2002 National Finalists

2007 National Finalists

A true reflection of Penn State's commitment to women's athletics, the Penn State Field Hockey Complex is entering its sixth season as the home of Nittany Lion field hockey. The pitch, which is used exclusively for field hockey, features new turf and a state-of-the-art watering system. The Lions opened the new field in style in 2005, going 10-0 en route to a program record 17 straight wins. Penn State is 34-11 in five years at its new field.

Two sets of seating areas on one side of the field have room to seat up to 750 spectators, 250 more than Bigler. The field also has permanent lights that allow for night games to be played. The watering system allows the field to be watered both prior to practices and games as well as at halftime of games in order to maintain optimal field conditions on one of the finest playing surfaces in the country.

The Penn State Field Hockey Complex, which is located adjacent to Bigler Field, replaced Bigler as the home of field hockey and became the team's fifth different home since the program's inception in 1964. Bigler was home to Penn State field hockey for nine seasons from 1996-2004. The field has become just one of the latest new additions to Penn State's ever-growing "athletic campus" on the Northeast end of campus.

The field has proven to be quite friendly for the home standing Nittany Lions. In addition to the impressive 34-11 record over its first five years on the field, it has also proved to be a fan-friendly experience. Penn State finished third in the country in home attendance in 2009 and the interest is reaching an all-time high. A facility record 794 fans came out for the Sept. 1, 2008 game vs. Maryland.

HEAD COACH

Charlene MORETT

24th Season at Penn State
27th Overall

Penn State, 1979

The longest tenured coach in the Big Ten and seventh longest tenured at a single school in Division I field hockey, Charlene Morett enters her 24th season as head coach of the Penn State field hockey program. Morett boasts a remarkable resume covering her time as leader of the Nittany Lions. Over the last three years, Morett has led the Nittany Lions to a Big Ten Championship (in 2008), one year following their second appearance in the National Championship Game.

Morett currently ranks fourth all-time (in Division I history) in wins with 396 and is one of just 10 DI coaches to accumulate 300 career wins. With four more wins, she will become only the fourth Division I field hockey coach in NCAA history to hit the 400-victory plateau.

Morett has led the Nittany Lions to the NCAA Tournament in 20 out of her 23 years as head coach and has helped maintain Penn State's distinction as the No. 2 ranked school in all-time NCAA Tournament appearances with 25.

Despite an up-and-down 2009 season, there were a number of bright spots. The Nittany Lions beat two straight ranked teams in early October, No. 18 Ohio State (in overtime) and No. 14 Stanford in succession. Penn State went on to beat the Buckeyes for a second time in the first round of the Big Ten Tournament, becoming only the second No. 7 seed to ever win a tournament game. The Lions were also tied with No. 20 Indiana heading into half-time of the Big Ten semis, but fell just short of a berth in the championship game.

In 2008, Morett led the Nittany Lions to the Big Ten Regular Season Title, their first conference championship since 2005 and fifth overall. The squad was eventually awarded an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament where it fell to a tough Princeton squad, 2-0. Morett was also named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the fourth time.

In 2007, Morett led Penn State through a memorable run to its seventh NCAA Semifinal appearance in program history and was named the NFHCA Mid-east Region Coach of the Year. The milestones have been endless for Morett as four years ago, she became just the fourth coach in NCAA history to accumulate at least 350 career wins, and five years ago, she won her 300th game at Penn State.

A six-time Mid-east Region Coach of the Year, Morett is an excellent teacher of field hockey. Her players earn national recognition on a yearly basis, 10 of whom have been named two-time First Team All-Americans with Jen Long being the most recent. Her teams dominate the national scene, consistently ranking among the Top 10 in the national polls. In fact, Penn State was ranked in the Top 10 of the STX/NFHCA poll for 32 consecutive weeks from the first poll of the 2005 season ending with the second poll of 2008. The 1999 squad achieved a No. 1 ranking in the STX/NFHCA poll for the first time in program history. From 2005-08, Penn State finished eighth, sixth, ninth, and 11th respectively, in the final poll of the season.

Under Morett's tutelage, five of her players have been named Big Ten Athlete of the Year — Traci Anselmo, Jen Coletta, Heather Gorklaski, Tracey Larson and Kiley Kulina. Six players have been voted the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year — Natalie Berrena, Coletta, Dawn Lammey, Larson, Tara Maguire, and Allison Scola. In 2008, Long was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year for a second consecutive season, becoming the league's eighth Defensive Player of the Year from Penn State, joining Anselmo, Gorklaski, Becca Main, Jill Martz and Jill Pearsall. Long and

HEAD COACH CHARLENE MORETT

Anselmo are the only Lions to be named Defensive Player of the Year twice. Since Penn State's entry into the Big Ten in 1992, Morett's program has produced more First Team All-Big Ten selections, more Big Ten Defensive Players of the Year, more Big Ten Athletes of the Year and more Big Ten Freshmen of the Year than any other. Penn State's eight Defensive Player of the Year honorees is four more than the schools with the next most.

With Laura Cahill and Bethany Marvel earning All-Big Ten laurels last season, Penn State has now totaled 76 All-Big Ten selections since 1992, including 53 First Team All-Conference choices, the most of any Big Ten school since 1992.

During Morett's tenure, Penn State has produced 35 First-Team All-America choices with at least one player earning the honor in 22 of the coach's 23 seasons. Overall, Penn State has had at least one First Team All-American in 24 of the last 25 years, including every year from 1975-2008. In 2007, for the first time since 2002, Penn State had two First Team All-Americans in Long and Kiersten Wood.

A number of Morett's players - past and present - have played at an elite level with the United States program, with Larson earning a spot on the U.S. National Team for three consecutive seasons. Another former Nittany Lion, Eleanor Stone, has been on the national team for a total of seven different seasons. Seven former players have competed on the U.S. National Team, with several others playing on various other levels of national teams. Recent graduates Long and Scola were three-year members of the U.S. Under-21 National Team. Both Long and Wood trained with the U.S. National Team in Chula Vista, Calif. while Scola went on an exhibition tour of Argentina with the U-21 team. In the spring of 2007, Long and Scola represented the U.S. on the U-21 team's tour of China. Morett attended with them as the Chef de Mission for U.S. Field Hockey. Additionally, Long and Scola, along with All-America alum Larson helped the East team capture the U.S. Open Regional Championship in the summer of 2007.

Laura Kassab and current junior Jessica Longstreth were both members of the U.S. National Indoor Hockey Team as well. Scola is currently on the U.S. Development Squad after being named to the team in June of 2009. In addition, Long and current sophomore Kelsey Amy competed for team PA in USA Field Hockey's National Championship this past June. Incoming freshman goalkeeper Kylie Licata played on the Junior National High Performance Team as well.

Morett's teams have also produced a run of success in Big Ten games that is unparalleled since Penn State joined the conference in 1992. Since that time, the Nittany Lions own the most Big Ten regular season wins, the highest Big Ten regular season and tournament winning percentage, the second-most Big Ten Tournament wins and a tie for the most Big Ten Tournament titles.

The squad has enjoyed plenty of recent success as well. In 2007, after defeating Virginia for the second time in the season with a win in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, Penn State stunned second-ranked Maryland on the Terps' home field to advance to the NCAA Semifinals. The Nittany Lions then came back to the same field five days later and knocked off third-ranked Wake Forest in the National Semifinals, the program's first-ever win over the Demon Deacons, to advance to the National Championship Game. The memorable run included three wins over ACC teams for the shot to play for the national title.

Despite the season ending with a loss to top-ranked and undefeated North Carolina in the title game, four Nittany Lions were named NFHCA All-Americans. One year earlier in 2006, Morett led the Nittany Lions to their first appearance in the Big Ten Tournament Championship Game since 2003. She also won her 350th career game with a 1-0 win over Connecticut on September 3, 2006.

In 2005, the Nittany Lions won 17 consecutive games to tie a program record en route to a Big Ten regular season crown, their first conference crown since 1998. Berrena, a senior, was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year and three other Nittany Lions were honored as All-Big Ten. Morett also won her 300th game as Penn State head coach, a 5-0 decision over Temple on September 14. She was named Mideast Region Coach of the Year for the fifth time in her career and also was recognized as the Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third time.

In 2002, Morett guided the Nittany Lions to a memorable NCAA Tournament run. Penn State opened with back-to-back wins over Kent State and Princeton in the opening two rounds played at Penn State before defeating No. 1 ranked Old Dominion, 3-2, to advance to the NCAA National Championship Game for the first time in program history.

While Penn State dropped the title game, 2-0, to Wake Forest, the year went down as one of the greatest seasons in program history as four players were recognized with STX All-America honors and five earned All-Big Ten status.

Morett led the 1993 squad to the university's first outright Big Ten Championship in any sport. The team won 15 straight games, a record at the time. The most notable upset was a 2-1 victory at Old Dominion which ended the Monarchs' 66-game win streak. Since then, Morett has led her Lions to four more regular season titles and an unprecedented four straight Big Ten Tournament crowns from 1995 through 1998.

Morett's teams have not only excelled on the field but also in the classroom. Penn State has produced 159 Academic All-Big Ten selections since 1992 and is the only school in the Big Ten to have 10 or more Academic All-Big Ten selections for the last nine consecutive seasons. Additionally, a record 16 members of the team were named to the NFHCA National Academic Squad in 2008, a then-record 14 the year before, and in the two years previous to that, a total of 12 players were named to the squad in each season. During the 2008-09 school year, the Nittany Lions were also winners of the Penn State Highest GPA Academic Award given to the team with the highest overall GPA and the "Varsity S" Women's Team GPA honor.

A 1979 graduate of Penn State, Morett was an outstanding field hockey player and the program's only three-time First Team All-American. Captain of the undefeated 1978 team, Morett was a phenomenal scorer, netting 50 goals in four years and was the first Lion to score five goals in a game. She held that record for 21 years. After leaving Penn State, Morett continued to play field hockey at the national level and in 1982, she was named the USFHA's Co-Athlete of the Year.

