LAST TIME OUT

PURDUE 60, PENN STATE 42
Jan. 13, 2013 • West Lafayette, Ind.

Penn State suffered through its worst shooting and lowest scoring game of the season hitting just 25.9% from the floor in a 60-42 loss in Mackey Arena. Despite Purdue shooting 54% in the first half and the Lions offensive struggles throughout, the Lions battle to be down only six, 34-28, with 14:05 to play. The teams combined to shoot 4-of-23 through the opening minutes of the second half, but Penn State failed to capitalize on Purdue's offensive slowdown and 10-of-21 effort from the foul line and the Boilers eventually mounted a 17-2 run to take a commanding 49-30 lead with 7:36 to play. Freshman Brandon Taylor led Penn State with 11 points, all in the first half, and leading scorer D.J. Newbill posted nine but didn't get his first points until 7:19 to play. Newbill and second leading scorer Jermaine Marshall combined to shoot 6-of-25. Four Boilermakers scored in double-digits led by Ronnie Johnson with 13 and 7-0 A.J. Hammons with 12 points, 10 rebounds and five blocks.

OUTLET PASSES (TEAM)

■ Penn State went 6-2 in the eight non-con games after losing do-everything guard Tim Frazier to a season-ending Achilles injury. The Lions 8-4 record in the non-con season equaled their win total from last year (8-5), despite losing Frazier early in the fourth game of the year.

■ Following completion of the fall semester, two Nittany Lions (Kevin Montminy & Tim Frazier) earned Dean's List honors with a 3.5 GPA or higher and seven Lions posted a 3.0 GPA or higher. Montminy posted a 4.0 GPA.

■ Coach Patrick Chambers named senior Nick Colella and junior Jermaine Marshall to join D.J. Newbill as team captains prior to the Lions' first Big Ten game of the season.

■ Penn State shot a season best 40% (8-20) from three vs. Duquesne and made a season high eight threes. The Lions have shot less than 40% from the arc in 15 games and less than 30% in seven.

■ Penn State is 4-0 in 10 games decided by seven points or less on the year, including two overtime wins. The Lions went 4-7 in 11 games decided by seven points or less last year, having just one home loss come by more than six points.

■ Penn State has allowed nine opponents to eclipse 70 points on the year, winning three of those games, and having six losses on the year come to opponents scoring 70+. Penn State is 4-19 under Patrick Chambers when opponents break 70 points.

■ Five of Penn State's eight primary contributors (following the loss of Tim Frazier) are freshmen or sophomores, including three of the top four scorers and rebounders.

■ Penn State has fielded one of the nation's youngest squads the last two years. This year, two sophomores and a freshman are in the starting line-up accounting for 45 of 70 starts on the year. Last year eight of 10 primary contributors were in their first or second season of Division I play.

FRAZIER HITS 8-WEEK MILESTONE: Tim Frazier had successful surgery to repair his ruptured left Achilles tendon on Nov. 20. He hit the eight-week milestone since the surgery on Jan. 15 and marked the day by no longer requiring use of a walking boot. He will now wear a wedge under his left heel for the next 2-3 weeks as he continues to stretch the tendon. He is currently walking in a pool and undergoing rehab to stretch the tendon and remove scar tissue. He is expected to begin walking on a weight suspended treadmill at the 10-week mark post surgery and to begin jumping rope in weeks 14 to 18. Frazier was in a cast for about three weeks before moving to a walking boot that gradually flattened his foot as the tendon stretched. He is expected to have about a six-month recovery period and, at the completion of the 2012-13 campaign, will apply for an NCAA Hardship Waiver to return for the 2013-14 season.

BOARDIN: Penn State has won the rebounding battle in nine of the last 10 games and in 11 of 16 on the year. The Lions have had 14 or more offensive rebounds in four of their last five games.

Taylor tossed in a 50-foot bomb at the halftime buzzer for the last of his 11 points in a road loss at Purdue. Meanwhile, two hours later at the Bryce Jordan Center Bentley tossed one in from the Nittany Lion logo to give Penn State a 40-27 half-time lead in an eventual victory over Nebraska.

