PENN STATE LACROSSE

SCOUTING THE BEARCATS

Winners of three games in the last four outings, Binghamton (3-3) comes into Tuesday's game following a 13-6 win over Manhattan this past Saturday. Junior attackman Matt Springer tallied a game-high five goals for the Bearcats and took over the BU lead in season goals with 11. Michael Antinozzi is one behind with 10 tallies, while Tucker Nelson leads the Bearcats in points with 17 thanks to four markers and 13 helpers.

The Bearcats have a staunch defense, allowing just eight goals a game, but scoring only a tick below that at 7.83 goals per game.

Faceoff specialist Alex Doerflein has won 58-of-104 attempts (.558) this season. In net, Max Scheffler has started every contest, boasting a superb 7.91 goals-against average and .630 save percentage.

LAST TIME VS. BU (Feb. 19, 2011)

Penn State, playing its first game under new head coach Jeff Tambroni, scored four fourth period goals and held off visiting Binghamton 9-7 in the 2011 season opener for both teams. Matthew Mackrides scored four points to lead Penn State. Kyle VanThof, Shane Sturgis and Colton Vosburgh tallied two points apiece for PSU, while Danny Henneghan won a career-best 16-of-19 faceoffs.

PENN STATE WINS CAA OPENER AT UMASS

Behind a four-goal performance from Jack Forster and 16 saves from Austin Kaut, Penn State defeated Massachusetts, 7-5, in comeback fashion. Down 5-4, Forster tied the game in the third, Kyle VanThof put the Nittany Lions ahead in the fourth and Forster sealed the game with an insurance goal a few minutes later. Joining VanThof and Forster on the scoring ledger was Nick Dolik and Kyle Zittel. Midfielder Tom LaCrosse added two assists and Gavin Ahern assisted on VanThof's game-winner. The win was Penn State's second straight at UMass.

KAUT NAMED CAA PLAYER OF THE WEEK

For the sixth time in his career, goalie Austin Kaut earned a CAA weekly laurel on Monday, March 18. Kaut was named CAA Player of the Week for his 16-save performance against the Minutemen. Kaut thrice won CAA Rookie of the Week in 2011 en route to CAA Rookie of the Year and this is his third CAA Player of the Week award.

ROAD WINNING STREAK

With Saturday's win at Massachusetts, Penn State has ticked off seven straight true road wins. This season Penn State is 2-0 on the road after going 5-0 in 2012. The Lions' last road loss was Apr. 30, 2011 at Hofstra. Penn State has won nine of its last 10 true road games.

will be home for just five of them, making the Nittany Lions one of the most road tested teams in the country. In total, seven games are true road contests along with two neutral site games. Penn State looks to improve to 4-1 away from Happy Valley on Tuesday vs. Binghamton. In the past two seasons, Penn State is 7-0 in true road games and 8-2 away from Happy Valley.

DIFFERENCE A YEAR MAKES

Penn State's offense has improved mightily in 2013 with the attacking trio of Jack Forster (22 points) TJ Sanders (21), and Shane Sturgis (14). Penn State is averaging nearly 11 goals per game this season with a shooting percentage of .280. Last season, the Nittany Lions scored just 8.73 goals per game and post a percentage of .258. Also, assists, points, shots and ground balls per game are up from 2012.

RUNNING THE GAUNTLET

Penn State just finished a stretch of five games against USILA ranked opponents as PSU went 2-3. Three other Penn State opponents, No. 15 Bucknell (March 26), No. 19 Drexel (Apr. 6) and No. 7 Hofstra (Apr. 27) are also ranked.

NATION'S LEADING FRESHMAN SCORER

TJ Sanders has a team high 18 goals and 21 points, registering an average of 3.00 goals per game and 3.5 points per game. Sanders ranks tied for seventh in the nation for goals per game. Sanders leads the nation in freshman scoring.

Until going goalless against UMass, Sanders had been steady in each game, scoring at least two points in every contest and registering three or more goals in four of his first five contests. Sanders has scored at least four goals on three occasions.

LIONS RALLY, FALL TO LEHIGH

Penn State dug itself a four-goal halftime deficit, went on a big 8-2 run, but eventually lost to Lehigh, 12-10, on Saturday night (Mar. 9) in front of 5,212 at PPL Park. TJ Sanders scored five goals during the 8-2 spurt to take a 9-7 lead. Lehigh used a 5-0 run to win their second straight contest over the Nittany Lions. Jack Forster and Shane Sturgis had matching score lines of two goals and an assist.

Down 5-1 after two periods, Penn State out-scored Lehigh 5-1 in the third period and stretched the run to 8-2, giving Penn State a 9-7 lead. Nevertheless, Lehigh shot back with five straight goals en route to the 12-10 win. Dante Fantoni and Patrick Corbett each had hat tricks for the Mountain Hawks.

