LIONS HOST BOILERMAKERS ON MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY

Penn State returns to Beaver Stadium, hosting Purdue in the first of consecutive home games to close the home slate. Penn State will honor those who serve our nation with Military Appreciation Day.

The Nittany Lions are 6-1 in games following a loss under Coach Bill O'Brien, with the only consecutive losses coming when the 2012 team began the season 0-2.

Penn State owns a 12-3-1 on-field record against Purdue, with the first meeting in 1951, and has won six straight meetings with the Boilermakers, including a 34-9 decision at Ross-Ade Stadium last year. The Nittany Lions are 6-1-1 against the Boilermakers at home, with the two teams meeting for the 15th time in Penn State's 21 seasons in the Big Ten.

Allen Robinson's seven catches for 63 yards at Minnesota pushed the junior wideout into first on the school single season receiving yards list with 1,106 yards, passing Bobby Engram's 1,084 yards in 1995. Robinson leads the Big Ten in receptions (8.1 rpg) and receiving yards per game (122.9), ranking 9th and third, respectively, in the NCAA.

True freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg is among the top Big Ten signal callers, ranking second conference in completions (178) and passing yards (243.0 ypg). He is also tied for eighth in touchdown passes (13). Hackenberg has six 200-yard passing games this year to break to Penn State freshman record.

The game will match the only two true freshmen starting quarterbacks in the Big Ten. Danny Etling has started the last four games and is 75-of-156 passing for 819 yards (163 ypg), with four touchdowns and five interceptions. Running back Akeem Hunt ranks sixth in the Big Ten in all-purpose yards at 120.1 yards per game. Cornerback Ricardo Allen has intercepted three passes for the Boilermaker defense and Anthony Brown paces the squad with 51 tackles.

LAST GAME RECAP

LIONS FALL AT MINNESOTA, 24-10

MINNEAPOLIS; Nov. 9, 2013 -- Penn State had their opportunities against Minnesota on Saturday at TCF Bank Stadium, but could not capitalize in their 24-10 setback to the Gophers.

Zach Zwinak scored once and gained a season-high 150 yards on 26 rushes for the Nittany Lions (5-4, 2-3). It was the eighth career 100-yard rushing effort for the junior and marked his ninth rushing touchdown of the season.

The 240-pound junior pushed his way through the line time after time, often twisting past the initial contract for a few extra yards. Even trailing by two scores for the entire second half, the Nittany Lions kept sending Zwinak at a Gophers defense.

Allen Robinson had seven receptions for 63 yards, giving him 1,106 yards this year to break Bobby Engram's 18-year-old program record. Robinson now owns the single season receptions (77, 2012) and receiving yards marks for the Nittany Lions.

Minnesota had touchdown drives of 96, 70 and 74 yards in the first half. On third-and-10, Nelson found a wide-open Maxx Williams for a 24-yard score with 17 seconds left before the break to give the Gophers a two-touchdown lead.

Christian Hackenberg, the conference's leader in yards passing coming into the weekend, went 14 for 25 for 163 yards.

The Nittany Lions drove from their 12-yard line to the Minnesota 16 midway through the fourth quarter. Only one of those throws went toward Robinson and the last toss was almost intercepted by Derrick Wells.

Then after forcing Peter Mortell's fourth punt of the second half, Penn State raced back into the red zone for yet another opportunity to turn this into a one-score game. But Hackenberg fumbled the snap on second-and-goal at the 2, and James Manuel recovered with 6:40 left.

Lions punter Alex Butterworth punted three times on the afternoon, with two of those kicks downed inside the five yard line. His 49-yard punt in the first quarter was touched down at the four yard line and his 36-yard effort was downed at the one yard line in the third quarter.

Linebacker Mike Hull led all players with nine tackles in the game, marking the fifth straight game with nine or more tackles for the junior. He also added 1.0 tackle for loss. C.J. Olaniyan made six tackles, including 2.5 TFL and 0.5 sack. Olaniyan ranks second on the team with 10.0 TFL this season, behind senior DaQuan Jones' 10.5 TFL.

PURDUE HEAD COACH DARRELL HAZELL

In his first year at Purdue, Darrell Hazell is 17-18 in his third season as a head coach. Hazell arrived in West Lafayette after two seasons as the head coach at Kent State, compiling a 16-10 record.

The Golden Flashes won their first-ever Mid-American Conference East Division Championship in 2012, earning an 11-3 record. Hazell was named the 2012 MAC Coach of the Year.

Hazell was an assistant coach at Ohio State from 2004-10, coaching against Penn State each season.

SCOUTING THE BOILERMAKERS

Freshman quarterback Danny Etling has started the last four games for the Boilermakers and has seen action in five games. Etling is 75-of-156 passing for 819 yards (163 ypg), with four touchdowns and five interceptions.

Running back Akeem Hunt ranks sixth in the Big Ten in all-purpose yards at 120.1 yards per game. He leads Purdue with 325 rushing yards, 313 receiving yards and 443 kick return yards - including a 99-yard return for a touchdown - for a total of 1,081 all-purpose yards.

The Boilermakers are ranked fourth in the Big Ten in pass defense, limiting opponents to 214.9 yards per game. The safety duo of Anthony Brown and T. Richards pace the squad with 5.7 and 5.2 tackles per game, respectively. Cornerback Ricardo Allen has intercepted three of Purdue's eight passes this season and defensive tackle Bruce Gaston leads the squad with 3.0 sacks.

LAST GAME: IOWA 38, PURDUE 14

A Danny Etling two-yard touchdown pass to Kurt Freytag pulled Purdue even with Iowa at 7-7, but the Hawkeyes scored the next 31 points on their way to a 38-14 victory at Ross-Ade Stadium last week.

Etling completed 15 of 28 passes for 145 yards and a touchdown, while Austin Appleby completed 5-of-6 passes for 68 yards and a touchdown for the Boilermakers.

Akeem Hunt caught seven passes for 63 yards, while Danny Anthrope also was a primary target for the Boilermakers, catching four passes for 82 yards and a touchdown.

BUTTERWORTH HAS FAMILY TIES WITH PURDUE

When senior punter Alex Butterworth steps on the field on Saturday, he will be facing off with a team he grew up rooting for and has family ties with.

Butterworth attended numerous Purdue games during his youth and prepped at Heritage Christian School in Indianapolis.

He grew up a Boilermaker fan thanks to his grandfather, Duff McKenzie (baseball), and two uncles, Jim and John McKenzie (football), who all played their respective sports at Purdue.

Butterworth was an all-state kicker as a prep senior, but chose Penn State after making a visit to the Blue-White Game during his senior season.

This season, Butterworth is averaging 39.4 yards per punt on 37 kicks. He boomed a career-long 66 yard punt against Michigan in the Nittany Lions' 4 OT victory.

Butterworth has seen 11 punts downed inside the 20 - including two punts downed inside the five yard line last weekend at Minnesota - and has three punts of 50-plus yards.

SERIES NOTES

Penn State and Purdue have met 16 times, with the Nittany Lions owning a 12-3-1 on-field advantage in the series. This is the third consecutive season the two teams have met. The next scheduled meeting is at Purdue in 2016, as the Boilermakers will play in the Big Ten's West Division starting next year.

The teams first met in 1951 when Penn State dropped a 28-0 decision at Purdue. The Boilermakers and Nittany Lions played to a 20-20 tie in 1952, but didn't meet again until they met in 1995 as conference opponents.

With this week's meeting, the two teams have met in 15 of Penn State's 21 years in the Big Ten, with the Lions owning a 12-2 on-field record in conference play.

LAST MEETING

Matt McGloin threw for 321 yards and two touchdowns to help Penn State defeat Purdue 34-9 in West Lafayette on Nov. 3, 2012.

Brandon Felder made six catches for a career-high 129 yards and a touchdown, Zach Zwinak ran for 134 yards and Michael Zordich ran for two touchdowns for the Nittany Lions.

Hoosier State native Sam Ficken bookended a Zordich six-yard touchdown run with field goals of 27 and 24 yards to erase an early 3-0 Purdue lead.

Zordich found the end zone with 1:16 left in the first half to push Penn State's lead to 20-3 at the break.

Penn State scored on its opening possession of the second half, as McGloin found Jesse James for a 12-yard touchdown pass. On Penn State's next possession, Felder's 41-yard touchdown catch from McGloin made it 34-3.

LAST MEETING AT PENN STATE

The Nittany Lions scored first and held off the Boilermakers to claim a 23-18 on-field victory on Oct. 15, 2011 in Beaver Stadium.

Penn State's Curtis Dukes plunged into the end zone for the first score and Silas Redd ran one in from nine yards out, while Anthony Fera kicked field goals of 29, 40 and 29 yards.

Quarterback Matt McGloin threw for 145 yards, while Redd rushed for 131 yards.

The Penn State defense picked off Purdue three times, including two by linebacker Nate Stupar, while Gerald Hodges made a team-best eight tackles, including 3.0 tackles for loss.

Glenn Carson and Brandon Felder were the only two current Penn State players to start that contest, while 12 other current Lions saw action in the game.

NITTANY LIONS FROM INDIANA

A trio of Penn State players are from Indiana: P Alex Butterworth (Indianapolis/Heritage Christian HS); PK Sam Ficken (Valparaiso HS) and QB Jack Seymour (Indianapolis/Park Tudor HS).

PREP TEAMMATES

- Penn State's Sam Ficken (PK) and Purdue's John Bednar (KS) played at Valparaiso (Ind.) High School;
- Penn State's Curtis Cothran (DE) and Purdue's Brandon Cottom (RB) both played at Council Rock North (Pa.) High School;
- Penn State's Matthew Baney (LB), Evan Galimberti (OL), Jack Haffner (RB) and Alex Kenney (WR) and Purdue's Jack DeBoef (OL) all attended State College Area (Pa.) High School.
- Penn State's Gregg Garrity (WR) and Purdue's Robert Kugler (C) both lined up on offense at North Allegheny (Pa.) High School.

PENN STATE VS. BIG TEN

Penn State owns a 127-84-2 on-field mark against Big Ten Conference teams since the Nittany Lions first opposed Ohio State in 1912.

