Softball Set to Compete in LSU Invitational

HATTIESBURG, Miss.-Southern Miss Softball (3-7, 0-0 Sun Belt) heads to Baton Rouge, La. this weekend for the LSU Invitational, starting Friday with a 1 p.m. match versus Nicholls, followed by a 6 p.m. contest at the No. 5 LSU Tigers.

After a weekend trip to Ruston, La., where the Golden Eagles faced a nationally-ranked Arkansas team, and the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs, Southern Miss returned home to secure a 5-4 victory over Jackson State Wednesday evening

To The Top Tidbits

- Head Coach Natalie Poole reached a milestone 600th career win in the victory, as the Golden Eagles powered ahead 5-0 through the first four innings and survived a late comeback by the Lady Tigers.
- "Reaching 600 [wins] means so much," Poole said. "It means I have been lucky enough to be given the opportunity to continue to coach this great sport. It means I have been blessed to work alongside some amazing coaches and student-athletes. It means perseverance, determination, drive, resiliency, and passion. I am so thankful to God and feel blessed."
- In her first career start, junior Madison Moak produced two hits vs. JSU, including a pivotal 3 RBI triple. Moak also singled on a bunt and also stole second.
- Along with Moak's triple, Carrie Green also recorded her first career triple against Jackson State, marking the first time the Golden Eagles have hit two triples in a game since doing so last season against Belmont on Feb. 24, 2024.
- Freshman outfielder Hannah Christian leads the Golden Eagles with eight hits through her first ten games. Christian also leads the team with four stolen bases, stealing two last week in the team's match at Louisiana Tech.

PREVIEW

Scouting the Competition

- Nicholls is led by first-year head coach Ron Frost. After serving as an assistant coach with the Colonels for three years, he was promoted to head coach following the 2024 season.
- Nicholls enters the weekend 5-6, off of a doubleheader sweep against Alcorn State at home. The Colonels produced 24 hits for a combined 27 runs in those two wins.
- Riley Rutherford, a Preseason All-Southland First Team selection, leads Nicholls with 13 hits this season, while Ally Mooneyham and Claire Sisco have each recorded 12 hits.
- Averi Paden leads the Colonels with a 3.75 ERA through 18.2 innings pitched, giving up 30 hits and 10 earned runs with 13 strikeouts.
- Nicholls leads the all-time series 44-18, with the Golden Eagles taking the last meeting 5-3 in Hattiesburg on April 3, 2024, last season.
- LSU is led by head coach Beth Torina, who is in her 14th season at the helm of the program. Torina, the program's all-time wins leader, has led the Tigers to four trips to the Women's College World Series. The Tigers have made 18 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.
- LSU has started with a 10-0 record for the third straight season and is ranked in the top five of the USA Softball poll for the first time since March 19, 2024.
- Danieca Coffey leads the Tigers with 15 hits and 11 runs, maintaining a .536 average and 1.203 OPS through ten games. LSU has hit six home runs, with Tori Edwards and Maci Bergeron recording three apiece.
- Jayden Heavener has earned the SEC Freshman of the Week award for two consecutive weeks. Heavener ranks eighth in the SEC with 30 strikeouts, including a season-high of 12 against Northwestern. Sydney Berzon leads the Tigers with 24 innings pitched in four complete games, maintaining a 1.17 ERA allowing 18 hits and just four earned runs with 25 strikeouts.
- LSU leads the all-time series 25-5, winning the last six meetings. The Golden Eagles last won against LSU on March 16, 2011, at the Southern Miss Softball Complex. The last time Southern Miss won against LSU on the road was May 21, 2000, in a 1-0 shutout.
- Penn State is led by fifth-year head coach Clarisa Crowell, who led the program to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2011 last season.
- Penn State enters the weekend 3-7 after participating in the NFCA Leadoff Classic and The Fonseca Memorial Tournament at USF.
- Brooke Klosowicz leads Penn State with 12 hits, seven runs and nine RBI, maintaining a .429 batting average.
- The Nittany Lions' bullpen has maintained a 3.50 ERA, led by Mady Volpe's 1.84 ERA through 26.2 innings pitched in eight appearances.

2024 HIGHLIGHTS

- The Golden Eagles picked up series wins at home against Marshall, a sweep of Georgia State and a win at home versus No. 24 Texas State, which was the program's first victory against a nationally ranked opponent since beating No. 4 Florida on March 2, 2022.
- Two Golden Eagles earned all-conference honors last season, including re-turner Jana Lee's Second Team All-Sun Belt selection and former graduate student catcher Hannah Borden's First Team All-Sun Belt and Third Team NFCA South Region Team selections. The one-two duo accounted for 100 hits on the season, including 24 doubles and 23 home runs for a combined 77 RBI.
- Hannah Borden started all 50 games in her final season as the Golden Eagles' catcher, leading the team in nearly every offensive category; she recorded the team's 12th 60-hit season in program history, posted a conference-best .775 slugging percentage, and sailed into the record books with a single-season record and conference-leading 18 home runs, which also helped shatter Southern Miss' all-time home run record with 50 career homers. Borden also finished her career at Southern second in all-time hits (208), RBI (150) and walks (107).
- Lee looks to build on a career-high season in 2024, in which she recorded 39 hits, the third most on the team, in only 40 games, batting at .320 with a .566 slugging percentage. Lee's season total of 15 home runs ranked fourth in the Sun Belt and the Albany, Ga. native also appeared in 26 games in the circle, leading the team's pitching staff with nine wins and 40 strike-outs in 95 innings pitched, earning six wins in conference play. She became the first Southern Miss player to earn the Sun Belt's Player of the Week honor in the second week of conference play, producing eight hits with four consecutive multi-hit performances.
- The Golden Eagles finished the 2024 home slate with a 10-6 record, marking the third consecutive season that the team has recorded a .500 or better standing at the Southern Miss Softball Complex, the longest streak since 2008-2010.

