HEAD COACH BRAD UNDERWOOD

Career Record: 242-112 (.684), 11th year

At Illinois: 133-85 (.610), 7th year

Big Ten: 76-56 (.576)

SERIES NOTES VS. PENN STATE

All-Time Record / Streak: Illinois leads 32-22 / Penn State W-3

Last Meeting: Penn State 79, Illinois 76 (3/9/2023 at Chicago [Big Ten Tournament])

Record at University Park / Streak: Illinois leads 13-11 / Penn State W-1

Last Meeting at University Park: Penn State 93, Illinois 81 (2/14/2023)

Underwood vs. Penn State: 4-6

Opening Tips

• Coming off an 85-80 win at Maryland, No. 12 Illinois faces the second of back-to-back road games at Penn State on Wednesday (5:30 p.m. CT, BTN). The matchup will be played at Rec Hall, marking PSU's first game at its former basketball venue since December 2015.

• Illinois is No. 12 in the latest AP poll, the team's 13th consecutive week inside the Top 25.

• The Illini are second in the Big Ten standings at 10-4, one game in the loss column behind No. 3-ranked Purdue (12-3).

• Illinois is one win away from its fifth consecutive 20-win season under head coach Brad Underwood, which would mark the 37th 20-win season in program history. Illinois has not had five straight 20-win campaigns since doing so for eight straight seasons from 2000 through 2007.

• Underwood looks to become just the second coach in Fighting Illini history with five straight 20-win seasons, joining the legendary Lou Henson, who accomplished the feat nine years in a row from 1983 through 1991.

• Illinois is also seeking its 11th Big Ten victory. With a win, the Illini would become the league's only team to finish above .500 in B1G play in each of the last five seasons.

• Illinois is the Big Ten's winningest team in conference play since the start of 2019-20. The Illini are 65-29 (.691) in league games over the last five seasons heading into Wednesday's game at Penn State.

• Following Illinois' win at Maryland on Saturday, the Illini also have a Big Ten-leading 27 road wins (27-20, .574) in conference play since the start of 2019-20, which includes a 4-3 road mark this season.

• Terrence Shannon Jr. is the reigning Big Ten Player of the Week after averaging 29 points on 54.8% shooting, 40% from three, and 85.7% from the foul line to lead the Illini to wins over Michigan and at Maryland.

- Marcus Domask eclipsed 2,000 points for his Div. I career on Saturday at Maryland. He is the 19th active Division I players to reach 2,000 career points, and the fourth in the Big Ten joining Boo Buie, Zach Edey, and Jahmir Young.
- Illinois is 6-4 away from State Farm Center in 2023-24, joining Purdue as the only Big Ten teams with winning records in combined road and neutral games this season.
- Illinois has been projected as a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament based on the Men's Basketball Committee's release of its top 16 teams on Feb. 17.
- The Illini enter the week ranked 12th in NET with a combined 8-6 record in Quad 1 (4-5) and Quad 2 (4-1) games, and a perfect 11-0 mark in Quad 3 (6-0) and Quad 4 (5-0) contests.
- Of Illinois' six remaining regular-season games, the next two - at Penn State (2/21) and vs. Iowa (2/24) - are Quad 2 opportunities, followed by a Quad 3 game vs. Minnesota (2/28), before three straight Quad 1 matchups to close out the regular season at Wisconsin (3/2), vs. Purdue (3/5), and at Iowa (3/10).

Illini Team Notables

- Illinois is fifth in the country in offensive efficiency (123.1), its highest ranking of the Kenpom era, ahead of the 2005 season, when the Illini's NCAA runner-up team had the nation's No. 3 offense (122.3).
- Illinois' scoring average of 83.1 points per game, the team's highest since 1993-94 (84.0 ppg), ranks 20th in the NCAA.
- Illinois has topped 85 points in seven of its last nine games. The Illini are 12-1 this season when scoring at least 85 points.
- Illinois ranks second in the Big Ten and 20th nationally with a scoring margin of +12.4 ppg.
- During the Illini's seven-game home win streak from Nov. 17 through Jan. 11, the Orange and Blue outscored opponents by an average of 23.7 points per contest.
- Illinois has 21 wins over Top 25 teams since 2019-20, sixth-most nationally. Three of the team's six losses this season have come against top-10 foes, and all six have been by single-digit margins.
- Illinois is among the top 25 nationally in two defensive categories via KenPom, ranking 15th in effective field goal percentage defense (.458), and 19th in 2-point field goal percentage defense (.451).
- KenPom rates the Illini among the nation's top programs nationally in adjusted efficiency on both offense (5th, 123.1) and defense (47th, 99.0). Among the top-10 rated offensive programs nationally, Illinois is one of six - along with Arizona, UConn, Duke, Florida and Purdue - to also rank inside the top 50 defensively.
- Illinois is 13-0 when holding the opposition to less than one point per possession.

Ticket Information

Tickets for all remaining Fighting Illini men's basketball home games at State Farm Center are sold out. Tickets for upcoming home games vs. Iowa (Feb. 24), Minnesota (Feb. 28) and Purdue (March 5) are available at SeatGeek.com, the official fan-to-fan marketplace for Illinois Athletics.

- The Illini lead the Big Ten and rank in the top 30 in the NCAA in total rebounds per game (42.2; fourth in NCAA), defensive rebounds per game (29.4, seventh in NCAA), and offensive rebounds per game (12.8; 28th in the NCAA). The Illini also rank second in the Big Ten in rebounding margin (+8.8), which ranks 12th nationally.
- The Illini's 42.2 rebounds per game is the team's best single-season mark since 1972-73 (44.4 rpg).
- The Illini have outrebounded their opponents in 18 of 25 games, and own a 16-2 record when winning the battle on the glass.
- Illinois is 11-1 when it records an offensive rebound rate of at least 35%.
- Illinois enters play this week leading the Big Ten in second-chance scoring, converting their offensive rebounds into 14.9 ppg, 1.5 points per game higher than the next closest Big Ten program (Purdue, 13.4).
- Illinois has pulled down 50+ rebounds in eight games this season, its most since 1979-80. Included in that was a stretch four straight – vs. Valpo, Southern, Western Illinois, and at Rutgers – that was Illinois' longest streak of consecutive games with 50+ rebounds since the 1963-64 season.
- Illinois averaged 99.0 ppg (297) over a three-game stretch from Dec. 22-Jan. 2 in wins vs. Missouri (97-73), vs. FDU (104-71), and vs. Northwestern (96-66). It marked the first time Illinois had topped 90 points in three consecutive games in 30 seasons, since December 10-18, 1993.

Illini Player Notables

Marcus Domask

- Domask eclipsed 2,000 points for his Division I career on Saturday vs. Maryland. He scored 1,615 points at Southern Illinois and has tallied 389 as an Illini. Domask is one of 19 active Division I players to reach 2,000 points and is one of four in the Big Ten, joining Boo Buie, Zach Edey, and Jahmir Young.
- Domask enters Wednesday's game 17 rebounds shy of 700 career boards, and just two steals away from 100.
- Domask has scored in double figures in 18 of the last 19 games, with two 30+ point performances – a career-high 33 vs. Florida Atlantic at Madison Square Garden and 32 vs. Northwestern.
- Domask is averaging 17.8 ppg over the last 19 games (339). He has climbed to 12th in the Big Ten at 15.6 points per game overall this season after averaging just 8.2 points over his first six games.

* = at Illinois

- In conference games only, Domask ranks fourth in the Big Ten at 18.9 points per game.
- Domask, at 15.6 ppg, and teammate Terrence Shannon Jr., at 21.4 ppg, rank as the top scoring tandem in the Big Ten conference with a combined 37.0 ppg. The duo ranks ahead of Purdue's Zach Edey (23.2 ppg) and Lance Jones (12.8 ppg) who average a combined 36.0 ppg. Domask and Jones were teammates for four seasons at Southern Illinois from 2019-20 through 2022-23.
- Domask is one of the Big Ten's most efficient scorers, ranking 12th in the conference with a .457 (137-300) field goal percentage.
- Domask ranks No. 2 in the Big Ten in free throw shooting at 87.3% (89-102), just short of the Illinois program's single-season record of .874 (76-87) set by Alfonso Plummer in 2022.
- Domask is averaging 4.6 assists over the last 15 games (69), compared to 1.6 apg the first 10 games (16), and ranks 12th in the Big Ten at 3.4 assists per game, and 13th with an assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.56.
- Domask was named Big Ten Player of the Week by the Big Ten (Jan. 8) and Associated Press (Jan. 9), and was also honored as one of five USBWA Oscar Robertson National Players of the Week (Jan. 9), after averaging 29.0 points, 5.5 assists and 4.0 rebounds while shooting 59.4% from the field, 66.7% from 3-point range, and 90% from the free-throw line in matchups vs. Northwestern and at No. 1 Purdue.

