling at Michigan last year) and the third straight season opening the Big Ten with a road game (falling at Minnesota in 2009-10). Penn State posted a 9-9 mark during the Big Ten regular season last year to finish in a tie for fourth place. The nine wins marked the fifth time Penn State posted a .500 or better record in Big Ten play and tied for Penn State's third best Big Ten record ever. It marked the second time in the last three seasons Penn State finished fourth in the Big Ten regular season. Penn State's best Big Ten finish came in 1996 as the Lions went 12-6 to finish second in the conference.

CHAMBERS ERA BEGINS: Patrick Chambers was introduced as the 12th head coach in Nittany Lion basketball history on Monday, June 6, shortly after the departure of Penn State alumnus and eight-year head coach Ed DeChellis for the Navy head job in late May. Chambers introduction took place in front of more than 300 fans and supporters described a "less an introduction than a passionate call to arms," by local media. Chambers wasted little time connecting with the Penn State fan base far and wide. He ordered a pair of golf carts and began making spur-of-the-moment trips around the Penn State campus distributing t-shirts and his infectious energy. He visited amusement parks, pep rallies, student groups, classes, threw out the first pitch for the State College Spikes and even donned a Penn State football jersey and helmet to fire

NOTABLE

- The youngest of 12 siblings (nine boys, three girls)
- The youngest coach in the Big Ten.
- Three siblings are Penn State graduates
- Worked for 10 years in family printing business in Philadelphia.
- Played for 2011 Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame inductee Herb Magee at Philadelphia University. Magee, also known as "The Shot Doctor," is college basketball's all-time victories leader (922).
- Began his career at Philadelphia U. as a walk-on and went on to become the school's all-time leader in assists.
- Played for legendary Philadelphia coach Dan Dougherty at Episcopal Academy. Dougherty posted 621 victories at Episcopal, the most of any high school coach in Philadelphia history.

"Penn State and Pat Chambers are a perfect match - class, pride and integrity. Pat is a talented coach and an outstanding recruiter.

I watched him interact with people and I just liked him, liked his energy. I remember seeing him come in from work and into practice in his shirt and tie (at Episcopal). I remember thinking, 'Man, this guy's rushing in from work, coming on the court, bringing energy.' I just really like his passion. As soon as we got him in here, I could tell he was gonna be outstanding. Very detailed, very organized, a relentless worker and a lot of passion."

- Jay Wright, Villanova Head Basketball Coach

"It was clear right away he had a little something extra you don't find in a lot of guys. He wasn't a scoring threat at all. But, I had scorers. But, his ability to lead and defend and do all the things on and off the court that coaches need made me fall in love with the kid. Once he got the job, he never relinquished it."

- Herb Magee, Philadelphia University Head Basketball Coach, NCAA All-time Victories Leader 2011 Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame inductee

"He was selling for the family business and doing well. But, I just had that feeling he would make a great coach. He was one of those people who love the game so much and know the game so well. He had that Philly ability to recognize situations and know what people should be doing and know what to do with the ball and that intense desire to win. I loved the way he interacted with the players. He's quick to jump on them if they're not doing everything exactly the right way. There are no short-cuts with him."

- Dan Dougherty, Former Episcopal Academy Head Coach

"Pat Chambers has been fortunate enough to play for and work for some of the most successful coaches in the Philadelphia area – long-time coach Dan Dougherty at celebrated Episcopal Academy, Naismith Hall of Fame coach Herb Magee from Philadelphia University and 2008 NABC National Coach of the Year Jay Wright from Villanova.

- Dick "Hoops" Weiss, New York Daily News

"It's hard to imagine Penn State finding a more promising coach and better fit than Patrick Chambers. It certainly helps that he worked for one of the best, classiest coaches in Jay Wright, but Patrick showed in his two years at BU that he could stand on his own as a coach. Penn State has every reason to be thrilled about its basketball future."

