Experience is the best teacher...

Denise St. Pierre is entering her 22nd season as the Penn State head women's golf coach. St. Pierre draws from her experience as a collegiate golfer as well as a PGA teaching professional to help her student-athletes reach their full potential.

In addition to coaching the Nittany Lions, St. Pierre has also coached in international competitions throughout her coaching career.

In August of 2004, St. Pierre helped coach the U.S. team at the World University Games in Thailand where they won the gold medal. Penn State's Katie Fitcher captured the individual title in that event.

In June of 1999, St. Pierre was selected by the NGCA to coach the U.S. team at the U.S./Japan Collegiate Golf Championships in Chiba, Japan, where the Americans captured their fourth consecutive title.

In its February 2002 issue, Golf for Women magazine named St. Pierre to its "Top 50 Women PGA/LPGA Instructors" list.

St. Pierre has served as President of the National Golf Coaches Association (NGCA). While president, she led the membership in volunteer work in New Orleans in relief of Hurricane Katrina. At the annual NGCA convention that had to be moved from New Orleans to Tahoe, Nevada, St. Pierre introduced an idea to the membership that called for as many golf programs as possible around the country to conduct fundraisers to raise money for the New Orleans Area Habitat for Humanity. Through the efforts of the Nittany Lion women's golf team as well as those by more than 30 other women's golf programs around the country, the NGCA raised $60,000 to build a home for a displaced family in New Orleans. The efforts of the NGCA culminated last June when St. Pierre and several of her colleagues traveled to New Orleans and volunteered to help finish building the house that they sponsored through the Habitat for Humanity.

St. Pierre has served as the assistant coach of the United States women's golf team at the World University Games held in Torino, Italy for the second time after also serving as the coach in 2004. She led the team to a gold medal for the second straight time as well.

A native of Syracuse, N.Y., St. Pierre chose Penn State for its academic and athletic reputation. As a Nittany Lion herself, St. Pierre's team won several team titles as well as qualifying for the NCAA Championships.

After her graduation in 1983, St. Pierre completed an apprenticeship with the Professional Golfers Association (PGA) at the Innisbrook Resort in Tarpon Springs, Fla. In 1985, she returned to the University as an assistant coach for both the men's and women's golf teams under Mary Kennedy-Zierke. She earned 1991 Mid-Atlantic/East Region Coach-of-the-Year honors.

From 2000-2004, St. Pierre served as secretary for the National Golf Coaches Association, prior to becoming the president of the NGCA following her time as secretary. St. Pierre has been a guest lecturer for the PGA teaching and coaching summit as well as the National Golf Foundation.

A Class A member of the PGA, the Nittany Lion coach has taught in New York and Florida and is currently the director of instruction at the Penn State golf courses. During the winter, St. Pierre teaches a golf conditioning class for the local community, as well as instructing health and human development classes at Penn State. She also serves as the director for the Penn State summer golf schools, and co-directs five junior camps. In addition to all that, St. Pierre is the author of Golf Fundamentals, an instructional book for recreational players.

St. Pierre offers more than just experience to her athletes; she brings with her knowledge of the sport and familiarity with the University. She had a very successful career at Penn State and looks forward to more growth and success for the Nittany Lion women. St. Pierre wants to provide life guidance as well as athletic guidance.

"It is about them being balanced and how we can encompass academics and personal growth in order for our players to reach their potential," St. Pierre says.

Players face challenges both on and off the course that affect how they play their game. As a coach, she believes she must be aware of those factors in order to help the player cope on the course.

"You have to know first what you want," she adds. "I believe every player has more potential than they realize. It is my job to help draw that potential out of them."

St. Pierre wants her players to graduate from the program not only better golfers but also better people.

"In order to uphold the Penn State tradition of academic and athletic excellence," says St. Pierre, "we provide each player with a safe environment to play the game at the highest level while balancing her time in the classroom."

Every coach has a different strategy on how to run a team. Denise St. Pierre's is not just centered around golf but around education and dreams.

"I try to be supportive of student-athletes in both their athletic and academic endeavors while here at Penn State," says the 1991 Mid-Atlantic/East Region Coach-of-the-Year.

She understands that golf is not her student-athletes' entire life. Each student-athlete is also at Penn State to receive an education and a life experience.

"My main job as a coach is to discuss what our [team's] dreams and aspirations are while we're here...my goals are to help them reach theirs...I am a vehicle to allow my players to get where they want to go."

She wants her players to improve themselves in all aspects of life- as a competitor, an athlete and a person- during their time at Penn State.

This Class A teaching professional hopes that her players can develop "using my background as a player...I can display the right attitude and the right actions that I want them to follow."

St. Pierre prepares her players for tournaments, both mentally and physically. The most important thing for her is to have as much information about a tournament, including climate, environment, grass, layout of the golf course and the competition.

Physically, she has her players practice the things that are most likely to occur at those sites.

"The more you know about the situation, the better you can prepare yourself both mentally and physically. The fewer the surprises, the more confident we can be," says the Nittany Lion head coach.

Breon begins second season as Nittany Lion assistant...

Head coach Denise St. Pierre named Andrew Breon assistant coach prior to the spring 2012 season.