Coleman Hawkins

- Hawkins has scored in double figures in 15 of the last 17 games and is averaging 14.4 points, 6.3 rebounds, 2.8 assists, 1.2 blocks and 1.9 steals.
- In Illinois' 88-73 road win at Michigan (1/18), Hawkins became first Big Ten player since 2007 (Purdue's Carl Landry) to record a stat line of at least 21 points, 10 rebounds, four assists, six steals and one block.
- Hawkins followed up his six-steal performance at Michigan (1/18) with five more swipes vs. Rutgers (1/21), becoming the first Illini player since Trent Frazier in 2018-19 to record two games with 5+ steals in a single season. His combined 11 steals are the most by an Illini over a two-game stretch in 38 years, since Bruce Douglas combined for 12 steals with seven at Michigan (1/18/86) and five at Michigan State (1/12/86).
- In back-to-back road games at Michigan (1/18) and at Northwestern (1/24), Hawkins recorded two double-doubles of 21 points and 10 rebounds vs. the Wolverines and 22 points and 13 boards vs. the Wildcats, while shooting 54% (14-26) overall, 50% (5-10) from 3-point range, and a perfect 10-for-10 from the free-throw line, while adding eight steals, five assists, three blocks.
- Hawkins recorded at least one steal in 14 straight games from Dec. 2 at Rutgers to Jan. 27 vs. Indiana, a career-long streak, before finishing without a swipe at Ohio State (1/30) for the first time since the season's first three games. He ranks seventh in the Big Ten at 1.7 steals per game overall. In Big Ten Play, Hawkins ranks sixth in the league at 1.9 swipes per contest.
- Hawkins also posted a career-long streak of eight consecutive games with a block between Dec. 17 vs. Colgate and Jan. 18 at Michigan. He ranks 12th in the Big Ten at 1.16 blocks per game overall.
- Hawkins is the only player in the Big Ten to rank in the top 15 in the conference in both blocks per game (1.16 bpg, 12th) and steals per game (1.68 spg, seventh).
- Over the last 17 games, Hawkins, one of the most versatile front court players in the nation, has led the Fighting Illini in 3-pointers made (38) and attempted (90), connecting 42.2% from long distance, the second-best mark on the team during that span. Hawkins opened the season 2-for-14 (.143) from distance in his first five contests.
- Hawkins ranks first in the Big Ten in 3-point shooting among players listed 6-foot-10 or taller with 40 triples on the season, more than the next two players - Minnesota F Dawson Garcia (20) and Wisconsin C Steven Crowl (17) - combined.

• Hawkins is averaging 7.0 rebounds per game over his last 11 contests, and has climbed to No. 17 in the Big Ten with an overall rebounding average of 6.2 rebounds per game.

Terrence Shannon Jr.

- Shannon, at 21.4 ppg, and teammate Marcus Domask, at 15.6 ppg, rank as the top scoring tandem in the Big Ten conference at a combined 37.0 ppg, ahead of Purdue's Zach Edey (23.2 ppg) and Lance Jones (12.8 ppg), who averaged a combined 36.0 ppg.
- Shannon has reached double-figures scoring in each of his last 29 games as an Illini, doing so in all 19 of his appearances this season, plus the final 10 contests of the 2022-23 campaign.
- Shannon's scoring average of 21.4 points per game ranks No. 2 in the Big Ten and No. 10 nationally.
- At 21.4 points per game, Shannon is on pace for Illinois' 20th single-season scoring average of 20-plus points since 1907.
- Shannon would record the fifth 20-point season by an Illini guard in program history. Other Illini guards to average more than 20.0 points per game are Jim Dawson (21.7 ppg in 1966-67), Rick Howat (20.6 ppg in 1970-71), Kendall Gill (20.0 ppg in 1989-90), and Ayo Dosunmu (20.1 ppg in 2020-21).
- Shannon is one of six "Power Conference" players nationally averaging 20+ points while shooting .450 or better from the field joining Purdue's Zach Edey, Alabama's Mark Sears, Cal's Jaylon Tyson, Washington's Keion Brooks Jr., and Tennessee's Dalton Knecht, and one of only 17 NCAA Division I players overall to hit those offensive marks.
- Since returning to the Illini lineup on Jan. 21 vs. Rutgers, Shannon has averaged 20.9 points and 3.3 rebounds per contest over his last eight games.
- In his last five games, dating back to Illinois' road win at Ohio State on Jan. 30, Shannon has led the Illini to a 4-1 record while averaging 25.4 points. During that period, Shannon is shooting 44.6% overall while hitting a team-most 14 three-pointers and 39 free-throws, and adding a team-leading seven blocks.
- Shannon ranks among the Big Ten leaders in several categories: No. 2 in scoring (21.4 ppg, 10th in NCAA), No. 5 in 3-pointers per game (2.3), No. 6 in field goal percentage (.470), No. 13 in blocked shots per game (1.2), and No. 15 in free-throw percentage (.800).

Quincy Guerrier

- Guerrier leads one of the nation's most tenacious rebounding teams, ranking eighth in the Big Ten in overall rebounding (7.16 rpg) and seventh in the league in defensive rebounding (5.44 rpg).

- Guerrier leads the Illini and ranks fourth in the Big Ten with eight double-doubles through 25 games this season with the Illini. He totaled two double-doubles in 71 career games at Oregon, both coming during the 2021-22 season.
- Guerrier has scored at least 10 points in 12 of his last 17 games, averaging 12.7 points per game over that stretch after opening the season with a 6.3 points per game average through his first eight contests at Illinois.
- Guerrier is 26-of-60 (.433) on threes over the last 17 games, compared to 2-of-20 (.100) over his first eight. Guerrier's 43% from beyond the arc leads the Illini during that stretch, while his 26 total triples are second on the team behind Coleman Hawkins (38).
- Guerrier enters play Wednesday at Penn State with 935 career rebounds, ranking 16th on the NCAA's list of active career leaders, and closing in no 1,000 boards for his collegiate career.

Ty Rodgers

- Rodgers has provided the Illini with another excellent rebounder from his point guard position, ranking third on the team, behind Quincy Guerrier and Coleman Hawkins, at 5.4 rebounds per game.
- Rodgers recorded a combined 24 rebounds in back-to-back games, notching 10 boards as part of a double-double effort at Ohio State (1/30), and grabbing a game-high 14 vs. Nebraska (2/4). It matched his best two-game total of the season after he pulled down nine boards vs. Missouri (12/22), followed by a career-high 15 vs. FDU (12/29).
- Rodgers has been particularly effective on the offensive glass where he has pulled down a team-leading 51 offensive rebounds, or a team-high 38.1% of his 134 total rebounds.
- Rodgers' 2.0 offensive rebounds per game ranks 14th in the Big Ten this season.

Luke Goode

- Goode is tied for the team lead with 44 3-pointers on the season, matching Terrence Shannon Jr. (43) and sitting just ahead of Coleman Hawkins (40). Goode also ranks second on the team shooting 37.9% from beyond the arc, just behind Hawkins' 38.5%.
- Goode's 1.8 3-pointers per game rank 17th in the Big Ten.
- Goode started seven games, from Dec. 29 vs. FDU to Jan. 21 vs. Rutgers, averaging 30.4 minutes per game. Goode set his career high in minutes with 36 each in each game against Michigan State (1/11) at Maryland (1/14).
- Goode scored career-best 16 points at #1 Purdue and tied his career high with four 3-pointers against the Boilers, then two games later vs. Maryland he tallied 13 points including a trio of 3-pointers.

Justin Harmon

- Harmon ranks fifth on the Illini roster in scoring at 7.0 points per game, and has tallied 129 of his 174 total points over the team's last 14 games (9.2 ppg) after averaging just 4.1 points per game over the team's first 11 contests of the season.
- Harmon shot 5-for-16 (.313) from 3-point range through his first 11 games, but has hit at a clip of more than 38 percent (17-for-45) over his last 14 contests.
- Harmon posted a season-high 20 points, hitting 7-of-11 from the field, including 4-of-5 from 3-point range, along with 2-of-2 at the foul line in 30 minutes of action in the Illini's win against Northwestern on Jan. 2.
- Harmon led the Illini in scoring for the first time this season, with 18 points in the 86-63 home win vs. Rutgers (1/21).