BIG TEN SCORING DROUGHT: After posting 78.5 ppg in its final four non-conference games, Penn State has not eclipsed 54 points in Big Ten play and is posting 49.5 ppg. TIM FRAZIER INJURY: WHAT'S MISSING

■ TIM FRAZIER was named to the preseason All-Big Ten team by conference media voters. Frazier was named a first-team All-Big Ten selection last year after leading the Big Ten in assists (6.2) and finishing second in scoring (18.8) and steals (2.4).

■ stands 6th on the Penn State career assist charts with 459 after posting a record 198 last year and is 151 assists shy of breaking the all-time career record of 600 set by Freddie Barnes in 1992.

■ scored 208 field goals and had 198 assists to lead the nation being involved in 58.4% of Penn State's field goals last year. Only two other players in Division I were involved in 50% or more of their teams scoring.

■ was the ONLY player in NCAA Division I to post at least 17 points and 6 rebounds a game last year.

■ had led Penn State in scoring in 28 of the last 35 games, including 15 of 19 games vs. Big Ten opponents, and scored 20 or more points in 9 of his last 13 games before his injury. Was averaging 21.7 ppg through the first three games of the season.

BUILDING A FOLLOWING: Coach Patrick Chambers twitter account (@Coach_Chambers) eclipsed 10K followers in early January. Chambers was ranked among the Top 25 most followed Division I basketball coaches, and fourth among Big Ten coaches, in a preseason survey by the basketball blog runthefloor.com. He has gained more than 1,000 followers since that survey.

MARSHALL EMERGES: Junior Jermaine Marshall has emerged as not only one of Penn State's main weapons, scoring 14.1 ppg, but a primary ball handler, sharing duties at the point with D.J. Newbill, and a generator of turnovers, leading the team with 28 steals (5th in the Big Ten, 1.8 spg). He led Penn State in scoring in four straight games immediately following the injury to Tim Frazier and has led the team in points five times on the year, including 19 on 9-of-14 shooting in the Big Ten opener at Wisconsin. He logged a career high five assists vs. two turnovers in the win over Delaware State for his best floor game of the year and followed that with a career high five steals in the win over New Hampshire. Marshall is the Lions' leading active career scorer (discounting the injured Tim Frazier) with 632 points and three-point shooter with 74 career threes.

NEWBILL ON POINT: D.J. Newbill, a natural off-guard, has taken over point guard duties since the injury to Tim Frazier in the fourth game of the season. He is logging big minutes at the position playing 35.7 per game to rank second in the Big Ten. He is the only Big Ten player to rank in the Top 15 of the conference statistics in scoring (7th, 15.3), assists (8th, 3.8) and rebounding (11th, 6.1). Working through growing pains at the position, he posted 10-straight double-digit scoring games after taking over, a streak snapped vs. Indiana, and has posted double-digit points in 13 of 16 games with five 20-point outings. He has led the Lions in scoring five times since Frazier's injury, posting career highs on three occasions including a 23-point, 12-rebound effort vs. Duquesne for his first double-double at Penn State and seventh career. His five 20-point outings on the year are tied for third-most in the Big Ten.

BOROVNIJAK BREAKING OUT IN FINAL CAMPAIGN:

Senior Sasa Borovnjak, who is in his fourth year in the program but redshirted the 2010-11 campaign due to a knee injury suffered prior to the season and is eligible for a fifth season of eligibility, has made the decision to make this his final season of collegiate competition and plans to graduate in May. Since discussing the decision with coach Patrick Chambers, he has played the best basketball of his career and started seven straight games. He posted three-straight double-digit scoring games in the final three non-conference outings culminating with 14, one shy of a career high, vs. Duquesne on 7-of-9 shooting. He tied a career high with eight rebounds for the second time in three games vs. Delaware State and added 14 points on a career best 8-of-10 from the foul line for the best statistical game of his career. He followed with 11 points and four boards vs. New Hampshire for the first back-to-back double-digit scoring games of his career. He is averaging 8.8 ppg, 4.5 rpg and shooting 27-of-42 (64%) from the floor and 17-of-24 from the foul line in his last eight games after averaging 1.7 ppg and 2.4 rpg in his first seven games.

