48th Meeting (32-15 all time)

Last Meeting: March 2, 2024 (MN W, 75-70)

* - excludes vacated games

STARTING FIVE

- The University of Minnesota men's basketball program hits the road Tuesday when it travels to Penn State at 6 p.m. CT. The Golden Gophers are set to face the Nittany Lions for the first time this season and the 48th meeting. Minnesota won both contests between the two teams last year, including the previous meeting in March of 2024. The Gophers face PSU twice this season; the second comes later in February.
- The Gophers won the last meeting between the two teams in a dramatic come-from-behind win on March 2, 2024. The Gophers trailed 41-18 with 5:04 remaining in the first half but pulled within 12 at the half and outscored PSU 45-28 in the second half for the comeback. Cam Christie scored a game-high 19 points, followed by Elijah Hawkins with 18. Parker Fox made his first Gopher career start and finished with 11 points, six rebounds and four blocked shots.
- The Gophers are looking to return to the win column after a 71-68 loss to Washington Saturday. Dawson Garcia scored 28 points, including 23 of the Gophers' final 27 points. The Gophers, who trailed by 10 points at halftime, rallied to take a one-point lead with 8:13 left and the score was tied with 2:44 remaining, but the Huskies held on for the win. Femi Odukale added 10 points, five assists, four rebounds, three steals, and two blocks for the Gophers.
- Dawson Garcia's 28 points vs Washington extended his scoring streak. He has now had 20 or more points in seven straight games. It is the longest streak by a Minnesota player since Kris Humphries had an eight-game streak in 2003-04. Garcia and Humphries's streaks are the two longest streaks by any Golden Gopher this century.
- Femi Odukale made his 100th-career start in Saturday's loss vs. Washington. Odukale has started in 20 games for the Gophers. The most starts in a single season dates back to 2022-23, when he started in 31 games.

2025-26 GOPHERS

(Recruiting class ranks 26th nationally by Rivals.com and 41st by 247Sports)

PARKER JEFFERSONF • 6-10 • 230 • WAXAHACHIE, TEXAS

Jefferson, a 6-foot, 10-inch forward, played three years at Waxahachie High School (Texas) before transferring to Inglewood High School (Calif.) his senior season. Jefferson also played AAU basketball with Team Griffin and Real Run. Jefferson scored over 1,000 career points during his three-year tenure with Waxahachie by his junior year. As a junior, Jefferson averaged 16.7 points and 9.5 rebounds. He was named the 11-6A Most Valuable Player for his efforts and led the team to a district championship. In that junior year, Jefferson was also named The Holiday Classic's All-Tournament selection, averaging 22.8 points. Jefferson averaged 12.8 points and 5.7 rebounds as a sophomore and 15 points and 9 rebounds per game as a freshman. Jefferson is listed as a four-star recruit from ESPN and a three-star recruit from 247Sports and Rivals. He will join the rest of his family as Division I athletes. His parents, Mike and Carrie, played football and basketball at Arkansas. His brother, Michael, played basketball at Iona, while his sister, Kaylee, played at Sam Houston State.

JOHNSON ON JEFFERSON:

"We're really excited to add Parker Jefferson to our program," head coach Ben Johnson said. "From the minute we saw Parker play, we knew he would be a perfect fit, especially from the big position. He's got a great basketball IQ, is a great passer, and a guy you can play through to stretch out the defense. Those three qualities are ideal for how we want to play. The more we got to know him, we love his personality, his competitive spirit and his toughness. Parker is going to have a great impact on our program in the near future."

JACOB ROSS*G • 6-6 • 180 • BRISTOW, VA.

Ross, a 6-foot, 6-inch guard, is playing his senior season at SoCal Academy after competing at Long Island Lutheran (N.Y.) as a junior. Along with his high school play, Ross has also played AAU basketball with Team Melo and Team Loaded Virginia. In 2023-24, Ross played in all 12 Nike EYBL conference games and shot a team-best 61 percent from the field. He also competed in five games with Team Loaded at the 2024 17U Shoe Circuit where he helped his team go 5-0 during that span.

Last year, Ross was a part of LuHi's New York Class A State championship team. As a sophomore helped LuHi win its ninth conference championship. During his prep tenure, Ross was also the Saint James team most valuable player and a two-time Chipotle Nationals participant. Ross is listed as a four-star recruit from Rivals and three-star recruit from 247Sports. Ross comes from an athletic family with both parents being student-athletes at Rutgers and his brother, Jayden, is currently a sophomore on Connecticut's men's basketball team.

JOHNSON ON ROSS:

"We're really excited to add Jacob Ross to our program," Johnson said. "Jacob has great athleticism, size, length and versatility. Jacob has the ability to be one of the better defenders in our league. I love how he naturally competes and has always found ways to win. He brings a certain level of toughness out of high school and plays extremely hard. He fits in perfectly with our culture."