Fighting Illini Basketball Under Head Coach Brad Underwood

- Big Ten's winningest team in league play over the last five seasons (65-29, .691)
- 55 BIG wins from 2019-20 through 2022-23 are most in school history over four-year stretch
- Three straight NCAA Tournament appearances (fourth precluded by COVID-19 cancellation in 2020)
- Three consensus All-Americans
- Five first-team All-Big Ten selections
- Four straight 20-win regular seasons
- Four straight top-five BIG finishes
- 2022 B1G Champions
- Led B1G in wins in 2021
- 2021 B1G Tournament Champions
- 2021 NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed (fourth in school history)

The B1G's Best

- Illinois is the winningest team in the Big Ten over the last four-and-a-half years, with a 65-29 league record since the start of the 2019-20 season. The Illini won the regular season championship in 2022, led the conference in wins while adding a B1G Tournament crown in 2021, finished one game back of the title in 2020, and placed fifth in 2023:

Big Ten Wins (2020 through 2024)

1.	Illinois	65
2.	Purdue	63
3.	Wisconsin	57

- Illinois also owns the most road wins during league play over the last four-plus years with 27:

Big Ten Road Wins (2020 through 2024)

1.	Illinois	27
2.	Purdue	24
	Wisconsin	24

Illini Climbing the Rankings

- Since returning to the AP top-25 rankings at #24 on Nov. 7, the Fighting Illini have been ranked for 13 consecutive weeks as of Feb. 19.
- The Illini reached as high as #9 (Jan. 1), the program's highest since March 15, 2021 (#2).
- It marks the fifth straight season that head coach Brad Underwood has led the Fighting Illini to a top 20 ranking, and the third time in the last four years that the team reached the top 10:

Season	Highest Rank (Date)	Final/Current Rank

Taking on the Top

- Illinois has won 12 of its last 20 games vs. top-10 opponents, another highlight of the job Brad Underwood has done rebuilding the Fighting Illini program.
- Illinois set a single-season school record in 2020-21 with six wins over top-10 foes, going 5-1 in those matchups.
- Illinois went 2-1 last year against top-10 teams, fighting back from double-digit deficits in all three contests.
- Illinois came back from down 15 in the second half to beat No. 8 UCLA in the Las Vegas Main Event (Nov. 18, 2022) and defeated No. 2 Texas in the Jimmy V Classic at Madison Square Garden (Dec. 6, 2022), overcoming a 10-point second-half hole to earn the victory in overtime.
- Illinois also erased a 24-point second-half deficit at No. 5 Purdue (March 5, 2023) to tie the game before falling in the final minute.
- Illinois is 0-2 vs. top-10 opponents this season, but both losses have come by single-digit margins vs. No. 4 Marquette (71-64) on Nov. 14 at State Farm Center, and at No. 1 Purdue (83-78) on Jan. 5 at Mackey Arena.
- The Illini rank tied for third nationally in top-10 wins since the start of the 2019-20 season:

Top-10 Wins (2019-20 - Present)

T1. Baylor – 14	5. Purdue – 10	T9. Texas – 8
T1. Kansas – 14	T6. Iowa State – 9	T9. Texas Tech – 8
T3. Illinois – 11	T6. Ohio State – 9
T3. Michigan State – 11	T6. Tennessee – 9

- Four of those wins are over top-5 opponents, one off the NCAA lead of five shared by Alabama, Arizona, Gonzaga, Kansas, Michigan State, and Tennessee, and tied with Baylor, Indiana, Kentucky, Purdue, Texas and UCLA.

Underwood Named Midseason Coach of the Year

- Fighting Illini head coach Brad Underwood has been selected as the Midseason National Coach of the Year by Doug Gottlieb for Field of 68.

Three Illini in 1,000-Point Club

- The Fighting Illini roster features three players - Marcus Domask, Quincy Guerrier, and Terrence Shannon Jr. - who have scored more than 1,000 points in their collegiate careers.
- Illinois' three 1,000-point scorers are tied for third-most in the NCAA, behind St. John's and TCU (4 each).
- Other programs to feature three active 1,000-point scorers entering the 2023-24 season: Alabama, Creighton, Grand Canyon, Kansas, Memphis, Mississippi State, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, St. Bonaventure, Vanderbilt, and Washington.

Illini Season Outlook

- Illinois is the winningest program in the Big Ten over the last four seasons and one of the nation's most successful programs as well. The accolades are plentiful: 2021 Big Ten wins leader, Big Ten Tournament Champion and NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed, 2022 Big Ten Champion, four straight top-25 finishes and 20-plus win seasons, and three straight NCAA tournament appearances (fourth precluded by COVID-19 cancellation in 2020).
- After orchestrating one of most impressive program rebuilds in the country, what's next for Coach Brad Underwood? He enters his seventh season in charge of the Fighting Illini with an experienced group of veterans players that boasts more than 650 career games and over 350 starts at the NCAA Division I level.
- In fact, the Illini return 59 percent of the team's total minutes from last season, 58.9 percent of their scoring, and greater than 60 percent of the team's rebounding (64.5%), assists (65.8%), blocks (61.8%) and steals (67.2%).
- Added to the team's returning production is a group of six Division I transfers with more than 300 games played and 198 career starts, and a top-20 recruiting class. The solid blend of youth and experience will give Illinois the opportunity to contend once again in the rugged Big Ten conference.

Returning for the Illini

- The return of both Coleman Hawkins and Terrence Shannon Jr. provided an offseason spark for the Orange and Blue. The duo, who ranked first and third, respectively, on the team in scoring last season, both explored their professional prospects before announcing within hours of one another that they were withdrawing from the NBA Draft on May 31.

- Hawkins enters his senior season and provides great continuity in the Illini lineup after starting all 33 games last season and leading the team in minutes played (32.5 mpg). The 6-10 power forward's versatility and all-around game was on display in all facets last season, where he ranked third on the Illini in scoring (9.9 ppg), led the team in rebounds (6.3 rpg) as well as assists (3.0 apg), and was second on the roster in both blocked shots (1.2 bpg) and steals (1.1 spg).
- Shannon, a fifth-year senior, is back for his second year at Illinois. The Chicago native averaged 17.2 points, 4.6 rebounds, 2.8 assists and 1.3 steals in his inaugural season in Champaign, earning first-team All-Big Ten accolades. He ranked seventh in the Big Ten in scoring and had 11 games of 20+ points, including nine times against high-major opponents. His aggressiveness on the offensive end also resulted in 166 free throws on 210 attempts, ranking second in the BIG in both categories while cracking the Illinoi single-season top-10 lists.
- Dain Dainja leads a group of four other returners that played significant roles for the Illini in 2022-23, along with Luke Goode, Ty Rodgers, and Sencire Harris.
- Dainja, a redshirt junior, provides a strong presence in the front court in his second season. He returns after leading the team in field goal percentage (.636) and offensive rebounds (67), and is tied with Coleman Hawkins as the team's returning leader in blocks (39).
- Goode, a junior, is one of the team's most potent three-point threats, but was limited to just 10 games last season after suffering a bone fracture in his left foot Oct. 22 and undergoing surgery. After returning to the Illini lineup in mid-February, Goode averaged 4.0 points and 1.6 rebounds per game while shooting a team-best 42.1% from deep.
- Rodgers and Harris are both back for their sophomore campaigns after stellar starts to their careers as freshmen in 2022-23. Each played in all 33 games with Harris making seven starts. Rodgers, who is expected to serve as a primary ball-handler, averaged 3.3 points and 4.0 rebounds recording 32 assists and 22 steals last year. Harris averaged 3.7 points and 2.1 rebounds, with 29 assists and 27 steals as a freshman, and will use the 2023-24 season as a redshirt year as he continues to develop his body and his game.
- Sophomore AJ Redd and redshirt Freshman Niccolo Moretti are also back after developing on the Illini roster during the second half of the 2022-23 season. Redd, from Chicago, originally joined the Illini as student manager but was added to the roster as a walkon on Dec. 21, and saw action in two games. Moretti, originally from Bologna, Italy, began practicing with the Illini on Jan. 26, enrolling in classes during the spring semester and practicing with the team while using the year as a redshirt season.

Illini Add Experience in Portal

- Illinois has added three graduate transfers to this year's team who all played four seasons but are utilizing the additional year of competition opportunity due to COVID.
- Marcus Domask played four years at Southern Illinois where he was a three-time All-Missouri Valley selection and posted career averages of 15.2 points, 5.3 rebounds and 3.4 assists in 35.1 minutes over 106 career games. He ranks in the SIU top 10 in five career categories: ninth in scoring with 1,615 points, sixth in free throw shooting at 84.3%, eighth with 332 free throws, eighth with 165 three-pointers, and eighth with 356 assists.
- Quincy Guerrier played his first two years at Syracuse, where he was All-ACC as a sophomore, followed by two years at Oregon. Guerrier owns career averages of 9.8 points, 5.8 rebounds over 131 games, totaling 1,280 points and 756 boards.
- Justin Harmon played two years at Utah Valley, averaged 12.9 points, 3.8 rebounds, 2.3 assists, and 1.1 steals over his two-year career. He was Utah Valley's leading scorer last year, averaging 14.0 points, as the Wolverines won the WAC regular season title and advanced to the NIT Semifinals.
- Keaton Kutcher and Max Williams joined the Illini in the offseason as walkons. Kutcher, a junior, played in 25 games and averaged 2.5 points in two seasons at South Dakota. Williams, played in three contests in his three seasons at DePaul, totalling 14 minutes for the Blue Demons.

Top-20 Freshman Class

- Illinois has once again signed a talented recruiting class, in what has seemingly become the norm for Underwood and his assistant coaches. The Illini welcome two freshmen four-star recruits Amani Hansberry and Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn, a class ranked No. 19 nationally by 247Sports.

