WAC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Seattle U brings a 3-4 record from four previous WAC Tournament appearances into this year's event. One year ago, the Redhawks topped UTRGV in the quarterfinals, 75-52, advancing to face eventual tournament champ CSU Bakersfield in the semifinals. The 'Runners sent SU to a 72-47 setback.

In 2013, the Redhawks lost to Texas State, 68-56, in the first round, as Seattle U was the 10th seed. Entering the 2014 tournament as the seventh seed, the Redhawks battled second-seeded New Mexico State throughout the contest, holding a six-point lead halfway through the second half. After New Mexico State rallied back, Seattle U had a chance to send the game into overtime, but a last-second putback would not fall, giving the Aggies a 70-68 victory. Last year,

In the championship game, New Mexico State scored the first nine points of the game on its way to an 80-61 victory over the Redhawks.

50 victory. The Seattle U defense held UVU to just five first-half field goals (16.7%) while shooting a solid 50% themselves. Matej Kavas came off the bench to score a game-high 18 points while William Powell and Brendan Westendorf chipped in 13 and 11, respectively. The Wolverines won the rematch on Mar. 4 in Orem, Utah, earning a 61-54 win on their Senior Night. The UVU victory snapped a four-game win streak for the Redhawks in the series.

The teams played a pair of close games in 2015-16, with the Redhawks winning 73-62 in Orem and 72-69 at KeyArena. The latter victory came on Brendan Westendorf's second buzzer-beater of the season, this one snapping a 69-69 tie and propelling SU to victory on Senior Night. The teams first met during the 2009-10 season, with Seattle U winning both meetings: 66-63 at KeyArena and 74-64 at the UCCU Center. In 2010-11, Utah Valley earned its first victory of the series in Orem, 89-73, before Seattle U took the rematch in Seattle, 63-57. Utah Valley swept the season series in 2011-12 with two victories in the span of a week: 77-72 in Orem and 84-74 in Seattle. After a one-year break, the two teams started their conference rivalry in 2013-14, with Utah Valley winning the first meeting in Orem, 52-51, and Seattle U winning the rematch at KeyArena, 71-57. In 2014-15, the Wolverines won the first meeting at the UCCU Center, 70-52. In the rematch at KeyArena, Seattle U stifled the Wolverine offense in a 53-33 victory.

MORE FROM MOORE

Zack Moore drained eight three pointers Feb. 28 versus UTRGV, including seven in the first half, finishing with a career-high 33 points and propelling SU to a 96-84 win. The sophomore went 8-for-10 from deep to tie the second most threes made in a single game by a Redhawk, and the first to hit eight since Isiah Umipig versus UMKC on March 13, 2015. The all-time record is nine, held by Aaron Waite (vs. Alaska Pacific, 1/6/90) and Bernard Seals (vs. Western Washington, 3/3/05). Moore added five triples on Feb. 9 at Chicago State and four more at UMKC on Feb. 11. He now has a team-high 74 threes and has 15 games this season with three or more triples.

LAST TIME OUT

The Redhawks dropped their WAC regular-season finale Saturday night at the UCCU Center in Orem, Utah, falling 61-54 to Utah Valley. UVU opened the game hitting four of its first five shots, opening up a quick 10-6 advantage. But the home team would cool and Seattle U would score six straight to take a 12-10 lead with 12:27 to go. The Redhawks would lead by as many as four, 19-15, but managed just three points over the final 7:19 of the half as UVU took a 29-22 lead into the break. A layup by Zach Nelson opened the second half and gave the Wolverines their largest lead of the night, 31-22. But Seattle U began to find its stride on both the offensive and defensive ends of the court. An 11-0 run over the next three minutes, capped by a Matej Kavas three, turned the nine-point deficit into a two-point lead, 33-31. Morgan Means was the catalyst for SU early in the second half. The rookie hit a three as part of the run and would score 10 total points in the first 10 minutes of the half. UVU clawed their way back in and a Connor Toolson layup with 6:45 to play gave the Wolverines a 45-44 lead. Brendan Westendorf would hit a runner in the lane to snag the lead right back with six minutes to go. But that would be the last time the Redhawks would lead. After earning zero free-throw attempts in the first half, the Wolverines went 14-for-17 from the line in the second as Seattle U was whistled for 14 of their 17 total fouls after the break. Means finished with a team-high 16 points while William Powell added nine points and Kavas finished with eight. UVU was led by Jordan Poydras' 17 points.

- Aaron Menzies had a monster game in the 81-75 overtime win over ULM (Nov. 21), finishing with a career-high 35 points and 11 boards. The outing was the second double-double of the redshirt sophomore's career and just his third double-digit scoring effort.

- Brendan Westendorf was named to the 10th Annual Legends Classic Cheney Subregional All-Tournament Team after posting 14 points versus ULM and a career-high 24 against EWU. The career-high was his seventh career 20-plus point effort in one-plus seasons as a Redhawk.