SANDERS NAMED IL ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Following a six-point showing against Lehigh, freshman TJ Sanders was named Cascade/Inside Lacrosse Rookie of the week on March 13. Sanders was also named No. 2 on Inside Lacrosse's first Freshman Rankings.

MAKE IT THREE CAA ROOKIE AWARDS

For the third time this season, Penn State men's lacrosse freshman TJ Sanders was named Colonial Athletic Association Rookie of the Week on March 11. Sanders notched six points, a league best among freshmen, in a loss to Lehigh. Sanders has scored 10 goals and an assist in his past two outings, earning top rookie honors in both occasions.

BUCKEYES STORM PAST PENN STATE

A game of runs went the way of Ohio State as Penn State fell, 10-9, in overtime. OSU's Jesse King scored with no time on the clock in overtime to win it. Penn State's TJ Sanders scored five first-half goals to help the Lions stake an 8-2 halftime lead. Ohio State closed the game on an 8-1 run. Jack Forster pitched in with a four point day behind a goal and three assists. Shane Sturgis netted two points, scoring the game-tying goal in the fourth quarter.

SANDERS AGAIN NAMED CAA TOP ROOKIE

Freshman TJ Sanders was named Colonial Athletic Association Rookie of the Week on Monday, March 4. Sanders has been named CAA

Rookie of the Week in two of the four award cycles this season. The five goals scored were a career high, topping his four-goal effort against Michigan in his first collegiate game on Feb. 9.

CREATOR'S TROPHY SERIES

Penn State won the inaugural Creator's Trophy, a men's lacrosse competition started in 2012 by the Big Ten schools Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State. The Nittany Lions went 2-0 in the round-robin format, while the Buckeyes went 1-1 and the Wolverines went 0-2.

This season, Penn State is 1-1 after falling to Ohio State on Saturday, Mar. 2. The Buckeyes can clinch their first Creator's Trophy title with a win at Michigan on Apr. 13. If Michigan is successful in the role of spoiler and wins, the trophy stays in Happy Valley.

2012 Creator's Trophy Schedule

Mar. 2: Ohio State 10 Penn State 9 (OT)
Apr. 13: Ohio State at Michigan, 1 p.m.

IRISH PULL OUT COMEBACK WIN

A capacity crowd of 1,249 witnessed a back and forth game between No. 8 Penn State and No. 3 Notre Dame in which three goals were scored in the final 24 seconds of regulation. Junior Tom LaCrosse tied it with sixth-tenths of a second left to send the game to overtime where UND's Matt Kavanagh scored with 1:34 to go in the extra frame as Notre Dame escaped with a 10-9 win at Holuba Hall.

Penn State took a two-goal lead, 7-5, 49 seconds into the fourth quarter on a man-up goal from Kyle VanThof, assisted by Jack Forster. That score capped a four-point effort by Forster, who scored three goals between the second and third quarters.

Notre Dame answered with back-to-back goals with 9:28 remaining from Tyler Kimball and Liam O'Connor on the ensuing faceoff to tie the game at seven. LaCrosse made it 8-7 three minutes later and Penn State held a tenuous one-goal lead into the fourth quarter's final minute when Notre Dame called timeout.

Conor Doyle scored his third of the game to tie the game at eight with 24 seconds left and O'Connor scored immediately after winning the faceoff six seconds later as UND looked assured of the comeback victory. Penn State's Danny Henneghan won the faceoff as Kessler Brown collected the ground ball, scooped it to Michael Richards and flipped it to LaCrosse. LaCrosse dashed to his left and fired a shot to the lower left part of the net past UND netminder John Kemp (10 saves) to knot the game with less than a second left.

NITTANY LIONS THWART DENVER

No. 15 Penn State took down No. 9 Denver, 15-12, at EverBank Field in the Moe's Southwest Grill Classic on Sunday (Feb. 17) afternoon. Shane Sturgis and Jack Forster each tallied four goals in the Penn State (2-0) victory.

Fueled by a 7-3 surge in the third period, Penn State extended a two-goal halftime margin into a six-goal lead after three periods. TJ Sanders added three goals and Kyle Zittel posted his first multi-goal game of his career to help pace the Nittany Lion offense. Austin Kaut had a sluggish start, but made some key saves down the stretch, finishing with 10 stops on the day.

STURGIS IS CAA PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Penn State attackman Shane Sturgis was named Colonial Athletic Association Men's Lacrosse Player of the Week on Monday, Feb. 18. Sturgis scored four goals on eight shots to lead Penn State past No. 9 Denver, 15-12, on Sunday.

For Sturgis, the honor is his third weekly conference award. He was twice named CAA Rookie of the Week in 2011 on Mar. 14 and Apr. 11 en route to a All-CAA Rookie Team laurel.

