- Kulpa currently sits inside the top six of the Big Ten rankings for goals (5), shots on goal (18) and shots per match (3.20). Through five B1G matches, she ties for second with three goals, tied for third with 17 shots and third in shots on goal at nine.

HOLLA FOR KALAL

- Paige Kalal is tied with Aubrey Kulpa for the team lead with three assists. She is second on the squad in points (nine), goals (three) and shots (18) while tying with Paige Pasinski for second on the team with nine shots on goal.
- Kalal had her best performance as a Nittany Lion in the team's 2-0 victory at Maryland. The senior forward contributed to both goals as she sent a long-distance shot from beyond the box to open the scoring in the first half before assisting Paige Pasinski's goal in the second half.
- The Brooklyn Park, Minnesota native stood out early for the Nittany Lions. The Minnesota transfer scored the first goal of the season for Penn State in the eventual 2-2 draw against then-No. 2 Notre Dame. She tallied assists in the following two contests against West Virginia in Bucknell to make it three consecutive matches with a goal contribution to begin her tenure for the Blue & White.

THE B1G TIME

- Penn State enters the fourth weekend of Big Ten play with ten points, tied with Northwestern, Washington and Wisconsin and two behind the top spot.
- The Nittany Lion defense has been stout to open league competition, allowing just two goals in five contests, including three clean sheets. The Blue & White held USC without a shot. It was the first time PSU held a B1G opponent without a shot since October 20, 2000 against Ohio State.
- PSU played its first home match of conference action against Minnesota on September 13. With a 1-0 victory over the Golden Gophers, PSU improved to 30-2-1 in Big Ten home openers.
- Penn State is the most storied program in the history of Big Ten women's soccer. The Nittany Lions' 20 regular season championships and nine Big Ten Tournament titles are more than any other program in the conference. The 2015 Penn State squad is the only team in conference history to win a national title.

300 WINS, 20 YEARS IN THE MAKING

- With a 5-0 victory over Bucknell on August 27, Penn State women's soccer head coach Erica Dambach continued to cement her status as one of the all-time great coaches in the history of Penn State Athletics and collegiate women's soccer with her 300th victory at the helm of the Blue & White.
- Dambach's Nittany Lions have proven to be one of the most consistent and successful programs in the country since she took the helm in 2007, highlighted by winning the national title in 2015. The two-time National Coach of the Year and five-time Big Ten Coach of the Year boasts a 304-109-38 record in Happy Valley.
- Penn State has never missed the NCAA Tournament under Dambach's guidance in addition to winning at least one match at the event in 17 consecutive seasons.

UP NEXT

- Penn State will take its first trip to the Pacific Northwest for conference contests as the Nittany Lions will head to Eugene for a matchup with Oregon on Thursday, October 8 at 9 p.m. (ET). It will be just the second meeting between the two programs following a 1-1 draw at Jeffrey Field a season ago.

JEFFREY FIELD

THE HOME OF THE NITTANY LIONS

Jeffrey Field, the home of Nittany Lion soccer, was dedicated on Sept. 29, 1972. Located in the heart of the Penn State athletic facilities complex with a picturesque view of Mount Nittany, the stadium was named in honor of the late Bill Jeffrey, legendary head coach of the men's soccer program from 1926-52. Jeffrey Field has been the host site for numerous NCAA and conference contests in men's and women's soccer. Games are frequently televised from Jeffrey Field, allowing a nationwide audience to view Penn State in action. Widely regarded as one of the finest grass surfaces in the country, Jeffrey Field was honored as the 2006 Collegiate Soccer Field of the Year by the SportsTurf Managers Association.

The Penn State women's soccer program saw 16 alumnae earn placements on nine National Women's Soccer League rosters ahead of the organization's 14th competitive season in 2026. One member of Penn State's 2025 roster made her NWSL debut this season, with alumna forward Amelia White joining the Kansas City Current.

The 16 Nittany Lions participating in the highest level of professional women's soccer on Earth extends the program's longstanding tradition of professional development, with Penn State alumnae appearing on nine of the league's 16 club rosters ahead of the 2026 season. PSU saw 15 alumnae return from last year's campaign, with the lone newcomer to the Nittany Lions' NWSL corps coming in the form of White. Of Penn State's 16 professional alumnae, six are members of the defending NWSL Shield-winning Kansas City Current, with White headlining that group.

