SCHEDULE NOTES

- Matches against 10 teams that competed in the 2015 NCAA Tournament, including nine teams either ranked or receiving votes in the final AVCA Top 25 Coaches Poll, highlight the 2016 schedule. This year's slate also features matchups against 12 opponents recording 20 or more wins during the 2015 season.

- For the fourth consecutive year, Penn State opens the 2016 campaign at home. The Nittany Lions welcome a southern slate to Rec Hall for the Penn State Classic Aug. 26-27, hosting Georgia Southern, West Virginia and UNC during the first week of non-conference play.

- In the third year of a four-year event, the Nittany Lions will travel to Boulder, Colorado for the Nike Big Ten/Pac-12 Challenge. Penn State highlights the series with matches against Stanford and Colorado for the second consecutive season. Penn State is 3-1 in the four-year rotating tournament, having recorded back-to-back straight set wins against the Buffs and the Cardinal at home in Rec Hall a year ago.

- Penn State owns a 612-107 (.851) record against its 2016 opponents, including a 440-60 (.880) mark in Big Ten matches since joining the conference in 1991. The Nittany Lions own a 525-97 (.844) mark all-time against current Big Ten opponents.

- Georgia Southern is the only team the Nittany Lions will square off against for the first time in program history this year. Penn State had previously met at least three teams for the first time ever in the last two seasons.

- The 2016 slate features three matches against ACC teams in the early part of the year. Penn State will host UNC and Clemson in between a trip to Syracuse, New York to take on the Orange for the second time in three years during the non-conference portion of the season.

- The Nittany Lions open the Big Ten portion of the schedule on the road at Rutgers in a midweek matchup in Piscataway, New Jersey. The Nittany Lions will wrap up the first week of conference action on the road at Northwestern in a rare Sunday outing.

NCAA COLLEGIATE WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL BASICS

Net - 7' 4 1/8"

POSITION BREAKDOWN:

MH: Middle hitter, generally attacks from middle front

DS: Defensive Specialist, a substitution in the back row for serving, passing and defensive purposes.

S: The setter generally handles the second contact to distribute the ball to the hitters, may only attack and block when in the front row.

L: Libero, a back row player concentrated on passing and defense who can serve, but may not attack the ball above the height of the net; wears a different colored jersey to help distinguish, "on-the-fly" entry into the game.

The diagram above details NCAA women's volleyball rotations as well as a breakdown of the six positions on the court. Additional information regarding terminology and scoring is also available.

TERMINOLOGY AND SCORING:

As of 2008, the NCAA coaches have decided to change the terminology "game" to "set" - so matches consist of the best three-of-five sets. In addition, instead of rally scoring to 30 points in the first four sets, sets are presently played to 25. The fifth set will be rally scoring to 15 points. Both changes were made to mirror international volleyball.

2016 OUTLOOK

Approaching nearly his 40th season at the helm of a storied program, Penn State women's volleyball head coach Russ Rose returns to guide the Nittany Lions into the 2016 season.

As years pass, staffs and rosters change, the Hall of Fame head coach is back once again to begin a yearly process: finding a way compete.

Much like every season, the Nittany Lions will enter 2016 with question marks from key departures. This year, Penn State will have to find a way to replace the offensive contributions of Second Team AVCA All-Americans Megan Courtney and Aiyana Whitney.

A four-year starter, Courtney joined an elite group as just one of eight Nittany Lions to amass 1,000 career kills and 1,000 career digs on the way to her first career All-Big Ten and All-America honors at the end of her final season in the Blue and White.

Closing out the year ranked atop the team standings in kills and kills per set, Whitney also wrapped up her fifth and final season with her first career All-America and All-Big Ten accolades.

"I think the big challenge this year is how we replace the great contributions from two players [Courtney & Whitney] who went straight from playing collegiately to playing professionally," Rose said.

"Those are two big positions to fill and that's going to be the big question as we look toward the season. Where is the offensive production going to be coming from," Rose said.

While the offensive gap is just one piece of the puzzle, Penn State does return a few other key pieces in different areas.

The Nittany Lions finished the 2015 season ranked third nationally and first in the Big Ten in blocks per set, led by First Team AVCA All-American Haleigh Washington, who led the team with 1.38 blocks per set, which closed out the year ranked third in the conference. A unanimous All-Big Ten selection, Washington also logged 13 double figure kill performances, finishing the year with a .442 hitting efficiency that ranked third nationally and first in the league.

Other key offensive returners include AVCA All-America Honorable Mention Ali Frantti, and Simone Lee, who closed out the year starting 18 of the final 21 matches of the year.

The Nittany Lions also received significant contributions from Bryanna Weiskircher, who helped set the team to a .295 hitting percentage in her first season at setter, good for fifth nationally in the final standings.

Like Rose says year in and year out though, this year's team will have to find different ways to maximize strengths to compete at a high level.

"It doesn't always have to be pretty," Rose said. "You have to try and find a way to be successful with the talent that you have, which is what the charge will be this year."

Taking a quick look at the senior class, Penn State's seniors include a trio of defensive specialists in Laura Broerman, Carley Muller and Taylor Krause.

Penn State's 2016 newcomers include a diverse group consisting of five true freshman and three transfers.

Among other newcomers, Penn State also welcomes new additions to the bench with staffing additions at assistant coach in Craig Dyer, director of operations in Jon Parry and volunteer assistant in Marcus Dos Santos.

Dyer returns to Penn State having previously served as an assistant for the Nittany Lion men's volleyball team from 2006-09, helping the 2008 squad to an NCAA national championship. Parry comes to Penn State from Long Beach State, where he served as the director of operations for the 49ers men's volleyball team. Dos Santos spent last year as a volunteer assistant at East Carolina before arriving in Happy Valley.

SETTER

FAMILIAR FACES

Heading into 2016, Penn State returns more options at the setting position. Bryanna Weiskircher handled a majority of the responsibility last year, starting 33 of 34 matches. Wilma Rivera started the first match of the season, before making a total of 20 appearances.

Weiskircher earned AVCA All-Northeast Region Honorable Mention honors, as well as her first career Big Ten Setter of the Week award in 2015, while also totaling 10 double-doubles. Averaging 10.83 assists per set, Weiskircher also led the team with 40 aces on the year, averaging 0.35 per set. Highlighting her debut season, Weiskircher paced four of her top attackers to double figure kills in the win against then-No. 2 Stanford with a career-high 41 assists and eight digs.

"I thought Bryanna had some flashes last year where she played really well and some matches that I was surprised that she didn't play better," Rose said. "She has a really good IQ for the game and a good serve, so hopefully she'll be better in the areas I thought needed to be polished up to make a bigger contribution to our program this year."

In her first season at Penn State, Rivera totaled 78 digs, 27 assists and six aces. She highlighted the season with a career-high nine digs in the win at South Florida. Some of her Big Ten highlights include eight digs at then-No. 4 Minnesota and seven digs in a straight set win at Iowa. She also combined for five digs in the NCAA first and second round matches against Howard and Dayton before totaling four in the NCAA regional semifinal match against Hawaii.

"Wilma has improved physically, technically and she has much more confidence in her game and her serve is much more relevant," Rose said.

LEGENDS IN THE MAKING

Joining Weiskircher and Rivera at the setting position is Abby Detering and Caroline Graham. Both Detering and Graham transferred to Penn State having previously attended Florida and UCLA, respectively.

Detering spent the last two seasons at Florida and enters 2016 as a junior on the Nittany Lion roster. Graham transferred to Penn State after spending a year at UCLA, but did not play on the volleyball team.

Graham attended Lycee Alexandre Dumas, serving as team captain from 2014-16. She played club volleyball with AS Tigresses (Tigers), helping the team to a national championship in 2015 and a second-place finish in 2014 and 2016.

"Caroline contacted us after she was at UCLA for a year and although she did not play volleyball there, I think she probably has good experience as a member of the Hatian national team," Rose said.

Detering saw action in 29 matches in her most recent season at Florida, playing in 89 sets during her sophomore season with the Gators. She highlighted the year with a career-high 30 assists and three kills in a win on the road at Arkansas.

"Abby came from a successful program at Florida," Rose said. "She was highly recruited out of Ohio and has great enthusiasm. I know the players really enjoy the energy that she brings to practice and competition. I look forward to the contributions that she can make to our team from the setting position."

MIDDLE HITTER

FAMILIAR FACES

Penn State has a pair of veteran returners in 2016, including First Team AVCA

Redshirt sophomore Bryanna Weiskircher

All-American Haleigh Washington and Heidi Thelen.

Washington started all 34 matches for the Nittany Lions last year, posting at least two blocks in all but one match. Against St. John's, Washington totaled a career-high 11 blocks for her first career double figure blocking performance. In addition to finishing among the nation's best, her .442 hitting clip is ranked fourth all-time on the Penn State single season record list during the 25-point rally scoring era.

"Haleigh had good success early in her sophomore year and then physically appeared to have ran out of gas as the season went along," Rose said. "She has had some physical challenges that have been addressed, so hopefully she'll be healthy and strong. She is an engaging human being who has terrific energy."

Thelen significantly stepped up her contributions in 2015, totaling 41 kills in 23 matches on the year, including 16 starts. Thelen tallied 11 multi-block outings on the year, posting a career-high nine blocks against Stony Brook and at Michigan. She also highlighted the season with a career-high seven kills in the NCAA second round win against Dayton.

"Heidi has made great strides since she has been here," Rose said. "She has been able to get stronger every year and has picked up her competitive volleyball IQ."

LEGENDS IN THE MAKING

After redshirting her freshman year, Tori Gorrell will look to make an impact in 2016. Gorrell attended Abbey Park High School in Oakville, Ontario, helping Abbey Park to the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Association AAA volleyball championship.

"Tori is a former camper who we redshirted last year and the expectations are high for her," Rose said. "She's especially good off of one foot, has a good arm and I believe once she gets healthy, she'll be in the mix to help us at the middle blocking position."

Gorrell played club volleyball with Toronto's Leaside, where she earned Ontario Volleyball Association U17 All-Star honors in 2013-14 and Preseason Humber Tournament All-Star honors in 2014.

OUTSIDE HITTER, RIGHT SIDE & OPPOSITE

FAMILIAR FACES

Perhaps Penn State's biggest challenge this year will be replacing the offensive power generated from All-American seniors Aiyana Whitney and Megan Courtney.

"Megan was a great passer, blocker and one of our key attackers," Rose said. "I think that Aiyana is a world class attacker, who at times, was unstoppable both in our gym and in some matches last year."

Despite the departures, Penn State still returns juniors Ali Frantti and Simone Lee, as well as redshirt sophomore Nia Reed.

Frantti finished tied for third on the team averaging 2.63 kills per set last year, having started all 34 matches for the Nittany Lions. Recording 10 or more digs on five occasions, Frantti also finished fourth on the team with 1.83 digs per set and capped off the year with AVCA All-America Honorable Mention honors. With at least 10 kills in 14 matches, Frantti matched a season-high mark with 14 kills four times during the 2015 season, tying the mark for the final time with 14 kills on .407 hitting in the NCAA Tournament second round win against Dayton.

"We have really high expectations for Ali as a passer-hitter and a six rotation player, Rose said. "She had a strong freshman season and she had some challenges associated with her sophomore season, which is how life works. So much of where she is this year will be demonstrated by how hard she prepares for the upcoming season."

Lee also earned her way into the starting lineup with 18 starts on the year in 30 total appearances on the court. Among six double figure kill performances during the year, Lee highlighted the season with a stretch of five consecutive matches with at least 10 kills. She kicked off the streak with a career-high 14 kills on the road at Northwestern.

"I am hopeful Simone will be able to pick up some of the offensive gaps that we have with the graduation of Aiyana Whitney and Megan Courtney," Rose said. "She didn't have a full time role last year, but I thought she had a good spring and she's arguably our strongest athlete. Her energy is good and I'm hopeful that she'll be able to carry a big load for us this year."

Having seen limited action in 2015, Reed will also be another offensive option for the Nittany Lions once again this year.

Lee played in 11 matches last year, setting a career-high mark with six kills to go along with two blocks in a straight set win against Indiana. She matched the mark once more with six kills and a personal best three blocks in a road-win at Michigan State.

"Nia has been battling injuries that have really slowed down her progress," Rose said. There are days where Nia looks like she is making great progress. Our need is for Nia to get herself together, but so much of that process is that she has to play to do it, and the injury she sustained impacted her development in that area."

LEGENDS IN THE MAKING

Despite redshirting last year, Jelena Novakovic, a left-handed ride side attacker, joins incoming freshman Emily DeMure and Saint Mary's transfer Clare Powers as other possible offensive options.

With experience playing on the Serbian Junior National Team, Novakovic also played club volleyball with Red Star Belgrade.

"I think Jelena has great intent on getting herself relevant as a player. She was injured during the season and redshirted her freshman year and then had some other injuries, so we've never really seen her at her healthiest. I believe Jelena has a strong IQ of the game and she's played quite a bit, but whether she physically can sustain the needs to play at a high level is to be determined."

Redshirt sophomore Nia Reed

A four-year letterwinner at Granite Bay, DeMure helped the Grizzly Bears to a DI state championship during the 2013-14 season, as well as an All-League title in the same year. She also helped Granite Bay to a NorCal All-Section title in 2015, served as team captain. She was selected as team MVP at Granite Bay in 2015 and played club volleyball for Gold Cal Juniors.

"Emily is an enthusiastic competitor and Penn State is where she wanted to come to school so I look forward to working with her and seeing her play," Rose said. "She might be a sort of utility player for us, where we can use her in different positions. Once we get her in the gym we'll be able to see where she's best suited to help us."

Powers ranked third on the team in kills per set with 1.93 and finished fourth in digs per set with 2.19 in her first season at Saint Mary's before an injury cut her sophomore season short. She transfers to Penn State as a redshirt sophomore on the roster.

"We recruited Clare because the recommendations we received on her were that her volleyball IQ was high," Rose said. "She's recovering from an injury so we have not seen her play yet, but she is an upbeat, happy human being, who I'm sure will find a way to help us."

DEFENSIVE SPECIALIST/LIBERO

FAMILIAR FACES

Despite the graduation of seniors Kendall Pierce and Lara Caraway, the Nittany Lions have the most depth in terms of numbers at defensive specialist.

Keeton Holcomb is among a group of five returners at the position with the most experience. Holcomb played in 32 matches during her first season in the Blue and White, making 28 starts. She led the team with 3.05 digs per set, highlighting the season with a pair of 20-dig performance in the same day in wins against Mississippi State and Notre Dame.

"I thought there were some matches where Keeton played with confidence and the team responded well and then there were some matches, especially toward the end of the year where she appeared to be wore down" Rose said. "Hopefully she'll take the experiences that she gained last year, adjust and combine it with what she brings to the table."

Senior returners to the position include Taylor Krause, Laura Broerman and Carley Muller. Both Muller and Krause saw limited action last season, with Broerman out for the year with an injury. Junior Lainy Pierce rounds out the group, having made 21 appearances on the year totaling 18 digs and three aces in 48 total sets.

LEGENDS IN THE MAKING

Penn State's incoming freshman at defensive specialist include: Allison Farrell, Kristin Krause, Emily Sciorra and Kendall White.

A four-year letterwinner at Glenbard East, Farrell helped the Rams to a regional title during the 2014-15 season. She also earned Upstate 8 All-Conference and All-Area honors in 2015 and played club volleyball with Sports Performance.

Krause joins older sister Taylor on the Nittany Lion roster. A four-year letterwinner at Parkland High, Krause set the Trojans to back-to-back East Penn conference, district and Pennsylvania state championships in 2014-15. Selected as Pennsylvania's volleyball Gatorade State Player of the Year in 2015-16, she played club volleyball with East Coast Power, where she was coached by her father, Mike Krause.

"Kristin is a competitive girl who has demonstrated good leadership skills," Rose said. "She plays hard and I think that's what I embraced in her personality."

Emily Sciorra was a four-year letterwinner at Chantilly, where she helped the Chargers to a Conference 6A championship in 2013 as the team's libero. Sciorra played club volleyball with Metro Volleyball Club of Washington D.C., helping her team to gold in the Sports Performance National Junior Classic Open.

"Emily came to our camp at Penn State for a couple of years," Rose said. "She has a solid volleyball IQ, is quick, has a good platform and she plays the game hard. I would think that she will be in the mix for getting some opportunities as a freshman."

White was four-year letterwinner at Cathedral, White helped the Irish become the first Indiana 4A team to post an undefeated record (36-0) in 2015 on the way to an Indiana Class 4A state title as the team's libero. Among numerous honors, she was named Indiana's volleyball Gatorade State Player of the Year in 2015-16 and selected as the Indy Star Player of the Year and Cathedral's High School Female Athlete of the Year.