TRAVIS GETS AGGRESSIVE:

Ross Travis has staked a claim as one of the top rebounders in the Big Ten posting four double-digit rebounding games on the season, including 11 in the Big Ten opener at Wisconsin, to rank FOURTH in the Big Ten posting 7.6 rpg. Having worked hard on his jump shot in the off-season, he has also asserted himself offensively posting back-to-back double-digit scoring outings for the first time in his career (12 at La Salle and 14 vs. Army) and has five double-digit scoring games on the year (he had five all of last season). He led Penn State in scoring for the first time on his career with 14 points vs. Indiana while taking a career high 17 field goal attempts. Travis scored eight of the Lions first 14 points at La Salle and seven of Penn State's first nine vs. Army and shot 11-of-22 (50%) combined in the games. He logged his second career double-double with 14 points and 10 boards vs. Army.

QUOTABLE

"It is great to come here and be in a tight game. But we need to take the next step and we need to earn the respect of the league and this would have been a great start, but unfortunately we are going home with a loss."

- Patrick Chambers on loss at Wisconsin

"This is definitely a different group in the way they approach things. I think the mentality is different; this isn't the same old Penn State. This is a group that is playing with confidence, this is a group that doesn't fear failure."

- Patrick Chambers on his team

"I wanted someone to help D.J. lead the team. They have to earn it. They have to bring it everyday...It has to be a consistent 30 days. Those two guys for the last month or so since Tim has gone down, have stepped up. They've earned the right to be named captains"

- Patrick Chambers on naming Nick Colella and Jermaine Marshall to join D.J. Newbill as team captains prior to Big Ten play.

"I think Pat's (Chambers) doing a fantastic, fantastic job, maybe one of the best jobs in the country. I played against his team when they had (Tim) Frazier and for them to be doing what they're doing without him, that's a major, major credit to Pat and those kids."

- Jim Ferry, Duquesne Head Coach

"I think it's those 15 guys in the locker room. They know what people say about them. They hear it, they read it and they see it on Facebook and Twitter. They're a resilient bunch and they're going to keep pressing on and keep competing and getting better."

- Patrick Chambers on team finishing non-con season 6-2 since loss of Tim Frazier

"Awesome, just awesome. I love it. That's what it's supposed to be. That's a Philly guard. If you don't come out of a game with blood or scraped up knees and two different sneakers, then you didn't play hard. He's obviously played extremely hard for 39 minutes."

- Patrick Chambers on D.J. Newbill's effort vs. Duquesne

TAYLOR LEADING THREE-POINT SHOOTER/LIMITED BY FOUL TROUBLE:

Freshman Brandon Taylor has proven to be an efficient offensive performer early in his career when he can avoid early foul trouble that limits his minutes. A pick and pop, stretch four, he led Penn State in scoring for the first time on his career with 11 at Purdue (1/13). He leads the team shooting 38.3 percent (23-60) from three and has made at least one three in 11 of 13 games since taking on a larger role following Tim Frazier's injury. His 23 threes rank second on the team. He posted back-to-back double-digit outings vs. Akron and Bucknell (hitting 62.5% (6-12) from three). Taylor's 14 points vs. Army and 10 vs. New Hampshire gave him five double-digit scoring outings on the year.

COLELLA CLOSES NON-CON ON TEAR; LEADS LIONS IN CHARGES TAKEN & DIVES: AF

After a rough start to the season that saw him shoot 5-of-27 from three in the first eight games, senior Nick Colella found his shot in the final four non-conference games going a team-best 11-of-20 (55%) from three to average 9.0 ppg. Included in that effort was a career high 15 points on a career-best 5-of-7 from three and a career-best four boards in the win vs. Duquesne. His five threes marked the most by a PSU player on the season. He is now third on the team with 17 threes on the year and has raised his three-point percentage to 31.5% for the season, third on the team. Among the team leaders in "Attitude Points" he leads the team with 10 charges taken and 47 dives on the year.

