His best game came against Denver on October 16 at Peter Johann Memorial Field, where he scored a pair of second half goals in a two-minute span to help the Rebels rally from a two-goal deficit and force overtime. He scored two more goals in conference play, including a score against then No. 9 New Mexico in a 2-1 loss, and the first goal in UNLV's 3-2 win at Seattle U. 2011 MPSF Coach of the Year

Jeremy Fishbein • Head Coach • 10th Year • New Mexico

The Lobos are ranked No. 1 in the nation in all three major national polls for the second consecutive week, and logged the first undefeated season in program history with a 16-0-2 record (10-0-0 in MPSF). The team's undefeated season was just the second amongst active programs ever recorded at the University of New Mexico, and the fifth in university history. New Mexico broke its previous program record of games unbeaten in a single season, extending it to 18 games, while closing out the regular season with a program-high 12-game win streak. The Oct. 30 win over SJSU gave the team 11 straight wins, breaking the previous record of 10 straight wins set in '05. The Lobos had five players named to eight national teams of the week over the season, and three players earn MPSF Player of the Week honors.