WESTENDORF NAMED WAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior guard Brendan Westendorf was named Western Athletic Conference Player of the Week for the week of Dec. 26-Jan. 1. This is his first WAC Player of the Week honor of the season and the second of his career. The Auburn, Wash., native averaged 22.5 points, 4.5 rebounds, 3.5 steals and 2.5 assists per game as the Redhawks went 1-1 in their final week of non-conference play. Westendorf opened the week with a team-high 17 points to go with five rebounds, three steals and two assists in a 72-65 setback to UC Davis on Dec. 28. He followed it up with a career outing in a thrilling come-from-behind victory at UC Santa Barbara to secure the team's first road win of the season. Westendorf poured in a career-high 28 points on 11-of-15 shooting, including six three-pointers, to lead Seattle U to the 80-76 win. He also added four rebounds, a game-high four steals and three assists. Westendorf drained three consecutive three-pointers to give his team its first lead since scoring the game's first bucket. He added a layup for a personal 11-0 run that was part of an improbable 31-7 run. Westendorf's jumper with 41 seconds remaining gave the Redhawks the lead for good. His 28 points marks his fourth 20-point game this season and the third time he has raised his career high this season.

WAC PRESEASON POLLS

After going 15-17 overall and 7-7 in WAC play (good for fourth place) last season, the Redhawks were selected fourth in the Preseason Media Poll and tied for fifth in the Coaches Poll. New Mexico State was selected as the League favorite in both polls, followed by Grand Canyon and CSU Bakersfield.

PRESEASON HONORS

Seniors Brendan Westendorf and William Powell earned 2016-17 Preseason All-Western Athletic Conference honors by both the league's eight head coaches and the media. The team leader in scoring with 12.8 ppg a year ago, Westendorf was selected to both the coaches and media Preseason All-WAC First Teams. The Auburn, Wash., native shot 40 percent from the field, nearly 42 percent from three and also led SU with 4.3 assists per game in 2015-16. Powell was named to the coaches and media Preseason All-WAC Second Teams after averaging 8.9 ppg and a team-high 6.8 rpg last year.

EXTRA TIME

Following their double-overtime setback to Eastern Washington on Dec. 4, the Redhawks have now played three overtime games this season, including a pair of double OT thrillers against the Eagles. The back-to-back overtime games against Louisiana Monroe (Nov. 21) and Eastern Washington (Nov. 22) were the first extra time games since an 80-75 win over UC Davis on Dec. 28. Previous to that, the Redhawks last went to overtime Jan. 31, 2015, a 71-61 loss at CSU Bakersfield. Seattle U last needed extra time at home on Feb. 27, 2014, an 84-77 triple overtime loss to Chicago State. Before the victory over the Aggies, Seattle U had lost four straight overtime games, last winning an overtime game Feb. 11, 2012, at Longwood, 100-99. They've not had multiple overtime games in a single season since 2012-13 – 83-82 double overtime loss to New Mexico State (Jan 10, 2013) and 75-74 overtime loss to CSU Bakersfield (Mar. 6, 2013).

Cameron Dollar enters his eighth season as head coach at Seattle University in 2016-17. In just a short span of time, he has shown why many college basketball writers consider him one of the rising stars in the coaching industry.

In the 2015-16 season, Dollar led the Redhawks to postseason play once again, advancing to the quarterfinals of the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), which the Redhawks hosted in the newly renovated Connolly Complex. The Redhawks went 15-17 overall, and was marked by exciting plays on both defense and offense, including two buzzer-beater wins at KeyArena.

Dollar led the Redhawks on a historic postseason run in 2014-15, first advancing to the finals of the Western Athletic Conference Basketball Tournament with victories over Chicago State and Missouri-Kansas City. The Redhawks were one win away from the program's 12th NCAA Tournament appearance all-time. After accepting a berth into the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), Dollar and his players notched Seattle U's first national post-season tournament victory since 1964 with a 62-45 victory over Pepperdine (WCC), followed by a 72-65 win over the Colorado Buffs (Pac-12) to reach the CBI semifinals. In the final 12 home games of the season, the Redhawks reeled off an 11-1 record. Dollar's team produced a stifling defense at KeyArena that held opponents to an average of 57 points all home-season long. On offense, the Redhawks outscored all opponents at home by a combined 125 points, with 116 made 3-pointers.

In 2013-14, Dollar's Redhawks posted a five-game improvement from the previous season and contended with eventual WAC Tournament champion New Mexico State right down to the final buzzer in the quarterfinals of the conference tournament. Thanks to a season sweep over Cal State Fullerton as well as victories over UC Davis, Cal State Northridge, and Norfolk State, Seattle U jumped out to an 8-3 record, led by Second Team All-WAC performer Isaiah Umipig.