The Nittany Lions began play as a member of the Big Ten Conference in 1993 and have a 105-62 on-field mark in their 21st conference season.

Prior to 1993, Penn State played 46 games vs. Big Ten and was 22-22-2 in those games.

Maryland and Rutgers will join the Big Ten on July 1, 2014 and join Penn State, Indiana, Michigan, Michigan State and Ohio State in the East Division.

27 FORMER LIONS ON NFL ROSTERS

Twenty-five former Penn State players were on the rosters of 18 National Football League teams during NFL Kickoff Week, the second-highest total in the Big Ten Conference. The Nittany Lions annually are among the top 20 programs nationally in producing players in the NFL.

In October, linebacker Josh Hull was signed by the Washington Redskins and fullback Michael Robinson was re-signed by the Seattle Seahawks to push the number of former Nittany Lions in the NFL to 27.

Also in October, Levi Brown was traded by the Arizona Cardinals to the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Penn State and USC lead all schools with nine former players playing linebacker in the NFL.

The Oakland Raiders feature a league-high three former Nittany Lions on their roster, including third-year starting center/guard Stefen Wisniewski, second-year defensive end Jack Crawford and rookie quarterback Matt McGloin, who made the team as a free agent. Six additional NFL squads boast two former Nittany Lions on their opening week rosters: Atlanta, Jacksonville, Miami, Minnesota, San Diego and San Francisco.

Four seniors from Penn State's 2012 squad made NFL teams: Jordan Hill (Seattle), Gerald Hodges (Minnesota), Michael Mauti (Minnesota) and McGloin (Oakland).

MSU LONE BIG TEN TEAM O'BRIEN HAS NOT FACED

With Penn State playing Minnesota for the first time since 2010, the Nittany Lions have played five of the six Legends Division teams since Bill O'Brien became head coach in 2012.

Michigan State is the only Big Ten team Penn State has not played the past two seasons. The teams will be East Division rivals starting in 2014 and play annually.

O'BRIEN EARNS TRIO OF NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR HONORS; NAMED BIG TEN COY

When you think about the challenges that occurred during Bill O'Brien's first season at the helm of the Nittany Lions the distinction of Coach of the Year might not be saying enough.

His on-field and off-field resume garnered the first year head coach to the Big Ten Dave McClain Coach of the Year award and a trio of National Coach of the Year accolades.

O'Brien was the Bear Bryant, Maxwell Football Club and ESPN National Coach of the Year after leading Penn State to an 8-4 overall mark and a 6-2 record in the Big Ten, finishing second in the Leaders Division. The Nittany Lions won eight of their final 10 games, capped by a Senior Day overtime win over Wisconsin, the eventual Big Ten champion.

O'Brien's eight wins in 2012 were the most by a first-year Penn State head coach.

FOUR NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP COACHES

Four members of the Penn State coaching staff have been members of national championship staffs, including a pair of Bowl Championship Series titles:

- Mac McWhorter, offensive line - Texas, 2005
- Stan Hixon, assistant head coach - LSU, 2003
- Ron Vanderlinden, linebackers - Colorado, 1990
- Charlie Fisher, quarterbacks - Eastern Ky., 1982

COACHING STAFF CONNECTIONS

When Bill O'Brien was hired he began to compile a staff of people in which he had a prior connection with.

In all, seven coaches on O'Brien's staff have previously worked with at least one other member of the 2013 Nittany Lion coaching staff prior to this season. Among some of the coaching staff ties:

- O'Brien worked with Stan Hixon and Mac McWhorter at Georgia Tech during O'Brien's eight-year tenure on the Yellow Jackets' staff (1995-2002);
- O'Brien worked with Charles London and John Strollo at Duke in 2005-06;
- O'Brien also worked with Craig Fitzgerald, Director of Strength and Conditioning for Football, in 2003-04 when they were on the staff at Maryland;
- John Butler worked with Craig Fitzgerald at Harvard in 2005-06 and at South Carolina in 2011, helping the Gamecocks to 11 wins and their first-ever top 10 finish;
- Larry Johnson and Ron Vanderlinden have worked together as Penn State assistant coaches on the defensive side of the ball since 2001.

O'BRIEN IN ELITE COMPANY AMONG BIG TEN FIRST-YEAR COACHES

When Penn State won its third straight Big Ten road game at Purdue on Nov. 3, 2012, head coach Bill O'Brien etched his name into some elite company in Big Ten history.

By defeating Illinois, Iowa and Purdue away from Beaver Stadium last season, O'Brien became just the fifth Big Ten coach since 1950 to win his first three road games, joining: Jim Valek (Illinois, 1967), Earle Bruce (Ohio St., 1979), Hayden Fry (Iowa, 1979) and Urban Meyer (Ohio St., 2012).

PURDUE GAME NOTES

MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY ACTIVITIES

Penn State will honor those who serve our nation during Military Appreciation Day on Saturday. The activities include a pre-game tailgate for more than 2,000 service members and their families attending the game as part of the "Seats For Soldiers" ticket program, as well as the individuals and businesses who donated tickets to service members.

The "Seats For Soldiers" program was designed to allow United States military service members, active or reserve, Wounded Warriors, their direct dependent, veterans and Gold Star families residing in Pennsylvania to apply for tickets and attend the contest.

Members of ROTC elite, active duty, Wounded Warriors and veterans will be honored for their service during halftime.

ROBINSON BREAKS SEASON RECEIVING MARK

With a seven-catch, 63-yard effort at Minnesota, junior Allen Robinson broke the Penn State season receiving yardage record, bringing a total of 1,106 yards into the Purdue game. Robinson, the 2012 Big Ten Receiver of the Year, eclipsed All-American Bobby Engram's total of 1,084 yards from 1995.

Robinson has 73 catches this season, just four off his school season record total of 77 from last year.

In the Penn State career record books, Robinson ranks fourth in career receiving yards (2,148) and fifth in both career touchdown catches (17) and career receptions (153).

Robinson is the first player in Penn State history with two seasons with at least 60 receptions.

ROBINSON AMONG NATION'S ELITE RECEIVERS

Allen Robinson continues to lead the Big Ten in nearly every receiving category and is among the nation's top pass catchers entering the 12th week of the season. After seven games, the junior tops the conference receiving charts with 73 catches (8.1 rpg) and 122.9 yards per game.

In the national rankings, Robinson is third in receiving yards per game and fourth in receiving yards (1,106). His 73 catches are tied for ninth in the NCAA and his 8.1 catches per game are eighth nationally. The 2012 Richter-Howard Big Ten Receiver of the Year has six touchdown receptions.

Robinson amassed 173 yards on 12 catches at Ohio State, including a dazzling career-long 65-yard catch and run, tying his season best-effort in both categories, set at Indiana on Oct. 5. The 12 catches are tied for second most in a single game, behind Freddie Scott's 13 catches vs. Wisconsin in 1995, and his 173 receiving yards are tied for eighth on the all-time single game charts.

Earlier this season, the Biletnikoff Award candidate became the third receiver in Penn State history to account for 100-yards receiving in three straight games, joining Joe Jurevicius in 1996 (at Ind., vs. N'western, at Mich.) and Kenny Jackson in 1982 (at BC, vs. N. Carolina St., at ND).

Robinson has scored at least one touchdown in five of nine games this season. He logged 133 yards on seven grabs with a 51-yard catch and run vs. Syracuse in the season opener, recorded 129 yards on seven catches with a 45-yard touchdown reception against Eastern Michigan and grabbed nine catches for 143 yards, including a 46-yarder vs. UCF.

LOCAL INJURED SOLDIER TO PARTICIPATE IN COIN TOSS

Adam Hartswick, a U.S. Army senior combat medic who was seriously injured in Afghanistan earlier this year, will participate in the coin toss before the Purdue game.

Hartswick lost both legs in an explosion in May. He is from Pine Grove Mills and a 2009 graduate of State College Area High School.

BOUNCING BACK

With its win over Illinois on Nov. 2, Penn State is 6-1 in its next game after a loss under Coach Bill O'Brien.

The Nittany Lions started last season 0-2, but have not lost consecutive games since. They have defeated Kent State, Michigan and Illinois following defeats this year.

HACKENBERG OWNS SEVERAL FRESHMAN RECORDS; AMONG TOP 10 ON ALL-TIME SEASON LISTS

Christian Hackenberg has already compiled the greatest season by a Penn State freshman quarterback and with three games remaining will have an opportunity move up the top 10 on several school season passing charts.

The Nittany Lions' starter in every game this season, Hackenberg is 178 of 306 (58.2 pct.) for 2,187 yards, with 13 touchdowns and eight interceptions. He also has rushed for two touchdowns.

Hackenberg broke his first Penn State record when he threw 55 pass attempts at Indiana on Oct. 5. He has thrown for 300 yards in three games, which is a school freshman record, and ranks second in a season, trailing only Matt McGloin's four 300-yard efforts from last season.

Hackenberg has broken the following Penn State freshman records (overall all-time PSU ranking):

- Single game passing yardage - 340 (9th)
- Single game completions - 30 (3rd)
- Single game pass attempts - 55 (1st)

- Season completions - 178 (8th)
- Season pass attempts - 306 (9th)
- Season 200-yard passing games - 6 (T-7th)
- Season 300-yard passing games - 3 (2nd)

BELTON HITS 1,000 CAREER RUSHING YARDS

Junior Bill Belton became the 41st Nittany Lion all-time to surpass 1,000 career rushing yards when he gained 47 yards on just seven carries at Minnesota.

Belton enters the Purdue game with 1,043 career yards and needs 18 yards to pass Woody Petchel

(1,058) and Duane Taylor (1,060) and move into 39th place on the list, which also includes classmate Zach Zwinak.

On Nov. 2, Belton became the 15th Nittany Lion all-time to rush for at least 200 yards in a game when he tallied 201 yards in the win over Illinois. He delivered Penn State's first 200-yard game since Larry Johnson had 279 yards vs. Michigan State in 2002.

Belton leads Penn State with 715 rushing yards this season on 135 carries (5.3) and has four rushing touchdowns. He is second on the team with 925 all-purpose yards, an average of 102.8 yards per game.

Belton is the seventh in the Big Ten in overall rushing at 79.4 ypg.

