■ JON GRAHAM was instrumental in holding Bucknell and Penn post scorers well below average. The Bison's Mike Muscala entered the game averaging 17.7 ppg and posted 10 on 2-of-4 shooting. Penn's Fran Dougherty entered posting 18.6 ppg and posted 7 on 3-of-8.

■ JON GRAHAM trimmed his weight from 240 to 225 pounds for his sophomore season and added four inches to his vertical. He maintains a team-best 24 reps on the 185-pound bench press, four better than the 2012 NBA combine best. He missed five games in November and December last year with illness before coming on late in the year.

■ Former walk-on NICK COLELLA was granted a scholarship for his senior campaign. He was placed on scholarship for the second semester of last season and started six-straight games in the Big Ten. He averaged 20.8 mpg in Big Ten play, including a career-best 37 at MSU (2/8), while making 16 threes.

WE CAN RELATE: Penn State coach Patrick Chambers can relate to star guard Tim Frazier's recent injury, in fact Frazier is using the exact same motorized scooter Chambers used this summer after he underwent arthroplastic surgery to repair the knee joint on his left leg and was limited to riding the scooter and non-weight bearing crutches for six weeks and the use of crutches for two months. Chambers has said the insertion of a wedge and six screws to re-align his knee joint was one of the toughest things he's had to deal with and will use the recent experience to help guide Frazier through his rehabilitation. Frazier's sister, Krystal, also suffered a ruptured Achilles, during a standout basketball career at Rice that saw her earn All-Conference USA honors.

NEWBILL ON POINT: D.J. Newbill, a natural off-guard, has taken over point guard duties since the injury to Tim Frazier in the fourth game of the season. He is logging big minutes at the position playing 35.6 per game to led the Big Ten. Working through growing pains at the position, he has posted five-straight double-digit scoring games (including two 20-point outings) since taking over and is averaging 15.4 ppg and 4.8 apg since moving to the point. The bulk of his turnovers have come in the first half as he adjusts to running the offense. He had six in the first half vs. B.C. and none in the second. On the year he has 22 first half turnovers and just seven second half.

NOTES FROM THE PENN WIN:

- Ross Travis led PSU in rebounding for the fourth straight game with 8 vs. Penn.
- Jermaine Marshall led the Lions in scoring for the third straight game with 18 vs. Penn.
- D.J. Newbill posted a career high four steals vs. Penn to go with 13 points.

LIONS DROP CHALLENGE GAME TO B.C.: Penn State dropped its ACC/Big Ten Challenge contest 73-61 to Boston College on Nov. 28 to fall to 5-7 in Challenge games, having won four of the last six. The leagues tied at six wins each in the 14th Challenge, the first ever tie, as the Big Ten retained the Commissioners Cup after having won the last three Challenges. The Big Ten has three Challenge wins while the ACC has won 10 of the 14 Challenges.

NOTES FROM B.C.:

- Ross Travis led Penn State in rebounding for the fourth time on the year with a career high 13 vs. B.C.
- Jermaine Marshall scored 25 points, the second highest total of his career, to lead Penn State vs. B.C. He led the Lions in scoring for the second straight game and posted his fifth career 20-point game.
- D.J. Newbill posted his second 20-point game of the season with a career high 22 vs. B.C., going 8-of-11 at the foul line.
- Jermaine Marshall (25) and D.J. Newbill (22) combined to become the first pair of Lions to post 20 points in the same game since Tim Frazier and Cam Woodyard vs. Minnesota last year.

FRAZIER SURGERY SUCCESSFUL: Tim Frazier had successful surgery to repair his ruptured left Achilles tendon on Nov. 20. He will be in a cast for about three weeks before moving to a series of boots that will gradually flatten his foot as the tendon stretches. He is expected to have about a six month recovery period and, at the completion of the 2012-13 campaign, can apply for an NCAA Hardship Waiver to return for the 2013-14 season.

FRAZIER REMAINS ACTIVE: Since his season-ending Achilles injury, Tim Frazier has remained a vocal and active presence on the team attending every practice and shouting instructions and pulling teammates aside during breaks in the action at practice and sitting near the bench in games and encouraging his teammates. He has been particularly active in helping to guide D.J. Newbill in his transition to the point guard position and coach Patrick Chambers has referred to him as an assistant coach now.

