LEGENDS CLASSIC CONTINUES

Seattle University returns to the Pacific Northwest to continue play in the 10th Annual Legends Classic. The Redhawks' final two games of the Classic will be contested in Cheney, Wash., beginning Monday, Nov. 21 with a 3:35 p.m. tip off against Louisiana Monroe. Play concludes on Tuesday, Nov. 22 when SU faces either host Eastern Washington or Bryant, depending on each team's Monday result.

ABOUT THE SERIES VS ULM

This marks the first-ever meeting between Seattle University and the Warhawks.

ABOUT THE WARHAWKS

Louisiana-Monroe is 1-2 to start the 2016-17 season. The Warhawks opened with a 96-63 win over Centenary and have since faced setbacks to No. 23 Texas (80-59) and Colorado (89-70). Through their first three games, they are shooting 42 percent from the field and 35 percent from three. ULM has struggled from the charity stripe, hitting just 57.4 percent on 47 attempts. Their opponents have earned 82 chances and are shooting at a 72 percent clip. Jordan Harris leads four Warhawks averaging double digits. The junior guard has come off the bench to put up 15.7 ppg.

ABOUT THE SERIES VS EWU

Seattle U is 8-14 all-time against the Eagles, dating back to the 1945-46 season. In the Redhawks' modern-day Division I era, SU is 5-6 in a very back-and-forth series. Seattle U won the first meeting in its return to DI, 63-59, in overtime at EWU during the 2008-09 season. The teams would go on to split a home-and-home series the next two years, each winning on their home courts. Seattle U won the lone meeting in 2011-12 and EWU won four straight before the Redhawks prevailed for a 58-52 win at KeyArena on Monday, Nov. 23, 2015. Brendan Westendorf led the way in the win, pouring in 20 points to go along with six boards and three assists.

ABOUT THE EAGLES

Eastern Washington is 1-2 entering Monday's game against Bryant. The Eagles own a season-opening, 70-47 win over Linfield, followed by losses at Northwestern, 86-72, and No. 23 Texas, 85-52. Bogdan Bliznyuk paces the Eagles with 17.0 ppg, shooting better than 50 percent from the field (22-for-43). Jacob Wiley adds 12.3 ppg and Feliz Von Hofe rounds out a trio of players averaging double-digit points, chipping in 11.7 per game. Von Hofe has hit 10-of-12 from three as all but one of his field goals has come from deep. The Eagles have managed just 24 trips to the charity stripe (20-for-24) while opponents are 48-for-61 (78.7 percent).

ABOUT THE SERIES VS BRYANT

The potential Tuesday match-up between the Redhawks and Bulldogs would be the first-ever meeting between the two programs.

ABOUT THE BULLDOGS

Bryant is 1-2 entering Monday's match-up against Eastern Washington. The Bulldogs opened the year with an 89-64 loss at Notre Dame. They followed with an 88-61 win back at home against Salve Regina, then began a five-game road swing with a 109-70 loss at No. 14 Gonzaga. Bryant is getting 18.0 ppg from Nisre Zouzoua, 15.3 ppg from Adam Grant and 12.7 ppg from Sebastian Townes. Grant and Zouzoua have combined to hit 16 of the Bulldogs' 19 three-pointers through three games.

LAST TIME OUT

A hot shooting night by the Fighting Irish, coupled with turnovers and cold shooting by the Redhawks sent Seattle University men's basketball to a 92-49 setback at Notre Dame Wednesday night in the Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center. After managing just a 3-for-16 effort from three four days ago against Bryant, the Fighting Irish came out on fire, hitting 10-for-18 from deep in the first half. V.J. Beachem went 3-for-4 in the frame and Matt Ryan was 3-for-5 as UND built a 31-point halftime lead. It took nearly two minutes before either team would find the bottom of the bucket, the ice finally broken by an Aaron Menzies dunk at the 18:04 mark. A pair of William Powell free throws gave SU (1-2) a brief lead with 17:32 to go and his layup at the 16-minute mark made it 7-6 UND. But the Irish (2-0) would find their mark. Steve Vastoria would score five straight points, Bonzie Colson put down a dunk and Beachem added a dunk and three of his own as the 12-0 run opened up a 19-6 advantage with 12:03 to go. Notre Dame would never look back, building its lead to as many as 46 before the final balance. Seattle U shot just 29 percent from the field for the game, including 9-for-30 from three.

