UP TO BAT

The Nittany Lions continue their tournament slate this weekend, traveling to Baton Rouge, La. for LSU's Tiger Invitational. Penn State opens the tournament against George Washington on Sunday morning before taking on Northwestern in a non-conference contest at 12:30 p.m. The Lions will face No. 21 LSU in a doubleheader on Monday evening starting at 5 p.m.

ON DECK

Following the Tiger Invitational, the Blue and White will head to Boca Raton, Fla. to compete in the FAU Invitational. PSU will face three different teams in a three-day span, including two contests against No. 7 Kentucky and Florida Atlantic and one game vs. in-state rival Pitt.

HOT START

Penn State has opened up the 2014 slate with a winning record for the first time since 2010. The Lions posted a 3-2 record in the opening weekend of action at the Kajikawa Classic in Tempe, Ariz.

PSU fell to Oregon State, 12-10, in the opener before taking back-to-back wins against Appalachian State (10-4) and Bradley (5-3). The Blue and White dropped a contest to No. 7 Arizona State, 9-1, but closed out the tournament on a high note, dominating Seattle in a 6-1 decision.

FORMING GOOD HABITZ

Sophomore Karlie Habitz came out of the gate swinging, literally, as she posted her first-ever grand slam in the season opener vs. Oregon State. The catcher drove in six runs before the game was over, which ties for the second most in program history, and tallied 10 RBIs on the weekend overall.

Her 10 RBIs stand as the most for any Big Ten player this season.

IN THE ZONE

Senior Alyssa Sovereign turned in a great performance at the plate in the opening weekend, going 8-for-18. She leads the squad with a batting average of .444 and her eight hits rank third in the Big Ten.

SCORING MACHINE

Sophomore Lexi Knief is atop the conference standings after crossing the plate 10 times in the first five games of the season.

The center fielder has already almost matched her total of 11 runs from last season.

LAU OF THE LAND

Freshman pitcher Marlaina Laubach looked like a seasoned veteran in her debut for the Lions, raking in two victories for Penn State at the Kajikawa Classic.

The Northampton, Pa. native gave up just two runs and nine hits in 10 innings for a team-best ERA of 1.40. She threw nine strikeouts on the weekend, including four in her first complete game at the collegiate level vs. Seattle last Sunday.

DOUBLING UP

Senior Kasie Hatfield is currently tied for first in the league in doubles, having already notched three this season.

WATCHING THE WILDCATS

The Wildcats enter the weekend at 3-1 on the season with their only loss coming to No. 22 Stanford in a 4-3 decision last Friday.

Sophomore Andrea Filler has been lighting it up for NU, posting a batting average of .778 through the first weekend of play. The infielder turned in a 7-for-9 effort at the plate with a triple, three RBIs and three runs en route to earning Big Ten Player of the Week honors.

Junior Amy Letourneau leads NU in the circle with an ERA of 0.00 through 3.0 innings. Letourneau struck out seven opponents and allowed just two hits to help the Wildcats defeat New Mexico last Friday.

Senior Sammy Albanese has also done well in the circle for Northwestern. The pitcher has an ERA of 3.23 through 8.2 innings and has given up 10 hits.

TRACKING THE TIGERS

LSU opens up the weekend as the No. 21 team in the country. The Tigers sit at 4-2 on the season and have won four straight contests after falling to then-No. 10 Texas and Minnesota to start the season.

Sophomore Sandra Simmons is currently the top hitter for LSU with a batting average of .400. Simmons has gone 6-for-15 at the plate with one double, one triple, one homerun and six RBIs. She has also scored six runs in as many games.

Baylee Corbello leads the Tigers in the circle. The freshman has compiled an ERA of 0.50 through 14.0 innings and has pitched two complete games. She has earned 23 strikeouts and given up just three hits and one earned run.

CASING THE COLONIALS

George Washington enters the Tiger Invitational looking for its first win of the season. The Colonials are 0-5 on the year and have been shut out three times.

Setting the pace for GWU is freshman Jillian Galich. Galich leads the squad with a batting average of .429, connecting for three hits in seven at-bats and driving in two runs.

Paige Kovalsky and Meghan Rico are the top pitchers for the Colonials. Kovalsky has turned in a 3.38 ERA in 2.2 innings with three strikeouts while Rico has an ERA of 7.15 in 11.1 innings and 10 strikeouts.

A NEW ERA

Newly appointed head coach Amanda Lehotak has already made a positive impact after just one weekend of play, leading the Lions to their best start since 2010 at 3-2.

The Omaha, Nebraska native comes to Penn State after a successful two-year stint at Texas-San Antonio where she led the Roadrunners to their second winning season in seven years in 2013.

Prior to UTSA, Lehotak led the Jacksonville Dolphins to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2011, earning Atlantic Sun Conference Coach of the Year accolades. She left Jacksonville with a school-record 137 wins.

