NITTANY LIONS LOOK TO SET NEW SCHOOL RECORD FOR SEASON WINS

The Penn State women's gymnastics team enters today's quad meet with a chance to lock up a share of the Big Ten regular season title with a victory and are coming off of a stellar performance last weekend at New Hampshire.

The Nittany Lions posted the third highest score in program history to win their quad meet at New Hampshire with Bridgeport and George Washington. Their 197.200 was nearly six-tenths or a point better than their closest competitor, and marked the highest road score in program history.

Senior Kassidy Stauder and junior Sidney Sanabria-Robles and Krystal Welsh have been solid in the all-around for Penn State all season. Stauder, who ranks 14th nationally with a 39.345 Regional Qualifying Score in the all-around, has compiled 13 event titles and three all-around crowns on the season. The senior posted a career-best 39.475 last weekend to win the all-around and has notched career-best scores on all four events in 2014. She owns the team's top score on the uneven bars and balance beam this season.

Sanabria-Robles has been a steady hand in all four lineups the entire season, as well. She owns the second highest score on the vault in 2014, is tied for the second highest score on the balance beam and ranks tied for third on the team on the uneven bars. She has eclipsed her career-high on all four events and in the all-around this season, scoring 39.425 to win the competition vs. Illinois.

Welsh has also eclipsed her career-best score in the all-around and has also scored personal-best scores on the vault and floor exercise. After being limited due to injury last season, she has competed in the all-around in all 10 meets and scored a career-best 39.325 in a quad meet at Rutgers. She is also tied for the team's top score on the floor exercise at 9.925.

Freshman Nicole Medvitz and Emma Sibson have been major contributors, as well, in 2014. Medvitz has been a mainstay in the uneven bars and balance beam lineups. She currently owns the team's third highest score on the uneven bars and balance beam. Sibson has won back-to-back Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors entering the meet and is one of the top vaulters in the Big Ten. She registered a career-best score of 9.975 last weekend at New Hampshire – which ranks fifth in school history – and also set a career-high on the floor exercise with a 9.900.

Jeff Thompson enters his fourth season at the helm of the Penn State women's gymnastics program after being named the ninth head coach in program history on July 15, 2010. A two-time SEC Coach of the Year, Thompson joined the Nittany Lion family in 2010 after 11 successful years at Auburn University.

The 2013 season concluded with senior Sharaya Musser earning regular-season All-America honors on balance beam and in the all-around and also All-America honors on balance beam and in the all-around at the NCAA Championships to push her career total to eight All-America certificates. The Lions were ranked as high as No. 14 in the national rankings and ended the season at No. 15 with a National Qualifying Score of 392.375. Musser was also a first team All-Big Ten selection, Big Ten All-Championship Team pick and joined Lindsay Musgrove on the Big Ten Distinguished Scholars ledger. Madison Merriam was a first team All-Big Ten selection, as well.

Five gymnasts earned Academic All-Big Ten accolades for their work in the classroom, including Cassidy Stauder and Alex Witt, along with Merriam, Musgrove and Musser. In 2013, the team was awarded the Penn State Team Community Service Award for the third straight year.

In 2012, Thompson and his staff helped Musser earn the distinction of Big Ten Gymnast of the Year, marking the seventh time in program history a Nittany Lion was bestowed the award. Musser's award marked the third time in a four year span that a Penn State gymnast won the Big Ten Gymnast of the Year award. Additionally, Musser advanced to the NCAA Championships where she was named an All-American on floor exercise and balance beam. Thompson also produced six Academic All-Big Ten selections and two NACGC/W scholar athletes. In 2012, the team was awarded the Penn State Team Community Service Award for the second straight year.

In his first season at the helm of the Nittany Lion program, Thompson guided the Nittany Lions to a second place finish at the 2011 Big Ten Championships, with Natalie Ettl and Sharaya Musser earning individual event titles on uneven bars and in the all-around, respectively. Penn State earned a berth to the NCAA Regional Championships as the No. 2 seed and narrowly missed advancing to the NCAA Championships.

Three Nittany Lions were selected to the 2011 All-Big Ten team, and Musser, a Honda Award nominee, advanced to the NCAA National Championships to represent Penn State. Outside the gym, the Nittany Lions excelled in the classroom and community. Five gymnasts earned Academic All-Big Ten laurels and the team was awarded the Penn State Team Community Service Award.

In 11 years as the head of the Auburn University women's gymnastics program, Thompson was named both the SEC Coach of the Year and NCAA Regional Head Coach of the Year in 2003 and 2008. The Tigers qualified for NCAA Regionals under Thompson for the first time in 2003 and advanced to the NCAA Championship that same year. Auburn's women's gymnastics team continued to improve each year and qualified for the NCAA Regionals for eight consecutive years. In 2005, Auburn hosted the NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championships.

With the exception of the University of Alabama, Thompson's teams posted victories over every SEC team during his tenure. In his final season in 2010, Thompson led Auburn to upset victories over No. 8 Arkansas, No. 12 Kentucky and finally defeated 10-time National Champion and five-time defending SEC Champion Georgia for the first time in program history.

