SHOWTIME

Starting with the final match-up of the year against Penn State (12-13-3) on Saturday, the team's final five games will all be broadcast nationally on Big Ten Network.

OUTDUELED

Michigan's long tenure as holders of the Iron "D" trophy came to an end last week when Michigan State won the Duel in the D at Little Caesars Arena, 3-2. The win for the Spartans marked their first victory in the annual rivalry game since 2016 and snapped a seven-year, six-game win streak for the Wolverines. U-M made a ferocious push in the latter portion of the third period, but failed to pot a game-tying goal.

PLAYER OF THE MONTH: TAKE TWO

After being named Co-Player of the Month by the Hockey Commissioners Association for the month of October, sophomore standout Rutger McGroarty added a second honor by being named the lone recipient of January's Player of the Month award. Playing in just six games (compared to many competitors playing eight), McGroarty scored three goals and notched 13 assists to lead college hockey with 16 points. As it stands, he's fifth in college hockey in points per game with 1.55 pt/gm.

BACK TO BARZO

Coming off a sweep of Ohio State, Jake Barczewski was rewarded by the Big Ten by finishing off an all-goaltender trio as the Third Star of the Week. In a pair of road wins, Barzo allowed just three goals on 69 shots that he faced to move to 3-0-1 all-time against OSU with a .957 sv% and 1.48 GAA. The weekly honor was his third of the year after banking a pair of Second Star performances in October and November.

GUESS WHO'S BACK?

Sophomore Tyler Duke returned to play at Ohio State two weeks ago for the first time since transferring to U-M. The blueliner embraced the moment, recording a new career-best performance with three points off one goal and a pair of assists after opening the scoring with a patient dart through traffic for the weekend's first goal.

RISING TIDES LIFT ALL BOATS

Six Wolverines have already recorded more than 30 points this season; the sextet are all producing above one point-per-game. In the last 25 years, no Michigan team has finished the season with more than four Wolverines at one point-per-game.

CRACKED THE CODE

Wisconsin entered the series in Ann Arbor three weeks ago as the nation's top-ranked defensive team in addition to boasting the #1 penalty kill. In 24 games, UW had only allowed 39 goals, and the team had never allowed five or more goals in a single game. U-M proceeded to do it twice, scoring 10 goals in the series. Through 28 games, Michigan has scored 15 of 52 goals (28.8%) that the Badgers have allowed.

GOOD THINGS COME IN THREES

Sophomore forwards from Michigan were honored as the Big Ten's "First Star of the Week" on three-straight occasions, as Frank Nazar III, Rutger McGroarty, and Gavin Brindley took turns keeping the honor inside Yost for three weeks in a row.

- Two weeks ago, Nazar captured First Star of the Week honors from the Big Ten after notching a pair of multi-point performances. In the split vs. UW, he scored three goals and added a pair of assists while putting seven shots on goal.
- Rutger McGroarty starred in the home-and-home versus Michigan State three weeks ago, recording back-to-back four-point games for the first time in his career.
- A third sophomore, Brindley, started the second half by earning B1G First Star of the Week following a seven-point weekend against Stonehill College. He began the series with his first-career four-goal game to propel the team to a dozen-goal eruption. The next night, Brindley scored once and added a pair of assists to finish off his seven-point series.

NOTES

DUKE THE ELDER

Alternate captain Dylan Duke saw his career-long 13-game point streak come to an end at OSU. He leads the team with 17 goals as well as four game-winning goals, and his 10 power-play goals lead the Big Ten in addition to being fifth-most nationwide.

NO NEW FRIENDS

The team concluded non-conference play with a sweep over Stonehill to start the second half. U-M will finish the campaign with a 7-2-1 mark against opponents from outside the Big Ten, and the squad's final six games are all Big Ten contests.

CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN

In the first game against Stonehill, Michigan resumed D1 play by scoring at will in a dominant 12-4 win. The 12-spot was the first time U-M potted one dozen goals since Jan. 10, 1997, when a loaded team beat Alaska-Fairbanks, 13-1.

