STORYLINES

Up to Bat

Penn State will conclude its 2018 baseball season with a three-game series at Iowa in Duane Banks Field Thursday-Saturday. First pitch is set for 7:05 p.m. ET Thursday and Friday, while Saturday's game is set to start at 7:30 p.m. ET and will be televised live on ESPNU.

Finishing on a High Note

- Penn State enters the Iowa series on a three-game winning streak, which is its longest since winning three in a row at Elon to open the season.
- Penn State has won six of its last nine games, which is its winningest stretch since also winning six of nine games Feb. 26-Mar. 11, 2017.
- Penn State won consecutive three-game series (Michigan State (5/4-5); Xavier (5/10-11) for the first time since early in the 2017 season against Pacific (3/4-6/17) and Sacramento State (3/9-11/17).
- Penn State's six wins in the month of May are the most wins in any month this season. Penn State's previous high was four wins in all of March.
- Penn State is hitting and pitching well above its season averages over the last 13 games.
- The Lions were batting just .218 with 131 runs scored (3.97 per game) in their first 33 games, but are hitting at a .284 clip with 86 runs scored (6.62 per game) in their last 13. In their last three games, the Lions are batting .367 (36-for-98) with 30 runs scored (10 per game).
- Penn State's ERA after 33 games was nearly a season-high 6.23, but the Lions' ERA over the last 13 is 3.60. It was a minuscule 1.33 against Michigan State two weekends ago, Penn State's last Big Ten series, and 1.96 in the last three games.

Weather Woes

- Like many teams across the country Penn State was affected by inclement weather.
- The Nittany Lions had five games canceled due to weather this season, including two national television appearances on BTN, and had a series at Minnesota moved to Purdue.
- Weather shortened a pair of games, a loss to Cornell was reduced to eight innings in March due to fog, while Penn State won a rain-shortened game at Villanova Tuesday.

Top eight teams qualify for Big Ten Tournament

PROGRAM NOTES

First Varsity Sport

Baseball was Penn State's first varsity sport, playing its first games in 1875.

Five College World Series Appearances

Penn State has made five trips to the College World Series, placing as high as second in 1957. The Nittany Lions reached the CWS in 1952, 1957, 1959, 1963 and 1973. Penn State has reached the NCAA Tournament 19 times.

1996 Big Ten Champions

The 2016 season marked the 20th anniversary of Penn State's first Big Ten Championship.

Nittany Lions in Cuba

Penn State participated in a weeklong, four-game tour of Cuba, Nov. 21-28, 2015. The Nittany Lions went 1-3 in the "Cuba Baseball Friendship Tournament." The Lions played against teams from Cuba's top "professional" league, the National Series, becoming the first United States team to play multiple teams from the league and the first to earn a victory.

The team also participated in lectures about Cuban baseball, Jose Marti and the history of Cuban sports and U.S. relations.

Penn State first played Industriales in Havana's Estadio Latinamericano, falling 2-1. With the game, Penn State became the first NCAA Division I team to compete against a Cuban National Series team, the first U.S. baseball team to play in Cuba since restoration of diplomatic ties with Cuba, the second NCAA team to play in Cuba since restoration of diplomatic ties (Coastal Carolina men's basketball, August 2015) and the fifth NCAA Division I baseball team to compete in post-revolutionary Cuba.

Penn State next played Ciego de Avila, the league's defending champion. Starting pitcher Victor Garcia had pitched for Cuba in the 2009 World Baseball Classic, and the Lions were defeated, 2-0.

Penn State earned the first victory for a United States team at any level over a Cuban National Series team in game three, defeating Mayabeque, 9-3.

Nittany Lions in the Pros

According to Baseball-Almanac.com, 27 Nittany Lions have gone on to play Major League Baseball. A total of 75 have been drafted.

Three Nittany Lions are in Major League organizations. Two 2016 draft picks are entering their third pro seasons. Pitcher Jack Anderson is in the Seattle Mariners organization and infielder Jim Haley is in the Tampa Bay Rays organization.

Penn State's most recent draft pick, pitcher Sal Biasi, is entering his second season and first full season in the Kansas City Royals organization.

Did you know?

O.J. McDuffie is mostly known for his stellar career on the gridiron for Penn State and in the NFL, but he also played baseball in 1990. He stole 20 bases (t-3rd, single season-school history) on 21 attempts (96 percent clip), hit .336 and had a .969 fielding percentage. He was drafted by the California Angels in the 41st round of the 1991 MLB June Amateur Draft.

