HEAD COACH CHARLENE MORETT

The longest tenured coach in the Big Ten and sixth-longest tenured at a single school in Division I field hockey history, Charlene Morett enters her 27th season as head coach of the Penn State field hockey program. Morett boasts a remarkable resume covering her time as the leader of the Nittany Lions. Over the last five years, Morett has led the Nittany Lions to two Big Ten regular season titles, two Big Ten Tournament championships and four NCAA Tournament appearances.

Morett currently ranks fourth all-time in Division I history in wins with 445 and is one of just five DI coaches to accumulate 400 career wins. She has led the Nittany Lions to the NCAA Tournament in 23 of her 26 years as head coach of Penn State and has helped maintain Penn State's distinction as the No. 3 ranked school in all-time NCAA Tournament appearances with 28.

A seven-time NFHCA Mideast Region Coach of the Year, Morett is an excellent teacher of field hockey. Her players earn national recognition on a yearly basis, 11 of whom have been named two-time first team All-Americans with Kelsey Amy being the most recent. Her teams dominate the national scene, consistently ranking among the Top 10 in the national polls. Penn State was ranked in the Top 10 of the STX/NFHCA poll for 32 consecutive weeks from the first poll of the 2005 season ending with the second poll of 2008. The squad achieved a No. 1 ranking in the STX/NFHCA poll for the first time in program history. From 2005-08, Penn State finished eighth, sixth, ninth and 11th respectively, in the final poll of the season.

Under Morett's tutelage, five of her players have been named Big Ten Athlete of the Year -- Traci Anselmo, Jen Coletta, Heather Gorlaski, Tracey Larson and Kiley Kulina. Seven players have been voted the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year -- Natalie Berrena, Coletta, Dawn Lammey, Larson, Tara Maguire, Allison Scola and Kelsey Amy. In 2012, Brittany Grzywacz was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the ninth Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year from Penn State, joining Anselmo, Gorlaski, Becca Main, Jill Martz, Jill Pearsall and Jen Long. Long and Anselmo are the only Lions to be named Defensive Player of the Year twice.

Since Penn State's entry into the Big Ten in 1992, Morett's program has produced more first team All-Big Ten selections, Big Ten Defensive Players of the Year, Big Ten Athletes of the Year and Big Ten Freshmen of the Year than any other program. Penn State's nine Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honorees are four more than any other school.

With Amy, Laura Gebhart, Lauren Purvis, Grzywacz and Ashtin Klinger earning All-Big Ten laurels last season, Penn State has now totaled 89 All-Big Ten selections since 1992, including 62 first team All-Conference choices, the most of any Big Ten school since Penn State moved to the Big Ten in 1992.

During Morett's tenure, Penn State has produced 37 first team All-America choices with at least one player earning the honor in 24 of the coach's 26 seasons. Overall, Penn State has had at least one first team All-American in 26 of the last 29 years, including every year from 1975-08. In 2007, for the first time since 2002, Penn State had two first team All-Americans in Long and Kiersten Wood.

A number of Morett's players - past and present - have played at an elite level with the United States program, with Larson earning a spot on the U.S. National Team for three consecutive seasons. Another former Nittany Lion, Eleanor Stone, has been on the national team for a total of seven different seasons. Seven former players have competed on the U.S. National Team, with several others playing on various levels of national teams. Recent graduates Long and Scola were three-year members of the U.S. Under-21 National Team. Both Long and Wood trained with the U.S. National Team in Chula Vista, Calif. while Scola went on an exhibition tour of Argentina with the U-21 team. In the spring of 2007, Long and Scola represented the U.S. on the U-21 team's tour of China. Morett attended with them as the Chef de Mission for U.S. Field Hockey. Additionally, Long and Scola, along with All-America alum Larson, helped the East team capture the U.S. Open Regional Championship in the summer of 2007. Gebhart, a member on this year's Penn State squad, is the latest Nittany Lion to rise through the ranks at the national level. The junior has competed for the U.S. at the Junior World Cup in Germany in the summer of 2013 and was named to the 2013-14 U.S. National Team in May 2013.

Laura Kassab and Jessica Longstreth were both members of the U.S. National Indoor Hockey Team as well. Scola is currently on the U.S. Development Squad after being named to the team in June of 2009. In addition, Long and Amy competed for team PA in USA Field Hockey's National Championship last June. Redshirt junior goalkeeper Kylie Licata played on the Junior National High Performance Team as well.

