RANDY JEPSON
HEAD COACH
33rd SEASON
PENN STATE '82

OVERALL RECORD (33 SEASONS)
420-102 (.805)
PENN STATE RECORD (33 SEASONS)
420-102 (.805)

Under the direction of Randy Jepson, the 2000, 2004, and 2007 National Coach of the Year, the Penn State men's gymnastics program has carried on the proud tradition of excellence and achievement established by its forebearers. After guiding his teams to three national championships and four Big Ten titles, Jepson serves as a symbol of Penn State's vaunted heritage as he enters his 33rd season as head coach of the Nittany Lions in 2024.

Testament to his impact upon and dedication to the Penn State program and the sport overall, Jepson received the prestigious CGA Honor Coach Award in 2011. Bestowed annually, the Honor Coach Award recognizes CGA member coaches with 25 years or more of service to the sport of gymnastics. Presented with the honor at the NCAA/CGA Awards Banquet in April, Jepson received a special introduction by Bill Ballister, his coach and mentor while at the University of Oregon.

A member of the Penn State staff since 1983, Jepson was appointed head coach on July 6, 1992 after serving one season as the interim head coach, succeeding long-time head coach Karl Schier.

During Jepson's coaching tenure at his alma mater, Penn State student-athletes have earned All-America honors 128 times. He has also mentored 14 individual national champions, including Mark Sohn, the first gymnast to win four-consecutive pommel horse national crowns.

Jepson also championed the renovation efforts of the White Building, the Penn State training gymnasium, transforming the facility into the top collegiate training site in the country.

Jepson's Background

Before his appointment as acting head coach, Jepson spent six seasons as an assistant to Schier, who retired on October 1, 1991.

Jepson is the sixth head coach in the 75-year history of the Penn State men's gymnastics program and only the third in the last 67 years. Gene Wettstone coached from 1939-76 and was succeeded by Schier, one of his former athletes, who served from 1977-91. Jepson received the interim tag on April of 1991, the year he was named Assistant Coach of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for his outstanding work.

Seven months prior to that, he coached Mike Masucci to a gold medal in the all-around as head coach of the U.S. team that participated in the Cup of Puerto Rico international meet in San Juan. Masucci also captured gold medals in four events.

A native of Portland, Oregon, Jepson lettered for three years at the University of Oregon and was an NCAA finalist on the rings his sophomore year. He transferred to Penn State in 1982, when the Ducks dropped their gymnastics program. In his one season as a Nittany Lion, Jepson was captain and won All-America honors on rings.

A Nissen-Award nominee as a senior, Jepson posted a perfect score of 10.0 on rings in a meet against a team from the Soviet Union in 1983 at Rec Hall.

Jepson joined the Lions' coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1983 and worked in that capacity for two seasons. His first season as an assistant coach was 1985-86.

Jepson has been instrumental in guiding Penn State gymnastics to berths on the U.S. Senior National and Developmental squads, and in addition was a member of the 1997 and 2005 USA World Championships coaching staff.

A member of the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches, Jepson served as secretary and treasurer of the United States Elite Coaches Association.

In years past, Jepson has served as men's program director at Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pa. In addition, Jepson directed the North team that won the gold medal at the 1993 United States Olympic Festival.

Jepson has also been heavily involved in national team training camps, helping to prepare teams for the 1999 World Championships in China and the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia. He was also selected as assistant coach for the 1999 Pan American Games team in Winnipeg, Canada. In 2006, Jepson served as an assistant coach for Team USA at the World Championships and in a meet versus France and Switzerland. In February of 2008, Jepson served as head coach of a six-man U.S. team in a dual meet versus Canada, leading the Americans to victory. Later that year, countless hours spent overseeing the training of world class gymnast and Penn State assistant coach Kevin Tan paid off for Jepson, as Tan realized a lifelong dream by earning a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team. Jepson served as Tan's personal coach, accompanying him to Beijing, China for the 2008 Summer Games, where he captured a bronze medal in the team competition. He added the World University Games to his resume when he led the USA team in Naples, Italy in 2019.

Jepson received his master's degree from Penn State in exercise sport and science, with an emphasis in biomechanics, in 1990. He and his wife, Sue, a Penn State alum, and their four children - Adam and Anna, Emily, and Maggie.

JEPSON'S CAREER/YEAR-BY-YEAR

Lead Penn State to the second day of the NCAA Championships for the team where they finished sixth. Josh Karnes won the Big Ten parallel bars title with a score of 14.350. Karnes and Matt Cormier earned first team All-Big Ten and Chase Clingman earned second team All-Big Ten. Karnes also earned a spot on the U.S. Senior National team under the direction of Jepson.

Junior Chase Clingman won Penn State's fifth national title on pommel horse, doing so with a score of 14.00 at the National Collegiate Championships in Oklahoma. He was joined with All-America honors by sophomore Michael Jaroh, who was eighth in the all-around competition.

Clingman was also the Big Ten Champion on pommel horse, capturing the title with a personal-best score of 14.425 in the finals at Rec Hall. He was joined with All-Big Ten honors by Jaroh (all-around), senior Nick Mock (pommel horse) and freshman Josh Karnes (parallel bars).

