THE RUNDOWN

- Senior Mya Perry erupted for 31 points in her Bearcat debut, but Cincinnati fell 88-85 to Lehigh in its season opener Tuesday night inside Fifth Third Arena.
- Perry tied her career high on 11-of-17 shooting, including 6-of-8 from three-point range. Her 31 points were the most by a Bearcat since Ilmar'l Thomas scored 51 on Feb. 24, 2021. It was just the fifth time this century a Bearcat scored 30-plus points while hitting at least six threes.
- Perry's scoring performance leads the Big 12 and ranks seventh nationally among games played through Nov. 5.
- Junior Reagan Jackson added 21 points, her third career 20-point game. She connected on four three-pointers and went a career-best 7-of-8 from the free throw line.
- Perry and Jackson became the first Bearcat duo to each score 20 or more points and make four threes in the same game since March 2, 2020, when Antoinette Miller and Sam Rodgers accomplished the feat against East Carolina.
- Cincinnati posted its best three-point shooting performance since 2023, finishing 55% (11-20 3FG) from beyond the arc. The percentage ranks third nationally this week.
- Caliyah DeVillasee, Kylie Torrence, Joya Crawford and Mary Carden also made their Cincinnati debuts in the opener. Six Bearcats played more than 20 minutes, four of them newcomers.
- DeVillasee finished with 14 points and five assists in her first collegiate game, the highest-scoring debut by a Cincinnati freshman since Ilmar'l Thomas' 19-point performance at ETSU in 2017.
- Cincinnati's freshman class is ranked No. 15 nationally by ESPN, the highest in program history and third in the Big 12. The class features two top-100 players: Dee Alexander (No. 11) and Caliayah DeVillasee (No. 62).
- The Bearcats will face a challenging non-conference slate, playing four teams that reached the NCAA Tournament or WBIT last season and three others that played in the WNIT.
- Big 12 women's basketball head coaches voted Dee Alexander the conference's Preseason Freshman of the Year. The five-star guard is Cincinnati's first Big 12 individual preseason award honoree. She was recently named to the USBWA's preseason watch list for the Tamika Catchings Award, presented annually to the national freshman of the year.
- Cincinnati is coming off its first winning season in five years. The Bearcats posted their best non-conference record (.800) since 2005-06 and their most conference wins (7) since 2019-20.
- Friday's game will be the first meeting between the Bearcats and the Nittany Lions. Cincinnati is looking for its first win over a Big Ten opponent since March 24, 2019, when they took down Minnesota 72-65 in the second round of the WNIT.
- Cincinnati took a foreign tour in August, spending seven days in Rome and winning both games against international competition. The NCAA granted the team 10 additional practices as part of the trip.

She also led nearby Purcell Marian to four consecutive state championships.
- She is the first Bearcat signee to be named a McDonald's All-American and is the highest-ranked recruit in program history.
- Alexander appeared in several national all-star showcases as a senior, including the McDonald's All-American Games, Nike Hoop Summit and Jordan Brand Classic.

WATCH LIST ALERT

In the 2020-21 season the award was named for Tamika Catchings, the legendary Tennessee star who was a three-time USBWA All-American and the association's national freshman player of the year in the 1997-98 season.

REAGAN READY TO LEAD

- Junior guard Reagan Jackson returns as a two-year starter and the only Bearcat to start and play in every game last season. She is one of the most experienced players on a roster that features eight newcomers, including six freshmen.
- On the court, Jackson has led Cincinnati in three-pointers made in each of the last two seasons, including a career-best 46 in 2024-25.
- Off the court, she is the oldest of four, with one brother, Tanson, and two sisters, Kenzie and Tinley.
- Jackson comes from a basketball family with both of her parents playing at Texas Wesleyan. She was coached in high school by her mother Rhonda.

- DeVillasee, a four-star recruit, was ranked No. 1 in Maryland by Prep Hoops and No. 62 nationally by ESPN.
- The 5-foot-7 guard concluded her career at Our Lady of Good Counsel with more than 1,000 points. She earned WCAC First Team and Washington Post All-Met Third Team honors and was nominated for Maryland Gatorade Player of the Year.
- She participated in the Ballislife All-American Game in May in Long Beach, Calif.