"Kendall has had great success with both her club and high school teams. She plays one way and it's really, really hard. I'm a big fan of how Kendall plays. I'm a big fan of people going with their strengths and I think she's a good passer, an especially good defensive player and a relentless pursuer of the ball."

& SUPPORT STAFF

HEAD COACH RUSS ROSE

38th year | George Williams '75
Career record: 1,189-186

It's been nearly four decades since Russ Rose arrived on campus in Happy Valley. Entering his 38th season at the helm of the Penn State women's volleyball, his name has become synonymous with the pride and tradition of the storied program. The leader of arguably the nation's most elite women's volleyball program, his record-setting seven NCAA national titles and 16 Big Ten championships speak directly to the confidence and character he's passed along throughout his career.

Few have come close to matching Rose's impressive win total, as he's collected victories at a staggering pace. Never having posted less than 22 wins in a season, his 1,189 career wins rank first all-time among NCAA DI head coaches.

As each year passes, his list of accomplishments continue to swell, but a quick snapshot of his legendary tenure might read something like this: The leader of a women's volleyball powerhouse who has kept his program among the nation's elite for nearly 40 years, amassing a stunning career record of 1,189-186. He has guided his teams to a record-setting seven NCAA national titles, including an unprecedented four consecutive championships from 2007-10. Along with 16 Big Ten titles, his program is one of only two women's volleyball schools to compete in all 35 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball National Championship events. He has produced multiple Olympians, four AVCA National Players of the Year, 13 Big Ten conference Players of the Year and at least one AVCA All-American in 36 of 37 seasons. His student-athletes excel in the classroom as well, with an outstanding 174 Academic All-Big Ten selections and 12 Academic All-Americans, who have earned 17 selections.

>> HE PREFERS NOT FOCUS ON PERSONAL ACCOLADES

Rose is the first to tell anyone who asks that he prefers to place the focus on the student-athlete, rather than his own personal accolades. As both a coach and an educator, Rose's impact at Penn State runs much deeper than women's volleyball. He teaches a yearly course in coaching ethics that regularly meets capacity each fall it's offered. He has also opened up several cultural opportunities for his student-athletes, taking his teams on four foreign trips to five different countries in the last 15 years.

>> AMONG THE ELITE: THE WINNINGEST DI COACH OF ALL TIME

It seemed only fitting that Rose's 1,000th career victory came against Hawaii's Dave Shoji, who is the only other active DI head coach to reach the milestone mark. It was December 18, 2009 when the top-ranked Nittany Lions advanced to the NCAA national championship match with a 3-1 win against the No. 12 Rainbow Warriors. Victory number 1,001 came just two days later as Rose guided Penn State to its third consecutive NCAA national championship with a thrilling come-from-behind five-set victory against No. 2 Texas.

Another 132 wins later, Rose entered the fourth week of the 2014 season just one win shy of tying Shoji for first place on the list of winningest active Division I head coaches with 1,132 victories. After a 4-0 weekend at home, he moved into first place, ahead of Shoji with 1,136 career wins. The two went back and forth throughout the season, but Penn State's run to its seventh NCAA national championship in 2014 vaulted Rose 11 wins ahead of Shoji, placing him firmly atop the active Division I career standings at the conclusion of the season.

Prior to topping the list of Division I winningest active coaches by victories, his .865 career winning clip has ranked first on the percentage chart for the past several years. Now at the top of both lists, he's one of just two active NCAA Division I coaches to amass more than 1,100 career wins and one of four active coaches across all three divisions to join the 1,000 victories club.

>> HE'S WON SEVEN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

After reaching the NCAA title match for two consecutive seasons from 1997-98, Penn State swept past top-ranked Stanford in the 1999 national final to earn the program's first NCAA championship. It had been seven years since the Nittany Lions reached the field of final four teams when Penn State arrived in Sacramento, California for the 2007 national semifinals. Having already won their fifth consecutive Big Ten title with a perfect 20-0 mark in conference play, Penn State's group of four AVCA All-Americans helped the Nittany Lions to a thrilling five-set victory against Stanford for the program's second NCAA national championship crown.

Rose's Nittany Lions improved upon 2007's result the very next season, winning their third national title to become the sixth women's volleyball program to win back-to-back championships and the fourth team to win it with an undefeated record. The 2008 team featured an entire starting front row of AVCA All-Americans, including National Player of the Year, Nicole Fawcett, who helped Penn State to a yet another perfect 38-0 record.

The Nittany Lions had won a record-breaking 111 consecutive sets on their way to the title before entering 2009 on a NCAA record-breaking 64-match winning streak. Penn State had set the scene once again in 2009 with another 20-0 record in conference play, helped out by four returning All-Americans in Megan Hodge, Alisha Glass, Arielle Wilson and Blair Brown.

Back-to-back national titles proved not enough for the Nittany Lions, who became the first team in Division I women's volleyball history to win three in a row with a come-from-behind triumph against No. 2 Texas in the 2009 national final. Along the way, Rose guided Penn State to a 38-0 record for the second straight season, helping the team extend its record-breaking winning streak to 102-consecutive matches, a feat that has never been accomplished by any other team in NCAA women's volleyball history. He also mentored Hodge to AVCA National Player of the Year honors.

Rose was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame, held in conjunction with the 2007 NCAA National Championship in Sacramento, California.

Aside from those who believed Penn State's luck had run out, the Nittany Lions were unfazed and began a quest for a fourth straight NCAA national championship in 2010. In an unfortunate turn of events early in the season, Penn State's record-breaking winning streak came to an end at 109 consecutive matches. Stanford, the last team to defeat PSU in 2007, upended the Nittany Lions September 11, 2010 in the Nike Big Four Classic.

The Nittany Lions regrouped and won their eighth straight and 14th overall Big Ten title to earn an automatic berth to NCAA tournament. Proving unstoppable through tournament play, Penn State stormed past Texas in the national semifinals before capturing a 3-0 win against No. 8 California for an unprecedented fourth consecutive crown.

Just two seasons passed before the Nittany Lions were back in the NCAA national final match, this time on the heels of their 16th Big Ten title in program history. Penn State was taking on fellow conference opponent Wisconsin in the first-ever all Big Ten title match in 2013. Penn State held off the Badgers in four sets to earn the program's sixth NCAA national championship. Seniors Deja McClendon, Ariel Scott, Katie Slay and Maddie Martin rounded out their careers with two NCAA national championships and a total of 10 AVCA All-America honors between the four.

With such key departures, many counted the Nittany Lions out of contention for the 2014 NCAA national championship. Led by AVCA DI National Player of the Year Micha Hancock, the Nittany Lions pushed past top-ranked Stanford in the national semifinals before sweeping BYU to win its seventh NCAA national championship.

Penn State's seven NCAA national championships stand alone as the most of any women's volleyball program in history. With Rose at the helm of the program for all seven titles, he's the only Division I head coach in NCAA women's volleyball history to collect seven crowns at one school.

>> HE'S A GREAT DANCER

The Nittany Lions are one of only two NCAA Division I women's volleyball programs to compete in all 35 NCAA Championship postseason tournaments since 1981. In tournament play, the Nittany Lions own a 92-28 all-time record, having made 12 appearances in the final four.

Since 2007, Penn State has made more appearances in the NCAA national semifinals than any other program. PSU has participated in seven of the last nine final fours, tied with Texas, at six apiece.

Having never lost a first round matchup, the Nittany Lions are regular contenders in the later rounds of the event. Rose has guided his tournament teams to a total of 10 appearances in the NCAA national finals. In the 2014, NCAA national finals, Penn State captured a straight set victory against BYU for its sixth NCAA national championship in a span of eight years. PSU has not lost an NCAA title match since 1998. The BYU victory also marked the third time in history Penn State swept its national final opponent.

>> BY THE NUMBERS

Among all the victories, honors, title and awards, perhaps one of the most astounding set of numbers is Penn State's impressive home court record at Rec Hall. Rose has guided his teams to a total of 17 undefeated regular season slates at home. The Nittany Lions have also put together a combined home court record of 333-15 across all 40 years of women's volleyball at Penn State, including a 269-22 record in home matches against current Big Ten opponents under the direction of Rose. Only one current Big Ten school has been able to top Penn State more than three times at home since joining the conference in 1991.

To date, Rose has guided his teams to no less than 22 wins per year, while also earning 30 or more wins in 26 seasons. Averaging it out, Rose's teams win 32.2 matches per year, while surrendering less than six losses in a single season (5).

Rose's year-end finishes include: 35 consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, wins in every single first round matchup, 10 national final appearances, 12 trips to the national semifinals and seven national championships. In conference action, he guided his teams to eight consecutive Atlantic 10 championships from 1983-90, while also earning 16 Big Ten titles since joining the league in 1991.

>> COACHING HONORS

Across his tenure as head coach, Rose has been honored with a plethora of coaching awards. Most recently, Rose was honored as both the AVCA Division I National Coach of the Year and the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2013 and awarded the Volleyball Magazine Coach of the Year honor in 2014. Those awards were not the first for Rose, who's earned National Coach of the Year honors five times and Big Ten Coach of the Year laurels on 14 occasions. Rose has also earned both national and conference Coach of the Year awards three times during his career at Penn State.

In 2007, Rose was one of three coaches inducted into the America Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Hall of Fame. In the same year, he was also honored as the AVCA DI National Coach of the Year, the AVCA Midwest Region Coach of the Year and the Big Ten Coach of the Year. In 2008, Rose repeated with the same trio of prestigious honors.

From 2005-10, Rose earned six consecutive Big Ten Coach of the Year awards, while also earning the back-to-back national recognition in 2007 and 2008. In the last 10 years, he's been voted the Big Ten Coach of the Year eight times, receiving two straight selections from 2012-13. Additionally, Rose has earned AVCA Regional Coach of the Year honors a total of 11 times.

Prior to the Big Ten Conference, Rose earned Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors six times, while guiding his teams to eight consecutive championships. In seven seasons of round-robin play, the Nittany Lions never lost a conference match, putting together a string of 49 consecutive wins before heading into the Big Ten conference in 1991.

>> HE HAS AN ICE CREAM FLAVOR

In 2014, Penn State's renowned Berkey Creamery unveiled a new "Hall of Fame" ice cream flavor named after Rose. The flavor, Russ "digs" Roseberry, joins the creamery's lineup of "hall of fame" permanent flavors, which pay tribute to Penn State people and institutions that have had significant impact on the University and wider community.

The ice cream variety is made with black raspberry puree, whole strawberries, red raspberry sauce and Wilbur's chocolate in a strawberry base. The addition of Rose's flavor marked the first time in more than 20 years that the Berkey Creamery has released a "Hall of Fame" flavor, with the last release being "Peachy Paterno" in honor of Joe Paterno.

>> INTERNATIONAL INVOLVEMENT & OTHER NOTABLE AWARDS

Throughout his career, Rose has been called upon to share his expertise with the coaches and players who represent the United States in international competition. Rose served as head coach of the United States men's team, which won the bronze medal at the 1985 Maccabiah Games, and the United States women's silver medal team in the 1981 Maccabiah Games. He won bronze medals as an assistant coach of the women's team in the 1982 National Sports Festival and as the East women's head coach at the 1983 Festival.

In 1989, he was an assistant coach with the United States men's national team for an exhibition series with Canada and the Soviet Union.

In 1990, Rose worked with members of the men's national and developmental teams during training camp in San Diego. In 1993, he assisted in the U.S. men's matches with Canada and the women's team against China. He also assisted the U.S. men as they prepared for the 2000 Olympics in Sydney.

In the summer of 2002, Rose assisted the U.S. men's team on a 13-day tour of Italy where they competed against the world's top teams, including Brazil, Italy, Yugoslavia, Russia and Holland. In 2014, he went with the U.S. men's team to the World League matches against Bulgaria.

He also served as team manager for the U.S. men's team at the Four Nations Tournament in Leipzig, Germany, in May of 2008. Rose was also inducted into the National Jewish Sports Hall of Fame in 2010.

In June 2011, Rose served as the team leader to the U.S. Women's National Team at the Montreux Volley Masters in Montreux, Switzerland. He joined former Nittany Lions, Megan Hodge, Alisha Glass and Nicole Fawcett. The squad went 2-1 in pool play and finished fourth overall.

An instructor in the USVBA coaches certification program, Rose has previously served as a national referee and evaluator and state director for volleyball for the Special Olympics. In 2005, USA Volleyball named Rose one of their All-Time Great Coaches, making him the first Big Ten coach to ever receive the honor.

As active clinician, Rose also coached professional men's volleyball in the Superior League in Puerto Rico in 1976 and has continued to do clinics on the island as well as in the United States and Europe. Rose was also member of the NCAA Division I Volleyball Committee for six years and the NCAA representative to the United States Volleyball Association Rules Committee.

Most recently, Rose was selected as the recipient of the 2013 Honorary Penn State Alumni award. A prestigious honor, the Honorary Alumni Awards are presented to individuals who are not Penn State graduates, but have made significant contributions to the welfare, reputation and prestige of the institution. The award is only given when the Alumni Association wishes to honor an exceptional person.

>> A ROSE IN HAPPY VALLEY

Rose graduated from George Williams College in 1975, having played volleyball on the school's 1974 National Association for Intercollegiate Athletics national championship team.

Following graduation, Rose remained at George Williams for two years as a part time coach, helping the women's team win two state titles, as well as a sixth-place finish in national competition.

He also served as an assistant for the men's team that won the national championship in 1977.

In 1978, he completed his master's degree at Nebraska, while also serving as the defensive coach for the Cornhuskers.

While writing his thesis on volleyball statistics, he led the junior varsity team to a two-year varsity mark of 52-5.

After leaving Nebraska, Rose had plans to continue his postgraduate education at BYU before a last minute change of plans brought him to Happy Valley.

"I was accepted at BYU to get my EdD," Rose said. "I received a teaching assistantship. I was ready to go. I met with the resident bishop and then I was offered the Penn State job."

It was 1979 when Rose arrived on campus, set to take the reigns of the women's volleyball program from legendary Penn State men's and women's volleyball head coach Tom Tait.

In 2013, Rose was named an Honorary Penn State Alumni. In honor of earning one of Penn State's most prestigious awards, he was presented with an engraved bench outside Rec Hall.

"I had just turned 25," Rose said. "I was happy I had a coaching job, I didn't know what I didn't know. I didn't have an office. I didn't have a telephone, I didn't have anything. I had 16 or 18 classes to teach a year, no assistant coach. I thought I had a good deal."

His first career victory at Penn State came September 21, 1979, when Rose guided the Nittany Lions to a 2-0 (17-15, 15-13) win against Navy in the season opener at the George Washington Invitational.

Rose led the 1979 Penn State women's volleyball team to a 32-9 overall record in his first season at the helm of the program. The result of a successful season? A $400 raise.

Rose married Lori Barberich, a former three-time All-American at Penn State, in 1986. Together, they have four sons, Jonathan, Michael, Christopher and Nicholas.

Russ Rose has taken Penn State from the regionally competitive level to that of an NCAA power since he took over the Penn State women's volleyball program in 1979. The development has been complete and successful, because of excellent talent and an equally sound method. The following is "the Russ Rose coaching philosophy."

COACH'S ROLE

"I believe the coach has numerous roles that require constant review and attention. First, and foremost, is the recruitment of quality student-athletes. With effective coaching, athletes have always been the key to a team's success."

"Secondly, we as a staff have to relate to the players what we feel is important for their growth and success. All the knowledge in the world will prove to be useless if we can't prepare our team for competition. We've shown this to be one of our strengths. I have great confidence that Salima, having played for me as well as Craig and Jon understand me and the program. I know they will do whatever it takes to help the players improve and pursue their dreams."

"Third, we have to prepare the team, physically, tactically and mentally. The physical preparation is easy, as the entire Penn State environment encourages the pursuit of excellence as shown by our years of high finishes in the Director's Cup results. The fact that all of our fall sports teams have won Big Ten titles more than reinforces that school of thought. The mental aspect of our players' development is one of the areas that I feel has separated us from our competition. We are committed as a group to reaching the highest levels possible - year in and year out. The team understands the need to be accountable, and I'm not hesitant to get their focus headed in the right direction."

"Certainly our time in the Big Ten has demonstrated to us the importance of making sure that the players are aware of what is going to be expected of them in a conference as strong as the Big Ten. It's been the strongest conference in the country as determined by the RPI and has led the nation in attendance for a number of years."

"Outside the Big Ten, we commit to play a competitive non-conference schedule. We continually strive to meet teams during the regular-season that have advanced in the national championship playoffs. It is a goal of mine for Penn State to always be in the top five in strength of schedule."