Medlar Field at Lubrano Park

Situated in the shadow of Beaver Stadium, the facility -- completed in June of 2006 -- is arguably one of the premier collegiate stadiums in the country.

The ballpark's signature is the breathtaking view of legendary Mt. Nittany, a local landmark that is near and dear to the heart of every Penn Stater. With the stadium opening to the east, spectators can peer unencumbered down the Nittany Valley for miles and on a clear day Tussey Mountain Ski Resort can be seen from 10 miles away.

Seating capacity for Medlar Field is 5,406 and 20 luxury suites allow area companies to treat clients and friends to an unmatched baseball experience. A party deck along the right field line provides a good place for friends to gather and the picnic pavilion beyond the left field fence is perfect for birthday parties and group outings.

Much like the rest of the park, the dimensions of the playing field are unique as well. A relatively short 325 feet to the left field pole stretches out to the deepest part of the park, the 410 foot nook in left center field. Straightaway center is 399 feet and the 320 foot right field fence is made more daunting with an 18.55 feet high wall, which commemorates the year Penn State was founded.

A 2,500 square foot press box can accommodate traveling and local media and has private broadcast booths for up to three radio teams. A large video scoreboard towers above the left field wall capable of providing up to the minute stats and video replays.

The stadium is named for 1982 Penn State graduate Anthony Lubrano and former Nittany Lion Head Coach Charles "Chuck" Medlar. Lubrano chose to honor Coach Medlar with a generous financial gift toward the realization of the long-discussed project. Coach Medlar served at the helm of the Penn State program for 19 years and guided the Lions to two College World Series appearances.

Team No. 130

Penn State is playing its 130th baseball season in program history.

SERIES NOTES

All-Time vs. Iowa

Penn State holds a 39-33 lead in the all-time series against the Hawkeyes, but in Iowa, the series is tied 17-17, and Iowa has won seven out of the last 10 meetings, including a series sweep in Iowa City last season. The Hawkeyes and Nittany Lions are concluding their regular seasons against each other for the third time in the last two seasons. In 2016, Penn State hosted Iowa to conclude the regular season, and the Hawkeyes took two of three to earn a berth in the Big Ten Tournament, bouncing the Nittany Lions. The all-time series dates back to 1994.

Head Coach Rick Heller

Rick Heller was named the Hawkeye head coach before the 2014 season. He has led the Hawkeyes to the best four-year stretch in program history, winning 140 games, advancing to two NCAA Regionals, and claiming the first Big Ten Tournament title in program history. In 2015, he led the Hawkeyes to an at-large bid in the NCAA Regional field and guided Iowa to its first tournament game win since 1972. Heller previously led Indiana State and Northern Iowa to the NCAA Regional and is one of five active coaches to lead three different Division I teams to regional play.

Scouting Iowa

Iowa is 30-18 overall and 10-9 in Big Ten play, ranking seventh in the Big Ten standings. The Hawkeyes will be looking to secure a position in the top eight of the conference standings to advance to the Big Ten tournament. The Hawkeyes have won seven of their last nine Big Ten series with splits in weather-shortened series against Indiana and Nebraska, but dropped their last series on the road at Northwestern. Additionally, Iowa is 17-6 at home this season. ### Hagenman Leads Rotation

- Junior RHP Justin Hagenman leads the Nittany Lions with a 4.26 ERA and 72 strikeouts (4th in Big Ten) in 68 2/3 innings pitched (t-9th in Big Ten).
- Hagenman is particularly adept at striking out hitters looking, as he ranks second in the conference with 34 backwards K's.
- Hagenman is 3-5 on the season in 12 starts, leaving with the lead three times and in a tie game once in four no decisions. Two of his losses have come when Penn State scored one or fewer runs.
- In his last Big Ten start, which was against Michigan State, Hagenman threw seven shutout innings with seven strikeouts to earn his first win since Mar. 17 against NJIT.
- The week prior against Northwestern, Hagenman worked eight innings, allowing four runs (two earned) and striking out eight. Despite leaving with a two-run lead, Penn State was unable to secure the win.
- If not for an uncharacteristic outings at Michigan (4/20) and against Xavier (5/11) in which he gave up a combined 16 runs in 6 2/3 innings, Hagenman would have a 2.54 ERA for the season. The 16 earned runs allowed represent 45.7 percent (16-of-35) of the runs he's allowed in 13 starts this season.

