No. 7 PENN STATE (14-2 , 2-2 Big Ten) BIG TEN CHAMPIONSHIP - LINCOLN, NEB.

NITTANY LIONS LOOK TO CAPTURE THIRD BIG TEN TITLE

The Penn State men's gymnastics team recently wrapped up its 2014 regular season schedule on the road at Michigan. Despite the loss to the top-ranked Wolverines, the Nittany Lions are returning to action after a week off from competition.

Looking to bring home their third Big Ten Championship in program history, PSU concluded last year with a second-place finish at the Big Ten Championship. Penn State claimed its fourth runner-up finish at the 2013 championship with a team total of 434.050 to place second behind eventual champion, Michigan.

Penn State claimed the team title during the 2003 and 2008 seasons, while finishing runner-up three times since joining the conference in 1992. Individually, Craig Hernandez highlighted the event topping the pommel horse lineup on both days of competition.

The complete history for Penn State at the Big Ten Championships can be found on page five of these notes.

EVANS NAMED NISSEN-EMERY FINALIST

Senior Adrian Evans has been selected as a finalist for the 2014 Nissen-Emery Award. Widely regarded as one of the most prestigious collegiate men's gymnastics honors, Evans joins eight other student-athletes from around the nation in this year's group of nine finalists.

The Nissen-Emery Award is an annual honor presented to the most outstanding senior student-athlete in collegiate gymnastics. A native of Boulder Colo., Evans earned his second consecutive All-America honor on the pommel horse at the 2013 NCAA national championship. Outside of the gym, the 2014 team captain has earned College Gymnastics Association All-America Scholar-Athlete honors in the last three consecutive seasons, while also earning a spot on the Academic All-Big Ten team.

Evans is the 26th Nissen-Emery finalist in Penn State program history and the third consecutive Nittany Lion finalist since 2012. A total of six PSU gymnasts have gone on to earn collegiate gymnastics' highest honor, including the most recent Penn State award winner, Casey Sandy, who captured the top honor in 2009.

IN-SEASON TOURNAMENT CHAMPS

Penn State opened the 2014 season with a first-place finish at the West Point Open Jan. 17 when they topped the five-team field with a score of 428.100.

The victory marked the 11th consecutive season that the Nittany Lions have recorded at least one in-season invitational title. After capturing the Navy Open title with a top score of 420.900 the following weekend, Penn State stretched its in-season tournament winning streak to 15.

Since their last non-first place finish at the Southwest Cup in 2001, the Lions have one Temple Invitational title, two Southwest Cup titles, three Navy Open crowns and 10 West Point Open trophies during that stretch.

Additionally, the team title at the West Point Open marked the 15th time in program history that the Nittany Lions have swept the field in the annual tournament, hosted by longtime east coast rival Army.

EVANS HONORED WITH STUDENT-ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Senior Adrian Evans was one of three Penn State student-athletes honored with a Penn State Student Achievement Award. Evans was the recipient of the 2014 Ernest B. McCoy Memorial Award.

The McCoy Award is presented annually to one senior male and one senior female student-athlete who have combined successful athletic participation with academic excellence. The award is named for Ernest B. McCoy, who was Penn State's Athletic Director and Dean of the College of Physical Education from 1952-70. His name adorns the Penn State natatorium.

DUVERGLAS AMONG THE BEST ON VAULT

Junior Tristan Duverglas has secured a top-10 positioning within the NCAA rankings on the vault throughout the season. Paced by a season-high score of 15.500 against Temple (2/8), his unique triple-pike on vault ranks him seventh nationally (15.133). In 2014, Duverglas has vaulted to three first-place finishes including two straight against Temple (2/8) and Illinois (2/15).

HOWARD COLLECTS THIRD BIG TEN WEEKLY HONOR

After helping Penn State to its sixth consecutive team title of the 2014 season, sophomore Trevor Howard earned his fourth Big Ten Gymnast of the Week honor of the 2014 season. The award brings his career total to 12 weekly honors.

Howard led the Nittany Lions with two individual titles in Penn State's 440.200 - 431.500 victory against sixth-ranked Minnesota in the regular season home finale.

HEAD COACH RANDY JEPSON

Under the direction of Randy Jepson, the 2000, 2004, and 2007 National Coach of the Year, the Penn State men's gymnastics program has carried on the proud tradition of excellence and achievement established by its forerunners. After guiding his teams to three national championships and two Big Ten titles, Jepson serves as a symbol of Penn State's vaunted gymnastics heritage.

