The Opening Kick

- Kenni Burns and the Flashes enter year two of the Kent GRIT era, taking on Tennessee for the first time in program history
- This is the second of back-to-back weeks against ranked opponents and last of three Pennsylvania opponents
- Kent State went to Rocky Top last weekend to face #7 Tennessee
- Nine starters on offense are back for 2024 while six starters return to the defensive side of the ball, all three specialists also return
- Chrishon McCray returns to headline the offense, a consensus first-team All-Conference receiver led the MAC in yards per game last year but missed the last month of the season with an injury
- McCray had a highlight-reel touchdowns against Pitt and SFU while Luke Floriea had a td in both games as well and a career-best 106 yards receiving vs Pitt and had 90 vs SFU
- Floriea leads the MAC in return yards and in the top-10 in receptions and yards
- Returning to help lead the defense is Rocco Nicholl, the linebacker is building off a solid spring and summer to lead the Flashes with 24 tackles and 8 tackles per game
- The Flashes welcome in 23 transfers to the squad this year as well as Kansas running back transfer Ky Thomas. The running back sat out last year after his second transfer and played for Kenni Burns at Minnesota.
- One transfer that has stood out is Kam Olds, the Buffalo transfer has three sacks this season, tops in the MAC
- Seven Golden Flashes are seniors or graduate students who have played their entire career at Kent State. Leading that group is Matt Harmon who is in his seventh season as a Flash thanks to a red-shirt season (2018), covid season (2020) and an injury redshirt season (2023)
- Kenni Burns named junior quarterback Devin Kargman his starting quarterback for the season Kargman is averaging 187 yards per game this season
- Andrew Glass is knocking on the door for the most field goals in program history, entering the season with 53, three behind Freddy Cortez (2009-12), Glass is 2-4 this season on field goals, giving him 55 for his career
- Glass went 3-3 on xps vs Pitt and is the third Flash to hit 100+ xps, joining Cortez and Travis Mayle (2002-05)

KENT STATE

Kent State University respectfully requests that the Institution and its intercollegiate athletics teams be referred to as "Kent State" or "KSU" in shortened reference, as opposed to "Kent." Thank you.

KENT GRIT

Coach Kenni Burns has instilled a new mantra in the program as the Kent GRIT era is officially underway. Burns GRIT mentality goes beyond the toughness that will be indicative of the Golden Flashes but carries over into day-to-day life. GRIT is an acronym for Grow Respond with Integrity Together.

STAYING DISCIPLINED

Kent State ranks second nationally in penalties against, averaging only three penalties per game. The Flashes also rank second with only 17 penalty yards per contest on average.

RUNNING TO THE TOP

Coach Kenni Burns was a running back at Indiana and is the all-time leading rusher at Sacred Heart Griffin High School in Springfield, Illinois. He is one of five reported coaches to have been a collegiate running back. He joins Thomas Hammock (NIU RB and HC), Dino Babers (Syracuse HC, Hawaii RB), Stan Drayton (Allegheny RB, Temple HC) and Kalani Sitake (BYU RB and HC). Georgia HC Kirby Smart and South Carolina HC Shane Beamer were running back coaches before getting head coaching positions.

POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE

The Flashes have excelled in the classroom as a team, posting the highest term and cumulative GPA in program history this past spring. Twenty Golden Flashes have earned their undergraduate degree with five earning the honor from Kent State. All 20 Golden Flashes will wear a MAC graduate patch on their uniform to denote the accomplishment.

FAMILIAR FRIEND

Ky Thomas will suit up this season for the Flashes after sitting out the 2023 campaign after his second transfer. The running back re-joins a familiar friend in Kenni Burns, who coached Thomas at Minnesota. Under Burns, Thomas ran for 824 yards and six scores as a Gopher, has averaged 4.5 yards per carry over 219 collegiate carries.

BIG PLAY McCRAY

On the receiving end, Chrishon McCray led the MAC in yards and yards per game before suffering an injury in the Wagon Wheel game. The red-shirt sophomore led the club with 610 yards receiving including a pair of 100 yards games. He grabbed 10 balls for 105 yards against Miami and six catches for 161 yards and two scores before getting injured in the Wagon Wheel game. McCray has picked up where he left off in 2023, grabbing high-light-reel touchdown catches in each of the first two games. McCray led the Flashes in receptions against the #7 Vols.