A two-time Olympian, Morett played in more than 100 international matches. Morett remained in Happy Valley as a graduate assistant to train for the 1980 Olympics. Unable to participate in the 1980 Moscow Games due to the U.S. boycott, Morett remained loyal and enthusiastic to the U.S. team, traveling all over the world in international competition in preparation for the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games, where she won a bronze medal. Morett was also awarded a Congressional Gold Medal as part of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team when the U.S. Congress officially awarded the medals more than 27 years after the boycotted games.

Also an All-America lacrosse player in Happy Valley, Morett was one of the nation's top scorers in the sport when Penn State won its second consecutive National Championship. She also played for the 1978 and 1979 United States Women's Lacrosse Association National Champion teams. Morett was a member of the U.S. Lacrosse team and earned Most Valuable Player at the 1979 USWLA National Championship, where the Nittany Lions defeated the University of Massachusetts.

After completing her undergraduate degree in physical education, she worked for one year as a graduate assistant at PSU, helping the Lions become National Finalists in field hockey and National Champions in lacrosse.

Beth Anders then tabbed Morett as her assistant in 1980 at Old Dominion, where she would stay for four years. During that time, Morett helped the Monarchs reach three straight National Title games and in the process, Anders served as a positive mentor for Morett's future success.

In 1984, Morett was named head field hockey and lacrosse coach at Boston College. She immediately lifted the Eagle field hockey program into the Top 20 and won an Eastern College Athletic Conference title in her first year.

When Penn State legend Gillian Rattray retired from coaching in 1987, Morett returned to her alma mater to take over for her mentor, inheriting a program with 17 straight winning seasons and five straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

HEAD COACH CHARLENE MORETT

Morett has continued that winning tradition by leading 20 of her teams into the NCAA Tournament, including her first 14 straight, giving the Penn State program 19 straight NCAA appearances from 1982-2000. Morett has enjoyed a winning record in 21 of her 23 years with the Nittany Lions and a non-losing record 22 times. Under Morett and Rattray before her, Penn State had amassed 30 straight years with at least 10 or more wins, the longest streak in Division I field hockey history.

Morett's 2002 and 2007 teams reached the National Championship Game, her 1990, 1991 and 1993 teams reached the NCAA Semifinals, and her 1988, 1992 and 1994 squads missed joining the Elite Foursome after one-goal losses in overtime. Her coaching accomplishments include five Big Ten Championships (1993, 1997, 1998, 2005, and 2008), four Big Ten Tournament titles (1995-1998) and two Atlantic 10 Conference championships (1989-1990).

Morett's success at PSU has led to numerous coaching honors. She was the Mideast Region Coach of the Year in 1990, 1991, 1993, 2000, 2005 and 2007. The Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year in 1989, she was the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 1993, 1998, 2005, and 2008.

Morett is a member of the USFHA Hall Of Fame as well as the NFHCA Hall of Fame and served as the USFHA Vice President of Coaching. She had the honor of presenting this award to her mentor, Rattray when she was inducted into the Hall in 2006. On the international level, she spent three years as an assistant coach with the United States National Team traveling to the Pan Am Games, Ireland and Argentina. She was also an assistant coach with the U.S. Under-21 squad that competed in Spain. Morett has coached U.S. squads that won medals at Olympic Festivals in Houston, Minneapolis and Los Angeles. She recently served at the USFHA Board of Directors. Morett was instrumental in developing field hockey in State College by starting a youth field hockey program for local elementary school children. This program continues to thrive and inspire young players to participate in field hockey.

Morett has earned her Level III Coaching Certification from U.S. Field Hockey. She is in her second year as the head coach for Pennsylvania High Performance Region. She has also coached at FDIC and has presented Level I coaching certification courses in both Pennsylvania and California.

She is an avid runner and golfer in her free time. Morett has been active in local charity events such as Coaches vs. Cancer and The Second Mile.

A native of Aldan, Pa., Morett is a graduate of Lansdowne-Aldan High School and a member of the Delaware County Hall of Fame. One of seven children (five brothers and one sister) of the late Eleanor and Chalmers Morett.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING...

"One of Char's best assets is her heart. It represents how much she cares about her players. She develops more than a field hockey player; she develops people. Coaching against Char is not only challenging, but fun. It's a challenge because Char's teams are prepared; they bring emotion and a strong game plan. Char is a fierce competitor but it's all about the game and that makes it fun."

Old Dominion Head Coach and the All-Time Winningest Coach in NCAA History Beth Anders

"Playing field hockey at Penn State and having the guidance of Char better prepared me for life after hockey. She had a profound impact on me as a person. Through field hockey and the experiences around it, she taught me how to be accountable and how to find a balance between doing your job as a Penn State student-athlete well, while still being able to enjoy the other aspects of college life."

Former Penn State All-American Jamie Smith

"The best decision I have ever made was the decision to attend Penn State and become a part of the field hockey team. I can't thank Char enough for giving me that opportunity. Char always knew how to push me to be my best. She has the ability to push her athletes to compete against each other at practice in the most positive and healthy way. We competed so fiercely at practice that competing in games came easy. As a Division I college coach, I have learned that this is one of the most important but, most difficult things to do."

Former All-American and current Sacred Heart Head Coach Christine Blais

"Char gives unwavering support to her players that is motivated by a passion for the traditions of field hockey. As her athlete, I learned to win and to do so with unrelenting class and honor for the Blue and White. As a fellow coach now, Char has always been my biggest supporter and I cherish her opinion and guidance. I continually look to mirror her ways with my own program and hope she knows that imitation is the greatest form of flattery."

Former All-American and current Quinnipiac Head Coach Becca Main (Kohl)

ASSISTANT COACHES

ASSISTANT COACH

Lisa
BERVINCHAK-LOVE

16th Season
Penn State, 1989

Lisa Bervinchak-Love, one of the top players in Penn State field hockey history, is entering her 16th year on the sideline under Head Coach Charlene Morett.

During her time at Penn State, she has assisted on several highly successful teams, including a pair of National Finalist teams that reached the National Championship Game in 2002 and 2007, a 2005 team that won 17 straight games, and the 1995-1998 teams, all of which won the Big Ten Tournament in their respective seasons. Bervinchak-Love has been on the sideline for a total of 13 NCAA Tournament appearances by the Nittany Lions and for five Big Ten regular season championships.

As a player, Bervinchak-Love — who played three years for the Nittany Lions after transferring from Villanova following her freshman campaign — scored 28 goals in her career. She was also a vocal leader as an All-American captain. As a senior co-captain, she led the team in scoring with 12 goals and three assists and was named to the Atlantic 10 All-Conference Team. She scored two of the Lions' goals at the 1988 Atlantic 10 Conference Semifinals and was an All-Tournament selection. Following her graduation in 1989, Love continued to play field hockey at the national level. In 1991, she helped her team win a silver medal at the Olympic Sports Festival in Los Angeles.

A standout student, she was the Student Academic Advisory Board representative at Penn State in 1988. In 1989, Love graduated with a degree in health planning and administration and worked as an intern with the planning and marketing department at Lancaster General Hospital in Pennsylvania.

Following her internship, she was a Penn Manor School District elementary school teacher and assisted head coaches in field hockey and basketball. She also held teaching positions at Central Manor, Farmdale, Burgard and Brecknock elementary schools.

Throughout the years, she continued her involvement with the Nittany Lion program as an assistant director and instructor at Penn State camps.

Love was a four-sport athlete at Penn Manor High School and earned All-Star honors in field hockey and basketball, and was the district champion in the triple jump. She continues to play field hockey today and captured the U.S. Indoor Title with the Norlanco Club in 2003 and 2004. She currently plays with Red Rose and helped them win the 2006, 2007, and 2008 club championships.

Love comes from a family of coaches and athletes. Her brother Jude is the wrestling coach at Hempfield High School in Lancaster, Pa. and brother Greg, his assistant. Her dad James, meanwhile, was a football standout at Minersville High School. Her parents, James and Dolores, recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Also an active participant in intramural athletics, Love has won over 10 intramural championships in various sports, including football and basketball.

She married Steve Love, a Penn State alumni and graphic artist with Supelco, in 1996. They have two daughters, Taylor Marie and Kelsey Evelyn.

Bervinchak-Love has been at Penn State for three years as a player (above) and 15 years as an assistant coach, all under head coach Charlene Morett.

Zinkavich with goalkeeper Jen Beaumont after shutting out Wake Forest in the 2007 National Semifinals.

Annie Zinkavich enters her fifth season as an assistant coach at Penn State. A former goalkeeper with the Nittany Lions, she works primarily with the goalkeepers and also assists in the day-to-day operations of the field hockey program.

Working with first-time starter Ali Meves last season, Zinkavich helped aid the junior goalkeeper to some stellar efforts, highlighted by an 11-save performance against No. 18 Ohio State to spearhead the Lions to a thrilling 2-1 overtime victory on the Big Ten Network. She followed that performance with six huge saves vs. No. 14 Stanford in a second straight win. Meves was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week and Penn State Student-Athlete of the Week following her effort against the Buckeyes while also cracking the Big Ten All-Tournament Team after leading the Nittany Lions into the conference semifinals.

This past summer, Zinkavich served as assistant coach for the gold medal winning Pennsylvania Junior High Performance squad.

In 2009, Penn State recorded nine shutouts thanks in large part to Zinkavich's work with the goalies. The duo of Jen Beaumont and Meves recorded a 82.5 save percentage that was tops in the nation while its 1.05 goals against average was fourth best nationally and shutouts per game (0.45) was second. The Nittany Lion defense and goalkeeping dominated the conference, coming in first in fewest goals allowed, GAA, and shutouts. The team's 21 goals allowed for the year was the fewest since the 1999 squad only allowed 20. Beaumont was also named a First Team All-Conference Performer as well as earning First Team All-Region and Second Team All-America status.

