OPENING DRAW

600

- Penn State joined Maryland and Loyola University Maryland to become the third team in collegiate women's lacrosse history to secure 600 wins in program history. The 9-0 start by the Nittany Lions this season is the best start to a women's lacrosse season since 1989 when Penn State started out 12-0. Head Coach Kayla Treanor's undefeated start to the season is the best by any Penn State women's lacrosse first year head coach since the 1986 season when Head Coach Susan Delaney-Scheetz started out 10-0.
- So far this season, the Nittany Lions have earned four Big Ten weekly awards and had a player on the initial Tewaaraton Watch List.

THE ASSIST QUEENS

- Delaney Radin and Kelly MacKinney have been on a tear to start the pair's junior campaigns. Through seven games, the duo has combined for 53 assists and 85 points, the most assists by any pairing in the country and one of the highest point totals, along with 32 goals.
- In her electric start to the 2026 season, Radin has already set new career-highs for most goals, assists, points, shots, shots on goal, free position shots and free position goals that she's had in a single-season. Her 31 assists on the year have more than doubled her previous combined total in 16 less games and has nearly doubled her combined point total with 45 points this season. As of March 12th, the New Yorker has the most assists in the Big Ten, the second-most in Division I. Radin has the most points by any Big Ten player, tied for fifth-most points in the NCAA.
- For her efforts against Colgate and San Diego State, Radin earned her first Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week honor, her first collegiate accolade.
- MacKinney has followed closely behind the Florida transfer and had a more balanced approach to her success this season with 45% of her 40 points, the second-most by any Nittany Lion, coming from goals and set a new single-season high in goals for herself. Even though she's been able to cash in more than in years past, MacKinney still remains a passing threat and sees the field extremely well. Her 22 assists are top-15 nationally, and the third-most in the Big Ten.

THE FRESHMAN PHENOM

- The Big Ten Conference office announced on March 10th that Rocquette Allen earned her third consecutive Big Ten Freshman of the Week honor.
- Allen is the first three consecutive week winner of the award since Tewaaraton Finalist Madison Taylor. The freshman was also the first back-to-back recipient of the Big Ten Freshman of the Week Award since Northwestern's Madison Smith during the 2024 season.
- Allen's consecutive honors was the first time Penn State had earned Big Ten weekly honors in consecutive weeks since April of 2024 when MacKinney was selected as Big Ten Freshman of the Week after Manning secured the award and Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week prior.
- Allen was the first Penn State women's lacrosse player this season to earn a Big Ten Weekly Award and the first freshman to earn the award since Brooke Long was selected in April of last year.
- In the two games against then-No. 20 Pitt and Drexel, with the primary defender on her, she totaled three goals, four assists and seven points. Allen scored twice against No. 20 Pitt, including the golden goal. Against Drexel, she dished out a game and career-high three assists and netted a goal to help snap a two-game losing streak against the Dragons.

NOTES

- Her hat trick proved to be the difference to keep the Nittany Lions undefeated in Penn State's second ranked victory of the year over No. 25 Cornell, 11-9. At the time, freshman's three goal effort was only the second time this year that the top-five scoring defense of the Big Red have given up three goals to a single player. Allen also dished out an assist, caused a turnover that led to the first Penn State goal of the day and picked up a ground ball in the win over Cornell.
- The reigning freshman of the week drew the toughest defensive assignments in both games against San Diego State and Colgate and faced constant slides towards her. Despite that, Allen was still able to score a pair of goals in each game, shooting an efficient 80% between her two showings and still leads the Nittany Lions' offense in goals scored. Along with her spectacular shooting, the Colorado native also picked by two ground balls in both games, the fifth and sixth time she's done so this season and caused a turnover that led to a Penn State goal against Colgate.
- The Mountain Vista product is currently second on the Nittany Lions with 23 goals on the year, the fifth-most in the Big Ten this year and the most by Power Four conference freshman. Her 32 points are most by any freshman in the Big Ten, the seventh-best by any Big Ten player.