Biasi Complete

- In the series finale against Xavier, freshman LHP Dante Biasi threw Penn State's first complete game win (7.0 IP) since Greg Welsh did the same on May 17, 2013 against Michigan State.
- It was Penn State's first complete game overall since current junior RHP Justin Hagenman went the distance (8.0 IP) in a loss at Indiana on May 13, 2017.
- Biasi's complete game was the first for Penn State this season. Two were thrown last season, as in addition to Hagenman's, Dante's older brother Sal Biasi threw a complete game against Maryland (8.1 IP).
- Biasi is the first Penn State freshman to throw a complete game since Sean Stidfole went nine innings in a complete game win over Ohio State on April 6, 2003. It was Stidfole's first career start.
- Biasi has been Penn State's most dominant pitcher the past three weekends, going 2-0 with a 0.90 ERA in 20.0 innings pitched. He has allowed just three runs (two earned) on 10 hits and 10 walks with 12 strikeouts.

Freshmen On the Mound

- Freshmen have pitched 178 1/3 of the 397 2/3 innings pitched (45 percent) for Penn State this season and started 19 of 46 games (41 percent) this season.
- Two of Penn State's starters in the Xavier series were freshman, led by RHP Bailey Dees making his third career start Thursday and Dante Biasi making his 13th Friday. Kyle Virbitsky made his first career start at Villanova (5/15).
- Dees, Biasi and Virbitsky are three of five freshmen to draw starts on the mound along with Conor Larkin (2) and Jeff Taylor (1).
- Biasi has been a regular in the weekend rotation and ranks second on the team with 57.0 innings pitched.
- Freshman RHP Mason Mellott leads the team with four saves. His four saves are the most by a Penn State freshman since Ryan Ignas saved five games in 2009.

Tight Games

- An NCAA-leading (courtesy Chris Rash, Elon) 39 percent of Penn State's games this season (18 of 44) have been decided by one run, with Penn State going 5-13 in those 18 games.
- Penn State's 18 one-run games are its most since playing in a program-record 19 one-run games in 2006.
- Penn State's 13 one-run losses are its most in program history, surpassing the record of 12 set in 2006.
- Five of Penn State's 13 wins have been by one run, and seven have been decided by two runs or less.
- Twenty-two of Penn State's 44 games played this season have been decided by two runs or less. Penn State is 8-14 in those games.

Increasing Power

- Junior catcher Ryan Sloniger leads the team with five home runs.
- Following Sloniger are redshirt sophomore infielder Connor Klemann and sophomore outfielder Braxton Giavedoni with four each.
- Sloniger had two home runs in his first two seasons and Klemann had not hit a home run prior to this season. Giavedoni's four home runs this season best his total for all of last season.
- Penn State has 21 homers this season hit by nine different players. Parker Hendershot hit his first career home run in the series opener against Xavier.

Record Watch

- A trio of Nittany Lions are making their mark on the program's career records list.
- Junior catcher Ryan Sloniger ranks ninth all-time at Penn State with 748 putouts. He is trailing Todd Stoner, who totaled 871, (1986-89) for eighth.
- Junior pitcher Justin Hagenman ranks tied for fourth sixth all-time at 41 career starts. with Craig Clark (2004-07) and Dan Goebler (1997-00).
- Senior LHP Taylor Lehman is the only Nittany Lion pitcher to rank on both the Penn State career appearances and career starts top-10 lists. With 65, Lehman has moved into eighth, while with 38 starts, he has tied Steven Hill (2010-12) for seventh.
- Junior transfer Shea Sbranti ranks second in the Big Ten with 0.33 hit by pitches per game and third overall with 12 this season. The figure ranks him fourth all-time at Penn State in a single-season. Half of his 12 HBPs have come in his last nine games. Sbranti trails Chris Frank's 1984 season and Michael Campo's 1999 season (14) for second.
- With four saves this season, freshman pitcher Mason Mellott is one save shy of joining an eight-way tie for eighth all-time at Penn State for saves in a single-season.

Head Coach

The 2018 baseball season will be Rob Cooper's fifth as head coach of the Nittany Lion baseball program. Cooper was selected as the 14th head baseball coach in Penn State history on August 9, 2013. Not shy about stating his ultimate goal of returning Penn State to Omaha in June, the Lions have made significant strides under his leadership.

Recent program highlights under his guidance include three players drafted by MLB teams in the last two seasons after a three-year drought, while in 2016 he guided the team to its most wins since 2012. However, his strong belief in the first part of the term "student-athlete" is perhaps the top reason he has proven to be an excellent fit at Penn State. Even with state-of-the-art facilities, the chance to take on elite competition and a program history that includes five trips to the College World Series, Cooper cites the value of a Penn State degree as one of the top reasons to play baseball at Penn State.