In 2007, Zinkavich's work helped the Nittany Lions record 10 shutouts, including nine by Beaumont and two big shutouts in the NCAA Tournament against a pair of top five teams. Beaumont also ranked among that nation's leaders in goals against average and save percentage while being named All-Region for the second straight season. Three years ago, Beaumont, then a first-year starter, had an outstanding year between the pipes for the Lions as she was named First Team All-Region and a Second Team All-American while finishing fifth in the country and tops in the Big Ten in goals against average.

Zinkavich was a four-year letterwinner for the Nittany Lions from 2000-2003. She recorded eight shutouts in 2002 to anchor the defense of the squad that advanced to the NCAA National Championship game. In 2002, she ranked 16th nationally in goals against average with 1.41 per game. She earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors six times in her career, including three in 2001. In 2002, Zinkavich set a Bigler Field record for saves in a game with 10 in a 2-1 upset victory over No. 6 North Carolina. She was named to three consecutive All-Mideast teams, garnering first team honors in 2001 and 2003 and second team honors in 2002. She started 85 out of the 87 games she played in her career. She had 22 shutouts in her career, which ranks sixth all-time at Penn State.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Zinkavich served for two years as the graduate assistant coach at Bucknell, also working with the goalies. Under her tutelage, Bucknell's senior keeper Liz Jordan was named the Patriot League Goalkeeper of the Year and the East Coast Athletic Conference Goalkeeper of the Year. Jordan was also a Second Team All-Mideast Region selection.

Zinkavich is currently finalizing her master's degree in college student personnel from Bucknell University.

She plays club field hockey for Red Rose and helped the team win the Club Cup in Virginia Beach in April of 2006, 2007, and 2008. She also received her Level II Coaching Accreditation in January.

Zinkavich received her Bachelor of Science in psychology from Penn State in 2003. She hails from Kingston, Pa. and graduated from Wyoming Seminary in 1999. Her parents are Joe and Peg.

ASSISTANT COACHES

2010 SENIOR CLASS

VOLUNTEER ASST. COACH
Stuart SMITH
First Season
Ohio State, 2008

Stuart Smith enters his first season as a volunteer assistant coach for the Penn State field hockey team. Smith, a former goalkeeper, specializes in personal, one-on-one and motivational coaching.

A native of Wamberal, New South Wales, Australia, Smith came to the United States as part of an International Exchange Program. He enrolled in the prestigious Ohio State International Turf Grass Management Program where he graduated in 2008.

Smith enjoyed four years working at The Breakers, Palm Beach in Florida where he was an Assistant Golf Course Superintendent of The Breakers, Rees Jones Course. While working at the five star, five diamond resort, he learned numerous motivational tactics which he's adapted to field hockey.

Smith's hockey career spans 16 years to date. He started as a young player, advancing to compete at the state and national level in Australia. He has represented his region of the Central Coast as well as his state, while touring in New Zealand. He has competed against players of the Australian National Team as well as players of other national teams. For his sporting and community achievements, Smith was rewarded with the opportunity to run the Olympic Torch in the 2000 Olympic games held in Sydney. More recently, Smith played with the Miami Surf Field Hockey Club, which was comprised of national players from around the world. He also coached at Nationals for the Futures field hockey program in Virginia Beach this past June.

Smith currently resides in State College.

SEASON OUTLOOK Q&A WITH COACH MORETT

Q: Talk about the incoming freshmen class as a whole.

Morett: As a whole, I think it's a very solid class from the forward line players through the midfield, into the defensive backfield, all the way back to the goalkeeping position. We have a solid group of freshmen. Lauren Purvis and Brittany Grzywacz really highlight that incoming class because they're two who were on the U.S. Under 19 team that went to Argentina this past spring. Fortunately, I was one of the coaches who went with them. I had the chance to see - up close - their potential playing at the next level instead of the high school leagues. They were both very impressive in the way they played and the way they were able to contribute to the team's success.

Q: Bring us position by position. Let's start with the goalkeepers.

Morett: There's a lot of talent at goalkeeper. I think that was one of our question marks last year, the goalkeeping aspect and also the forward line play. We were inexperienced in those two areas, which doesn't bode well for success. This year, we obviously have Ayla Halus and Ali Meves who are returning. Both have significant experience. Ali played in more games last year than Ayla, but Ayla got a lot of experience playing in the spring when Ali got hurt. So I would say they're coming in neck-and-neck into the preseason. Kylie Licata is an incoming freshman who will redshirt.

Q: How about the defenders?

Morett: We did lose a significant amount at defense. I would say more from the center of our field into the backfield. We lost the leadership of Laura Cahill back there. She pretty much directed the defense. We feel good; we've made a position change with Daneen Zug. We took her out of the midfield and put her into the backfield last spring. She showed a lot of poise out there, making some good decisions [while showing] some good communication skills. So we're hoping Daneen will be the quarterback of the defensive backfield. We have some returning athletes who can vie for their starting positions. Then you have to throw the freshmen in the mix; they're good athletes as well.

Q: Midfielders?

Morett: Leading into our midfield area, we have Jessica Longstreth, who is very dynamic with her speed. We think we have a couple incoming freshmen who can match her speed. If we can get more of our speedy players in the midfield, it will create a lot of difficulty for the opposition.

Q: And finally, the forwards.

Morett: We have Kelsey Amy returning at the forward line. Casey McCartin saw some time at forward as well. We floated Jenny Purvis up there [along with] Natalie Buttinger. There are also some incoming kids - Whitney Reddig and Lauren Purvis - who should really spot some time on the line.

Q: How would you assess the team's overall season outlook?

Morett: I think last year, we just had some difficulty scoring. We had a lot of close games, but couldn't find the goal. Now that Kelsey [Amy] played High Performance for the Pennsylvania senior team this year, that gave her a lot of confidence. Also, with Lauren Purvis coming in with her Under 19 experience, she can be dangerous around the goal cage. Also, Brittany Grzywacz as a corner shooter is someone who has a lot of tools as a freshman, with the drag flick and the straight shot. I think our corner execution will be much more consistent and much more dangerous, which we hope will lead to more goals.

2009 SEASON REVIEW & HIGHLIGHTS

2010 SENIOR CLASS

NITTANY LIONS CONCLUDE UP-AND-DOWN SEASON WITH MEMORABLE EFFORT AT BIG TEN TOURNAMENT

- Despite struggling with a 6-12 record heading into November's Big Ten Tournament, the Penn State field hockey team ended on a positive note by beating No. 2 seed Ohio State for the second time to advance to the conference semifinals.
- The Lions ended up falling to Indiana in the semis, but the spirited effort proved to the Big Ten that Penn State is a force to be reckoned with.
- Penn State become only the second No. 7 seed in Big Ten history to win a game in the tournament since the conference expanded to seven teams in 2000.
- The Nittany Lions did finish with a solid RPI (ratings percentage index) of 20, rated as the fourth-best Big Ten squad only behind NCAA Tournament participants Michigan State, Ohio State and Indiana.
- After starting the season 2-8, the squad did rebound down the stretch, winning five of its final 10 games. Included in the wins was a 2-1 overtime thriller over No. 18 Ohio State, a 3-1 triumph over No. 14 Stanford and the Big Ten Tournament win over the Buckeyes.

IMPRESSIVE OPPONENTS

- Penn State has consistently played some of the top teams in the country, which was no different in 2009 as the Nittany Lions faced the second toughest schedule in the country.
- Incredibly, all but one opponent (Pacific) in 2009 was either nationally ranked or received votes when Penn State faced them.
- Old Dominion (16), Virginia (6), Connecticut (5), Maryland (1), Princeton (7), Ohio State (18), Stanford (14), Northwestern (18), Indiana (20) and Michigan State (8) were all ranked on game day vs. the Lions.
- Meanwhile, Lock Haven, American, Lafayette, West Chester, Michigan, Bucknell and Iowa received votes.
- Penn State's seven wins came against teams with great records as well - Lock Haven (18-5), Stanford (17-5), Lafayette (14-6), Ohio State twice (13-7), Bucknell (12-7) and Pacific (5-12) for an overall mark of 92-49 (.652).

ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District

Second Team: Amy Bonenberger

- With 437 fans at Senior Day (10/31), the Lions finished the season with an average of 400 fans per home game.
- That mark was good for third in the nation and tops among non-ACC schools. First, second and fourth were North Carolina (518), Maryland (493) and Virginia (389).
- The attendance figure also led the Big Ten, well ahead of Michigan in second (372).
- Four of the eight home games drew over 400 fans, including one over 500 (West Chester) and another over 600 (Connecticut).
- In total, 6,499 fans came out to see the Lions play over their 20 games, including 3,204 at home.
- On Sunday, Sept. 6, (vs. No. 5 Connecticut), the third largest crowd in the history of the Penn State Field Hockey Complex (694) witnessed a thrilling game.

2009 NITTANY LIONS

Kneeling, From Left: Hannah Allison, Laura Kassab, Casey McCartin, Alex Schlener, Jessica Longstreth & Kelsey Amy
On The Nittany Lion Shrine: Christine Dudek, Jen Miller, Brooke Hoffsmith, Bethany Marvel, Gina Bartolacci, Laura Cahill & Amy Bonenberger

THERE'S A FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING

- Many Penn State players enjoyed memorable "firsts" in 2009.
- Most notably, five Nittany Lions - Hannah Allison, Kelsey Amy, Casey McCartin, Jenny Purvis, Alex Schlener - scored their first-career goals.
- Goalie Ali Meves had her first-career double digit save performance at Princeton (and had her second on Friday, Oct. 2 vs. Ohio State).
- Fellow goalkeeper Ayla Halus picked up her first-career win, which was a shutout vs. West Chester (Sept. 20).
- Kristen Schaefer recorded her first-career point against Stanford (Oct. 5), an assist on Amy's go-ahead goal off a penalty corner.