Thirteen gymnasts earned Academic All-Big Ten honors.

Senior Parker Clayton earned All-America recognition with an eighth-place on rings. Jack Baldwin earned the NCAA Elite 90 Award. It marked the fourth-straight year the Penn State program had a gymnast earn the prestigious national award.

2020

Five Penn State gymnasts were named CGA Regular Season All-Americans in a season that was cancelled on March 12 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Earning the All-America honors were Alex Frack (high bar), Sam Zakutney (parallel bars), Isaac Hammett (rings), Stephen Nedoroscik (pommel horse), Nick Mock (pommel horse). Nedoroscik became the seventh Penn State gymnast to win the Nissen-Emery Award. He was the first specialist to ever win the award. The senior's 15.900 against Air Force was the nation's highest score in the event in over five years. He was also voted the CGA National Specialist of the Year.

Nedoroscik traveled to Melbourne, Australia, during the season and finished first on pommel horse in the World Cup event.

Seven Nittany Lions made the Academic All-Big Ten Team.

Penn State won its fourth Big Ten title with a team score of 410.350. Junior Sam Zakutney won an individual Big Ten title on parallel bars with a score of 14.325. Zakutney was a first team All-Big Ten honoree, while sophomore Parker Clayton, junior Stephen Nedoroscik and senior Noah Roberson all made the second team. The Lions finished sixth at the NCAA Championships with a team score of 399.725. Nedoroscik earned All-America honors with a runner-up finish on pommel horse, while Roberson picked up All-America status on rings. Roberson won the NCAA Elite 90 Award for a third consecutive season. He was the first Penn State student-athlete to win the award three times and was just the sixth athlete to do so in the history of the award across all NCAA sports. Roberson was also voted a first team CoSIDA Academic All-American for a second time. Zakutney earned one CGA National Gymnast of the Week honor and two Big Ten Gymnast of the Week awards. Nedoroscik and junior Isaac Hammett were each named Big Ten Gymnast of the Week once. Ten gymnasts earned CGA Academic Honors. Eleven were named Academic All-Big Ten.

Penn State finished sixth at the NCAA Championship meet with team score of 401.991. Sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik won his second-straight individual NCAA National Championship as he captured the pommel horse title with a 14.666 score. Penn State had four athletes combine for five All-America citations as Nedoroscik and Colin Coates earned AA honors on pommel horse, Greg Tamargo earned a nod on the still rings, and Sam Zakutney earned two citing's, one on parallel bars and the other on the high bar. Penn State took third at the 2018 Big Ten Championships with a team score of 406.350. Stephen Nedoroscik and freshman Brennan Pantazis both took home individual Big Ten titles, earning them First Team All-Big Ten. Nedoroscik won the pommel horse and Pantazis won the floor exercise. Noah Roberson became a two-time Elite 90 Award winner. He was the fifth Penn State student-athlete to receive the award and the first since wrestler Matt Brown earned the prestigious honor in 2013. Moreover, Roberson was the second men's gymnast to earn the honor as Miguel Pineda garnered the award in 2011. Roberson also earned First Team At-Large CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. Roberson became the fourth men's gymnast in Penn State history to earn CoSIDA Academic All-America honors and the first since 2012. He joined Miguel Pineda, the program's only two-time honoree, 2011 and 2012, as well as Jose Palacios, 2001, and Joe Roemer, 1995. Sam Zakutney won two Big Ten Gymnast of the Week honors and Brennan Pantazis and Alex Frack each one a Big Ten Freshman of the Week award. Thirteen gymnasts earned CGA Academic Honors for the 2017-18 academic year. Nine were honored by the Big Ten and named Academic All-Big Ten. Noah Roberson and Michael Burns were both named Big Ten Distinguished Scholars.

- Freshman Stephen Nedoroscik became the 54th Penn State men's gymnast to earn an individual NCAA National Championship as he captured the pommel horse title.
- Nedoroscik was the first competitor of the night on the apparatus and held onto the lead the entire championship, scoring a career-high 14.900.
- Nedoroscik is the 10th Nittany Lion to earn the pommel horse title and the first since Luis Vargas earned the victory in the 2005 season. Furthermore, the freshman pommel horse specialist is the third freshman to capture an individual NCAA event title in the last five years and only the fourth-ever Penn State men's gymnast to earn an individual event title. Nedoroscik joins the company of Mark Sohn (1988 pommel horse), Trevor Howard (2013 floor exercise) and Thad Lawson (2015 floor exercise) as the only four Penn State freshman men's gymnasts to earn individual event titles.
- Senior Leroy Clarke, Jr. earned his third All-American nod, finishing eighth on the pommel horse.
- Freshman Sam Zakutney earned All-American honors, finishing fifth on the parallel bars.
- Zakutney garnered Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors, capturing nine titles and 21 podium finishes in his first season donning the Blue and White.
- Zakutney is the first Nittany Lion to earn the honor since Trevor Howard captured it in the 2013 campaign. Furthermore, the Ottawa, Ontario native is one of just four Nittany Lions to earn the award as Felix Aronovich earned it in 2010 and Mike Dutka captured the honor in 1997.
- Zakutney and freshman Favian Valdez each earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors four times in their first season as a Nittany Lion.
- Noah Roberson garnered the Elite 90 award for the 2017 NCAA Division I Men's Gymnastics Championship. Roberson is the fifth Penn State student-athlete to receive the award and the first since wrestler Matt Brown earned the prestigious honor in 2013. Moreover, Roberson is the second men's gymnast to earn the honor as Miguel Pineda garnered the award in 2011.