- Amani Hansberry was rated as the No. 1 player in state of Maryland. Coming out of Mount Saint Joseph High School, the Silver Spring, Maryland native was tabbed as a four-star power forward ranked No. 42 by Top247, No. 63 by ESPN100, No. 85 by On3, and No. 118 by Rivals150. He was named the 2023 Gatorade Maryland Player of the Year after averaging 15.3 points, 12.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists per game as a senior. During his junior season, Hansberry averaged 20.3 points, 13.6 rebounds and 4.3 assists. He was a two-time Baltimore Sun All-Metro Player of the Year and led Mount Saint Joseph to two consecutive Maryland Interscholastic Athletic Association (MIAA) A Conference Tournament championships and Baltimore Catholic League (BCL) titles.
- Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn joined the Illini as a four-star guard ranked No. 108 by Rivals150, No. 119 by On3 Industry, No. 134 by 247Sports Composite, No. 143 by Top247, and No. 151 by On3. The Lafayette, Indiana native finished high school at Word of God Christian Academy in North Carolina, after previously attending Montverde Academy, Real Salt Lake Academy and McCutcheon High School. He was a reserve on Montverde's team that won the 2022 GEICO Nationals championship. In the EYBL, Gibbs-Lawhorn averaged 18.2 points, 2.1 rebounds, 3.2 assists, and 1.8 steals while shooting 48% from the field and 37% from three. He was named MVP of the EYBL Indy session by The Circuit after averaging 21 points, 2.8 assists and 2.4 rebounds

Illini and Jayhawks Team Up to Raise Money for Maui

- No. 25 Illinois hosted No. 1 Kansas in a Maui Strong Relief Matchup on Oct. 29 at State Farm Center. The Illini defeated the Jayhawks, 82-75 in front of 12,592 fans, with all proceeds raised from the exhibition game donated to the Hawai'i Community Foundation Maui Strong Fund, providing financial resources to the relief efforts from the devastating Maui wildfires.
- Illinois and Kansas met in St. Louis in a closed scrimmage prior to the 2022-23 season, and were set to do so again this year when longtime friends Brad Underwood and Bill Self developed the idea to instead hold a charity fundraiser to aid the Lahaina community, longtime site of college basketball's Maui Invitational. Kansas is part of this year's Maui Invite, which has been relocated to Honolulu due to the wildfires.
- The Maui Strong Relief Matchup marked Kansas Coach Bill Self's return to Champaign, where he led the Fighting Illini for three years. While at Illinois, Self won Big Ten regular-season titles in 2001 and 2002, a Big Ten Tournament crown in 2003, and made three straight NCAA Tournament appearances, advancing to the 2001 Elite Eight.

Preseason Accolades for Shannon

- Illini fifth-year senior Terrence Shannon Jr. has been selected as one of 20 watch list candidates named for the 2024 NABC Division I Player of the Year Award, and one of 50 honorees on the preseason watch list for the Naismith Trophy Men's College Player of the Year. He is one of just four Big Ten players honored by the NABC and one of seven league members on the Naismith list.
- The two honors are the latest for Shannon, who was a unanimous selection to the Preseason All-Big Ten Team, is on the watch list for the Jerry West Shooting Guard of the Year Award, was named a Preseason All-American by FOX Sports, CBS Sports and Blue Ribbon.
- Shannon averaged 17.2 points, 4.6 rebounds, 2.8 assists and 1.3 steals last season, earning first-team All-Big Ten accolades. He ranked seventh in the BIG in scoring and had 11 games of 20+ points, including nine times against high-major opponents. His aggressiveness on the offensive end also resulted in 166 free throws on 210 attempts, ranking second in the BIG in both categories while cracking the Illinois single-season top-10 lists.

Hawkins on Karl Malone Award Watch List

- Illini senior Coleman Hawkins is one of 20 watch list candidates for the Karl Malone Award, given to the nation's top power forward. He is one of just two Big Ten players on the list.
- Hawkins started all 33 games last season, leading the team in minutes played (32.5 mpg). His versatility and all-around game was on display in all facets, where he ranked third on the Illini in scoring (9.9 ppg), led the team in rebounds (6.3 rpg) as well as assists (3.0 apg), and was second on the roster in both blocked shots (1.2 bpg) and steals (1.1 spg).

Program-Record Fourth Straight Preseason Ranking

- Illinois opened the 2023-24 season at No. 25 in the Associated Press Top 25.
- Head Coach Brad Underwood's Illini appeared in the AP preseason rankings for the fourth year in a row, which marks the longest streak in school history. Illinois started at No. 8 in 2020-21, No. 11 in 2021-22, and No. 23 in 2022-23.
- It is the 20th time in program history, that the Illini are ranked in the preseason poll.
- Illinois was one of just three Big Ten teams ranked in the preseason, along with No. 3 Purdue and No. 4 Michigan State.

Tough Sledding

- Illinois Coach Brad Underwood believes in putting together a rigorous schedule to prepare for Big Ten play. That is the case once again this season, as the Illini faced preseason No. 1 Kansas in an exhibition game, before taking on six 2023 NCAA Tournament teams during non-conference play, including three teams ranked in the preseason top-10.
- Illinois hosted No. 4 Marquette, the reigning Big East champion and Sweet 16 participant, on Nov. 14 in the Gavitt Tipoff Games.
- The Illini returned to the Jimmy V Classic for the second straight season and third time in four years on Dec. 5, defeating 2023 Final Four participant and No. 11-ranked Florida Atlantic, 98-89.
- After the trip to New York City, Illinois headed to Knoxville on Dec. 9 to play at No. 17 Tennessee, where the Volunteers were fresh off a Sweet 16 appearance.
- Following semester exams, the Illini beat defending Patriot League Champion Colgate on Dec. 17, then earned a 97-73 win over Missouri in the annual Braggin' Rights game on Dec. 22 in St. Louis. Mizzou was coming off a trip to the NCAA second round.
- FDU also advanced to the second round of the 2023 NCAA tournament after upsetting No. 1 seed Purdue. The Illini closed non-conference with an emphatic 104-71 home win over the Knights on Dec. 29 to finish 9-2 outside of Big Ten play.

Ubben Complex Re-Dedication

- The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics re-dedicated the Ubben Basketball Complex on Feb. 10, 2023 in a ceremony highlighting the generous support of dozens of the program's most influential donors. The daily home for the Fighting Illini men's and women's basketball programs concluded a two-year renovation in 2022 that doubled the facility's size while incorporating the nation's best technologies and advancements in sports performance, sports medicine, sports science, sports nutrition and basketball training.
- The $40 million project is being financed completely by DIA's self-supporting funds, including more than $34 million in private donations pledged to date. There are 91 unique gifts from 77 donors that range from $100 to $5 million. Notably, 15 men's and women's basketball alumni have committed to gifts totaling more than $9.6 million to the project.
- Highlighting the renovation is the naming of the men's practice court in honor of Fighting Illini icons and distinguished professional basketball executives Mannie Jackson and Jerry Colangelo.

Big Ten Scheduling Details

- For the sixth year in a row, Big Ten play is a 20-game slate with member schools playing seven teams twice (both home and road) and six teams once (three at home, three on the road).
- Illinois' doubles: Iowa, Maryland, Michigan, Michigan State, Northwestern, Purdue, Rutgers
- Illinois' home singles: Indiana, Minnesota, Nebraska
- Illinois' road singles: Ohio State, Penn State, Wisconsin

Trip to Spain Provides Head Start on Season

- Illinois had 10 days of practices over the summer prior a three-game, nine-day trip to Spain in August. Illinois played one game in each of the three cities it visited, defeating teams in Madrid, Valencia, and Barcelona.

Winning BIG

- Illinois' performance in conference play during the Underwood era has reached historic levels of success. The Illini enter the 2023-24 season with 55 Big Ten wins since 2020, a mark that not only leads the league, but is the most in school history over a four-year stretch:

Illinois' Most Big Ten Conference Wins in a Four-Year Period

Accomplished Ayo

- Former Fighting Illini star Ayo Dosunmu is enjoying a terrific start to his pro career in his hometown of Chicago. After playing a prominent role in his first two seasons - 157 games played with 91 starts - Dosunmu, signed a three-year, $21 million contract to remain with the organization. He earned NBA second-team All-Rookie honors in 2022.
- Dosunmu averaged 20.1 points, 6.3 rebounds and 5.3 assists during his final season at Illinois, becoming the first NCAA player since 2010 and just the second Big Ten player since 1993 to average at least 20 points, six rebounds and five assists. He accumulated the most impressive single-season list of accolades ever by an Illini player, highlighted by USA Today National Player of the Year, Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year, and consensus first-team All-American.
- Dosunmu was selected by the Bulls with the No. 38 overall pick in the second round of the 2021 NBA Draft. He returned to campus in January 2022 to raise his banner to the State Farm Center rafters, joining the Fighting Illini Honored Jerseys program.

Brad Underwood has reinvigorated Illinois Basketball, bringing the Fighting Illini back to the national stage and building a championship program during his six seasons in Champaign.

Underwood is the 18th head coach in Illinois history, hired in March 2017 as the Richmond Family Endowed Men's Head Basketball Coach.

He has won nearly 68 percent of his games during his 10 years as a Division I head coach, recording eight 20-win seasons. Underwood has made seven appearances in the NCAA Tournament, with the eighth precluded by the cancellation of the 2020 postseason due to COVID-19.