Testament to his impact upon and dedication to the Penn State program and the sport overall, Jepson received the prestigious CGA Honor Coach Award in 2011. Bestowed annually, the Honor Coach Award recognizes CGA member coaches with 25 years or more of service to the sport of gymnastics. Presented with the honor at the NCAA/CGA Awards Banquet in April, Jepson received a special introduction by Bill Ballister, his coach and mentor while at the University of Oregon.

A member of the coaching staff since 1983, Jepson was appointed head coach on July 6, 1992, succeeding long-time head coach Karl Schier. During Jepson's coaching tenure at his alma mater, Penn State student-athletes have earned All-America honors 111 times. He has also mentored 16 individual national champions, including Mark Sohn, the first gymnast to win four-consecutive pommel horse national crowns.

Jepson also championed the renovation efforts of the White Building, the Penn State training gymnasium, transforming the facility into the top collegiate training site in the country.

Jepson's Background

Before his appointment as acting head coach, Jepson spent six seasons as an assistant to Schier, who retired on October 1, 1991.

Jepson is the sixth head coach in the 72-year history of the Penn State men's gymnastics program and only the third in the last 64 years. Gene Wettstone coached from 1939-76 and was succeeded by Schier, one of his former athletes, who served from 1977-91. Jepson earned the appointment on April of 1991, the year he was named Assistant Coach of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for his outstanding work.

Seven months prior to that, he coached Mike Masucci to a gold medal in the all-around as head coach of the U.S. team that participated in the Cup of Puerto Rico international meet in San Juan. Masucci also captured gold medals in four events.

A native of Portland, Ore., Jepson lettered for three years at the University of Oregon and was an NCAA finalist on the rings his sophomore year. He transferred to Penn State in 1982, when the Ducks dropped their gymnastics program. In his one season as a Nittany Lion, Jepson was captain and won All-America honors on rings.

A Nissen-Award nominee as a senior, Jepson posted a perfect score of 10.0 on rings in a meet against a team from the Soviet Union in 1983 at Rec Hall.

Jepson joined the Lions' coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1983 and worked in that capacity for two seasons. His first season as an assistant coach was 1985-86.

Jepson has been instrumental in guiding Penn State gymnastics to berths on the U.S. Senior National and Developmental squads, and in addition was a member of the 1997 and 2005 USA World Championships coaching staff.

A member of the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches, Jepson served as secretary and treasurer of the United States Elite Coaches Association.

In years past, Jepson has served men's program director at Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pa. In addition, Jepson directed the North team that won the gold medal at the 1993 United States Olympic Festival.

Jepson has also been heavily involved in national team training camps, helping to prepare teams for the 1999 World Championships in China and the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia. He was also selected as assistant coach for the 1999 Pan American Games team in Winnipeg, Canada. In 2006, Jepson served as an assistant coach for Team USA at the World Championships and in a meet versus France and Switzerland. In February of 2008, Jepson served as head coach of a six-man U.S. team in a dual meet versus Canada, leading the Americans to victory. Later that year, countless hours spent overseeing the training of world class gymnast and Penn State assistant coach Kevin Tan paid off for Jepson, as Tan realized a lifelong dream by earning a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team. Jepson served as Tan's personal coach, accompanying him to Beijing, China for the 2008 Summer Games, where he captured a bronze medal in the team competition.

Jepson received his master's degree from Penn State in exercise sport and science, with an emphasis in biomechanics, in 1990. He and his wife, Sue, a Penn State alum, and their four children - Adam and Anna, who both currently attend Penn State, Emily, and Maggie - reside in Centre Hall.

Registering a pair of season-high marks, Howard swung to a first-place finish on the rings (15.750), while also securing a top score of 15.200 on the parallel bars. He also placed fourth on the vault (15.00) and fifth in the floor exercise (14.900) to round out top-five finishes in all of his events.

EVANS SELECTED AS TEAM CAPTAIN

Prior to the season starting, senior Adrian Evans was selected as the Nittany Lion's team captain.

A native of Boulder, Colo., Evans earned his second consecutive All-America honor on the pommel horse at the 2013 NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championships.

Outside of the gym, the advertising major and 2014 team captain earned College Gymnastics Association All-America Scholar-Athlete honors the last three seasons, while also earning a spot on the Academic All-Big Ten team.