"I contend that the best way to see where our team is and where we aspire to be, is to play the nation's best teams. Our administration has allowed us to compete annually for the national championship. Universities enable teams to compete for the national championship. I have been blessed to have an administration that possessed the vision to support our program and I feel we have been able to deliver. It starts at the top with a University President and Athletic Director and staff who guide and assist the program."

"I think our role here is to attract the type of player who wants to be at Penn State, understands what we are about and knows what it will take to fit into our program. I refuse to be in the position where we are going to be saying one thing to get a player interested in Penn State and then change our story once the athlete arrives on campus. I am interested in players who are willing to be up front, committed and passionate in what they see in their own development and what we can do to help them succeed. I want players that want to be at Penn State rather than telling players what they want to hear."

"In turn, players must be willing to commit to the process and accept the culture of our program. They must work to be the best they can be every day in training, at practice and in matches. When those things happen, the results speak for themselves. It is a collaborative effort. Every team is different and has its own methods and paths to follow with the ultimate goal of being successful."

"Over the years I have been contacted by numerous schools as well as the U.S. National Team and foreign professional teams regarding vacant coaching positions, however I feel that the support I receive from the administration at Penn State is perfect for me, and I have no interest in coaching anywhere but Penn State. The opportunity to work and travel with our men's and women's national teams is perfect and it has allowed me to see the best volleyball played in the world."

TEAM PLAY

"Team play really deals with volleyball being the ultimate team sport. The last few years, we've not only had outstanding talent but we've had a great team spirit. Talent can get you only so far. If players aren't working together and committed to achieve great things, sacrificing and willing to embrace the needs of the team, then the team isn't going to shine. I can't guarantee recruits that we're going to win a conference championship or play for a national championship, albeit our goals should be along those lines. I guarantee them they're going to get better, be treated fairly and will receive an opportunity to play."

"The team that is willing to emphasize the pursuit of excellence at its own personal expense is the team that most often succeeds. Our success over the years, where we have won numerous conference titles and advanced to the national semifinal and championship matches, continues to reinforce these beliefs. The seven national championships are clearly the icing on the cake. A national championship does not validate a coach, a player or their program and alumni. It highlights the efforts of many and allows the community to celebrate the actions of the team. Our goal is to remain at that level and even if we fall short, we know that we are in the game. The pursuit is the challenge and getting to the final match is the reward."

FUNDAMENTALS

"Fundamentals and the player's development of them are the most important aspect of the game. The game is played by players who have to be able to execute the basic skills of the game. We try to recruit student-athletes who are great volleyball players but the game always comes down to the execution of the core fundamentals."

"I will not sacrifice the time necessary to develop a strong foundation. This is where a team's discipline and confidence is first introduced and developed. Our commitment to each team is for every one of our players to be challenged to become the best they can be every day. I know our players are constantly improving their game here. I can't guarantee victories but I can guarantee a player will improve at Penn State, and that is evidenced by the number of athletes who have received individual awards or chosen to further their careers with the national team or receive the opportunity to play professionally. We have about 10 players playing professionally each year."

TEAM DEFENSE

"Team defense is always an area we pride ourselves on and has always been one of the staples of our program. The pursuit of the ball in a game can only occur through preparation and repetition. I believe that everyone in the program has to rally around certain principles. At Penn State, we play hard, controlled defense, which means every player pursues every ball or they are taken out. I believe if you train hard, then the game itself begins to appear easy. If a player starts making decisions on what ball they think they can get and what they think is somebody else's ball, that's when we try to make some adjustments and get someone else involved in the play. Our defensive philosophy is to keep every ball in play – every day of each season in practice as well as games. I believe we have shown this works over the long haul as well. Defense and winning are an attitude and we attempt to do the latter by emphasizing the former. I feel our defense and grit in 2009's title match was the key to our win."

STUDENT-ATHLETE

"The term student-athlete is a very valid one here at Penn State and in the Big Ten. We recruit not only quality athletes, but quality students as well. There is no question in my mind that the well-rounded individual will be better prepared to deal with the numerous challenges faced in life. The programs available at Penn State are geared for success. The opportunity to pursue your potential, both academically and athletically, is in place and working well at Penn State. The student support services at Penn State and the job Jim Weaver does with our team is outstanding. It is a reflection of the entire athletic department's commitment to provide the necessary services for the student-athletes to pursue and achieve their dreams."

"I expect a commitment both to academics and athletics. I take great pride in the fact that every young woman who has entered our program and completed her playing eligibility has received or is working toward her degree. Rankings of the 31 athletic programs on campus reveal that the women's volleyball team annually posts one of the highest cumulative grade-point averages. With proper emphasis on the importance of maintaining high academic standards, I know we will achieve continual success. At Penn State, we have had the most members of the Academic All-Big Ten team as a sport and an institution since joining the conference, and we take great pride in always having two or three academic All-Americans each year. That speaks volumes about our student-athletes as well as our academic advising staff."

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

"The Big Ten, in my opinion, continues to be one of the strongest conferences in the country in both fan support and performance. It is a conference that is totally committed to the pursuit of excellence. The opportunity to play volleyball in the Big Ten truly enhances our program. The excitement generated by the athletes and fans at matches is great for the sport. It continues to be a great environment in which to compete. The conference has been ranked No. 1 in the volleyball RPI ratings since 1998 and has been a national leader in attendance the past ten years. Additionally, no conference has had more teams advance to the final four."

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

"Penn State as a school has been very fortunate and good for women's volleyball. I don't think there is another school in the country that has the support of everyone from the president of the university and the athletic director, to the residents of State College. Our players really reap the benefits of being at Penn State. I am extremely optimistic on the future of Penn State women's volleyball and there is no place in the country I'd rather be than Penn State."

The community has supported us during our development and the university's commitment is to be the best in everything it offers, from academics and research to music and the arts to athletics."

RECRUITING

"Recruiting is the life blood of a program and a team. It is our goal to encourage quality student athletes to visit Penn State with their parents to get a realistic view of what is really entailed with what we refer to as the 'Penn State Experience.' The campus, the environment and face of State College truly separates us from many of the other schools in the country as we exemplify the meaning of a 'college town.' The chemistry that exists between the team members is what has kept us competitive and the energy that exists between the university and the town of State College keeps the juices flowing. We want players that want to make a commitment to be the best that they can be. We also want players to be aware of the fact that I am looking for a level of accountability from them as well. I'm not looking for a situation where I'm going to spend 24 hours a day, seven days a week trying to monitor their lifestyles or get involved in preventing them from having a good time. I believe the college experience at this time in their lives is the greatest opportunity to have fun and explore. I think you live hard and play hard and at Penn State, the students have a great opportunity to have fun in multiple areas."

STAFF

"I feel great about our staff. We are fortunate to have Salima Rockwell and Craig Dyer. The position of Director of Volleyball Operations has also demonstrated the university's commitment to women's volleyball and I feel great about the addition of Jon Parry. Some people would think that having people who are from their alma mater would be a negative but I see it as a positive. It's a positive thing to have people with experience involved because they know in this program, they are going to be encouraged to have an opinion and their opinions are going to be heard. I respect what my former players have to say and the players can turn to them and get good feedback and not be dependent on having to interact with me all of the time. An additional benefit that is important in our philosophy is that we try and look at the strengths of the players and how best to get them to contribute as well as continue to meet their goals. We think it's a tremendous bonus."

"We're one of five schools in the country who have had a men's and a women's team that have won a national championship in volleyball and the only school outside of California and Hawaii that can make that claim and I think it's terrific that volleyball is on the map here year round. The interaction between the men's and women's programs here is exceptional. Both schools winning the national title's during the same academic year allow the sport to be recognized nationally and valued here by our many fans and the great student support."

"The fact that Penn State has more players selected to play in the Rio Olympics in 2016 makes a strong point in our pursuit to be the best."

BOOSTER CLUB

"Our Booster Club has been outstanding with everything we've asked them to be involved in. They funded our five foreign trips (Cuba, Italy and Brazil and Europe), pay for our banquet and support us at home and on the road. They also provide a welcoming environment for the players away from home where they can go for dinner and can interact with people who are supportive of the program. The Boosters are incredibly welcoming. I always get comments from parents of recruits about how welcoming everyone is. I think that's a part of Penn State and State College and it's been a big part of our program."

IN THE COACHING RANKS AFTER PENN STATE

Head coach Russ Rose has produced many of the nation's top players in his 37 years at the helm of the Penn State program. However, his players and staff don't end their paths once they graduate or move away. A great number of Nittany Lion alumni have successful professional volleyball careers and are also pursuing coaching careers at high schools, clubs and universities across the country. Listed to the right are the names of former staff members and student-athletes who have entered the coaching ranks after spending time at Penn State.

University of Oklahoma volleyball head coach Santiago Restrepo announced the hiring of Kristin Carpenter as the program's newest assistant coach on February 2, 2016. Carpenter was a part of Penn State's national championship squads in 2009 and 2010, starting off her career as a setter for the Nittany Lions. Carpenter also served as a captain of the Nittany Lions during her senior season in 2012.

Kent State University head women's volleyball coach Don Gromala has hired two-time National Champion Dominique Gonzalez in early July 2016 as an assistant coach. A two-time national champion at Penn State, Gonzalez works primarily with the Golden Flashes' defensive specialists. Gonzalez wrapped up her career at Penn State ranked fourth on the Nittany Lion career digs list with 1,474 all-time.

In conjunction with Penn State's 50 years of Women in Sport celebration during the 2014 season, the Nittany Lions hosted the first-ever Penn State Alumni Classic. The tournament featured four opponents who were all former Nittany Lions including: Eastern Illinois' former head coach Kate Price (2008), DePaul's Nadia Edwards (2001), University of Illinois-Chicago's Katie Shumacher-Cawley (2002) and East Carolina's Julie Torbett (1990).

All Penn State women's volleyball alumni attending the 50 year of Women in Sport celebration were honored during the intermission.

Former Penn State All-American Salima Rockwell enters her third season back at Penn State since rejoining the program after serving as both an assistant and associate head coach at Texas for five seasons. Widely regarded as one of the nation's top assistant coaches, Rockwell returned to Penn State as an associate head coach for the Nittany Lions.

In just her first season back, Rockwell helped guide the Nittany Lions to their seventh NCAA national championship in program history. Rockwell also mentored setter Micha Hancock to AVCA DI National Player of the Year honors. During her second season back, she helped guide the team to the NCAA regional semifinals, while mentoring setter Bryanna Weiskircher to AVCA All-Region distinction.

Rockwell spent five seasons as an associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Texas before returning to Penn State. While with the Longhorns, Rockwell helped guide Texas to three NCAA national semifinal appearances, including a national championship in 2012. She also helped sign the No. 2 recruiting class in 2012, which included three top 10 recruits. Most recently, Rockwell was the recipient of the 2013 AVCA National Assistant Coach of the Year Award.

During her collegiate career at Penn State, Rockwell (Davidson) was a three-time All-American under coach Rose from 1991-94, picking up four All-Big Ten honors, including three first team selections and Big Ten Player of the Year honors in 1993. She also earned back-to-back NCAA Tournament All-Tournament team honors at the 1993 and 1994 national finals.

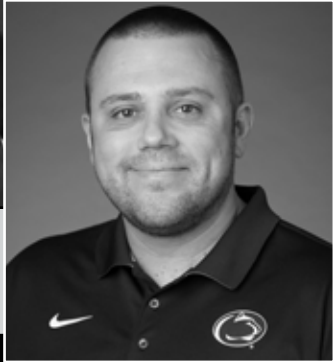

Following her time in the Blue and White, she played with the United States National team from 1995-99, serving as an alternate on the 1996 squad at the Olympic games in Atlanta, Georgia. She also served as team captain in 1997 and 1998, earning MVP honors at the Montreaux BCV Volley Cup in 1998.

After leaving the court as a player, Rockwell accepted an assistant coaching position at the University of Pittsburgh, where she began to emerge as one of the nation's top recruiters, signing four of the team's five top-ranked recruits in 2002.

"Salima has always been a natural leader who brings a large set of intangibles to the program. She relates especially well with young people, and her impact is very large as a mentor and coach. She's given a great deal of her life to volleyball and I think volleyball has really benefited from her involvement," head coach Russ Rose said.

In 2006, Rockwell returned to Rec Hall as the Nittany Lions' director of volleyball operations after spending a season at Oregon State, under the direction of head coach Terry Liskevych. From 2007-08, she served as an assistant coach, helping guide Penn State to back-to-back national championships. Rockwell also mentored multi-year All-American, Alisha Glass, who directed the Nittany Lion offenses to some of the nation's highest hitting percentages, including a .350 clip in 2007 and a .390 efficiency in 2008.

Rockwell and her husband Jeff have two sons, Logan and Rylan.

Craig Dyer returns to Penn State having previously served as both an assistant and associate head coach at the University of Pittsburgh since 2013. Dyer was a member of the Penn State men's volleyball coaching staff from 2006-09.

"It is exciting to be able to bring Craig and his family back to Penn State," Rose said. "He came very highly recommended from the previous head coaches he has worked with and combined with what I remember from when he was working with our men's team, he will be a great addition to the program."

While at Pitt, Dyer served as the Panthers' recruiting coordinator, while also working primarily with the setters and the offense. Prior to Pitt, he was an assistant coach at Marquette University from 2009-12. During his tenure with the Golden Eagles, he helped Marquette to a 92-39 record, increasing single-season records for program wins from 2010-12. Dyer also guided Marquette to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2011-12, mentoring a trio of AVCA All-Americans along the way.

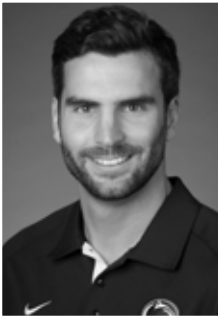

During Dyer's first tenure at Penn State, he helped lead the Nittany Lion men's team to an NCAA national championship title in 2008, as well as consecutive EIVA conference titles in each year. The Nittany Lions posted a 66-10 record during Dyer's time at Penn State, with seven Nittany Lions garnering AVCA All-America distinction.

Dyer also made stops at Seton Hall, Rutgers and Susquehanna University, serving as an assistant coach at all three institutions before arriving at Penn State.

Outside of the collegiate game, Dyer spent time as an assistant coach for the 2008 Men's Junior National Team. The 2008 squad earned a bronze medal at the NORCECA World Championship Qualifier to earn a spot in the 2009 junior World Championships. He also served as a training coach from 2006-07 and served as head coach of the Boys A2 Training Camp in 2007.

Dyer earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in music education from Susquehanna University in 1995. Most recently, he was voted among the Top 10 Women's Assistant Coaches in the collegiate game, joining current associate head coach Salima Rockwell on the list.

QUOTING COACH ROSE

"Lainy had a really impactful freshman year and did not really have the same impact in her sophomore year. I think Lainy has picked up on what she has to do. She knows she has to be able to serve and that has always been her strength. Now she needs to be able to pass and defend at the same level. As a daughter of a coach I am confident that she will put in the time."

Why Penn State?

"Besides the great academics, Penn State provided me with the opportunity to pursue my passion at one of the best athletics programs in the nation."

Quoting Coach Rose

"Caroline contacted us after she was at UCLA for a year and although she did not play volleyball there, I know she probably has pretty good experience as a member of the Haitian national team."

NITTANY LIONS BY MONTH

• Penn State is 49-5 (.907) during the month of August under the direction of head coach Russ Rose (since 1979), after notching a trio of victories against Buffalo, Stony Brook and Villanova in the first week of 2015. The Nittany Lions have not dropped a season-opening match since losing to Oregon in 2011 before rebounding with a hard fought 3-2 win against No. 2 USC the next evening. Penn State's first two season-opening losses came during the inaugural NACWAA in 1995 against Nebraska and in the 1999 NACWAA when Florida outlasted Penn State, 3-2, in the opening round.

• With head coach Russ Rose at the helm of the program, Penn State is 372-53 (.875) during the month of September, dating back to 1979. The Lions are 214-19 (.918) during the month of September dating back to the 1995 season and 54-9 (.857) since 2010.

• PSU is 389-45 (.896) during the month of October during Rose's tenure (since 1979). Penn State has posted a 126-18 (.875) mark in October since the 2000 season, and a record of 82-8 (.911) dating back to 2006, without losing a match during the month from 2006 to the end of the 2009 season.

• Penn State is 294-48 (.860) during the month of November since 1979, including a 122-14 (.897) mark since the end of 2000. The Nittany Lions posted a four-year streak from 1996-1999 where they did not lose a match in the month. Since 2010, Penn State is 45-6 (.882), since the end of the 2010 season, having not dropped a match in the month for three straight years from 2012-14.

QUICK SETS

• From Oct. 16, 1996 to Nov. 9, 2001, Penn State won 139 consecutive matches when taking a 2-0 lead. Since joining the Big Ten conference in 1991, Penn State has played in 876 total matches, winning 777. Since 2008, Penn State has earned 210 of its 264 victories in three sets (80%), including 37-of-38 (98%) in 2008 and 32-of-38 in 2009 (84%). In 2015 Penn State won 22 of its 34 total matches by way of a 3-0 sweep.