Illinois had another successful season in Underwood's sixth year in Champaign. Despite replacing all five regular starters, its top five leading scorers, and a total of 10 players from the previous year's Big Ten championship squad, Illinois went 20-13 overall and finished fifth in the Big Ten (11-9) in 2023, securing a third straight NCAA Tournament bid and fourth straight 20-win season.

Illinois ranked in the bottom 25 nationally in minutes continuity from last year. Of those last 25 teams, Illinois was the only one to earn a bid in the 2023 NCAA tournament. The Illini were one of just two teams with multiple kenpom top-10 non-conference wins away from home, posting dramatic comeback wins over UCLA in Las Vegas and Texas at Madison Square Garden. Illinois also protected its homecourt, going 15-2 at State Farm Center to mark its best home winning percentage in 17 years.

Illinois has now recorded at least 20 wins and a winning record in B1G play in four straight seasons for the first time since doing so eight years in a row from 1999-2000 through 2006-07.

The Big Ten has been the nation's preeminent conference in recent years. It was ranked No. 1 by kenpom in 2020 and 2021, received a league-record nine NCAA Tournament bids in 2021 and 2022, and led all conferences once again with eight tournament bids in 2023. Yet no team has fared better during this stretch than the Fighting Illini, who are 55-25 (.688) in Big Ten play the last four years of the Underwood era. Illinois owns the most wins and best winning percentage in the league over the last four Big Ten seasons.

The 55 Big Ten victories mark the winningest four-year run in school history, with Underwood claiming Illinois' two all-time winningest Big Ten seasons (16 in 2021, 15 in 2022), and three of the top seven (13 in 2020) during this stretch.

Underwood led Illinois to the 2022 Big Ten championship in year five, navigating a challenging schedule with a frequently depleted roster to post a 15-5 league record and earn the school's first regular season conference title in 17 years. Illinois went 23-10 overall and ended the year at No. 19 in the AP poll to register a third-straight Top 25 finish, the program's longest streak since 2000-06.

Illinois was a No. 4 seed in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, becoming one of just six programs to receive top-4 seeds in back-to-back tournaments after earning a No. 1 seed in 2021. Illinois again made a Round of 32 appearance, advancing in consecutive NCAA Tournaments for the first time in 16 years.

Underwood coached junior Kofi Cockburn, the most dominant player in college basketball, to consensus first-team All-America honors in 2022. Cockburn was the only player in the country to average 20+ points and 10+ rebounds, becoming the first Illini to do so in the last 50 years. Cockburn joined Ayo Dosunmu as the only AP first-team All-Americans in school history, players mentored by Underwood in back-to-back seasons.

Underwood's fourth Illini team in 2021 put together one of the best seasons in school history, ending the year ranked No. 2 in the final AP poll, winning the Big Ten Tournament championship, and earning a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Illinois went 16-4 in conference play to mark its winningest Big Ten season ever. Illinois led the Big Ten in victories while playing the full conference schedule, but missed out on the regular season title due to an unequal number of games played creating a win percentage differential of .024. The Illini went on to win the Big Ten Tournament, earning the program's first conference tournament title since 2005.

In all, Illinois totaled 19 wins against conference foes in 2021, setting a school record and tying the second-most wins ever by a Big Ten school against league competition in a single season.

Illinois earned the fourth NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed in school history after winning 14 of 15 games over a two-month stretch leading into NCAA March Madness. The remarkable run included seven wins over ranked teams, with five coming against top-10 foes.

Illinois finished the season with a total of six victories over top-10 teams, breaking the previous school record of five set by the 1989 Flyin' Illini.

Illinois had a pair of consensus All-Americans leading the way in 2021. Junior Ayo Dosunmu was a first-team All-America selection by every organization and finalist for every player of the year award. The USA Today National Player of the Year and Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year, Dosunmu became the first NCAA player since 2010 to average at least 20 points, six rebounds and five assists.

Sophomore Kofi Cockburn was a second-team All-America pick by every outlet, totaling 16 double-doubles and standing as the only player in the country to average at least 15 points and nine rebounds on 60+ percent shooting.

Brad and his wife, Susan, have a son, Tyler, and two daughters, Katie and Ashley. Tyler, who played four seasons for the Illini while earning three degrees, is an assistant coach on the Illinois staff. Katie also is a U of I graduate, and Ashley attends Miami-Ohio.

Game 1 Recap – #25 Illinois 80, Eastern Illinois 52
 No. 25 Illinois used multiple big scoring runs to secure an 80-52 win over Eastern Illinois to open the 2023-24 season at State Farm Center. A 30-6 run over an 11-minute stretch between the first and second halves saw the Illini erase a five-point deficit, en route to the 28-point victory.

True freshman Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn gave the Illini a spark off the bench, recording a game-high 18 points in his college debut. Gibbs-Lawhorn also finished with three rebounds, three assists, one block, and one steal while shooting 70% from the field.

Head coach Brad Underwood used 13 different players in the game, 12 of whom scored at least one point, including fifth-year transfers Marcus Domask and Quincy Guerrier who started in their Illini debuts.

Terrence Shannon Jr. scored 16 points, including three 3-pointers for his 11th consecutive contest in double figures. Shannon also five boards and a team-high two steals.

Amani Hansberry totaled seven points and a team-high eight rebounds in his first college game, while Dain Dainja posted eight points, six boards, and one block.

Luke Goode, the first man in off the bench, hit three 3-pointers and grabbed six boards, both career-best marks. Playing a team-high 28 minutes, Domask amassed six points, four rebounds, and three assists.

The Illini shot 50% from the field while hitting 10 3-pointers. The Orange and Blue won the rebounding margin, 50-40, and they accumulated 47 bench points and 36 points in the paint.

Game 2 Recap – #25 Illinois 64, Oakland 53
 No. 25 Illinois used a late 22-3 run to take down Oakland, 64-53, at State Farm Center. After holding a one-point lead at halftime, the Fighting Illini held the Golden Grizzlies without a point for nearly seven minutes late in the game to secure the win.

Quincy Guerrier recorded the 14th double-double of his career – and his first as an Illini – with 13 points and a team-high 10 rebounds. Guerrier took over in the second half, recording nine points and six boards in his 18 minutes of second-half action.

Terrence Shannon Jr. tallied a team-high 15 points, and he knocked down two 3-pointers, dished out five assists, and grabbed three steals.

Ty Rodgers registered 10 points, the third outing in double figures in his career. He accounted for four pivotal points during the Illini's 22-3 run over a nine-minute stretch in the second half.

Dain Dainja scored 10 points and was a big factor in the Illini's 44-28 edge in points in the paint. He also grabbed seven rebounds, and he notched eight of his 10 points in the first half.

Coleman Hawkins did a little bit of everything on Friday, finishing his 28 minutes of action with eight points, eight rebounds, and five assists.

With the visitors leading by three halfway through the period, the Illini started to take control. A Shannon steal and fast-break dunk cut the deficit to a point before layups from Dainja and Rodgers saw the Orange and Blue take a three-point lead with under eight minutes to play.

After the Golden Grizzlies hit a trey to tie the game at 48, Illinois closed the door. A 16-0 Illini run over a six-minute stretch, which included two Shannon triples and five points from Guerrier, put the Orange and Blue ahead by double digits with one minute to play.

Game 3 Recap – #4 Marquette 71, #23 Illinois 64

No. 23 Illinois came up short in the Gavitt Tipoff Games, falling at home to No. 4 Marquette, 71-64, in front of a sold-out State Farm Center crowd on Tuesday night.

Marcus Domask finished in double digits for his first time as an Illini, recording 18 points and six rebounds. Domask nearly reached double figures in the first half alone, notching nine before the break before accounting for nine of Illinois' first 16 points of the second period of play. He also accumulated one steal and one block.

Luke Goode recorded a career-high 13 points, which included four 3-pointers, a mark that also set a new career best despite coming off the bench. Goode scored a team-high 10 points in the first half before eclipsing his career-best mark in the second half with his fourth triple of the night.

Terrence Shannon Jr. ended his night in double figures for the 13th consecutive game, tallying a team-high 21 points, including 14 in the second half and nine in the final five minutes. Shannon also amassed two assists, two steals, and a block.

Ty Rodgers set the tone on defense while also recording six points, four rebounds, two assists, two steals, and a block.

Quincy Guerrier grabbed a team-high 10 rebounds, his second straight game with double-digit boards, while Coleman Hawkins made an Illini-most three blocks.

Illinois knocked down a season-high 11 3-pointers as a team, while the Orange and Blue made seven blocks and six steals on the defensive end of the floor.

Game 4 Recap – #23 Illinois 87, Valparaiso 64

No. 23 Illinois outscored Valparaiso by 30 points in the second half en route to an 87-64 victory. The Fighting Illini tallied 49 points in the second half and held the visitors to 20% from the field during the final 20 minutes to seal the victory in Beacons head coach, and Illini great, Roger Powell Jr.'s return to Champaign.

Terrence Shannon Jr. led scored team-high 22 points, including 15 in the second half. Shannon knocked down three 3-pointers, grabbed seven rebounds, and dished out a team-high four assists.