FILLING IN FOR FRAZIER: SINCE

losing Tim Frazier and his 21.7 ppg to injury in the fourth game, Penn State actually improved its scoring average (58.8 ppg to 68.8 ppg) and shooting percentage (35.3% to 43.5%) over the last eight games of the non-conference season while going 6-2. Jermaine Marshall made the biggest increase in the non-con since the loss of Frazier improving his scoring by 6.5 ppg (10.3 to 16.8) and his shooting percentage from 30.6% to 44.0% (22.6% to 40.5% from three) and seeing his assists rise dramatically from 0.7 apg to 3.0 apg. Freshman Brandon Taylor also increased his scoring from 4.0 ppg to 9.0 ppg (+5.0) and Sasa Borovnjak from 1.5 ppg to 7.1 ppg (+5.6).

OFFENSE CLICKS WITH FOUR STRAIGHT 70-POINT GAMES TO CLOSE NON-CON: PENN

State posted its four best point (78, 80, 72 & 84) and assist totals (13, 15, 13 & 12) of the season in the last four non-conference games and three of its top for shooting games. The Lions shot 47% and scored 78.5 ppg in the last four non-con outings, an increase of nearly 20 ppg over their 58.9 ppg average over the first eight games of the year. The Lions' streak of four straight games of 70+ points was their longest since posting seven in November and December of 2008 and their 84-point outing vs. Duquesne in the final non-con game was their most since 2009.

LIONS WELCOME TRANSFER JOHNSON: UN

iversity of Pittsburgh transfer guard John Johnson (6-1, Philadelphia, Pa.) arrived on campus on Dec. 21 and began practice with the team. A sophomore, he will be eligible to begin competing next December at the end of the 2013 fall semester. A three-time PIAA first team pick as well as a New Jersey All-state prep selection, Johnson scored 2,314 points in his prep career and was ranked the No. 69 recruit in the nation by Bob Gibbons. He played in all 39 games, starting two, in his freshman season at Pittsburgh, posting 4.2 ppg and shooting 38.4% from three. He is the fourth player from the Philadelphia area Patrick Chambers has added to the roster.

NOTES FROM LOSS AT PURDUE:

- Penn State shot just 25.9%, the lowest mark under Coach Patrick Chambers and Penn State's lowest since shooting 20.6% in a loss to Maryland in December of 2010.
- Despite the poor shooting, Penn State trailed by just six with 14:05 to play on the road.
- Brandon Taylor led PSU in scoring for the first time on his career logging all 11 of his points in the first half, three coming on a half court shot just before the halftime buzzer.
- PSU leading scorers D.J. Newbill and Jermaine Marshall combined to shoot 6-of-25 and Newbill didn't score until 7:19 left to play.

DIFFERENT

STARTING LINE-UPS:

4 on the year;

42 of 65 starts on the year by freshmen or sophomores.

Penn State employed 14 different starting line-ups on the 2011-12 season, nine in Big Ten play.

NOTES FROM NORTHWESTERN LOSS:

- Penn State shot just 31% and suffered a scoring drought of 6:20 in the first half allowing a 13-0 NU run.
- D.J. Newbill posted his fifth career 20-point game leading the Lions in scoring for the fifth time on the season with 20.
- Walk-on Kevin Montminy played a career high 12 minutes and scored three points.
- The Lions won the rebounding battle for the 9th straight game posting a 37-33 advantage led by Ross Travis' 9.

LIONS HIT OFFENSIVE & REBOUNDING HIGH VS. DUQUESNE: Penn State shot a season-best 40% from three (8-20) making a season high eight and eclipsed 70 points for the fourth straight game in the win vs. Duquesne. Its 84 points marked the Lions most since posting 104 vs. Gardner-Webb in 2009. Penn State out-rebounded Duquesne 50-28 (+22), posting its most rebounds since logging 52 vs. UMBC in 2009. The Lions 16 offensive boards produced a 23-7 advantage in second chance points. Penn State got a season high 25 points off the bench vs. Duquesne, led by a career-best 15 from Nick Colella on a career-best 5-of-7 from three. D.J. Newbill posted a career high 23 points vs. Duquesne and added 12 rebounds and five assists for his first double-double at Penn State and seventh of his career. Sasa Borovnjak posted double-digit scoring in three straight games, including 14 vs. Duquesne, the best stretch of his career.