Though Dollar led the team through a tough first season in the WAC during the 2012-2013 season, several key returning players showed improvement under his coaching. Redshirt freshman Deshaun Sunderhaus became a consistent post defender, and redshirt junior Clarence Trent led the team in scoring. Along with the yearly battle against Washington, Dollar's former team, the Redhawks also competed against non-conference schools such as Stanford and Virginia.

Dollar took a squad of several newcomers through the 2011-12 season, competing with powerhouse programs such as Virginia and Washington. The team got rolling midway through the season, winning nine of its last 12 contests, including eight in a row at KeyArena. Thanks in part to Dollar's coaching, Aaron Broussard established himself as one of the best players in program history, finishing his career 13th on the school's all-time scoring list. Cervante Burrell improved significantly during his three seasons playing under Dollar, and Eric Wallace made an important contribution to the team's success after transferring in from DePaul for his senior season.

Seattle U picked up 11 victories during the 2010-11 season, including the team's second straight victory over Oregon State and a road victory at ACC school Virginia. The Redhawks also played a tight game at Pac-10 school Stanford and put up its best performance against Washington since starting the reclassification process in front of over 11,000 fans at KeyArena. With Dollar at the helm, Seattle U was invited to participate in the 2K Sports Classic Benefiting Coaches vs. Cancer, opening the season at the University of Maryland. The Redhawks were also chosen for the ESPN BracketBuster series of games, defeating Northern Illinois on the road.

Using an up-tempo style with aggressive defense, Dollar led Seattle U to a 17-14 record in 2009-10, making the Redhawks the first team to post a winning record playing a full Division I schedule in its first year as a Division I counter. The team started to gain national recognition after a 77-74 victory at Utah, and then made history later in the year with a 99-48 win at Oregon State, the worst home loss ever for the Beavers. Dollar and his squad also defended Elgin Baylor Court at KeyArena during its first year of existence, finishing with a 10-3 record at home, including exciting victories over Fresno State, Weber State, and UC Irvine. Seattle U won eight of its last nine games, posting last-second road wins at Portland State and at San Jose State in the process.

He served seven years as an assistant coach at the University of Washington before coming to Seattle U. As the top assistant for Lorenzo Romar at Washington, he helped the Huskies win their first Pac-10 outright regular season championship since 1953 in the 2008-09 season. Washington advanced to the semifinals of the Pac-10 Tournament and to the second round of the 2009 NCAA Tournament.

He played a major role in the spectacular 2005 and 2006 seasons that were among the finest in UW history. Dollar's contributions come both on the court, where he provides a wealth of coaching knowledge and experience, and on the recruiting trail. He helped recruit back-to-back classes that were ranked among the best in the nation.

In 2006, Dollar helped guide Washington to a 26-7 record. The Huskies made back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances for the first time ever. He was pivotal in the Huskies' run to their first Pac-10 Tournament championship in 2005 and first ever No. 1 seed into the NCAA Tournament. UW finished with a 29-6 record, tying the school record for wins in a season.

In 2004, the Huskies advanced to the championship game of the Pac-10 Tournament and competed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1999. UW swept all three meetings with highly ranked Arizona and capped the regular season with a win over No. 1 and undefeated Stanford.

Prior to his arrival at UW, Dollar served three years as an assistant coach on Romar's Saint Louis University staff. He helped the Billikens to a three-year record of 51-44 (.537), including a 2000 Conference USA Tournament championship that secured the league's automatic NCAA berth.

Dollar began his coaching career as an assistant on the staff of head coach Pat Douglass at UC Irvine in 1997.

He became the nation's youngest head coach in 1998 when, at age 22, he took the reins of the Southern California College program in Costa Mesa, Calif. The Vanguardians, who returned just six players from the previous season, posted an 11-22 record in Dollar's only season, but recorded wins over NAIA Top 25 teams Westmont and Azusa Pacific.

After a three-month stay as a part-time assistant at the University of Georgia in 1999, Dollar left to join the Saint Louis coaching staff on a full-time basis.

As a player, Dollar lettered four seasons at UCLA before graduating in 1997. He has chosen to remain in Seattle, the site of the Bruins' 1995 NCAA Championship victory. UCLA defeated Arkansas 89-78 at the Kingdome.

A four-year letterman at UCLA from 1994-97, Dollar achieved national recognition in 1995 as a pivotal player in UCLA's NCAA championship season when he took over for injured starter Tyus Edney in the title game. In Dollar's final three collegiate seasons, the Bruins won the NCAA title and reached the Sweet 16 and Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. Dollar averaged 5.0 points and 3.7 assists per game during his four-year career.

He was recruited to UCLA by then-Bruins assistant Lorenzo Romar and was reunited with his coach in 1999 when Romar added Dollar to his staff at Saint Louis University.

Dollar is a native of Atlanta, where his father, Don, was the long-time coach at Clarkston High School. Cameron and his wife, Maureen, live in Seattle. They have three children: Jalen (born April 26, 2005), Giselle (born Feb. 12, 2007), and Jason (born Dec. 23, 2008).