- In the classroom, 11 gymnasts earned CGA Academic Honors for the 2016-17 academic year.

- Two Nittany Lions posted All-America finishes as Penn State finished fifth at the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship meet.
- Senior Trevor Howard earned four All-America honors in his senior campaign finishing in the top eight in the all-around, floor exercise, vault and still rings.
- Howard is the first Penn State gymnast to earn All-America honors all four years of competing since Kevin Tan (2001-04). He is also just the fourth Penn State men's gymnast to grab All-America honors all four years in the history of the program, finishing his career as a seven-time All-American under Coach Jepson's tutelage.
- Howard earned his third Big Ten title, capturing the win on the high bar at Ohio State.
- Howard was a 2016 Nissen-Emery Award finalist, while Noah Roberson was an Elite-90 finalist.
- The 2016 Nittany Lions placed fourth at the Big Ten Championships and had five individuals qualify for the individual event finals.
- Five Penn State gymnasts finished the season ranked in the top-20 nationally in individual events.
- The Nittany Lions posted their second-straight perfect season inside Rec Hall, winning all three of its home meets in the 2016 campaign.
- Penn State swept all six individual event titles at the West Point Open for the second time in the history of the program.

- Penn State tallied a perfect home campaign in 2015, including capturing the Big Ten Championship at Rec Hall.
- The Nittany Lions notched their third Big Ten Conference Championship with a score of 436.700, edging out the entire field in a finale that came down to the final rotation.
- Six individuals (Trevor Howard, Thad Lawson, Tristian Duverglas, Leroy Clarke Jr., Craig Hernandez, Alexis Torres) all competed in the individual event finals for the Nittany Lions. Trevor Howard competed in four individual event titles, the most of any gymnast, and earned Penn State's lone individual event title on the still rings. Senior Matthew Felleman earned the Big Ten all-around title for the Nittany Lions, posting a 87.200. Trevor Howard and Matthew Felleman were both named All-Big Ten First Team honorees.
- Jepson led Penn State to a third-place finish at the 2015 NCAA Championships, which marked the highest finish since the 2012 campaign.
- Thad Lawson captured the NCAA individual floor title, marking the fourth national champion on the floor exercise in Penn State history and the second in the past three years. He is also the second freshman in Penn State history to
- Tristian Duverglas, Leroy Clarke Jr., Alexis Torres, Matthew Felleman and Thad Lawson all earned All-American honors at the NCAA Championships
- In the classroom, seven Nittany Lions earned College Gymnastics Association (CGA) Scholar-Athlete All-American honors and five student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten

- Three Nittany Lions posted All-America finishes as Penn State finished sixth at the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship meet. Craig Hernandez (pommel horse), Trevor Howard (parallel bars) and Alexis Torres (still rings) all finished the 2014 season as All-Americans.
- Penn State set one team school record and tied another team school record during the 2014 season. Their score of 74.550 in the floor exercise against Minnesota tied the school record (Ohio State 2/2/13 and Springfield College 2/23/13). The Nittany Lions broke their school record 75.050 in the vault when they tallied a score 75.100 at the Big Ten Championships (3/21/14).
- In the classroom, six Nittany Lions earned College Gymnastics Association (CGA) Scholar-Athlete All-America honors and four Nittany Lions were named to the Academic All-Big Ten team.
- Trevor Howard went onto post first team All-Big Ten honors as he captured the rings title with a career high score of 15.825.
- As a team, Penn State finished third at the Big Ten Championships. The team finished within the top five in all six events. The Nittany Lions registered a second-place finish on the vault (75.100) and a third-place finish on the parallel bars (73.900), while also finishing fourth on the floor exercise (73.700), pommel horse (71.450), rings (74.00) and high bar (69.850).
- Senior captain Adrian Evans was honored with the Big Ten Medal of Honor and the Ernest B. McCoy Memorial Award.