DES IS BACK

- After missing last season while recovering from injury, Destiny Thomas returns to the Bearcats' lineup.
- The 6-foot-4 center started two seasons ago for Cincinnati, averaging 4.8 points and 3.9 rebounds per game while shooting 52% from the field.
- Thomas joined the Bearcats alongside the current staff from Memphis, where she earned AAC All-Freshman Team honors after averaging 4.7 points and 5.8 rebounds in 19.3 minutes per game.
- After playing with just one available center for most of last season, the Bearcats now feature significantly more depth in the post. Thomas anchors a frontcourt that also includes Alliance Ndiba, Delaney Snyder and Mary Carden.

COMPLETING THE CLASS

- Torrence was the No. 3-ranked player out of North Carolina and averaged 20 points and nine rebounds in high school.

DOUBLE-DOUBLES

BACK TO HER ROOTS

- Senior transfer Mya Perry returned home to Ohio to finish her college career with the Bearcats.
- From right outside of Columbus, Perry graduated from Reynoldsburg Summit High School as the program's all-time leading scorer and all-time leader in three-pointers made.
- The 5-foot-11 guard joins Cincinnati after an impressive season at Florida Atlantic. She led the Owls in scoring with 15.5 points per game, ranking among the top five in the conference, and hit a team-best 76 three-pointers — the third-most in a single season in FAU history.
- She has nine games of 20-or-more points and has made 142 three-pointers in her career. She enters the season with 763 career points.
- Perry began her collegiate career at Ohio State, where she helped the Buckeyes reach their first Elite Eight appearance in 30 years.

SWISS ARMY KNIFE

- Freshman Kali Barrett has quickly earned praise from head coach Katrina Merriweather for her versatility. She is expected to play position one through four for the Bearcats.
- Merriweather highlighted her versatility at Big 12 Media Days, saying, "I just love Kali's ability to play everywhere and you're going to see her on the floor more like a glue player. Just going to play her whenever to get her in the game."
- The No. 4-ranked player out of Florida, Barrett graduated as Cardinal Mooney High School's all-time leading scorer. She led Cardinal Mooney to its first-ever Class 3A State Championship and posted a state-leading 24 double-doubles as a senior.
- Barrett's path to Cincinnati is as unique as her game. A military child, she was born in Germany, grew up in Box Elder, South Dakota, and moved to Florida in 2019. She committed to Cincinnati before ever stepping foot on campus.

TENNESSEE TWO STEP

- Freshmen shooting guards Joya Crawford and Paige Whitted both call Tennessee home, separated by just 90 miles. The duo shared the floor in the Basketball Coaches Association of Tennessee All-Star Game.
- Crawford eclipsed 2,000 career points at Dyersburg High School and was a finalist for Tennessee Miss Basketball. She led her team to the 2024 TSSAA Class AAA State Championship, earning State Tournament MVP honors.
- Whitted, a Memphis native from Briarcrest Christian Academy, earned All-State recognition during her standout prep career.

WHEN IN ROME

- The Bearcats enjoyed a once-in-a-lifetime experience this past August with a foreign tour to Rome, Italy, marking the program's first international trip under head coach Katrina Merriweather.
- Cincinnati played two games during its stay in Rome, gaining valuable on-court experience and team chemistry ahead of the 2025-26 season.
- The team visited some of the city's most iconic landmarks, including the Colosseum, Vatican, Trevi Fountain and Pantheon. They also took part in a cooking class, learning to make authentic Italian pizza, and capped off the trip with a boat tour of the Amalfi Coast.
- Under NCAA rules, programs are permitted to take an international tour once every four years. The 2025 foreign tour also allowed Cincinnati 10 additional practices prior to departure.

INJURY BUG BITES BEARCATS

- The Bearcats will be without Big 12 Preseason Freshman of the Year Dee Alexander to start the season. She has been ruled out indefinitely with an ankle injury, announced by the program on Oct. 26. Her status will be updated in the coming weeks.

BA-DA-BA-BA-BA, WE'RE LOVING IT!

- Dee Alexander made history as the first Cincinnati women's basketball signee to earn a spot in the prestigious 2025 McDonald's All-American Games.
- Cincinnati stood out as one of just seven schools with both a girls' and boys' McDonald's All-American selection in 2025, thanks to Alexander and men's basketball freshman Shon Abaev.

