INSIDE THE GAME

NO. 7/7 PENN STATE WELCOMES UCLA FOR BIG NOON KICKOFF

- OPENING KICK: No. 7/7 Penn State hosts UCLA on Saturday, October 5 at Beaver Stadium. Kickoff is set for noon on FOX.
- BIG NOON KICKOFF: Penn State will appear as FOX's Big Noon Kickoff for the second time this season. Penn State was the featured game for its 34-12 win over West Virginia.
- SERIES HISTORY: Penn State meets UCLA for the seventh time in program history. Penn State trails 4-2 in the all-time series and is set for the first matchup since 1968 and the first contest as Big Ten opponents. Four of the last six matchups have been decided by one possession. PSU won the last matchup, 21-6, in 1968. The opening score of the game came on a blocked punt by Jack Ham, which was scooped up and returned 36 yards for a touchdown by Jim Kates.
- 2,000-YARD BACKFIELD DUO: Kaytron Allen and Nicholas Singleton once again combined for a dynamic performance against Illinois. Allen rushed for 102 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries, while Singleton tallied 139 all-purpose yards (94 rushing) and scored on a 4-yard run. On the day, Allen went over the 2,000 career rushing yards mark for his career. Allen (2,058) and Singleton (2,221) are the second set of Penn State teammates to each have 2,000 career rushing yards, joining Lydell Mitchell (2,934; 1969-71) and Franco Harris (2,002; 1969-71).
- SECOND HALF SHUTOUT: The Nittany Lions shut out Illinois in the second half last Saturday, holding the Illini to 59 total yards, including -19 rushing yards. Extending that into the first half, from the 1:41 mark of the second quarter until the end of the game, PSU allowed just 39 total yards. On the season, Penn State has allowed just nine second-half points and ranks second in the country in second-half points allowed per game (2.25). PSU has not allowed a point in the third quarter this year.
- THE OPPOSITION: UCLA is 1-3 this season and 0-2 in Big Ten play. The Bruins led 34-13 against Oregon last Saturday. Ethan Garbers threw for 118 yards, while T.J. Harden rushed for 53. Bryan Addison had a 96-yard pick-six, while adding eight tackles and a pass breakup. Carson Schwesinger led the team with 13 tackles (8 solo).

LAST MEETING PENN STATE DEFEATS UCLA, 21-6

LOS ANGELES, Calif. - It seemed like poetic justice as a blocked punt resulted in a 36-yard touchdown return by linebacker Jim Kates, launching the Penn State Nittany Lions on their way to a 21-6 football victory over UCLA.

The punt was blocked by fellow linebacker Jack Ham and scooped up by Kates on the run at the Bruin 36, from where he dashed to the end zone untouched, giving Penn State a 7-0 lead.

Ironically, it had been a blocked punt by UCLA that proved the 17-15 downfall of the Nittany Lions when the two teams met in 1967 at a time when UCLA was nationally ranked and Penn State was the underdog.

The Lions put the game on ice in the third quarter with an electrifying 76-yard pass play from quarterback Chuck Burkhart to fullback Tom Cherry. Cherry caught the ball on his own 30 and dashed down the right sideline for the touchdown. The Lions added an insurance touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 10-yard sprint by halfback Charlie Pittman.

Meanwhile, the Nittany Lion defense intercepted two passes, recovered a UCLA fumble and tossed Bruin quarterbacks for 26 yards in losses.

Pittman gained 94 yards on 21 carries for the Lions, marking the first time in the 1968 season he did not go over the 100 yard mark. All-America tight end Ted Kwalick caught five passes for 50 yards, while Burkhart hit on 10-of-19 for 158 yards. UCLA's lone score came in the second quarter on a pass from Jim Nader to Mike Garrett ending a 48 yard drive in 13 plays.

TRUSTEES APPROVE BEAVER STADIUM RENOVATION PLANS

- The Penn State Board of Trustees on May 21 approved in investing in the renovation of Beaver Stadium, which will grow revenue-generating opportunities, transform the fan and community experience, and fuel the future funding for all 31 athletics programs at Penn State.
- The approved renovations will enable year-round use of Beaver Stadium, further driving economic growth and development in the surrounding region.
- Since January 2024, when the initial expenditure for the Beaver Stadium renovation was approved, steps have been underway at the stadium and will continue leading up to the 2024 college football season.
- Initial construction has prioritized safety and accessibility through the widening of select concourses and the installation of new escalators, as well as field lighting performance and videoboard replacements.
- Winterization work also is ongoing, which entails the insulation of pipes and other upgrades to allow the building to be occupied when temperatures are below freezing, giving Penn State the ability to host a College Football Playoff game beginning in 2024 and other potential events beyond Penn State football games in the winter months.
- After the 2024 season, the project plans encompass three distinct phases over the course of the next three football offseasons and will offer a new mix of seating options and improved amenities, such as restrooms and concessions.
- A new welcome center is planned for the community that will include a 21,000-square-foot facility for events and many other uses, serve as a connection point for all in the community, and augment enrollment efforts for prospective students and future student-athletes.
- The campus visit experience continues to be one of the most important drivers for prospective students, and the new center enables customization by leveraging technology to create visits that are personalized, immersive and showcase Penn State's areas of distinction.