GOING FOR 80: Penn State posted 80 points vs. Delaware State and 84 vs. Duquesne in a span of three games, marking just the third and fourth games over 80 points under coach Patrick Chambers and the first since posting 82 in a loss to No. 12 Indiana on January 8, 2012. The 84 points in the win over the Dukes marked the most by a Penn State team since scoring 104 in a victory over Gardner-Webb in 2009.

WE CAN RELATE: Penn State coach Patrick Chambers can relate to star guard Tim Frazier's recent injury, in fact Frazier is using the exact same motorized scooter Chambers used this summer after he underwent arthroplastic surgery to repair the knee joint on his left leg and was limited to riding the scooter and non-weight bearing crutches for six weeks and the use of crutches for two months. Chambers has said the insertion of a wedge and six screws to re-align his knee joint was one of the toughest things he's had to deal with and will use the recent experience to help guide Frazier through his rehabilitation. Frazier's sister, Krystal, also suffered a ruptured Achilles, during a standout basketball career at Rice that saw her earn All-Conference USA honors. She returned from the injury to post 10 ppg in her senior season.

FRAZIER REMAINS ACTIVE LEADER: Since his season-ending Achilles injury, Tim Frazier has remained a vocal and active presence on the team attending every practice and shouting instructions and pulling teammates aside during breaks in the action. He is a virtual assistant coach in games, even delivering the pre-game scout in the locker room prior to the win over Delaware State. He has been particularly active in helping to guide D.J. Newbill in his transition to the point guard position.

FRAZIER SUFFERS SEASON-ENDING INJURY: Senior guard Tim Frazier, a pre-season candidate for both the Wooden and Naismith national player of the year awards, will miss the remainder of the 2012-13 season due to an injury suffered in the Nittany Lions' third game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off in Bayamon, Puerto Rico. Frazier had played in every game (101) the last three plus seasons. He suffered a ruptured Achilles tendon in his left leg and the 2012 first-team All-Big Ten guard underwent surgery to repair the injury on Nov. 20. A preseason All-Big Ten selection, Frazier was leading Penn State with 21.7 ppg and 5.0 apg per game and was second with 6.0 rebounds per game through three games. He suffered the injury in the Nittany Lions' fourth game, a Nov. 18 contest vs. Akron in Puerto Rico, leaving the floor at the 14:30 mark of the first half. Frazier, a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection on schedule to graduate in May with a degree in Supply Chain and Information Systems from the Smeal College of Business, is eligible to apply for an NCAA medical Hardship Waiver after the completion of the 2012-13 campaign. He had posted 25 straight double-digit scoring game, 14 of which were 20+ point outings, and had led Penn State in scoring in 28 of the last 35 games, scoring 20+ points in nine of his last 13, prior to the Akron game.

LIONS RALLY TO GET OT WIN OVER PROVIDENCE/FIRST UNDER CHAMBERS:

Penn State played and won its first overtime game under head coach Patrick Chambers in its second game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off downing Providence 55-52 in OT. Penn State came back from 10 points down in the second half to claim the victory. The overtime win was the first for Penn State since a 77-73 victory over George Mason in the first round of the 2009 NIT and the Lions' first overtime game since a 79-71 loss at No. 18 Wisconsin in 2010. Tim Frazier scored nine straight points during a key second half stretch in which Penn State went from down four, 35-31, with 7:24 to play to up three, 40-37, with 2:23 left. Frazier led Penn State in scoring (19), rebounds (9), assists (7), and steals (4) while playing all 45 minutes (a career most) of the overtime game. Chambers improved to 4-0 in overtime games as a head coach (2-0 at BU) when the Lions downed Delaware State (80-76) a month later.