Morett's teams have also produced a run of success in Big Ten games that is unparalleled since Penn State joined the conference in 1992. Since that time, the Nittany Lions own the most Big Ten regular season wins, the highest Big Ten regular season and tournament winning percentage, the most Big Ten Tournament titles and the most Big Ten Tournament wins.

Morett had her best season in recent memory in 2012, as the team captured both the Big Ten regular season and Big Ten Tournament crowns in the same season for just the third time in her illustrious career. Morett reached a coaching milestone during 2012, as the coach recorded her 400th win as the head coach of Penn State in a 7-1 defeat of #24 Indiana on Sept. 21. The Nittany Lions' record of 18-4 (.818) was the fifth-best mark of Morett's career. Penn State earned a 5-1 record in Big Ten regular season play before defeating Iowa and Michigan for a second time in the Big Ten tourney on the way to the title. Morett earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors for the fifth time in her career for the standout season. The Lions made it to the NCAA Quarterfinals for the second consecutive season after defeating Albany 2-1 in the opening round. Morett's 2012 squad featured the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, five NFHCA All-Americans, four All-Big Ten selections, three Big Ten All-Tournament Team members and a program 16 Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

In 2011, Penn State was crowned the Big Ten Tournament champions, after defeating the Michigan Wolverines on Nov. 6 in the championship game. It was Penn State's first Big Ten Tournament title since 1998. The Big Ten champion Nittany Lions finished the season with a 17-6 overall record and also earned an NCAA first round victory over the Northeastern Huskies. Morett had three players recognized with NFHCA All-America honors.

Following an up-and-down 2009 season, Penn State rebounded in fine fashion in 2010. Finishing with a 14-6 record, the Lions won seven more games than they did in 2009, which marked the second-largest improvement in the nation. Guiding the squad to a berth in the NCAA Tournament, Morett earned NFHCA Mid-east Region

5. Charlene Morett	Penn State	1984-Pres...445-173-17 (.714)

Coach of the Year honors and helped three of her players earn All-America honors.

In 2008, Morett led the Nittany Lions to the Big Ten regular season title, their first conference championship since 2005 and fifth overall. The squad was eventually awarded an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament where it fell to a tough Princeton squad, 2-0. Morett was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the fourth time.

The squad enjoyed plenty of success in the mid-2000s as well. In 2007, after defeating Virginia for the second time in the season with a win in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, Penn State stunned second-ranked Maryland on the Terps' home field to advance to the NCAA Semifinals. The Nittany Lions then came back to the same field five days later and knocked off third-ranked Wake Forest in the National Semifinals, the program's first-ever win over the Demon Deacons, to advance to the National Championship game. The memorable run included three wins over ACC teams for the shot to play for the national title.

Despite the season ending with a loss to top-ranked and undefeated North Carolina in the title game, four Nittany Lions were named NFHCA All-Americans. One year earlier in 2006, Morett led the Nittany Lions to their first appearance in the Big Ten Tournament Championship Game since 2003. She also won her 350th career game with a 1-0 win over Connecticut on September 3, 2006.

In 2005, the Nittany Lions won 17 consecutive games to tie a program record en route to a Big Ten regular season crown, their first conference title since 1998. Berrena, a senior, was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year and three other Nittany Lions were honored as All-Big Ten. Morett won her 300th game as Penn State head coach, a 5-0 decision over Temple on September 14. She was named Mid-east Region Coach of the Year for the fifth time in her career and was recognized as the Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third time.

In 2002, Morett guided the Nittany Lions on a memorable NCAA Tournament run. Penn State opened with back-to-back wins over Kent State and Princeton in the opening rounds played at Penn State before defeating No. 1 ranked Old Dominion, 3-2, to advance to the NCAA National Championship Game for the first time in program history.

While Penn State dropped the title game, 2-0, to Wake Forest, the year went down as one of the greatest seasons in program history, as four players were recognized with STX All-America honors and five earned All-Big Ten status.

Morett led the 1993 squad to the university's first outright Big Ten Championship in any sport. The team won 15-straight games, a record at the time. The most notable upset was a 2-1 victory at Old Dominion which ended the Monarchs' 66-game win streak. Since then, Morett has led her Lions to five more regular season titles and an unprecedented four straight Big Ten Tournament crowns from 1995 through 1998. Penn State won its sixth tournament title in 2012.