"FRESH" BUNCH LEADING THE WAY

- Among the scoring leaders in 2009 was a pair of freshmen, Kelsey Amy and (redshirt freshman) Hannah Allison, who led the squad in goals scored. Amy also had the most points with 18 (8g, 2a) while Allison's five goals were tied for second most and 12 points were tied for third.
- Together, the pair finished among the highest-scoring freshman pairs in program history (when looking at ranking within its team).
- The second-best freshman pair this century was in 2004 when Shaun Banta was third on the squad (18 pts: 7g, 4a) and Kiersten Wood was fifth (11 pts: 3g, 5a). Sophomore Annelise Legel was fourth with 13 (6g, 1a).
- After not scoring in the first 10 games of her career, Amy racked up all of her team-leading 18 points over the final 10 games. She racked up at least one point in seven of those contests.
- It all started with her first-career goal on Oct. 2, which was the overtime game-winner against Ohio State.
- Jessica Longstreth was tied for third in points (12) and tied for second in goals (5) meaning the top three goal-scorers and three of the top four point-getters in 2009 were either freshmen or sophomores.
- Amy and Longstreth were named NFCA All-Mideast Region First Team honorees.

MEVES' "DOUBLE TRIFECTA"

- Goalkeeper Ali Meves enjoyed a strong first season of starting duty which saw 100 as a significant number.
- Meves finished the season with 108 saves to lead the Big Ten, marking the first time that a Penn State goalie reached triple digits since current assistant coach Annie Zinkavich had 137 in 2003.
- It happened even with Ayla Halus starting twice. It was the first time since 2000 that two Lion goalies played 100 or more minutes while it also saw one reach 100 saves. Zinkavich was part of the 2000 scenario as well.

Game 1 • August 28 Powhatan Sports Complex #16 Old Dominion 2, #11 Penn State 1

NORFOLK, Va. - Despite a late first half goal from senior Amy Bonenberger, the 11th ranked Penn State field hockey team allowed the go-ahead tally midway through the second half in a 2-1 season-opening defeat to No. 16 Old Dominion on Friday.

"It was a very good, competitive field hockey game," said head coach Charlene Morett. "We had our chances on the counterattack, but didn't capitalize."

All three goals were scored off penalty corners in the Lions' first loss to Old Dominion since 2006. Junior goalkeeper Ali Meves was strong in her first-career start while freshmen Hannah Allison, Kelsey Amy and Alex Schlener all saw their first collegiate action as well.

It didn't take long for the Monarchs to take the lead as Katie Ueberroth made a tip off a penalty corner for a 1-0 advantage at the 10:37 mark.

Penn State hung tough, converting a penalty corner of its own to tie the score at one behind a beautiful shot from Bonenberger. The goal, which found the far corner of the cage, was assisted by fellow senior Christine Dudek.

The Lions controlled second half possession and had a number of strong counterattacks, but it was Old Dominion who scored the eventual game-winner at 53:58 off yet another penalty corner. Hannah Warren made the feed to Loran Hatch, who set up Rachel Stream for a hard shot that beat Meves to make it 2-1. It was Hatch's second assist of the day.

Old Dominion held the advantage in shots, 8-4, while penalty corners were even at five. Meves stood tall with three saves while Monarchs netminder Kelly Driscoll made one.

Amy Bonenberger scored Penn State's first goal of the season, at Old Dominion.

assisted by Traci Ragukas and Charlotte van den Broek. The Lions turned up the pressure after a slow beginning to the second half, but they couldn't find the back of the cage. The 1-0 final marked the second consecutive season that the home team has won by that score. Last season, the Lions won a huge 1-0 game over the then 10th ranked Cavaliers.

Final shots were 17-5 in favor of Virginia while Penn State had four penalty corners to the Cavaliers' three. Meves' counterpart, Kim Kastuk, was strong as well with three saves to earn her second shutout in as many games.

Redshirt freshman Hannah Allison led the Lions with three shots while seniors Amy Bonenberger and Bethany Marvel had one apiece. Sunday also marked the first action of the season for both sophomore Casey McCartin and redshirt freshman Kristen Schaefer.

Game 2 • August 30 University Turf Field #6 Virginia 2, #11 Penn State 0

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - A strong nine save performance from junior Ali Meves wasn't enough as the No. 11 Penn State field hockey team dropped a 1-0 decision to sixth ranked Virginia on Sunday afternoon. The Cavaliers scored with just over 10 minutes remaining in the first half and pitched the shutout despite a valiant Nittany Lion effort.

The Cavaliers were tested early and often, just two days after a convincing 7-0 win over Miami (Ohio). Sunday marked the first Virginia victory against Penn State since a 4-2 final in the National Quarterfinals on Nov. 16, 1997. It was also the Cavs' first regular season win since Oct. 30, 1984, snapping the Lions' nine game regular season winning streak. Overall, Penn State had been riding a four game streak against the preseason ACC favorites.

"It was a very competitive game between two good teams," said Head Coach Charlene Morett. "We played a very nice possession game at times, but it was similar to Friday in that we got the ball into the circle, but failed to create many shots or corners."

After almost 25 minutes of scoreless action, Virginia took a 1-0 lead off a penalty corner. Inga Stockel's first goal of the season came on a direct shot and was

Game 3 • September 4 PSU FH Complex #11 Penn State 3, Lock Haven 1

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The No. 11 Penn State field hockey team bounced back from a tough first half by scoring three unanswered goals in the second for a 3-1 win over intrastate rival Lock Haven in the home opener on Friday evening. Redshirt freshman Hannah Allison led the charge with two goals and an assist while junior goalkeeper Ali Meves was strong once again with eight saves.

"It was a very good win," said head coach Charlene Morett. "It feels good to get some shots and see our offense get going because that was the one thing we didn't have last weekend. The attack picked us up in the second half."

The win marks Penn State's 30th consecutive victory over an in-state foe. The Lions defeated Lock Haven by an identical 3-1 score last season.

Allison's five points are the most by a Nittany Lion since last Oct. 19, when Allison Scola had five in a 4-0 win at Northwestern. That was the only five-point performance by any Penn State player last season.

Lock Haven started the game with a flurry, controlling the early minutes which led to a 1-0 lead at the 19:22 mark. It was Kristi Sheepps who finished Lock Haven's sixth shot in the span of 1:39, after corralling a rebound in front of the cage. Prior to the goal, Meves had made three spectacular saves prior to keep the game scoreless.

2009 SEASON RECAPS

2010 SENIOR CLASS

Penn State controlled the second half and the Lions were awarded a rare penalty stroke only 5:41 into the stanza. The shot by sophomore Jessica Longstreth looked to be beating Lock Haven goalie Erin Terreson high, but she made a huge stop.

The Nittany Lions continued the pressure and turned it into a goal only 32 seconds later. Allison took the pass from freshman Kelsey Amy and made a move in front for her first goal of the day to tie the score at one.

Allison netted her second at 56:15 to break the deadlock and give Penn State its first lead. This time, it was off a penalty corner and started with redshirt senior Christine Dudek making the feed to senior Amy Bonenberger. She made the stop and set up Allison for a hard shot that beat Terreson inside the left post.

Junior Daneen Zug added insurance at 60:12 when her laser also slipped inside the left post. Allison, who made the feed, was credited with her fifth point of the afternoon.

After being outshot 10-6 in the first half, the Lions bounced back with a 13-6 second half advantage. Final shots stood at 19-16 in favor of Penn State while the Lions had 10 penalty corners to Lock Haven's four. Meves had her second straight stellar game with eight stops while Terreson had 12 for the Lady Eagles.

Game 4 • September 6 PSU FH Complex #5 Connecticut 2, #11 Penn State 1

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - A spirited second half comeback attempt fell one goal short as the No. 11 Penn State field hockey team dropped a 2-1 final to No. 5 Connecticut in front of 694 fans at the Penn State Field Hockey Complex on Sunday. Sophomore Casey McCartin scored her first-career goal while junior goalkeeper Ali Meves made four saves in defeat.

The attendance total stands as the third largest in facility history, only trailing the 794 fans from last Sept. 1 against Maryland and 770 from Sept. 2, 2007 against these same Huskies. Three of the four largest crowds in facility history have come against Connecticut.

Like Friday, the Lions bounced back from a tough first half to put together a strong final 35 minutes. But unlike Friday, when it scored three goals for the win, Penn State was unable to pull all the way back.

"We played with much better intensity in the second half," said head coach Charlene Morett. "The players off the bench played with a good spark, but we need to play with intensity in both halves."

Connecticut controlled play early and converted it into a goal at 12:49 when Loren Sherer scored her fifth of the season. Her deflection of an Ali Blankmeyer shot found the right corner of the cage to put the Lions in an early hole.

Penn State came out of the locker room with a vengeance to nearly tie the score. After almost 10 minutes of play, McCartin cleaned up a rebound chance off a penalty corner, beating UConn goalie Andrea Mainiero for her first-career goal to give the crowd life.

The teams played an up-and-down final 25 minutes, which included a number more offensive opportunities. The Lions dominated possession and got off a number of quality chances, but the Huskies' defense held its ground. When Penn State was able to get a shot on goal, Mainiero came up big to make some crucial saves.

One of the Nittany Lions' best chances came late in the contest when senior Bethany Marvel fired a shot that went in. It clearly came from just outside the circle, though, so it was disallowed.

Final shots were 10-8 in favor of Connecticut while Penn State controlled penalty corners with nine to only three for the Huskies. Meves made four saves for the Linos while Mainiero had five for the Huskies.

The game featured two of the four winningest coaches in Division I history. UConn's Nancy Stevens is the second winningest, with a 484-156-24 record while Penn State's Morett is fourth with a 390-148-16 mark.

Casey McCartin (middle) scored her first-career goal in the second half against UConn.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Penn State field hockey team fell into an early hole and couldn't respond, dropping an 8-1 decision to No. 1 Maryland in the first day of the Terrapin Invitational on Saturday. Christine Dudek scored the Lions' goal while goalkeeper Ayla Halus made seven saves over the final 45:46 in her first collegiate action.

The nation's top team and defending national champion came out firing with five first half goals, three off penalty corners, for a 5-0 advantage after 35 minutes of play.

Dudek scored only 2:54 into the second half to give Penn State life, but the Terps responded with three more tallies for the win.