YEAR TWO | ALL IN

The Flashes bring back nine starters on offense, plus the addition of Ky Thomas to the active backfield after practicing with the team all last season after his second transfer. Six starters return on the defensive side of the ball plus the return of veterans Khalib Johns and Matt Harmon after injury-plagued 2023 season. All three specialists are back as well, giving the Flashes some experience in all three phases of the game in year two of the Kent GRIT era

RAISE YOUR GLASS

Kicker Andrew Glass went from walk-on to all-conference place kicker for the Flashes. Glass earned a scholarship prior to the 2022 season and hit 17 field goals with a long of 50. Through two-plus seasons, Glass has hit 55 field goals in his career and is already second on the all-time list at Kent State. This season, Glass is 15/17 on his field goals with a long of 48. His 55 field goals made is second on the all-time list, trailing only Freddy Cortez, who has 56. His 100 extra points makes him one of three Golden Flashes to top the century mark in extra points.

TEAM IMPACT

In 2022, the Golden Flashes' signed Kingston Woods, the toughest, most resilient kid in northeast Ohio through the university's partnership with Team IMPACT. Team IMPACT is a non-profit organization that pairs kids with chronic and serious illnesses and pairs them with college teams. Kingston signed his letter of intent at the annual spring showcase, then closed out the afternoon with the ringing of the victory bell. Look for Kingston with the team on the sidelines, locker room and pre-game this season.

Graduate lineman Cam Golden is also a Team IMPACT fellow, working with the organization and serving as a liaison between teams, families and the organization. Golden participated in a leadership and Team IMPACT seminar in Boston over the summer, working with other student-athletes and fellows on how to best serve Team IMPACT.

HONORING #54 Jason Bitsko

On Aug. 20, 2014 during a preseason practice, Kent State's football team received tragic news of the unexpected overnight death of Jason Bitsko. The fourth-year junior had become a team leader, mentor and friend to many both on and off the field. In Bitsko's honor, the number 54 is now worn by a select offensive lineman every season. This season, tackle Cam Golden has earned the honor, wearing number 54 also serves as the single digit and captaincy of the offensive line.

HIT THE FLOOR (IEA)

Fifth year wide receiver Luke Floriea has had a strong start to the season with 196 yards receiving (third in the MAC) and a pair of touchdowns. Floriea also leads the conference in kick and punt return average and sits top-30 in the NCAA in return yardage.

SELECT COMPANY

Kent State is one of 11 schools who have 10 or fewer players in their final year of eligibility who have played their entire career at the same school. Leading the Flashes is Matt Harmon who began his college football career and Kent State career in 2018.

KEYSTONE OF THE SCHEDULE

Kent State might set up residency in Pennsylvania after the first month of the season. The Flashes will take on Pitt in week one, host Saint Francis of Loretto, PA in week two and travel to Happy Valley to take on Penn State in week four. It is the eighth meeting all time with the Panthers, the seventh meeting with the Nittany Lions and the first meeting with the Golden Flashes.

DEVIN DROPPIN' DIMES

Devin Kargman won the starting job in training camp this season and will be making his first start as the official QB 1. The New Jersey native started twice in his career, once in the Wagon Wheel game as a freshman in a 34-27 win and last season's finale vs NIU. As the starter this season, he's averaging 187 yards per game while tossing three touchdowns.

Kargman was named to the all-public team by Jersey Sports Zone, helping Woodrow Wilson to a 9-3 record. As a high school senior, he threw for nearly 2800 yards and had a 25:3 touchdown-to-interception ratio. The junior tossed for nearly 8,000 yards and 77 touchdowns in his high school career.

STARTIN' EARLY

The Flashes will be starting a pair of true freshman on offense in week one at Pitt. Da'Shawn Martin impressed early and often during training camp and earned a starting wide receiver spot. Martin comes to Kent State from Central Catholic High School in Springfield, OH. He was a top-100 recruit in Ohio and averaged over 15 yards per catch in high school.

Elijah Williams earned the nod as the team's starting center. The Toledo Central Catholic product was a well-decorated prep lineman, earning All-Ohio, All-Catholic League, All-District and All Toledo Blade honors.

GOOD FIRST IMPRESSION

The Flashes will start some new faces to the program this year with four transfers getting the nod in the week one two-deep. At tight end, Alabama transfer Charlie Skehan gets the start. The former Crimson tide saw action in each of the last two seasons and has two years of eligibility.

On defense, Canaan Williams gets the nod at linebacker, he makes the in-conference move to Kent State from Bowling Green. Williams starred at linebacker at Rock Creek Christian in Georgia, highlighted by a 95-yard pick six.

Dallas Branch comes to Kent State from San Diego State where he was an All-Mountain West corner back and a Jim Thorpe Award Player of the Week. Branch saw action in 34 games with the Aztecs with 68 tackles, 13 passes defensed, five picks and a forced fumble.
