LAST TIME OUT

- Penn State men's soccer dropped a tightly contested 2-1 match against in-state rival Pittsburgh on Friday night, pushing the Nittany Lions below .500 for the first time in the Rob Dow era.
- PSU dropped to 1-2 in the 2026 campaign, while Pitt improved to 2-1 overall. Senior forward Amadou Kone was responsible for the goal after cleaning up the initial shot from freshman midfielder Peter Doran.
- As the Jeffery Field bleachers filled up and a cool breeze blew through the pitch, the first whistle turned on the lights and the legs of the Nittany Lions and the Panthers. Pittsburgh immediately took possession of the ball. As the first 20 minutes of the game was a constant back-and-forth it was a slow start from both sides.
- Morgan Marshall gave the Blue & White fans hope with the first shot of the match, but it wasn't enough to get into the back of the net.
- The last 15 minutes of the first half the pitch started to come alive. In the 32nd minute a foul initially missed in Penn State's box by Sheridan McNish caused the Panthers to challenge for a possible penalty. As the foul was awarded to Pitt, the former Nittany Lion Caden Grabfelder took matters into his own hands and silenced Jeffery Field with a low right penalty kick.
- In the 34th minute Pitt put the first tally on the scoreboard, leading 1-0.
- Penn State fired up with momentum as Grant McIntosh got the second shot on goal for the Nittany Lions. Peter Doran took matters into his own hands with a shot that was deflected by a Panthers' back, but that didn't stop a crashing Amadou Kone from tapping the ball over the keeper's head, leveling the match at one apiece.
- As the first half closed, the Panthers returned to dominating possession, but the Nittany Lions created six chances with three of those shots being on target.
- As the second half commenced Penn State continued its drive, being awarded the first corner of the half. The service was true from Grant McIntosh, but ball was not able to reach the back of the net.
- The Panthers' gained control of the ball as Anders Bordoy was able to get away with a fortunate left shot from the outside of the 18-yard box, scoring in the 54th minute, breaking the stalemate to go up 2-1.
- Possession only grew for the Panthers, but the Nittany Lion defense created a forcefield as Pitt was unable to make any shots on goal.
- Kone was given the first yellow card of the match in the 63rd minute. With a couple of collisions in the middle of the pitch another yellow card was awarded, this time it was to the Panthers' Miguel Bertran in the 72nd minute.
- In the 73rd minute, Nittany Lions challenged for a possible penalty on a corner kick, but were denied a PK.
- Pitt's captain, Logan Oliver, was the third booked player of the match with a yellow card in the 76th minute. Grabfelder caused a foul and was ultimately awarded a yellow, the stadium came alive as Penn State was given a free kick.
- In the 80th minute, the Nittany Lions went down to ten men on the field after losing another Penn Stater to injury and exhausting all available traditional subs. After playing down a man for almost seven minutes, reserve goalkeeper Justin Ross saw the field for the first time in his college career, but it wasn't in the box. Ross was added to the pitch as a center defensive midfielder to help PSU back to 11 personnel.
- Noah Forster was booked in the 87th minute before Joe Sheridan attempted a last-minute goal. His shot from beyond the 18 was off-target, culminating in the second loss of the season, first on home turf.

KICKOFF

- The Nittany Lions are looking to get back in the win columnn on Friday night at 7 p.m. in their matchup against the Yale Bulldogs.
- Penn State started its season off strong with a comeback win against Mercyhurst, but following a loss at Missouri State and a 2-1 defeat at the hands of Pittsburgh last Friday, the overall record stands at 1-2.

SCOUTING THE BULLDOGS

- The Bulldogs are heading into their 12th season under head coach Kylie Stannard, coming off a 3-9-3 record in the 2025 season.
- Stannard is accompanied by Sean Kelly, Tyler Sheikh, and Michael Mordocco, who will each be entering their first season as assistant coaches for the Bulldogs.
- Yale was selected to finish seventh in the Ivy League's preseason poll.
- Yale begins the 2026 season with a 1-1-0 record, including a 2-0 win over Army, earning them their first road victory since Sept. 24, 2024.

STORY OF THE SERIES

- This is only the second meeting between Penn State and Yale, with Penn State leading the series 2-0.
- Penn State and Yale have not faced off in the modern era.
- While the Nittany Lions may be unfamiliar with the Bulldogs, head coach Rob Dow knows the team from New Haven quite well, regualrly scheduling preseason and spring games against them.
- Dow faced off against Yale twice while at Vermont, once in the 2018 and once in 2017. He won both contests, both as shutouts, by a combined 4-0 effort.

B1G THINGS

- The Nittany Lions had three student-athletes tabbed as Big Ten Players to Watch, the conference offices announced Tuesday afternoon.
- The group includes Daniel Peluffo-Wiese, Noah Förster, and Joe Buckley.
- Through three games, Förster made his impact immediate, dishing an assist on Penn State's first goal under Coach Dow and earning his first career start in game two.
- Peluffo-Weise has totaled six saves in two contests.

RELOADED

- Penn State has had some major shake-ups in the offseason, from a new staff to virtually an entire roster overhaul.
- The Nittany Lions had to replace 14,018 minutes following the spring season, a whopping 83.3 percent of the minutes played last season.
- The minutes total was the sixth-most lost minutes in all of Division I men's soccer, and the percentage was the fourth-most lost nationally.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

- Graduate Student Grant McIntosh and sophomore Joe Sheridan will serve as the captainship for Penn State in the 2026 season.
- Sheridan was one of three PSU returners from last year's squad, while McIntosh brings four years of college soccer experience to Happy Valley from Duquesne and Akron.

NUMBERS TO NOTE

- Through three matches, Penn State ranks 24th nationally and first in the Big Ten in Shot Accuracy, getting 55.6 percent of its shots on goal.
- Kone is ranked seventh in the Big Ten for Points Per Game, averaging 1.67.
- Peluffo-Wiese is currently ranked fifth in the Big Ten for minutes played, having played all 90 minutes of all three games Penn State has played in the 2026 season.