SEASON OPENERS

With their 76-65 win over Pacific Lutheran on Nov. 11, Seattle University earned its first season-opening win since the 2012-13 season. The Redhawks had dropped their last three season openers prior to Friday's victory, last winning a season's first game on Nov. 11, 2012 - an 87-72 victory over Montana State at KeyArena.

BACK ON CAMPUS

The Seattle University men's basketball team formerly called the Connolly Complex home before returning to KeyArena for the 2009-10 season. While KeyArena remains the Redhawks primary home court, the program brings six of 16 home games back on campus to the newly renovated North Court this winter. In 2014-15, the Redhawks returned to the Connolly Center for one regular-season game, defeating Northwest University on Dec. 15, 2014, 84-58. With KeyArena unavailable during the postseason, Seattle U played both home CBI games in the Connolly Complex, defeating Pepperdine (62-45) and Colorado (72-65). Seattle U has now compiled a 208-141 (.595) record in the North Court, including a 15-game winning streak that began Nov. 5, 2008 with a perfect 10-0 mark during the 2008-09 season. Also included are three wins during 2014-15, a CBI win over Idaho last March and the 2016-17 season opener against Pacific Lutheran.

PRESEASON HONORS

Seniors Brendan Westendorf and William Powell earned 2016-17 Preseason All-Western Athletic Conference honors by both the league's eight head coaches and the media. The team leader in scoring with 12.8 ppg a year ago, Westendorf was selected to both the coaches and media Preseason All-WAC First Teams. The Auburn, Wash., native shot 40 percent from the field, nearly 42 percent from three and also led SU with 4.3 assists per game in 2015-16. Powell was named to the coaches and media Preseason All-WAC Second Teams after averaging 8.9 ppg and a team-high 6.8 rpg last year.

WAC PRESEASON POLLS

After going 15-17 overall and 7-7 in WAC play (good for fourth place) last season, the Redhawks were selected fourth in the Preseason Media Poll and tied for fifth in the Coaches Poll. New Mexico State was selected as the League favorite in both polls, followed by Grand Canyon and CSU Bakersfield.

CONNOLLY COMPLEX SOLD OUT

Season tickets for Seattle U's six home games scheduled to be played on campus at the Connolly Complex are sold out. Single-game tickets for the 10-game slate at KeyArena are still available, as are 10-game packs starting at $55. Call 206-398-GOSU (4678) or visit GoSeattleU.com/SUTickets for more information.

Cameron Dollar enters his eighth season as head coach at Seattle University in 2016-17. In just a short span of time, he has shown why many college basketball writers consider him one of the rising stars in the coaching industry.

In the 2015-16 season, Dollar led the Redhawks to postseason play once again, advancing to the quarterfinals of the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), which the Redhawks hosted in the newly renovated Connolly Complex. The Redhawks went 15-17 overall, and was marked by exciting plays on both defense and offense, including two buzzer-beater wins at KeyArena.

Dollar led the Redhawks on a historic postseason run in 2014-15, first advancing to the finals of the Western Athletic Conference Basketball Tournament with victories over Chicago State and Missouri-Kansas City. The Redhawks were one win away from the program's 12th NCAA Tournament appearance all-time. After accepting a berth into the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), Dollar and his players notched Seattle U's first national post-season tournament victory since 1964 with a 62-45 victory over Pepperdine (WCC), followed by a 72-65 win over the Colorado Buffs (Pac-12) to reach the CBI semifinals. In the final 12 home games of the season, the Redhawks reeled off an 11-1 record. Dollar's team produced a stifling defense at KeyArena that held opponents to an average of 57 points all home-season long. On offense, the Redhawks outscored all opponents at home by a combined 125 points, with 116 made 3-pointers.

In 2013-14, Dollar's Redhawks posted a five-game improvement from the previous season and contended with eventual WAC Tournament champion New Mexico State right down to the final buzzer in the quarterfinals of the conference tournament. Thanks to a season sweep over Cal State Fullerton as well as victories over UC Davis, Cal State Northridge, and Norfolk State, Seattle U jumped out to an 8-3 record, led by Second Team All-WAC performer Isaiah Umipig.

Though Dollar led the team through a tough first season in the WAC during the 2012-2013 season, several key returning players showed improvement under his coaching. Redshirt freshman Deshaun Sunderhaus became a consistent post defender, and redshirt junior Clarence Trent led the team in scoring. Along with the yearly battle against Washington, Dollar's former team, the Redhawks also competed against non-conference schools such as Stanford and Virginia.