Final shots were 22-8 in favor of Maryland while the Terrapins had nine penalty corners to Penn State's five. Megan Frazer led the way for Maryland with three goals while Nicole Muracco had two.

Game 6 • September 13 FH & Lacrosse Complex American 3, #13 Penn State 1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Despite a late second half surge, the No. 13 Penn State field hockey team fell to American University, 3-1, in Sunday action at the Terrapin Invitational. Sophomore Jessica Longstreth scored her first goal of the season to account for the Lions' scoring while redshirt freshman Ayla Halus made six saves in her first-career start.

Penn State responded from Saturday's tough loss with a strong effort against the preseason Patriot League favorites. Redshirt freshman Hannah Allison set the tone early with a quick shot only 34 seconds into the contest, but it was American who scored the all-important first goal at 4:53. Rachel Carney finished the play off a penalty corner with Ann-Meike De Wiljes picking up the assist.

The Nittany Lions continued to battle, but were unable to tie the score heading into halftime. Early in the second half, American converted on another chance for a two goal advantage. After carrying the ball along the left side of the field, Savannah Graybill made a pass from outside the circle which found Melissa Casale at the right post. Casale made the redirection into the cage for the 2-0 lead at 45:22.

The continued pressure led to a penalty stroke attempt, which Longstreth converted, at the 64:02 mark. The reigning Big Ten Freshman of the Year already has two penalty stroke attempts on the young season.

Penn State called a timeout looking to ride the momentum to the tying goal, but Graybill all but ended any hope when she added an insurance tally at 65:08.

Final shots were 10-8 in favor of American while the Eagles led in penalty corners, 7-5. American goalkeeper Alyssa Poorman stood tall with seven saves while Halus made six.

Game 7 • September 16 Rappolt Field Lafayette 1, Penn State 0 (OT)

EASTON, Pa. - Despite a strong defensive effort, the Penn State field hockey team dropped a 1-0 overtime heartbreaker to Lafayette on Wednesday night. Junior goalkeeper Ali Meves impressed with seven saves in regulation, but the Leopards converted on their first shot of the extra session for the game-winner.

The loss snaps an incredible string of success against Pennsylvania squads. Penn State's last defeat to an intrastate opponent came on Sept. 13, 2003, also in overtime to Lafayette. In between, the Lions won 30 straight games with an astonishing 2,194 days in between losses against Keystone State foes.

The Leopards were predicted to finish second in the preseason Patriot League poll and received votes in the most recent NFHCA National Coaches Poll. They showed it with a strong performance which ended when Deanna DiCroce scored the only goal of the game only 1:38 into overtime.

Both teams played neck-and-neck in regulation. After a very defensive first half which consisted of only four combined shots, the second half saw more chances with seven shots a side. Both goalkeepers were strong in making four second half stops to keep the game scoreless.

Final shots were 11-8 in favor of Lafayette while penalty corners were tied at three. Meves finished with seven saves while her counterpart, Kelsey Anderson, had four.

Game 8 • September 20 PSU FH Complex Penn State 5, West Chester 0

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Led by a strong defensive effort and a balanced scoring attack, the Penn State field hockey team cruised to a 5-0 victory over intrastate rival West Chester on Sunday afternoon. The Nittany Lions used goals from five different scorers, including the first-career tally from redshirt freshman Alex Schlener, on their way to a lopsided 29-1 shot advantage and their second home win of the season.

The one shot allowed was the fewest since last season's season opener against Old Dominion when the Monarchs were held shot-less. The Lions also had 22 shots on goal, which were the most since Sept. 19, 2008 when they had 24 in a 6-0 win over Georgetown.

Penn State set the tone early with a goal only 4:03 into the contest. Redshirt senior Christine Dudek broke the ice by corralling a Jenny Purvis rebound before beating West Chester goalkeeper Joelle Zarefoss for the early lead.

Penn State made it 2-0 at 12:21 when senior Amy Bonenberger unleashed a rocket off a penalty corner which beat Zarefoss five-hole.

Sophomore Casey McCartin's second-career goal at 25:47 rounded out the first half scoring to make it 3-0 heading into halftime. Bonenberger took the original shot off a corner, which redirected right to McCartin who let go a high shot for the score.

Jessica Longstreth's sensational individual effort made it 4-0 only 4:08 into the second half. The sophomore forward made a number of moves on the end line before bringing the ball in front of the cage and finding the inside of the right post.

Schlener then scored her first-career goal at 54:24, unleashing a long backhand shot that found the right corner of the cage.

The Nittany Lions dominated possession and didn't allow West Chester many offensive opportunities. The Golden Rams' first shot didn't come until 63:31, which redshirt freshman goalkeeper Ayla Halus stopped for her only save of the afternoon.

Final shots were 29-1 in favor of Penn State while penalty corners stood at 12-1, Nittany Lions. Halus made one save for her first-career shot, and the Lions' first of the season, while Zarefoss was busy with 17 stops.

Game 9 • September 23 Class of 1952 Stadium #7 Princeton 3, Penn State 0

PRINCETON, N.J. - Despite a career-high 14 saves from junior goalkeeper Ali Meves, the No. 7 Princeton Tigers proved too much as the Penn State field hockey team dropped a hard-fought 3-0 decision in its final nonconference tune-up on Wednesday evening.

The Nittany Lions allowed a Kathleen Sharkey goal only 4:23 into the game, but bounced back to play a strong first half which kept the deficit at 1-0. Princeton came out of halftime firing with two goals in the span of 5:31 early in the second stanza for all that it would need. Meves stood tall with her save total marking the most by any Penn State goalie since Jen Beaumont had 16 on Oct. 8, 2006 vs. Ohio State.

Princeton doubled its lead only 6:14 into the second half behind tic-tac-toe passing off a penalty corner. Katie Reinprecht ultimately made the feed to Michelle Cesan, who made the tip past Meves for an insurance goal.

The Tigers kept pouring on the pressure and converted another penalty corner attempt for a 3-0 advantage at 46:45. Meves made two successive saves off Princeton shots, but Kaitlyn Perrelle corralled the rebound and found the back of the cage on the Tigers' third shot of the sequence.

Penn State had a number of chances all game, starting with a breakaway opportunity barely over a minute in, and another Daneen Zug shot at 3:38. A second half surge came from freshman Kelsey Amy, who had two successive shots, but Princeton goalie Jennifer King stood tall as she did all game for her first shutout of the season.

Final shots were 25-8 in favor of Princeton while the Tigers held the edge in penalty corners, 5-3. King finished with five saves to go along with Meves' 14.

Game 10 • September 27 Phyllis Ocker Field Michigan 2, Penn State 0

ANN ARBOR, Mich. - The Penn State field hockey team opened the Big Ten season by playing neck-and-neck with Michigan on Sunday, but two goals from Meredith Way proved to be the difference in a 2-0 defeat. The goals came in the span of 1:44 early in the second half to break a scoreless deadlock.

The Nittany Lions held the 16-11 shot advantage, but were unable to solve Michigan goalie Paige Pickett. She finished with eight saves while Ali Meves had four in her second-consecutive start.

After a highly competitive first half which saw shots at 9-6 in favor of Penn State, Michigan came out of halftime strong with two goals in the first 4:25 for what proved to be the difference.

Way's first tally came off a penalty corner at 37:41 with Katie Adams making the feed, Paige Laytos making the stop to set up Way, who fired the ball into the right side of the cage.

Only 1:44 later, Way scored her second of the game off a broken penalty corner attempt for a much-needed insurance goal. She carried right off a stick stop before beating Meves for a second time.

Freshman Kelsey Amy led the Lions with a career-high five shots while senior Bethany Marvel had three. Three others (Hannah Allison, Amy Bonenberger and Daneen Zug) had two shots apiece. Michigan led the battle of penalty corners, 7-6.

The Nittany Lions return home on Friday for the start of a four-game home-stand. They face rival Ohio State at 4 p.m. in a contest that will be nationally televised via tape delay on the Big Ten Network.

"Friday is another opportunity to make a mark in the Big Ten," said head coach Charlene Morett. "We'll be excited about playing at home in the first Big Ten home game. The fans will see exciting Big Ten hockey."

Game 11 • October 2 PSU FH Complex Penn State 2, #18 Ohio State 1 (OT)

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Junior goalkeeper Ali Meves made one sensational save after another to force overtime and freshman Kelsey Amy provided the game-winner as her first-career goal gave the Penn State field hockey team a thrilling 2-1 victory over No. 18 Ohio State on a rainy Friday afternoon. Meves finished with 11 saves, nine coming after halftime, while sophomore Jessica Longstreth scored her third goal of the season in the first half.

The Big Ten Network was on hand as the game is scheduled to air via tape delay. Watch the debut of this instant classic on Sunday at 4 p.m. It can also be seen on Monday at 12:30 p.m.

Penn State's fourth straight regular season win over the Buckeyes evens its conference record at 1-1. In the process, the Nittany Lions also extended their Big Ten home opening win streak to eight games. Overall, the Lions are 16-2 in their first home Big Ten game with the last loss coming in 2001.

After the Nittany Lions controlled play with the first four shots of the game, Ohio State converted on its first opportunity for a 1-0 advantage. Meves made the initial save off a penalty corner, but the rebound bounced right to Aisling Coyle, who easily found the open cage at the 13:44 mark.

Penn State continued pressuring and it led to the equalizer only 10:49 later when Longstreth forced a penalty corner then scored off the ensuing play. After Hannah Allison's shot was saved, Longstreth corralled the rebound on the end line and released a tough angle shot into the top right corner of the cage at 24:33.

The Buckeyes came out strong after halftime, but when they were able to get a shot off, Meves came up big with save after save. Ohio State's best chances came in the 57th minute off three consecutive penalty corners. The Buckeyes had two quality opportunities off the third corner, but a sprawling Meves made the initial stop and batted the ball out of the air before it got by her.

Meves continued her strong play with three consecutive saves just over four minutes into overtime. That led to a counterattack, which the Lions capitalized on when Amy's low shot found the left side of the cage at 74:52.