ZWINAK RUSHES FOR 150 YARDS AT MINN.; POSTS EIGHTH CAREER 100-YARD EFFORT

Junior running back Zach Zwinak posted his eighth career 100-yard rushing effort with 150 yards on 27 carries at Minnesota last week.

He also scored his ninth touchdown of the season in the first quarter against the Golden Gophers. Zwinak gained 61 yards on just five carries during Penn State's first scoring drive, including a 38-yard burst that set-up his own 12-yard touchdown run.

Zwinak's 150 yards against the Gophers were the second-highest total in his career, behind the 179-yard effort in the overtime win over Wisconsin in 2012.

Zwinak's eight 100-yard efforts are tied for 13th in school history with Richie Anderson (1989-92), Larry Johnson (1999-02) and Matt Suhey (1976-79).

In his career, Zwinak has rushed for 1,433 yards and 15 touchdowns. He ranks 26th in school history in rushing yards and his 15 touchdowns are tied for 20th in program history.

LINEBACKER U. DUO PILING UP TACKLES

Senior Glenn Carson and junior Mike Hull are displaying the traits that so many before them have shown at the linebacker position.

Five games into Big Ten play, Hull ranks second in the conference with 10.2 tackles per conference game. The junior has made at least nine tackles in every Big Ten game, including 10 at Indiana and vs. Michigan and a career-best 13 vs. Illinois. Hull also has had a critical end zone pass break-up in the wins over the Wolverines and Illini. He also contributed nine stops at Ohio State and at Minnesota.

Carson ranks eighth in the Big Ten with 8.2 tackles per game in all games and is seventh with 8.6 tackles in conference games. Carson made 11 tackles against Illinois on Nov. 2 and contributed 10 tackles at Indiana and vs. Michigan in the 4 OT victory.

Carson leads the team with 72 tackles in nine games played, while Hull, who missed two full games and parts of others due to a knee injury, has 56 stops in seven games.

OVERTIME WIN STREAK AT FIVE

College football introduced overtime during the bowl season in 1995 and adopted the system for regular season games in 1996.

Since then, Penn State has played eight overtime games, including three over the past two seasons. The last three Big Ten games the Nittany Lions have played at home have all gone into overtime.

The Nittany Lions dropped their first three contests that went to the extra period, but have won their last five overtime contests.

LIONS AMONG NATIONAL LEADERS IN FEWEST PENALTIES AND YARDS

Penn State leads the Big Ten and is No. 12 in the nation in the fewest penalty yards per game, averaging 35.33 yards per game.

Penn State ranks third in the Big Ten and 20th nationally in the fewest penalties per game, with 41 penalties for a 4.5 per game average.

LIONS IMPROVED IN THE RED ZONE

The Nittany Lions have been turning opportunity into more points in the red zone in 2013, converting 29 of 36 (80.6) visits into points.

Of the 36 visits into the red area this season, Penn State has scored 21 touchdowns and eight field goals.

The Nittany Lions have scored on 60 of their last 69 trips into the red zone dating back to the Oct. 6 contest vs. Northwestern last season.

Last year, Penn State was 44 of 56 (78.6) for the season in the red zone.

JONES MAKING MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

Senior DT DaQuan Jones dropped approximately 15 pounds in the off-season and that has helped him drop more of the opposition this season.

His 10.5 tackles for loss this season rank fifth the Big Ten this season.

Jones opened the year with a career-high nine tackles, three tackles for loss and one sack vs. Syracuse.

He followed that up by tying his career-high with nine stops and added two TFL and one sack vs. Eastern Michigan. He boasted five stops vs. UCF to move past his 2012 season total (22) for tackles with 23 through three games.

He tied his career-high for the second time in 2012 with a nine tackle effort in the Lions four overtime victory against Michigan, adding 2.0 TFL and his second career fumble recovery.

Jones eclipsed his career totals in tackles for loss and sacks in just two games in 2013, entering the season with four career tackles for loss.

The senior had 1.5 sacks entering 2013 and has already boasted two sacks for minus-16 yards.

His 46 tackles rank fifth on the squad and surpass his career total (36) entering the year. He leads all Big Ten defensive linemen in tackles at 5.1 per game.

NITTANY LIONS AMONG TOP 10 PERCENT IN FBS GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

The Penn State football team's superlative NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) is among the top 10 percent of the nation's Football Bowl Subdivision institutions and tied for second nationally among public FBS institutions.

Penn State football student-athletes that enrolled in the University from 2003-06 earned a Graduation Success Rate of 85 percent, second-highest in the Big Ten Conference and tied with Rutgers and TCU for No. 12 overall among the nation's 124 Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) institutions.

The Nittany Lions' football graduation rate was tied for No. 2 among all public FBS schools, trailing only Boise State. Penn State's graduation figure was 15 points higher than the 70 percent FBS average and was second to Northwestern among Big Ten institutions, according to the NCAA.

Penn State football student-athletes that enrolled in the University from 2003-06 earned a four-year federal graduation rate of 72 percent, also No. 2 to Northwestern among Big Ten teams. The Nittany Lions' graduation figure was 14 points above the 58 percent FBS average, according to the NCAA.

The GSR is the NCAA's more inclusive calculation of student-athlete academic success. The NCAA rate is more accurate than the federally mandated methodology because it includes incoming transfers and students enrolling in the spring semester who receive athletic aid and graduate, and deletes from the calculation student-athletes who leave an institution and were academically eligible to compete.

Penn State student-athletes that enrolled from 2003-06 earned a GSR of 88 percent, compared to the 81 percent average for Division I, according to the NCAA.

The outstanding graduation data is the latest success in a long line of academic achievement for members of the Penn State football program, who consistently are at or near the top nationally in academic success:

The Nittany Lions' 17 Academic All-Americans® over the past seven years (15 first team selections) leads the nation. Senior guard John Urschel (Williamsville, N.Y.) and 2012 senior Pete Massaro earned first-team Academic All-America® accolades last year. Penn State has had at least one first team ESPN Academic All-American® in eight of the past nine seasons;

The Nittany Lions' all-time total of 51 Academic All-America® football honorees ranks third among all FBS institutions.

A program record 28 Penn State football student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2012 for earning at least a 3.0 grade point average and being a letterwinner, bringing the Nittany Lions' total to 308 honorees since 1993.

TWELVE TRUE FRESHMEN HAVE MADE DEBUTS;

Twelve true freshmen have made their Penn State debuts through eight games in 2013, with three of them making starts. Fifteen redshirt freshmen also have played this season for a total of 27 freshmen taking the field.

Quarterback Christian Hackenberg has started each game, while tight end Adam Breneman earned his first start in the win over Eastern Michigan and wide receiver Richy Anderson – son of former Penn State running back Richie Anderson – made his first start against UCF.

Safety Von Walker has seen action returning punts and played running back earlier in the season. Gregg Garrity – son of former Nittany Lion wideout Gregg Garrity, Sr. – also has seen action. Chip Chiappialle, Adam Geiger and Dad Poquie have all made appearances on special teams this season, as well.

The defensive side of the ball has seen linebacker Brandon Bell and cornerbacks Anthony Smith and Jordan Smith make an impact early in the season. Zach Ladonis joins Anthony Smith as players who have handled long snapping duties for punter Alex Butterworth this season.

ROBINSON ASCENDS TOWARDS TOP OF RECEIVING CHARTS

Allen Robinson entered his junior season with a target on his chest and on his back, as the 2012 Richter-Howard Receiver of the Year will again be a key target in coach Bill O'Brien's offense and a main focus of opposing defenses.

Robinson's game is a perfect fit for O'Brien's up-tempo offense and continues to etch his name into the Nittany Lion record books.

On Nov. 17, 2012 vs. Indiana Robinson caught ten passes and became the first Nittany Lion to eclipse the 70 catch mark in a season. His six catches at Minnesota on Nov. 9, 2013 made him the first PSU player with multiple 70-catch seasons.

He also owns the sophomore and junior record for catches & yards in a single season.

In 2012, Robinson led the conference in catches, catches per game receiving yards, receiving yards per game and touchdowns catches in 2012.

He opened the 2013 campaign with back-to-back seven-catch, 100-plus yard efforts against Syracuse and Eastern Michigan. He posted nine catches for 143 yards vs. UCF to become the third player in school history with three consecutive 100-yard receiving games.

Robinson's 12 catches at Indiana and at Ohio State rank second in a single game by a Nittany Lion (13 - Scott vs. Wisconsin, 1995) & his 173 yards vs. the Hoosiers and Buckeyes rank eighth on the PSU single game charts. He also ranks tied for fifth on that list with 197 yards vs. Indiana in 2012.

He is assaulting the career top-10; ranking 4th in receiving yards and 5th in both touchdowns grabs and receptions.

URSCHEL EARNS NFF SCHOLAR-ATHLETE AWARD

One of the most prestigious honors a collegiate football student-athlete can earn has been bestowed upon Penn State senior John Urschel. The 2012 first team All-Big Ten guard and first-team Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-American® has been selected one of 16 National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athletes, presented by Fidelity Investments, from across all NCAA and NAIA divisions.

Urschel will receive an $18,000 scholarship for post-graduate studies. He also is a finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy, endowed by HealthSouth, presented to the nation's premier college football Scholar-Athlete, with the winner receiving a total of $25,000 for post-graduate work.

From Williamsville, N.Y., Urschel is the 17th Nittany Lion to be selected a Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete and follows another standout offensive lineman and first-team Academic All-American®, Stefan Wisniewski (2010), on the distinguished list.

Penn State is tied for third in the nation (with Notre Dame) with its 17 Scholar-Athlete recipients. Nebraska (22) and Ohio State (20) are the only schools with more honorees than Penn State.

The 2013 Scholar-Athletes will be honored at the National Football Foundation's 56th Annual black tie awards dinner on December 10 at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City.

The Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Awards are awarded on an annual basis to a select group of college football players in their senior year of eligibility who have demonstrated outstanding academic success, strong leadership, citizenship and superior football performance.

Among the other 2013 Scholar-Athletes joining Urschel are: Max Bullough (Michigan State), Derek Carr (Fresno State), Spencer Long (Nebraska), James Morris (Iowa) and Aaron Murray (Georgia). Urschel, John Arena (Johns Hopkins) and Gabe Ikard (Oklahoma) are the three Scholar-Athletes with a perfect 4.0 GPA.

