HEAD COACH ALEXANDRA ANGHELESCU

Penn State Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Sandy Barbour selected Alexandra Anghelescu (On-guhl-S-coo) as the 11th head coach of the women's tennis program, as announced on July 1, 2019. A former professional on the Women's Tennis Association (WTA) Tour, Anghelescu spent the 2018-19 season as an assistant coach with the Nittany Lions.

In her first season as head coach of the Nittany Lions, Anghelescu lead the team to a 5-5 record prior to an abrupt ending due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Penn State finished with a record of .500 or over for the second consecutive season, a mark that the Nittany Lions have not achieved since the 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons. Anghelescu will look to build on this mark in her first full season at the helm.

Anghelescu helped lead the Nittany Lions to 11 wins during the 2019 spring season, the team's most dual-match victories since 2015. The Nittany Lions reached a team ranking of No. 49 in spring 2019, their first top-50 ranking since the 2016 season. Penn State also knocked off then-No. 48 VCU for its first win over a ranked opponent since 2015.

Anghelescu has also helped develop stronger spring and fall schedules during her time in Happy Valley under former coach Chris Cagle, in addition to working with the budget, structuring practice, and as a liaison with the Morgan Academic Center.

Prior to matriculating to Penn State, Anghelescu played and coached at two Atlantic Coast Conference institutions.

Anghelescu served as a volunteer assistant coach at North Carolina during the 2017-18 season. She helped the Tar Heels win the ITA National Indoor Championship, the 2018 ACC Tournament and earn the nation's No. 1 ranking for 10 consecutive weeks. North Carolina finished the 2017-18 season with five All-Americans, had five players take part in the NCAA Individual Championships and had a doubles squad advance to the NCAA semifinals.

Prior to joining the Tar Heels' staff, Anghelescu served as a certified Tennis Professional working with junior players of all levels at Life Time Fitness in Alpharetta, Georgia, in addition to serving as a 2018 USTA National Spring Team Championships

Coach. She also worked with the USTA Southern Section High Performance Camp as a Selected Coach.

Anghelescu spent her collegiate playing days at Georgia and Georgia Tech. She achieved an ITA top 10 ranking in doubles at Georgia Tech, helping the Yellow Jackets to a consistent top 15 national ranking and round of 16 appearances at the ITA National Indoor Championships and the NCAA Championships.

A native of John's Creek, Georgia, Anghelescu reached a high ranking of No. 935 as a professional on the WTA Tour in singles action and No. 957 in WTA doubles. Her top win in juniors was a victory over 2017 U.S. Open Champion Sloane Stephens.

Anghelescu graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration from Georgia Tech in 2014.

Ronit Parker joined Penn State for her first season in 2019-20, serving as assistant coach for an experienced Nittany Lion unit that finished with a 5-5 record. A former professional on the Women's Tennis Association (WTA) Tour, Parker brings experience as both a championship-winning player and coach in the Big Ten.

Parker spent the 2018-19 season on staff with the Michigan women's tennis team. Yurovsky helped guide the Wolverines to a sweep of the Big Ten championship and Big Ten Tournament title, as well as a trip to the NCAA Super Regionals. A former Michigan student-athlete herself, Parker aided the Wolverine coaching staff in conducting team practices, on-court workouts, and individual skill-specific instruction.

Parker earned All-America laurels and four All-Big Ten honors as a player at Michigan from 2012-16, leading the Wolverines to three Big Ten championships during her time in the Maize and Blue. She graduated third in singles wins (117) with an all-time winning percentage of .755. She was one of two Wolverines in program history to make four NCAA Singles Championship appearances and ended each of her four seasons ranked in the top 50.

Parker earned All-Big Ten honors in all four seasons and was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 2013. She also picked up ITA Midwest Region Rookie of the Year honors in 2013 and capped her career being named the 2016 ITA Midwest Region Senior of the Year. Michigan advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament in each of her four years and reached the Elite Eight in 2016 during her senior season. Parker was Michigan's Big Ten Female Sportsmanship honoree in 2016.

Prior to returning to her alma mater in a coaching role, Parker spent two years as a professional on the WTA Tour. She holds a career singles ranking of 357 and career doubles ranking of 276. A native of New Kensington, Pa., Parker graduated from Michigan in 2016 with a bachelor's degree in sport management.