LAYING THE FOUNDATION

- In just her second season at Cincinnati, Merriweather continued the program's upward trajectory, guiding the Bearcats to their first winning season in five years.
- UC posted its best non-conference winning percentage (.800, 8-2) since 2005-06 and secured its most conference wins (7) since 2019-20.

- Jillian Hayes cemented her legacy as the first player in program history to earn All-Big 12 honors, landing on the All-Big 12 Third Team in 2024-25.

ON THE SIDELINES

- Head coach Katrina Merriweather announced staff promotions and additions ahead of the 2025-26 season.
- Ashley Barlow, Abby Jump and Kabrina Merriweather each were elevated to associate coaches. They will continue to oversee their secondary responsibilities.
- Abby Owings was promoted to director of scouting and analytics/assistant coach while Michal Miller moved into the role of director of player development/assistant coach. Layah Neal was elevated to sport program associate entering her second season with the Bearcats.
- In July 2025, Symone Denham was named Cincinnati's assistant general manager, the first position of its kind. Denham played for Merriweather at Wright State from 2012-16.
- Former Bearcat standout Ana Owens joined Cincinnati's staff as director of operations in October. She played for UC from 2014 to 2018 and ranks in the top 10 in career games played, minutes played, 3-pointers made, free throw percentage and assists.

SISTERHOOD STARTS WITH STAFF

- Prior to returning to Cincinnati, Katrina Merriweather was the head coach for Memphis where a familiar coaching staff started to take shape. Katrina Merriweather hired her younger sister Kabrina to help lead the Tigers to a 38-23 record and a postseason appearance in the WNIT Sweet 16 in 2023.
- Prior to Memphis, Kabrina worked as the Director of Operations for New Mexico Lobos where she made the jump to assistant coach in the 2021-22 season. She was also a forward for Florida A&M and Georgia Southwestern State from 2011-15.

- Both Merriweathers have been on the sidelines together since 2021, and have continued that sisterhood bond in Clifton.

THE SISTERHOOD

- Cincinnati is one of only seven programs in the Power Four, and the only program in the Big 12, with an all-female coaching staff.
- Every year, Merriweather has had a former player on staff. At least one from every head coaching stop.
- Merriweather has had a staff member selected to the WBCA Thirty Under 30 List for eight straight years. Owings earned her second honor in 2025.

LAST TIME OUT

CINCINNATI – Senior Mya Perry erupted for 31 points in her Bearcat debut, but the University of Cincinnati women's basketball team fell 88-85 to Lehigh in its season opener Tuesday night inside Fifth Third Arena.

The game featured 15 lead changes and five ties as the Bearcats fought back from an early double-digit deficit. UC had a look at the basket with one second left, but the shot was off the mark.

Perry tied her career high behind an efficient 11-of-17 shooting performance, including 6-of-8 from beyond the arc. Junior Reagan Jackson added 21 points, her third career 20-point game. She connected on four three-pointers and went 7-of-8 from the charity stripe. Perry and Jackson combined for 52 of the Bearcats' 85 points.

Caliyah DeVillasee, Kylie Torrence, Joya Crawford and Mary Carden also made their Cincinnati debuts. DeVillasee chipped in 14 points and five assists, while Torrence grabbed six boards to go along with six points.

Cincinnati shot 46% from the floor and made 11 3-pointers (.555). It marked the Bearcats' best three-point shooting percentage since shooting 50% at Tulane on Feb. 4, 2023.

The Mountain Hawks used a 10-0 run to jump out to a 24-11 advantage in the first quarter. The Bearcats answered with seven straight points, capped by a Crawford buzzer-beating layup, to close within 24-18. Six three-pointers in the second quarter helped Cincinnati trim the deficit to three at halftime, 48-45.

Cincinnati went ahead early in the third quarter behind back-to-back buckets from Perry and Jackson, but Lehigh responded with consecutive threes to regain the lead. The Bearcats held a slim 72-71 advantage entering the final frame.

Perry's late three-point play tied the game at 83-all with under two minutes to play, and a DeVillasee jumper moments later gave Cincinnati an 85-83 edge. Lehigh, however, evened the score again and converted three free throws in the final minute to seal the win.