In addition to Stefan Wisniewski, among the other Penn Staters to earn the prestigious Scholar-Athlete honor since its inception are: Mark Markovich (1973), Lance Hamilton (1985), Tony Pittman (1994), Jeff Hartings (1995), Wally Richardson (1996), Aaron Collins (1997) and Paul Posluszny (2006). Director of Athletics Dave Joyner was Penn State's first Scholar-Athlete recipient in 1971.

A 6-3, 301-pound guard, Urschel has established himself as one of the nation's exceptional football student-athletes. A 2012 first team CoSIDA Academic All-American®, he has earned a 4.0 grade-point average during his Penn State career and was among seven of the 171 Scholar-Athlete nominees with a 4.0 GPA from all NCAA and NAIA divisions.

Urschel has started 19 consecutive games and earned first team All-Big Ten honors last season after blocking for 1,000-yard rusher Zach Zwinak and 3,000-yard passer Matt McGloin. He is on the Watch Lists for the 2013 Outland Trophy and the Rotary Lombardi Award. Urschel also is one of 30 candidates for the Senior CLASS Award.

A Penn State game captain three times in the first seven contests this season, Urschel earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in mathematics over the past four years. The former Canisius High School standout anchors the Nittany Lions' offensive line, and is working on a second master's degree, in math education.

Urschel has an opportunity this fall to earn his fourth straight nod on the Academic All-Big Ten squad, his third selection to the Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District® team and his second Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America® selection.

Urschel taught a section of Math 041 - Trigonometry and Analytic Geometry - during Penn State's spring 2013 semester and is teaching a section of Math 232 - Integral Vector Calculus - this semester, in addition to his academic and football responsibilities. Urschel has participated in the Penn State Lift for Life, THON events, the Relay for Life and the Special Olympics Pennsylvania State Summer Games during his collegiate career.

A paper written by Urschel titled, "Instabilities of the Sun-Jupiter-Asteroid Three Body Problem" was published in 2012 in the journal, Celestial Mechanics and Dynamic Astronomy. He has a second paper accepted for publication, "A Space-Time Multigrad Method for the Numerical Valuation of Barrier Options" in the journal, Communications in Mathematical Finance.

LB Glenn Carson, cornerback Jordan Lucas, DE C.J. Olaniyan, T Donovan Smith and S Malcolm Willis earned third team All-Big Ten recognition by Phil Steele.

Also, for the second consecutive year, sophomore Kyle Carter was named to the John Mackey Award Mid-season Watch List. The Mackey Award is presented to the nation's top tight end.

HACKENBERG EARNS ANOTHER FRESHMAN HONOR

True freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg (Palmyra, Va.) was selected Athlon Sports' Big Ten Freshman of the Week for the second time this season for his efforts in the win over Illinois. He has earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week from the conference office three times this year.

Hackenberg helped lead Penn State to its second consecutive home overtime win to earn Athlon Sports' Big Ten Freshman honor. He was 20 of 32 (62.5) for 240 yards, with one touchdown and no interceptions against the Illini. He also ran for a nine-yard score in the second quarter. In overtime, he rifled a 15-yard scoring strike to tight end Kyle Carter to give Penn State a 24-17 lead. On Illinois' first play in the extra session, cornerback Adrian Amos broke up a pass in the end zone that was intercepted by safety Ryan Keiser, giving Penn State its fifth consecutive overtime win.

HACKENBERG HAVING A STRONG ROOKIE SEASON

True freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg has quickly grasped Bill O'Brien's diverse and dynamic offense.

He has completed 178-of-306 passes (58.2 percent), for 2,187 passing yards and 13 touchdown passes in nine starts. Five of his 13 scoring strikes have been 45 yards or longer.

Hackenberg has been selected Big Ten Freshman of the Week three times, earning the honor after the season opening win over Syracuse, against UCF and after leading a fourth quarter comeback and 4OT victory over Michigan.

The former Fork Union Military Academy All-American has quickly moved among the top signal callers in the Big Ten and in the NCAA.

He ranks second in the Big Ten and is 32nd in the nation in completions per game (19.8) and sits 36th in the NCAA in passing yards per game (243.0). He is tied for eighth in the Big Ten with 13 touchdown passes and is fifth in the conference and 55th nationally in total offense (233.7).

Hackenberg has thrown for at least 250 yards in five of the team's nine games, including three 300-yard efforts, and his eight completions of 40-plus yards are tied for 24th in the nation.

He has connected with Allen Robinson on seven of those passes, with Geno Lewis on the receiving end of the other. Three of those tosses have netted over 50 yards and four of them have went for touchdowns.

Hackenberg has broken the Penn State single game record for passing yards by a freshman twice this season, doing so at Indiana with 340 yards after he threw for 311 yards in the win over Eastern Michigan to top Zack Mills' freshman yardage mark of 280 yards. Mills accomplished that feat twice, against Ohio State and Southern Miss in 2001.

He has thrown at least 200 yards in six games this season, breaking Zack Mills' freshman record of five from the 2001 season.

Hackenberg's six 200-yard games are tied for 11th in a Penn State history.

Hackenberg became just the fourth Penn State signal caller to amass 50 passing attempts in a game, breaking Kerry Collins school record of 54 (at BYU, 1992), when he threw the ball 55 times at Indiana. His 30 completions vs. the Hoosiers are third on the PSU single game charts.

He is one of only four quarterbacks in PSU history to post multiple 300-plus yard passing games in career, ranking third in school history with three such games. Hackenberg trails Matt McGloin (six) and Kerry Collins (four) on the 300-yard passing games list.

CARTER AGAIN NAMED TO MACKEY AWARD MIDSEASON WATCH LIST

After being the only freshman on the Midseason watch list last season, sophomore tight end Kyle Carter was one of four underclassmen named to the Mackey Award Midseason Watch List in 2013. The award is given to the nation's top tight end.

A 2012 consensus first-team Freshman All-American, Carter suffered an arm injury early in the Syracuse game and didn't record a catch, but has made 14 receptions for 186 yards and a touchdown in the past five games played.

Last season, Carter ranked second on the team with 36 receptions for 453 yards and was the lone freshman to rank among the Big Ten leaders in receptions and receiving yards per game in 2012.

He made six catches of 20-or-more yards, despite missing three of the final four games in 2012 due to injury, and caught a pair of touchdown passes on the season.

URSCHEL A FINALIST FOR PRESTIGIOUS SENIOR CLASS AWARD

Senior John Urschel was selected as a finalist for the Senior CLASS Award, presented by Premier Sports Management, which is awarded to an NCAA FBS student-athlete that excels both on and off the field.

The 2012 first team All-Big Ten guard and first-team Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-American® has been selected one of 10 finalists for the award. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as a senior at an NCAA Division I FBS program and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition.

Urschel, Derek Carr (Fresno State) and Gabe Ikard (Oklahoma) are the nation's only players selected a Senior CLASS finalist as well as a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete.

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School (CLASS), the award program is designed exclusively for college seniors who are utilizing their complete athletic eligibility, remaining committed to their university and pursuing the many rewards a senior season can bring.

The 10 finalists were chosen by a media committee from the initial list of 30 candidates and nationwide fan voting begins immediately to help select the winner. Fans can vote daily and the votes will be combined with media and Division I head coaches' votes to determine the winner. The Senior CLASS Award winner will be announced in early January, 2014.

Fans can vote for Urschel daily through Dec. 16 at seniorCLASSaward.com.

Already this season, Urschel has been named a recipient of the National Football Foundation's Scholar-Athlete Scholarship and is a finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy, endowed by HealthSouth, presented to the nation's premier college football Scholar-Athlete.

A 6-3, 301-pound guard, Urschel has established himself as one of the nation's exceptional football student-athletes. A 2012 first team CoSIDA Academic All-American®, he has earned a 4.0 grade-point average during his Penn State career.

BELTON EARNS BIG TEN ACCOLADES AFTER 201-YARD RUSHING EFFORT VS. ILLINI

Junior running back Bill Belton (Sicklerville, N.J.) was honored by the Big Ten Conference for his career-high 201-yard rushing effort in Penn State's 24-17 overtime win over Illinois last Saturday.

Belton was selected Big Ten Co-Offensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career. He becomes the fourth Nittany Lion to earn conference honors this season, joining placekicker Sam Ficken, quarterback Christian Hackenberg and defensive end C.J. Olaniyan. Belton shares the Big Ten weekly honor with Minnesota quarterback Philip Nelson.

Belton delivered the first 200-yard rushing game by a Nittany Lion (24th overall) since Larry Johnson ran for 279 yards against Michigan State in 2002. Belton crushed his previous career-high of 108 in the win over Eastern Michigan on Sept. 7. His 36 carries also were a career-best and the most by a Nittany Lion since Zach Zwinak had 36 last season against Wisconsin.

A former first-team All-South Jersey standout at Winslow Township High School, Belton got the Nittany Lions on the scoreboard first with a five-yard touchdown run early in the first quarter. He averaged 5.6 yards per carry against Illinois and also caught two passes for eight yards, giving him a career-high 209 all-purpose yards. He eclipsed 100 rushing yards for the third time in his career.

Belton's 201-yard rushing performance is third-highest in the Big Ten this season.

BELTON CONTINUES STRONG PLAY VS. BUCKEYES

Junior running back Bill Belton gained 98 rushing yards at Ohio State - the most allowed by the Buckeyes this season - on 22 carries. Belton gained 78 yards in the first half to surpass the most Ohio State had allowed in a game this season -- 74 yards by Wisconsin's Melvin Gordon.

Making his first start this season, Belton also caught one pass for nine yards to accumulate 107 all-purpose yards vs. the Buckeyes.

LIONS WIN LONGEST GAME IN BIG HISTORY

When Bill Belton scored the game-winning touchdown in the fourth overtime against Michigan on Oct. 12 he capped a 10-point comeback in the final 6:35 and ended the longest game in the 118-year gridiron history of the Big Ten Conference.

The four extra frames are the longest Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) game this season.

Penn State's previous longest game was its 26-23, three overtime win over Florida State in the 2006 FedEx Orange Bowl.