- Mike DeCourcy, Sporting News/Big Ten Network

"Before I joined ESPN.com, I worked in Philadelphia and watched Chambers tutor alongside Villanova coach Jay Wright. His passion for basketball and his eagerness was so overwhelming that more than one person asked, 'Is this guy for real?' The implication being that Chambers' personality might be somewhat disingenuous. It is not. It is who he is.

- Dana O'Neil, ESPN.com

"Chambers to Penn State' is bigger news in Philadelphia than just a Philly guy getting a job – and relevant right now, not just in the winter – because every Division I coach in Philadelphia knows Chambers is at Penn State...Chambers can walk into any gym in this city and find people he knows. He has relationships with virtually all the AAU movers and shakers."

- Mike Jensen, Philadelphia Inquirer

SEASON OUTLOOK NOTES

- Juniors Tim Frazier and Billy Oliver are expected to step to the forefront as scoring options for Penn State after averaging 6.3 and 2.3 ppg, respectively, last season.
- Penn State graduated players that accounted for 80% of the scoring and nearly 70% of the rebounding from last year's NCAA Tournament team.
- Five senior graduates from the 2010-11 team accounted for 432 career starts and 581 career games played. Among them was all-time leading scorer Talor Battle who posted 2,213 points and led the Lions in scoring each of the past four seasons.
- Tim Frazier leads all returners having started 43 career games (33 of 34 games last year) and played in every game in the last three seasons.
- Penn State returned five players with experience in a Penn State uniform (Frazier, Sasa Borovnjak, Jermaine Marshall, Billy Oliver and Cammeron Woodyard).

SEASON SUPERLATIVES

- Posted seventh-straight season opening win a victory over Hartford.
- Posted fourth 3-0 start in the last 12 years and eighth since joining the Big Ten in 1993. The Lions have reached the post-season following each of their previous 3-0 starts since joining the Big Ten.
- Posted fourth Big Ten/ACC Challenge win in last five Challenges and third-straight in a Challenge road game.

up the famed "Paternoville" student campout just prior to the clash of Joe Paterno's football team with Alabama. He was seemingly everywhere in his first four months on the job, most importantly the recruiting trail, and showed no signs of slowing down.

FRAZIER STEPS INTO LEADERSHIP ROLE:

Junior guard Tim Frazier took his game to a higher level in Penn State's 2011 run to the NCAA Tournament as he averaged 10.0 ppg, 5.9 apg and 4.6 rpg over the final 11 games, including a career-best 22-point, eight-rebound, six-assist effort in the Lions' Big Ten Tournament semifinal win over Michigan State. With the graduation of four senior starters, Frazier entered the season the most experienced Nittany Lion having played in every game over the previous two seasons and started 43.

CAPTAINS: Penn State named senior Cammeron Woodyard and juniors Tim Frazier and Billy Oliver captains at the beginning of pre-season practice.

CHAMBERS HITS THE GROUND RUNNING:

Coach Chambers wasted no time in getting to know his first Penn State team as he logged 10,500 miles in his first eight days on the job traveling from coast-to-coast to visit current Penn State players and incoming freshmen and their families. Chambers traveled from Massachusetts to California, Minnesota to Texas as he met with every player except Sasa Borovnjak who was at home in Serbia.

GET ON THE FLOOR:

Patrick Chambers places an emphasis on "dives" during a basketball game and has his staff chart them with a goal of achieving at least 14 "dives" per game. The Nittany Lions achieved that goal in their exhibition game recording 18 "dives," 13 of which came in the second half. Chambers has established an "Attitude Club" in which players attempt to record enough hustle points during practices to become a member. Penn State charts "Attitude Points" during every practice and announces winners at the end of every practice. Modeled after similar programs used by longtime NBA coach Pat Riley and Chambers' mentor, Villanova's Jay Wright, the club charts hustle plays, extra passes, charges drawn, dives on the floor.

