MATCH FACTS

Seattle U Redhawks vs Grand Canyon Lopes
Friday, Oct. 28 | 7 PM PT
Seattle, WA | Championship Field

The Redhawks play their final home match of the 2022 season when they host Grand Canyon on Friday, Oct. 28, at 7 pm PT. Very much in the mix for a top-2 seed in the WAC tournament, Seattle U will look to gain ground in the conference standings vs a team they have become very familiar with. In their 15 meetings all-time, the Redhawks lead the series 8-5-2. Their most memorable meeting may be their most recent, with Seattle U knocking off GCU in the WAC championship game last season on PKs. Akili Kasim made the game winning save to crown the Redhawks and push them into another NCAA tournament berth.

WHAT'S TRENDING:

- With his clean sheet vs Utah Valley, Akili Kasim became the all-time leader in shutouts in program history. He had previously broken the record for most wins in goal earlier this season.
- Entering this weekend, the Redhawks sit just one point away from a top-2 seed in the conference
- The Redhawks will be celebrating senior day this weekend. Habib Barry, Declan McGlynn and Deniz Dogan will all be honored for their accomplishments at Seattle U
- After not having a career goal entering their match vs Utah Tech, Richard Bedats recorded three over the next three. That includes the game winners vs the Trailblazers and Wolverines.
- The Redhawks have two freshman, Luke Hammond and Yeider Zuluaga, who have recorded over 400 minutes this season.
- Akili Kasim ranks 2nd in the conference in saves and saves per game
- Declan McGlynn ranks 9th in the conference in goals scored
- Seven different players have recorded a goal this season, while eight different players have recorded at least one assist.
