REDHAWK HEADLINES

- The Redhawks look to close out another strong regular season when they host UTRGV and Grand Canyon this week.
- Seattle U is 7-1-1 vs UTRGV all-time, with their only loss coming at home in 2020.
- The Redhawks are unbeaten in their last two matches vs the Lopes, snapping a stretch where SU had just one win in seven meetings.
- The Redhawks come into the final week of the regular sitting in second in the WAC standings. They still have a chance at a WAC regular season title if San Diego State were to lose one match this week.
- Seattle U exploded for four goals for the third time this season when they took down San Jose State, 4-1, last Saturday.
- Titus Washington continues the pace the Redhawks in the goals department. The transfer currently has eight goals. He is also second in the conference only behind UVU's Omar Yehya.
- The Redhawks lead the conference in goals scored (12), points (38), and assists (14) during WAC play.
- Seattle U has gotten multi-goal contributions from six different players thus far, with four more scoring one goal on the year.

After 10 seasons as an assistant coach on the Seattle U staff, Nate Daligcon was named the 10th head coach in program history prior to the 2023 season.

In his first season at the helm, he led the Redhawks to a 12-2-3 regular season that saw the team crowned the Western Athletic Conference Regular Season Champions. Seattle U went undefeated in conference play for the third time in program history and reached a national ranking of 9th, their highest in the Division I era. At the conclusion of the season Daligcon was named the conference's Coach of the Year.

Seattle U led the WAC in points, goals, assists, and goals against average in 2023. James Morris was named the Offensive Player of the Year and Charlie Lanphier was named the inaugural Goalkeeper of the Year. His coaching staff was named the top staff in the Division I Far West Region, as announced by the United Soccer Coaches.

In his time as an assistant coach with the program, coach Daligcon has helped guide the Redhawks to five WAC Tournament Championships and NCAA appearances. He has coached seven MLS Draft Picks, seven conference players of the year, four freshman of the year, and 59 all-conference selections.

Prior to joining the Redhawk coaching staff in 2013, Daligcon was a head coach for several local club teams, most recently serving as head coach of Seattle United B01 Copa and G95 Copa. He led Emerald City FC G93 A to the 2005 Washington State Cup championship, plus guided two other squads to the state cup finals. He has also served as an assistant men's soccer coach at Seattle Pacific since 2009.

Daligcon was a two-time All-American at Seattle Pacific, helping the Falcons win the 1993 Division II national championship and advance to three national semifinal games as a center midfielder. He played in the A-League from 1996 through 2002, winning four league titles (three with the Rochester Rhinos, one with the Seattle Sounders), as well as the 1999 U.S. Open Cup championship as a member of the Rochester Rhinos.

Daligcon received his Bachelor of Arts degree in business administration with a marketing concentration from Seattle Pacific University, plus he holds a USSF "A" coaching license.