Thompson and his wife, Rachelle, helped produced four NCAA All-Americans, four All-SEC selections, three SEC Gymnast of the Year winners and one SEC Freshman of the Year during their time at Auburn. They coached nine NCAA Championship individual qualifiers and four NCAA Regional Event Champions. Their gymnasts also excelled in the classroom and in the community in their 11 years with the program. There were three SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year winners, three CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District members, 41 NACGC/W Academic All-Americans and 53 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections.

Prior to arriving at Auburn, Thompson was the assistant coach at Louisiana State University from 1994-99 and was the Junior Olympic Program Director at the Cincinnati Gymnastics Academy in Fairfield, Ohio from 1993-94. Thompson also held assistant coaching positions at two Big Ten institutions, Illinois and Wisconsin, as well as serving as a graduate assistant coach at Kentucky.

Thompson earned a bachelor of arts in education with an emphasis in Physical Education from Kentucky in 1985. He went on to receive a Master of Science in Biomechanics in 1995.

A native of Highland Heights, Ky., Jeff is married to the former Rachelle Fruge, who is the associate head coach for the Nittany Lions, and they have two sons, Parker and Griffin.

INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

As a team, Penn State has moved into the record books on five occasions this season, including three such efforts last weekend at New Hampshire with Bridgeport and George Washington.

Their team score of 197.200 last weekend in Durham, N.C. ranks third in school history behind the 2013 team's 197.325 and the 2001 squad's 197.450. The point total is the highest road score in school history and is the first time a Penn State team topped the 197.000 mark away from home.

It is also just the fifth time in program history a Penn State team has scored 197.000 or better.

Penn State has left its mark on the vault during each of the last two weekends, boasting the sixth highest score in school history in their quad meet at New Hampshire (49.450) and scoring the 10th highest total the week before in their home quad meet with Bridgeport, Western Michigan and Yale.

After not cracking the 49.000 mark during the first five meets on the balance beam, the Nittany Lions scored 39.375 last weekend at New Hampshire to tie for the fourth highest total in school history.

Their season-best effort of 49.400 on the floor exercise in their home opening quad meet against Cornell, Southeast Missouri and UIC is tied for ninth on the all-time charts.

SIBSON VAULTS INTO RECORD BOOKS

Freshman Emma Sibson didn't know when or how her freshman season would start after an offseason injury, but the Allen, Texas, native has made an impact since the season opener at Iowa State on Jan. 5.

She has competed on the vault in all 10 of the team's competitions and topped the 9.850 mark in five of those meets. Over the past month, Sibson has found her footing – literally – sticking vaults in three of the last five competitions.

Last weekend at New Hampshire with Bridgeport and George Washington, she stuck her vault and collected new personal-best of 9.975. That score is tied for second highest in the Big Ten this season with Austin Sheppard (Michigan) and Jessie DeZiel (Nebraska) and is just behind the perfect 10.000 from Illinois' Amber See.

Her 9.975 is tied for fifth on Penn State's all-time list, while her 9.950 against No. 10 Nebraska on Feb. 8 sits tied for ninth all-time. Only Brandi Personett and Katie Rowland have better scores on the vault for the Nittany Lions, with each collecting a perfect 10.0 twice in their careers.

TWO MORE FOR TWENTY

The 2014 edition of the Nittany Lions have a chance to become the first group of gymnasts to crack the 20-win plateau during the regular season. Entering this weekend, Penn State owns an 18-2 overall record and are just one victory away from tying the school record.

With one victory this weekend in Ann Arbor, Mich., this year's team will tie the 2007 squad for the most regular season victories in school history. The 2007 team finished the year with a 19-4 overall mark and finished third at the NCAA Regional Championships.

Currently, the Nittany Lions are tied for second in school history with 18 win on the season, joining the 2005 team that compiled an 18-5 overall mark and advanced to the NCAA National Championship meet.

THOMPSON CLOSING IN ON 150 VICTORIES

Head coach Jeff Thompson is in his 15th season as a collegiate head coach and is closing in on his 150th career regular season victory. In his career, Thompson has compiled a 130-96 record.

In his fourth season at the helm of Penn State, Thompson has earned 58 regular season victories and is 58-14 overall. Add that to his 72 wins while at Auburn and the Highland Heights, Ky., native sits at 130 career wins. His overall record while at Auburn was 72-82.

This season, the Nittany Lions own a 18-2 overall mark entering the final quad meet of the regular season and are just a pair of wins shy of setting the school record for regular season victories set by the 2007 squad, which finished 19-4 and placed third at the NCAA Regional Championships.

WITT RETURNS FROM INJURY

Junior Alex Witt missed most of the season due to injury, but came back on a mission and gave the Nittany Lions a huge routine in their quad meet victory over Bridgeport, Western Michigan and Yale.

The junior posted a score of 9.875 on the uneven bars to finish second on the event and post the team's third highest score of the season.

It was a career-best effort and she followed that with a 9.775 effort last weekend at New Hampshire with Bridgeport and George Washington.

IT'S ALL ABOUT FAMILY

The Penn State women's gymnastics program is all about family and there are numerous connections between family members within the Nittany Lion family and the NCAA gymnastics community.

