OPENING DRAW

LAST TIME OUT

- Penn State used a 10-1 first half whalloping to cruise to a 17-9 victory over UMass.
- Rocquette Allen had her collegiate coming out party against UMass. The freshman attacker had five goals, an assist and a caused turnover for the Nittany Lions.
- Erika Ho had a career game on Wednesday. The senior secured career-highs with four assists and seven points against UMass.
- Sydney Manning had a great day in the cage by notching double-digit saves for the 10th time in her career.
- Kelly MacKinney secured a hat trick, the first of her career, and a pair of assists for five points on the afternoon.
- Lauren Tinson, Lilly Spilker and Susannah O'Connell all secured two ground balls and caused two turnovers apiece.

TEWAARTON WATCH

- The Tewaarton Foundation announced on Tuesday afternoon that Ho, the captain, was named to the Women's Watch List for the 2026 Tewaarton Award Presented by Stifel.
- The women's list includes the top players in college lacrosse and highlights the early contenders for the 2026 Tewaarton Award.
- This is the first time Ho has been included on the list.
- More additions to the list will be made on March 5 and March 26 with the field narrowing to 25 women's nominees on April 16.

AFTER TWO GAMES

- Delaney Radin's six assists were a single-game high for the first week of the 2026 campaign and the second-highest single-game total after Penn State's first two games.
- Penn State's week one victory over the Richmond Spiders looks even better after the Spiders took down the then-No. 12 Virginia Cavaliers (2/1)

SQUASHING THE SPIDERS

- The Nittany Lions grinded out a gritty, 10-9 win over the Richmond Spiders
- Payton Wainman led the team with a career-high four goals while Radin dished out a game-high and career-high six assists
- In their debuts, Allen scored a pair of goals while O'Connell caused a pair of turnovers
- Anna Salerno, in her Nittany Lion debut, Emma Kelly, in the closing seconds of the first half, Ho, with seven draw controls, and MacKinney, along with two assts, all notched a goal for Penn State
- Four Nittany Lions (Kelly, Allen, Wainman and Manning) picked up multiple ground balls with eight grabbing them throughout the day with eight players picking up at least one in total
- Manning started in the cage with seven saves at a rate of 43.8%
- The win was Kayla Treanor's first as the Penn State head coach and her 60th in her career.
- The Nittany Lions outshot the Spiders, 24-19, and outshot Richmond on goal, 17-12. The Blue and White also grabbed more ground balls, 15-13, and had less turnovers, 11-15, while clearing at a higher percentage, .947-.909, in the win.

RUNNING NOTES

THE TREANOR ERA

- On May 21st, Treanor was named the 10th coach in Penn State Women's Lacrosse history.
- As the head coach at Syracuse, Treanor compiled a 59-24 record and guided the Orange to four NCAA Tournament appearances, including back-to-back National Semifinal bids in 2023 and 2024. Under her watch, Syracuse played the No. 1 strength of schedule in the country in 2024 and 2025. Among the many accolades received by Syracuse student-athletes under Treanor, Meghan Tyrell was a two-time Tewaaraton Award finalist in 2022 and 2023.
- Treanor brought in Abby Rehfuess as her associate head coach after a year-long stint as the offensive coordinator at Colgate where she also helmed the draw unit.
- Under her leadership, the Raiders were one of the best teams in the conference at taking care of the ball. The team turned the ball over less than 14 per game, a mark that ranked 23rd nationally. Her offensive unit saw five student-athletes with 30 or more points, including two who eclipsed the 50-point mark. She has worked with Treanor before as the offensive coordinator of the Orange in 2024.
- Treanor also brought in Amy Moreau and Kerrigan Miller as assistant coaches and Jay Dyer as the assistant director of athletic performance. Katie Haus continues her stint as director of operations under Treanor.

PRESEASON AWARDS

- Penn State women's lacrosse had three players named to the Big Ten Players to Watch list: Ho, Manning and Allen.
- Leading up to the 2026 campaign, the Nittany Lions were selected 24th in the IIWLCA Preseason Poll, 23rd in the KANE Women's D1 Media Poll, recieved votes for USA Lacrosse Magazine's Preseason Poll and was selected fifth in the Big Ten Preseason Poll
- Ho, Tinson, MacKinney and Basciano were all named captains for the 52nd version of Penn State Women's Lacrosse