• Since the 2001 season, the Nittany Lions have only lost 61 matches. And of those 20 teams that defeated Penn State – BYU, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Nebraska, Northwestern, Ohio State, Oregon, Oregon State, Purdue, Stanford, Temple, Tennessee, Texas, UCLA, Washington and Wisconsin – only nine of these teams (Nebraska, Stanford, Ohio State, Illinois, Wisconsin, UCLA, Minnesota, Michigan and Michigan State) have been able to beat Penn State three times. Since 2001, Penn State has compiled a 256-60 mark against all 20 teams to have beaten PSU within the stretch.

vs. Purdue	28-1	vs. Oregon	0-2 vs. Stanford	7-6	vs. Oregon State	0-1
vs. Washington	1-1	vs. Ohio State	25-5

• The Big Ten conference was once again ranked among the best in the nation with a total of nine teams selected to the 2015 NCAA Tournament bracket. The 2015 season marked the 25th time in history that the Big Ten had five or more teams selected to the tournament. Big Ten teams have also claimed the NCAA national championship in each of the last three years.

• Including the 2015 season, Big Ten teams have combined to win 10 or more NCAA matches in each of the last 13 years. The Big Ten has gone .500 or better in NCAA play every postseason since 1991, spanning the last 25 years. For the third time in four seasons, two Big Ten volleyball teams competed in the final four in this year's 2015 NCAA Tournament.

BIG TEN WEEKLY AWARDS

Penn State collected a total of five Big Ten Weekly honors in 2015, led by three Big Ten Player of the Week honors from Haleigh Washington. Bryanna Weiskircher rounded out the duo earning her first career Big Ten Setter of the Week nod. The Nittany Lions' five weekly accolades brings Penn State's total to 96 since joining the conference in 1991.

HALEIGH WASHINGTON

Garnered Three Big Ten Weekly Awards

• Sept. 7: After helping top-ranked Penn State to a pair of wins against nationally ranked opponents, Haleigh Washington earned her first Big Ten Co-Player of the Week honor of the 2015 season. Washington shared the honor with Ohio State's Taylor Sandbothe. Washington led the team with 3.33 kills per set on .515 hitting in a 2-0 week that featured straight set wins against No. 21 Colorado and No. 2 Stanford.

• Sept. 21: After helping Penn State to a pair of wins in its first week of Big Ten conference play, Haleigh Washington earned Big Ten Player of the Week honors, splitting the award once again, this time with Northwestern's Maddie Slater. The award marked Washington's second consecutive Big Ten Player of the Week honor. Washington helped the No. 1 Nittany Lions to wins against two Top 25 opponents during the week with back-to-back double digit kill performances, posting a team-high .488 hitting percentage.

She opened the week with 11 kills on 14 perfect swings for a .786 hitting efficiency against then-No. 16 Wisconsin. Washington then tallied 13 kills in a five-set victory against then-No. 21 Minnesota. She also led the PSU blocking unit, averaging 1.25 blocks per set in the undefeated week.

• Sept. 28: After guiding Penn State to a pair of Big Ten conference road wins at then-No. 23 Michigan and Michigan State, Haleigh Washington earned Big Ten Co-Player of the Week honors. She split the award with Minnesota's Hannah Tapp. The honor marked Washington's fourth Big Ten conference weekly award during the 2015 season as well as her seventh career weekly conference nod in any category.

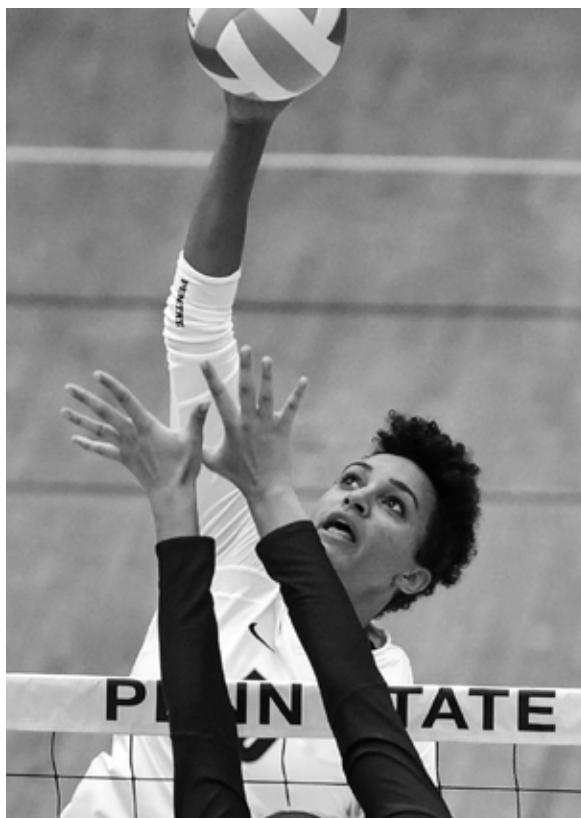

During the undefeated week, she led the team with a .525 hitting efficiency, totaling 25 kills to average 3.12 per set. She also led the blocking unit with a pair of multi-block performances, averaging 1.00 blocks per frame on the week. She highlighted the weekend with a career-high 17 kills in the win against the Wolverines, posting a .593 hitting clip with just one error on 27 attempts. She added two aces and five total blocks. Against the Spartans, she tallied eight kills on .385 hitting, while also logging three blocks and one ace.

BRYANNA WEISKIRCHER

Earned Her First Career B1G Weekly Honor

• Nov. 2: After helping the team to a home-and-home sweep against then-No. 11 Ohio State, redshirt freshman Bryanna Weiskircher earned Big Ten Setter of the Week honors. The award marked the first time in her career she received Big Ten weekly recognition. Weiskircher paced the team to a .358 hitting percentage in a 2-0 week that featured a pair of wins against the Buckeyes. Averaging 11.00 assists per set, Weiskircher directed the Nittany Lion offense to team hitting clips of .349 or better in each outing.

In the midweek match at Ohio State, she posted her eighth double-double of the season with 35 assists and 10 digs in the straight set win. In the next outing, she put down a career-high five kills on six errorless swings against the Buckeyes, adding six digs and two aces.

Haleigh Washington is the first Nittany Lion to earn at least three Player of the Week honors in a single season since Blair Brown in 2010.

Haleigh Washington became Penn State's 17th Academic All-American selection in program history.

Megan Courtney earned second team All-America honors from the AVCA and Volleyball Magazine.

Kendall Pierce earned Penn State's Big Ten Sportsmanship award and was also named a Senior CLASS award candidate in 2015.

Bryanna Weiskircher earned her first career Big Ten Setter of the Week award during the 2015 season.

AVCA All-Americans

Three Nittany Lions were selected to the AVCA DI All-America teams, with one additional member earning honorable mention distinction. Haleigh Washington highlighted the group as a first team selection, while Aiyana Whitney and Megan Courtney were both on the second team. Ali Frantti garnered AVCA All-America honorable mention distinction.

Penn State has earned at least three selections to one of the three All-America teams in each of the last 10 consecutive seasons, bolstering the Nittany Lions' total number of All-America honors to 89 since 1979. Hall of Fame head coach Russ Rose has also mentored at least one All-American in 36 of his 37 seasons at Penn State.

AVCA All Northeast Region Nittany Lions

Five Nittany Lions earned AVCA DI All-Northeast Region honors. Aiyana Whitney and Ali Frantti highlighted the group with their second straight All-Region nod. Megan Courtney and Haleigh Washington joined Whitney and Frantti on the All-Northeast Region team, while Bryanna Weiskircher earned honorable mention honors.

The five all-region honors brings Penn State's total number of selections to 90 in program history, while also marking the fourth consecutive season the Nittany Lions have earned at least four in a single season. Penn State's five honorees also marked the first time since 2012 that Penn State has had five Nittany Lions earn All-Region distinction. PSU also had more All-Northeast selections than any other program in the region, with four selections making up the 14-member All-Northeast region squad and one of six in the honorable mention category.

Volleyball Magazine All-Americans

Penn State earned two Volleyball Magazine All-America selections for the second consecutive year. Haleigh Washington and Megan Courtney both earned their first career honor from the magazine earning first and second team honors, respectively.

Big Ten Postseason Awards

Four Nittany Lions earned Big Ten postseason awards. The Nittany Lions were well represented on this year's All-Big Ten team, as one of only two programs to have at least three selections.

Megan Courtney and Aiyana Whitney earned spots on the All-Big Ten team, joined by Haleigh Washington, who was named a unanimous selection. Kendall Pierce rounded out the group as Penn State's sportsmanship honoree.

Washington earned her second consecutive spot on the All-Big Ten team. Whitney garnered All-Big Ten honors for the second straight season, having been named an honorable mention in 2014. Washington was among a group of just seven honorees to be named a unanimous All-Big Ten selection in 2015. Courtney's nod marked the first time she was selected to a Big Ten postseason award. Pierce has also earned her first postseason recognition as the 2015 Penn State sportsmanship honoree.

Washington A CoSIDA Academic All-American

Penn State's Haleigh Washington earned Second Team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors during the 2015 season.

Washington is Penn State's 17th Academic All-America selection in program history and the first Nittany Lion to garner recognition since Katie Slay in 2013.

Washington was selected from a group of more than 40 student-athletes who earned academic all-district honors earlier this season. Since 1996, Washington was the 11th different Nittany Lion in program history to earn Academic All-District honors and Penn State's 18th overall selection.

The 2015 Block Party!

Penn State commanded the advantage in the blocking margin against its opponents in 2015. Penn State out-blocked its opponents 351.5 - 187.5, averaging 3.06 blocks per set, which closed out the year ranked third nationally and first in the conference. Individually, Haleigh Washington's 1.38 blocks per set finished the year ranked 23rd nationally and third in the Big Ten. Aiyana Whitney's 1.13 blocks per frame was second on the squad and 12th in the conference. PSU out-blocked its opponent in 29 of 34 matches on the year, out-blocking each of those teams by an average of at least six blocks. The Nittany Lions tied Stanford in the blocking margin (70-70) and were out-blocked just four times in 2015, twice by Minnesota (11.0-13.0 & 7.0/9.0), once at Nebraska (12.0/6.0) and once by Hawaii (5.0/3.0).

Defensive Wrap Up

Penn State limited its opponents to .162 hitting in 2015, which closed out the year ranked first in the Big Ten standings and 17th nationally. PSU held its opponent to .099 or lower hitting efficiency 12 times and between .135-.196 eight times. Only Hawaii (.389), Minnesota (.275), Stanford (.267) and Iowa (.283) hit .250 or better against the Nittany Lions. Penn State was out-hit by a team only seven times in 2015: in both matches against Minnesota (.198/.216 & .236/.275), and Nebraska (.164/.173 & .126/.241), at Northwestern (.193/.211), vs. Michigan (.210/.213), and vs. Hawaii (.228/.389). Despite getting out-hit by the Golden Gophers in the first meeting of the season (9/26), PSU outlasted Minnesota in five sets to claim a close 3-2 win.

AVCA Top 2015 Coaches Poll

Penn State moved to No. 8 in the final release of the AVCA Top 25 Coaches' Poll, before finishing the year ranked No. 9 in the 2015 Final Poll. Despite the season-low positioning, the Nittany Lions were slated No. 1 a total of eight times during the regular season, having spent the first six straight weeks at the top of the poll. Including PSU, the final poll featured more than half of the Big Ten conference teams with eight teams in the top 25. Michigan State also concluded the regular season receiving votes.

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Using a balanced attack, top-ranked Penn State swept past Iowa in straight sets on the road at Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Trailing by two early in the opening frame, 5-3, consecutive kills from Courtney and Washington quickly tied the score, 5-5. The Hawkeyes looked to spark a run with a kill, 6-5, but Frantti put away two straight kills to give the Nittany Lions the edge, 7-6. Iowa attempted to regroup with a kill, 7-7, but PSU responded with a 7-1 streak to pull ahead by as many as five, 14-9.

A Nittany Lion attack error broke up the rhythm, 14-10, but a kill from Courtney opened up a 4-2 stretch that lifted Penn State up, 18-12, prompting the Hawkeyes to call a timeout. Iowa came out of the break with a kill, 18-13, but PSU fired back with four unanswered points featuring a kill and an ace from Washington to make it 22-13. The Hawkeyes called another timeout and came out of the break with a 3-1 strike to trim the Penn State advantage, 23-16. Penn State and Howard battled back and forth throughout the first half of the opening set. With the score tied, 7-7, back-to-back kills from Whitney lifted the Nittany Lions ahead, 9-7, causing Howard to call a timeout. The Bison rallied out of the break with a 3-0 spurt to take over a one-point lead, 10-9. Penn State and Howard traded points to tie the score three more times.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Seventh-seeded Penn State downed Dayton in four sets Saturday evening at Rec Hall to advance to the NCAA regional semifinals.

"We feel fortunate to advance and to know it's never a given," head coach Russ Rose said. "It's always hard and every match has its challenges and this one is no different. I am thrilled with our effort tonight and how we competed especially after we played as poorly as we did in the second game."

Penn State opening the match with an 11-5 run in the first set. The Flyers looked to get back on track with a kill following a PSU service error, 11-7. Penn State answered back with a 3-1 spurt to pull ahead by six, 14-8. Dayton responded with three consecutive kills to cut the gap to three, 14-11. Back-to-back kills from Courtney and Weiskircher sparked a 9-5 stretch that extended the Nittany Lion advantage to seven, 23-16. The Flyers made one final attempt to mount a comeback with a kill, 23-17, but a kill from Frantti and a UD attack error secured a 25-17 win in the first set.

Dayton shot out to an 8-3 lead in the second set causing Penn State to call an early timeout. The Flyers continued the momentum out of the break with three more points to move ahead 11-3. Whitney looked to cut off the run with a kill, but the Flyers answered a kill to remain ahead, 12-4. Penn State continued to chip away at the Dayton advantage, using a 6-4 stretch to shave the deficit to five, 16-11. The Nittany Lions could not sustain the momentum as the Flyers responded with a 9-2 run to take set two, 25-13 to even the match, 1-1.

With PSU leading by as many as five in the third set, 13-8, the Flyers looked to get back on track with a kill, 13-9, but Washington and Courtney opened up an 8-3 scoring streak that sent Penn State ahead 21-12, causing Dayton to call a timeout. Penn State continued to roll out of the break, using a 4-2 strike capped off by kills from Whitney and Thelen to secure a 25-14 win in the third set to move ahead 2-1 in the match.

The Nittany Lions and the Flyers traded points throughout the first half of the fourth set to keep the score close. With the score tied up, 14-14, back-to-back kills from Washington lifted the Nittany Lions ahead, 16-14. Dayton put down a kill to arrive within one, 16-15, but PSU regrouped with four straight points, finished off by a kill and a solo stuff from Whitney to make it 20-15.

Dayton called a timeout, but a kill from Frantti and a Flyer attack error made it 22-15. UD made one final attempt to mount a comeback with a pair of kills, 22-17. Frantti and Whitney quickly followed with a pair of kills to make it match point, 24-17. A Dayton attack error gave the Nittany Lions the final point to secure a 25-17 win in the fourth set and 3-1 win in the match.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The 2015 season came to a close in the NCAA regional semifinals as the Nittany Lions came up short in a 3-0 loss to Hawaii at Wells Fargo Arena.

"I'm not disappointed in losing, we've had a season where we were not having this press conference," head coach Russ Rose said. "We have to keep our heads up. If another team beats you, then you give them the credit they deserve. Hawaii played terrific tonight"

Penn State and Hawaii opened the first set trading points to keep the score close. With the frame knotted, 8-8, back-to-back kills from Courtney and Whitney and a Hawaii attack error lifted the Nittany Lions ahead, 11-8. The Rainbow Wahine answered with a 5-1 run to take over a one-point lead, 13-12. P PSU and Hawaii continued to trade points until a U-H kill sent the Rainbow Wahine into the media timeout with a one-point lead, 15-14. Frantti came out of the break with a kill to tie the score, 15-15, but Hawaii responded with a 7-2 scoring streak to take over the lead, 22-17 prompting Penn State to call a timeout.

The Nittany Lions looked to get back on track with a 3-1 strike, 23-20, but a service error made it set point for Hawaii, 24-20. The Nittany Lions held off two attempts, arriving within two, 24-22, but a kill from the Rainbow Warriors ended set one, 25-22.

Hawaii moved out to a 6-3 lead in the second set before Washington cut off the streak with a kill, 6-4. The Rainbow Wahine answered back with a 4-2 stretch to move ahead by as many as four, 10-6, prompting Penn State to call a timeout. The Nittany Lions came out of the break firing, using two kills from Courtney and Frantti and an ace from Weiskircher to spark a 7-3 run to tie the score, 13-13.