In 2017, Sal Biasi joined 2016 MLB draftees Jim Haley and Jack Anderson as recent Nittany Lion draft selections, as the Kansas City Royals tabbed him in the 11th round, making him the earliest-selected Lion in five years. A member of Cooper's first full recruiting class, Biasi led Penn State during the 2017 season, earning All-Big Ten second team honors following a career year with a 3.48 ERA in 14 starts and 72 1/3 innings pitched and 88 strikeouts – the most by a Nittany Lion pitcher since 2009 and tied for the ninth-most in a single-season all-time at Penn State.

Biasi is the 10th player to be drafted during Cooper's career as a head coach. During a successful nine-year stint as the head coach at Wright State, seven of the players he coached were drafted, including eventual Major Leaguer Joe Smith, and 12 more signed professional free agent contracts. Haley played all three seasons at Penn State under Cooper, while Anderson dramatically improved over his final three seasons to become Penn State's all-time leader in appearances and saves.

Penn State baseball's trip to Cuba prior to the 2016 season is perhaps the best example of Cooper's commitment to the first part of the "student-athlete" term. The Nittany Lions attended academic lectures and toured Havana, becoming the first NCAA Division I team to compete against a Cuban National Series team, the first U.S. team at any level to defeat a Cuban National Series team, the first U.S. baseball team to play in Cuba since restoration of diplomatic ties with Cuba, the second NCAA team to play in Cuba since restoration of diplomatic ties (Coastal Carolina men's basketball, August 2015) and the fifth NCAA Division I baseball team to compete in post-revolutionary Cuba. The harmony between academics and athletics was on full display, as multiple Penn State professors and a group of journalism students also joined the travel party.

The rare, once-in-a-lifetime experience helped bring a young Penn State team together, and the Lions went on to earn their first winning record (overall and in conference) since 2012. The starting lineup included at least three freshmen in all but six games and five to six freshmen in 19 games, and took on nine eventual NCAA tournament teams, including a three-game series at home against College World Series participant TCU. The Lions' 28 wins were a 10-win improvement over the previous season, and its 12 Big Ten wins doubled the 2015 total and was one more than the previous two seasons combined. The season ended with a 12-inning, walk-off victory. Haley and Anderson were the first drafted out of Penn State since 2012, and Anderson and senior outfielder Greg Guers became the program's first All-Big Ten picks also since 2012. Pitcher Justin Hagenman became Penn State's first Louisville Slugger All-American since 1997.

With four completed seasons at Penn State, his student-athletes have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors 39 times, including Anderson, who in 2016 became the first Nittany Lion in six years to be named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District team. As a military history buff, Cooper's speeches to the team often include historical references. He even arranged to have the team visit the headquarters of the Navy SEAL Team VI headquarters and speak with a pair of Navy SEALs – one a Penn State alum – during a travel day on the team's 2015 spring break trip.

The Lions started making gains during his second season in Happy Valley in 2015. Penn State totaled 18 wins against a schedule ranking in the bottom third nationally during his inaugural campaign in 2014, but rose to the challenge the following season, matching the previous season's 18 wins despite playing a schedule that ranked in the upper third in difficulty and involved 10 games against top-25 opponents. The Nittany Lions rallied from a 7-0 deficit against No. 21 Indiana for their first win over a ranked opponent in three seasons and gave eighth-ranked Illinois its biggest scare during its record winning streak, battling for 15 innings. Penn State ultimately won one more conference game than the year before, despite the Big Ten enjoying arguably its most competitive season to date with a league-record five teams earning NCAA tournament bids.

A major part of Cooper's scheduling philosophy involves getting the Lions in "NCAA Regional environments" to prepare them for success beyond Memorial Day. The Lions have certainly done that the past three seasons, traveling to traditional powers Texas A&M and South Carolina (twice), while participating in a home-and-home series with TCU. ACC and Big 12 schools have also dotted the Lions' slate, as the Big Ten as a whole has staked its ground as one of the premier baseball conferences in the country despite notions that Northern schools cannot be successful.

Shortly after Cooper accepted the PSU head coaching position in 2014, the California native traveled to Taichung, Taiwan to serve as the head coach of USA Baseball's 18U National Team at the IBAF U18 World Cup. Cooper steered Team USA to an 8-1 record in World Cup play, including seven consecutive victories to win the gold medal.