Sturgis impressed on a national stage keying an attack that defeated No. 9 Denver in Jacksonville, Fla. Sturgis took just eight shots and scored four times, including a highlight-reel inside roll in the third quarter.

KAUT ON TEWAARATON WATCH LIST

Goalkeeper Austin Kaut was named to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List on Friday. The Tewaaraton Award honors the best players in NCAA lacrosse across all divisions.

A 2012 nominee as one of the top 25 players in NCAA lacrosse, Kaut is the first Nittany Lion to be on the Tewaaraton Award Watch List since 2008-09 when Drew Adams accomplished the feat. Kaut was a USILA All-American Second Team honoree in 2012 following an honorable mention campaign as a freshman in 2011.

SENIOR CLASS AWARD NOMINEE

Midfielder Nick Dolik was named a nominee for the prestigious Senior CLASS Award on Wednesday, Feb. 20.

Dolik is one of 20 nominees who excel both on and off the field for the award. To be eligible, a student-athlete must be a Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition. The Senior CLASS Award is an acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, which focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in the community.

LIONS OVERWHELM WOLVERINES

Led by four-goal performances from TJ Sanders and Shane Sturgis, No. 15 Penn State men's lacrosse defeated Michigan, 11-6, at Oosterbaan Fieldhouse. In all, Sanders had a five-point afternoon in his collegiate debut, while goaltender Austin Kaut made 12 saves for the Nittany Lions.

Penn State (1-0) ran away from Michigan (0-1)

100th 1913 Season 2013 PENN STATE LACROSSE

after a tied first period, holding a 5-3 lead at halftime and upping it to 10-3 in the third. The Nittany Lions outscored the Wolverines 5-0 to open the second half to open the seven-goal advantage.

Penn State received key contributions from Jack Forster (2 goals, 1 assist) and Tommy O'Neill (two assists) as well. Penn State out-shot Michigan 57-30 for the game, the most shots attempted since March 6, 2009 vs. Ohio State (55).

SANDERS NAMED CAA'S TOP ROOKIE

Freshman attackman TJ Sanders earned CAA Rookie of the Week for his five-point showing at Michigan on Saturday. Sanders led all rookies in goals (4) and points (5) and was just one point shy of the league lead, which two UMass players had last weekend.

NITTANY LIONS ON TV

Penn State is slated to play two games on television this season: Feb. 17 against Denver at Jacksonville, Fla. on NBC Sports Network and March 9 vs. Lehigh in Chester, Pa. on ESPN3.com and the WatchESPNApp for your mobile device.

Penn State's appearance on NBC Sports Network is believed to be the first nationally televised men's lacrosse game in program history. The last time Penn State was on television was in 2010 vs. Towson on WMAR in Baltimore.

CELEBRATING THE 100TH SEASON

The Penn State men's lacrosse program is celebrating its 100th season in 2013, one of just a handful of teams to reach the milestone. The team started its program on May 24, 1913 with a 4-3 win over Penn under Walter Farley. Since then, the Nittany Lions have won 476 games in program history. Penn State will hold its 100th season celebration on April 6 vs. Drexel, where alumni of all teams are welcomed back to Happy Valley to honor the proud history of Penn State lacrosse.

PENN STATE VOTED IN PRESEASON POLLS

Nittany Lions garnered a pair of preseason rankings from the USILA coaches poll and Nike/Inside Lacrosse media poll on Jan. 28. Both rankings put Penn State 15th, second in the CAA after Massachusetts (12).

NITTANY LIONS TABBED SECOND IN CAA

Penn State was voted second in the preseason Colonial Athletic Association poll and earned four student-athletes on the preseason All-CAA team on Friday, Feb. 1. The voting was conducted by each of the league's head coaches.

Penn State earned 31 votes, second most to defending champion Massachusetts (35). The Nittany Lions garnered two first-place votes, while the Minutemen earned the other five. Drexel and Hofstra were voted third, while Delaware, Towson and Saint Joseph's rounded out the seven-team conference.

lik, Kessler Brown and Austin Kaut - were named to the 2013 Preseason All-CAA Team. Kaut is a two-time All-CAA First Team honoree, while Forster and Dolik each have made appearances in the postseason awards list for the CAA.

KAUT A PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN

On Dec. 4, junior Austin Kaut was named to the Inside Lacrosse Preseason All-America Second Team. A 2012 second-team USILA All-American honoree is a two-time All-CAA First Team goaltender.

RETURNING SCORERS

Penn State went 9-6 last season and returns the core of its team with just three starters graduating and 31 letterwinners returning for the 2013 season. The 2013 team will see 77 percent of its scoring from a year ago back on the field led by senior Jack Forster, who earned an extra year of eligibility from the NCAA for two knee injuries. Forster, who tallied 40 points last year, sits nine points shy of 100 for his career entering the 2013 campaign.