Hawaii called a timeout and came out of the break with a 6-4 stretch to pull ahead with a two-point advantage, 19-17. Penn State rallied back with a 3-1 spurt to tie the score, 20-20. PSU and Hawaii battled through two more ties to keep the score locked up, 22-22, before a Rainbow Wahine kill gave Hawaii the edge, 23-22.

A kill from Washington and a Hawaii attack error quickly set the Nittany Lions up for set point, 24-23. Hawaii called timeout, but both teams came out of the break trading points to keep the score tied, 24-24. The Nittany Lions looked to close out the frame after a Hawaii attack error, 25-23, but the Rainbow Warriors scored four unanswered points to take set two, 27-25.

Hawaii came out of the intermission and opened set three with a 10-4 run, forcing Penn State to call an early timeout. The Rainbow Wahine continued to pull away out of the break, using a 6-3 run to move ahead 16-7. Penn State came rallying back with a 4-1 run sparked by back-to-back kills from Lee to trim the deficit to six, 17-11. The Nittany Lions could not sustain the momentum, as Hawaii answered with an 8-5 run to take set three, 25-16, and the match, 3-0.

1999 NCAA TOURNAMENT NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

HONOLULU, Hawaii Dec. 18, 1999 -- In just one hour and 20 minutes, the top-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team erased memories of five game losses in the previous two title matches by sweeping Stanford for the first NCAA volleyball national championship in school history. Penn State defeated the Cardinal, 15-2, 15-10, 15-7, in front of a sold-out crowd of 10,252 at the Stan Sheriff Center.

It was a perfect ending for the three seniors who started in the previous two title matches. Each member of the trio played one of their best matches of the year, including senior Lauren Cacciamani, who was named the Most Outstanding Player after pounding out a match-high 20 kills with eight blocks.

"We did get an opportunity to watch a lot of film and we knew that we had to come out and jump on them," Cacciamani said. "We were going to try to go out there and dictate instead of having them show us what was going to go on. We were planning on going out strong and with a lot of fight"

Seniors Bonnie Bremner and Carrie Schonveld were also named to the NCAA Championship All-Tournament team. Bremner dished out 37 assists with four kills of her own. She also hit .333 with six digs. Schonveld had nine kills to go with her team-high 10 digs. The outside hitter hit .368 on the night and also aided at the net with three blocks (1 BS, 2 BA).

The Penn State blockers created a wall that the Stanford hitters could not avoid. Fueled by Cacciamani's eight blocks, the Lions held the Cardinal to a season-low .008 hitting percentage as 1999 Co-Player of the Year Kerri Walsh zeroed out (11-11-33).

Redshirt-freshman Mishka Levy and sophomore Katie Schumacher added five blocks each—both with one solo and four assisted. Each of the six players that rotated to the front row recorded at least one block as Penn State ended the evening with 15 to Stanford's 10.5. Schumacher also added nine kills with three each from Levy and sophomore Amanda Rome.

Penn State trailed only once during the match. Down 3-1 in game two, the Nittany Lions rolled off three-consecutive points to take over the lead and never looked back. It was the first time this season the Cardinal had been swept. Penn State closed out the season with a 36-1 mark with the only loss coming in the season opener to Florida on Aug. 27.

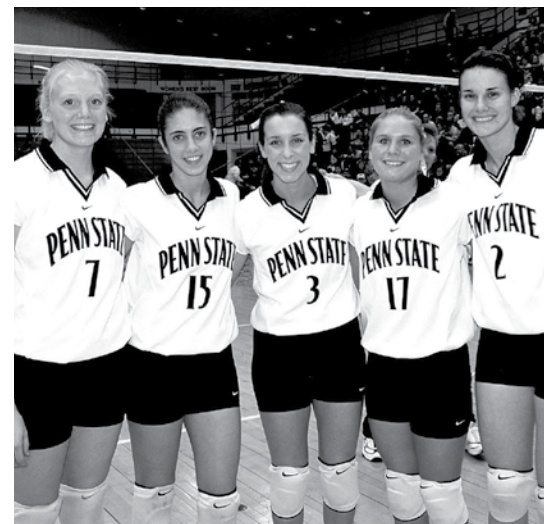

"We didn't peak at the beginning of the season, obviously," Cacciamani said. "We lost our first match so we knew we wouldn't go undefeated. We did a good job playing as a team. We progressed and got better as the season went on.

"I think we set the stage for the win in the first game when we had 10 blocks. We had a great game plan and the players played with passion and enthusiasm right out of the chute. I believe the players are the ones that placed themselves in a position to get into this situation and I thought they handled all the distractions that normally come in a match like this as well as they possible could."

- Russ Rose

Penn State reached the NCAA national finals in two consecutive seasons (1997-98) before defeating Stanford for its first NCAA national title in 1999.

* Big Ten conference match

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Dec. 15, 2007 - Top-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team captured the program's second NCAA Championship, winning a dramatic five-game final, 3-2, against No. 4 Stanford in Arco Arena. The Nittany Lions won the thriller, 30-25, 30-26, 23-20, 19-30, 15-8, posting their 26th consecutive victory since a five-game loss to the Cardinal exactly three months prior.

"It's an amazing feeling," said junior outside hitter Nicole Fawcett. "This year's team was so determined. After the fourth game we were determined to get our focus back."

After taking a 2-0 lead, Penn State saw the top-seeded Stanford rally to tie the match, 2-2. The Cardinal took a 4-3 lead in the fifth set, but the Nittany Lions scored seven consecutive points to take control at 10-4. Junior middle hitter Christa Harmotto and sophomore setter Alisha Glass each had two kills during the critical run.

Kills by Fawcett and freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson pushed Penn State's lead to 13-7. A block by Wilson and freshman opposite Blair Brown made it 14-8. The Nittany Lions immediately seized the opportunity on their first match point, as sophomore outside hitter Megan Hodge delivered her 26th kill of the match to secure the victory.

Penn State won set one, 30-25. Stanford led 15-13, but PSU scored five consecutive points to take a 18-15 lead. The game was tied at 22-22, but Penn State took the lead for good on a service error by the Cardinal and a kill by Harmotto. A block by Fawcett made it 29-24 and she delivered the game-winning kill for the 30-25 margin.

The Nittany Lions captured set two, 30-26. Penn State took the lead for good on a Fawcett kill to make it 13-12. Another Fawcett kill made it 29-25 and a block by Glass and Harmotto gave the Lions the 30-26 win and a 2-0 lead. Penn State hit .525 in the game, while the Cardinal hit .357.

Stanford won set three, 30-23, snapping a streak of 17 consecutive winning games for the Nittany Lions in the 2007 NCAA Tournament. Penn State took its last lead at 7-6 on a block by freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson, but the Cardinal took the lead for good at 9-8.

The national championship match was the fifth in program history for the Nittany Lions, as they also advanced in 1993, 1997, 1998 and 1999, capturing the title in 1999. Penn State defeated Stanford (15-2, 15-10, 15-7) on Dec. 18, 1999 in Honolulu, Hawaii, to give the Nittany Lions their first NCAA Championship.

The two teams met earlier in 2007 in New Haven, Conn., with Stanford outlasting Penn State in five games (30-23, 23-30, 27-30, 30-28, 15-9) on Sept. 15. The Nittany Lions had won 25 consecutive matches since the loss entering the title match.

"We're awfully excited. We're thrilled for our fans and everyone who cares about Penn State."
- Russ Rose

The 2007 Penn State national championship team featured four AVCA All-Americans, including three first team selections (C. Harmotto, N. Fawcett and M. Hodge).

2008 NCAA TOURNAMENT NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 20, 2008 – Top-ranked Penn State capped a record-setting season with its second consecutive NCAA title with a 3-0 win over No. 2 Stanford (25-20, 26-24, 25-23) at the Qwest Center in Omaha, Neb. The Nittany Lions finish the 2008 campaign with a perfect 38-0 record, only the fourth team ever in Division I women's volleyball history to finish the season with an unblemished slate.

Stanford took the 3-0 lead to start the match, but a Christa Harmotto and Blair Brown block along with two Harmotto kills helped pull Penn State within two at 6-4. The Nittany Lions trailed for much of the game, but forced two Stanford timeouts to steal the momentum. PSU went on to win the game, 25-20.

Penn State jumped out to the early lead in game two and held on to take a 2-0 lead in the match. Penn State had a 12-9 advantage midway through the frame, but a Stanford kill and block again trimmed the Lion lead to one at 12-11. The squads traded points before a Cardinal kill and block put Stanford up 14-13. Penn State kills from Blair Brown and Megan Hodge put the Lions ahead 15-14 heading into a time out. Penn State maintained the lead for the remainder of the set, but Stanford didn't let the Lions go unchallenged. A Stanford kill and a Lion attack error tied the score 24-24 before kills from Nicole Fawcett and Hodge gave PSU the set, 26-24.

A Harmotto and Brown block gave the Nittany Lions the 3-1 lead in the third game, but Stanford tied the game at 3-3. The Lions controlled the set until Stanford recorded three kills to pull within two at 23-21 forcing a Penn State time out. Out of the break, the Cardinals recorded another kill trimming the lead to one, 23-22, but Hodge responded with a cross-court kill that clipped the line to make it 24-22. Stanford recorded a kill before a Fawcett kill off the block ended the game, 25-23 giving the Nittany Lions earned their third NCAA title.

Penn State became just the sixth team in history to win back-to-back NCAA Championships, joining Hawaii (1982-83), Pacific (1985-86), UCLA (1990-91), Stanford (1996-97) and USC (2002-03). The Penn State volleyball programs also became only the third school to have its men's and women's teams capture their respective championships in the same calendar year, as the Penn State men captured their championship in May.

Penn State joins UCLA (1984) and Stanford (1997) as the only programs in history to accomplish the feat. Stanford (1996-97) and Penn State (2007-08) are the only two to win both titles in the same academic year. Penn State finished the season with a 114-2 individual game record and pushed its current NCAA-record match winning streak to 64 dating back to a five-game loss to 2008 NCAA runner-up Stanford on Sept. 15, 2007.

"I don't think it was the prettiest match to determine the national championship, but it was a match that was played very hard by both teams. I thought we hung in there defensively and gave ourselves opportunities and chance for Megan to take big swings at the end. I thought it was a group effort in a lot of areas. It certainly wasn't a match that had the same energy from the match a couple of nights ago. That one had the significance to get us here. Tonight's has special significance, especially for the seniors."

- Russ Rose

Penn State capped off the season with a perfect 38-0 record, making the Nittany Lions just the fourth team in DI women's volleyball history to record an unblemished slate.

Penn State recorded a .390 team hitting percentage in 2008 to mark the best NCAA DI hitting percentage all-time during the rally scoring era.

PENN STATE	25	26	25

TAMPA, Fla., Dec. 19, 2009 - Top-ranked Penn State made history, becoming the first team to win three consecutive national titles with a 3-2 (22-25, 20-25, 25-23, 25-21, 15-13) come-from-behind victory against No. 2 Texas.

Senior Megan Hodge led the Nittany Lions with 21 kills, while both junior Blair Brown and freshman Darcy Dorton contributed 13 kills each. The Nittany Lions had five with double-digit digs led by junior libero Alyssa D'Errico, who posted a career-high 22.

Penn State and Texas kept it tight for most of the opening frame until the Longhorns pulled ahead, 13-11 after a PSU error and a UT kill. Penn State trailed for the next few plays until Hodge and Balza teamed up for a block and a monster kill to tie it at 14-14. UT worked up to a 17-15 lead stayed ahead courtesy of two kills and an ace. PSU came alive and rallied to tie the set at 22-22. Penn State called a timeout, but Texas closed out the set with two kills for a 25-22 win.

Texas took control in set two, jumping out to an 8-4 lead forcing the Nittany Lions to call an early timeout. Penn State managed to come within two, 10-8, but the Longhorns pulled ahead with a 7-1 run for a 17-9 lead. Penn State battled back with a 6-2 run to come within four, 23-19, but Texas rallied to take set two, 25-20.

PSU came out hot in the third set, building a six-point lead, 11-5, for its largest lead of the match. Texas didn't come closer than two as PSU took the set, 25-23.

Tied at 3-3 early in the fourth set, the Lions went on a 5-0 run to develop a five-point advantage, 8-3. UT answered back with a 9-3 run for a one-point lead, 12-11. The score tied four times before Hodge put down two consecutive kills for a 17-15 lead. A Texas timeout allowed the Longhorns to regroup and tie the set once again. Penn State maintained at least a one-point lead until a Wilson kill, a Texas error and Hodge put down after a long rally sent the match to a fifth and final set.

Texas jumped out to a 3-1 lead in set five before a Dorton kill and a Texas attack error allowed the Nittany Lions to tie it up at 3-3. The two squads traded points until UT's Adams posted a kill and a block for a 7-5 lead against the Lions. Hodge and Wilson notched one kill each to tie the set at 7-7, but Hooker posted one of her own to put UT ahead, 8-7. After a timeout, Balza and Glass registered a joint stuff to make it 8-8.

Trailing by one in the fifth set, 11-10, Dorton and Wilson posted back-to-back kills for a 12-11 edge. Dorton tallied another kill before a UT attack error made it set-point Penn State. Texas held off the attempt before Hodge closed out her collegiate career with the final kill of the match for the 15-13 triumph.

"It was a very strange match. It's one of those examples where you don't win the statistics war, but we found a way to win at critical times. Certainly Texas had a great season and has a great team. We feel like we played two great teams here in the Final Four that really were great representatives of their conference and the sport of college volleyball."

- Russ Rose

With the national championship win, Penn State's winning streak increased to 102 consecutive matches, which stood for an NCAA DI record for any women's sport.

Penn State's comeback marked the third time in NCAA Tournament history a team has come from down two (and ninth time overall coming from behind) to win the title.

PENN STATE	22	20	25	25	15

KANSAS CITY, MO. Dec. 18, 2010 - Fourth-seeded Penn State made history once again, sweeping California (25-20, 27-25, 25-20) for the 2010 NCAA national championship. The Nittany Lion are the first DI women's volleyball team to win four consecutive national championships in history.

The NCAA national championship title is also the fifth career for Hall of Fame Head Coach Russ Rose.

Senior Blair Brown led all student-athletes with 18 kills, while freshman Deja McClendon tallied 16 and senior Arielle Wilson posted 12. Sophomore setter Kristin Carpenter dished out 46 assists. Senior Alyssa D'Errico led the team with 13 digs, while Brown contribute 10. Freshman Katie Slay had a match-high seven total blocks.

The Nittany Lions opened the match taking a 3-1 lead, but the Bears fought back and tied it at 4-4. Back-to-back kills by Ariel Scott put PSU back on top, 6-4. Penn State maintained the lead and was leading by five, 12-7, when Cal called its first timeout. The Bears came within one, 12-11, but kills from McClendon, Brown and Wilson and a D'Errico ace moved PSU up by four, 16-12. A 3-0 Cal run had the Bears trailing by one, 16-15, but the Nittany Lions did not look back, closing out set one, 25-20.

The second frame was close from the start with neither team able to develop any momentum to take a strong lead. Tied at 17-17, a block by Brown and Slay put the Lions in the lead, 18-17. Penn State and Cal continued to trade points before a Scott kill edged PSU ahead, but Cal was right there with a kill of its own to make it 21-21.

The score tied twice more before two straight Bear kills put Cal in the lead, 24-23. Following a timeout by the Nittany Lions, Brown and Wilson teamed up for a block to tie the set at 24-24. However, Cal's Carli Lloyd tallied a kill to put Cal at set-point for a second time. Penn State followed with a block by Carpenter and Slay teamed up for a block to keep it tied, 25-25. Brown pounded a kill to secure set two for Penn State, 27-25.

Penn State remained on top for most of the third set until two consecutive Cal points put the Bears within three, 18-15. The teams each registered a point each before PSU used a 4-0 run to pull ahead by seven, 23-16. Cal cut off the Penn State run with a block, but a Wilson kill put Penn State in match-point position. The Bears held Penn State to three match-points before Slay closed out the set and the match with a kill.

"We came out very strong in the first game. The second game, it was going back and forth and we were fortunate enough to win that second game, and I think that's probably where most of the momentum really came from. I thought the staff did a great job in helping devise a game plan, the kids listened well and we played hard and we were in a great position. The kids feel great. It's great for the university and the Big Ten Conference, and we're just as thrilled as we can be at this point in time."

- Russ Rose

Penn State won four consecutive national crowns, the most consecutive national titles ever for a DI volleyball squad. PSU joined just two other programs from DI I & DI III as the only schools in collegiate athletics to win four straight volleyball national championships.