NEWBILL HITS HIS STRIDE: D.J. Newbill averaged 14.0 ppg (tied with Tim Frazier for the team lead) and 5.0 rpg while shooting 50 percent (17-34) from the field in the Puerto Rico Tipoff. Newbill played 35 minutes per game in the tournament and added nine assists and four steals. Newbill also handled some point guard duties in the first two games of the tournament before taking over entirely in the third game after the loss of Tim Frazier to injury early in the first half.

TAYLOR LEADING TEAM IN SHOOTING: Freshman Brandon Taylor has proven to be an efficient offensive performer early in his career. He led Penn State shooting 58.3 percent (7-12) to average 5.3 ppg in the Puerto Rico Tip-Off and is now leading the team shooting 47.4 percent on the year and 38.5 percent (10-26) from three. He had posted back-to-back double-digit outings vs. Akron and Bucknell (hitting 62.5 percent (6-12 from three) while averaging 13.0 ppg) before running into foul trouble and having his minutes limited in a three-point outing vs. Boston College.

NOTES FROM THE BUCKNELL WIN:

- Freshman Brandon Taylor made his first career start in the win vs. Bucknell and hit 4-of-8 from three for a career high 16 points in just 20 minutes. Taylor's two-straight threes sparked Penn State in the second half vs. Bucknell.
- Penn State followed a 16-point first half on 16% shooting vs. Bucknell by hitting 5-of-6 from three and shooting 65% in the second half to score 44 points, its best offensive half of the season. The Lions hit 14 of their first 18 shots (77%) through the first 14:30 of the half to take a 50-43 lead.
- Jermaine Marshall hit 7-of-11 at the foul line to lead Penn State with 17 points, 15 in the second half, vs. Bucknell. It was his first time leading the Lions in scoring on the year and the fourth time on his career.
- Marshall led Penn State with four steals vs. Bucknell.
- Ross Travis led Penn State in rebounding for the third time on the year with eight vs. Bucknell.
- D.J. Newbill posted a career-best seven assists playing 37 minutes at point guard vs. Bucknell. He added 10 points and seven rebounds.
- Penn State used combinations of 1-3-1, 2-3 and man-to-man defense to limit Bucknell's Mike Muscala to just four field goal attempts and 10 points. He entered the game leading the Bison scoring 17.7 ppg.
- Penn State posted 14 offensive rebounds vs. Bucknell and allowed just 3.
- Penn State outscored Bucknell 21-15 at the three-point line, the first time this season Penn State has outscored an opponent from the arc.

FRAZIER SUFFERS SEASON-ENDING INJURY:

Senior guard Tim Frazier, a preseason candidate for both the Wooden and Naismith national player of the year awards, will miss the remainder of the 2012-13 season due to an injury suffered in the Nittany Lions' third game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off in Bayamon, Puerto Rico. Frazier had played in every game (101) the last three plus seasons. He suffered a ruptured Achilles tendon in his left leg and the 2012 first-team All-Big Ten guard underwent surgery to repair the injury on Nov. 20. A preseason All-Big Ten selection, Frazier was leading Penn State with 21.7 ppg and 5.0 apg per game and was second with 6.0 rebounds per game through three games. He suffered the injury in the Nittany Lions' fourth game, a Nov. 18 contest vs. Akron in Puerto Rico, leaving the floor at the 14:30 mark of the first half. Frazier, a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection on schedule to graduate in May with a degree in Supply Chain and Information Systems from the Smeal College of Business, is eligible to apply for an NCAA medical Hardship Waiver after the completion of the 2012-13 campaign. He had posted 25 straight double-digit scoring game, 14 of which were 20+ point outings, and had led Penn State in scoring in 28 of the last 35 games, scoring 20+ points in nine of his last 13, prior to the Akron game.