EYES ON THE PRIZE

The 2014 PSU squad looks to return to postseason action after missing out on the NCAA Tournament in 2012 and 2013. Seniors Alyssa Sovereign, Liz Presto and Kasie Hatfield will lead the charge while juniors Marissa Diescher, Alicia Walker and Meghan Bradley also add experience to the young team which features eight sophomores and five freshmen.

In the outfield, sophomore Lexi Knief has moved to the center field position while Walker, sophomores Taylor Abeyta and Shannon Good and freshman Mary Ward are battling for the right and left field starting positions.

New faces are abundant in the infield as well as Sovereign moves into the second base spot while freshman Kristina Brackpool takes over first base responsibilities. Sophomore Reina Furuya will return at shortstop and Presto and freshman Sam Shanahan are each looking strong for the third baseman spot.

Macy Jones returns as the top pitcher and hitter for the Blue and White. The sophomore spun 175.0 innings, turning a 3.84 ERA in her rookie season and finished with a 13-17 record. Jones hit at a .274 clip a season ago, driving in 28 runners on 40 hits.

FRESH FACES

The Nittany Lions welcome five freshmen for the 2014 season. Kristina Brackpool joins the Blue and White from Valencia, Calif., Shelby Miller hails from Sugar Land, Texas and Sam Shanahan has traveled to Happy Valley from Seattle, Wash. Marlaina Laubach and Mary Ward join the Lions are local additions from Northampton, Pa. and Greencastle, Pa., respectively.

FIERCE COMPETITION

Six of Penn State's 2014 opponents are listed in the current USA Today/NFCA poll, including No. 6 Michigan. Other opponents include Arizona State (No. 5), Kentucky (No. 7), Baylor (No. 16), LSU (No. 21) and Minnesota (No. 22) while Wisconsin has received votes. All seven of the programs are also represented in the current ESPN.com/USA Softball rankings.

BRING IT HOME

The Nittany Lions open the 2014 season with a 24-game road swing. The home opener will double as the Big Ten opener as PSU is set to host Purdue for its first game at Nittany Lion Softball Park and Beard Field in on Friday, March 21. The first pitch is set for 6 p.m.

AMANDA LEHOTAK

Head Coach • First Year
NEBRASKA-OMAHA '03

RECORD: 191-208 (.479)

Amanda Lehotak enters her first season as the Penn State softball head coach. She was named the seventh coach in program history on July 22, 2013. Lehotak comes to Penn State with seven years of head coaching experience under her belt, including the last two seasons at Texas-San Antonio.

Lehotak guided the Roadrunners to a 27-26 overall record in 2013 to give the program just their second winning overall record in the last seven years. She also led the team to a fifth-place finish and a berth in the WAC Tournament in UTSA's first season in the conference. Additionally, Darian Blake was named to the All-WAC first team.

In her first season at UTSA, Lehotak and the Roadrunners posted a 24-28 overall record and 12-8 mark in Southland Conference play en route to a third-place finish, which was the program's highest finish since 2009. She had five players earn All-Southland honors in 2012, including Freshman of the Year Megan Low.

Prior to her time at UTSA, Lehotak spent six seasons at Jacksonville University, including five as the head coach. The Dolphins improved their win total each of Lehotak's five seasons at the helm, culminating in a 44-16 overall record and 18-2 conference mark in 2011.

That season, Jacksonville won the Atlantic Sun regular-season and tournament titles on its way to the first NCAA Tournament appearance in school history. Lehotak was selected as the 2011 Atlantic Sun Coach of the Year as her squad set school records for home runs, earned run average, shutouts and fielding percentage. Lehotak left Jacksonville with a school-record 137 wins.

In 2010, Lehotak led the Dolphins to a then-second-best win total in program history with a 33-23 overall record. Additionally, a then-program-record five student-athletes earned All-Atlantic Sun recognition under her guidance in 2010.

Lehotak owns a 188-206 record in seven seasons as a collegiate head coach at UTSA and Jacksonville. In addition to her one season as an assistant coach at Jacksonville, Lehotak was also an assistant coach at Missouri Western State for one season where she was responsible for recruiting, working with the outfielders, hitting instruction, coordinating camps and clinics, as well as managing the team's travel schedule.

She also served as an assistant coach at Daniel J. Gross High School in Bellevue, Neb. and was an interim assistant coach at College of Saint Mary in Omaha (2004).

A native of Omaha, Neb., Lehotak played collegiately at the University of Mississippi for two seasons (2000-01) before finishing her career at Nebraska-Omaha (2002-03). She set the single-season hits record in 2001 at Ole Miss and was a third team All-American at UNO with a pair of first team All-North Central Conference selections. Lehotak earned her bachelor's degree in family science from Nebraska-Omaha in 2003.