Head coach Jeff Thompson is married to associate head coach Rachelle Thompson. The tandem have coached side by side since their time at Auburn University and have two sons, Parker and Griffin.

Junior Sidney Sanabria-Robles transferred to Penn State after spending a season at LSU and one of the main factors in that move was being close to family. Sanabria-Robles competes for the women's squad, while her brother, Ismail Sanabria, is a part of the Penn State men's program.

The gymnastics community is a tight-knit group and Krystal Welsh knows that all too well. The junior recently competed on the same floor as her brother, Jakob Welsh, who is a freshman on the Temple men's gymnastics team. The pair competed side-by-side inside Rec Hall on Feb. 8 when the women's team faced No. 8 Nebraska and Temple competed against the Nittany Lions men's squad.

SIBSON NAMED B1G TOP ROOKIE, TWICE

Freshman Emma Sibson has been tabbed the Big Ten Freshman of the Week twice this season, winning the award in consecutive meets leading into the season finale at Michigan.

On Feb. 28, Sibson tied for the top spot on the vault with a score of 9.875 and finished third on the balance beam with a career-best effort of 9.825 to help Penn State sweep the podium in all four events. She also competed on the floor exercise and scored 9.725 in the quad meet with Bridgeport, Western Michigan and Yale.

Last weekend at New Hampshire with Bridgeport and George Washington, Sibson won the title on the vault with a 9.975 – tied for the fifth highest score in school history – and placed second on the floor exercise with a career-best 9.900. She also hit a 9.800 routine on the balance beam.

LIONS SWEEP SEASON'S FIRST B1G AWARDS

The Nittany Lions opened the season with a huge road victory at Iowa State and for that a trio of gymnasts were honored by the Big Ten.

Rookie Nicole Medvitz was honored as the Big Ten Freshman of the Week, Kassidy Stauder was named the conference's Event Specialist of the Week and Randi Lau was tabbed as the Big Ten Gymnast of the Week.

Lau tied for second in the all-around in her first meet with the Nittany Lions program after transferring from LSU. She took the vault title with a score of 9.825 and scored 38.825 in the all-around. She also scored 9.525 on the uneven bars, 9.725 on the balance beam and 9.750 on the floor exercise.

Stauder couldn't have had a better start to her senior season, posting the squads top score on the uneven bars. She placed third overall on the event with a score of 9.750 and anchored the balance beam lineup with a score of 9.725.

In her first collegiate competition, Medvitz was turned in the team's top performance on the balance beam. The rookie was second up on the beam – an event that sealed the win for Penn State – and posted a team-best effort of 9.750 to finish third overall.

STAUDER SHINING AS A SENIOR

Senior Kassidy Stauder is leaving her mark on the program during her final season in the blue and white. The Palmerton, Pa., native has set new career-highs on all four apparatus and in the all-around, while winning 13 event titles and three all-around crowns.

She has anchored the Nittany Lions on the uneven bars and balance beam all season, scoring 9.850 or better in seven of the team's 10 competitions. She has claimed the uneven bars title seven times – tying for the title on four occasions – and topped the balance beam charts six times – with three ties at the top.

She has set a new career-high in the all-around in two straight meets, boasting a 49.425 in a quad meet with Bridgeport, Western Michigan and Yale on Feb. 28 before posting a team-best score of 49.475 in a quad meet at New Hampshire with Bridgeport and George Washington.

EARLY SIGNING PERIOD NETS FOUR

Lauren Li, Chanen Raygoza, Oni Timothy and Briannah Tsang all inked their National Letters of Intent on Nov. 13 and will begin their Penn State careers in 2014-15.

Li, who trains at World Olympic Gymnastics Academy in Plano, Texas, is coached by Laurent Landi and Cecile Canquetau-Landi and was the 2013 USA Gymnastics Level 10 Region 3 all-around and uneven bars champion, as well as a third place finisher on vault. Li went on to compete in the USA Junior Olympic National Championships where she finished eighth on balance beam and 13th in the all-around.

Raygoza trains at Wildfire Gymnastics in Tustin, California and is coached by Rick Watson, Tom Wakeling, Rhonda Schwandt-Haffman, Stephanie Calvert and Whitney Watson. In 2011, Raygoza finished third in the all-around at the USA Gymnastics Junior Olympic National Championships. During that meet, she also finished fourth on vault, fifth on the uneven bars and ninth on the floor exercise.

In 2012, she won the Region 1 Championship on both the uneven bars and in the all-around and followed it up with a 12th place finish at the Junior Olympic Nationals. The former Junior Olympic National Team Member did not compete in 2013 due to injury.

Timothy, who trains at Rochester Gymnastics Academy in Rochester, New York, is coached by Youlia Coss and brings an impressive club resume to the University Park campus. In 2011, Oni finished second in the nation on floor exercise and third on balance beam. She has also been the Regional all-around champion each of the past four years.

Tsang trains at Flicka Gymnastics Club in Vancouver, British Columbia and is coached by Dorina Stan and David Kenwright. She was the Canadian National Champion on vault at both the 2011 Canada Winter Games and the 2013 Elite Canada competition.