Morett's teams have not only excelled on the field but also in the classroom. Penn State has produced 193 Academic All-Big Ten selections since 1992 and is the only school in the Big Ten to have 10 or more Academic All-Big Ten selections for 12 of the past 13 seasons. The 2012 squad produced a record 16 athletes named Academic All-Big Ten. Additionally, a record 16 members of the team were named to the NFHCA National Academic Squad in 2008, a then-record 14 the year before, and in the two years previous to that, a total of 12 players were named to the squad in each season. During the 2008-09 school year, the Nittany Lions were also winners of the Penn State Highest GPA Academic Award given to the team with the highest overall GPA and the Varsity "S" Women's Team GPA honor.

A 1979 graduate of Penn State, Morett was an outstanding field hockey player and the program's only three-time first team All-American. Captain of the undefeated 1978 team, Morett was a phenomenal scorer, netting 50 goals in four years and was the first Lion to score five goals in a game. She held that record for 21 years. After leaving Penn State, Morett continued to play field hockey at the national level and in 1982, she was named the USFHA's Co-Athlete of the Year.

A two-time Olympian, Morett played in more than 100 international matches. Morett remained in Happy Valley as a graduate assistant to train for the 1980 Olympics. Unable to participate in the 1980 Moscow Games due to the U.S. boycott, Morett remained loyal and enthusiastic to the U.S. team, traveling all over the world in international competition in preparation for the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games, where she won a bronze medal. Morett was also awarded a Congressional Gold Medal as part of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team when the U.S. Congress officially awarded the medals more than 27 years after the boycotted games.

Also an All-American lacrosse player in Happy Valley, Morett was one of the nation's top scorers in the sport when Penn State won its second consecutive USWLA National Championship. She also played for the 1978 and 1979 United States Women's Lacrosse Association National Champion teams. Morett was a member of the U.S. Lacrosse team and earned Most Valuable Player at the 1979 USWLA National Championship, where the Nittany Lions defeated the University of Massachusetts.

After completing her undergraduate degree in physical education, she worked for one year as a graduate assistant at PSU, helping the Lions become National Finalists in field hockey and National Champions in lacrosse.

Beth Anders then tabbed Morett as her assistant in 1980 at Old Dominion, where she would coach for four years. During that time, Morett helped the Monarchs reach three-straight National Championship games, and in the process, Anders served as a positive mentor for Morett's future success.

In 1984, Morett was named head field hockey and lacrosse coach at Boston College. She immediately lifted the Eagle field hockey program into the Top 20 and won an Eastern College Athletic Conference title in her first year.

When Penn State legend Gillian Rattray retired from coaching in 1987, Morett returned to her alma mater to take over for her mentor, inheriting a program with 17-straight winning seasons and five-straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

Morett has continued that winning tradition by leading 23 of her teams into the NCAA Tournament, including her first 14-straight, giving the Penn State program 19-straight NCAA appearances from 1982-00. Morett has enjoyed a winning record in 24 of her 26 years with the Nittany Lions and a non-losing record 25 times. Under Morett and Rattray before her, Penn State amassed 31-straight years with at least 10 or more wins.

Morett's 2002 and 2007 teams reached the National Championship game, her 1990, 1991 and 1993 teams reached the NCAA Semifinals, and her 1988, 1992 and 1994 squads missed joining the Elite Foursome after one-goal losses in overtime. Her coaching accomplishments include six Big Ten Championships (1993, 1997, 1998, 2005, 2008, 2012), six Big Ten Tournament titles (1995-1998, 2011, 2012) and two Atlantic 10 Conference championships (1989, 1990).

Morett's success at PSU has led to numerous coaching honors. She was the Mideast Region Coach of the Year in 1990, 1991, 1993, 2000, 2005, 2007 and 2010. The Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year in 1989, she was the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 1993, 1998, 2005, 2008 and 2012.

Morett is a member of the USFHA Hall Of Fame as well as the NFHCA Hall of Fame and served as the USFHA Vice President of Coaching. NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

1982 Brenda Stauffer

BRODERICK AWARD

1980 Jeannie Fissinger
1981 Candy Finn

Three former Nittany Lions have competed in the Olympics. In 1980, Chris Larson and current Penn State Head Coach Charlene Morett qualified for the Olympic Team that was set to compete in Moscow. The U.S. did not compete in those games due to the boycott, but Morett and Larson made the team again four years later in Los Angeles and won the bronze medal. That year, Brenda Stauffer also competed for the United States, giving that squad three former Penn State players on its experience.

Says Morett of her experience, "Penn State prepared me to play at the highest level. My goal is to prepare my current players for similar challenges."