GOLD MEDAL GUYS

Over the holiday break, a quartet of Wolverine sophomores won gold medals while representing USA Hockey at the 2024 IIHF World Junior Championship in Sweden:

- Rutger McGroarty served as Team Captain, the second-consecutive Michigan product to don the "C" after Luke Hughes captained the 2023 outfit. McGroarty was named Player of the Game against Slovakia and finished the tournament with five goals and four assists for nine points. McGroarty closed out his WJC experience with 16 points, the second most by a Wolverine over a WJC career.
- Gavin Brindley, an alternate captain, was one of three honored by USA Hockey as a Top Player for the tournament after posting six goals and four assists for 10 points. Brindley was also named Player of the Game in the Americans' big win over Norway. His 10 points are second-most by a Wolverine behind only Mike Cammalleri's 11 for Canada in 2002.
- Frank Nazar III led the Wolverine foursome with eight assists and paced the group at +9. His eight assists is a record for most in a tournament by a Michigan player all-time.
- Defenseman Seamus Casey missed a game due to illness, but saw a ton of ice time while posting six assists and being relied upon defensively when he returned to the lineup.

NTD-FEATED

- Michigan restarted play with a quick trip up M-14 to Plymouth's USA Hockey Arena to face the USNTDP U-18 team. The four WJC gold medalists were honored pregame, and the night continued to go in U-M's favor en route to a 5-1 win. Returning D Ethan Edwards scored a pair of goals to lead the Wolverines, who conceded a last-minute goal to spoil the shutout.
- In 21 all-time meetings, Michigan is 17-4 and currently boasts a three-game win streak following a pair of losses in 2018 & 2020. Four NTDP alumni suited up in the game: Dylan & Tyler Duke, Marshall Warren, and Jacob Truscott.

FOOTBALL FRIENDS

By defeating Washington in this month's CFP National Championship, the U-M football program won its 12th national championship. Seven of those titles have come since the varsity hockey program was established. In the last century, on-ice success for the hockey team has seemed to correlate with its counterparts on the gridiron:

- Just under a year after Dr. Joseph Barss helped establish the varsity hockey program, Coach Fielding Yost's 1923 footballers won the program's sixth national title by going 8-0.
- Fritz Crisler guided U-M to a 10-0 record and a national championship in 1947, his final season as coach. The following year, ex-letterwinner Bennie Oosterbaan coached Michigan to a 9-0 mark and a second-straight championship. Between those title-winning campaigns was the 1948 national hockey championship, the first of its kind, won at the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs by legendary coach Vic Heyliger's icers.
- In 1997, Lloyd Carr's group reached the mountaintop for the first time in nearly 50 years. Sandwiching that football championship was a pair of hockey titles won by Head Coach Red Berenson and his teams in 1996 & 1998.

RED LIGHT STAYS LIT

SHOTPUTTERS

Michigan is seventh in college hockey with 1,005 shots on goal. U-M has outshot or tied the opposition in shots on goal in 18 of 28 games, and the team is scoring on 12.3% of the team's shots on goal, fifth-best in the country.

DOMINANCE IN THE DOT

• Michigan's staff has placed an emphasis on faceoffs, and the effort is paying off through 28 games as the team's 53.4% win rate is 12th-highest in men's Division 1 hockey. So far, U-M has won or tied the faceoff battle in 19 of 28 contests.

• A pair of sophomores, TJ Hughes and Frank Nazar III, lead U-M in the dot. Hughes paces the team at 59.8% (288 of 482) while his classmate Nazar is winning at a 55% (290 of 527) clip. Junior Mark Estapa has also been strong at 55.7% (141 of 253).

EXTRA SPECIAL

• Michigan is first in college hockey with 39 power-play goals and a 36.1% success rate.