STAFF TIES:

Patrick Chambers began forming his first Penn State coaching staff by naming his former Episcopal Academy high school teammate Eugene Burroughs as associate head coach, the first of three assistants with strong ties to Philadelphia. Chambers and Burroughs both played for legendary coach Dan Dougherty in Philadelphia in the late 80's early 90's. Burroughs previously had worked as associate head coach at Navy. Former Villanova assistant Keith Urgo also joined the staff as an assistant. The pair worked together on Villanova's 2009 NCAA Final Four staff and Urgo worked under Jay Wright for four seasons. Brian Daly followed Chambers from Boston University where he was associate head coach under Chambers. Daly is a former Philadelphia high school standout and player at Saint Joseph's and was a highly successful high school coach at his alma mater, Monsignor Bonner HS in Philadelphia.

2011 EARLY SIGNEE

Penn State signed one player in the 2011 NCAA Early Signing Period that began Nov. 9

BRANDON TAYLOR 6-8, 235, F, Tabernacle, N.J., Trenton Catholic Academy (N.J.)

"Brandon is a great kid who comes from a great family and is serious about his academics and getting his degree. Basketball wise, he is a terrific player who can post-up, shoot threes, has a very high basketball IQ and has a Big Ten ready body. He will make an immediate impact in our program." - Patrick Chambers

Taylor helped lead his AAU squad, Team Philly, to several tournament titles over the summer and saw his stock rise as he diversified his game and excelled in several head-to-head battles with other high Division I recruits. His size and strength on the block as well as his ability to stretch defenses on the perimeter and score off the dribble or from the three-point line were on display. He is described as a "prototypical mismatch problem" with "the physical tools and basketball skills to score both inside and out" by ESPN.com. Dave Telep of ESPN.com added, "Penn State has itself a legitimate scoring option on its way to Happy Valley."

Taylor helped Trenton Catholic Academy (N.J.) to a 2010 New Jersey Non-Public B State Championship with a victory over perennial powerhouse St. Anthony and an eventual championship crown in the NJSIAA (all classes) Tournament of Champions as a sophomore. He averaged 11.7 points per game last year as a junior at Trenton Catholic as he helped lead the team to a 19-6 record. The Iron Mikes fell in the semifinals of the NJSIAA Non-Public South B Tournament in a two-point game in which Taylor recorded 14 points and had 15 rebounds. He posted a season high 25 points earlier in the year in a victory over West Windsor South.

LIONS PLAYING PROFESSIONALLY: All four senior starters from Penn State's 2011 NCAA Tournament team are currently playing professionally in Europe or South America. Penn State currently has 11 former players active in pro leagues around the world, six of which have graduated in the last three years.

GREAT GRAD RATE: Penn State basketball's NCAA four-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score of 995 through 2009-10 tied for the best among men's basketball teams in the Big Ten and was well above the national average of 945. Penn State and Michigan State tied for the Big Ten's highest APR figure, marking the fourth consecutive year the Nittany Lions have ranked among the top three in the Big Ten. Penn State student-athletes also earned a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 88 percent compared to the 80 percent average for all Division I institutions for students entering from 2001-02 through 2004-05. The 88 percent figure was third to Northwestern (96) and Illinois (89) among Big Ten Conference institutions. Coach Patrick Chambers' Nittany Lions ranked second in the Big Ten with their 90 percent GSR score. The four-year federal graduation rate average for University Park student-athletes was 79 percent, second to Northwestern (88) among Big Ten schools, and significantly above the 64 percent Division I average.

Penn State suffered through an 0-for-16 start and never recovered, trailing 22-0 before getting on the board for the first time nearly nine minutes into the game. The Lions struggled shooting just 4-of-38 in the first half and trailed 33-10 at the half. St. Joe's hit 7-of-9 to start to leap to a 22-0 lead before Tim Frazier fed Ross Travis for a dunk at 11:25. PSU's would hold St. Joe's to just one point over then next nine minutes, but the Lions got just one basket over that stretch, a three from Billy Oliver, and trailed 23-5. PSU got within 16 late in the second after warming up to 45 percent in the second half, but got no closer. The Lions finished shooting 27 percent and had 12 shots blocked.