FRAZIER CRACKS 1,000/24TH IN CAREER SCORING: With 23 points in Penn State's 72-55 loss to N.C. State in its first game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off, Tim Frazier became the 30th 1,000-point scorer in Penn State history. He posted 19 in a second round win over Providence and now has 1,035 career points which is good for 24th place all-time on the scoring charts.

FRAZIER NAMED TO WOODEN TOP 50: Tim Frazier was named to the Wooden Award Men's Preseason Top 50. He is the second Nittany Lion in the last three years to be named to the preseason list joining Talor Battle who was named prior to the 2010-11 season. The Preseason Top 50 was chosen by a poll of national college basketball media members. Frazier was among nine Big Ten players named to the list, which led all conferences. The Wooden Award All American Team, consisting of the nation's top 10 players, will be announced the week of the "Elite Eight" round of the NCAA Tournament.

FRAZIER PRESEASON ALL-BIG TEN: Senior guard Tim Frazier was named to the Preseason All-Big Ten team by conference media voters. Frazier, the lone returning first-team All-Big Ten selection from last year, was joined on the preseason team by Ohio State's Aaron Craft and Deshaun Thomas, Michigan's Trey Burke and Indiana's Cody Zeller who was also named the preseason POY.

BIGGER, STRONGER, FASTER: Some highlights of Penn State's physical improvement under strength coach Brad Pantall:

TIM FRAZIER: Added 18 reps to his 185-pound bench press since arriving at Penn State and can now do 19, one shy of the 2012 NBA Combine best...improved his max bench press by more than 115 pounds to over 300 pounds entering his final season...posted a pro-lane agility time (10.0) and 3/4 court sprint time (3.09) better than the NBA combine bests...has added 30 pounds of muscle since arriving at Penn State.

JON GRAHAM: Added four inches to his vertical leap...added 11 reps to his 185-pound bench press to now be able to perform a team high 24, far above the 2012 NBA Combine best of 20...increased his max bench press from 215 to 325.

ROSS TRAVIS: In the past year, Travis has increased his bench press max from 245 to 310 and his reps on the 185-pound bench from 10 to 22. He increased his leg press max from 325 to 615 and added 2.5 inches to his vertical (31.5). He increased his weight from 203 to 220 while maintaining his body fat and can touch a team-best 16 inches above the rim.

NICK COLELLA: Added more than six inches to his vertical leap and improved his pro-lane agility time to 10.0, tying the Penn State team record and beating the 2012 NBA Combine best...improved his bench press by 75 pounds to over 300 pounds.

SASA BOROVNJAK: Cut his weight from 242 to 230 pounds and reduced his body fat by five percent...Improved his bench over 300 pounds while cutting one second off his pro-lane agility time.

CHAMBERS HAS AN EVENTFUL OFF-SEASON: It was an eventful off-season for head coach Patrick Chambers as he and wife, Courtney, welcomed their third child, Caitlin, to the family on March 23, he underwent reconstructive knee surgery on his left leg on May 11 and his father, John "Rube", passed away on June 11 after a long battle with Alzheimers. Chambers underwent arthroplastic surgery, which involved resetting the top of the tibia below the knee to change the angle of the joint. The energetic coach was limited to riding a scooter and non-weight bearing crutches for six weeks and was on crutches for two months. He began walking short distances without crutches on July 6 and after months of rehab returned to normal mobility in August.

CHAMBERS & THE POST-SEASON: Coach Patrick Chambers missed having a team play in the post-season for the first time in his collegiate coaching career last season and has been a part of the post-season in seven of his eight seasons as a collegiate coach. In his previous five seasons as a member of the Villanova coaching staff and two as head coach at Boston University, all of his teams reached post-season play including six NCAA Tournament appearances and one CBI appearance. Chambers has been a part of 17 NCAA Tournament games, helping Villanova advance to the tournament every year and make four NCAA Sweet 16 appearances and reach the 2009 NCAA Final Four. In his first season at BU, he guided the Terriers to their first post-season win since 1959 with a victory in the CBI and the following year led BU to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2002.