PUERTO RICO TIP-OFF WRAP-UP:

- Penn State went 1-2 in the sixth annual Puerto Rico Tip-Off in Bayamon, PR Nov. 15-18. The Lions

LIONS RALLY TO GET OT WIN OVER PROVIDENCE/FIRST UNDER CHAMBERS:

Penn State played and won its first overtime game under head coach Patrick Chambers in its second game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off downing Providence 55-52 in OT. Penn State came back from 10 points down in the second half to claim the victory. It was Chambers' third career overtime game as a head coach (2-0 at BU) and he improved to 3-0. The overtime win was the first for Penn State since a 77-73 victory over George Mason in the first round of the 2009 NIT and the Lions' first overtime game since a 79-71 loss at No. 18 Wisconsin in 2010. Tim Frazier scored nine straight points during a key second half stretch in which Penn State went from down four, 35-31, with 7:24 to play to up three, 40-37, with 2:23 left. Frazier led Penn State in scoring (19), rebounds (9), assists (7), and steals (4) while playing all 45 minutes (a career most) of the overtime game.

NEWBILL GOES FOR 16 & 7 IN RETURN TO COMPETITION: Sophomore guard D.J. Newbill (6-4) had his eyes set on Nov. 9 as his return to official collegiate competition after 20 months. He delivered posting 16 points on 9-of-10 shooting from the foul line and adding seven rebounds an assist and a steal in 35 minutes of action in a win over Saint Francis. Newbill sat out the 2011-12 season after transferring from Southern Mississippi in late August of 2011. He started all 32 games as freshman at Southern Miss, posting 9.2 ppg and 6.2 rpg to be named to the 2011 Conference USA All-Freshman Team. The 2010 Pennsylvania Class AA Player of the Year (24.2 ppg, 9.0 rpg, 5.0 apg) out of Philadelphia's Strawberry Mansion HS, he recorded six double-doubles and 15 double-digit scoring games at Southern Miss and led team in rebounding 11 times.

BIG BACKCOURT: The focus of attention all preseson, the backcourt tandem of Tim Frazier and D.J. Newbill delivered in the season opener combining for 39 points, 11 rebounds, seven assists and three steals in a 65-58 victory, delivering 60% of the team's scoring. The pair were deadly at the foul line combining to go 26-of-28 at the foul stripe on a night when the Lions shot 28-of-32 as a team. Frazier led the Lions with 23 points and six assists, his 19th career 20-point game, and, after three-straight SFU threes gave them a 31-30 lead, he took over posting a steal and five points in under a minute to regain a Penn State advantage. Newbill had 16 points and seven rebounds. Both played 35 minutes or more.

FRAZIER CRACKS 1,000/24TH IN CAREER SCORING: With 23 points in Penn State's 72-55 loss to N.C. State in its first game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off, Tim Frazier became the 30th 1,000-point scorer in Penn State history. He posted 19 in a second round win over Providence and now has 1,035 career points which is good for 24th place all-time on the scoring charts.

FRAZIER NAMED TO WOODEN TOP 50: Tim Frazier was named to the Wooden Award Men's Preseason Top 50. He is the second Nittany Lion in the last three years to be named to the preseason list joining Talor Battle who was named prior to the 2010-11 season. The Preseason Top 50 was chosen by a poll of national college basketball media members. Frazier was among nine Big Ten players named to the list, which led all conferences. The Wooden Award All American Team, consisting of the nation's top 10 players, will be announced the week of the "Elite Eight" round of the NCAA Tournament.

FRAZIER PRESEASON ALL-BIG TEN: Senior guard Tim Frazier was named to the Preseason All-Big Ten team by conference media voters. FRAZIER SENIOR CLASS AWARD CANDIDATE: Tim Frazier was one of 30 Division I men's basketball players selected as candidates for the 2012-13 Senior CLASS Award presented to a senior student-athlete with notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. The award will be trimmed to 10 finalists midway through the season with the winner announced at the 2013 NCAA Final Four in Atlanta.

FRAZIER ON PACE FOR ASSIST RECORD/TOP 5 SCORING, ASSISTS & STEALS: After a Penn State season record 198 assists last year, Tim Frazier is on pace to finish his career among the top five in Nittany Lion history in scoring, assists and steals. He stands sixth all-time in assists (459), needing 142 to eclipse the career record of 600 set by Freddie Barnes in 1992. He ranks eighth in steals with 143 and stands 24th in scoring with 1,035 points.