FOLLOWING BYE WEEK

Penn State has a 15-10 on-field record after a bye week since starting Big Ten competition in 1993.

The Nittany Lions fell at Indiana on Oct. 5 after their first of two byes this season. The Nittany Lions won at Iowa in 2012 following their only bye week during last season.

Penn State has played on the road following a bye five out of the last six times dating to the 2005 season.

Penn State will also have two bye weeks during the 2014 season.

LIONS UNDER THE LIGHTS

The Nittany Lions played their second straight night game and third of the season at Ohio State on Oct. 26.

Penn State and Ohio State played their fifth primetime game since 2005, with Penn State winning twice.

Penn State fell, 34-31, to UCF on Sept. 14 in its first non-conference night game since playing at Alabama in 2010 and hosted its first non-conference night game since Notre Dame in 2007.

On Oct. 12, the Lions hosted Michigan under the lights and claimed a 43-40 decision in four overtimes with an energized sellout crowd of 107,844 on hand for Homecoming.

This year marks the sixth time since 2000 that Penn State will play multiple night games in the same season.

Penn State has played at least one regular season night game in 14 consecutive seasons.

Penn State has a 39-25 on-field record in night games, going 9-9 at home, 19-9 on the road, 1-1 at regular season neutral sites and 10-6 in bowl games.

The Lions' night games over the past 14 seasons include: Ohio State, Michigan and UCF (2013); Iowa and Ohio State (2012); Northwestern (2011); Alabama, Iowa and Michigan (2010); Iowa (2009); Illinois, Wisconsin and Ohio State (2008); Notre Dame, Ohio State and Texas A&M (2007); Michigan (2006); Illinois, Ohio State and Florida State (2005); Minnesota and Boston College (2004); Nebraska (2002 and '03); Miami (Fla.) (2001) and Indiana (2000).

Robinson was an All-American in 1962 and also has been enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame.

OFFENSE RUNS PERFECT "TWO MINUTE" DRILL AGAINST MICHIGAN

It is a situation the offense practices every day under Coach Bill O'Brien; under two minutes left in the game with the ball deep in their own territory and they need a touchdown to tie or win the game.

Trailing by a touchdown to No. 18 Michigan, true freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg and the Penn State offense trotted out onto the field needing to travel 80 yards in 50 seconds to tie the game, with no timeouts.

The sequence that unfolded was a clinic on how to run the "two minute drill".

A 14-yard completion on the Penn State sideline to Allen Robinson, where he drug his toe to keep himself in bounds, started the drive.

Hackenberg then fit a pass into a small window between two UM defenders to a leaping Brandon Felder along the Michigan sideline for a 29-yard completion. After spiking the ball to stop the clock, Hackenberg found Robinson, who made an outstanding leaping grab of 36 yards at the one yard line.

After a Michigan timeout, Hackenberg's quarterback sneak and Sam Ficken's extra point tied the game. It was the first career rushing touchdown for Hackenberg and was the first touchdown Michigan had allowed on the ground in 2013.

The drive traveled 80 yards on five plays and took just 23 seconds.

HACKENBERG, OLANIYAN EARN BIG TEN HONORS AFTER STANDOUT EFFORTS VS. MICHIGAN

Junior defensive end C.J. Olaniyan and true freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg were honored by the Big Ten Conference for their efforts in Penn State's thrilling, 43-40, four overtime win over No. 18 Michigan.

Olaniyan was selected Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career and Hackenberg was named the conference's Freshman of the Week for the third time in six games. His three selections are the most by a Big Ten freshman on offense or defense since 2010 (Nathan Scheelhaase, Illinois, 6; James White, Wisconsin, 4).

Olaniyan delivered his best career game against Michigan, setting career-highs with eight tackles and 2.5 sacks (minus-18), while also forcing his first career fumble, which was recovered by DaQuan Jones. He also broke up two passes. Olaniyan was instrumental in the Penn State defense not allowing Michigan to score a touchdown in the four overtime periods and holding the Wolverines' running backs to 28 rushing yards on 30 carries.

Olaniyan is the sixth different Penn State defensive end since 1999, all under defensive line coach Larry Johnson, to earn Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors. He joins a distinguished list that includes: Courtney Brown, Michael Haynes, Tamba Hall, Maurice Evans and Aaron Maybin.

Hackenberg was instrumental in Penn State rallying from a 10-point deficit with less than 7:00 to play, forcing overtime by directing an 80-yard touchdown drive, with no timeouts, in 23 seconds. He tied the game at 34-34 with 27 seconds left on a one-yard touchdown plunge, the first of his career, and the first rushing touchdown allowed by the Wolverines in 2013.

Hackenberg was 23 of 44 for 305 yards against Michigan, tying his career-high with three touchdowns for the second consecutive game. He tossed 12- and 24-yard scoring strikes to Brandon Felder and a 20-yard touchdown pass to Jesse James to help Penn State build a 21-10 lead.

With Penn State trailing, 34-27, with :50 to play, the Nittany Lions forced a punt and took possession at their own 20-yard line with no timeouts. Hackenberg hit Allen Robinson (Southfield, Mich.) on a 14-yard sideline strike and then Felder snared a 29-yard completion to the Michigan 37. Robinson then made a leaping grab at the one-yard-line to set-up Hackenberg's sneak, sending Beaver Stadium into a frenzy.

Hackenberg posted his third 300-yard passing game, tying him with Daryll Clark (2006-09) for third most in school history in a career. He trails only Matt McGloin's six 300-yard games and Kerry Collins' four career 300-yard efforts.

HACKENBERG, OLANIYAN HONORED BY ATHLON SPORTS AFTER 40T WIN OVER MICHIGAN

Athlon Sports selected quarterback Christian Hackenberg as its National Freshman of the Week after he led the Nittany Lions to a thrilling 43-40 four overtime win over No. 18 Michigan, also tabbing the true freshman as its Big Ten Freshman of the Week.

In addition, Athlon selected Nittany Lion defensive end C.J. Olaniyan as its Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week.

Hackenberg helped Penn State rally from a 10-point deficit with less than 7:00 to play, forcing overtime by directing an 80-yard touchdown drive, with no timeouts, in :23. He tied the game at 34-34 with :27 on a one-yard touchdown run, the first of his career, and the first rushing touchdown allowed by the Wolverines this season.

Olaniyan delivered his best career game against Michigan, setting career-highs with eight tackles and 2.5 sacks (minus-18), while also forcing his first career fumble, which was recovered by DaQuan Jones. He also broke up two passes.

DEFENSE INVADES MICHIGAN BACKFIELD

The Penn State defense marked their territory in the 43-40 victory over Michigan, getting into the backfield to disrupt the Wolverines offense on numerous occasions.

As a team, the Nittany Lions piled up season-high 11 tackles for loss and recorded three sacks for the fourth time in 2013 against the previously unbeaten Wolverines.

Penn State held Michigan's running backs to 28 rushing yards on 30 carries.

Junior defensive end C.J. Olaniyan led the charge with 2.5 sacks - doubling his career total entering the game - and adding 2.5 tackles for loss to bring his season total to 5.5 TFL.

Linebacker Mike Hull and defensive tackle DaQuan Jones both ended the afternoon with 2.0 TFL, while DT Kyle Baublitz, DT Austin Johnson and S/LB Stephen Obeng-Agyapong each chipped in 1.0 TFL.

LB Glenn Carson, DT Brian Gaia and LB Nyeem Wartman each ended the day with 0.5 TFL, with Carson also earning 0.5 sack on the game.

Olaniyan also forced his first career fumble, which was recovered by Jones, while Jordan Lucas and Anthony Zettel each grabbed interceptions against the Wolverines.

EIGHT ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® NOMINEES

The Penn State football team has had a least one Capital One Academic All-America® in 10 of the past 11 seasons, including a school record five in 2008 and three more in 2009 and again in 2010.

Fifth-year senior guard John Urschel graduated in May 2012 with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in mathematics and received his master's in math in May 2013. Urschel and 2012 senior Pete Massaro earned first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America® accolades last year.

The Nittany Lions' 51 all-time Academic All-Americans® rank No. 3 in the nation among Football Bowl Subdivision programs.

Nominees for Capital One Academic All-America® consideration must have at least a 3.30 cumulative grade point average and be a starter or key reserve.

HACKENBERG HAS RECORD DAY AT INDIANA

In just the fifth start of his career, true freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg broke the Penn State record with 55 passing attempts at Indiana last Saturday.

Hackenberg is one of just four Penn State passers to attempt more than 50 passes in a game, joining Kerry Collins (54, 1992 at BYU), Rashard Casey (51, 2000 vs. Iowa) and Matt McGloin (51, 2012 vs. Northwestern).

Hackenberg also set career-highs with 30 completions, 340 yards and three touchdown passes at Indiana. The 30 completions are third most in school history and his 340 passing yards rank ninth in single game history.

Earlier this season, Hackenberg threw for 311 yards vs. Eastern Michigan, making him the 11th Penn State quarterback to throw for 300 yards in a game and his 340 yards at Indiana make him just the fourth Nittany Lion signal caller to put together multiple 300-yard passing games in a career. He joins Matt McGloin (6), Kerry Collins (4) and Daryll Clark (3) on the list.

HACKENBERG EARNS SECOND BIG TEN FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONORS

For the second time in three weeks, quarterback Christian Hackenberg was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week.

Hackenberg was 21 of 28 for 262 yards, with one touchdown and no interceptions in the 34-31 loss to unbeaten UCF. He connected with Allen Robinson on a five-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter and also found Robinson on 44 and 46-yard completions.

Hackenberg also was honored by the Big Ten after the season opening win over Syracuse, when he became just the third Penn State true freshman quarterback to start the season opener since 1910.

LIONS' DEFENSE DIMS GOLDEN FLASHES

The Penn State defense delivered an impressive performance in the 34-0 victory over Kent State on Sept. 21.

The Nittany Lions defense limited the Golden Flashes to just 190 yards of total offense and only nine first downs in the game to earn their first shutout since blanking Kent State on Sept. 18, 2010.

The nine first downs were the fewest allowed by the Penn State defense since holding Indiana State to eight first downs in 2011.