Amy's goal now means that a Penn State player has recorded her first-career goal in all four home games thus far. Allison scored vs. Lock Haven while Casey McCartin did so vs. Connecticut and Alex Schlenner against West Chester.

Final shots were 17-14 in favor of Penn State while Ohio State held the advantage on corners, 11-9. Buckeye goalkeeper Lindsay Quintiliani made six saves opposite Meves' 11.

Game 12 • October 5 PSU FH Complex Penn State 3, #14 Stanford 1

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Freshman Kelsey Amy scored her second go-ahead goal in as many games and junior goalkeeper Ali Meves turned in another strong performance as the Penn State field hockey team downed No. 14 Stanford, 3-1 on Monday, for its second straight win over a ranked foe. Sophomore Jessica Longstreth got the scoring started with a penalty stroke tally while redshirt freshman Hannah Allison added insurance to hand the Cardinal only their second loss in 12 games.

The win means that Penn State has defeated two straight ranked opponents for the first time since last Oct. 10 and 12 when it beat No. 5 Iowa and No. 10 Virginia. It also improves its home record to 4-1 on the season.

Penn State got on the board first at 11:39 when Longstreth capitalized on a penalty stroke opportunity created by senior Christine Dudek. Longstreth's shot beat Stanford goalkeeper Alessandra Moss high for her second penalty stroke goal in three chances this season.

Stanford tied the score late in the first half when Camille Gandhi found the back of the cage off a penalty corner. Jaimee Erickson made the feed to Nora Soza, who made the stop for Gandhi's rocket that got past Meves at 32:00.

The Nittany Lions responded only 1:33 later off a penalty corner of their own. Redshirt freshman Kristen Schaefer made the stop to set up

Former Penn State All-American Mandy Robinson Hart returned to Happy Valley as an assistant coach with Stanford.

Amy, whose blast hit off the inside of Moss' pad before redirecting into the top part of the cage. Schaefer picked up her first-career point on the play while Dudek extended her career-high assist total to four, this coming after none in her first three seasons.

The Cardinal controlled play early in the second half with a number of quality chances, but Meves stood tall and when she was out of a play, her Penn State defenders backed her up with three defensive saves (and four for the game) by a trio of seniors. Brooke Hoffsmith had one at 38:39, followed by Laura Cahill at 43:44 and Amy Bonenberger at 59:18.

Allison scored her third goal of the season and first since the home-opener when her long blast beat Moss five-hole. The marker came at 69:26 to end hopes of a Stanford comeback.

Final shots were 14-13 in favor of Stanford while Penn State had the edge in penalty corners, 7-6. Eleven of the Cardinal shots were on goal with Meves making six saves to go along with the four defensive stops. Moss finished with five.

Game 13 • Oct. 9 PSU FH Complex #18 Northwestern 3, Penn State 2

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The Penn State field hockey team clawed back to tie the score twice in the second half, but were unable to do it for a third time, dropping a tough 3-2 decision to No. 18 Northwestern on Friday evening in a game that featured five yellow cards and a disputed finish. Goals from redshirt senior Christine Dudek and redshirt freshman Hannah Allison weren't enough as the Wildcats prevented the Nittany Lions from their third straight win over a ranked opponent.

It was also Pink Day as the Lions wore special pink jerseys and pink T-Shirts were handed out to fans to promote Breast Cancer Awareness.

After falling behind 1-0 in the first half, the Penn State responded with a goal only 1:16 into the second to tie the score at one. Dudek's shot was blocked before deflecting over the head of Northwestern goalie Amanda Wirth and into the cage at 36:16.

The Nittany Lions held their first-ever Pink Day against Northwestern in support of Breast Cancer Awareness.

2010 SENIOR CLASS

Despite the goal, Northwestern came right back with a score only 1:09 later. Courtney Plaster-Strange made a move to set up an open shot, which was eventually tipped by Kaylee Pohlmeier past Penn State goalkeeper Ali Meves to make it 2-1.

The Nittany Lions continued their pressure and tied the score again at the 44:45 mark off a penalty corner. Allison took the shot off a Kristen Schaefer stick-stop, beating Pohlmeier with a rocket for her second goal in as many games. Dudek also extended her team-high assist total to five on the play.

The Wildcats scored the go-ahead and eventual game-winning goal at 52:12 when Chelsea Armstrong corralled a loose ball off a broken play in the circle and fired it just inside the right post to finish an impressive individual effort.

The teams played even the rest of the way with Penn State's best chance coming late. With just over two minutes remaining and down by one, a high Kelsey Amy shot on goal hit a Northwestern defender. The officials blew the play dead, but Penn State argued for a penalty stroke to no avail. The Nittany Lions were subsequently handed two yellow cards in a nine second span to put them down two players the rest of the game.

The first half was up and down with no one finding the back of the cage until the Wildcats got on the board at 30:20 off a penalty corner. Zoe Almquist deflected an Armstrong shot for the all-important first goal.

Game 14 • October 13 PSU FH Complex Penn State 2, Bucknell 1

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Two goals in the first 3:27 proved to be all that the Penn State field hockey team would need as it fended off a Bucknell charge to hold on to a 2-1 win on a windy and cool Tuesday evening. Freshman Kelsey Amy and sophomore Jessica Longstreth scored the Nittany Lion goals to lead them to their third win in the last four games.

The win was Penn State's 29th in a row over the Bison. Its last loss in the head-to-head series came back on Oct. 13, 1970.

Penn State controlled play early with the first shot of the game finding the back of the cage for its quickest start of the season. In a very similar position as her overtime game-winner against Ohio State, Amy's low shot from the right side snuck past Bucknell goalkeeper Jessica Atieh for her third goal of the homestand. The goal came at 1:49, a full 2:14 earlier than the Lions' previous quickest vs. West Chester. It was also Penn State's quickest goal since Sept. 15, 2006, when Carey Maser scored 2:24 into the game against Lafayette.

A sensational individual effort from Longstreth made it 2-0 only 1:38 later. After making a move at the top of the circle, her shot rifled past Atieh for her team-leading fifth goal of the season.

After calling a timeout, Bucknell regrouped and hung tough the rest of the way. Just seconds after entering the game, Kelly Bruvick cut Penn State's lead in half when she came in strong from the right side. Her subsequent low shot got past Nittany Lions' goalkeeper Ali Meves to make it 2-1 at 23:18.

Both teams had a number of quality chances the rest of the way, but Atieh and Meves made the stops. The best opportunity came via a penalty stroke, already Penn State's fourth of the season, with 20:20 remaining in the second half. Atieh came up with a sensational save though, moving to her right to deny Longstreth her second-career two-goal game.

Game 15 • October 18 Grant Field Iowa 1, Penn State 0

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Freshman forward Kelsey Amy had a flurry of chances with less than five minutes remaining in regulation, but she couldn't score the equalizer as the Penn State field hockey team dropped a hard-fought 1-0 decision to Iowa on Sunday afternoon. The game was broadcast by the Big Ten Network via tape delay and will debut this Monday evening (Oct. 19) at 8 p.m. ET.

Amy finished with a game-high seven shots, including five in a span of 1:33 late in the second half. She wasn't able to convert as three of her shots were saved with another two off the mark.

Penn State came out strong with the first two shots of the contest, including one from Amy, who was looking for her second goal in as many games and fourth in the last five contests.

The Hawkeyes turned the tides in their favor and converted on what proved to be the game's only goal when Tricia Dean made a crossing pass to Geena Lesiak, who made the redirection past Penn State junior goalkeeper Ali Meves at 22:35.

The Nittany Lions hung tough the rest of the way, but couldn't tie the score in dropping their second straight decision at Iowa.

Final shots were 12-10 in favor of the Hawkeyes while Meves made five saves, four coming in the first half. McGraw's three saves all came in the Lions' late charge. Penn State had seven corners to Iowa's six.

Game 16 • October 23 IU Field Hockey Field #20 Indiana 4, Penn State 1

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Despite taking a quick 1-0 lead, No. 20 Indiana charged back with four unanswered goals to hand the Penn State field hockey team a 4-1 defeat on Friday afternoon. Redshirt freshman Hannah Allison scored the Lions' goal at 10:39 while junior goalkeeper Ali Meves finished with four saves. Penn State remains in Bloomington to face Pacific on Saturday at 12 p.m.

Penn State started strong and capitalized off a penalty corner chance to make it 1-0 just over 10 minutes into the game. Freshman Kelsey Amy made a nifty feed to Allison, who converted for her fifth goal of the season and third in the last five games. In the process, it tied her for the team lead while Amy's assist marked the first of her career.

The Hoosiers responded only 3:11 later when Shareyna Chang made a redirection past Meves to even the score. Meg O'Connell then scored off a scramble at 17:01 and Morgan Fleetwood added insurance off a penalty corner at 32:04.

Fleetwood added her second marker at 50:32 to give Indiana the three-goal margin.

Game 17 • October 24 IU Field Hockey Field Penn State 6, Pacific 4

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Freshman Kelsey Amy and junior Daneen Zug each scored twice while junior Jenny Purvis and senior Gina Bartolacci added their first goals of the season to lead the Penn State field hockey team to a 6-4 win over Pacific on Saturday afternoon. The Nittany Lions jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead, but the Tigers fought back to even the score at three before Penn State responded with three consecutive scores for the decisive victory.

Saturday was Penn State's second neutral site game of the season and first-ever meeting against Pacific. Rebounds were a theme of the day as three goals came off rebound chances while three of the six goals were scored off penalty corners.

The offensive output was the most since last Sept. 19 when the Nittany Lions scored six in a 6-0 home win over Georgetown. Two Lions also finished with multiple goals for the first time since Sept. 17, 2006 when Shaun Banta had three and Allison Scola added two in a 6-0 victory over West Chester.

Purvis got the scoring started with her first-career goal at 2:37, turning a rebound attempt off a penalty corner into a 1-0 lead.