HEAD COACH KATRINA MERRIWEATHER

Director of Athletics John Cunningham announced the hire of former Bearcats' captain Katrina Merriweather as the 10th women's basketball head coach at the University of Cincinnati on March 25, 2023.

Merriweather quickly has become a rising star in the coaching profession, taking three programs to the postseason a total of six times, including a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. She has totaled 180 wins in nine seasons as bench boss.

In just her second season at Cincinnati, Merriweather continued the program's upward trajectory, guiding the Bearcats to their first winning season since 2019-20 and surpassing the previous year's win total. UC posted its best non-conference winning percentage (.800, 8-2) since 2005-06 and secured its most conference wins (7) since 2019-20. The Bearcats also led the Big 12 and ranked among the nation's top five in made free throws per game.

Forward Jillian Hayes cemented her legacy as the first player in program history to earn All-Big 12 honors, landing on the All-Big 12 Third Team in 2024-25 after earning Honorable Mention recognition the previous season.

Merriweather's impact was immediate, successfully navigating Cincinnati's transition from the American Athletic Conference to the Big 12 in her first season at the helm. The Bearcats saw a five-win improvement, posted their best non-conference winning percentage (.72.7%) in 15 years, and strung together a six-game win streak—their longest since 2019-20. That season also featured UC's first victory over an SEC opponent since 2004.

Merriweather once again proved her ability to build postseason contenders, leading Cincinnati to the 2024 WNIT—marking the program's 14th postseason appearance and first since 2019.

A four-year letterwinner for the Bearcats' Hall of Fame head coach Laurie Pirtle from 1997-01, Merriweather became the program's first women's basketball player to advance to four consecutive postseason tournaments. Additionally, she helped lead the program to its first-ever NCAA Tournament win as a graduate assistant coach in 2001-02.

Merriweather and USA Basketball earned a silver medal podium finish at the 2023 FIBA Women's AmeriCup in León, Mexico. She was elevated to her first bench coach assignment for the event after previously serving as a court coach for the 2021 USA Women's U19 National Team Trails.

Merriweather led Memphis to a 22-11 season in 2022-23, the program's first 20-win season in more than a decade, and an appearance in the 2023 WNIT Sweet 16.

Merriweather took over a four-win Memphis team and immediately produced 16 wins in 2021-22 before the 22-win campaign this season in which the Tigers clinched the two seed in the 2022 AAC Championships, the program's highest-ever AAC regular season finish, and advanced to a postseason tournament for the first time since 2015-16.

In her two seasons at the helm, the Tigers compiled a 38-23 record and earned three All-Conference selections.

The search was led by Maggie McKinley, Deputy Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator, who worked with Cunningham to bring Merriweather back home.

Prior to her tenure at Memphis, Merriweather spent five seasons as the head coach at Wright State, where she took the Raiders to two NCAA Tournaments and was named Horizon League Coach of the Year three times. Merriweather led Wright State to the program's third appearance and first NCAA Tournament win with an upset over four-seed Arkansas in 2021.

In 2018-19, she guided the Raiders to a school-record 27 wins and its first-ever outright Horizon League regular season championship, securing the conference tournament title and reaching the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history.

While at the helm, Merriweather led the Raiders to a 113-47 (.706) record, finishing with the best winning percentage in program history. She was a part of all three of the program's Horizon League tournament titles and NCAA Tournament appearances, twice as a head coach in 2019 and 2021 and once as an assistant in 2014. The Raiders also earned 16 All-Conference selections in her tenure.

Merriweather was an assistant under Mike Bradbury for six seasons at Wright State from 2010-16 before becoming head coach.

Prior to Wright State, she was an assistant at Purdue from 2003-06, and at UIC for the 2002-03 season.

With the Bearcats, Merriweather made 27 career starts, including 22 in her senior season, and played in 107 games. She helped lead the program to an 83-41 record in her four seasons.

"I'm beyond proud for Katrina," said Pirtle, who won 310 games over 21 seasons at Cincinnati. "She was a tremendous player in terms of how she handled herself, but most importantly she was a coach and leader on and off the floor. She constantly pulled our team together. This hire should come as no surprise. I speak for all of the UC basketball family when I say we are extremely proud of her and excited to see her come back to lead this program."

The Indianapolis native graduated from Cincinnati in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in English literature and earned a second bachelor in secondary education in 2002.
