NOTES

THE TALE OF TWO OPPONENTS

- Penn State will face its first Big Ten road test against the Rutgers Scarlet Knights.
- The Scarlet Knights are led on offense by their trio of double-digit point scorers in Olivia Fraticelli, Laura Loycke and Talia Schenck. Fraticelli leads Rutgers with eight goals on the year while Schenck has a team-high six assists. In the cage, Emily Nicholls has played every minute of the season with 44 saves and a 71% save rate.
- Meredith Civico leads the Scarlet Knights along with assistant coaches Ajai Dhadwal and Joey Civico.
- The Blue & White will cap off the weekend with its Senior Day versus the Lafayette Leopards with Senior Day festivities happening postgame. Penn State will be honoring Natalie Freeman, Madison Britton, Camryn Standish, Elise DeWan, Sienna Dunn and Emmy McCulley as well as three senior managers.
- The Leopards' offense is led the pair of Lena Thedrian and Katie Gibb. Thedrian leads Lafayette with six goals while Gibb holds the team-high in assists with seven. In total, 12 Leopards have notched a point during 2026. In the cage, Addison Kahn has started every game and has only allowed seven goals with 28 saves.
- Lafayette field hockey is helmed by head coach Jennifer Stone along with assistant coaches Meghan Reese and Madison Skeie.

BUCKING THE BISON

- Penn State ended its three-game skid with a decisive victory over the Bucknell Bison, 3-0.
- Ella Gaitan led the offensive effort with a pair of goals, matching her season and career-high that she set against Delaware earlier this season. Her four points led all players while also being the primary shot taker for the Nittany Lions. Freeman scored her third goal of the season. Dunn secured her conference and nation-leading ninth assist of the year.
- The Penn State defense was phenomenal throughout, only allowing four shots, three in the second half, and five penalty corners, all of which came in the second half. Aby Deverka came away from the game with a clean sheet.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

- Deverka was named both the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week and the NFHCA National Defensive Player of the Week thanks to her efforts against Villanova and Delaware.
- Deverka is the first Penn State field hockey player this season to earn a Big Ten weekly award and is her third Big Ten weekly honor after earning two Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors in 2024. She is the first Penn State player to earn a Big Ten weekly accolade since Phia Gladieux was named in Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week in late September of 2024. Deverka is the first Nittany Lion to earn Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week distinctions since Anouk Knuvers did so in October of 2023.
- Derverka was the first Penn State player to earn a NFHCA weekly accolade since Gladieux was named NFHCA Offensive Player of the Week in late October of 2023. Deverka is the first Nittany Lion ever to earn the NFHCA Defensive Player of the Week distinction.
- The junior goalkeeper has had an extremely effective start to her 2026 campaign. In her four games in the cage, Deverka has registered a pair of clean sheets while registering a Big Ten-leading 19 saves. Against the Wildcats, she secured a clean sheet with four saves on four shots on goal against Villanova while facing three penalty corners. While facing the Delaware, Deverka recorded a season-high nine saves against 10 shots on goal against the Blue Hens with five penalty corners headed in her direction.

EVERYBODY LOVE PENN STATE FIELD HOCKEY

- After six games at home, Penn State is still the nation's leader in total attendance at the Penn State Field Hockey Complex.
- In the first weekend of competition, 1,214 people spent their afternoons watching Penn State Field Hockey with the opening game against Virginia bringing in 792 souls, the biggest crowd at the Penn State Field Hockey Complex since October 22, 2023 when the Nittany Lions defeated the Iowa Hawkeyes in the team's regular season finale.
- During the second slate of games, the Nittany Lions welcomed an additional 718 fans to the confines of the Penn State Field Hockey Complex. In the third weekend, against a nationally ranked Princeton team, Penn State fans once again showed out with 642 attendees at the Penn State Field Hockey Complex.
- The Penn State Field Hockey Complex has hosted 2,996 fans through the first half of games this season, the best mark in the nation, with an average of 499 per game, the third-best nationally. When looking solely at the Big Ten, Penn State is approximately 50% higher than Maryland for the next closest accumulative attendance and has a 50% higher average attendance than the Terrapins.

THE PRINCE ERA

- On January 13, 2026, Penn State Field Hockey ushered in a new era with the hiring of Prince as head coach. Prince came to Happy Valley after an extremely successful four-year run at the helm of the St. Joseph's Hawks where she compiled a 64-24 record, four consecutive A-10 titles, secured the NFHCA Mid-Atlantic Region Coaching Staff of the Year accolade and was highlighted by a NCAA Runner Up finish in 2024.
- Prince was also a successful player at UMass earning A-10 All-Rookie Team and All-Conference First Team recognition as well as NFHCA First Team All-Region honors. Prince, as a member of the United States Field Hockey National Team, won a gold medal at the 2017 Pan American Cup.
- Prince has extensive coaching experience, having started her coaching career at New Hampshire, helping lead the team to a pair of America East title games during her three seasons there (2015-17). She left New Hampshire for an initial tenure at Saint Joseph's as an assistant coach in 2017 and 2018, helping guide the team to the NCAA tournament for the first time in 2017. Prince transitioned to Princeton University in 2019 where she was part of the NFHCA Mid-Atlantic Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the Tigers.
- During her transition to Happy Valley, Prince brought along her associate head coach from the Hawks, Mark Wadsley. Along with Wadsley, Prince is joined by assistant coaches Janelle Ward, a former St. Joseph's goalie during Prince's tenure, and Ally Hammel from last season's staff and US Olympian.