HOWARD EARNS SECOND BIG TEN WEEKLY HONOR

After recording his seventh individual title of the season, sophomore Trevor Howard was tabbed the Big Ten Gymnast of the Week. The award marks his second conference weekly honor of the 2014 season and the 11th of his career.

Howard helped guide the Nittany Lions to a first-place finish at the Navy Open (420.900) this weekend. He led the way with a trio of top-five finishes, including a first-place finish on the high bar, winning by a season-high score of 14.600.

Competing on the parallel bars, he captured a second-place finish (14.400), before swinging to another second-place finish on the rings. Howard's 15.750 score on the rings is a personal season-high, as well as the top PSU score for the 2014 season.

UNBLEMISHED HOME SLATE

Penn State completed their 12th undefeated home schedule under head coach Randy Jepson with a perfect 4-0 mark inside Rec Hall.

It is the fourth consecutive season that the Nittany Lions have not dropped a home contest.

HOWARD EARNS FIRST CONFERENCE WEEKLY AWARD

Penn State's Trevor Howard has been selected as the Big Ten Gymnast of the Week. Howard, who earned his second career Big Ten Gymnast of the Week honor, is the first Nittany Lions to receive league recognition in 2014.

In 2013, Howard earned a record-setting nine Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors, while also picking up one Gymnast of the Week award.

Howard played a key role in Penn State's season-opening victory (431.900-410.300) against No. 15 Army.

The sophomore captured four individual event titles on the way to a first-place finish in the all-around. He opened the night with a 15.050 score in the floor exercise before securing top finishes on the still rings (15.450), vault (15.00) and parallel bars (15.100). Howard also swung to a 14.350 score on the high bar.

NINE NAMED ALL-AMERICA SCHOLAR - ATHLETES

Announced in September 2014 by the College Gymnastics Association, nine members of the 2013 Penn State men's gymnastics team were selected as All-America Scholar-Athletes.

In order to garner first team recognition, student-athletes had to achieve a grade point average of at least 3.50 while members of the second team attained between a 3.20 and 3.499. The Blue and White placed 10th as a team in the NCAA and fifth among Big Ten squads with a combined GPA of 3.068.

Senior All-American Adrian Evans headlined the group of honorees, earning a grade point average between 3.90-3.999, the highest on the team.

He was joined on the first team by Scott Rosenthal (3.80-3.899), Felix Aronovich (3.70-3.799), Parker Raque (3.60-3.699) and Ingvar Jochumsson (3.50-3.599).

Preston Gall (3.30-3.99), Tony Beck (3.30-3.399), Matthew Chelberg (3.20-3.299) and Craig Hernandez (3.20-3.299) picked up second team honors.

MEN'S GYMNASTICS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Penn State has had its fair share of success at the Big Ten Championships, winning the 2008 and 2003 team titles, while claiming 21 individual crowns at the Big Ten Championships since joining the conference in 1992.

In 22 seasons in the Big Ten, the Nittany Lions have claimed at least one individual title during 11 of those seasons. Six times Penn State has brought home multiple event winners.

There have been 28 All-Big Ten pickets that have donned the blue and white over the years, with Kevin Tan (2002-03-04) and Derek Helsby (2006-07-08) each earning the honors on three occasions.

In 1998, Mike Dutka won the all-around, floor exercise, vault and pommel horse. He is one of just four gymnasts since 1980 to win four or more events at a single championship, joining Scott Vetere (Michigan, 2000) and Brian Meeker (Minnesota, 1982), who won four events, and Blaine Wilson (Ohio State, 1997), who claimed five event titles.

Of the 21 titles, seven have come on the still rings, four on the parallel bars, three on the pommel horse, two on the high bar and vault and one on the floor exercise. Two of those have come on as the top all-arounder.

A list of event champions are to the right.

BIG TEN AWARDS

The Penn State men's gymnastics squad has been one of the top team's in the country this season and that has been reflected on the conference level.

Nittany Lion Trevor Howard has earned a total of three Big Ten Gymnast of the Week honors in 2014 after winning eight of the 12 Freshman of the Week awards during the 2013 season.

Howard's eight top rookie honors marked the most by any Big Ten freshman, passing C.J. Maestas' six honors from 2012. Illinois' Chandler Eggleston earned five straight to open the 2014 season.

The Big Ten office has awarded a Gymnast of the Week award since the 1999 season and handed out the Freshman of the Week accolade since the 2010 season.