- For the fourth time in the last 40 years of Penn State men's gymnastics, the Nittany Lions posted an undefeated regular season, registering a 13-0 record, marking the 19th undefeated regular season in school history. Jepson guided his squad to its first perfect regular season since 2003. Inside Rec Hall, PSU posted its third consecutive undefeated season, recording a 4-0 mark in the building.
- The Nittany Lions set three new school records during the 2013 regular season, while resetting one record multiple times. On opening weekend, Felix Aronovich and Mathew Felleman topped the school record on the high bar vs. Army, scoring 15.500. The next weekend Felleman matched the mark. Wasef Burbar followed with a new record, notching 15.800 and 16.000 scores in consecutive weeks. Burbar then flew to a 15.800 mark at Temple before recording the fourth highest score in NCAA history with a 16.00 showing against Springfield. Craig Hernandez broke his own record on the pommel horse with a 15.750 mark at the Navy Open and Nestor Rodriguez set the parallel bar record at Temple, scoring 15.800.
- Six Nittany Lions earned All-America honors, led by Aronovich, who brought home his third All-America status and second career all-around All-America honor. Adrian Evans earned his second straight All-America distinction on the pommel horse, while Scott Rosenthal and Parker Raque both stood on the podium as All-Americans on the still rings. Along with Howard, Matthew Felleman rounded out the group with his first career All-America honor after a 14.850 showing and a fourth-place finish.
- Jepson guided Trevor Howard to an NCAA Championship title in the floor exercise, as the freshman posted a career-best score of 15.800. Howard also earned All-America status.
- PSU finished fourth at the 2013 NCAA National Championship, highlighted by six Nittany Lions qualifying for eight individual routines.
- Penn State finished third at the Big Ten Championship, led by Hernandez, who claimed his second consecutive pommel horse championship. Trevor Howard also picked up Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors while Aronovich grabbed first team All-Big Ten honors.
- Off the court, three Nittany Lions earned 2012-13 Big Ten Distinguished Scholar honors, including Aronovich, Evans and Rosenthal. Nine more PSU gymnasts earned All-America Scholar Athlete honors by the CGA.

- Penn State boasted its 11th undefeated season inside of historic Rec Hall under Jepson, collecting victories against Army, NCAA Champion Illinois, Minnesota and Temple. The Nittany Lions also claimed victories at Springfield College and at Ohio State. The Lions also won their 14th straight West Point Open title and competed in an international competition with the Puerto Rico National Team.
- Penn State set a trio of team records on the season, including a program-best team score of 360.600 in a dual meet victory over Temple. The Blue and White also rocked their way to a school-record score of 60.300 on the pommel horse against Temple and now top the still rings charts after posting a tally of 62.400 vs. Minnesota.
- With seven different Nittany Lions earning All-American honors, the 2012 squad tied the 1959 team for the second most All-Americans in a single season. The eight total All-American nods were the most for a PSU squad since 2003 and are tied for the 10th most all-time at Penn State. Felix Aronovich (all-around, parallel bars), Adrian Evans (pommel horse), Craig Hernandez (pommel horse), Nihir Kothari (still rings), Parker Raque (floor exercise), Néstor Rodríguez (high bar) and Scott Rosenthal (still rings) all earned All-American accolades.
- Penn State grabbed a third place team finish at the NCAA Championships, hosted by Oklahoma. The Nittany Lions had seven student-athletes qualify for eight total routines during the individual finals at the NCAA Championships.
- The Nittany Lions posted a third place showing at the Big Ten Championships and tied the school record for most All-Big Ten selections at a single championship with three. Craig Hernandez (pommel horse) and Scott Rosenthal (still rings) both captured individual championships to earn All-Big Ten honors, while Felix Aronovich was an All-Big Ten pick, as well. The three All-Big Ten picks tie the 2008 and 2004 squads for most in school history.
- Junior Felix Aronovich qualified for the all-around at the XXX Olympiad held in London, England. Aronovich represented his home country of Israel and placed 32nd in the individual all-around with an overall score of 83.199.
- Junior Scott Rosenthal broke a four-year old school record on the still rings when he swung his way to a score of 16.300 twice during the season. Rosenthal ended the season with 10 of the top 12 scores in school history on the still rings, posting nine of those scores in 2012.
- Freshman Craig Hernandez toppled the school record on the pommel horse by tallying a mark of 15.700 twice during the season. The rookie finished the campaign with four of the top five scores on the apparatus.
- It was a banner year in the classroom, as well, for Penn State. Miguel Pineda earned his second straight nod to the CoSIDA Academic All-America squad and was one of a school-record five Nittany Lions to earn Big Ten Distinguished Scholar laurels. The Blue and White also set a school standard with 11 Academic All-Big Ten selections and 12 CGA All-America Scholar-Athletes.

- Penn State went undefeated at home in Rec Hall, claiming wins over Army, defending NCAA Champion Michigan, Springfield College, and Ohio State; knocked off two-time reigning Big Ten Champion Illinois, Minnesota, and Iowa on the road; and won its 13th consecutive West Point Open crown. The Nittany Lions also traveled to San Juan for an international dual meet with the Puerto Rico National Team. Penn State established a season-high team score of 356.750 in a tri-meet at Oklahoma.
- Penn State placed second in its qualifying session at the National Collegiate Championships to advance to the team finals for the first time since 2008. The Nittany Lions used a record-setting performance in the still rings, scoring a 62.300, to qualify. Penn State finished in sixth place at the team finals.
- Four Nittany Lions earned All-America recognition at the National Collegiate Championships, the most since 2007. Wasef Burbar (high bar), Miguel Pineda (still rings), Parker Raque (floor exercise, vault), and Scott Rosenthal (still rings) each secured All-America honors for the first time in his career.
- Junior Parker Raque came through in the clutch for Penn State at the National Collegiate Championships, setting career highs in three events (floor exercise, still rings, vault) to lead the Nittany Lions. In the individual event finals, he scored a career best 15.400 in the floor exercise and tied a personal high that he set in the national qualifier in the vault (16.050) to earn All-America honors in each event.
- Penn State placed fourth at the Big Ten Championships, highlighted by a conference-high team rings score of 60.650. Junior Scott Rosenthal placed second in the still rings in the individual event finals, earning Second Team All-Big Ten honors.
- Jepson was recognized with the 2011 College Gymnastics Association Honor Coach Award at the NCAA/CGA Award Banquet in Columbus, Ohio in April. The Honor Coach Award is bestowed annually to CGA member coaches with 25 years or more of service to the sport of gymnastics.
- Junior Miguel Pineda not only excelled in the competition arena but also in the classroom in 2011. A science major, he was honored as the NCAA Elite 88 Award winner and was named to the CoSIDA/Capital One Academic All-America and CGA All-America Scholar Athlete First Teams. In addition, Pineda was a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar Award recipient and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors for the second straight year.
- A standout competitive season in 2011 was only surpassed by the team's performance in the classroom. The Nittany Lions earned the Penn State Varsity "S" Award and boasted 11 CGA All-American Scholar Athletes, nine Academic All-Big Ten honorees, and three Big Ten Distinguished Scholar Award recipients.