• U-M buried six power-play goals on nine chances in the second contest against Lindenwood to sweep the Lions. The six-spot was the team's first in a game since Dec. 31, 1996 when the Wolverines went 6-for-10 against Ferris State in a big win at the Great Lakes Invitational.

• The most successful PP in program history was the 1979-80 team that finished the year at a 35.8% clip (power-play tracking began in 1970-71).

IT'S BEEN AWHILE

Gavin Brindley scored on a penalty shot against PSU. The tally, his 10th of the season, was the first successful penalty shot for a Wolverine since Alex Guptill against BU on Oct. 25, 2013.

HEY, SHORTIE

• Michigan notched its first two shorthanded goals of the season in the nine-goal win over Lindenwood when Gavin Brindley and Jackson Hallum lit the lamp twice in a 62-second span. The last time Michigan scored two shorties in a game was Feb. 12, 2022 vs. MSU when Jimmy Lambert and Thomas Bordeleau each scored to win the Duel in the D.

• Last season, the team scored three SHG in 41 games; Garrett Schifsky notched the third shortie before Kienan Draper tallied his first-career SHG in the big win at Michigan State.

OUT THE GATES

Michigan has scored the first goal in 22 of 28 games (78.6%) this season. In those contests where the Wolverines jump out to a 1-0 lead, the team has gone 13-7-2.

STEADY SCORING

The Wolverines have scored in 63 of 84 periods thus far, with 36 multi-goal periods through 28 games. The high-water mark thus far was a seven-goal stanza against Lindenwood.

NOT TOP 10

U-M is ranked No. 14 in the national polls; this current stint outside the top-10 marks the first time that Michigan has fallen out of that select company in the rankings since Nov. 15, 2020.

BACK-TO-BACK NINE-SPOTS

The offensive outpouring against Lindenwood saw the Wolverines score 9+ goals in back-to-back games for the first time since January 1996. That dominant stretch from nearly 28 years ago saw U-M score nine or more goals in four-straight contests: wins over Ferris State (10-3), Miami (13-0), and the now-defunct Illinois-Chicago Flames (9-3, 9-1).

CASEY'S CRUISING

• Seamus Casey continues to excel while embracing the role of the next great in a long line of stalwart, two-way defensemen at the University of Michigan. Casey (5G, 29A) is the nation's second-highest scoring defenseman with 34 points and a +14 rating in 28 games.

• In 65 career games, Casey has 13 goals + 50 assists for 63 points. In an exhibition last season, the shorthanded Wolverines slotted Casey in at center and the dynamic skater proceeded to put up four points against the US NTDP U-18 team. With 34 points in his sophomore campaign, the blueliner has already surpassed his 37-game freshman year total of 29 points.

SKILLS COMPETITION

Michigan won a shootout against Minnesota on Veteran's Day after the teams tied 2-2 at

NOTES

Yost Ice Arena. Seamus Casey netted the shootout winner to clinch the extra point for U-M in the team's first shootout win in over three years. Before Casey sent the people home happy, Michigan's last SO win had come on Feb. 28, 2020, also against Minnesota.

GRIZZLED GOALTENDER

Netminder Jake Barczewski joined the Wolverines as the NCAA's active career leader in saves (2,719) following a four-year run at Canisius. After making his 100th career start against OSU, he's now added 707 saves in 25 games as a Wolverine to build upon his lead. Barczewski, a graduate student at U-M, eclipsed the 3,000th career save mark against Penn State before notching his 50th career win on the road at St. Cloud State.

MAN OF THE MONTH

Rutger McGroarty was named the Hockey Commissioners Association co-Player of the Month for October. McGroarty led the nation in scoring during the month, finishing with 15 points in eight games, scoring five goals and 10 assists. He had at least one point in seven games, including the first five of the season, that extended his point-scoring streak to a career-high 13 games. In the eight games he played, he had multiple points in five. He netted two game-winning goals and two power-play goals and led the team in shots with 33. In January, Rut earned a second POTM honor by racking up a D1-best 16 points in just six games.

