HOME SWEET HOME

Taking a break from competition for finals week, Seattle University men's basketball returns to the court Saturday, Dec. 10, continuing its eight-game homestand by hosting University of Great Falls. The match-up is the first of three straight back in the Connolly Complex on Seattle U's campus and will tip off at 7 p.m. The game can be heard on KTTH 770 AM (mynorthwest.com) or watched on GoSeattleU.com.

REDHAWK REPORT

- The Redhawks won their KeyArena home opener, 82-65, over Northwest University on Dec. 1. They followed with a tough 93-88 double-overtime setback to Eastern Washington on Dec. 4.
- Four Redhawks scored in double figures in the loss to EWU, including a career-high 26 by Brendan Westendorf. That marked the second time this year that the senior guard set a career-high in scoring against the Eagles. He also scored a then career-high 24 points in the season's first meeting in Cheney, Wash., on Nov. 22.
- Aaron Menzies (18p, 16r) and William Powell (19p, 10r) each tallied a double-double in the Dec. 4 meeting with EWU, marking the second time this season that the duo collected double-digit points and rebounds in the same game. It was Menzies' third of the season and the second for Powell.
- Freshman Morgan Means had a career-high 22 points to go along with eight rebounds, five assists and two steals in SU's win over Northwest University (Dec. 1).
- Redshirt sophomore Malik Montoya has seen action in the last two games after missing the first six this year. The Federal Way, Wash., native suffered a season-ending knee injury 13 games into last season. He played 14 minutes against Northwest (Dec. 1) and 20 minutes against Eastern Washington (Dec. 4).

- The Redhawks have faced a pair of teams receiving votes in the polls (at the time of the game) including Colorado (Nov. 14) – a 67-55 loss – and UCF (Nov. 26) – a 67-51 setback.
- Aaron Menzies had a monster game in the 81-75 overtime win over ULM (Nov. 21), finishing with a career-high 35 points and 11 boards. The outing was the second double-double of the redshirt sophomore's career and just his third double-digit scoring effort.
- Menzies' 35 points marked the highest scoring output by a Redhawk since Mar. 13, 2015 when Isiah Umipig poured in 30 points vs. Missouri-Kansas City.
- Brendan Westendorf was named to the 10th Annual Legends Classic Cheney Subregional All-Tournament Team after posting 14 points versus ULM and a career-high 24 against EWU. The career-high was his seventh career 20-plus point effort in one-plus seasons as a Redhawk.
- William Powell also recorded a career-high night for SU with his 22-point, 10-rebound effort against ULM. The point total was a career high. The senior also went a perfect 12-for-12 from the free-throw line in the game.
- Head Coach Cameron Dollar returns for his eighth season at the helm of the Redhawk program. The Dec. 1 win over Northwest University was his 97th at Seattle U.

ABOUT THE SERIES VS GREAT FALLS

The first-ever meeting between Seattle U and Great Falls came on Nov 25, 2015. The Redhawks claimed a 58-48 win at the ShoWare Center in Kent, Wash. Jack Crook led SU with 16 points and William Powell added 13 in the defensive battle.

RANKING THE REDHAWKS

- In games played through Nov. 28, Seattle U is 44th in the nation in free-throw percentage (75.2).
- Individually, Brendan Westendorf ranks eighth in free-throw percentage (95.8).
- The team ranks 60th in three-point attempts (221).
- Among WAC players, Westendorf is first in free-throw percentage (95.8), second in minutes played (34.6 per game) and 8th in scoring (15.4 ppg), while Aaron Menzies is fourth in rebounds (6.6 per game) and fifth in field goal percentage (.558). Morgan Means is fifth in steals with 1.6 per game.