- With a multitude of injuries of varying degrees to a host of veterans, Penn State was forced to rely heavily on its talented freshman class in 2010. Of the 452 total routines performed by Nittany Lion gymnasts, 237 were contributed by true freshmen or 52 percent. If sophomores (or gymnasts with two years or fewer of competitive collegiate experience) were included, that number jumps to 327, meaning underclassmen accounted for a remarkable 72 percent of Penn State routines.
- The Nittany Lions opened the season by winning their 12th consecutive West Point Open. Penn State also gained a home victory over William & Mary and swept a tri-meet versus Minnesota and Temple at Rec Hall. Penn State established a season-high team score of 354.450 in a home loss to Oklahoma.
- Felix Aronovich was named Big Ten Co-Freshman of the Year, becoming the first Nittany Lion to receive the conference award since Mike Dutka in 1997. Aronovich competed in every meet, earning 13 top three finishes, including seven titles.
- At the Big Ten Championships, Penn State overtook two higher ranked teams, including host Ohio State, to place a surprising third. Senior Nick Virbitsky earned Second Team All-Big Ten honors, contributing Penn State's top showing in the individual event finals by placing second in the floor exercise.
- In his final performance as a collegiate athlete, senior Noam Shaham finished sixth in the high bar in the individual finals of the National Collegiate Championships to earn his first career All-America honor.
- Twelve Nittany Lions, an impressive 60 percent of the 2010 roster, were honored as CGA All-America Scholar Athletes. Nine received first team accolades, including Miguel Pineda and Logan Wyman, who were two of just four gymnasts nationwide to earn perfect 4.0 GPAs, while three were recognized on the second team. In addition, Pineda, Wyman, Noam Shaham and Philip Harris were named Big Ten Distinguished Scholars and eight Nittany Lions received Academic All-Big Ten honors.

- The Nittany Lions began the season by winning their 11th consecutive West Point Open. The 2009 home schedule was highlighted by a 348.900-348.350 victory over Big Ten rival Michigan, which would go on to finish second at the National Collegiate Championships. Penn State established a season-high team score of 356.300 in a loss at Oklahoma.
- Casey Sandy penned the final chapter of one of the most storied careers in the vaunted history of Penn State men's gymnastics with a stellar senior year. He captured 29 titles, including seven in the pommel horse and six in the parallel bars. He tied the single season conference record by earning five Big Ten Gymnast of the Week awards and shattered the career mark for winning a total of 11 league honors. In the midst of his exceptional senior season, Sandy also was able to further his international gymnastics career by winning the all-around on both days at the Elite Canada 2009 thereby securing himself a roster spot on the Canadian National Team. Sandy's march towards history and assault on the Penn State record book was slowed only by injury, as he suffered a severe toe sprain at the Big Ten Championships. Refusing to be hindered by the injury, he gutted out a win in the all-around in the qualifier at the National Collegiate Championships. Sandy then went on to earn his eighth and ninth All-America honors of his career with top eight finishes in all-around and vault finals.

- Sandy's brilliant season and exceptional career culminated with him being presented with the 2009 Nissen-Emery Award, becoming Penn State's NCAA-record sixth recipient of the sport's most prestigious honor. He was also named Penn State Male Athlete of the Year for the second consecutive time.
- Five Nittany Lions (four on the first team) were recognized as All-America Scholar Athletes by the College Gymnastics Association while six received Academic All-Big Ten honors.