Dain Dainja, making his first start of the year, scored a season-high 16 points to go along with seven boards. His two blocks were a team high. Luke Goode hit a team-high four 3-pointers and finished with 13 points, and Ty Rodgers tied his season-high with 10 points while also leading the Illini defensive effort with a team-high two steals.

Justin Harmon notched seven points and a team-high nine rebounds, with both marks setting a new best during his time at Illinois, while Niccolo Moretti registered his first collegiate field goals and ended his career-high 13 minutes with six points.

Eight different players grabbed at least five boards, and the Illini out-rebounded the Beacons, 60-51.

The Illini trailed at the break, 45-38, but got into a groove quickly in the second half. Trailing by six with under 16 minutes to play, Illinois used a 7-0 run that included consecutive Dainja buckets and a Goode 3-pointer to take their first lead of the half.

The Beacons retook the lead, but it did not last for long. Two Shannon layups fueled a 10-0 Illinois run to push the home side's lead to nine points halfway through the frame. Another 10-0 run extended the Orange and Blue's lead to 20 points, and the Illini closed out the 23-point victory.

Game 6 Recap — Illinois 84, Western Illinois 52

Illinois never trailed en route to an 84-52 victory over Western Illinois at State Farm Center. In the team's final contest of a six-game homestand to open the season, the Fighting Illini saw nine different players get on the scoresheet ahead of next week's Big Ten opener at Rutgers.

Terrence Shannon Jr. registered a team-high 19 points, including a season-high six 3-pointers. Shannon, who also tallied a steal and a block, has led the team in scoring in five consecutive games, and he has finished in double figures in 16 consecutive games dating back to last season.

Dain Dainja recorded 16 points, his third straight outing in double figures, and he shot 70% from the field and grabbed eight rebounds.

Quincy Guerrier put together his second double-double of the season, notching 10 points and a team-high 15 rebounds. Guerrier's 15 boards are his most since 2020, and his team-high four blocks are his highest total in over two seasons.

Ty Rodgers ended his outing with nine points, four rebounds, and a team-high four assists. Marcus Domask finished with eight points, four rebounds, and a block.

Luke Goode knocked down three 3-pointers, all of which came in the first half, to extend his streak of games with at least three triples to four contests. Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn amassed nine points and four rebounds off the bench.

The Illini shot 47% from the field and drained 10 3-pointers, the team's third outing with double-digit treys this season. The Orange and Blue also out-rebounded the Leathernecks, 54-38, and scored 23 second-chance points on 16 offensive boards. Illinois also notched five steals and a season-high nine blocks.

Game 7 Recap — #24 Illinois 76, Rutgers 58

No. 24 Illinois opened Big Ten play with a commanding 76-58 road win over Rutgers at Jersey Mike's Arena on Saturday evening.

The Fighting Illini dominated the glass, grabbing 55 rebounds, their fourth straight game with at least 50 boards. The Orange and Blue got 19 offensive rebounds and registered 14 second-chance points, and they finished with a +28 rebounding margin on the glass.

Terrence Shannon Jr. led the Illini, recording his first double-double of the season, with game highs of 23 points and 10 rebounds. Shannon also added three assists and two blocks. Coleman Hawkins registered six points and eight rebounds in his first game back from injury, and Marcus Domask hit double figures for the second time this season, finishing with 15 points and seven rebounds.

The Fighting Illini defense played a big role in the 18-point road victory, holding the Scarlet Knights to 33% shooting. Illini established an early defensive intensity, holding Rutgers without a field goal for nearly six-and-a-half minutes to begin the game.

Rutgers began to battle back late in the first half, though Shannon took over down the stretch on the offensive end, registering eight of Illinois' final nine points as the Illini went into the locker room with a 41-36 advantage.

An 18-2 run, which included three triples from Shannon, pushed Illinois' lead to 23 points with eight minutes to play. The Illini defense was a significant factor during that stretch, as they held the Scarlet Knights without a field goal for over six minutes.

Illinois then held the Scarlet Knights without a field goal for the final two minutes of regulation to close out the win.

Game 8 Recap — #20 Illinois 98, #11 Florida Atlantic 89

Marcus Domask and Terrence Shannon Jr. put on a show at Madison Square Garden, combining for 66 points, each scoring a career-high 33, to lift No. 20 Illinois to a 98-89 win over No. 11 Florida Atlantic at the Jimmy V Classic.

Domask and Shannon took over, combining to score 49 of the team's 59 second-half points. Domask recorded 25 of his 33 in the second half. He went on a stretch of seven straight makes, and shot 71.4% from the field. Domask also grabbed a team-high six rebounds and three assists. Shannon Jr. tallied 24 points after the break. He also shot 71.4% from the field and hit 11 of his 13 free throws, while notching two assists.

Justin Harmon registered a season-high 10 points with two 3-pointers in a season-high 22 minutes of action. Coleman Hawkins did a little bit of everything, finishing with nine points, two rebounds, two assists, one block, and a team-high three steals.

The Fighting Illini shot a season-best 63.2% as a team, outscored the Owls in the paint, 48-36, and dominated the margin in fast-break points, 9-0.

The lead changed 10 times in a back-and-forth first half, and the Illini headed to the break trailing, 42-39. FAU led 49-42 with 18 minutes remaining, but Domask and Shannon each tallied six points during a pivotal 14-0 Illini run that turned the seven-point deficit into a seven-point Illinois lead with just under 15 minutes to play.

The Owls retook the lead, momentarily, 57-56, with an 8-0 run of their own. But after Domask converted an and-1 layup, Harmon hit his second 3-pointer of the night and Shannon's driving layup capped off an 8-0 run for the Orange and Blue to restore the Illini's seven-point lead, 64-57.

The Illini lead reached as many as 11, but the Owls fought back to within two points with three minutes to play. Hawkins answered with a 3-pointer to push the lead back to five, 89-84. Shannon then sealed the win at the free-throw line where he scored seven of the game's final nine points.

Game 9 Recap — #17 Tennessee 86, #20 Illinois 79

No. 20 Illinois dropped a hard-fought road game at No. 17 Tennessee, 86-79, at Food City Center on Saturday afternoon.

Quincy Guerrier led the way offensively for the Fighting Illini, registering a season-high 22 points after scoring eight of the team's first 10 points of the day. Guerrier knocked down three 3-pointers and also recorded five rebounds.

Terrence Shannon Jr. hit double figures for the 19th consecutive game, matching Guerrier's 22-point effort. Now scoring at least 15 points in each of the Illini's nine contests this season, Shannon was perfect from the free-throw line (11-11) and accumulated four rebounds and a block.

Coleman Hawkins added a season-high 12 points, and he connected from deep on three occasions. Hawkins also notched a team-high four assists and two steals, and he grabbed four boards.

Illinois trailed by as many as eight points midway through the first period, but closed the half on a 16-6 run to take a 36-34 lead into break.

Out of the intermission, the Illini led 44-40 with 16:33 to play. Tennessee took control over the next 5 minutes, however, mounting a 17-5 scoring run that put the Illini in a 58-49 deficit with 11 minutes remaining.

UT briefly pushed the lead to as many as 12 and despite a late-game push, the Orange and Blue were unable to climb closer than five in the waning seconds of the contest.

The contest closes a stretch of three game in seven days away from home in which the Illini posted a 2-1 mark with a road win at Rutgers and a neutral-site victory over No. 11 Florida Atlantic.

Game 10 Recap — #16 Illinois 74, Colgate 57

No. 16-ranked Illinois never trailed Sunday in a 74-57 win over Colgate at State Farm Center.

Illinois (8-2) led off with a 14-0 run and never looked back. Terrence Shannon Jr. started the scoring with a triple on the Illini's first possession, setting the tone in a 14-point, 5-block performance.

Illinois' balanced effort featured four double-digit scorers with Coleman Hawkins leading the way with 16 points, followed by Quincy Guerrier (15), Shannon (14), and Marcus Domask (11).

The Illini shot 42% from the field, 35% from three, and 91% from the line, plus had another dominant day on the glass, outrebounding Colgate, 43-25. Illinois, which entered the day fourth in the nation in rebounding, grabbed 13 offensive boards and featured four players with at least seven rebounds in Ty Rodgers (8), Dain Dania (8), Guerrier (7), and Hawkins (7).

Colgate (6-5), the reigning Patriot League champions, used a late second-half spurt to get within nine points, but Illinois held off the Raiders. The Illini forced Colgate to just 3-of-15 shooting from behind the arc, the Illini's best three-point defense of the season.

Illinois got to the 17-point win despite Colgate making three more field goals than the Illini. Illinois made up the difference by hitting eight three-pointers to Colgate's three and knocking down 20-of-22 free throws to Colgate's 2-for-6 day from the line.

The game was Illinois' first at State Farm Center since a win over Western Illinois on Nov. 24, a stretch of 23 straight days away from their home base for the Fighting Illini.

Game 11 Recap – #13 Illinois 97, Missouri 73

Terrence Shannon Jr. scored 30 points and Quincy Guerrier added 28 and the 13th-ranked Illinois men's basketball team beat the Missouri Tigers, 97-73, in the 43rd annual Braggini' Rights game at Enterprise Center Friday.