Aiding Forster's offensive capabilities are Shane Sturgis, Nick Dolik and Gavin Ahern who all scored double digit goals in 2012. Sturgis found the back of the net 19 times, Dolik had 18 markers and Ahern scored 13 goals.

VETERAN LEADERSHIP

On Dec. 5, 2013, head coach Jeff Tambroni announced that senior leaders Travis Crane and Jack Forster earned the distinction of captains. Crane, a fifth-year senior in his second season in Happy Valley, is a midfielder out of Parkville, Md, while Forster of Jenkintown, Pa. is at Penn State for his sixth year.

"Our coaching staff and team are very confident that they will do a wonderful job as we make our way through the spring season," Tambroni said. "Both of [these] guys have been around for a long time, one a fifth-year (Crane) the other a sixth-year senior (Forster), and have fought through a lot of adversity in their own right. I think their experience is going to be great for this team at the time that Penn State lacrosse is in its history, and hopefully going to give us an opportunity to turn the page."

COACH TAMBRONI IN YEAR THREE

Head coach Jeff Tambroni is in his third year on the Penn State sidelines, winning 16 games in the past two years after a 2-11 season in 2010 before his arrival. Last year, Tambroni led the Nittany Lions one win shy of their first 10-win season since 2009 and on the cusp of the CAA Championship. Penn State cracked the top 10 in the USILA poll for the first time since 1996 on March 5 after wins over Notre dame nad Ohio State. Tambroni has also led Penn State to back-to-back second-place finishes in the CAA and has a 9-3 regular-season record in the conference.

PSU WELCOMES NEWCOMERS

Fourteen new Penn State student-athletes joined the lacrosse team this season. The Nittany Lions welcomed two attackmen, five midfielders, five defenders and two goalies in the class.

NEXT TIME OUT

The Nittany Lions return to Happy Valley for a 1 p.m. contest on March 23 against Saint Joseph's in CAA play.

2009 USILA DIVISION I COACH OF THE YEAR
2011 CAA CO-COACH OF THE YEAR

Jeff Tambroni will enter his third season as head coach of the Penn State men's lacrosse team in 2012-13. During the 2012 campaign, Tambroni led the Nittany Lions to a second-place CAA finish with two USILA All-Americans and six All-CAA honorees. Penn State finished with a 9-6 overall record and a 5-1 mark in conference action.

The 2011 CAA Co-Coach of the Year, Tambroni led the Nittany Lions to a 7-7 record and their first-ever CAA tournament berth during his first year at the program's helm.

In 2011, eight Nittany Lions garnered All-CAA recognition and freshman goalkeeper Austin Kaut earned Rookie of the Year honors while being named a USILA Honorable Mention All-American.

Prior to Penn State, Tambroni spent 10 seasons as head coach at Cornell (2001-10). He guided the Big Red to a 109-40 record and three NCAA Final Four appearances (2007, 2009-10), including the 2009 national championship game.

Tambroni was named USILA Division I Coach of the Year following the 2009 season and was tabbed the 2007 and 2009 Field Turf/ NCAA Division I Coach of the Year. Tambroni was also the 2004 and 2009 Ithaca Journal Male Coach of the Year and a three-time National Coach of the Week.

While at Cornell, Tambroni became the 10th-fastest coach to reach the 100-win mark when he accomplished the feat in his 134th career game in March 2010.

During his tenure, his players earned 37 first-team All-Ivy honors, including five Ivy League awards, and three conference Rookie of the Year selections. In addition, 39 players garnered All-America recognition.

Prior to serving as Cornell's head coach, he spent four seasons as a Big Red assistant coach (1997-2000). Tambroni also served as assistant coach at Loyola College in 1997 and at his alma mater, Hobart College, for three seasons. With the Statesmen, he helped the program reach the 1994 NCAA Division III national championship game.

A 1992 graduate, Tambroni earned his bachelor's degree in American studies. He earned first-team All-America honors as a senior and was twice named a second-team All-American (1990-91). The MVP of the 1990 NCAA title game, Tambroni helped lead the team to back-to-back NCAA championships (1990-91) and left Hobart tied for seventh on the school's all-time scoring list with 202 points.

Before embarking upon his collegiate coaching career, Tambroni coached the Heaton Mersey Lacrosse Club of the English Lacrosse Union for one year and served as a visiting coach for the Czech-American Lacrosse Foundation in Prague in the summer of 1996.

Tambroni and his wife, Michelle, have three daughters, Carissa, Madison and Ella. Michelle played field hockey at Penn State from 1988-90 and earned All-America honors as a senior.