- For the second consecutive year, historic Rec Hall was the site of a Penn State championship, as the Nittany Lions captured the program's second Big Ten title in front of their home fans. The competition and the Penn State victory was aired live to a national television audience on the Big Ten Network.
- Randy Jepson was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the second time in his career and was also honored as the CGA Central Region Coach of the Year. Assistant Coach Slava Boiko was recognized as CGA Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year.
- Casey Sandy had arguably the greatest individual season in the storied history of Penn State men's gymnastics. He tied a conference record by earning Big Ten Male Gymnast of the Week accolades four times en route to being unanimously selected as the 2008 Big Ten Gymnast of the Year. In leading Penn State to the Big Ten championship, Sandy won individual conference titles in the parallel bars and all-around. He then went on to dominate at the national collegiate championships, capturing the NCAA all-around crown to become the first Penn State gymnast to win the Big Ten and NCAA all-around championships in the same year. Sandy secured a total of six All-America honors, the most ever by a Nittany Lion at a single NCAA Championships, giving him seven for his career.
- Derek Helsby placed fourth in the all-around at the Big Ten Championships to become just the second Nittany Lion in program history to earn All-Big Ten honors in three consecutive seasons. After an excellent senior season, Helsby was selected as a Nissen-Emery Award finalist.
- Tommy Ramos capped off a brilliant career by claiming his second Big Ten still rings championship in addition to earning his sixth All-America honor by placing third in the rings at the National Collegiate Championships.
- Seven different Nittany Lions were ranked in the top 20 in the final individual GymInfo national rankings.
- Penn State posted a season-high score of 360.550 in a win over Ohio State at St. John Arena in Columbus in a meet broadcast by the Big Ten Network.
- Under Randy Jepson's guidance and tutelage, Penn State assistant coach Kevin Tan earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team and went on to win a bronze medal in the team finals at the Summer Olympic games in Beijing, China.

- In front of its home fans at historic Rec Hall, Penn State captured its NCAA-record 12th national championship, posting a season-high team score of 221.000 to edge two-time defending title-winner Oklahoma.
- Randy Jepson was named National Coach of the Year for the third time in his career while Slava Boiko and Kevin Tan were honored as National Assistant Coaches of the Year.
- Matt Cohen punctuated his brilliant Nittany Lion career by becoming Penn State's fifth Nissen-Emery Award winner.
- Four Nittany Lions earned All-America honors: Tommy Ramos (rings, parallel bars, high bar), Casey Sandy (pommel horse), Vladi Klurman (rings), Nick Virbitsky (floor exercise).
- Tommy Ramos and Casey Sandy recorded runner-up finishes in the rings and pommel horse, respectively, at the Big Ten Championships and the National Collegiate Championships.
- Penn State placed second at the Big Ten Championships, just .100 behind Ohio State.
- Tommy Ramos (rings), Vladi Klurman (vault), Casey Sandy (pommel horse), and Matt Cohen (all-around) all spent significant time as the No. 1-ranked competitor in the nation in individual events.

2006

- Penn State captured its ninth-consecutive West Point Open title.
- Freshman Casey Sandy took the collegiate gymnastics world by storm, capturing at least a share of eight titles, including three-straight all-around wins, through the first three meets of the 2006 season. However, a broken arm in mid-February ended his promising season.
- The Nittany Lions edged Stanford, 216.800-216.750, in a highly competitive dual meet at the Bryce Jordan Center. Sophomore Derek Helsby took the all-around and pommel horse titles en route to winning the Gene Wettstone Award.
- In a special ceremony following a dual meet win over William & Mary, a sculpture was donated to the All-Sports Museum honoring the legacy and contributions of former head coach Gene Wettstone.
- Sophomore Tommy Ramos continued Penn State's conference dominance on the still rings, winning the title at the Big Ten Championships and give the Nittany Lions rings champions in five of the last six years.
- Derek Helsby earned four All-American honors (all-around, pommel horse, rings, parallel bars) while Tommy Ramos secured two (rings and parallel bars), helping Penn State to finish fourth at the NCAA Championships.

- Jepson reached the 225-win milestone with Penn State's first place-finish at the West Point Open, its eighth-consecutive title at the annual meet.
- International competition returned to Rec Hall for the first time in 21 years, as a team of Japanese College All-Stars ventured to University Park for a dual meet. Penn State posted a season-high team score (224.150) in a narrow defeat.
- Luis Vargas punctuated his Nittany Lion career by earning five All-America honors at the 2005 NCAA Championships, successfully defending his all-around crown, and capturing the pommel horse title.
- Vargas garnered the Big Ten's highest honor, the Jesse Owens Male Athlete of the Year Award.
- As a freshman, Santiago Lopez added his name to prestigious list of Penn State All-Americans, placing fourth in the event finals of the vault at the NCAA Championships.

- The 2004 National Coach of the Year, Jepson and the Lions celebrated their NCAA-record 11th national title when they posted a season-high 223.350, beating two-time defending champion Oklahoma by over one point. Sophomore Luis Vargas took the all-around, becoming Penn State's first all-around champion since 1973.
- Kevin Tan finished his career by capturing back-to-back national championships on the still rings and also won his third-straight Big Ten Championship on the apparatus. Tan also won the Big Ten title on the parallel bars.
- The Lions finished second at the Big Ten Championships behind host Illinois.
- With Vargas and Tan's All-American honors, Penn State tacked on two more champions to its NCAA-record, giving them 48 overall. \

2003

- Jepson celebrated 200 wins on Feb. 22, 2003, vs. Ohio State. The Lions won the meet 220.000-216.875. He went on to be named the 2003 Big Ten Coach of the Year.
- The Nittany Lions won their first Big Ten Championship since joining the league in 1993. Penn State scored a 220.500, almost two points ahead of the No. 2 Ohio State Buckeyes (218.600), en route to blowing away the competition for the title in Columbus, Ohio.
- Kevin Tan became Penn State's sixth NCAA champion on the still rings and second in three years. Tan also successfully defended his Big Ten titles on the rings, marking the third straight year a Lion took home the title in that event.
- Penn State's eight All-America citations set a school record for All-American honors, besting the six the Lions earned in 1991.
- The Lions finished third in the NCAA team competition.