EXTRA TIME

Following their double-overtime setback to Eastern Washington on Dec. 4, the Redhawks have now played three overtime games this season, including a pair of double OT thrillers against the Eagles. The back-to-back overtime games against Louisiana Monroe (Nov. 21) and Eastern Washington (Nov. 22) were the first extra time games since an 80-75 win over UC Davis on Dec. 28. Previous to that, the Redhawks last went to overtime Jan. 31, 2015, a 71-61 loss at CSU Bakersfield. Seattle U last needed extra time at home on Feb. 27, 2014, an 84-77 triple overtime loss to Chicago State. Before the victory over the Aggies, Seattle U had lost four straight overtime games, last winning an overtime game Feb. 11, 2012, at Longwood, 100-99. They've not had multiple overtime games in a single season since 2012-13 - 83-82 double overtime loss to New Mexico State (Jan 10, 2013) and 75-74 overtime loss to CSU Bakersfield (Mar. 6, 2013).

LAST TIME OUT

It wouldn't be a men's basketball game between Seattle University and Eastern Washington this season without an extra 10 minutes of action. But for the second time in less than two weeks, the Eagles had the final surge, handing SU a 93-88 double-overtime setback at KeyArena Dec. 4. Bogdan Bliznyuk led all players with 32 points, including 14 in the two overtime periods, as Eastern Washington (6-2) hit 8-of-10 from the field and 13-of-14 from the charity stripe in the extra 10 minutes of play. Seattle U (3-5) looked to have the Eagles' number late in the first half and into the second frame, rolling off a 16-0 run 25-2 stretch over nearly 11 minutes of play. A Brendan Westendorf jumper at the 12:25 mark of the second half gave Seattle U its largest lead of the game, 47-33. The Redhawks would lead by 14 once more, 50-36 with 10:05 to go. But the Eagles would slowly chip their way back into the game. A Jacob Wiley jumper with three minutes remaining in regulation made it a one-possession game, 56-53, in favor of the Redhawks. The teams would trade buckets down the stretch and a Morgan Means three had SU holding a 63-60 advantage with 30 ticks on the clock. But EWU's Felix Von Hofe drained a three of his own on the ensuing possession sending the teams into overtime for the second straight meeting. The Eagles scored the first four points of the first extra period, but from there the teams would trade buckets. A free throw by Means, a layup by William Powell and two free throws by Westendorf gave SU a 72-71 advantage. Bliznyuk would respond for Eastern with four straight points, but Means would answer once again with a huge three from the left corner, knotting the score at 75-75 and forcing a second extra period. The corner three was seemingly Seattle U's last gasp, however, as the Redhawks went 5-for-14 from the field in the final five minutes, including 1-of-8 from three. EWU hit 3-of-4 from the field and then turned to the charity trip to finish things off. After making just 10 trips to the line in the game's first 45 minutes, the Eagles went 13-for-14 in the final five. Brendan Westendorf led Seattle U with a career-high 26 points to go along with six assists. He was one of four Redhawks in double figures as Powell (19 points), Aaron Menzies (18 points) and Means (14 points) also reached double-digits. Powell and Menzies also each finished with double-doubles as the duo combined for 26 rebounds.

SEASON OPENERS

With their 76-65 win over Pacific Lutheran on Nov. 11, Seattle University earned its first season-opening win since the 2012-13 season. The Redhawks had dropped their last three season openers prior to Friday's victory, last winning a season's first game on Nov. 11, 2012 - an 87-72 victory over Montana State at KeyArena.

BACK ON CAMPUS

The Seattle University men's basketball team formerly called the Connolly Complex home before returning to KeyArena for the 2009-10 season. While KeyArena remains the Redhawks primary home court, the program brings six of 16 home games back on campus to the newly renovated North Court this winter. In 2014-15, the Redhawks returned to the Connolly Center for one regular-season game, defeating Northwest University on Dec. 15, 2014, 84-58. With KeyArena unavailable during the postseason, Seattle U played both home CBI games in the Connolly Complex, defeating Pepperdine (62-45) and Colorado (72-65). Seattle U has now compiled a 208-141 (.595) record in the North Court, including a 15-game winning streak that began Nov. 5, 2008 with a perfect 10-0 mark during the 2008-09 season. Also included are three wins during 2014-15, a CBI win over Idaho last March and the 2016-17 season opener against Pacific Lutheran.

