First-ever WAC regular-season title

Most wins in Division I program history

Only team in Division I to have three pitchers win at least five conference games in 2019

- Seattle U enters the 2019 WAC Tournament as regular-season champions for the first time in program history.
- The Redhawks have won a Division I program-record 36 games this season. With two more wins, SU would tie the all-time program record for wins in a season (38 in 2008).
- SU went 15-3 in WAC play this season, winning all six series, including three sweeps. The offense led the conference in batting average (.311), on-base percentage (.387), runs per game (5.49), and hits per game (8.43), while the pitching staff paced the league in ERA (2.23), opposing batting average (.246), and wins (36).
- Coach Geoff Hirai is in his fourth season at SU. He won his 100th career game on April 13 at Utah Valley. In 2017, he guided the Redhawks to their first-ever appearance in the WAC Championship Game. Last season, Hirai took SU to a Division I program record 33 wins.
- Seattle U features the top pitching staff in the WAC, as Carley Nance, Andie Larkins, and Shianne Smith have teamed up to form a terrific trio in the circle. They are the only staff in Division I to have three pitchers win at least five conference games in 2019. SU is also one of 13 schools to have three hurlers with at least eight wins this season.
- Sophomores Ally Choate, Carley Nance, and Bailey Thompson were named All-WAC First Team at Tuesday's WAC Tournament banquet. Madison Cathcart, Andie Larkins, Kaylee Ree, and Olivia Viggiano earned All-WAC Second Team honors.
- The Redhawks beat a nationally-ranked team for the first time in Division I program history, taking down No. 25 Illinois on March 2. SU has five wins over top-75 RPI programs this season.
- SU has 10 walk-off wins in 2019, including six in WAC play. In the final series of the regular season, the Redhawks topped California Baptist via walk-off in all three games, with two coming on five-inning run rules on May 3.
- Seattle U won a WAC-high five games via run rule in conference action this year.
- On senior day at Logan Field, senior Emma Mitchell singled to right field to lift the Redhawks to a 4-3 win in eight innings over CBU. It marked the second straight year that Mitchell hit a walk-off single on senior day at Logan Field.
- Andie Larkins, Emma Mitchell, Kaylee Ree, and Breanna Timmons make up the senior class for SU. They are the winningest senior class in Division I program history, having claimed 108 wins since 2016.