NITTANY NEWCOMERS

- Penn State Field Hockey welcomed nine newcomers to its ranks for the 2026 season: Macy Adams, D'Hage, Dunn, Gaitan, Holmes, Lilah Grace Logan, Marie McCracken, Standish and Kira Takahashi-Trader.
- The newcomer class includes two transfers, six freshman and one international athlete.
- Gaitan joins the Nittany Lions after a two-year tenure at Maryland. The forward saw action in 34 games as a Terrapin, starting 31, and accumulated 14 goals and 32 points. For her efforts, Gaitan was named to the All-Big Ten Second Team and Big Ten All-Freshman Team in 2024 along with a stint on the 2024 US U21 National Team after being selected for the US U18 National Team in 2023.
- Dunn enters the year with a plethora of international experience. The Isle of Man-native was a member of England's U16, U18 and U21 teams and was a 2025 England U21 team captain at the Junior World Cup. Dunn was a bronze medalist with Team England and a two-time BUCS gold medalist with the University of Nottingham.
- Standish comes to Happy Valley after four years at Ohio State. While with the Buckeyes, the Pennsylvania-native compiled 28 start with 43 total appearances and tallied seven points. Standish was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team during her redshirt freshman season and is a two-time Academic Big Ten and NFHCA National Academic Squad honoree with three appearances as an Ohio State Scholar Athlete.

Penn State Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Dr. Patrick Kraft announced the selection of Hannah Prince as head coach for the Penn State Nittany Lion field hockey team on January 13, 2026.

Prince, a 2014 UMass graduate, comes to Penn State after a highly successful run as head coach at Saint Joseph's where she led the Hawks to four-straight NCAA Tournaments, a 2024 National Championship game appearance and Atlantic 10 Conference dominance

Prince arrived as head coach of Saint Joseph's in 2022 and led the Hawks to their second-straight sweep of Atlantic 10 regular and postseason titles. Saint Joseph's went on to make history that year, securing its first-ever NCAA tournament victory with a 3-1 victory over Wake Forest. The Hawks ended the season ranked No. 7 in the NFHCA Coaches Poll, the highest end-of-season ranking in school history at the time. The next year, Saint Joseph's duplicated the Atlantic 10 title sweep and earned the program's sixth NCAA tournament appearance.

In 2024, Prince led Saint Joseph's to historic heights, guiding the Hawks all the way to the NCAA championship game for the first time in school history, marking the first time in school history that any Saint Joseph's sports team competed for a national title. Along the way, Saint Joseph's set school records for wins (20), won a fourth-straight Atlantic 10 tournament title, achieved its highest national ranking (No. 3), hosted its first-ever NCAA tournament games and reached the program's first-ever Final Four. Prince and her staff were named NFHCA Mid-Atlantic Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

Prince guided the Hawks to yet another Atlantic 10 tournament title in 2025, as the Hawks took down top-seeded Richmond on the road to clinch their fifth-straight A-10 championship. Saint Joseph's made its fourth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance in as many years under Prince.

Prince's success in mentoring and developing true student-athletes extends beyond just the field. During Prince's four years as the leader at Saint Joseph's, the Hawks tallied nearly 30 National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) National All-Academic Team honors (with 2025 to be announced) and multiple CSC Academic All-District selections.

Prior to her debut as St. Joseph's head coach in 2022, Prince served as associate head coach at Louisville, where she helped lead the Cardinals to a pair of NCAA tournament appearances. Louisville reached the NCAA Final Four in the spring of 2021 after the NCAA moved the field hockey season to the spring due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Prince has extensive coaching experience, having started her coaching career at New Hampshire, helping lead the team to a pair of America East title games during her three seasons there (2015-17). She left New Hampshire for an initial tenure at Saint Joseph's as an assistant coach in 2017 and 2018, helping guide the team to the NCAA tournament for the first time in 2017. Prince transitioned to Princeton University in 2019 where she was part of the NFHCA Mid-Atlantic Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the Tigers.

Prince owns a stellar 64-24 overall record as a head coach through four seasons, all at Saint Joseph's. Prince amassed a 24-3 record in Atlantic 10 games and had 15-or-more wins in three of her four years as head coach for the Hawks.

A 2014 graduate of UMass, Prince was a four-year starter, team captain, and three-time Atlantic 10 champion, helping lead the Minutewomen to the NCAA quarterfinals in 2013. She competed at the national and international levels with the U.S. Women's Outdoor National Team before serving as captain of the Indoor National Team for six years, leading Team USA to gold at the 2017 Pan American Cup and competing in the 2018 Indoor World Cup in Berlin, Germany. A native of Gorham, Maine, Prince earned her USA Field Hockey Level 3 Coaching Certification in 2023, the highest accreditation currently offered by the organization. She is a graduate of the N sCAA Women's Coaches Academy (2018), holds a master's degree in Sport Administration from the University of Louisville, serves as an assistant coach for the U16 Junior National Team, and is the founder and director of Prince Elite Field Hockey.