FRAZIER'S BIG SUMMER: Tim Frazier had a big summer playing against the nation's top collegiate players as he was invited to attend the Deron Williams Skills Academy in June in Chicago and the LeBron James Skills Academy in Las Vegas in July. Both events were conducted by Nike. One of just two Big Ten guards and 16 top collegiate guards overall invited to attend the Williams camp, Frazier was a standout while competing amongst guards such as Missouri's Phil Pressey, Arkansas' BJ Young, Murray State's Isaiah Canaan and Michigan's Trey Burke. He excelled at the camp to earn an invitation the James Academy which featured 25 top collegiate players (guards, wings and posts) that advance from the earlier Williams, Kevin Durant and Amare Stoudemire Skills Academies as well as 80 high school players.

BIGGER, STRONGER, FASTER: Some highlights of Penn State's physical improvement under strength coach Brad Pantall:

TIM FRAZIER: Added 18 reps to his 185-pound bench press since arriving at Penn State and can now do 19, one shy of the 2012 NBA Combine best...improved his max bench press by more than 115 pounds to over 300 pounds entering his final season...posted a pro-lane agility time (10.0) and 3/4 court sprint time (3.09) better than the NBA combine bests...has added 30 pounds of muscle since arriving at Penn State.

JON GRAHAM: Added four inches to his vertical leap...added 11 reps to his 185-pound bench press to now be able to perform a team high 24, far above the 2012 NBA Combine best of 20...increased his max bench press from 215 to 325.

ROSS TRAVIS: In the past year, Travis has increased his bench press max from 245 to 310 and his reps on the 185-pound bench from 10 to 22. He increased his leg press max from 325 to 615 and added 2.5 inches to his vertical (31.5). He increased his weight from 203 to 220 while maintaining his body fat and can touch a team-best 16 inches above the rim.

NICK COLELLA: Added more than six inches to his vertical leap and improved his pro-lane agility time to 10.0, tying the Penn State team record and beating the 2012 NBA Combine best...improved his bench press by 75 pounds to over 300 pounds.

SASA BOROVNJAK: Cut his weight from 242 to 230 pounds and reduced his body fat by five percent...Improved his bench over 300 pounds while cutting one second off his pro-lane agility time.

RETURNING FOR 2012-13: Penn State returns 70 percent of its scoring, 60 percent of its rebounding and 78 percent of its assists for head coach Patrick Chambers' second season at the helm. Leading the way will be first-team All-Big Ten guard Tim Frazier, a preseason All-Big Ten selection and the conference's only returning first-team selection from last year. The senior leads four returners that started at least 16 games last year. Frazier had a spectacular campaign in 2011-12 leading the Big Ten in assists (6.2) and finishing second in scoring (18.8) and steals (2.4). He led the nation accounting for 58 percent of the Lions offense (scoring and assists) and was still able to set Penn State's season assist record logging 198. Junior guard Jermaine Marshall also had the best year of his career finishing second on the team in scoring (10.8) and leading the team with 43 threes (1.4 per game) while posting four 20-point games. Sophomore forward Jon Graham (3.9 ppg, 3.7 rpg) started 17 games last year and surged in late February, averaging 9.7 ppg and 6.3 rpg over a three-game Big Ten stretch. Sophomore forward Ross Travis (4.4, 4.2) started 16 games last year and saw a similar late season surge posting 7.2 points and 5.2 rebounds per game over the final five contests. Travis finished second to Frazier (4.7 rpg) on the team in rebounding. Also seeing significant playing time last year were junior forward Sasa Borovnjak and senior guard Nick Colella. Borovnjak (4.3, 3.1) played in 32 games while starting seven and led the team shooting 56.6 percent from the floor. Colella (2.7, 1.3), a former walk-on, played in 26 games and started six while seeing significant action in Big Ten play, making 16 threes in those games, and earning a scholarship.

CHAMBERS & THE POST-SEASON: Coach Patrick Chambers missed having a team play in the post-season for the first time in his collegiate coaching career last season and has been a part of the post-season in seven of his eight seasons as a collegiate coach. In his previous five seasons as a member of the Villanova coaching staff and two as head coach at Boston University, all of his teams reached post-season play including six NCAA Tournament appearances and one CBI appearance. Chambers has been a part of 17 NCAA Tournament games, helping Villanova advance to the tournament every year and make four NCAA Sweet 16 appearances and reach the 2009 NCAA Final Four. In his first season at BU, he guided the Terriers to their first post-season win since 1959 with a victory in the CBI and the following year led BU to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2002.