PRESEASON HONORS

honors by both the league's eight head coaches and the media. The team leader in scoring with 12.8 ppg a year ago, Westendorf was selected to both the coaches and media Preseason All-WAC First Teams. The Auburn, Wash., native shot 40 percent from the field, nearly 42 percent from three and also led SU with 4.3 assists per game in 2015-16. Powell was named to the coaches and media Preseason All-WAC Second Teams after averaging 8.9 ppg and a team-high 6.8 rpg last year.

WAC PRESEASON POLLS

After going 15-17 overall and 7-7 in WAC play (good for fourth place) last season, the Redhawks were selected fourth in the Preseason Media Poll and tied for fifth in the Coaches Poll. New Mexico State was selected as the League favorite in both polls, followed by Grand Canyon and CSU Bakersfield.

CONNOLLY COMPLEX SOLD OUT

Season tickets for Seattle U's six home games scheduled to be played on campus at the Connolly Complex are sold out. Single-game tickets for the 10-game slate at KeyArena are still available, as are 10-game packs starting at $55. Call 206-398-GOSU (4678) or visit GoSeattleU.com/SUTickets for more information.

Cameron Dollar enters his eighth season as head coach at Seattle University in 2016-17. In just a short span of time, he has shown why many college basketball writers consider him one of the rising stars in the coaching industry.

In the 2015-16 season, Dollar led the Redhawks to postseason play once again, advancing to the quarterfinals of the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), which the Redhawks hosted in the newly renovated Connolly Complex. The Redhawks went 15-17 overall, and was marked by exciting plays on both defense and offense, including two buzzer-beater wins at KeyArena.

Dollar led the Redhawks on a historic postseason run in 2014-15, first advancing to the finals of the Western Athletic Conference Basketball Tournament with victories over Chicago State and Missouri-Kansas City. The Redhawks were one win away from the program's 12th NCAA Tournament appearance all-time. After accepting a berth into the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), Dollar and his players notched Seattle U's first national post-season tournament victory since 1964 with a 62-45 victory over Pepperdine (WCC), followed by a 72-65 win over the Colorado Buffs (Pac-12) to reach the CBI semifinals. In the final 12 home games of the season, the Redhawks reeled off an 11-1 record. Dollar's team produced a stifling defense at KeyArena that held opponents to an average of 57 points all home-season long. On offense, the Redhawks outscored all opponents at home by a combined 125 points, with 116 made 3-pointers.

In 2013-14, Dollar's Redhawks posted a five-game improvement from the previous season and contended with eventual WAC Tournament champion New Mexico State right down to the final buzzer in the quarterfinals of the conference tournament. Thanks to a season sweep over Cal State Fullerton as well as victories over UC Davis, Cal State Northridge, and Norfolk State, Seattle U jumped out to an 8-3 record, led by Second Team All-WAC performer Isaiah Umipig.

Though Dollar led the team through a tough first season in the WAC during the 2012-2013 season, several key returning players showed improvement under his coaching. Redshirt freshman Deshaun Sunderhaus became a consistent post defender, and redshirt junior Clarence Trent led the team in scoring. Along with the yearly battle against Washington, Dollar's former team, the Redhawks also competed against non-conference schools such as Stanford and Virginia.

Dollar took a squad of several newcomers through the 2011-12 season, competing with powerhouse programs such as Virginia and Washington. The team got rolling midway through the season, winning nine of its last 12 contests, including eight in a row at KeyArena. Thanks in part to Dollar's coaching, Aaron Broussard established himself as one of the best players in program history, finishing his career 13th on the school's all-time scoring list. Cervante Burrell improved significantly during his three seasons playing under Dollar, and Eric Wallace made an important contribution to the team's success after transferring in from DePaul for his senior season.