- Penn State was the No. 1 team in the country on Jan. 14, earning a No. 1 regular-season ranking for the first time since March 15, 1999.
- Kevin Donohue became the first Nittany Lion in 17 years to earn All-America honors in the all-around. He and Kevin Tan combine to earn five All-America honors at the NCAA Championships in Norman, Okla.
- The Lions posted its second-straight third place showing at the Big Ten Championships, finishing behind Ohio State and Michigan, while edging out Minnesota. Kevin Donohue becomes the first Nittany Lion since Mike Dutka in 1998 to win multiple Big Ten titles, capturing top honors on high bar and parallel bars. Kevin Tan win the rings crown, making it the second-straight year a Nittany Lion has won the event.

- Struggling with consistency, Penn State peaked at the end of the season, posting its best score of the year at the Big Ten Championships in Rec Hall, edging out Illinois for third place. It was the Lions' best finish since a second-place showing in 1998.

- The Lions qualified for the NCAA team finals despite a No. 8 seeding and jumped ahead of Michigan State in the final rotation to place fifth overall at the end of the championship.
- Chris Lakeman became the 45th Nittany Lion to win an NCAA individual title and the first rings champion since 1991.
- Kevin Tan was the first Nittany Lion freshman under Randy Jepson to earn All-America honors, receiving the recognition on rings.
- Dominic Brindle added an All-America vault certificate entering the event finals with two to his credit.
- Jay Kim performed beyond expectations, leading the charge on the vault team en route to earning All-America status.

- Along the way to a No. 3 national ranking the Nittany Lions knocked off two higher-ranked opponents (Ohio State and Oklahoma) and the nation's top all-arounders twice, while winning two major opens (West Point Open, Southwest Cup) and surpassing the 230.00 mark three times.
- Penn State stumbled just once during the regular season and finished second to last at the Big Ten Championships.
- The Lions saved their best performance for last coming from behind to edge Michigan by 0.125 for an NCAA-record 10th national title, with a school-record 231.975.
- Brandon Stefaniak, who was instrumental in the team's rally, successfully defended his individual national crown on the pommel horse, giving Penn State an NCAA-record 44 individual titles.

- The Lions posted a fourth-place NCAA finish with a year that was capped by Brandon Stefaniak's pommel horse title. He became the Lions' first NCAA Champion since 1991. Ron Roeder, Eddie Seng and Adam Benas also grabbed All-America honors.

- Despite numerous injuries, the Nittany Lions rolled through the 1998 regular season with an 11-3 record (tied for fifth-most wins in school history), including a then-school record 231.150 in a win over Nebraska.
- Seemingly rejuvenated by the return of all-arounder Mike Dutka in late February, Penn State entered the postseason poised for a run at a national championship. Behind the strength of Dutka's four individual titles, the Lions nearly won the Big Ten crown, placing second to Iowa by less than a point. However, Dutka went down on vault at the NCAA East Regional with a broken foot. Penn State ended up finishing fourth to the Hawkeyes by .05.
- Five Lions still managed to qualify as individuals for the NCAA Championships in the Bryce Jordan Center. Ron Roeder emerged as a star, earning All-America honors on the floor exercise and rings, while Brandon Stefaniak was an All-America on pommel horse with sixth-place finish.

- Jepson led a mix of youth and experience to a fifth-place showing at the NCAA Championships. J.M. Michel earned All-America honors on the high bar with a sixth-place finish. Mike Dutka, who Jepson coached at the World Championships over the summer, finished only 0.075 points away from becoming an All-American in the all-around.
- The Nittany Lions placed third at both the Big Ten Championships and the NCAA East Regional. During the regular season, Dutka earned a spot on the U.S. Senior National Team at the Winter Cup in February. In addition, captain Joe Roemer became the first Penn State gymnast to ever earn GTE Academic All-America honors, garnering a spot on the second team.

- The season ended with the Nittany Lions placing sixth at the NCAA Championships. Joe Roemer tied for third on the floor exercise, earning All-America scholar-athlete recognition for the second-consecutive year.
- The Lions placed third at the NCAA East Regional after also finishing the Big Ten Championships in third place. Junior Roy Malka was 10th in the all-around competition at both events.

- Penn State's third-place trophy at the NCAA Championships was the Nittany Lions' top performance under Jepson to date and the best outcome since finishing second in 1991. Two Lions, Tony Pansy and Tom Ellefson, earned All-America honors on the parallel bars.
- Jepson's NCAA East Regional Championships came on his home floor. The Lions finished fourth at the Big Ten Championships at Illinois, as Pansy and Lee Ricketts were co-champions on the horizontal bar with 9.80 marks.

- The team was recognized for having the 10th-highest team grade point average in the country among men's gymnastics teams. The 3.009 the Nittany Lions carried was the best in the Big Ten and second among teams competing in the NCAA Championships. Furthermore, sophomore Joe Roemer was one of 49 recognized as All-America scholar-athlete.