The Fighting Illini (9-2) had four players score in double figures, led by Shannon Jr., who secured a double-double with 30 points and 11 rebounds. Guerrier tacked on 28 points and eight rebounds and Coleman Hawkins chipped in with 15 points, seven rebounds and two steals.

Illinois collected 51 rebounds in Friday's game compared to Missouri's 35, led by Shannon Jr.'s 11 boards. The Fighting Illini also put in work on the offensive glass, turning 16 rebounds into 21 second chance points.

Illinois' defense held Missouri to only 39.2 percent shooting from the field, including 22.2 percent from beyond the arc.

After jumping out to a 35-20 advantage, Illinois went on a 9-0 run with 6:04 left in the first half to increase its lead to 44-20. The Fighting Illini entered halftime with a 49-24 advantage. Illinois relied on its three-point shooting in the period, knocking down seven shots from behind the arc.

Illinois kept its lead intact before going on an 8-0 run, finished off by Marcus Domask's jumper, to grow the lead to 85-56 with 5:40 to go in the contest. The Tigers narrowed the margin midway through the second half, but the Fighting Illini cruised the rest of the way for the 97-73 win.

Game 12 Recap – #11 Illinois 104, FDU 71

Six Illini scored in double figures as No. 11 Illinois closed its non-conference schedule with a 104-71 win over FDU at State Farm Center on Friday night.

Hitting triple figures for the first time this season, the Orange and Blue finished 9-2 vs. non-conference foes. The Illini never trailed, registered 21 assists on 36 field goals, grabbed 54 rebounds, shot 52.2% from the field, hit a season-high 13 3-pointers, and recorded season bests with 30 second-chance points off 22 offensive boards.

Off the bench, Dain Dainja scored a season-high and team-most 19 points (9-10 FGs) and added six rebounds (five offensive). Justin Harmon added a season-high 18 points, including a career-high four 3-pointers and two assists. Harmon scored 14 straight to close the first half, allowing the Illini build a 48-28 halftime lead.

Ty Rodgers did a little bit of everything in the victory, picking up his first-career double-double with 10 points and a career-high 15 rebounds. Rodgers also dished out five assists, which matched his career-best mark, and tallied one steal.

Coleman Hawkins finished his outing with 18 points, including five triples. Hawkins hit four 3-pointers and scored a team-high 12 points in the second half, and he also ended his night with three rebounds, two steals, and one block.

Marcus Domask pieced together his first double-double of the campaign with 11 points and a career-high 11 assists. He also grabbed four rebounds, recorded a team-high two blocks, and had a steal.

Quincy Guerrier recorded his third double-double of the season, registering 14 points and 11 rebounds.

Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn added nine points and four boards, with all of his scoring coming in the second half. Eight of Gibbs-Lawhorn's points contributed to a 15-2 Illini run over the span of just over three minutes.

With the Illini lead growing as large as 40 points, Illinois closed out its 33-point victory to extend its winning streak to three games.

Game 13 Recap – #9 Illinois 96, Northwestern 66

No. 9 Illinois returned to Big Ten Play at home with an emphatic 96-66 victory over Northwestern. Four Illini scored in double figures led by Marcus Domask's 32 points.

Shooting a season-best 55.6% from 3-point range and leading from start to finish, the Illini capitalized on 10 takeaways with 13 points off those turnovers. The Orange and Blue registered an assist on 17 points of 35 field goals while shooting 62.5% from the floor. The team's 96 points are their most in a conference game since Dec. 23, 2020.

Domask, alongside his second 30-point game of the season, added a team-high six assists, five rebounds and one block, while Justin Harmon scored a season-high 20 points, finishing 4-of-5 from beyond the arc. Harmon also tallied two boards, two assists, and a block.

Quincy Guerrier posted his fourth double-double of the season with 14 points and a team-high 10 rebounds, and Coleman Hawkins accumulated 13 points, five rebounds, a team-high two blocks, and one steal. Ty Rodgers totaled six points, three rebounds, and four assists while also playing lockdown defense from start to finish, and Luke Goode, making his second straight start, notched six points while grabbing five rebounds and a steal.

The Fighting Illini opened the contest with points on their first four trips down the court and ledd 16-10 at the first media timeout. All five starters registered a basket within the first five minutes of the game. Illinois pushed its lead to 18 with an 11-0 run that ended with a four straight from Domask, and the Illini went into the break with a 46-29 advantage

Illinois picked up right where it left off to begin the second half. Another 11-0 run, that began with five straight from Hawkins and was capped by a Harmon bucket, pushed the Illini lead to 33 points, 75-42, with 9 minutes remaining, and the Orange and Blue cruised to a their fourth straight win and 2-0 start to Big Ten play.

Game 15 Recap – #10 Illinois 71, Michigan State 68

No. 10 Illinois fought off a late rally to secure a 71-68 home win over Michigan State at State Farm Center on Thursday night. Five Illini scored in double digits in the three-point win, including a career-high 15-point effort from Ty Rodgers.

Coleman Hawkins scored 15 points, his seventh consecutive game with 10-plus points, knocking down 3-of-5 3-pointers while also tacking on seven rebounds, two assists, and two steals, and matching his career high with four blocks.

Justin Harmon hit multiple 3-pointers (2-for-4) en route to 10 points, his fourth double-digit game of the season. Harmon also grabbed four rebounds and dished out two assists. Marcus Domask tallied 15 points to go along with six rebounds and five assists, while Quincy Guerrier added 10 points, six rebounds and a block for the Illini.

The Illini opened an 8-3 lead with six early points from Rodgers, who connected on his first five shots. A 7-0 Illini run over the course of 74 seconds then helped the Illini to push their lead to nine points midway through the first half before the Spartans battled back to cut the deficit to two. Illinois went into halftime holding on to a 37-34 lead.

Michigan State led by as many as six points, just more than 5 minutes into the second half before a Domask triple and back-to-back Guerrier buckets put the Illini back in front, 49-48 with 12 minutes left to play.

After Michigan State knotted the game at 52-52, a Rodgers dunk followed by Hawkins' second trey capped rounded out a 17-4 scoring stretch for the Illini over the span of five-and-a-half minutes. Hawkins splashed his third 3-pointer of the night one minute later to extend the Illini advantage to 62-54 at the 6:35 mark.

The Spartans cut their deficit to a single point, 65-64, with under two minutes to play, before the Illini closed out the game from at the charity stripe with Domask (4-for-4) and Hawkins (2-for-2) combining to drain all six of the attempts over the final 94 seconds of action.

Game 17 Recap – #14 Illinois 88, Michigan 73

No. 14 Illinois used five scorers in double figures and a strong defensive performance to take down Michigan, 88-73, at Crisler Center on Thursday night.

Quincy Guerrier and Coleman Hawkins both registered a double-double in the win, the first Illini duo with double-doubles in a Big Ten road game since 2020. The victory marked Illinois' seventh consecutive over U-M.

Hawkins made plays on both ends of the court, recording his first double-double of the season with a game-high 21 points and 10 rebounds, plus six steals, four assists, one block, and zero turnovers. Guerrier's double-double of 16 points and 14 boards marked his sixth of the season. His also tied the team season high with six offensive rebounds.

Ty Rodgers tied his career-best with 15 points to go along with five rebounds, three assists and a career-high two blocks. Marcus Domask added 15 points, three rebounds, three assists, one block, and one steal, and Justin Harmon scored 11 points off the bench, while two rebounds and matching his season high with two steals.

The Illini totaled a season-high nine steals, and Illinois' 39-29 rebounding edge led to 16 second-chance points off 13 offensive boards. With a season-low six turnovers, the Illini trailed for only 23 seconds en route to their second Big Ten road win of the season.

Michigan scored the game's first points, but an 11-0 Illini run quickly put the Orange and Blue in control. The tightly contested first half ended with the Illini holding a 37-36 lead. But Illinois outscored Michigan 51-37 after the break to run away with the win.

Michigan briefly evened game at 38 early in the second before a 7-0 Illinois run put the Illini back in front for good. U-M later pulled within one point but the Illini responded with a 10-0 run to push the lead to 58-47 with 11:30 left. Following a pair of Michigan free-throws, the Orange and Blue rattled off another 7-0 run to extend their lead to 65-49 at the 8:19 mark of the second half.

Michigan would draw no closer than nine points for the remainder of the game before Domask, Harmon, and Hawkins combined to close out the win by knocking down all six of their free-throw attempts in the final 84 seconds.

Game 18 Recap – #14 Illinois 86, Rutgers 63

No. 14 Illinois defeated Rutgers, 86-63, at State Farm Center behind double-figures scoring games from five Illini. The Orange and Blue used a 31-12 run over the final 10 minutes to complete the regular-season sweep of the Scarlet Knights.

Justin Harmon led the way with a team-high 18 points while also tallying eight rebounds and Quincy Guerrier tallied 15 points and 11 rebounds (five offensive) for his seventh double-double of the season. Coleman Hawkins finished one rebound shy of a double-double with 12 points and nine boards, while recording four assists, and five steals. Hawkins has 11 steals in his last two games after recording six at Michigan.