Senior safety Ryan Keiser grabbed his first career interception and his first career sack against Kent State, to go along with a career-high four tackles.

The Blue and White limited KSU to just 56 yards rushing, a season-low total for an opponent.

LYNCH NETS SECOND 100-YARD RUSHING DAY

Redshirt freshman Akeel Lynch has made the most of his opportunities the last three games, with two 100-yard efforts.

He carried the ball a game-high 13 times for 108 yards vs. Eastern Michigan, which tied teammate Bill Belton for game-high honors.

He toted the ball five times for 32 yards against UCF, but stepped up and delivered a game-high 123 yards on 14 carries against Kent State.

His second 100-yard rushing effort makes him the 49th player in Penn State history to record multiple 100-yard games in a career.

ZWINAK SCORING STREAK

Junior Zach Zwinak scored a touchdown in the final three games of 2012 en route to a 1,000-yard season, but did not reach the end zone against Syracuse in the season opener.

But, over the next three games, Zwinak scored eight times on the ground, including three trips to paydirt against UCF and Kent State. He is tied for fifth nationally with eight rushing touchdowns.

He has already set a career-high with eight touchdowns on the season and can become the 16th player - 19th time overall - in Penn State history with 10-plus rushing scores in a single season.

Zwinak also scored in three straight games to end the 2012 season, tallying one touchdown at Nebraska, vs. Indiana and against Wisconsin.

FICKEN'S 54-YARDER SETS SCHOOL RECORD

It wasn't an ideal day to be attempting a record-setting kick, but junior Sam Ficken executed his steps, and followed through, but he didn't get to see it split the uprights after holder Alex Butterworth mugged him soon after he kicked it.

The 54-yard field goal with 2:45 remaining in the Kent State game was the longest field goal made by a Penn State kicker in home game history.

The longest field goal at Beaver Stadium belongs to Gary Homer from Ohio University, who connected on a 57-yarder in 1973.

Ficken's 54-yarder is tied for the fourth longest in school history, behind Chris Barr's trio of 55-yarders in 1975. It was the longest kick by a Penn State placekicker since Herb Menhardt's 54-yard kick to beat NC State in 1979.

Ficken's kick is tied for the fifth-longest field goal in the NCAA and has the longest field goal by a Big Ten kicker this season.

The last 50-plus yard kick by a Penn State kicker prior to Ficken's boot was in 2008 by Kevin Kelly. That season, Kelly made a 52-yarder vs. Syracuse and connected on a 50-yarder at Wisconsin.

TRIO OF NITTANY LIONS WITH 100 RUSHING YARDS FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 2007

When junior Zach Zwinak piled up 129 yards and three touchdowns against UCF on Sept. 14 he became the third Penn State running back to post a 100-yard rushing game during the 2013 season. It was the seventh career 100-yard game for the Frederick, Md. native, which ties him for 16th all-time at Penn State.

Zwinak joined junior Bill Belton and freshman Akeel Lynch as 100-yard rushers in 2013. Belton and Lynch each contributed 108 rushing yards in the Nittany Lions, 45-7, victory over Eastern Michigan on Sept. 7. Lynch carried the ball a team-high 13 times and scored his first career touchdown on an 18-yard jaunt in the fourth quarter. Belton needed only nine carries to eclipse the 100-yard mark, including two touchdowns, one a 51-yard burst in the fourth quarter.

Lynch added his second 100-yard effort of the season with 123 yards on 14 carries against Kent State to become the 49th player in school history to accumulate multiple 100-yard rushing games, a club that Belton and Zwinak both belong to, as well.

The last time Penn State had three 100-yard rushers in the same season was during the 2007 season when senior Rodney Kinlaw, freshman Evan Royster and senior Austin Scott all delivered such games. Kinlaw led the way in 2007 with six, 100-yard games, including three in Big Ten play and a 143-yard effort against Texas A&M in the Alamo Bowl. Royster ran for 126 yards at Illinois and Scott posted the last of his four career 100-yard game in 2007 with 116 against Notre Dame under the lights at Beaver Stadium.

FICKEN NETS 20TH CAREER FIELD GOAL; SETS CONSECUTIVE MAKES RECORD AT 15

When junior Sam Ficken connected on a career-long 47-yard field goal in the second quarter against UCF it marked his 15th consecutive successful FG attempt and 20th career field goal as a Nittany Lion. Ficken is the 15th Nittany Lion all-time to connect on at least 20 field goals.

Ficken made his final 10 kicks of the 2012 campaign and moved his consecutive makes streak to 13 with a 3-for-3 day against Syracuse in the season opener at MetLife Stadium. His 39-yard field goal with 17-seconds left in the second quarter vs. Eastern Michigan split the uprights to set a new Penn State record for consecutive field goals made.

ZWINAK TOPS 100-YARD MARK AGAINST UCF

Hard-charging RB Zach Zwinak needed just 21 carries to amass 128 yards vs. UCF for his seventh career 100-yard rushing game. He averaged 6.1 yards per carry and had a 38-yard burst vs. the Knights.

Against the Knights, Zwinak ran for a career-best three touchdowns (4, 9, 1 yards) and caught one pass for 19 yards, giving him 147 all-purpose yards.

The Lions' fourth scoring drive vs. UCF was all Zwinak, as he ran for 44 yards and caught his lone pass of the game. He gained all 63 of Penn State's yards on the drive, with two UCF penalties accounting for the other 18 yards.

SEVEN MAKE FIRST STARTS; 15 GET FIRST APPEARANCE VS. SYRACUSE

Four Nittany Lions made their first career starts, while 15 players saw their first game action wearing the blue and white, in the 23-17 season opening win over Syracuse.

Christian Hackenberg was the only true freshman starter for the Lions against the Orange, while junior Kyle Baublitz, sophomore Jordan Lucas and redshirt freshman Nyeem Wartman all made their first career starts. Freshman tight end Adam Breneman made his first career start vs. Eastern Michigan and freshmen wideouts Richy Anderson and Geno Lewis started against UCF.

Anderson, Breneman, Hackenberg, Anthony Smith, Jordan Smith and Von Walker were the six true freshmen to see game action in the season opener. Freshmen Brandon Bell and Gregg Garrity made their debuts in the win over Eastern Michigan.

EIGHT NITTANY LIONS ARE GRADUATES

Entering the 2013 season, eight Nittany Lions had earned their degrees.

Glenn Carson, Adam Gress, Stephen Obeng-Agyapong and Malcolm Willis all received their degrees at Penn State's spring commencement in May, joining Ty Howle and John Urschel as graduates on the 2013 roster. Urschel earned his master's degree in mathematics just four years after enrolling at Penn State, boasting a perfect 4.0 GPA.

Matt Lehman and Brandon Felder each earned their degrees at Summer Commencement, pushing the Lions.

Penn State is among the national leaders with eight graduates on their current roster. The Nittany Lions are tied for eighth in the NCAA with eight players holding degrees.

COIN TOSS COMMEMORATES CROKE PARK CLASSIC

Officials from Ireland's Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA) and Croke Park Stadium attended the UCF game to continue the planning for the Croke Park Classic between Penn State and UCF in 2014. The first international contest for both teams will take place on August 30, 2014 at Croke Park Stadium in Dublin.

Among the dignitaries visiting Happy Valley were Páraic Duffy, GAA Director General and Dan Rooney, the Pittsburgh Steelers' team chairman and former U.S. Ambassador to Ireland. Duffy and Rooney participated in the coin toss.

The winning team in the Croke Park Classic will earn the Dan Rooney Trophy. The Dan Rooney Trophy is a replica football made of bog yew and Pittsburgh steel. The yew comes from what remains of forests which grew six to seven thousand years ago and lie deep in the Irish midlands.

The steel is from Heinz Field, home of the National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers.

BALANCED ATTACK TOPPLES EAGLES

In Penn State's 45-7 victory over Eastern Michigan the Nittany Lions piled up 574 yards of total offense, the most by a Penn State team since their 594 yards against Coastal Carolina in 2008.

Penn State averaged 7.8 yards on its 74 plays vs. the Eagles, with 39 rushes and 35 passes on the day. The balanced attack included 286 rushing yards and 323 passing yards.

Five different players carried the football and 10 different players caught passes from the quarterback duo of Christian Hackenberg and Tyler Ferguson.

BELTON, LYNCH TOP 100 YARD MARK VS. EMU

For the 32nd time in program history Penn State had two 100-yard rushers in the same game.

Bill Belton and Akeel Lynch each piled up 108 yards vs. Eastern Michigan, marking the first time since 2010 against Northwestern that two players topped the 100-yard rushing mark.

In his first game carrying the ball, Lynch led the team with 13 carries and scored his first career touchdown. Belton toted the ball nine times and tied with Zach Zwinak for team-high with two touchdown runs.

Zwinak carried seven times for 43 yards, as well.

LEHMAN TO MISS REST OF 2013 WITH KNEE INJURY

Senior tight end Matt Lehman will miss the remainder of the season due to a serious knee injury suffered against Syracuse, head coach Bill O'Brien announced on Sept. 3.

Lehman suffered the non-contact injury to his left knee during the first quarter in the win over the Orange at MetLife Stadium. A starter against Syracuse, Lehman made two catches in the first period, including a 16-yard grab from Christian Hackenberg that resulted in a first down.

Lehman made 24 receptions for 296 yards (12.3) with three touchdowns last season, ranking fourth on the team in receptions. A starter in three games, he made a career-high five catches for 70 yards, including a 21-yard scoring grab, in the 35-7 win at Illinois.

A transfer from Shippensburg University, Lehman made the Penn State squad during team try-outs and would eventually earn a scholarship. The former Newport High School three-sport standout graduated in August with a degree in kinesiology.

CAPPELLETTI BLAZES ANOTHER TRAIL

Penn State's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1973, John Cappelletti returned to Beaver Stadium last week for a recognition of the undefeated 1973 squad, the first Nittany Lion team to earn a 12-0 record.

After announcing the more than 50 members of the 1973 squad that returned to Happy Valley for the 40th anniversary of the historic season, Cappelletti was called out of the tunnel last to a tremendous ovation.