Amy then made it 2-0 at 16:16 when she corralled her own rebound and found the back of the cage. It was 3-0 only 4:20 later when Bartolacci beat Pacific goalkeeper Christina Niccum from the right side. Bartolacci's first goal of the season (and second of her career) was assisted by Amy, marking the second assist in as many days for the freshman from Sweet Valley, Pa.

The Tigers wouldn't quit and they capitalized on their opportunities with goals at 24:14, 24:41 and 36:54 to even the score at three.

Penn State continued its pressure and retook the lead at 52:42 when Zug converted her second goal of the season off a clean corner attempt. Redshirt senior Christine Dudek made the feed to fellow senior Amy Bonenberger, who made the stop for Zug's blast.

Less than three minutes later, Zug intercepted a clearing attempt then beat Niccum for her second goal of the game and third of the season to make it 5-3.

Amy added her second at 63:28 to extend the Lions' lead to 6-3. Pacific's Kim Keyawa responded less than a minute later with her second of the game as well, which made it 6-4 at 64:13.

Game 18 • October 31 PSU FH Complex #8 Michigan State 5, Penn State 1

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Despite battling neck-and-neck through much of the first half, No. 8 Michigan State scored just before halftime and rode that momentum to three more second-half goals on their way to a 5-1 win over the Penn State field hockey team in Saturday's regular season finale. The win capped off an undefeated 6-0 Big Ten mark for the league's regular-season champion and upped its winning streak to 10 games. The Nittany Lions enter the Big Ten Tournament as the No. 7 seed and will play second-seeded Ohio State in Thursday's opening round.

Senior Gina Bartolacci scored the Nittany Lions' lone goal, but it wasn't enough to offset a career day by Michigan State's Floor Rijpma, who netted a hat trick. Junior goalkeeper Ali Meves stood tall with five saves to up her season total to 100, the first Penn State goalkeeper to reach triple digits since 2003.

Michigan State jumped out to a quick lead when Rijpma converted on her first goal of the day and 16th of the season, finishing a pass off a penalty corner at the 3:37 mark.

The teams played toe-to-toe the next 30 minutes which included sensational defensive saves from seniors Brooke Hoffsmith and Amy Bonenberger. The offense had its chances as well, including great opportunities from Bonenberger and freshman Kelsey Amy. Michigan State goalkeeper Elissa Unger was strong, as she was all afternoon, in making both stops.

The Spartans made it 2-0 with under one minute remaining in the first half behind a beautiful conversion from Rijpma for her second goal of the game. Jessica Lindner made a beautiful centering pass from the end line to set up the redirection in front of the cage.

Jantine Steinmetz upped Michigan State's lead to 3-0 at 49:42 when she was sprung on a semi-breakaway, made a move around Meves, then found the open cage.

Penn State answered right back when Bartolacci scored her second goal in as many games off a penalty corner to make it 3-1 at 52:32. Amy's hard shot into traffic was double-deflected into the top corner of the goal. On the play, redshirt freshman Hannah Allison was credited with her first assist since the home opener.

Michigan State added two more goals, at 56:25 and 60:38 for the 5-1 final.

Final shots were 16-6 in favor of the Spartans while penalty corners were knotted at five apiece. Meves' five saves came in the first 65:05 while redshirt freshman saw her first action since Sept. 20 and made one stop. Unger finished the day with four saves.

It was also Senior Day as seven Nittany Lion seniors (Bartolacci, Bonenberger, Laura Cahill, Christine Dudek, Hoffsmith, Bethany Marvel and Jen Miller) were all honored prior to gametime.

The Lions now look ahead to next week's Big Ten Tournament hosted by Michigan State. The first-round game against Ohio State is set for Thursday while the conference semifinals are Friday and the championship game is Sunday.

Game 19 • November 5 Big Ten First Round Ralph Young Field Penn State 2, #12 Ohio State 1

EAST LANSING, Mich. - Riding two first half goals from freshman Kelsey Amy and strong goalkeeping from junior Ali Meves, the seventh-seeded Penn State field hockey team jumped out to a 2-0 lead and held off a late Ohio State surge for a thrilling 2-1 upset victory in the opening round of the Big Ten Tournament on Thursday afternoon. The win marked only the second time in conference history that a seventh seed has defeated the No. 2 seed.

"I was really pleased with the way we played both halves," said head coach Charlene Morett. "We had a very exciting first half and played with a lot of poise. We got into a little bit of a panic mode in the second half, but I was really proud of the way they stayed strong inside our defensive 25. Ali Meves did a nice job in goal too. It was a great game for us."

Not only did Penn State become only the second No. 7 seed in Big Ten history to win a game in the tournament, but with a win on Friday, it would become the first-ever squad to advance to the championship game.

The Lions came out strong and took it to the Buckeyes early on. After a number of failed opportunities, they converted at 29:49 off a penalty corner when Amy rocketed a shot past Ohio State goalkeeper Lindsay Quintiliani for a 1-0 advantage. Senior Amy Bonenberger and sophomore Jessica Longstreth were credited with the assists on the play.

Penn State made it 2-0 off another corner attempt, but this coming at 35:00 of the first half. With time winding down, Longstreth made a steal at mid-field to create an attacking opportunity. The penalty corner was awarded before the time had expired, so Penn State was still allowed to take the attempt. The play paid off when another Amy shot found the back of the cage to make it 2-0.

Ohio State came out strong in the second and converted a Penn State turnover into a goal to cut the lead in half. Berta Queralt was on the receiving end of the feed and came in all alone on Meves. She made a move around the junior goalkeeper and easily found the open goal to make it 2-1 at 49:01.

The Buckeyes kept attacking with shots and penalty corners, but could not solve Meves for a second time. Six of their eight corners came in the second half including five in the span of 6:32.

Game 20 • November 6 Big Ten Semifinals Ralph Young Field #18 Indiana 3, Penn State 1

EAST LANSING, Mich. - Despite tying the score midway through the first half, the Penn State field hockey team couldn't fight all the way back, allowing two second half goals in a 3-1 defeat to Indiana in Friday's Big Ten Semifinals. With the win, the Hoosiers advance to face Michigan State in the Big Ten Championship Game.

"I'm proud of the way we played," said head coach Charlene Morett. "We fought for 70 minutes and showed great competitive spirit. Give credit to Indiana, who played great around the goal. Our goalie, Ali Meves played great today as well."

Freshman Kelsey Amy accounted for the Lions' lone score to finish with three for the tournament which is tied for 10th all-time in one Big Ten Tournament. Meves was strong in making three incredible saves to keep Penn State close.

Indiana took the quick lead less than five minutes into the game when it converted its second corner attempt. After Katie Griswold's insert, Kelsey Kiper made a nifty pass to Morgan Fleetwood, whose shot beat Meves inside the right post at 4:48.

The Hoosiers continued their relentless pressure, but couldn't beat the junior goalkeeper for a second time. After a number of golden opportunities, including a one-on-one chance by redshirt freshman Hannah Allison, the Nittany Lions made it 1-1 when Amy scored yet another goal off a penalty corner. This time, sophomore Jessica Longstreth made the insert to redshirt freshman Kristen Schaefer. Amy's blast was deflected by an Indiana defender high and past goalkeeper Alex Mann to make it 1-1 at 21:46.

Penn State nearly fell into another hole with under eight minutes remaining in the first, but Meves came up with a pair of incredible saves in succession to keep the score knotted at one. She first came out strong on Griswold, who was sprung in all alone. After making the stop on the end line, she somehow got back in position to make a stick save of a Kiper attempt.

After over 13 minutes of scoreless second half play, Indiana retook the 2-1 lead at 48:47 when Brooke Borneman converted an odd man rush. Redshirt senior Jen Miller made a huge defensive save on the first shot, but couldn't stop the rebound as Borneman fifth goal of the season gave the Hoosiers the lead for good.

Corey Brautigam scored an insurance goal off a penalty corner attempt at 52:00 for the 3-1 final.

Final shots were 11-4 in favor of Indiana while Meves and Mann each had three saves. Indiana held the 6-4 edge in penalty corners.

The Nittany Lions end their season at 7-13, including three wins against ranked foes and two versus Ohio State. They also made history in becoming only the second No. 7 seed in Big Ten history to win a tournament game.

PENN STATE ON THE BIG TEN NETWORK

ON THE BIG TEN NETWORK IN 2009

The Penn State field hockey team has consistently held a strong presence on the Big Ten Network. Last year was no different with three different games - vs. Ohio State and at Iowa - aired on tape delay. The Nittany Lions had two regular season games - vs. Ohio State and at Iowa - aired on tape delay while their Big Ten Semifinal contest against Indiana aired live.

The Big Ten Network is the first nationally distributed network dedicated to covering one of the premier collegiate conferences in the country. The Network is available to over 75 million households nationwide, including many across Pennsylvania.

FOREIGN TRIPS

Once every four years, NCAA teams are allowed to travel and compete overseas. Penn State field hockey has continually embraced this opportunity to see the world while challenging themselves athletically.

Past teams have traveled to England, Ireland and Holland. The last two trips for the Nittany Lions have taken them to Barcelona, Spain (2002) and most recently, Australia in the spring of 2006.

Check out some photos from the trips below.

2010 SENIOR CLASS

BARCELONA - 2002

HOLLAND - 1998

The Penn State field hockey team is always heavily involved in the State College community. One event it never misses is THON, which is only one of the many ways the Nittany Lions give back. The team also works with youth field hockey players and groups during weekly spring clinics and week-long summer camps. Below is just a small sample of what the Nittany Lions have been up to.

THON 2010

The Penn State field hockey team was heavily involved in the 38th annual Penn State IFC/Panhellenic Dance Marathon last weekend as not only did the team dance as part of the pep rally, but graduating senior Jen Miller (North Caldwell, N.J.) was also one of the THON dancers who kept on their feet for 46 straight hours from Friday (Feb. 19) to Sunday (Feb. 21). Miller was one of four Penn State student-athletes to dance in the event that raised over $7.8 million for pediatric cancer.