117 YEARS OF HOOPS: Penn State embarked on its 117th season of playing basketball in the 2012-13 campaign, having begun play in 1897 with a pair of contests vs. Bucknell, which returns to the schedule this year for the first time since 2006. Penn State has made 12 post-season appearances in the last 24 years (4 NCAA, 8 NIT) and a total of 19 (9 NCAA, 10 NIT) overall. Since 2009, Penn State has won the program's first national tournament title (2009 NIT), made the program's first appearance in the Big Ten Tournament Championship game (2011) and played in the NCAA Tournament (2011).

STAFF TIES: Patrick Chambers began forming his first Penn State coaching staff by naming his former Episcopal Academy high school teammate Eugene Burroughs as associate head coach, the first of three assistants with strong ties to Philadelphia. Chambers and Burroughs both played for legendary coach Dan Dougherty in Philadelphia in the late 80's early 90's. Burroughs previously had worked as associate head coach at Navy. Former Villanova assistant Keith Urgo also joined the staff as an assistant. The pair worked together on Villanova's 2009 NCAA Final Four staff and Urgo worked under Jay Wright for four seasons. Brian Daly followed Chambers from Boston University where he was associate head coach under Chambers. Daly is a former Philadelphia high school standout and player at Saint Joseph's and was a highly successful high school coach at his alma mater, Monsignor Bonner HS in Philadelphia.

GET ON THE FLOOR: Patrick Chambers places an emphasis on "dives" during a basketball game and has his staff chart them with a goal of achieving at least 14 "dives" per game. Chambers has established an "Attitude Club" in which players attempt to record enough hustle points during practices and games to become a member. Penn State charts "Attitude Points" during every practice and game and announces winners at the end of every practice. Modeled after similar programs used by longtime NBA coach Pat Riley and Chambers' mentor, Villanova's Jay Wright, the club charts hustle plays, extra passes, charges drawn, dives on the floor, screen assists, shot contests, tap backs, deflections, etc.

PENN STATE GREAT TITUS IVORY SUFFERS STROKE; IN MIDST OF 6-12 MONTH RECOVERY:

One of the most beloved players in Penn State history and the emotional leader of Penn State's 2001 NCAA Sweet 16 team, Titus Ivory, suffered a stroke on Oct. 11, 2012 while on a football field supervising workouts with the members of his Hickory Grove Christian High School (Charlotte, N.C.) team. A blood clot in his left common carotid artery, put Ivory in the ICU for three days waiting minute by minute as his family and friends stood nearby awaiting a miracle to happen. His inoperable blood clot remained dormant. With the help of a tremendous medical team and a touch of grace, Titus was given a second chance. Titus is back on his feet, but the father of three, with the help of his wife (Nikki), now begins a 6-12 month journey on the road to recovery. His current mission in helping at risk youth simply exemplifies Titus's mission to share his blessings with those less fortunate.

His family, friends and former teammates have created a crowd sourcing website to help raise funds to support the Ivory family during this time with a goal of raising $50,000 so that the Ivory family can focus on recovery and not on the medical bills or the financial stress that we have all faced. Donations to Team Titus can be made at:

GREAT GRAD RATE

Coach Patrick Chambers' Nittany Lions ranked second in the Big Ten with a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 92 percent, 24 percent higher than the national average (68%), according to statistical information released by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). The NCAA's annual study of institutions nationwide revealed that Penn State student-athletes at the University Park campus earned a GSR of 88 percent compared to the 80 percent average for all Division I institutions for students entering from 2002-03 through 2005-06. The 88 percent figure was third to Northwestern (97) and Illinois (89) among Big Ten Conference institutions. Penn State basketball's NCAA four-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score of 995 through 2009-10 tied for the best among men's basketball teams in the Big Ten and was well above the national average of 945. Penn State and Michigan State tied for the Big Ten's highest APR figure, marking the fourth consecutive year the Nittany Lions ranked among the top three in the Big Ten. The four-year federal graduation rate average for University Park student-athletes was 78 percent, second to Northwestern (88) among Big Ten schools, and significantly above the 64 percent Division I average.
