Interim Head Coach: Wes Glon, 1st Season, 29th Season at Penn State

Assistant Coach: George Abashidze, 5th Season

Assistant Coach: Vakhtang Iagorashvili, 2nd Season

Wieslaw “Wes” Glon, in his 29th season with the Nittany Lions and 1st season as interim head coach, joined the Penn State fencing program as assistant coach in 1985 and has been an integral part of every success Penn State has achieved in his tenure. In 2011, Coach Glon was promoted from assistant coach to associate head coach. Previously, Glon served two years as the assistant men’s coach at William & Mary, where he worked with the saber team. Prior to his tenure at William and Mary, he assisted with the Austrian National team in Vienna. In 2013, Wes was named interim head coach.

Coach Glon is one of the top fencing officials in the country. He has directed numerous finals at the United States National Championships, Olympic Sports Festivals, and other international tournaments.

Glon has coached the U.S. Team for the Junior and Senior World Championships (1990-93), the Pan American Games (‘91) and the Olympic Games (‘92 and ‘96). In 1996 Glon was named Co-Coach of the Year by the U.S.F.C.A.

A native of Poland, Glon won his country’s highest fencing honors in saber six times between 1975-81. He won a bronze medal at the 1979 World University Games in Mexico City, finished fourth at Bucharest in 1977 and finished seventh in Bulgaria in 1975.

From 1977-81, Glon was an assistant professor of physical education at the Academy of Physical Education in Warsaw. He left Poland in 1981, arriving in the United States in 1983. Glon earned both his undergraduate and graduate degrees in physical education at the Academy of Sports in Warsaw. His academic interests include fencing, track and field, soccer, physical therapy and sports medicine.

Glon is married and has two daughters, one of whom fences for him at Penn State.

ASSISTANT COACHES

George Abashidze is in his fifth year at Penn State and brings a long list of collegiate and international coaching experience with him as he looks to help guide the Nittany Lions win another NCAA crown.

A former member of the USSR's National Foil Team, Abashidze's team competed in numerous international tournaments and he won his nation's foil crown as an athlete. Before coming to the United States, George coached the Georgian National Team.

Abashidze came to the United States to coach at a fencing club in Portland, Ore., before taking an assistant coach position at Ohio State. While in Columbus, Abashidze helped Ohio State's foilists win five NCAA individual titles.

Among his athletes were Olympians Monica DeBruin and Hanne Thompson (a teammate of Penn State's Doris Willette on the U.S. women's foil team at the 2008 Beijing Olympics) whose team won the Silver Medal.

Abashidze and his wife Iya have three children (Guram, a senior at Penn State; Anna and Sophie). The Abashidze's reside in State College.

Vaktang "Vaho" Iagorashvili will begin his first year as an assistant coach and brings a distinguished background in fencing and modern pentathlon to Penn State. Iagorashvili graduated with a Master's degree in physical education from the Georgia Institute of Physical Cultures and Sport in Tbilisi, Republic of Georgia in 1985.

Iagorashvili has been a member of three different Olympic teams for three nations: USSR, Georgia, and the United States. He was a Bronze Medalist in the 1988 Seoul Olympic games, three-time World and European Champion, Pan Am Games Champion ('03), Goodwill Games Champion ('90), three-time U.S. National Champion ('03, '99, '97), three-time Soviet Union National Champion ('90, '88, '86) and has won multiple World Cups.

The newest Nittany Lion coach comes to Penn State with an accomplished coaching history. Iagorashvili is the owner and coach of the Penta Fencing Club in Wilmington, Mass., and was previously the Head Epee Fencing Coach of Round Rock Fencing Club in Austin, Texas. As a fencing coach, his students have won several medals in both individual men's and women's epee at the national level.

Iagorashvili is also an accomplished modern pentathlon athlete and coach. The Modern Pentathlon consists of fencing, running, swimming, shooting, and riding. He was the coach of the U.S. Olympic Pentathlon Team in both the 2000 and 2004 Olympic Games, as well as the Director of Recruitment for the team from 2001-2003.

All-American 2012, 2013

AS A JUNIOR IN 2012-13: As a junior, Glon proved to be a leader on the women's saber team and had her most successful season yet. Her eighth place finish at the Mid-Atlantic/South Regional qualified her for a trip to the NCAA Championships. At the Championships, Glon won 15 of her bouts to finish in sixth place and earn an All-American status. The junior's regular season record was an outstanding 48-20. She had nine 3-0 performances that came against Sacred Heart, Vassar, Harvard, UNC, Temple (twice), UPenn, Notre Dame, and Princeton. Glon also placed first in women's saber at the 2012 Garret Open.

AS A SOPHOMORE IN 2011-12: Glon had a strong Sophomore campaign, ending in a 9th place finish at the 2012 NCAA Championships. For her efforts, she was named an Honorable Mention All-American and defeated 13 opponents at the championships. She went 27-22 during the regular season to qualify for the Mid-Atlantic/South Regional, where she placed 2nd to earn a bid to the NCAA Championships. Glon went 3-0 against Vassar, while going 2-1 against Harvard, Notre Dame, North Carolina(1/21), Temple(1/28), Penn, Duke, St. John's, and Princeton. She also went 2-0 against North Carolina(1/28) and 1-0 against Sacred Heart and Vassar.

AS A FRESHMAN IN 2010-11: Glon went 25-16 in her freshman campaign. Glon qualified for the NCAA Championship and finished 17th after defeating 8 of her opponents. Glon went 3-0 in the regular season against Ohio State, Drew, UNC, Boston College, Brown.

HIGH SCHOOL/PERSONAL: Glon entered Penn State as a former member of the 2010 Junior National Team. The year prior, she took home 3rd place as a cadet on the National Team.

All-American 2010, 2011

AS A JUNIOR IN 2012-13: Willette had another outstanding year as a Nittany Lion, and earned his third All-American status by placing second at the NCAA Championships. He also placed second at Regionals to qualify for the Championships. Willette finished the regular season with a 20-3 record. He had undefeated performances against NYU, Sacred Heart, UNC, Columbia, UPenn, Duke, and Notre Dame. He placed first in Men's Foil in this year's Penn State Garret Open.

AS A RS SOPHOMORE IN 2011-12: Willette took the collegiate season off to pursue a spot on the 2012 U.S. Olympic Team. He just missed qualifying, as he was defeated 15-13 by Gerek Meinhardt, a 2008 Olympian, in the semifinals of the Division I National Championships. A gold medal would have qualified Willette as the alternate athlete for the team.

AS A SOPHOMORE 2010-11: Early in the season Willette made history when he was named the Junior World Cup Points Winner for the 2009-2010 season, for the Junior men's foil. He finished the season with a 26-3 regular season record and a third place finish at the NCAA Championships. For the second year in a row, Willette earned All-American honors. Willette also won 3rd place in the Junior World Championship and was a member of the World Championship Team.

AS A FRESHMAN IN 2009-10: Willette had an outstanding first season with the Nittany Lions going 23-8. He clinched second at Nationals and earned an All-American title.

HIGH SCHOOL/PERSONAL: Willette is the younger brother of two-time NCAA champion Doris Willette. A 2008 Cadet National Team member in 2008, Willette claimed the Junior National Championship in the foil this past year. Willette fenced for the Mas-sialas Foundation club team in Northern California.