"What THON means to me is making a difference in the life of a child," said Miller. I've been a finance captain for three years, and I've always wanted to dance. This year, I finally got the opportunity through SAAB (Student Athlete Advisory Board)."

THON began at 6 p.m. on Friday and ran all the way until 4 p.m. Sunday. During that time, the dancers interacted with patients and their families, performed numerous line dances and much more.

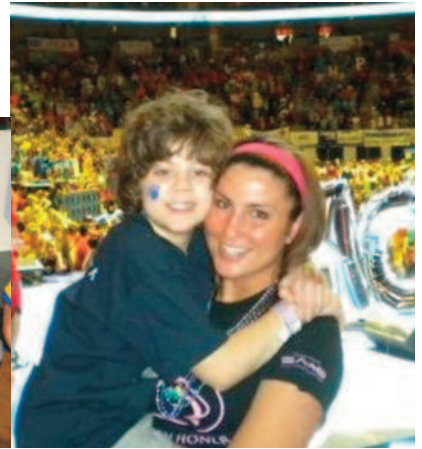

Miller joined her teammates on the stage for the Saturday evening pep rally. Numerous teams danced, and the top performance was chosen by crowd applause, an honor eventually won by the football team.

The weekend went far beyond an athletic event as the Penn State community united for one cause.

"It really means the world to me to make a difference and put a smile on a kid's face this weekend," said Miller.

Jen Miller was one of the THON Dancers in 2010, dancing for 46 straight hours.

NCAA FIRST ROUND, Nov. 10, 2007

PENN STATE 3, VIRGINIA 2

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - In the game featuring Penn State and Virginia on August 26 in the first weekend of the season, Virginia scored a first half goal and led 1-0 at halftime before Penn State rallied with three unanswered second-half goals for a 3-1 victory. In another matchup with the Cavaliers in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the game was very similar to the first meeting as Penn State overcame a 1-0 halftime deficit with three second half goals. The Nittany Lions held on for a narrow 3-2 victory at the Maryland Field Hockey and Lacrosse Complex.

The win moved the Nittany Lions into the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year and for the second straight year they moved on to face the host Terrapins in the second round.

Penn State's top three goal scorers led the way. Britney Long scored her team-leading 13th goal to tie the score early in the second half. Mallory Weisen scored her 10th goal to give the Nittany Lions the 2-1 lead while Shaun Banta netted her seventh to give the Nittany Lions what would prove to be a much-needed insurance goal.

NCAA QUARTERFINALS, Nov. 11, 2007

PENN STATE 1, MARYLAND 0

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Britney Long scored a first half goal in the 22nd minute and the Penn State defense played its best game of the year as Penn State stunned two-time defending national champion Maryland 1-0 on its home field in the NCAA Quarterfinals to advance to the NCAA Semifinal round. The Nittany Lions ended up returning to College Park for its seventh NCAA Semifinal in school history and its 10th all-time trip to a semifinal, counting the AIAW as well.

Penn State converted on an opportunity at the 21:54 mark to take a 1-0 lead. The Lions were awarded a free hit from just outside the circle on the right side of the cage. Shaun Banta took the hit and sent a hard ball into the circle, where Long was waiting on the weak-side post to tip in the pass for her 14th goal of the year and her second of the NCAA Tournament.

The Terps kept the ball on Penn State's side of the field for the vast majority of the final 10 minutes of the second half, but what shots they were able to get off were either saved by Beaumont or went wide. Beaumont made nine saves in an outstanding effort in the cage.

NCAA SEMIFINALS, Nov. 16, 2007

PENN STATE 2, WAKE FOREST 0

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Mallory Weisen scored a first half goal in the 14th minute and Shaun Banta added a late goal with just over 10 minutes to play in the second half and the Penn State defense once again stifled one of the country's top ranked teams as the Nittany Lions knocked off No. 2 Wake Forest 2-0 in the National Semifinals, five days after knocking off third-ranked Maryland on the same field.

With the win, Penn State moved on to its second NCAA Championship Game appearance in program history.

In the 15th minute, Penn State was awarded the first penalty corner of the game. Weisen's shot went off the foot of a Wake Forest defender and deflected into the cage to give the Nittany Lions a 1-0 lead at the 14:03 mark. Jen Long and Allison Scola were credited with assists on the play.

The Nittany Lions scored an insurance goal at the 59:28 mark as Banta did some nifty dribbling to free herself for a shot, which she finished unassisted to make it 2-0.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP, Nov. 18, 2007

NORTH CAROLINA 3, PENN STATE 0

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - For the third straight NCAA Tournament game, the Penn State defense did an excellent job of limiting its opponent's scoring chances by cutting off passes and blocking shots against one of the seeded teams in the NCAA Tournament. In the first two games, the Nittany Lions were able to shut out their seeded opponent despite being outshot. In this game, however, despite another valiant effort, North Carolina took advantage of three of its scoring opportunities which proved to be the difference.

The Tar Heels got on the board just 3:10 into the contest as some sharp passing led to an open shot and the goal. From just inside the top of the circle, the ball was passed by Jesse Gey to the left and Katelyn Falgowski one-timed a hard shot into the cage.

A North Carolina shot that was redirected off the foot of a Penn State defender just over eight minutes into the second half made it 2-0.

Penn State's best scoring chance came with just over 20 minutes remaining in the second half on a fast break. Britney Long sent the ball into the circle from the right side of the endline and it got all the way through to an open Bethany Marvel on the left side, but she was unable to get the shot off right away, and UNC keeper Brianna O'Donnell made the save.

Danielle Forward scored the Tar Heels' third goal at the 6:44 mark to conclude the scoring.

HOME HIGHLIGHTS

THE STREAK

Between 1979-83, Nittany Lion teams played 32 straight home games without a loss.

THE STREAK (2)

Between 1984-89, Nittany Lion teams won 19 straight home games.

THE STREAK (3)

Between 1990-92, Nittany Lion teams won 25 straight home games. There were no ties during that streak to go along with 17 shutouts.

THE STREAK (4)

Nittany Lion teams won 25 straight home games, tying the school record. That streak spanned 1996-99.

PERFECTION

The 1991 squad completed the home season with a 13-0-0 record, establishing the high victory mark for home wins in a season.

A MONTH OF ZEROES

Before allowing a goal to Connecticut in the last regular-season game on Nov. 3, 1991, the Nittany Lions played more than a month of shutout field hockey at Bigler Field.

SOME BIG GUNS

During that span, Penn State scored 32 unanswered goals and had a final scoring advantage of 58-3 over opposing teams.

100 WINS

The 1987 team won the 100th home game in the program's history, 4-1 over Maryland on Sept. 29, 1987.

200 WINS

The Nittany Lions won the program's 200th home game in its 36th season with a 1-0 upset victory over North Carolina on Sept. 5, 1999.

THE STREAK (5)

Over portions of the 2001 and 2002 seasons the Nittany Lions put together a 12-game home winning streak, its longest since beginning play at Bigler Field in 1996.

SPRINGBOARD TO THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The Nittany Lions used an 10-1 home mark in 2002, which included first and second round NCAA Tournament wins as a springboard to their first-ever NCAA Championship Game appearance in 2002. Penn State outscored its opponents 34-10 over nine home contests.

AWESOME AT HOME

In the first season at the brand-new Penn State Field Hockey Complex (2005), the Nittany Lions compiled a 10-0 record en route to a school record tying (and most in a single-season) 17-game win streak, outscoring their opponents by a 39-7 mark. The Nittany Lions now have a four-year record of 29-8 at their new home.

DOMINANT HOME DEFENSE

The 2008 defense held its opponent scoreless in the final 223:34 at home, and in the process shut out Virginia, Indiana, and Michigan. The squad looks to continue the shutout streak early in 2009.

U.S. NATIONAL TEAMS & OLYMPIC ATHLETES

Three former Nittany Lions have competed in the Olympics. In 1980, Chris Larson (below right) and current Penn State Head Coach Charlene Morett (left) qualified for the Olympic Team that was set to compete in Moscow. The U.S. did not compete in those games due to the boycott, but Morett and Larson made the team again four years later in Los Angeles and won the bronze medal. That year, Brenda Stauffer (center) also competed for the United States, giving that squad three former Penn State players on its experience.

Says Morett of her experience, "Penn State prepared me to play at the highest level. My goal is to prepare my current players for similar challenges."

Charlene Morett

Brenda Stauffer

Chris Larson

In addition to the three Olympians, Penn State also has a rich history of providing players for the main U.S. National Team as well as other national teams. Recently graduated All-Americans Jen Long and Allison Scola were the latest members as both were part of the U.S. Under-21 National Team. Last July, Scola was also named to the U.S. Development Squad.

Media Information

This field hockey media guide is to assist members of the media in their coverage of Penn State field hockey. The Penn State Athletic Communications staff is available and willing to assist any media members. Athletic Communications Assistant Justin Laffleur is the primary contact for field hockey.

Credentials

Game day or season credentials are not necessary for Penn State field hockey games. Media members who wish to cover a particular game can email jal47@psu.edu or call Laffleur to request any assistance.

Interview Policies

All interview requests should be made through the Athletic Communications office. Head coach Char Morett and selected players are available for interviews after games following a cooling off period. Interviews may be conducted on the field. The coaching staff is usually available for interviews during weekday mornings and the coaches and members of the team are usually available before or after practice. Please contact Laffleur to confirm practice times or to arrange an interview at a different time.

Telephones

Those requesting a phone line for radio or other purposes should call or email at least five days prior to a game to make arrangements.

Game Media Services

The Penn State athletic communications office will provide pre-game notes, rosters, updated statistics and results for each team to members of the media at the scorer's table prior to each game. Box scores and any post-game notes will be distributed approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game.

An Associated Press game story will also be produced by the PSU Athletic Communications staff. Members of the media may request that these stories as well as any or all releases regarding the Penn State field hockey program be sent to their organization through email by contacting Laffleur.

Daily Media Services

For the most up-to-date news and statistics as well as archived releases regarding the Penn State field hockey team, visit the official website of Penn State athletics, GoPSUsports.com.