RELOADING FOR 2026

- Penn State returns a good amount of the program's offensive production for 2026
- Ho, the team leader in goals (46), points (56) and draw controls (112) last season, returns for her senior season and MacKinney, the team leader in assists (37) in 2025, returns for her junior season
- Manning, the primary goalie from the 2025 campaign returns for her junior season in the cage. Last season, the former Big Ten Freshman of the Year tallied 110 saves in 12 starts on 355 shots faced for a save percentage of 43.7% while allowing an average of 11.36 goals per game.
- Treanor also went into the transfer portal for two key additions: Basciano (Syrcause) and Salerno (Mt. Saint Mary's)
- Salerno leads the team in career goals (110) and points (121) with 54 ground balls and causing 29 turnovers for a true midfield threat.
- There are also a number of freshman looking to make impacts early on. Allen, the 2025 Colorado Player of the Year, O'Connell, the New Jersey Defender of the Year, and Lizzie Anné and Sarah Anné, who both competed in the Adrenaline Lacrosse Senior All-American Game

 3x Tewaaraton Finalist
 3x IWLCOA Attacker of the Year

Kayla Treanor was named the 10th head coach in Penn State's women's lacrosse history in May 2025. Treanor, a highly decorated player at Syracuse, comes to Happy Valley after serving as the head coach at Syracuse for the last four years.

"We are thrilled to welcome Kayla Treanor to our Penn State family as our women's lacrosse head coach," said Kraft. "Her unparalleled experience as both a player and coach make her the perfect leader for our program. I know Kayla will elevate our program to new heights after seeing firsthand her passion for developing student-athletes, championship mindset and commitment to excellence."

As the head coach at Syracuse, Treanor compiled a 59-24 record and guided the Orange to four NCAA Tournament appearances, including back-to-back National Semifinal bids in 2023 and 2024. Treanor and the Orange played the No. 1 strength of schedule in the country in 2024 and 2025. Among the many accolades received by Syracuse student-athletes under Treanor, Meghan Tyrell was a two-time Tewaaraton Award finalist in 2022 and 2023.

This year, Syracuse advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and had a trio of US Lacrosse Magazine All-Americans. Under Treanor's guidance, Emma Ward became SU's all-time assists leader. In September 2024, Treanor was selected to be an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's Senior National Team for the 2026 World Lacrosse Women's Championship in Japan.

In 2024, the Orange won their second-straight ACC regular-season title and advanced to the National Semifinals before falling to eventual National Champion Boston College. Syracuse finished with a 16-6 record after holding opponents to less than 10 goals in 11 games. She mentored four IWLCOA All-Americans, including first-teamers Katie Goodale and Emma Tyrell. Tyrell became just the ninth Division I player to record 400 career points and finished her career ranked sixth on the NCAA all-time point list. In addition, Kate Mashewske set the NCAA single-season record for draw controls with 234.

Treanor's 2023 squad won its first 15 games of the season for the best start and longest winning streak in program history. Syracuse finished the season with 18 wins, the fourth-most wins in program history. The Orange occupied the No. 1 spot in the Inside Lacrosse/IWLCOA poll for five consecutive weeks and earned a share of the ACC regular-season title with an 8-1 record. In her first year at the helm, Treanor helped the Orange defeat eight ranked teams. Syracuse advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals and finished with a 15-6 record.

Prior to returning to lead her alma mater, Treanor spent four years at perennial contender Boston College, serving as associate head coach in 2020 and 2021 and assistant coach in 2018 and 2019. In her four years at BC, the Eagles advanced to the championship game three times (2020 season was cancelled due to COVID) and won a national championship in 2021. Under her tutelage, Sam Apuzzo and Charlotte North won the Tewaaraton Award for the most outstanding American college lacrosse player. Treanor also spent one year as an assistant coach at Harvard in 2017.

As a player, Treanor led Syracuse to four consecutive Championship Weekend appearances from 2013-16, including a spot in the 2014 National Championship game. She is the only player in program history to earn IWLCOA first-team All-America honors each of her four seasons. She was also a three-time finalist for the Tewaaraton Award and earned IWLCOA Attacker of the Year three consecutive years. Treanor was the ACC Offensive Player of the Year in 2014, 2015 and 2016. She left Syracuse as the Orange's all-time scoring leader.

Treanor also found success as a player with Team USA. She helped the U.S. win gold at the 2017 and 2022 World Championships and was selected to the All-World Team both years. Treanor retired after the 2022 championships as U.S. Lacrosse's all-time leader in points (77) and goals (44). Treanor also played professionally from 2017-21.