Penn State hit .316 in the NCAA national finals to set a new season finals hitting percentage record for the 25-point rally scoring era.

PENN STATE	25	27	25

SEATTLE - Dec. 21, 2013 - No. 2 Penn State women's volleyball team (34-2) captured its sixth NCAA women's volleyball national championship in program history, rallying past No. 12 Wisconsin in four sets (25-19, 26-24, 20-25, 25-23) at KeyArena. The NCAA national championship marks the fifth title for the Nittany Lions in the last seven years.

Senior Ariel Scott fueled the offense with a match-high 21 kills, adding five digs. Senior Katie Slay also tallied double-digit kills with 14. Senior Deja McClendon rounded out the double-digit performers with 11 kills. The trio all earned spots in the NCAA All-Tournament team.

Junior Micha Hancock paced all three of her top attackers to double-digit kills, dishing out 48 assists to go along with 16 digs and three aces for a double-double to earn NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player honors.

The Nittany Lions maintained a narrow advantage up until the midway point in the first frame, when Wisconsin climbed within one, 16-15, following a Badger kill. Regrouping, PSU put together a 4-0 streak to move ahead by five, 20-15, forcing the Badgers to call timeout. Following the break, Wisconsin fought within four, 22-18, but PSU closed out a 25-19 win in the first set.

The Nittany Lions led by as many as six in the opening portion of the second set before the Badgers rallied to knot the frame, 15-15. Penn State and Wisconsin battled back-and-forth for the remainder of the set, until the Badgers used a late 3-1 spurt to make it 24-23. A service error tied the stanza, 24-all, but Scott answered with two consecutive kills to lock up a 26-24 win in the second set.

Penn State came out of the break firing, using a 5-1 streak for an early lead. Wisconsin quickly erased the advantage, using a 4-0 run to knot the frame, 5-5. The Badgers and Penn State tied up the stanza three more times before the Nittany Lions used a 3-1 strike to crack open an 8-8 tie, moving up by two, 10-8.

With Penn State unable to sustain the momentum in set three, the Badgers took the frame 25-20 to force a fourth set.

Tied at 13-13 in the fourth, a kill from Scott and a block from Slay and Courtney kept the Nittany Lions on top, 15-13. Unable to shake the Badgers, Wisconsin and PSU continued to fight point-for-point until UW broke open an 18-all tie with a 4-1 streak to move ahead by three, 22-19. Hanging on, Penn State answered with a 4-1 run to tie the score, 23-23. A clutch ace from Hancock and a kill from McClendon finished off a 25-23 win for the victory.

"I thought it was a great match and all three times that we played Wisconsin this year was a battle. They play great defense. They play really hard. They're passionate kids, and I want to applaud the University of Wisconsin, their staff, as well as Washington."

- Russ Rose

Penn State and Wisconsin met in the NCAA national finals for the first all-Big Ten national title match in NCAA Tournament history.

Penn State senior Katie Slay finished the NCAA national semifinals and final with a .552 hitting percentage (22 kills, 1 error, 38 total attempts) for an NCAA tournament record during the 25-point rally scoring era.

2014 NCAA TOURNAMENT NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. - Dec. 20, 2014 - Fifth-seeded Penn State swept past BYU in straight sets (25-21, 26-24, 25-14) at Chesapeake Arena to capture its seventh NCAA national championship in program history. Claiming the title in six of the last eight years, the Nittany Lions now have more national championship than any other women's volleyball program in history.

Redshirt junior Aiyana Whitney and junior Megan Courtney led the offense with 11 kills each. Courtney added 14 digs for her second consecutive double-double performance, while also leading the blocking unit with five blocks. Senior Micha Hancock paced the team to a .233 hitting clip, dishing out 36 assists. Both Hancock and Frantti earned NCAA Tournament All-Tournament team honors while Courtney was named the Most Outstanding Player.

Leading by four at the midway point in set one, 15-11, the Nittany Lions came out of the break with a block to widen the margin to five, 16-11. The Cougars chipped away at the lead with a 6-3 run to arrive within two, 19-17. A kill from Grant and a BYU attack error brought PSU back up by four, 21-17. A PSU attack error out of a timeout made it 21-18, but Penn State followed with a 3-1 spurt to arrive at set point, 24-18. BYU held off two attempts before Courtney put down a kill to secure a 25-21 win in the first set.

Leading by one, 3-2, in set two, a trio of kills from the Cougars lifted BYU ahead, 5-3. The Nittany Lions responded with a kill from Whitney and an ace from Grant to knot the stanza, 5-5. Penn State and BYU continued to keep it close, until the Cougars pulled away from a 7-7 tie with a 5-1 stretch to go up by four, 12-8, prompting PSU to call a timeout.

Penn State could not find momentum out of the break as BYU managed to maintain at least a two-point lead throughout the second half of the frame. Down by two, 19-17, PSU rallied with a 3-1 strike to tie the score, 20-20, causing the Cougars to take a timeout. PSU and BYU continued to battle point-for-point, until a kill from Whitney broke open a 23-23 tie to put Penn State at set point, 24-23. The Cougars held off two attempts before Hancock and Washington posted up for a block to lock up set two, 26-24.

Holding on to a slim lead, 4-2, in set three, Penn State used a 3-2 stretch to widen the margin to three, 7-4, causing BYU to call a timeout. The Cougars came out of the break with a kill, but Penn State responded with a 6-3 streak capped off with an ace from Hancock to make it 13-7. Penn State continued to roll, using an 8-2 streak to push the lead to well into double digits, 20-9. BYU looked to halt the momentum with a kill, 20-10, but Penn State cruised to a 25-14 win in the third set with a 5-4 stretch to complete the sweep.

"I thought we had a great game plan. I thought the players worked really hard at executing it, and we feel great about tonight's result."

- Russ Rose

Penn State's seventh NCAA national championship gave the Nittany Lions more DI women's volleyball titles than any other program, leading Stanford by one (6).

Penn State's straight set victory against BYU marked the third time in program history PSU has swept its national final opponent. The Nittany Lions have also not lost an NCAA title match since 1998.

SEPT. 15 2007: PENN STATE LOSES 3-2 TO STANFORD AT THE YALE CLASSIC IN NEW HAVEN, CONN., MARKING THE LAST LOSS FOR THE NITTANY LIONS FOR ALMOST THREE YEARS.

SEPT. 21, 2007

The Nittany Lions sweep Michigan State and so begins ...

AN UNPRECEDENTED JOURNEY

DEC. 15, 2007

In a rematch with Stanford, PSU claims the first two sets in the NCAA National Championship. Stanford rallies to tie it at two sets apiece, but PSU handles the Stanford push with ease and wins the fifth, 15-8, for the 2007 NCAA TITLE following its 11th Big Ten title.

AUG. 29, 2008

The Nittany Lions defend their title with a 3-0 sweep against Hawaii in the 2008 season-opener.

900

The 3-0 win that started the legendary streak was head coach Russ Rose's 900th career victory.

50 STRAIGHT

UNDEFEATED NOV. 29, 2008

The top-ranked Nittany Lions seal an undefeated regular season (32-0) with a 3-0 sweep at Michigan. PSU has now posted wins in 96 consecutive matches without losing a set.

38-0

The 2008 and 2009 squads posted unblemished 38-0 records, setting an NCAA mark for the most wins in a season without a loss.

NOV. 1, 2008

Penn State wins its 50th straight match with a 3-0 sweep of Iowa.

PENN STATE SWEEPS STANFORD FOR SECOND-STRAIGHT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP AND A PERFECT 38-0 SEASON.

DEC. 20, 2008

AUG. 28, 2009

PSU opens the 2009 season ranked No. 1 overall and defeats Miami (Ohio), 3-0, in Saint Louis, Mo.

OCT. 30, 2009

OCT. 2, 2009

For the first time in 46 regular season matches, the Lions lose an individual set in a 3-1 win against Iowa.

PSU ties John Wooden's UCLA men's basketball winning streak with their 88th straight victory.

No one sitting in Rec Hall on Sept. 21, 2007, watching the Nittany Lions defeating Michigan State, would have thought they were witnessing the beginning of a historical streak.

The winning streak stands alone in Division I women's volleyball. It ranks second in NCAA history among organized sports, second only to the Miami men's tennis team's 137-match winning streak from 1957- 64. The record-breaking span of victories lasted more than 35 months, encompassing an NCAA record 111 wins in straight sets across 1,085 days.

Almost three years to the day the streak began, it comes to an end after a 3-0 loss to Stanford, the same team which sparked the record-breaking stretch in 2007.

109 - SEPT. 11, 2010

THREE-TIME NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

THE NITTANY LIONS BECOME THE FIRST TEAM EVER TO WIN THREE CONSECUTIVE NCAA TITLES IN A COME-FROM-BEHIND 3-2 VICTORY AGAINST TEXAS.

AUG. 27, 2010

PSU opens the 2010 season with a No. 1 ranking and stretches the streak with a 3-0 sweep at UNC.

DEC. 19, 2009

DEC. 17, 2009

The Lions defeat Hawaii to advance to the NCAA title match against Texas.

1,000

94

PSU also won an NCAA record-setting 94 matches at home in Rec Hall featuring two consecutive classes that never lost a match at home.

55

During the streak PSU won 55 matches on the road, good for an NCAA record.

100 WINS

NOV. 28, 2009

PSU finishes the regular season for the second year in a row with a 32-0 record heading in post season competition.

DEC. 12, 2009

The Nittany Lions reach 100 consecutive wins with a 3-0 sweep of California in NCAA Regional Semifinals.

Rose became one of three coaches in NCAA history to hit the 1,000 wins plateau after defeating Hawaii.

NITTANY LIONS ABROAD ...

Women's volleyball head coach Russ Rose has opened several cultural opportunities for his student-athletes, as the Nittany Lions have embarked on four foreign trips to five different countries in the last 15 years.

In 2000, Penn State took its first trip abroad, as the Nittany Lions officially became the first collegiate athletic team from the United States to be invited to play in Cuba. The Nittany Lions played Cuba's Junior National Team as well as a squad of former National Team players.

May 10, 2005:

Dobrodošli ("welcome") to the Penn State Volleyball European tour 2005! Today was our first full day here and we have already done so much! Staying in the scenic city of Izola, we are pretty immersed in Slovenian culture. It's been drizzling a bit but we are staying right on the harbor of the Adriatic coast in the Hotel Marina and it is absolutely gorgeous. The brightly-colored buildings, green mountains and crystal clear sea make everything seem sunny. There is not a whole lot of English spoken here, so we stick out a lil' bit. The people have been pretty nice for the most part though, and we've managed to learn a bit of Slovenian: please = "prosim," thank you = "hvala," how much = "koliko" and "bela kava brez kofeina" = decaff cafe latte... I've already used that one about four times. All the girls are having a great time. We practiced last night after we got in and then played our first match today against a club team from Croatia. They were pretty young so we won all five games easily. We travel to the capital city of Ljubljana tomorrow to play another match and see the sites. We will leave early in the morning to tour the city and then play in the afternoon. Tim and Jo from Bring It USA have really planned out a great trip for us. All the girls are really excited and the parents and boosters are having a good time too... with a few exceptions. So far the Naylor's lost their luggage and got locked out of their room, the Janias tried to use a $1USD in an Italian Coke machine and then got their debit card chopped up in Izola, and Mrs. Holm tried to play matchmaker with the manager of a Slovenian pizzeria (which would be alright if the service wasn't so sub-par). So, to sum up... everyone is over their jet lag, we're loving Slovenia, and can't wait to get some more competition under our belts as we continue to travel the world!! Ciao!

May 11, 2005:

Ciao! Greetings from Slovenia. We started off this morning with a European breakfast at The Hotel Marina and then headed off to spend the day in Ljubljana, the capital of Slovenia. Upon arrival, we went to the tourist information center and got brochures of the entire city followed by a train ride to the medieval Ljubljana Castle. The castle is a fine feature of the city and nowadays it is a popular tourist spot. After the train ride back into the city square, we split up for a day of site seeing and fun. Our next step was a bus ride to our match. We played five games against a team called Nova Gorica, winning four of the five games. The match was very lively with a few face shots and a lot of cheering. The owner of the gym we played in also owned a restaurant nearby and he invited us to enjoy his five course cuisine. The food and atmosphere was amazing and the team, coaches, parents, and boosters all had a fabulous time. Tomorrow we leave Slovenia and are off to Venice, Italy.

May 12, 2005:

Today we finally woke up to the blue skies of Slovenia, only to say goodbye as we loaded the bus to continue on to Venice, Italy. After the bus ride we laced up our sneakers, stole the nearest "Vaporetto" (a motorboat used as a canal bus in Venice) and raced to the city - it was all Sam's idea! (Okay, so maybe the dramatic entrance is a slight exaggeration, but you know how girls can be.) After we docked near Piazza San Marco, the real adventures began. We had the entire day to absorb the city, and that we did. These are some of the interesting things I learned today:

1.) Imagine literally stepping into a world unlike anything you have ever seen. Imagine walking through massive crowds of people all speaking different languages. Now imagine seeing absolutely breathtaking architecture and scenery all around you. And finally, imagine 14 young American women (plus one Canadian) gracefully dodging hundreds of swooping pigeons while trying to take it all in at once. Thankfully, we all have cat-like reflexes and nobody was seriously injured.

2.) It's true what they say - Italian men really aren't afraid to sweep a woman off her feet! Maggie, Ashley Fidler, Melissa and I ate a delicious meal along the Grand Canal and as we were thanking the waiters and saying goodbye, the chef came from behind the counter, pinched my cheeks and picked me up in the middle of the restaurant! I am 6-5 ... he was probably 5-7 ... you do the math! Today marks the first time any man has dared to accomplish what he did. Sorprendente! (Amazing!)

On a more serious note, today was a perfect example of why we are so thankful to be in Italy doing what we love, and we are thankful to be sharing it with some of the people who helped make it possible. We were all able to see Venice through our own eyes and learned a lot about the culture and history. We split up into different groups and spent the day shopping and exploring all the city has to offer. It was a beautiful day in Venice, but there is still work to be done! We left the sinking city behind and drove to Pordenone, where we will play the local team tomorrow night. Kim and Kaleena have been playing very well, so tomorrow will be a good opportunity for some new faces to step up and contribute! We will keep you posted, but until next time, there is volleyball to be played and more dessert to be eaten! CIAO!

May 13, 2005:

Boun Giorno fellow Americanos (Good morning fellow Americans!). We spent day six in Pordenone. After breakfast most of us enjoyed the downtown shopping of the city. This city was most like the cities that we are used to in the United States. There are more cars and traffic here than in the previous places we have been. Small boutiques lined the streets with an occasional department store. In the afternoon we ventured to the Villa Manin, which is a palace of the former Doge. The enormous structure and beautiful architecture were overwhelming. Unique art lined the walls of one of the sections of the castle, while other sections displayed old weaponry and carriages. The chapel was detailed in elegant artwork. We did not have the opportunity to view the actual rooms of the castle because of restoration, but we were told that Napoleon had slept there and that his room was preserved. From the castle we came back to the hotel to enjoy the traditional Italian pregame meal, which was actually breakfast. This included cereal, fruit, yogurt, and various pastries. On the way to the gym our tour guides indulged us with the translations of a local newspaper article that was about the team being in the town. The article was informative and contained a picture of us receiving our Big Ten trophy. The match was held at a nearby town owned gym. We won four out of the five games that we played against Pallavolo Pordenone in front of a very lively crowd. The match was the most competitive one since we have been here and was fun to play in. After we played, we ate dinner (at 10:30 at night). It is custom to eat pasta as an appetizer, but we did not know this before so most of us ate it as a meal. Little did we know that we were also having meat, fries, salad, and dessert! It was a great ending to a wonderful day! Arrivederci (goodbye)!!

May 14, 2005:

Ciao fellow Americans and Canadians,

Well, our arrival into Pesaro came on our official graduation day, had we been in State College. So, as our final college project, here is our journal entry! On the bus yesterday, driving from Pordenone to Pesaro, we had to present our research on the Marche region to everyone on the bus, complete with our graduation caps!

We are planning on spending three days total in this region, the first two in Pesaro, and the third in Comunanza. The region is pronounced "lay markay," and in English, it translates to "the Marches." The region lies on the eastern seaboard in central Italy, bordered by the Adriatic Sea to the east, and the Appenine mountains to the central part of the country. Pesaro is the capital city of this province, and is a bustling seaside resort town. Fortunately, we're here before most of the tourist season begins, so we've had the town all to ourselves!