FIRST "FIRST STAR" HONORS

Rutger McGroarty was honored as the Big Ten's First Star of the Week following the first weekend. Rut turned in his first collegiate four-point effort with one goal and three assists to lead U-M to a win on Sunday after tallying a single assist in Saturday's loss.

RIGHTFUL RECOGNITION

TJ Hughes had a career weekend against Lindenwood, and was rewarded for his impressive effort by receiving recognition as the Big Ten's Second Star of the Week. The sophomore pivot turned in three points on Friday before re-writing his personal record book with a five-point performance off two goals and a trio of assists on Saturday.

SECOND STARZO FOR BARZO

Goaltender Jake Barczewski has twice earned the Big Ten's Second Star of the Week. His first came on Oct. 24 after his first career Big Ten series. He had a win and a tie against Ohio State, making 67 saves in 125 minutes of work while allowing three goals against. He earned the weekly honor again on Nov. 28, after an outstanding two-game performance in non-conference action. Barzo notched his first shutout in Maize & Blue at St. Cloud State with a 30-save performance on Friday. The following day, he was at the top of his game once again as he turned aside 36 of 39 shots to earn a tie for the Wolverines. Most recently, he won Third Star of the Week on Feb. 6.

EARLY APTITUDE

By splitting with Providence, the Wolverines have now gone nine seasons without beginning 0-2. The last group to drop their first two games was the 2014-15 team captained by Andrew Copp (C), Zach Hyman (A), and JT Compher (A).

SEVEN EXTRA LETTERS

The captaincy resides on Michigan's blue line after a year in the forward corps. Over the summer, senior defenseman Jacob Truscott was named the 105th captain in Michigan hockey history. Before the first game, graduate transfer Marshall Warren, senior Philippe Lapointe, and juniors Dylan Duke/Ethan Edwards were named alternate captains, while Rutger McGroarty and Gavin Brindley officially joined the leadership group in advance of the second half.

NHL FACTORY

- A new U-M hockey record was set this year with 25 Michigan alums on opening night rosters, while Josh Norris and Max Pacioretty began the year on Injured Reserve. Overall, 20 of 32 teams claim at least one representative of the Maize and Blue family.
- Pacioretty's recent return from injury for Washington and Brendan Brisson's debut makes it 28 Wolverines that have been featured on NHL rosters this season, the most of any NCAA program.
- Of the six captains in the NHL that played college hockey, half went to Michigan, with Dylan Larkin (DET), Quinn Hughes (VAN) and Jacob Trouba (NYR) all wearing a "C"
- Brendan Brisson (VGK), Johnny Beecher (BOS), Mackie Samoskevich (FLA), and Adam Fantilli (CBJ) made National Hockey League debuts this year to bring U-M's total count of NHLers to 114.

NOTES

2023). In addition to owning the record for most overall Big Ten Tournament wins, U-M is 10-0 all-time when seeded second.

• Michigan's most common opponent in Big Ten tournament history is Minnesota, with last year's Championship being the seventh overall meeting between the two schools.

U-M HOCKEY TURNED 100

• Last season, Michigan hockey celebrated the 100th anniversary of its first game (Jan. 12, 1923 vs. Wisconsin) under inaugural Head Coach Joseph Barss. Over the past century of intercollegiate competition, the program has gone 1791-1144-175 (.604) in 3,110 all-time games.

• Michigan is tied for the most national championships (9) in college hockey as well as the most NCAA tournament appearances (40). The Wolverines stand along with the most Frozen Four appearances (27) of any program in college hockey, including the past two seasons.

• U-M made 22 consecutive NCAA tournaments under Red Berenson from 1991-2012, a record that looks to last, as no other program has reached more than 15 consecutive tournaments.

• As a WIHL, MCHL, WCHA, CCHA, and B1G conference member, U-M has won 19 regular-season championships and 12 tournament titles for 31 overall conference crowns.