Seattle U picked up 11 victories during the 2010-11 season, including the team's second straight victory over Oregon State and a road victory at ACC school Virginia. The Redhawks also played a tight game at Pac-10 school Stanford and put up its best performance against Washington since starting the reclassification process in front of over 11,000 fans at KeyArena. With Dollar at the helm, Seattle U was invited to participate in the 2K Sports Classic Benefiting Coaches vs. Cancer, opening the season at the University of Maryland. The Redhawks were also chosen for the ESPN BracketBuster series of games, defeating Northern Illinois on the road.

Using an up-tempo style with aggressive defense, Dollar led Seattle U to a 17-14 record in 2009-10, making the Redhawks the first team to post a winning record playing a full Division I schedule in its first year as a Division I counter. The team started to gain national recognition after a 77-74 victory at Utah, and then made history later in the year with a 99-48 win at Oregon State, the worst home loss ever for the Beavers. Dollar and his squad also defended Elgin Baylor Court at KeyArena during its first year of existence, finishing with a 10-3 record at home, including exciting victories over Fresno State, Weber State, and UC Irvine. Seattle U won eight of its last nine games, posting last-second road wins at Portland State and at San Jose State in the process.

He served seven years as an assistant coach at the University of Washington before coming to Seattle U. As the top assistant for Lorenzo Romar at Washington, he helped the Huskies win their first Pac-10 outright regular season championship since 1953 in the 2008-09 season. Washington advanced to the semifinals of the Pac-10 Tournament and to the second round of the 2009 NCAA Tournament.

He played a major role in the spectacular 2005 and 2006 seasons that were among the finest in UW history. Dollar's contributions come both on the court, where he provides a wealth of coaching knowledge and experience, and on the recruiting trail. He helped recruit back-to-back classes that were ranked among the best in the nation.

In 2006, Dollar helped guide Washington to a 26-7 record. The Huskies made back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances for the first time ever. He was pivotal in the Huskies' run to their first Pac-10 Tournament championship in 2005 and first ever No. 1 seed into the NCAA Tournament. UW finished with a 29-6 record, tying the school record for wins in a season.

In 2004, the Huskies advanced to the championship game of the Pac-10 Tournament and competed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1999. UW swept all three meetings with highly ranked Arizona and capped the regular season with a win over No. 1 and undefeated Stanford.

Prior to his arrival at UW, Dollar served three years as an assistant coach on Romar's Saint Louis University staff. He helped the Billikens to a three-year record of 51-44 (.537), including a 2000 Conference USA Tournament championship that secured the league's automatic NCAA berth.

Dollar began his coaching career as an assistant on the staff of head coach Pat Douglass at UC Irvine in 1997.

He became the nation's youngest head coach in 1998 when, at age 22, he took the reins of the Southern California College program in Costa Mesa, Calif. The Vanguardians, who returned just six players from the previous season, posted an 11-22 record in Dollar's only season, but recorded wins over NAIA Top 25 teams Westmont and Azusa Pacific.

After a three-month stay as a part-time assistant at the University of Georgia in 1999, Dollar left to join the Saint Louis coaching staff on a full-time basis.

As a player, Dollar lettered four seasons at UCLA before graduating in 1997. He has chosen to remain in Seattle, the site of the Bruins' 1995 NCAA Championship victory. UCLA defeated Arkansas 89-78 at the Kingdome.

A four-year letterman at UCLA from 1994-97, Dollar achieved national recognition in 1995 as a pivotal player in UCLA's NCAA championship season when he took over for injured starter Tyus Edney in the title game. In Dollar's final three collegiate seasons, the Bruins won the NCAA title and reached the Sweet 16 and Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. Dollar averaged 5.0 points and 3.7 assists per game during his four-year career.

He was recruited to UCLA by then-Bruins assistant Lorenzo Romar and was reunited with his coach in 1999 when Romar added Dollar to his staff at Saint Louis University.

Dollar is a native of Atlanta, where his father, Don, was the long-time coach at Clarkston High School. Cameron and his wife, Maureen, live in Seattle. They have three children: Jalen (born April 26, 2005), Giselle (born Feb. 12, 2007), and Jason (born Dec. 23, 2008).