117 YEARS OF HOOPS: Penn State embarked on its 117th season of playing basketball in the 2012-13 campaign, having begun play in 1897. Penn State has made 12 post-season appearances in the last 24 years (4 NCAA, 8 NIT) and a total of 19 (9 NCAA, 10 NIT) overall. Since 2009, Penn State has won the program's first national tournament title (2009 NIT), made the program's first appearance in the Big Ten Tournament Championship game (2011) and played in the NCAA Tournament (2011).

STAFF TIES: Patrick Chambers began forming his first Penn State coaching staff by naming his former Episcopal Academy high school teammate Eugene Burroughs as associate head coach, the first of three assistants with strong ties to Philadelphia. Chambers and Burroughs both played for legendary coach Dan Dougherty in Philadelphia in the late 80's early 90's. Burroughs previously had worked as associate head coach at Navy. Former Villanova assistant Keith Urgo also joined the staff as an assistant. The pair worked together on Villanova's 2009 NCAA Final Four staff and Urgo worked under Jay Wright for four seasons. Brian Daly followed Chambers from Boston University where he was associate head coach under Chambers. Daly is a former Philadelphia high school standout and player at Saint Joseph's and was a highly successful high school coach at his alma mater, Monsignor Bonner HS in Philadelphia.

GET ON THE FLOOR: Patrick Chambers places an emphasis on "dives" during a basketball game and has his staff chart them with a goal of achieving at least 14 "dives" per game. Chambers has established an "Attitude Club" in which players attempt to record enough hustle points during practices and games to become a member. Penn State charts "Attitude Points" during every practice and game and announces winners at the end of every practice. Modeled after similar programs used by longtime NBA coach Pat Riley and Chambers' mentor, Villanova's Jay Wright, the club charts hustle plays, extra passes, charges drawn, dives on the floor, screen assists, shot contests, tap backs, deflections, etc.

MAKING A RUN

Coach Patrick Chambers has instilled a "never say die" attitude in his Nittany Lion teams. To that end, Penn State has battled back from several double-digit second half deficits in Big Ten play in the last two seasons to challenge some of the top teams in the league both at home and on the road, refusing to go quietly.

GREAT GRAD RATE

Coach Patrick Chambers' Nittany Lions ranked second in the Big Ten with a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 92 percent, 24 percent higher than the national average (68%), according to statistical information released by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). The NCAA's annual study of institutions nationwide revealed that Penn State student-athletes at the University Park campus earned a GSR of 88 percent compared to the 80 percent average for all Division I institutions for students entering from 2002-03 through 2005-06. The 88 percent figure was third to Northwestern (97) and Illinois (89) among Big Ten Conference institutions. Penn State basketball's NCAA four-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score of 995 through 2009-10 tied for the best among men's basketball teams in the Big Ten and was well above the national average of 945. Penn State and Michigan State tied for the Big Ten's highest APR figure, marking the fourth consecutive year the Nittany Lions ranked among the top three in the Big Ten. The four-year federal graduation rate average for University Park student-athletes was 78 percent, second to Northwestern (88) among Big Ten schools, and significantly above the 64 percent Division I average.

PENN STATE GREAT TITUS IVORY SUFFERS STROKE;
 IN MIDST OF 6-12 MONTH RECOVERY:

One of the most beloved players in Penn State history and the emotional leader of Penn State's 2001 NCAA Sweet 16 team, Titus Ivory, suffered a stroke on Oct. 11, 2012 while on a football field supervising workouts with the members of his Hickory Grove Christian High School (Charlotte, N.C.) team. A blood clot in his left common carotid artery, put Ivory in the ICU for three days waiting minute by minute as his family and friends stood nearby awaiting a miracle to happen. His inoperable blood clot remained dormant. With the help of a tremendous medical team and a touch of grace, Titus was given a second chance. Titus is back on his feet, but the father of three, with the help of his wife (Nikki), now begins a 6-12 month journey on the road to recovery. His current mission in helping at risk youth simply exemplifies Titus's mission to share his blessings with those less fortunate.

