LAST TIME OUT

- Despite a level opening frame and an early score from forward Kai Phillip, Penn State men's soccer dropped a 4-1 decision to No. 5 Indiana on Friday night at Jeffrey Field in University Park, Pennsylvania.
- In the contest, Penn State goalkeeper Jonathan Evans made five stops.
- Penn State drops to 2-4-1 with the loss, while Indiana improves to 6-1-1.
- The Nittany Lions got right to work on Friday night, scoring in just the eighth minute of action. A long ball cleared by midfielder Caden Grabfelder from just outside of the PSU 18-yard box shot all the way to a streaking Phillip. The Trinidad and Tobago native kept stride with the last Indiana defender, using his body to shield the ball long enough to get a touch around him and one more touch past the keeper before burying the ball in the open net.
- Indiana answered in the 14th minute, scoring off a header on a corner kick service to tie things up.
- The half concluded with a combined six more shots between the two foes, but none found the score sheet as Penn State entered halftime tied with the nation's No. 5-ranked team.
- Graduate student Ben Liscum played savior in the 49th minute, booting away a loose ball that found its way to the Penn State goal line.
- Indiana finally broke the draw in the 58th minute after a turnover in the Nittany Lion's defensive end led to a quick counter by the Hoosiers. Indiana punished the PSU defense with the tally to take a lead it never gave back.
- Indiana tacked on another score off a Penn State turnover in its own half just three minutes later to build its lead to two. The visiting team tagged on one last goal in the 85th minute as Palmer Ault completed his hat trick and capped off a 4-1 road win for the Hoosiers.
- Evans's five stops mark the second-most single-game saves he has made in his career.
- Penn State drops to 8-3-2 all time in Mack Brady matches.

KICKOFF

Penn State men's soccer looks to return to the Big Ten Tournament this year after a falter in the 2024 season, and earn an NCAA Tournament bid for the first time since the 2021 season.

The Blue and White dropped back-to-back contests for the first time in 2025, most recently dropping a 4-1 decision to Indiana on Jeffrey Field.

SCOUTING THE TERRAPINS

Under the leadership of 33-year head coach Sasho Cirovski, Maryland has a 443-178-73 record.

The Terrapins hold a 5-0-1 record so far this season, with the only blemish coming in a 2-2 tie to Bucknell in the team's home opener.

Since the draw, Maryland has been on a tear, winning four straight and outscoring opponents 15-2 in that same stretch.

Maryland was voted to finish second in the Big Ten Preseason Poll.

The Terrapins rank first in Division I in points per game (10.17) and assists per game (4.17).

Goalkeeper Laurin Mack is the Big Ten's leader in save percentage (83.3) and saves per game (3.33). Nittany Lion netminder Jonathan Evans ranks second in conference in saves per game, averaging 3.20 saves per game.

Last season, Maryland finished third in the Big Ten and made post-season appearances in the Big Ten Tournament and NCAA Tournament.

STORY OF THE SERIES

This game marks the 55th meeting all-time between the two schools, and Maryland holds a 25-21-8 record against the Nittany Lions.

In the last five contests between the two foes, Penn State owns a 2-0-3 record.

A pair of evenly matched foes, the Terrapins and Nittany Lions have a perfect 20-20 scoreline across the last ten meetings.

O CANADA

After appearing in the first three games of the season, Nittany Lion freshman Ben Nash received a call up from the Canadian u18 National Team. The defender missed a pair of home matches while over in Finland with the national squad.

The rookie trained with the team from August 30 through September 8. In the stretch, he appeared in a pair of friendlies, first facing Finland on September 5 and then Switzerland on September 7.

Nash was one of just two athletes called up from an NCAA Division I roster.

He made a start for the national squad in the match against Switzerland.

BIG THINGS

Malick Daouda, Caden Grabfelder, and Kai Phillip were each named Big Ten Players to Watch in the preseason.

Daouda returns to the pitch this year after an All-Big Ten Freshman campaign in 2024.

Grabfelder is the Nittany Lions top returning scorer and is expected to have a big season on the score sheet.

Phillip comes to Happy Valley after three seasons with the University of Evansville, where the forward totaled 15 goals, including five game-winners and five assists. He guided his team to a 2024 NCAA Tournament appearance after winning the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament and was selected as the tournament MVP. In 2023, he was honored by the United Soccer Coaches with All-Region honors.

WHAT WE GOT BACK

Penn State returns 75% of its goal scoring from last year, including two of its top three scorers in junior Caden Grabfelder and senior Matthew Hederson.

The Blue & White also welcomes back 73% of its overall scoring, with returning assist leader Christian Dionne tallying four in the last campaign.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

Graduate Student Ben Liscum and senior Matthew Henderson will repeat as the 2025 team captains. The pair is joined by junior Freddie Bell, who will serve his first stint as captain.

UP NEXT

Penn State hosts Robert Morris on Tuesday, September 30th as the team wraps up a three-game homestand.

The game between the Nittany Lions and the Colonials is set to kickoff at 7 p.m. at Jeffrey Field.

The action will be shown live on the BIG+.