Not long after the triumph in Taiwan, Cooper received one of the highest honors bestowed in the profession, as he was announced as the Rod Dedeaux USA Baseball Coach of the Year. With the honor, Cooper became just the 16th individual in the award's history to receive the accolade, joining the likes of Scott Brosius, Davey Johnson and Tommy Lasorda.

Cooper was also a member of the coaching staff for the 2007 and 2009 USA College National teams. The 2007 team earned a silver medal at the Pan Am Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Fourteen of the 20 players on the 2007 team reached the Major Leagues, including 2013 All-Star Pedro Alvarez. Fourteen of the 22 members of the 2009 team have also reached the Major Leagues, including 2015 All-Stars Gerrit Cole and Yasmani Grandall.

Cooper brought an accomplished resume to Penn State that included three NCAA Tournament appearances as a head coach at Wright State and five more at various stops as an assistant coach, including two trips to the College World Series with Miami (Florida). Cooper was twice named the Horizon League Coach of the Year and guided Wright State to three league tournament championships and two regular-season championships after the team suffered six losing seasons in the seven years before his arrival.

Cooper methodically built Wright State into a perennial contender in the Horizon League with seven 30-win seasons, two Horizon League regular-season titles, three Horizon League Tournament crowns and six Horizon League Championship game appearances. In nine seasons starting in 2005, Cooper accumulated a 286-230 record, including a pair of wins over No. 1-ranked opponents Virginia (3/5/10) and Georgia (3/24/09). He was named the Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2010 and 2011.

Cooper saw 47 players earn all-conference accolades and 18 garner all-newcomer honors. He also produced five Horizon League Players of the Year, one Pitcher of the Year, three Relief Pitchers of the Year and two Newcomers of the Year.

The 2011 season saw Cooper record his 200th coaching victory and earn the Horizon League Coach of the Year award for the second consecutive year. The Raiders won their second-straight Horizon League regular season title with a 16-7 record, claimed the league tournament crown by winning three-straight games and advanced to the NCAA Regionals in College Station, Texas. In 2010, the Raiders won the Horizon League regular-season title with a mark of 17-6, the first regular-season conference crown for the program since the 1997 squad won the Midwestern Collegiate Conference title. The 2009 Wright State Raiders compiled a 33-30 overall record and returned to the NCAA Tournament following a Horizon League tournament championship.

At season's end in 2008, Cooper watched as a school and Horizon League-record three players were drafted during the 2008 Major League Baseball First Year Player Draft. In 2007, Wright State enjoyed one of the most prolific offensive seasons in school history as it broke three career records and 11 single-season school records. Ross Oeder, a former assistant coach on Cooper's staff, was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and garnered second-team All-America Honors. The 2006 edition of the Raiders set six school records and posted the most season wins in five years. Cooper's squad defeated nationally-ranked TCU on the road, topped national-powerhouse Notre Dame in South Bend and was on the brink of an upset against eventual National Champion Oregon State in the NCAA Corvallis Regional.

Before arriving at Wright State, Cooper served as the hitting coach, recruiting coordinator and bench coach at Oral Roberts University. A perennial power of the Mid-Continent Conference (now Summit League), ORU advanced to the finals of the NCAA Austin Regional in 2004, beating TCU twice before falling to Texas, 7-3 and 7-5. The Golden Eagles finished with an overall mark of 50-11 in 2004 and had five players selected in the Major League Baseball draft, two honored as All-Americans by the ABCA and three named All-Americans by the College Baseball Insiders website.

Cooper began his coaching career at national power Miami, spending two seasons (1994-95) as a student/graduate assistant on the Hurricanes' staff. While at Miami, Cooper helped the Hurricanes to College World Series berths in 1994 and 1995. Cooper spent the 1996 season as an assistant and team academic coordinator at Wake Forest, then moved on to Tulane for the next two seasons, serving as the Green Wave's hitting coach. In 1997, the Green Wave won the Conference USA regular-season crown, and in 1998, they advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Cooper left Tulane following the 1998 season and returned to Sacramento City College, where he starred in the early 1990's before lettering at Miami in 1993.

Along with his college coaching experience, Cooper also was an associate scout for the Los Angeles Dodgers from 1990-92 and has been selected to four coaching stints with USA Baseball in 2000, 2007, 2009 and 2013.

Cooper earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Miami in 1994 and a master's in sports sciences/administration from Miami in 1996. He is married to his wife, Maureen, and has two sons, Jake and Tyson.