HEAD COACH NATALIE POOLE

Poole enters her third season as the head coach of Southern Miss Softball, having guided the Golden Eagles to back-to-back conference tournament appearances for the first time since the 2012 and 2013 seasons.

During the 2024 season, Poole oversaw Southern Miss' first conference series win at home in the Sun Belt and its first conference series sweep. The Golden Eagles also secured its first victory against a nationally ranked opponent since 2022 with a win at home against No. 24 Texas State.

With a 10-6 home record, Poole led the team to its third consecutive season with a .500 or better standing at the Southern Miss Softball Complex, the longest streak since 2008-2010.

Poole mentored two All-Sun Belt players in 2024, including Jana Lee's Second Team selection and Hannah Borden's First Team selection. Borden sailed into the program's record books with a single-season record and conference-leading 18 home runs, shattering Southern Miss' all-time home run record with 50 career homers.

In her debut campaign, Poole led the Golden Eagles to a 22-24 finish and their first conference postseason appearance since 2019.

Poole came to Southern Miss after spending the last 11 years as the head coach at Memphis. She served as the second head coach in that program's history.

During her tenure at Memphis, Poole mentored 11 all-conference selections, including three first-team picks, to go along with Kyler Trosclair Klatt, who earned the American Athletic Conference Rookie of the Year in 2015.

Trosclair Klatt set plenty of records, including career hits (249), career stolen bases (78), and career runs scored (138). Trosclair Klatt was a two-time All-Conference performer, earning First-Team in 2017 and Second-Team in 2018.

The program also produced two All-Freshman selections over the final two years of Conference USA, before having two make AAC All-Rookie team accolades during their tenure in that league.

In addition to success on the field, Poole's importance on academics helped push one of its student-athletes to CoSIDA First Team Academic All-District honors and later enjoyed a program-record 15 NFCA All-America Scholar-Athlete selections in 2021. In all, the Tigers produced 82 NFCA All-America Scholar-Athletes during Poole's years at Memphis.

During her time at Memphis, Poole was selected as the NCAA Division I representative for the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Board of Directors and also currently serves on the NCAA Softball Selection Committee.

Poole went to Memphis after spending three seasons leading the helm at McNeese State. She guided the Cowgirls to three-straight 30-win seasons, including a school-record 38 wins in 2010. Poole led McNeese State to two Southland Conference (SLC) Tournament championship games, winning the tournament title in 2010 and advancing to the NCAA Regional Tournament.

Poole compiled a 100-84 overall record and went 55-35 in conference play during the three years.

Poole was named the Southland Conference Coach of the Year in her first season at McNeese State in 2009 after leading the Cowgirls to a second-place finish in the league. The team finished the year with a 31-28 record, marking the Cowgirls' first winning season in 11 years.

In her three years at McNeese State, 20 players earned All-Southland Conference honors. In 2011, outfielder Claire Terracina became the first Cowgirl since 2008 selected to the All-SLC first team. In addition, Alanna DiVittorio was named the Louisiana Sports Writers Association co-Freshman of the Year in 2011.

Poole led McNeese State to a 31-29 record in 2011 and a third-place finish at the Southland Conference Tournament. Seven players were named to both the All-SLC and All-Louisiana teams.

Poole led McNeese State to a 31-29 record in 2011 and a third-place finish at the Southland Conference Tournament. Seven players were named to both the All-SLC and All-Louisiana teams.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Poole served as the head coach for seven seasons at Georgia Southern, where she compiled a 212-215 career record. The Eagles went 71-53 in the Southern Conference under Poole's tutelage and earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2006. She was named the SoCon Coach of the Year in 2002, her first year as a head coach.

During her time at Georgia Southern, the Eagles had just one losing conference season and finished outside the top-four only once. The program set more than 15 single-season records, and four of the top six all-time home run seasons came in Poole's tenure.

She coached the 2006 and 2008 SoCon Players of the Year and three SoCon Freshmen of the Year. During her time with Georgia Southern, 17 players earned All-SoCon honors, including a school-record eight in 2008. In 2006, Poole led Georgia Southern to the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance after winning the SoCon Tournament with six-straight victories. The SoCon title was just the second in school history.

The Eagles nearly repeated as SoCon champions in 2007, falling in the conference tournament championship game.

Poole began her collegiate coaching career at McNeese State. She joined the Cowgirls staff as a graduate assistant in 1998 and served as an assistant coach from 1999-2001.

As a college athlete, Poole was a standout catcher for McNeese State from 1994-97. She was a three-time All-Southland Conference pick (1995-97) and a two-time All-South Region selection (1996-97). Poole also earned All-Louisiana honors in 1996. As a freshman, she helped the Cowgirls to a Southland Conference title and the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance. Poole was named McNeese State's Most Valuable Player her senior year and concluded her playing career with a .296 batting average.

In the classroom, Poole was a three-time CoSIDA Academic All-District VI selection (1995-97) and was a 1997 Academic All-American. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in painting from McNeese State in 1998 and earned her master's degree in instructional technology from the school in 2000. In 2017, Poole earned her Doctorate in Education in Higher Ed Administration. A native of Baton Rouge, La., Poole has one daughter, Isabella Grace.