The Spring Mills, Pa., native and local Penns Valley Area High School graduate joined the staff after holding numerous positions at Penn State, including PGA apprentice at the Penn State University Golf Courses.

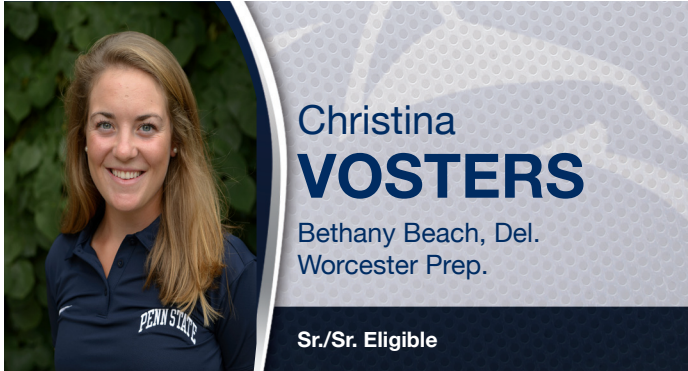

Breon served as an assistant golf professional 2011 under the University's director of golf, Joe Hughes. Breon's position included group instruction, club repair, staff supervision, merchandising and employee scheduling.

Prior to that, the Lock Haven University graduate worked at Penn State's Ashenfelter Multi-Sport Complex, coordinating practices and assisting with equipment duties. In 2009, he was an assistant to the Penn State Sport Camps.

On the links, Breon has been involved in many Penn State golf tournaments. He volunteered at Penn State's Coaches vs. Cancer Celebrity Golf Tournament in 2007 and 2008, assisting in the preparation of the course and for the tournament. In 2008, he put together the marketing plan and assisted in the preparation and execution of the Big Ten women's golf tournament.

In 2008 and 2009, Breon organized the Intercollegiate Golf Tournament at Penn State and the Football Letterman's golf outing, arranging groups, preparing the course and supervising play. Breon also helped with the 2008 Penn State Men's Rutherford Invitational in Farmington, Pa.

The course played tough for the entire field and all of the teams were above their season averages, which certainly tells the story."

Penn State enters the Spring 2014 season confident as they recorded three straight top-10 finishes in the Nittany Lion Invitational, Lady Pirate Intercollegiate, and the Hoosier Fall Invitational.

Five tournaments await the Nittany Lions in the spring with the Briar's Creek Invitational and the Big Ten Championship as the only two tournaments that the girls played in last year.

The season kicks off with the Central District Invitational in Parish, Florida on February 17. Big Ten rival Michigan State plays host to this two day tournament. After almost a month off, the Nittany Lions are back in action on March 14 at the SunTrust Gator Invitational. This weekend tournament is hosted by the University of Florida in Gainesville, Fla.

Penn State returns to the Briar's Creek Invitational a year after finishing in 17th place. The College of Charleston hosts this tournament as the Nittany Lions make their second trip to Charleston, S.C. this season after competing in the Cougar Classic earlier this fall.

Wake Forest and North Carolina both host the last regular season tournament of the season for Penn State, the Bryan Park Invitational. This two day tournament takes place on Friday, March 28 and concludes on Sunday, March 30.

The Penn State golfers will have four weeks to prepare for the Big Ten Championship, which is being played in French Lick, Indiana. The Nittany Lions are coming off of their best finish in 16 years at the Big Ten Championship with their fourth place finish last season.

Penn State also earned a bid for the NCAA Regionals last season for the first time since 2002-03. The Nittany Lions look to earn back-to-back bids at the NCAA Regionals for the first time since 2000.

Junior Ellen Ceresko (Jefferson Township, Pa.) leads the team in average score through the fall season with a 73.1. Ceresko also leads the team with three top-10 finishes, highlighted by her fourth place finish in both the Nittany Lion Invitational and the Hoosier Fall Invitational. The junior shot a career low round of 68 in the final round of the Cougar Classic.

Senior Christina Vosters (Bethany Beach, Del.) and junior Catherine Herrera (Houston, Texas) look to continue their solid fall season's as both competed in every fall tournament. Vosters' 74.6 and Herrera's 75.8 average are both career lows. Each of their top-10 finishes occurred at the Nittany Lion Invitational where Vosters finished in a tie for fifth while Herrera finished seventh.

Juniors Elyse Archambault (St-Jean-sur-Rich, Que.), Katlyn Elliott (Peterborough, Ont.), and Erin Michel (Mason, Ohio) along with sophomore Grace Chung (Ontario, Canada) look to continue their consistent play into the spring season and help the Nittany Lions make a big push towards the postseason.

Penn State has hosted the Nittany Lion Invitational 38 times in program history, capturing the title 20 times. Only 12 other schools have claimed the team title. Penn State's last title came in 2012 as the Nittany Lions ended a two-year drought. Four of the last seven individual medalists have been Nittany Lions. Maggie Lester won the individual title in 2005 while Evelyn Paik won the individual title in 2006. Emily Ransone claimed the title in 2009 while Ellen Ceresko became the newest player to win the title during the 2012.