When we arrived to our beach front hotel yesterday, we all ate lunch together, before we had a bit of down time last night. A few of us had the opportunity to accompany Coach Rose and Tim Kelly (in charge of our tour, he runs Bring It USA) to a professional women's volleyball match in a small town about 1.5 hours away from here. The gymnasium was full of enthusiastic and loud spectators, and it was a lot of fun! It was a match between the 2nd and 3rd place teams in the A2 division of the Italian professional league, with the winner of this match having the opportunity to move up to the A1 league next year. Wiz Bachman, former UCLA standout, was playing for the team that ended up losing in four games.

Today we had some free time to take in the sites of Pesaro, which is the hometown of famed opera composer, Gioachino Rossini. This evening we had a chance to play our fourth match, against a team from Gabicche, Italy, about 15 minutes from Pesaro. We won the four games we played in the match, and every member of the team had a chance to play. Tomorrow we'll have a chance to go to an Italian Catholic mass if we want, before getting back on the road and heading over to Comunanza. From what we've heard so far, it's a small mountain town, about three blocks long and one block wide. We'll be there only one night, and the gentleman who runs the hotel/restaurant where we'll be staying is so excited to host all of us! People drive from miles around to eat at his restaurant, so we're looking forward to tasting the food for ourselves!! We have two matches left on this trip, one tomorrow night in Comunanza, and the last in Rome on Tuesday night. Buonas sera from Italy!

May 17, 2005:

After winding through the Italian hillsides, our team arrived in the town of Comunanza. The town was small with a population of around 3,000 people. We stayed where executives generally stayed when they would visit the major factory just outside of the town. It was very nice place to stay as five of the girls got to stay in a 3-bedroom apartment that had two bathrooms and a dining room. Once we got settled in our rooms the team got on our jerseys and walked to the gym. We played a club team from Amandola. Their team was short a few players so Ashley Fidler volunteered to play with the other team. We won the match in 3 games, while Kris Brown and Kaleena even got a chance to play front row. That night we had what most of the team considered our best meal of the trip. It was a traditional Italian family meal with multiple courses and elaborate dishes. One of the first dishes we ate was intestine and eggs. It was a long meal the lasted late into the night. The next morning we were off to begin our long drive to Rome. We wove through the mountains and hills on roads that you wouldn't think buses could travel.

After nearly a five-hour trip we finally arrived in Rome, the 'eternal city.' We checked into the hotel and were immediately off to the Metro station just a few blocks away. The Metro is very small and crowded because the designers of the Metro wanted to avoid digging railways under ancient Roman architecture. Our first stop took us to see the Spanish Steps, which was a series of three levels of steps leading up to a church. The lining of the steps was covered in flowers and it was a great place to take a team picture. Our next stop was the Trevi Fountain. This was the first elaborate sculpture work we saw in Rome and we were in awe. It is said that you must throw a coin into the fountain but you must throw the coin with your back facing the fountain. The number of coins you throw also determines your fortune. One coin and you'll return to Rome, two coins and you'll fall in love. With our backs facing the fountain, Maggie, Cassidy, Fidler, and I threw in two coins each.

Our last stop of the day was to visit the Pantheon. As we walked inside we were amazed by the massive pillars holding the structure up. They lead us into a large circular dome with more sculptures and a roof with a giant circular hole allowing sunlight to pour inside. The basement of the building is also a resting place for people such as Raffaello a famous painter, Voltaire a philosopher, Murrie and Piere Currie both famous scientists as well as Victor Hugo the first president of unified Italy. After seeing the Pantheon we were all tired and grabbed some dinner, found the Metro and went back to our hotel.

Today we got up and again took the Metro to see the Coliseum. I stepped out of the station and all I could see was the building. The structure was built between 12AD and 80AD and most of it still remains standing today. When it was first built it was called the Amphitheatre Flavium, and held up to 50,000 people. It was used to hold battles between animals and humans along with chariot races and mock naval battles. The rest of the day we were able to tour around and explore the city of Rome. Other sites we saw included the Forum, the Arch of Constantine, and the Monument of Vittoriale. All of the sites were unique and amazing in their own respect. It was odd to see such monuments scattered amongst current shops and restaurants including McDonalds.

Tonight we played our sixth and final match in a town of Usaro, which is 30 minutes to an hour away from Rome depending on traffic. We played one of our more competitive matches against a club team called As Fidia Ladispoli. We won all five games although it was a bittersweet victory. It was the last time our three seniors, Tab, Syndie and Ashley would play in their PSU uniforms. The club team had ordered pizza for us and we shared it with them before getting on the bus and heading back to Rome.

Tomorrow is our last full day. We are going to see the Vatican City in the morning and the Pope may be speaking. The trip is almost over and it is going very fast but I'm very excited to get up tomorrow and see the Sistine Chapel.

May 10, 2009:

Greetings from Sao Paulo!

Today was the first day we spent in Sao Paulo, and boy was it eventful! We began the day enjoying a nice complimentary breakfast from the hotel and then all jumped into our awesome two-story bus to head into town. We toured the very interesting and historical city of Sao Paulo with our wonderful tour guide Morris (at least I think that is how you spell his name =). He taught us many, many things about the city and a few things stood out to me in the outing. First, Sao Paulo specifically is famous for its graffiti. The artists take much pride their artwork while creating competitions with other artists around the city to see who can create the most difficult piece of work. Second, if women around the city want to get married, they must pray to St. Anthony so that he will help them find a husband. (As soon as I learned this, I held a small prayer session with a few of my teammates).

After several hours of touring the city, we stopped at the Estadio Municipal to buy tickets to the professional soccer game. The Corinthians, or the home team, is the professional team that Cristiano Ronaldo plays for, so we were all very excited to have the opportunity to see him play! After buying our tickets, we took a quick trip down to a market place where we shopped for an hour or so and then ate an incredible lunch. The food, as we have all discovered, is incredible and it is so much fun to try all of these new dishes and experience all the new tastes (especially this drink they call Guarana, it is simply delicious!).

After lunch, we drove back to the stadium two hours before the game started to enjoy the pregame festivities. In one corner of the stadium, the away team was banging their drums and screaming their teams' anthem. In the other corner, and scattered all over the stadium, the Corinthian fans, dressed in black and white, were stomping and yelling at the fans dressed in red and green. There were policia stationed all around the fence separating us from the field to prevent any sort of fights that might erupt during the match if the game was to get close. It was one of the most invigorating and exciting things I've ever experienced. I know that we have some of the most dedicated fans in the country, but the way these fans supported their team was just incredible.

The game began and the screaming continued. The away team scored the first goal, which completely infuriated all of the Corinthian fans. We weren't able to watch the entire game because after sitting in the stands for four hours we all became incredibly hungry and exhausted. We drove to a local pizza parlor which turned out to be quite the adventure. They brought many different types of pizza out for each of us to try, (it would take way too long for me to try and list them all!) but by far the best part of the meal, were the three different dessert pizzas they brought out at the end; one had bananas and this cinnamon spread on it, one had strawberries and dark chocolate and the last one had chocolate and shredded coconut. Absolutely delicious!! Well we finally made it back to the hotel after an incredibly long day and it's time I get to bed! Boa Noite

May 11, 2009:

Today was our first day of playing and I think everyone was anxious to see the different style of play here. We started off the morning with the complimentary breakfast downstairs of the hotel where there were delicious pastries and fruit. We got on our awesome, two story bus and took off to practice. When we arrived at the practice facility, we were in awe of its beauty. There were big beautiful trees everywhere surrounding this huge sports facility. But the first thing we all noticed was the gigantic water slide that we all wanted to go down. When we got in to the gym where we practiced, we all put on our shoes and kneepads and did our normal warm up. While we were waiting for the balls to come, we did some blocking and digging stuff. Then Coach had us circle up while Jess and Tice had a pretty bad wrestling match...no one won. The balls finally arrived and we got to adapt to the balls that they use here.

After practice, we got to tour the facility. The facility used to be owned by a bank that sponsored teams but now is more of a country club. Lunch came after the tour and we went to a place where there was more meat, of course. It was a small buffet style with salad, sausage, fries, chicken and other things. They brought meat around the tables and everyone's drink of choice still seems to be Guarana. Right after lunch we went to our match.

We arrived at the facility and immediately started to warm up. We split the court with the team during hitting lines. The club team had girls from the ages of 17 to 21 and they were pretty athletic. We played four games with them and won all four. After we played, we exchanged t-shirts with them and then took a group picture.

This was another fun day filled with new experiences!

May 12, 2009:

The morning started out at the hotel, with the usual complimentary breakfast, in which many of us have become accustomed to crapes (thin French style pancake). You can either add delicious jelly type topping or chocolate, both team favorites. Everyone dressed in the casual Brazilian type attire of shorts and tank tops ready for another adventurous day. The plan for the afternoon was a tour of a different part of the city of Sao Paulo; also known as the shopping district, stop by a well-known park for lunch and a little walking around.

First of all, I must say, people down here drive CRAZY. They don't use turn signals and just weave in and out of lanes, not to mention the motorcycles that just drive up the center of the lane recklessly. It is an incredible sight to see, so forgive me if I forget different things about today, I got distracted watching the cars fly back and forth. So now to the good stuff, we started with a tour of the scenery on the way to this famous shopping street. We drove around beautiful estates of once famous people, hospitals and gorgeous malls. Among the other sites we drove past, was the Sao Paulo futbol club, another soccer stadium of a pro team in Sao Paulo.

After all this driving we stopped at our first destination, the luxurious shopping strip where we recognized many names such as LaCoste, Adidas, Nike, Timberland, and Tommy Hilfiger. One name we did not recognize but were informed of prior to our adventure was the Havaianas, the most famous rubber flip-flops that originated from Brazil. Many of us bought pairs for family as well as friends and ourselves. Unfortunately as well as fortunately, we were limited to half an hour of wandering along this strip (saving many of us lots of Reais).

The next stop was the beautiful park called Ibirapuera Park. It is four miles by four miles along the exterior borders and is full of green grass, ponds, bridges and restaurants. Unfortunately we were as a whole pretty worn out and didn't get the chance to explore more of the park after our delicious buffet style lunch. Clara (AD, our tour guide's, seven year old niece) has been teaching us Portuguese in exchange for English and sign language, thanks to Tice and Alisha. So of course, at lunch, we were asking the vocabulary queen about lettuce, ice cream and all other sorts of food on the table. After we finished lunch, (no caffeine) Christa and I enjoyed a small (maybe a half cup) of the ever so popular café and well, we were bouncing off the walls with energy for a bit. After we left the outdoor restaurant we walked to a bridge that oversaw a small pond with tons of fish in it (we were told we were served them at the restaurant we ate at). We took pictures of the horizon behind us, which happened to be a cityscape of Sao Paulo. Shortly after visiting the near by bridge we walked to the bus and headed back to our hotel for a little nap before the match ahead of us that night.

- Nummy (Alyssa D'Errico)

We left the hotel at 5 p.m. for our match that began at 7 p.m. We arrived at the match SUPER early and proceeded to warm up for an hour and half (because it was a real match). As we all warmed up it was very strange to see a Penn State jersey on everyone for another match together. As the match started in a somewhat small gym at Unitalo, the fans packed it in and the noise was overpowering. The first game we came out a bit slow and went back and forth with the other team until we finally pulled out the close 29-27 win. Did I mention we played by international rules so some things were different. For instance I couldn't serve and no back row subs could enter more than once. We came out a bit stronger at the start of the second game and ended up winning 25-18.

After the match we exchanged shirts with some of the Unitalo players and we then hopped on the bus, took a short bus ride to another buffet style, meat serving restaurant, in which they bring the meat to the table and you say nao obrigada or sim obrigada (no thank you or yes thank you). We met a magician who had the best card tricks I have ever seen; in fact I am still stunned. Hope you enjoyed the day vicariously through me.

May 13, 2009:

Today we woke up at 7:30 a.m. to play the semi-pro team, it was a mix of 18 to 25 years old women. We went 3-0 (25-23 25-21 25-23) and then decided to play another game and lost 22-25. All and all we went 3-1 and they were a pretty good team. Once we finished playing, we went straight to the mall to shop. It was a shopping center that was over four levels with about 400 stores, many of us ate at McDonald's, Burger King and Pizza Hut, but a few of us ventured away and ate the local food. I personally ate at Burger King; I needed a break. After spending four hours in the mall we then traveled to the airport where we had to leave our awesome bus driver and amazing tour guide. We got to the airport a little earlier than expected because we were all pooped from shopping that we showed up an hour early to leave the shopping center. We boarded the plane for Rio and it was a quick trip, like State College to Philly. Once we landed we grabbed our bags and were headed to dinner. Once again it was buffet style, but I feel like we have all tried everything at this point so there wasn't much pigging out. After dinner it was back to the hotel and a new twist on things, three people in a room, so it will be interesting trying to get ready in the morning. Tonight we are going out to talk with one on the Brazilian national players, Celine.

May 14, 2009:

After an amazing first night in Rio de Janeiro, we began our journey of sightseeing around 9:30 am. The first thing we did was visit to the largest metropolitan forest of them all. This forest is found on Corco Vado, which is a huge mountain. On top of this mountain is a famous statue, which stands 30 meters high, called The Christ Redeemer. The statue was built in 1931 and it overlooks this gorgeous city. In order to get to this enormous statue we had to take a train up to the very top of the mountain. The ride was not long but very relaxing. There were guys on the very first cart who were playing music and dancing. They were doing it for money and because it was something they seemed to enjoy doing.

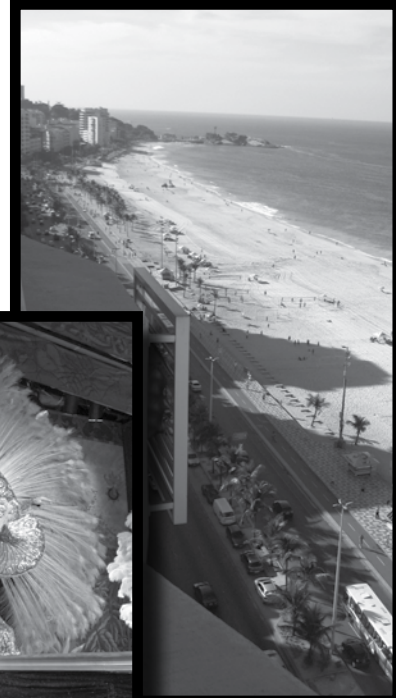

When arrived to the top we got off the train and continued our journey toward The Christ Redeemer. If you decided to walk to the statue you had 250 flights of stairs to get there. But, if you waited in the long line for the elevator it would take you the 10 flights to get to the top. Most of us decided to enjoy the experience and take the stairs. On the way up was the most amazing view I and everyone else had seen since we arrived in Brazil. We were not only at the very top of this huge mountain, but we were overlooking the beautiful scenery of Rio de Janeiro. You better believe that tons of photos were taken of The Redeemer and of everyone's smiling faces.

After a breathtaking adventure at the top of this mountain we headed back down by train and loaded the bus. We were headed to lunch at noon and of course it was buffet-style eating. By 1:30 p.m. we were on our way back to the lovely hotel. We got back to the hotel at about 2 p.m. and we all decided to make our way to the beach. We changed out of our clothes and were on our way to get some sun. The beach is directly in front of our hotel so we walked over as a group, set up our chairs and towels and enjoyed the people, sun, and the pretty scenery. We ended up leaving around 4 p.m. and headed back to the hotel to get ready for dinner.

Dinner began at 7 p.m. We all cleaned up very nicely and loaded the bus. We arrived at a pizza place, where they had all types of pizzas - shrimp, meat lovers, veggie, mushroom and Brazilian sausage. For dessert we had chocolate covered with strawberries, chocolate covered with M&M's, banana covered with cinnamon all laid on thin crust. As you can image dinner was very fulfilling!

After dinner, we attended this amazing Brazilian show, by the name of Plata Forma. The show was interesting and entertaining. There was a lot of good Brazilian music and dancing by men and women. It reminded me of Las Vegas because of how colorful all the costumes were and boy did they sure know how to move!!

- Arielle Wilson

May 16, 2009:

It was a sad and rainy morning when we had to leave Rio. So far it was our favorite city, and we weren't sure it could get much better. We made the long bus trip to Saquarema. The bus was filled with sleepers and movie watchers. Jenna, our train-watch She's The Man. For those of you that aren't familiar with this movie, it's a youthful comedy where Amanda Bynes pretends to be her brother at his new school for two weeks while he's away in London. She tries to prove herself as a men's soccer player and falls for her roommate/teammate in the process. Needless to say, Coach was not thrilled about the selection and running as punishment was mentioned several times!

We sat down to a late lunch and then the afternoon was left to our own choice of beach exploring, relaxing in the courtyard, napping, or getting on the computer to keep in touch with the rest of the world. I sit in my room which is located right next to the pool and entrance to the beach where I can hear waves crashing and Brazilian music playing in the background, and I wonder how I could possibly feel more at ease. Moments like this make you realize how much of an opportunity this whole trip is. A thank you goes out to everyone who's had their hand in making it possible because experiencing this country the way that we have, meeting the people we've met, and sharing it with each other is something that we'll never forget.