CALIFORNIA ADVENTURE

- Penn State began its California trip with a win over San Diego State, 18-6, and the Nittany Lions offense had one of the team's most balanced attacks all season.
- Allen, Maddie Greco, Erika Ho, Radin and Payton Wainman all had two goals, and 13 different Penn State players recorded a goal. Graduate transfer Anna Salerno had a game-high four points, her second consecutive effort with four points, off a goal and a career-high three assists. Radin and Ho both contributed an assist to aid in the scoring effort and to push the pairing's points to three and Minka Martinez added an assist as well.
- Emma Kelly, along with a goal, added 12 draw controls more than doubling the Aztecs' total in the circle and securing the second-highest draw control total this season for the Nittany Lions.
- The nine caused turnovers by the Nittany Lion defense is the most since the team's game against Drexel earlier this year with seven different players responsible led by Maggie Driver and Susannah O'Connell with a pair each. Allen, Lilly Spilker and Sydney Manning each picked up two ground balls each while, in the cage, Penn State recorded the team's sixth game with a save rate of 50% or higher split between Manning and Arden Jansen.
- Penn State had a dominating performance in its Big Ten opener over the University of Southern California, 19-8.
- The offense was led by the trio of Radin, MacKinney and Wainman.
- Radin, the reigning Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week, netted her first career hat trick while dishing out five assists to tie for a game-high eight points. MacKinney was able to match Radin's point total off four assists and tied a game-high four goals alongside Wainman. Ho and Allen were both able to add three points. The senior, Ho, having two goals and an assists and Allen, in her first taste of Big Ten competition, netted a goal and a pair of assists. Six other Nittany Lions scored a goal and 12 of Penn State's 19 goals came off an assist.

- Defensively, the Blue and White were led by seniors Lauren Tinson and Driver.
- Tinson tied her career-highs with three ground balls and two caused turnovers, each the most that she's ever had in Big Ten play. Driver tied her career-highs in caused turnovers with three and draw controls by winning a pair while also picking up a trio of ground balls. The 12 turnovers caused by the Penn State defense is the second-most recorded by the Nittany Lions this season. In the cage, Manning registered eight saves and collected a 50% save rate for the fifth time this season while scooping up a pair of ground balls.
- Kelly and the Penn State draw unit had another great game in the circle. Kelly's eight draw controls won were a game-high and the 18 secured as a team is the third-highest mark by the Blue and White this season.

PENN'S STATE

- In the three regular season games against Pennsylvania opponents (Bucknell, Pitt and Drexel), the Nittany Lions showed that they own the Keystone State
- The Nittany Lion defense allowed, on average, only seven points in each contest while winning by a margin of nearly nine goals on average. The offense tallied 49 total goals against Pennsylvanian competition for above 16 goals per game.

WRANGLING THE RAIDERS

- Penn State secured its seventh win of the season with a 20-8 victory over Colgate.
- Radin led the offensive effort with an astounding nine points and tied the program record with eight assists, a record originally set by Marsha Florio against Princeton in 1985. Her eight assists tied the NCAA single-game-high this season with Allison Reilly of Army West Point and now has the two-highest single-game assist totals in the Big Ten this season alongside her Richmond game. Her nine points tied Madison Taylor and Emma Bradbury for the highest single-game points total in the Big Ten this season and tied for the 11th-highest single-game total in the NCAA.
- MacKinney followed up with an eight-point effort of her own with four goals, both the highest of her career, and four assists. Her effort was tied for the fourth-highest point total of the season by any Big Ten player alongside Madison Taylor, Jenna Soto and Ava Angello.
- Wainman and Salerno both netted four goals and reigning Big Ten Freshman of the Week, Allen, had a pair of goals.

OUTLASTING CORNELL

- Penn State secured its second ranked victory of the season with a 11-9 victory over NR/25 Cornell.
- Allen led the team with her third career hat trick while Radin had a game-high five points, one shy of her career-high, off four assists and a goal. Wainman added a pair of scores and MacKinney dished out two assists and netted a goal. In her return, Ho scored from the eight-meter.

- Spilker had four ground balls and a pair of caused turnovers and Manning had her 11th double-digit save effort of her career and posted a 52.6% save rate.