The crowd was further elated to hear the announcement by Director of Athletics Dave Joyner that Cappelletti's iconic No. 22 jersey was to become the first number in Penn State athletics history to be retired.

Redshirt freshman Akeel Lynch, who rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown vs. Eastern Michigan, will continue to wear the number throughout his Penn State career, a request that was made by Cappelletti.

HACKENBERG, FICKEN EARN BIG TEN HONORS AFTER SEASON OPENER

Placekicker Sam Ficken and freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg were honored as Big Ten Special Team and Freshman of the Week, respectively, for their efforts in the season opening win over Syracuse at MetLife Stadium.

Their efforts helped head coach Bill O'Brien's Nittany Lions to their third consecutive game overall and their 11th win in their last 12 regular season neutral site contests.

Ficken earned his second career honor after making field goals of 36, 35 and 46 yards in the win over Syracuse. His then-career-long 46-yard connection early in the fourth quarter gave the Nittany Lions a 16-10 lead. He made both of his PAT attempts and four of his six kickoffs were touchbacks.

At the time, his three makes pushed his consecutive field goal streak to 13 and joined Northwestern's Jeff Budzien as the only Big Ten kickers to make three field goals during the opening weekend of the season.

Hackenberg became the second true freshman quarterback to start a Penn State season opener since 1910 and directed the Nittany Lions to five scoring drives in the win over the Orange.

He was 22-of-31 for 278 yards, with a pair of 50-

PENN STATE STUDENT-ATHLETES EARN 88 PERCENT GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

Penn State student-athletes continue to graduate well above their peers nationwide, earning record-setting academic performances, according to information released in October 2013 by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

The NCAA's annual study of institutions across the nation revealed Penn State student-athletes at the University Park campus earned a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 88 percent compared to the 81 percent average for all Division I institutions for students entering from 2003-04 through the 2006-07 academic year.

The Nittany Lion basketball and Lady Lion basketball teams earned perfect Graduation Success Rates of 100 percent. The Penn State football team posted a GSR of 85 percent. All three programs delivered graduation figures at least 15 points higher than the national average for their sport.

Penn State consistently ranked in the top three among Big Ten Conference institutions across a variety of key NCAA graduation data comparisons.

The superlative graduation data comes amidst a fall sports season that has three Penn State teams leading in their respective Big Ten standings (field hockey, men's soccer and women's volleyball) as the fall sports' regular season winds down. During the 2012-13 academic year, Penn State won a school record 11 conference championships, including a record eight Big Ten titles.

This is the 23rd annual release of institutional graduation rates since national "right-to-know" legislation was passed in 1990. In 2005, the NCAA Division I Committee on Academic Performance implemented the initial release of the team GSR data.

The GSR is the NCAA's more inclusive calculation of student-athlete academic success. The NCAA rate is more accurate than the federally mandated methodology because it includes incoming transfers and students enrolling in the spring semester who receive athletic aid and graduate, and deletes from the calculation student-athletes who leave an institution and were academically eligible to compete. The federal rate does neither.

In addition to releasing each institution's overall four-year Graduation Success Rate, the NCAA also released the federal graduation rates for students and student-athletes as it has for the past 23 years. The four-year federal graduation rate average for University Park student-athletes was 78 percent, tied for second among Big Ten institutions, and significantly above the 65 percent Division I average. The four-year average for University Park students was 86 percent, also far exceeding the 63 percent rate for all students nationwide.

Among the 2006-07 entering freshman class, 77 percent of Penn State student-athletes earned degrees within six years, well above the 65 percent average for all Division I institutions. The graduation rate for all Penn State students was 86 percent in the entering class of 2006-07.

The NCAA data revealed student-athletes from eight Penn State squads earned a Graduation Success Rate of 100 percent, up from five teams in the 2012 report. The men's basketball, women's basketball, field hockey, men's golf, women's lacrosse, softball, men's tennis and women's tennis teams all posted perfect GSR scores. Twenty of Penn State's 25 teams (track/cross country teams combined) earned a Graduation Success Rate at or above the national GSR average of 81 percent. (The NCAA data does not include the Penn State men's and women's hockey teams, which became varsity sports in the 2012-13 academic year.)

yard touchdown passes in the second half and two interceptions His 278 yards were the third-highest total by a freshman quarterback in school history at the time (280 – Mills, 2001 vs. OSU and USM).

In the second half against the Orange, Hackenberg was 11 of 16 for 209 yards and two touchdowns to extend Penn State's 6-3 halftime lead to a 23-10 advantage early in the fourth quarter.

Hackenberg became the 27th different quarterback in school history to post a 200-yard passing game and completed his first six passing attempts, including a five-yard completion to running back Zach Zwinak on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

HACKENBERG HAS SUCCESSFUL DEBUT AGAINST ORANGE

Quarterback Christian Hackenberg became just the third Penn State true freshman get the start under center in a season opener since 1910. He joined Rob Bolden, who started his first career game in 2010, as the first two true freshmen to take the opening snap of the year since 1910.

He captained 16 of the team's 17 offensive possessions and completed 22 of 31 passes for 278 yards and two touchdowns. His yardage total was the third highest for a Penn State freshman in school history at the time.

He connected with Allen Robinson and Geno Lewis for scoring strikes of 51 and 56 yards, respectively, while also throwing two interceptions.

Hackenberg completed his first six career passing attempts, including a five-yard catch by Zach Zwinak on the opening play of the game. The rookie also became the 27th different Penn State signal caller to post a 200-yard passing game.

DEFENSE HOLDS STRONG AGAINST SYRACUSE

One thing that fans knew heading into the season opener is that the Nittany Lions would be a stout defensive team and the experienced group showed why in the season opener vs. Syracuse.

John Butler's group flew around the field and created three turnovers (2 INT, 1 Fumble), amassed eight tackles-for-loss and broke up eight passes, holding the Orange to just 11 first downs and 260 yards of total offense.

The Lions limited Syracuse to 71 yards on 37 carries on the ground, a 1.9 yards per carry average, which was more than 100 yards under its season average of 178.0 yards per game in 2012.

Stephen Obeng-Agyapong made eight tackles in the game, forced and recovered a fumble and notched his first career interception and converted wide receiver Trevor Williams made his first career start at cornerback and grabbed a fourth quarter interception along the sideline to seal the victory.

DaQuan Jones had a team and career-high nine tackles, including a career-best three tackles-for-loss. With 3 tackles-for-loss vs. Syracuse, Jones surpassed his 2012 TFL total of two.

LIONS CONTINUE TO HONOR PLAYERS WITH JERSEY NAMES IN 2013

In 2012, head coach Bill O'Brien felt that something needed to be done to honor those student-athletes who kept their promise to play for Penn State after the NCAA handed down sanctions on the program.

His plan; to place the names of each player on the back of their uniforms. It was something that had never been done in the 126-year history of the program, but was symbolic.

You stuck with us, so we're sticking your name on your uniform and the 2013 season will be no different, as O'Brien and his staff have decided to keep the names on the historically elegant uniforms.

O'BRIEN TIES CONSECUTIVE WINS RECORD FOR FIRST-YEAR HEAD COACH

With a 38-14 win at Iowa last season, head coach Bill O'Brien became just the third Nittany Lion head coach to win five consecutive games in his first season at the helm.

O'Brien joined George Hoskins (1892) and Dick Harlow (1915) as the only first-year coaches to win a school record five consecutive games.

PENNSYLVANIANS ON STAFF

Penn State quarterbacks coach Charlie Fisher is a native of Allenwood, Pa., 70 miles east of State College, and attended Nittany Lion games in his youth. Secondary coach John Butler and Craig Fitzgerald attended LaSalle College High School in suburban Philadelphia at the same time, along with Keith Conlin, an All-Big Ten tackle for Penn State in 1995 and a starter for the Nittany Lions' 12-0 team in 1994.

ESPN'S ALL ACCESS: TRAINING DAYS HIGHLIGHTS NITTANY LION FOOTBALL

Fans got an inside look at the Penn State football team's preparations under Bill O'Brien through ESPN's All-Access: Penn State Training Days.

ESPN All-Access: Penn State Training Days showcased behind-the-scenes access to on- and off-field activities, team meetings and campus facilities. The segments introduced players and coaches as they completed pre-season training camp.

The program culminated with a one-hour ESPN special on Aug. 20. In addition, five Penn State vignettes were shown during College Football Live, SportsCenter and multiple on ESPNU shows. A four-part series consisting of 30-minute specials aired on ESPNU from Aug. 21-23.

Penn State joined Alabama, Ohio State and Oklahoma as the college football programs featured on the ESPN All-Access: Training Days series since its 2010 debut.

THIRTY-SEVEN LETTERWINNERS RETURNED

Penn State returned 37 lettermen from last year's 8-4 squad - 19 on offense, 16 on defense and two specialists.

Of the 37 returning letterwinners, 25 have starting experience - 15 on offense, eight on defense and the starting placekicker and punter.

One returning letterman (No. 38) was lost for the season when defensive end Brad Bars ruptured his achilles tendon during an off-season workout.

Penn State returns 16 starters for this season - eight on offense, six on defense and both specialists.

Returning on offense are guard Miles Dieffenbach, tight end Jesse James, wide receiver Brandon Felder, wide receiver Allen Robinson, tackle Donovan Smith, guard John Urschel and running back Zach Zwinak. Tackle Garry Gilliam, who started eight games at tight end last year, also returns.

TIGHT ENDS HAVE MAJOR IMPACT; RANK 2ND NATIONALLY WITH 82 RECEPTIONS

Coach Bill O'Brien indicated before the 2012 season that the tight ends would play a vital role in the Penn State offense.

By the end of the season, the Penn State tight ends had combined to make 82 catches, which ranked second in the nation behind Stanford's 90 tight end catches. Among Big Ten teams, Michigan State was second with 37 receptions by its tight ends.

A tight end caught at least one touchdown pass in nine of the team's 12 games in 2012. Thirty-two percent of Penn State receptions were made by tight ends and 10 of the 24 receiving TDs were hauled in by tight ends this season.

Sophomore Kyle Carter ranked second on the team with 36 catches for 453 yards (12.6) and grabbed his first touchdown pass at Virginia. Carter re-set his career-high with 85 yards on six catches in the 38-14 win at Iowa to earn Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors. Carter was a consensus first-team Freshman All-American.