1994

- Capturing third place at both the Big Ten and the NCAA East Regional Championships, the Nittany Lions advanced to the 1994 NCAA Championships, where they finished sixth.

- At the 1993 NCAA East Regional, Penn State posted its second-highest score of the season, but was unable to crack the top three in the team standings. Thus, for the first time since 1977, Penn State did not field a team at the NCAA Championships. The school's streak of 15-consecutive appearances in the NCAA meet was the nation's longest entering the season.
- Two Nittany Lions represented the program at the NCAA Championships. Senior captain Mike Masucci placed 11th on parallel bars and 16th on pommel horse. Sophomore Joel Neuwirth was 20th on the pommel horse.
- The Nittany Lions placed sixth at the Big Ten Championships. Masucci reached the finals on three events, sharing the high bar title with a score of 9.725 and was named All-Big Ten.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH TONY BECK

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
EIGHTH SEASON
PENN STATE '13

Beck enters his eighth season on the coaching staff in 2024. Jepson promoted him to an Associate Head Coach at the beginning of the academic year.

During Beck's time in Happy Valley, Penn State has earned three individual NCAA titles, 22 All-American awards, one Big Ten team title, and five Big Ten individual titles.

As a volunteer assistant coach for the Nittany Lions, Beck helped with the daily practices and competition, while working closely with on-campus recruiting. In his final season as the volunteer assistant coach, Beck played a vital role in the Blue and White's third Big Ten Championship and a third-place finish at the NCAA Championships.

Following his graduation from Penn State, Beck started the first men's gymnastics program at Centre Elite Gymnastics where he produced numerous regional and state champions. For his efforts, he was named the 2015 Pennsylvania Coach of the Year.

The Eastern Pennsylvania native has also served as a judge from the Junior National level to the collegiate level and was an instructor at the International Gymnastics Camp where he coached weekly camps focusing on technique and skill development.

As a student-athlete for the Blue and White, Beck earned a fourth-place finish on the parallel bars at the 2010 Big Ten Championships and a ninth-place finish on the pommel horse at the 2011 NCAA Championships. Beck also helped the team to two third-place finishes in the Big Ten Championships in 2010 and 2012 before the Nittany Lions placed second in his senior campaign. In 2013, Penn State went on to place fourth at the NCAA Championships with Beck placing sixth on the high bar.

Beck attended Northampton High School and competed for the Lehigh Valley Sports Academy. Competing at the Visa Championships at the junior level, Beck placed sixth on the floor exercise and 11th in the all-around competition, while earning the 2008 Pennsylvania Most Outstanding Senior Award.

A native of Northampton, Pa., Beck graduated from Penn State with a bachelor's degree in recreation, parks, and tourism management and was on the dean's list as well as a 2013 CGA Academic All-American. Vazquez enters his 11th season with the Nittany Lions in 2023 after spending 20 years as the head coach of the men's program at Capital Gymnastics National Training Center in Burke, Va.

ASSISTANT COACH
12TH SEASON
TEMPLE '84

Vazquez enters his 12th season with the Nittany Lions in 2024 after spending 20 years as the head coach of the men's program at Capital Gymnastics National Training Center in Burke, Va.

During Vazquez's time in Happy Valley, Penn State has earned five individual NCAA titles, 44 All-American awards, two Big Ten team titles and 10 Big Ten individual titles.

In addition to his 29 years on collegiate coaching staffs, Vazquez has served as a U.S. Junior National Team coach since 1992, including serving as an assistant coach for the Junior Pan American Championships in Sao Palo, Brazil in 1992.

Among the gymnasts under Vazquez's tutelage were 2008 Olympian Justin Spring and U.S. National Team members Jay Nardelli, Jason Furr, Dan Gill, Tim McNeal and Abhinov Ramani.

Vazquez has been a member of USA Gymnastics Pro since 1985. He was a four-time letterwinner at Temple and served as the team captain from 1982-84. He graduated from Temple with a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering.

NISSEN-EMERY AWARD

The Nissen-Emery Award is the highest honor in collegiate gymnastics. Awarded in recognition of outstanding athletic achievement, academic excellence and sportsmanship, it is equivalent to college football's Heisman Trophy.

Presented annually to the top collegiate male senior gymnast in the U.S., the award was originally named the Nissen Award after George Nissen, a former NCAA Champion, for his contributions to the sport. In 1997, it was renamed the Nissen-Emery Award in honor of former Penn State gymnast Dr. Robert Emery for his support of the sport. Emery won the award in 1969.

Penn State's seven recipients ranks second for the most in the award's history. The first award was presented in 1966.

GENE WETTSTONE AWARD

Presented annually to Penn State's most outstanding gymnast, the Gene Wettstone Award was established in 2006 to honor the legacy and contributions of former legendary Penn State head coach Gene Wettstone.

From 1938 to 1979, he raised the level of intercollegiate gymnastics in Happy Valley and nationwide.

Known as "Mr. Gymnastics," he led the Nittany Lions to nine national championships, 13 Eastern crowns, and 35 national individual titles. Thirteen of his Nittany Lion gymnasts competed in the Olympic Games.