His family, friends and former teammates have created a crowd sourcing website to help raise funds to support the Ivory family during this time with a goal of raising $50,000 so that the Ivory family can focus on recovery and not on the medical bills or the financial stress that we have all faced. Donations to Team Titus can be made at:

Leading 9-8 with 14:30 to play in the first half, do-everything guard Tim Frazier left the game with an achilles tendon injury and did not return. Penn State battle through its best offensive half of the season in his absence and took a 36-32 lead to the locker room behind 14 first half points from D.J. Newbill. But, the Lions couldn't sustain the effort without Frazier and saw the Zips use a 22-5 run to start the second half to take a 54-41 lead with 13:24 to play. Three minutes later the Zips pushed the lead over 20 and never looked back building as much as a 28-point margin as they shot 68 percent from the floor and 5-of-8 from three in the half and the Lions went 2-of-12 from three and shot 25 percent overall. Newbill finished with a career high 20 points and added six rebounds and five assists while playing the point in Frazier's absence. Ross Travis chipped in his first career double-double with 11 points and a career high 10 rebounds. Akron was led by Zeke Marshall who posted 17 points, seven boards and six blocked shots.

PENN STATE LEADERS
Scoring Leader: Marshall (17)
Rebounding Leader: Travis (8)
Assist Leader: Newbill (7)

Penn State hit 14 of its first 18 shots in the second half and finished the half shooting 65% from the floor and 5-of-6 from three to overcome a 22-16 halftime deficit and down previously unbeaten Bucknell for the 11th straight time. Jermaine Marshall led the way with 17 points and four steals while freshman Brandon Taylor had 16 points on a team-best 4-of-8 from three, including two straight to spark the offense at the start of the second half. PSU struggled through 16% shooting for just 16 first half points, but stayed close by limiting Bucknell leading scorer Mike Muscala (17 ppg) who finished the game with 10 points on just four field goal attempts. Trailing 29-24 with 15:59 to play, PSU used a 13-7 run to seize its first lead of the game, 37-36, on a Marshall banked in three-pointer with 10:57 to play. Bucknell tied the game at 39, but PSU used a 9-2 run capped by Ross Travis' first three of the year to take a 48-41 lead and were in control the rest of the way.

PENN STATE LEADERS
Scoring Leader: Marshall (25)

Trailing 59-39 with 5:22 to play, the Lions reeled off 14 straight points in just over a minute and strung together an 18-1 run that sliced the lead to 60-57 with 3:08 to play, but would get no closer falling to Boston College, 73-61. Jermaine Marshall led PSU with 25 points, including 21 in the second half and 11 in the 18-1 run, and D.J. Newbill added 22 points playing 36 minutes at point guard, but the Lions couldn't overcome 10 first half turnovers and a 27-17 B.C. scoring advantage at the foul line. Freshman Brandon Taylor was saddled with foul trouble all night and posted just three points after a 16-point outing the game before. The Lions trailed 31-24 at the half and suffered through a more than 10-minute drought without a field goal as B.C. used a 23-8 run at the beginning of the second half to build a 20-point lead. The Lions shot 35 percent from the floor and 6-of-20 from three while B.C. hit 42 percent and 8-of-18 from the arc led by 22 points from Olivier Hanlan who went 15-of-19 at the foul line.

PENN STATE LEADERS

Penn State capitalized on its hot shooting and UNH's offensive struggles to jump ahead early and never look back putting together runs of 10-0, 12-0 and 10-0 in the opening minutes to seize a 34-8 lead. UNH hit 1-of-11 in the opening minutes while PSU was shooting at a clip over 60 percent. The Wildcats ended the game hitting just 22.6%, the lowest for a PSU opponent in the last 15 years, while PSU hit 55 percent in the first half and 46 percent for the game. Jermaine Marshall's 15 points led four Lions in double-figures and 10 Lions that scored. He added a career high five steals as Penn State held a 23-2 lead in points of turnovers. No UNH player reached double-figures. The Lions lead 39-14 at the half and built as much as a 34-point second half lead. The 27-point margin of victory marks the largest under coach Patrick Chambers and the most since a 47-point win over Gardner-Webb in 2009.