Next we traveled to the training center. There weren't a lot of fans, but then again the gym wasn't really made to hold people as much as it was made to be set up for practice and training. From hitting warm ups you could tell that this team was an excitable bunch. They were young, fresh, and excited to finally be playing someone as opposed to training everyday. We squeaked out a win in game one not playing our best. Not playing our best turned to not playing well at all in the next two games. We would get small leads and a missed serve, errors on our part, or a really bad call to their advantage would allow them to catch up, take the lead, and win those games. We came back to win the fourth, not wanting to let them think we didn't come to play. A fifth and final game was played and we got down right off the bat just like in our Nebraska match. We were able to draw on that experience and make plays at the net and in the back-row to keep us in it. We eventually fought back for the win. We headed back to our hotel for a night of dinner, enjoying each other's company, and peaceful sleep. Signing off from Brazil...

er, was on a mission to

May 19, 2009:

I'm going to start this off a little differently today and begin by thanking everyone that made this trip possible. I cannot express the gratitude we feel in being able to experience such a beautiful and kind culture that enables us to play the sport we love and find great competition (and great people to play against). To be able to spend this time with my teammates, coaches and members of the booster family only enhanced our adventures further and I could not have asked for a better group of people to join me in this great experience. This trip has been the chance of a lifetime, unforgettable and unbelievable, truly a dream come true for all those involved.

As gorgeous as Buzios was immediately, we only got a small taste of its beauty during our first night here. Today, we walked (everything is extremely convenient and in walking distance) to the pier to take a boat tour around the islands surrounding Buzios. Within minutes of boarding the boat it was a crowd favorite; the view was absolutely breathtaking in every direction. We continued to gasp at the sights of the mountains in the background and bask in the sunlight until we hit the next island. Closer to land than the previous stop, we decided to get a short workout in by swimming to the island. Five minutes later we all washed up on shore (a little worse for the wear), took the island by storm and claimed it as our own with pictures as proof. A few of the girls also snorkeled and saw "tropical fish" in the shallows. Needless to say, once the boat returned to the pier we were all trying to convince the captain to "accidentally" miss his mark with the rope so we could go on another loop around Buzios.

For dinner, we all found another buffet with an excellent assortment of fresh meats, made to order pastas, salads, fruits and even pizza. We sufficiently stuffed ourselves until we were ready for another night of shopping downtown for different Brazilian knick knacks to bring back for our loved ones (no spoilers!).

We also found a place that made the largest chocolate crepes I have ever seen and everyone gathered around to try them out. I would highly recommend a chocolate crepe from Buzios if you ever find yourself here.

Now, sitting in the hotel after a long night of wandering from shop to shop, the girls sit around on their computers talking to parents or friends and challenge some of the coaches and boosters to card games. With only two days left in Brazil, everyone is starting to realize that this dream of a vacation is actually coming to an end. The experiences we have had the blessing to be a part of are once in a lifetime, and the opportunity to interact with such an incredible culture and see a beautiful part of the world was unimaginable. We cannot thank you enough.

- Blair Brown

May 20, 2009:

Today has been a very relaxing day. All of us girls woke up around 9:15 for breakfast and then left the hotel for the beach. On the way there, we got easily distracted and stopped in several shops along the way. Then, we went to a beach that was about a 15 minute walk from the hotel. It was a small, nice beach with a few restaurants right on the beach. After a couple hours of catching some rays we decided we better leave to make it to lunch on time.

Tonight we ate our last pizza dinner. Pizza has been one of the favorite meals here in Brazil, mainly because of the amazing desert pizzas they make here. It was a great last dinner to have in Brazil.

After dinner we all headed to one of our favorite places that makes delicious crepes (as if we didn't already have enough desert). All of us ordered different ones from banana and chocolate to ice cream and chocolate. This place is very fun because not only is there great dessert, but there is a DJ playing music, and there are ping pong tables and bean bags to sit in around some tables. It seemed as though Penn State had taken over the place because every where you looked, you would see someone from our group. After that, everyone headed back to the hotel to hang out before bed.

This trip has been a dream come true. There have been many times during this trip that I have talked with some of the girls and we discuss how lucky we are to have as much support as we have and been given an opportunity to broaden our horizons by experiencing another culture as beautiful as Brazil's. I will never forget this trip and how much fun I have been able to have with all my best friends.

- Katie Kabbes

May 21, 2009:

The end of the trip has finally come! We all woke slowly on Thursday and had a pretty laid back morning. It was very overcast, so most of us headed into downtown to do some last minute personal shopping, gift buying, and getting rid of any Brazilian money we had left burning holes in our pockets. A few of us treated ourselves to manicures and pedicures, and Katie took the risk of getting her hair cut from someone who didn't speak a word of English (but don't worry, it turned out great).

We met up for lunch at Boom, the same restaurant we ate lunch at our first afternoon in Buzios. The food (and more importantly the desserts) were just as fantastic as last time. After a quick lunch, we all headed back to the hotel to take a stab at packing all of our new and old belongings up one last time. It was tough, but just about all of us managed to shove our clothes and gifts into our suitcases (with the exception of Heather's rain stick and Jess's hammock). After stuffing everything into the bus, we started our bumpy trip back to Rio.

For dinner, some of us experienced Bob's Burgers for the first time, which is the burger chain created in Brazil by an American in the absence of McDonald's back in the early 1900's. At the gate, we parted with Nestor, our faithful tour guide. Nestor was a great addition to the trip as well, and we all appreciated his help and his insight into the Brazilian culture. There was plenty of time to kick back in the airport terminal while we awaited our flight. Once we boarded the plane, it was time to settle in and sleep our way back to the New York City.

This was such an incredible experience for every one of us. I don't think we can even begin to thank the Boosters and everyone who helped make all of this possible. Nothing can compare to the volleyball experience we got here and all the memorable times we had!

- Megan Shifflett

May 10, 2013: Hello from Slovenia!

Today, we played the Croatian National Team in Maribor, Slovenia and tied 2-2. The first game started off a little rocky, but maybe it was just nerves that got us at first. The second set, we gained a bit of confidence and proceeded to win into the fourth set. Unfortunately, we didn't win the fourth set, which definitely lit a fire under us to play them tomorrow. I feel we have the confidence to play better tomorrow in our next match against them because we know that we're capable.

After the match, we took quick showers and headed to dinner where we had a buffet of meats, salad, fries, and other native Slovenian foods. It was delicious! In order to get to dinner, we had to ride a gondola up and down this huge mountain-although it was a great view, I was pretty horrified, but definitely enjoyed the new experience after looking back at it all. Following dinner, we went on a little adventure to explore what was on top of the mountain. We came in contact with a spa and a creepy old-school church that looked like it hadn't been touched in years.

After all of the food, games, and exploring, we all headed back down the mountain via gondola (I wasn't as scared this time because it was dark) and went to the DraÅ> Hotel to get gelato-that was pure happiness. Now, it's time to head to bed and get ready for all the activities to come tomorrow.

Our first morning in Slovenia was a really exciting one! We started off with a team breakfast at 7:30 in the morning, then we had a practice-working on some serving and passing. After practice we all headed back to our apartments and got changed and headed up the mountain for a team challenge on a rope course. We all arrived at the bottom of the ski lift and got on the lift to go up the mountain to the course. The view from the lift and on top of the mountain overlooking Maribor was incredible! You could see all the city and the rest of the Pohorje mountain range from the top. Then the first thing we did was get in our harnesses and ready to go on the ropes! One thing we did was climb to the top of this telephone pole one at a time-it was really high!!

Then we had to stand on top of the pole and turn around and jump and our teammates would catch us (by pulling ropes on our harnesses). It was really scary and cool at the same time. Another thing we did was a giant swing thing (kind of) off the side of the mountain! It was scary, because we swung out over the trees. Which, interesting fact, Slovenia is home to over 400 brown bears... luckily we didn't see any in the forest. We had a nice lunch on the mountain then we got to take the alpine slide down. The alpine slide was like a one-man roller coaster down the side of the mountain. It was so much fun, you could get up to 25MPH! After that we had a little time to ourselves to catch up on some sleep before the match. This trip has been amazing so far. We have got to see and do so many terrific things here. I want to thank all of you boosters for making this happen. This is a trip I will always remember fondly.

May 9, 2013 Hello to All!

I hope everyone is well back in the states. We're continuing on our great Europe adventure today as we arrived in Maribor. It is beautiful here, but slightly in the middle of nowhere. There is a training center right next to what appears to be a ski resort. There are beautiful mountains all around us and the sunset was breathtaking. When we arrived today we got off the bus, and we went straight into practice. The facilities are new and in great condition. We're happy to be in a beautiful place that has free wifi so we can talk to everyone back in the states. Hi mom and dad!

Earlier today we had a chance to sightsee around Vienna. It is absolutely my favorite place I've ever been. The city is set up in a loop-shape which makes it easy to navigate. Yesterday some of us walked around and saw the cathedrals, parliament, and castles. There were gorgeous parks with statues, fountains, flowers, and lush greens. This morning a group of us went to Schonbrunn Palace. This is where the emperor and his family would go to vacation. We felt very accomplished as we navigated the subway system and found our way there. The palace was gigantic with acres of land which included a zoo. Some of us took a grand tour of the palace which allowed us to tour the entire first floor. The chandeliers alone were works of art. Included in the tour was a hand-held audio-guide so we could get the inside scoop on what happened in each room. My personal favorite was the ballroom where Mozart performed when he was six years old for a large group of people. It was a true brush with fame. Other people took carriage rides around the grounds which had perfectly-manicured trees and bushes. It was truly so magnificent.

Tomorrow we have a full day planned! We are going to do a ropes course, and then an alpine slide down the steep mountain. I can say that's something I've never done before. Then in the afternoon we will play a match versus the Croatian National Team.

I want to make sure all the boosters know how grateful we are for being able to take this trip. It's definitely an once-in-a-lifetime experience to be able to travel with so many of your good friends. We are so lucky to have all of your support. I will cherish this trip forever. I look forward to seeing everyone and sharing more stories once we get back to the states. Ciao!

May 8, 2013: On To Vienna!

After a great time in Prague, it was finally time to start making our way to Vienna. A 9 a.m. we packed up the bus and began our four hour bus ride. As for the people who enjoy scenery, this is was beautiful ride down the coast of the Czech border and a fantastic photo opportunity. We saw everything from beautiful fields to architecture that is nothing but a fantasy in the states. And as for everyone else...the ride was the perfect nap time. About three hours into the trip we made a 20 minute pit stop. Turned out we stopped at a gift shop with cool European candy and souvenirs. I bought a Milka Chocolate Bar, a popular brand in Europe. After two more hours we finally made it to our destination, beautiful Vienna, Austria.

After checking into our rooms at the Marriott we had the opportunity to tour the city just about all day. It was great to see the different styles of architecture and the awesomeness of a new European city. Most of us walked out to the Parliament building and the historical castles that line the outskirts of the main ring. We took pictures then continued our journey to a park in the center of town.

After that, a few of the girls and I stopped at a cute little Austrian restaurant for lunch. It consisted of a typical meal with potatoes and some variation of meat. Although the language barrier was tough, it was nice to completely immerse ourselves in the culture. All in all, I consider Vienna a success. A new city always brings great opportunities to experience a new way if life.

Until next time,

May 7, 2013: Checking in from Prague!

What an incredible experience! First of all, I just want to thank all of our boosters for your outstanding generosity in making this trip possible. We know none of us would be experiencing such a one-of-a-lifetime trip without you, and from the entire team we can't thank you enough! While we wish we could spend the trip with all of you, we hope our blogs and pictures will at least give you a taste of our travels. We miss you all!

This morning we started with another nice breakfast at the hotel, complete with about 17 different types of bread and pastries, Nutella, scrambled eggs, cold cuts, and caprese salad (mozzarella, tomatoes, basil, and olive oil)—which was a little bit of a mix-up for most of us. Our whole group then headed to the Charles Bridge, which is a very famous landmark for the Czech Republic, and connects the "Old Town" to the "New Town" of Prague. The view and the bridge itself were absolutely beautiful. Thankfully we were there early enough in the day that it wasn't too crowded, and we could meander about and check out all the statues as we pleased. Once we crossed the bridge, our tour guide took us to see the Old Town Square. There was a really neat Astronomical Clock there, which depicts the "Walk of the Apostles." We were told it is a very popular pickpocketing site, since at every hour all the tourists are focused on the moving figurines instead of their purses and wallets. Thankfully we made it without any incident!

We had a couple hours on our own after our tour of Old Town Square—some of us went shopping in the little shops, and some found other cool sites to see and take model-esque pictures in front of. :) I have to say I think my favorite part of the city was the cobblestone streets and roads everywhere. But we couldn't decide how in the world they could possibly plow for snow!

Later in the afternoon the team took the tram to the gym to warm up for our second match against the Praha Seniors. We traded games the whole match but ended up losing 15-13 in the fifth. It definitely wasn't the way we wanted to start the trip but it showed that we can't take the level of play here any less serious than the Big Ten, and we all need to step it up for our next matches.

After the match we all headed to the same restaurant from the first night for a traditional Czech meal. It started with a beef and potato stew, which was delicious and quite the crowd-pleaser. The main course was a really common Czech dish—goulash with dumplings. After we were all stuffed to the max, the dessert was three mini pancake-type cakes with a blueberry sauce. Carp informed us that blueberry pancakes are her favorite so needless to say she was in Heaven, and we all left with purple tongues.

Overall, another awesome day on an amazing trip. Again, thank you to all the boosters for your incredible support in making this all possible!

May 6, 2013

Known as the "City of a Thousand Spires" Prague has seen it all. Centuries of kings, classical composers, invading Nazis and Soviet tanks and now the Penn State women's volleyball team have all passed over Prague's cobblestones.

So on our stay, we saw the many Baroque churches, the royal palace, flagstone courtyards all in which lay within Prague's castle. In fact, this castle is the largest castle area in the world composing of 18 acres. All of the architecture and artwork is incredible and covered in detail. However nothing was quite like viewing Prague's romantic skyline, and view from on top of the hill (where the Castle sits) to the city below.

Of course, important to talk about is the food. It scarcely matters which place you select expect menus with staples of tender, seasoned pork, mildly sweet cabbage and soft dumplings to soak up the rich sauce. Desert favorites include crepes or dumplings filled with fruit.

As for the fun facts:

Did you know...

That Prague is known for being having some of the biggest beer drinkers? - Czech's drink more beer per capita than other country in the world and each head will sink about 43 gallons a year- dang!

During the Middle Ages turning minerals into gold was a hugely popular fashion among the elite. - The mark of ones status was magician- oooo ahhh!

Writers and academics have claimed to have felt strange and disturbing tremors coming from under the ground. - Dark alleys and desolate squares have been known to produce many eerie sounds.... Can you say ghosts??

And the first ever sugar cubes were made in 1841- yum!

On behalf of the team, we would like to thank you boosters for sending us on the trip of a lifetime. We promise to work harder on the court to represent Penn State well and make you all proud.

May 5, 2013

Today was our first traveling day. The day started in an uproar as we scrambled around the locker room at 10 a.m. Just about all of us had over-packed and were struggling to get our bags under 50 pounds. Despite the hectic start we were all extremely excited. By 11 a.m., we were settled on the bus accompanied by boosters headed to Philly. The three-hour ride was very chill. We spent the time snacking, napping, jamming to music and talking about our hopes for Europe.

In Philly we headed to the gate boarding for Atlanta. As soon as we checked in we rushed to the food court. We ate giant ice cream cones but could only think about how much better the gelato in Europe was going to taste. We were loaded with no problem and within two hours the girls and I were in the Peach State. After waiting about an hour, we were boarding our flight to Amsterdam, making our trip officially international.

The plane was huge with three giant compartments and six stewardesses all dressed in bright blue. Each of their accents stuck out as they said hello to us as we boarded. All different types of languages were being spoken on the plane. Even the announcements came on in four different tongues. When we took off it was rainy and the skies were rough so the ride was bumpy. But even Lacey, who is not fond of flying, still made it through.

Eight hours and two airplane meals later the group was getting their passports stamped. I was amazed by the size of the airport, AMS being one of the biggest hubs in all of Europe. There were all kinds of shops, from Gucci to cigar shops. Because of a previous delay we didn't have much time to explore before starting the final leg of our trip.

As the crew got on our final plane to Prague we were all pooped. Flying above the countryside was breathtaking. The view of rolling hills and clusters of small towns was almost like flying over Happy Valley. The small jet got us to the Czech in two hours flat.

Even though the time spent getting to Prague was just the beginning of the trip it was also a time of bonding and memory making.