KAI SHINHOLSTER*G • 6-5 • 170 • PHILADELPHIA, PA

Shinholster, a 6-foot, 5-inch guard, plays at William Penn Charter School and K-Low Elite on the Adidas. Shinholster, a senior captain for William Penn Charter, is a three-time Inter-AC champion. Over the course of his high school career, Shinholster was a two-time Inter-Academic All-League selection his sophomore and junior seasons. Despite having an injury his junior year, Shinholster averaged 11.2 points to help his team to its first Inter-AC league title in 20 years. Shinholster was also named the most valuable player as Penn Charter were Tampa Bay tournament champions in 2022. With K-Low Elite this summer, he averaged nine points, 4.7 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 1.2 steals last season. Shinholster is listed as a three-star recruit by 247Sports and Rivals. Kai is the second in his family to play collegiate basketball as his dad, Rick, played at Jefferson University in Philadelphia.

JOHNSON ON SHINHOLSTER:

"Kai has an elite skill level and can play both on and off the ball," head coach Ben Johnson said. "He has the ability to create offense for himself as well as others. Kai has a unique knack for scoring at all three levels. He's got a great first step, great speed and offensively is in a position to develop and grow as a player. He's won at every level he's played at and can bring that winning mentality here. We're thrilled to have him as a part of our program."

Ben Johnson is in his fourth year at the helm of Golden Gopher men's basketball. Johnson, 43, was named Minnesota's 18th head coach in school history on March 22, 2021.

In Johnson's third year, the Gophers held a 19-15 overall record, Minnesota's first winning season the past five years. The Golden Gophers finished as the No. 9 seed in the Big Ten Tournament, a five-seed improvement from the 2022-23 season. Minnesota improved from 2-17 in Big Ten play and 9-22 in 2022-23, to 9-11 in league action and 19-15 overall in 2023-24. That win improvement marked the best in the Big Ten and one of the best nationally among Power 6 teams. Dawson Garcia was named a Second (media) and Third Team (coaches) All-Big Ten player. Minnesota averaged 75.0 points in 2023-24, marking it the best scoring production since the 2017-18 season and highest under head coach Ben Johnson. In 2023-24, Minnesota also scored the program's fifth most points in a season, 2,550, and the most since the 2016-17 campaign. The Gophers capped off the 2023-24 campaign when they advanced to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) for the first time since 2014.

Minnesota went 9-22 in Johnson's second year, playing an unprecedented four freshman in his second head coaching campaign. Johnson also added his first Big Ten Tournament win when the Gophers defeated Nebraska, 78-75.

In his first season as the Gopher men's basketball coach, Johnson had the task of assembling a team from scratch when he added 10 newcomers to the group. The Golden Gophers went 13-17 in 2021-22 and went 9-1 in nonconference play. Under Coach Johnson's tutelage, Minnesota won five road games, the first road wins since the 2019-20 campaign. He also recorded six Power 5 wins, including two Quad 1 wins. Johnson notched his first Big Ten Conference win on the road when the team defeated Michigan, 75-65. It marked Minnesota's first win at Michigan since the 2010-11 season. The Gophers also won the inaugural Asheville Championship and earned a thrilling win over Pitt in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. Two players garnered All-Big Ten honorable mention in 2021-22.

Johnson, who graduated from Minnesota in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in sociology, returned to his alma mater after spending three seasons at Xavier as an assistant coach. Johnson previously served as an assistant coach at Minnesota from 2013-18 and was a two-time captain during his playing career for the Gophers.

Johnson helped lead Xavier to consecutive top-30 recruiting classes in 2019 and 2020 and the Musketeers posted a collective record of 51-37 in three seasons with him on the bench. In his previous stint at Minnesota, Johnson helped recruit local standouts and current NBA athletes in Daniel Oturu and Amir Coffey to the Gophers. Johnson was instrumental in recruiting and developing Jordan Murphy, who finished his career atop the Gopher record books in rebounds (1,307), free throws made (460), free throws attempted (698) and second in scoring (1,802 points).

Prior to returning to Minnesota in 2013, he spent one season as an assistant coach under Tim Miles at the University of Nebraska. While with the Huskers, Johnson assisted in all-day-to-day basketball-related duties while also serving as recruiting coordinator.

Johnson spent 2008-12 as an assistant coach at Northern Iowa. The Panthers went a combined 93-77 in that time frame, winning at least 20 games in all four years. Northern Iowa reached postseason play in all four years and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2009-10. That year, UNI won a school-record 30 games and upset top-seeded Kansas in the second round. During his tenure at UNI, the Panthers boasted three first-team All-MVC selections, including 2010 Missouri Valley Conference MVP Adam Koch in 2010.

Prior to his stay at Northern Iowa, Johnson served as an assistant coach for two seasons at the University of Texas-Pan American. Johnson's coaching career began at the University of Dayton, where he served as a graduate assistant during the 2005-06 season.

Johnson started his collegiate playing career at Northwestern and played two seasons before returning to the Twin Cities to finish his career. He finished with 533 points in 59 games in Maroon and Gold and scored a total of 1,202 career points between the two Big Ten Conference institutions.

The Minneapolis native enjoyed a standout prep career, leading DeLaSalle High School to a pair of state championships. He was a two-time first-team all-state selection in both football and basketball, and as a senior, was named a Street & Smith All-American, as well as an honorable mention Nike All-American.

He was listed as the 60th-best basketball player in the country by Bob Gibbons in his senior season, totaling more than 2,200 points during his high school career. Johnson also was listed on Tom Lemming's High School Football All-American list as a top-20 national recruit and was a two-time all-state performer on the gridiron.