Dollar took a squad of several newcomers through the 2011-12 season, competing with powerhouse programs such as Virginia and Washington. The team got rolling midway through the season, winning nine of its last 12 contests, including eight in a row at KeyArena. Thanks in part to Dollar's coaching, Aaron Broussard established himself as one of the best players in program history, finishing his career 13th on the school's all-time scoring list. Cervante Burrell improved significantly during his three seasons playing under Dollar, and Eric Wallace made an important contribution to the team's success after transferring in from DePaul for his senior season.

Seattle U picked up 11 victories during the 2010-11 season, including the team's second straight victory over Oregon State and a road victory at ACC school Virginia. The Redhawks also played a tight game at Pac-10 school Stanford and put up its best performance against Washington since starting the reclassification process in front of over 11,000 fans at KeyArena. With Dollar at the helm, Seattle U was invited to participate in the 2K Sports Classic Benefiting Coaches vs. Cancer, opening the season at the University of Maryland. The Redhawks were also chosen for the ESPN BracketBuster series of games, defeating Northern Illinois on the road.

Using an up-tempo style with aggressive defense, Dollar led Seattle U to a 17-14 record in 2009-10, making the Redhawks the first team to post a winning record playing a full Division I schedule in its first year as a Division I counter. The team started to gain national recognition after a 77-74 victory at Utah, and then made history later in the year with a 99-48 win at Oregon State, the worst home loss ever for the Beavers. Dollar and his squad also defended Elgin Baylor Court at KeyArena during its first year of existence, finishing with a 10-3 record at home, including exciting victories over Fresno State, Weber State, and UC Irvine. Seattle U won eight of its last nine games, posting last-second road wins at Portland State and at San Jose State in the process.

He served seven years as an assistant coach at the University of Washington before coming to Seattle U. As the top assistant for Lorenzo Romar at Washington, he helped the Huskies win their first Pac-10 outright regular season championship since 1953 in the 2008-09 season. Washington advanced to the semifinals of the Pac-10 Tournament and to the second round of the 2009 NCAA Tournament.

He played a major role in the spectacular 2005 and 2006 seasons that were among the finest in UW history. Dollar's contributions come both on the court, where he provides a wealth of coaching knowledge and experience, and on the recruiting trail. He helped recruit back-to-back classes that were ranked among the best in the nation.

In 2006, Dollar helped guide Washington to a 26-7 record. The Huskies made back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances for the first time ever. He was pivotal in the Huskies' run to their first Pac-10 Tournament championship in 2005 and first ever No. 1 seed into the NCAA Tournament. UW finished with a 29-6 record, tying the school record for wins in a season.

In 2004, the Huskies advanced to the championship game of the Pac-10 Tournament and competed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1999. UW swept all three meetings with highly ranked Arizona and capped the regular season with a win over No. 1 and undefeated Stanford.

Prior to his arrival at UW, Dollar served three years as an assistant coach on Romar's Saint Louis University staff. He helped the Billikens to a three-year record of 51-44 (.537), including a 2000 Conference USA Tournament championship that secured the league's automatic NCAA berth.

Dollar began his coaching career as an assistant on the staff of head coach Pat Douglass at UC Irvine in 1997.

He became the nation's youngest head coach in 1998 when, at age 22, he took the reins of the Southern California College program in Costa Mesa, Calif. The Vanguard, who returned just six players from the previous season, posted an 11-22 record in Dollar's only season, but recorded wins over NAIA Top 25 teams Westmont and Azusa Pacific.

After a three-month stay as a part-time assistant at the University of Georgia in 1999, Dollar left to join the Saint Louis coaching staff on a full-time basis.

As a player, Dollar lettered four seasons at UCLA before graduating in 1997. He has chosen to remain in Seattle, the site of the Bruins' 1995 NCAA Championship victory. UCLA defeated Arkansas 89-78 at the Kingdome.

A four-year letterman at UCLA from 1994-97, Dollar achieved national recognition in 1995 as a pivotal player in UCLA's NCAA championship season when he took over for injured starter Tyus Edney in the title game. In Dollar's final three collegiate seasons, the Bruins won the NCAA title and reached the Sweet 16 and Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. Dollar averaged 5.0 points and 3.7 assists per game during his four-year career.

He was recruited to UCLA by then-Bruins assistant Lorenzo Romar and was reunited with his coach in 1999 when Romar added Dollar to his staff at Saint Louis University.

Dollar is a native of Atlanta, where his father, Don, was the long-time coach at Clarkston High School. Cameron and his wife, Maureen, live in Seattle. They have three children: Jalen (born April 26, 2005), Giselle (born Feb. 12, 2007), and Jason (born Dec. 23, 2008).