Terrence Shannon Jr. and Marcus Domask added 16 points and 12 points, respectively, to continue their runs of consecutive double-digit games. Shannon's streak now sits at 22 games, while Domask has tallied 10-plus points in nine straight. Domask also added a team-high five assists and tied his season-best mark with two blocks.

Illinois led by as many as 14 points in the first half, which included an 8-2 run near the end of the period, to take a 40-28 lead into the break. Rutgers cut its deficit to eight after scoring the first four points of the second half, but a

Game 19 Recap – Northwestern 96, #10 Illinois 91 (OT)

No. 10 Illinois fell to Northwestern, 96-91, in overtime at Welsh-Ryan Arena on Wednesday night.

The Illini and Wildcats went blow-for-blow over the course of the game's first 40 minutes to the tune of 15 ties and 18 lead changes. But a 7-0 run by the host Wildcats to begin the overtime period proved too much for the Illini to overcome on the road.

Coleman Hawkins recorded his second double-double of the season, amassing a season-high 22 points and 13 rebounds. Hitting double figures for the 10th time in his last 11 games, Hawkins also notched a career-high seven offensive boards, two steals, and two blocks, his fifth game with multiple swats this season.

Marcus Domask registered his fifth 20-point performance of the season, finishing with 22 points. After putting up seven points in the first half, Domask accumulated 15 points between the second half and overtime for his 10th consecutive outing in double figures. He also added six assists, two rebounds, and one steal.

Quincy Guerrier finished his outing with his third consecutive double-double, tallying 15 points and 11 rebounds. He also tacked on five offensive boards, his third straight game with at least five rebounds on the offensive glass.

Terrence Shannon Jr. added 12 points for his 23rd consecutive game in double figures, and he also ended his outing with three rebounds, three assists, two steals, and one block.

Luke Goode knocked down two 3-pointers, his 11th outing with multiple triples this season, before finishing with eight points and four rebounds.

Game 20 Recap – #10 Illinois 70, Indiana 62

Scoring the final eight points of the contest, No. 10 Illinois fended off Indiana, 70-62, in front of an Orange and Blue-striped, sold-out State Farm Center crowd on Saturday.

Four Fighting Illini scored in double figures, while nine Orange and Blue players contributing offensively in the eight-point home victory as Illinois returned to the win column.

Marcus Domask registered his second double-double of the season, pouring in a team-high 16 points and a season-high 10 rebounds. Domask secured his 11th consecutive outing in double-figures scoring and added a team-high four assists and one steal.

Luke Goode hit three 3-pointers and finished with 11 points, matching Coleman Hawkins, who also added seven rebounds, two blocks and two steals. Ty Rodgers did a little bit of everything in the victory, tallying eight points, five rebounds, two assists, two blocks, and one steal, and Terrence Shannon Jr. hit double figures for the 24th game in a row, recording 10 of his 12 points in the second half, including six points from the free-throw line in the final 63 seconds of action.

Illinois held Indiana without a 3-pointer, while the Illini also won the rebounding battle, 42-35. Taking advantage of 14 offensive rebounds, the Orange and Blue accumulated 13 second-chance points. The Illinoi bench outscored the Indiana reserves, 21-2.

After Indiana jumped out to early 20-12 lead, Illinois began chipping away at its deficit throughout the first half, and eventually took a 38-34 halftime lead. The Illini defense stepped up its intensity over the course of the frame, racking up four steals and four blocks before the break.

Indiana came back to take a 49-42 lead at the 12:43 mark of the second half, but a Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn 3-pointer sparked a 9-0 Illinois run that put the Illini back in front, 51-49. Holding the Hoosiers without a field goal for nearly four minutes, the Illini saw their lead grow to five points, 57-52, via Goode's third 3-pointer of the day.

Two Shannon free throws put the Illini in front, 64-62, with 1:03 remaining. Shannon then hit four more key free-throws in the final 19 seconds to clinch the victory.

Game 21 Recap – #14 Illinois 87, Ohio State 75

No. 14 Illinois used 23 points each from Marcus Domask and Terrence Shannon Jr., plus a 13-point, 10-rebound double-double by Ty Rodgers to pull away in the second half for a valuable road victory, 87-75, at Ohio State's Value City Arena.

After a back-and-forth first half that included eight ties and 11 lead changes, the Illini pulled ahead for good late in the final five minutes of the first half, and led by double digits for the final 13:31 of the second half to secure their third Big Ten road victory.

Shannon scored 18 of his 23 points in the second half and knocked down three 3-pointers while shooting a perfect 6-for-6 from the free-throw line. Shannon also added three rebounds, three assists, and two blocks for his fourth game with multiple swats. Domask scored the Illini's final eight points of the night and went 8-for-8 from the charity stripe, while adding three rebounds and two assists.

Justin Harmon and Dain Dainja also provided a spark off the bench. Harmon tallied six points, four rebounds, one assist, and one steal. Dainja poured in seven points off the bench, his most since Jan. 14, plus five rebounds and one block.

Harmon, Domask and Amanai Hansberry combined to help the Illini close the first period on an 8-2 run, turning a 33-32 deficit into a 41-34 halftime lead.

Illinois picked up right where it left off to begin the final frame, scoring nine of the first 14 points of the second half to build a 50-39 lead.

After the Buckeyes cut their deficit to six points, 50-44, at the 16:02 mark, the Orange and Blue answered with six straight points as part of a larger 17-8 run that pushed the advantage to as high as 16 points, 68-52, with 10:19 to play.

Ohio State fought back to within 10, before Shannon rattled off six straight to give the Illini a 70-60 lead with 6:59 remaining. Shannon connected on his third 3-pointer of the night two minutes later before Domask scored Illinois' final eight points of the night to close out the win.

Game 23 Recap – Michigan State 88, #10 Illinois 80

No. 10 Illinois led by as many as eight in the second half but could not hang on in an 88-80 road loss to Michigan State at the Breslin Center on Saturday afternoon. The loss dropped the second-place Fighting Illini to 8-4 in conference play with four away games and four home contests left in the regular season.

Terrence Shannon Jr. scored game-high 28 points, his team-leading ninth outing with at least 20 points. After totaling a team-high 16 first-half points, Shannon did not slow down in the final frame with a team-most 12 points after the break. He also totaled seven rebounds and one assist while going 12-for-13 from the free-throw line.

Coleman Hawkins reached double figures for the second game in a row, recording 14 points. Knocking down two 3-pointers, his 11th game with multiple treys, Hawkins also grabbed three boards, dished out a season-high seven assists, and made a team-high two steals.

Marcus Domask tallied 12 points, his 14th consecutive game in double figures. He also amassed four rebounds and two assists, and his team-best two blocks equaled his season-high mark.

Luke Goode hit two 3-pointers en route to a six-point, seven-rebound performance before fouling out late in the game. Justin Harmon registered seven points off the bench, and Ty Rodgers notched eight points and two boards in his return to his home state.

The tightly contested game featured 15 ties and 16 lead changes. The Illini led, 33-25, with just under six minutes to play in the first half before MSU went on a 14-2 run to take a 39-35 lead with two minutes left before the break. The Spartans held a 44-41 advantage at the half, but the Illini used a 12-2 run of their own to turn a 62-60 deficit into a 72-64 lead at the 7:38 mark of the second half. Illinois' offense hit just one more field goal in the contest, Justin Harmon's layup with 22 seconds to play, as MSU closed the game on a 24-8 run to seal the win and snap the Illini's three-game Big Ten win streak.

Game 25 Recap – #14 Illinois 85, Maryland 80

No. 14 Illinois secured an 85-80 road win over Maryland at XFINITY Center on Saturday, marking the Illini's first away victory over the Terrapins since 2011 behind double-digit scoring efforts from four players.

The Illini's 85 points marked the team's most ever in College Park, and the Illini moved to 10-4 in Big Ten play to reach double-digit regular-season conference wins for the fifth consecutive season.

Terrence Shannon Jr. took over down the stretch, registering Illinois' final eight points of the game to finish with a team-high 27. Shannon shot a career-high 14-for-16 from the free-throw line, and added two assists, one rebound, one steal, and four blocks, his most in conference play this season and one shy of his career high.

Marcus Domask secured his third double-double of the season, tallying 19 points and a season-high 12 rebounds. Domask surpassed the 2,000-point career scoring mark with a jumper in the second half. He also dished out a team-most three assists.

Coleman Hawkins added 14 points and seven rebounds and was pivotal on the defensive end late in the game. He also grabbed the 500th rebound of his career early in the first half. Justin Harmon was the first off the bench, and he made the most of his 26 minutes by pouring in 10 points and three rebounds.

In a battle between two very physical teams, Illinois went 32-for-36 (89%) from the free-throw line, the team's most makes and attempts from the charity stripe this season.

Illinois led by as many as seven at several points in the contest, but after staking to a 43-38 halftime lead, the Illini never trailed throughout the tightly contested second half. Maryland briefly tied the game 68-68 with 5:39 to play, but a Domask layup started an 11-5 run that pushed the lead back to two possessions with 1:53 to play. The Illini sealed the win at the line as Shannon scored the team's final seven points from the free-throw line to hold off the Terrapins.
