

The Letterman's Emergency Assistance Program (LEAP) is designed to provide one-time emergency assistance for any Football Letterman (meaning such individual has earned a Varsity Letter in football at Penn State) who finds himself in a situation of great financial need.

LEAP funds are interest-free short-term loans for qualified lettermen. Under extraordinary circumstances the officers, together with the counsel of the Finance Committee, may choose to award a grant which need not be repaid.

Second, or subsequent, awards may be made to the same individual under extraordinary circumstances. As LEAP awards are for emergency assistance and not for ongoing expenditures.

Award Amounts LEAP awards may be made in any amount up to $2500 as determined by the Officers and Executive Board on the recommendation of the Finance Committee.

Application Process

Individuals may apply, in confidence, to the Executive Director of the FLC for a LEAP award. A member who is aware of a brother in need, may apply on their behalf. Application is to be made using the form available on the FLC website.

Applications will be held in strictest confidence wherein only the Finance Committee and Executive Board will be aware of potential LEAP awardees.

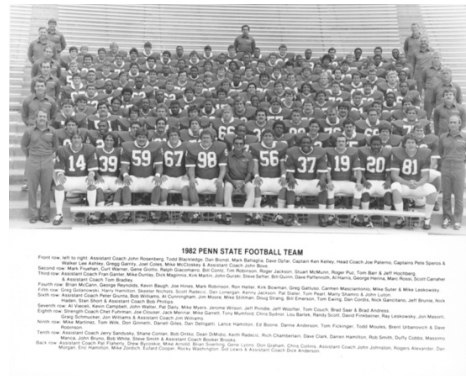

Award Criteria:

Subject to the availability of funds, multiple individuals may receive LEAP awards.

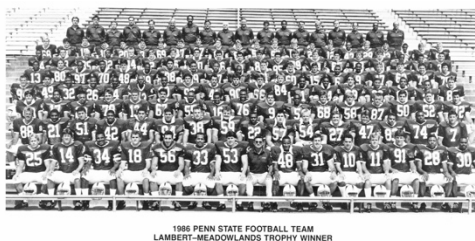

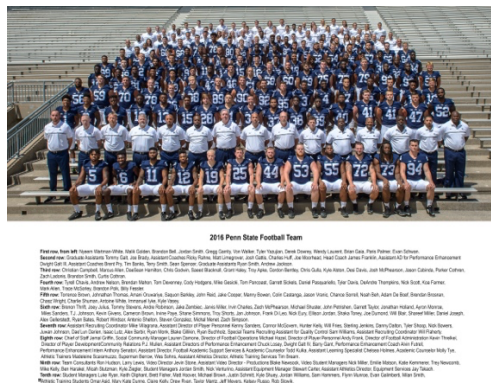

As a wide variety of situations might give rise for emergency needs, individual eligibility and award amount, if any, shall be determined on a case-by-case basis. The Officers and Finance Committee will keep minutes of any deliberations of each application. To ensure confidentiality the names of individuals being considered for LEAP awards will not be included in the minutes.

The Letterman's Club is made up of individuals who have earned a Varsity Letter in football at Penn State or have been elected as honorary members in recognition of their significant contributions to the advancement of Penn State football.

Letterman's
Emergency
Assistance
Program
(LEAP)

The Penn State Football
Penn State Football
Letterman's Club