In Kansas City, White is joined by 2015 National Champion and MAC Hermann Trophy Winner Rocky Rodriguez, in addition to Elizabeth Ball, Ellie (Wheeler) Bravo-Young, Katie Scott and recent free agent addition Penelope Hocking. The Current are under the direction of former USWNT skipper and current sporting director Vlatko Andonovski, as well as head coach Chris Armas, with the Nittany Lion group looking to lead KC to its second consecutive NWSL Shield in 2026. Penn State saw a pair of alumnae appear on the Orlando Pride roster in the form of Kerry Abello and Cori Dyke, with the North Carolina Courage bosting a pair of Nittany Lions as well in Payton Linnehan and Ally Schlegel.

San Diego Wave FC welcomes the return of second-year professional and 2024 Penn State alumna Jordan Fusco to the squad, while Nittany Lion national champion Ellie Jean continues her stint with Racing Louisville FC in 2026. The Blue & White saw 2022 alumna and goalkeeper Morgan Messner earn a roster spot with Portland Thorns FC, while multi-time Olympic medalist and FIFA Women's World Cup Champion goalkeeper Alyssa Naeher returns for another season with Chicago Stars FC. The Washington Spirit welcome back Kate Wiesner in the 2026 campaign as well, fresh off her first stint with the United States Women's National Team during this year's offseason window. Kaleigh Riehl rounds out the 16 Penn State women's soccer alumnae on NWSL rosters, with Riehl continuing her stint with Utah Royals FC.

The leadership of Penn State women's soccer head coach Erica Dambach continues to produce incredible success season after season. While trophies, academic awards and international achievements line the walls as evidence of a championship program, her impact on Nittany Lion student-athletes stands as the truest testament to her teams' culture of excellence. Dambach enters her 20th season at the helm in University Park heading into the 2026 campaign, Penn State's 33rd varsity season.

The numbers that document PSU's success are staggering. A two-time National Coach of the Year and five-time Big Ten Coach of the Year, Dambach has led her teams to 19 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, 11 Big Ten regular season titles, five Big Ten Tournament titles and the 2015 NCAA National Championship. Through 23 years as a head coach and 19 seasons leading the Nittany Lions, Dambach has accumulated 339 career wins with a .699 winning percentage, one of the most dominant marks in all of college athletics.

With a 5-0 victory over Bucknell on August 27, Penn State women's soccer head coach Erica Dambach continued to cement her status as one of the all-time great coaches in the history of Penn State Athletics and collegiate women's soccer with her 300th victory at the helm of the Blue & White. In the 2023 campaign, Dambach collected her 300th career head coaching victory overall with a 2-1 result on the road against the West Virginia Mountaineers. Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics, Dr. Patrick Kraft, as well as Deputy Athletic Director Brandi Stuart presented the Dambach family with a game ball commemorating the accomplishment prior to Penn State's next home match against TCU on August 27, 2023, a 1-0 Nittany Lion win.

PSU returns to action for Dambach's 20th season at the helm fresh off a 2025 campaign that saw a 10-8-3 finish with a Big Ten Quarterfinal and NCAA Tournament Second Round bid. The Blue & White mustered the program's 31st consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, extending the second-longest active streak in women's college soccer. With the team's 3-0 win over Army in the opening round of the national postseason from Happy Valley, PSU secured its 17th consecutive NCAA First Round victory, with all 17 of those wins coming under Dambach's direction. Over the course of the 2025 season, Penn State finished second in the 18-team Big Ten in total goals (38), total assists (43) and total points (119) while ranking first in the league in assists per match with 2.05. Dambach continued her well-documented stretch of professional placement, helping steer Amelia White to her first NWSL contract, making White the 26th student-athlete in PSU history to begin her career as either a draftee or signee since the league's inception.

Dambach earned her Bachelor of Science degree with a concentration in biology from William & Mary in 1997. The Huntingdon Valley, Pennsylvania, native holds a United Soccer Coaches Advanced National Degree and a USSF "A" Coaching License.

The former Erica Walsh married Jason Dambach in January 2016, and they currently reside in State College, Pennsylvania. Erica and Jason have two daughters, Addie and Kylie.