DRAGON SLAYERS

- Penn State dominated Drexel to the tune of 16-3 to give the Nittany Lions' the team's first 5-0 start since the 2017 season.
- The Nittany Lions shut out the Dragons in the first half of play, the first time that Penn State has done so against any opponent since playing Ohio State in 2023. The win also broke a two-game losing streak that the Blue and White had against Drexel. The defense dominated the game, not allowing a single shot in the first quarter and only allowing three goals, the least allowed since the game against the Buckeyes in 2023.
- Driver and Callin Hetrick led the defensive effort with a trio of ground balls each, while Driver, O'Connell and Julia Basciano each caused a pair of turnovers. Tinson, one of the four team captains, and O'Connell also each contributed a pair of ground balls a piece. Manning was perfect in the cage, saving four and securing the first half shutout.
- Jansen recorded a trio of saves during her time in the second half.
- The Penn State offense exploded out to a 13-0 lead midway into the third quarter. The 13-straight goals is the largest run by Penn State this year.
- Wainman led the way for the offense, scoring five goals, tied for the most goals scored by any Penn State player so far this year, and securing an assist. Radin netted a pair of goals and a pair of assists with freshman Lizzie Anné scoring her first two collegiate goals in the win alongside Salerno. Kelly, Ellie Wisch, Greco, MacKinney and Allen all added a goal as well in the win.

Kayla Treanor was named the 10th head coach in Penn State's women's lacrosse history in May 2025. Treanor, a highly decorated player at Syracuse, comes to Happy Valley after serving as the head coach at Syracuse for the last four years.

"We are thrilled to welcome Kayla Treanor to our Penn State family as our women's lacrosse head coach," said Kraft. "Her unparalleled experience as both a player and coach make her the perfect leader for our program. I know Kayla will elevate our program to new heights after seeing firsthand her passion for developing student-athletes, championship mindset and commitment to excellence."

As the head coach at Syracuse, Treanor compiled a 59-24 record and guided the Orange to four NCAA Tournament appearances, including back-to-back National Semifinal bids in 2023 and 2024. Treanor and the Orange played the No. 1 strength of schedule in the country in 2024 and 2025. Among the many accolades received by Syracuse student-athletes under Treanor, Meghan Tyrell was a two-time Tewaaraton Award finalist in 2022 and 2023.

This year, Syracuse advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and had a trio of US Lacrosse Magazine All-Americans. Under Treanor's guidance, Emma Ward became SU's all-time assists leader. In September 2024, Treanor was selected to be an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's Senior National Team for the 2026 World Lacrosse Women's Championship in Japan.

In 2024, the Orange won their second-straight ACC regular-season title and advanced to the National Semifinals before falling to eventual National Champion Boston College. Syracuse finished with a 16-6 record after holding opponents to less than 10 goals in 11 games. She mentored four IWLCOA All-Americans, including first-teamers Katie Goodale and Emma Tyrell. Tyrell became just the ninth Division I player to record 400 career points and finished her career ranked sixth on the NCAA all-time point list. In addition, Kate Mashewski set the NCAA single-season record for draw controls with 234.

Treanor's 2023 squad won its first 15 games of the season for the best start and longest winning streak in program history. Syracuse finished the season with 18 wins, the fourth-most wins in program history. The Orange occupied the No. 1 spot in the Inside Lacrosse/IWLCOA poll for five consecutive weeks and earned a share of the ACC regular-season title with an 8-1 record. In her first year at the helm, Treanor helped the Orange defeat eight ranked teams. Syracuse advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals and finished with a 15-6 record.

Prior to returning to lead her alma mater, Treanor spent four years at perennial contender Boston College, serving as associate head coach in 2020 and 2021 and assistant coach in 2018 and 2019. In her four years at BC, the Eagles advanced to the championship game three times (2020 season was cancelled due to COVID) and won a national championship in 2021. Under her tutelage, Sam Apuzzo and Charlotte North won the Tewaaraton Award for the most outstanding American college lacrosse player. Treanor also spent one year as an assistant coach at Harvard in 2017.

As a player, Treanor led Syracuse to four consecutive Championship Weekend appearances from 2013-16, including a spot in the 2014 National Championship game. She is the only player in program history to earn IWLCOA first-team All-America honors each of her four seasons. She was also a three-time finalist for the Tewaaraton Award and earned IWLCOA Attacker of the Year three consecutive years. Treanor was the ACC Offensive Player of the Year in 2014, 2015 and 2016. She left Syracuse as the Orange's all-time scoring leader.

Treanor also found success as a player with Team USA. She helped the U.S. win gold at the 2017 and 2022 World Championships and was selected to the All-World Team both years. Treanor retired after the 2022 championships as U.S. Lacrosse's all-time leader in points (77) and goals (44). Treanor also played professionally from 2017-21.