Carter was in range of the Penn State season record for tight end receptions of 41, set by Andrew Quarless in 2009, before being injured at Nebraska.

Senior Matt Lehman made a career-high five catches for 70 yards at Illinois, including a 21-yard touchdown pass. He was fourth on the team with 24 receptions for 296 yards, including five grabs of 20 yards or more and three touchdowns during his junior season.

Butler, who will continue to coach the cornerbacks, coached the defensive backs and worked with the special teams in 2012. The Philadelphia native inherited a secondary that lost all four starters from the 2011 season and helped the 2012 squad rank second in the Big Ten and No. 16 nationally in scoring defense at 19.1 ppg.

MIDGET JOINS STAFF AS SAFETIES COACH

Anthony Midget joined the Penn State staff in February as the safeties coach after serving as defensive coordinator at Georgia State University in 2012.

Midget spent 2008-12 at Georgia State after starting his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Virginia Tech.

A third-team All-American and first-team All-Big East selection at cornerback in 1999, Midget helped the Hokies to four consecutive bowl berths, capped by an appearance in the 1999 BCS National Championship game.

The junior has been named to the Biletnikoff Award Preseason Watch List, which is awarded by the Tallahassee Quarterback Club (TQC) Foundation, Inc. The award recognizes the outstanding receiver in college football.

Robinson set a school single season record with 77 catches last season and joined Bobby Engram, the 1994 Biletnikoff Award winner, as the only other Penn State receiver to log more than 1,000 yards receiving in a season. The junior hauled in 1,013 yards worth of catches and led the Big Ten in every receiving categories.

URSCHEL ON OUTLAND TROPHY AND ROTARY LOMBARDI AWARD WATCH LISTS

Senior John Urschel has been tabbed as a preseason candidate for both the Rotary Lombardi Award, given to the top down linemen and those defensive players who line up within five yards of the football, and the Outland Trophy, presented to the nation's top interior lineman.

The 2012 first-team All-Big Ten guard and first team CoSIDA Academic All-American, Urschel will lead the Nittany Lions' offensive line this fall. The 6-foot-3, 307-pound offensive guard is among the top returning offensive linemen in the Big Ten and helped pave the way for 1,000-yard running back Zach Zwinak and 3,000-yard passer Matt McGloin in 2012.

JONES ON OUTLAND TROPHY WATCH LIST

Senior DaQuan Jones is among the preseason candidates for the Outland Trophy, presented to the nation's top interior lineman.

ROBINSON BECOMES SIXTH NITTANY LION INDUCTED INTO PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Former Penn State All-America end Dave Robinson became the sixth member of the Penn State Football family to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame earlier this year.

Robinson joined Jack Ham, Franco Harris, August Michalske, Lenny Moore and Mike Munchak as Penn State in the Hall of Fame.

From Mount Laurel, N.J., Robinson was a first-team All-American for the Nittany Lions in 1962 and a three-year letterwinner under Coach Rip Engle. He helped Penn State to a 24-8 record from 1960-62, including wins over Oregon in the 1960 Liberty Bowl and Georgia Tech in the 1961 Gator Bowl.

An offensive and defensive end, Robinson was the MVP of the 1962 Gator Bowl, despite the Nittany Lions falling to Florida, 17-7 to complete a 9-2 season. He was inducted into the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame in 1996.

The Green Bay Packers and Coach Vince Lombardi selected Robinson in the first round of the 1963 NFL Draft (14th overall selection) and he played linebacker 12 years in the NFL. He played with the Packers from 1963-72 and the Washington Redskins in 1973-74.

Robinson was selected to the Pro Bowl three times (1966-67, 1969) and twice earned Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors (1967, 1969) during his career in Green Bay. Robinson was a starter on teams that won three consecutive NFL Championships (1965-67) and Super Bowls I and II. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1960s. He intercepted 27 passes in his 12-season career.

Robinson is among 22 members of the Penn State football family who are enshrined into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame (1997). He was inducted into the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame in 1982.

15 FIRST TEAM ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS@ PAST SEVEN YEARS

The Nittany Lions continue to be at the head of the class when it comes to Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America@ selections.

John Urschel and Pete Massaro both earned the distinction in 2012, with Massaro earning his second career selection.

All-America guard Stefan Wisniewski became the first Penn State football student-athlete to earn Academic All-America@ three times, with first-team nods in 2009 and 2010.

Senior linebacker Chris Colasanti and Massaro also were first-team Academic All-Americans@ in 2010.

Penn State has earned a nation's best 17 Academic All-Americans@ over the past seven years, with 15 first team honorees. A program record five Nittany Lions were selected to the 2008 Academic All-America@ team.

The Nittany Lions' 51 Academic All-Americans@ all-time are No. 3 in the nation among Football Bowl Subdivision programs.

SAN DIEGO STATE ADDED TO 2015 SCHEDULE

The 2015 Penn State football schedule is near completion with the announcement that the Nittany Lions will host San Diego State on Sept. 26 in Beaver Stadium.

The two programs have never collided on the football field. Penn State has one non-conference game left to be scheduled to complete the 2015 schedule.

Penn State has a 4-0 record all-time against current Mountain West Conference members, having played Air Force (3-0) and Utah State (1-0). The last game against a current MWC member was in 1977, as the Nittany Lions beat Utah State in Beaver Stadium.

The Nittany Lions have met four programs from the state of California. Penn State has played against Cal, Stanford, UCLA and USC, compiling a 13-11 on-field overall mark and an 8-2 record at home.

LIONS AND HOKIES SCHEDULE FIRST MEETING ON GRIDIRON FOR 2022 SEASON

Penn State will visit Blacksburg on September 17, 2022 and Virginia Tech will travel to Beaver Stadium on Sept. 16, 2023.

Despite having campuses located less than 375 miles apart, Penn State and Virginia Tech have never met. The Nittany Lions have played Virginia (5-3), VMI (1-0) and William & Mary (4-0) from The Old Dominion, earning a cumulative 10-3 on-field record.

Virginia Tech AD Jim Weaver earned bachelor's (1967) and master's degrees (1968) from Penn State, playing center and linebacker for the Nittany Lions. A native of Harrisburg, Weaver began his coaching career with the Nittany Lions as a graduate assistant (1967-68) and was an assistant coach from 1969-72.

Virginia Tech will be the 13th Atlantic Coast Conference institution Penn State has played on the gridiron, with Duke the only other ACC team the Nittany Lions have not played. Penn State will open this season vs. Syracuse in the Orange's first game as an ACC member and played at Virginia last year.

Penn State has a 181-87-11 all-time on-field record vs. current ACC teams.

PITT RETURNS TO SCHEDULE IN 2016

Long-time rivals Penn State and Pitt will renew their rivalry that dates back to the 1893 season.

The two teams will meet every season from 2016-19. The Nittany Lions will play in Pittsburgh in 2016 and 2018 and the Panthers will play in State College in 2017 and 2019.

Penn State owns an on field record of 50-42-4 against the Panthers, but the two teams have not met since 2000.

11th ANNUAL PENN STATE UPLIFTING ATHLETES "LIFT FOR LIFE" HITS RECORD $130,000 TO BENEFIT KIDNEY CANCER ASSOCIATION

The 11th Annual Penn State Uplifting Athletes "Lift For Life" was a tremendous success on Friday, raising the 2013 total to a record total in excess of $130,000 to benefit the Kidney Cancer Association.

More than 100 members of Coach Bill O'Brien's squad participated in Friday's event, breaking their record for the fifth consecutive year, besting the 2012 total of $119,701 for the Kidney Cancer Association.

With the $133,506 in contributions from this year, more than $825,000 has been raised in the battle against rare diseases by Penn State Uplifting Athletes since the inaugural Lift For Life was held in 2003. The inaugural event raised just under $13,000. The last three Lift For Life events have all raised in excess of $100,000.

Fans can still make a "Lift For Life" donation by visiting the Penn State Uplifting Athletes donation page here.

"Lift For Life has become a great tradition where Penn State Football and our fans are able to raise more than $100,000 annually for kidney cancer patients and research," said fifth-year senior tackle Eric Shrive (West Scranton), president of Penn State's Uplifting Athletes Chapter. "I couldn't be prouder to be a part of such a great tradition."

During Shrive's Penn State career, he has personally raised more than $112,000 for Lift For Life, including in excess of $42,000 for the 2013 event. He was selected the 2013 Uplifting Athletes' Rare Disease Champion earlier this year.

The Penn State Lift For Life was held outdoors at the Penn State Lacrosse Field for the second consecutive year. The defense posted a 220-152 victory over the offense during the five strength and conditioning competitions, winning two of the three tug-of-war battles to conclude the event. The competitions included an obstacle course, sand bag stack (100-lb. sand bags), sled pull and push, keg carry (150 pounds of sand) and the tug of war.

The offense won the 2012 Lift For Life, 176-136, over the defense.

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has approved eight new therapies for the treatment of kidney cancer in the U.S. since the first Lift For Life in 2003. The Kidney Cancer Association has credited the Penn State Lift For Life as being a catalyst for the new treatments, according to Scott Shirley, Uplifting Athletes Executive Director.

Founded by Penn State Football teammates Scott Shirley, Dave Costlow and Damone Jones in 2003, Lift For Life has continued to build awareness and raise funds for the Kidney Cancer Association. The event is organized by Penn State Football Uplifting Athletes, whose members are on the Penn State football team, led this year by Shrive (Scranton), president of the chapter. Joining Shrive as Uplifting Athlete officers are: vice president - senior tackle Adam Gress (West Mifflin, Pa.); head of operations - senior center Ty Howle (Wake Forest, N.C.); secretary - sophomore cornerback Da'Quan Davis (Baltimore) and fundraising chairman - freshman tight end Adam Breneman (Camp Hill).

To help the Nittany Lion Football Student-Athletes reach their initial goal of a cumulative total of $1 million raised, fans can visit the team donation page at: <http://www.upliftingathletes.org>. Fans also can send checks made out to Uplifting Athletes and send to: Deloris Brobeck, Penn State Football Academic Center, Lasch Football Building, University Park, PA 16802.
