Kicking off the 2022 conference season is a meeting with the Sam Houston Bearkats on Friday, Sep. 16. This will be the first meeting between the two programs all-time, as the two sides did not play in last season's division format.

Following the game vs Sam Houston, the Redhawks will travel to Las Cruces to face New Mexico State. The Redhawks have dominated the short series history between them and the Aggies, picking up four wins in their five meetings. They split two games last year, with Seattle getting the 2-1 at home thanks to goals by Bailey Hall and Michele Adam.

WHAT'S TRENDING:

- In the win over Evergreen State, Jolie St Louis scored her first career hat trick. One of only two players to record a hat trick in the WAC this season.
- Brooke Wilson currently ranks 3rd in the WAC in goals scored (4)
- Mo Nagel is 5th in the WAC in total assists (3)
- Goalkeeper Jessica Berlin is 3rd in the WAC with 24 saves
- Kait Raffensperger was named WAC Defensive Player of the Week (8/16-8/22)
- Senior midfielder Emily Bunnell was selected to the preseason All-WAC team
- For club and country, Julieta Peralta (Mexico) and Jolie St Louis (Trinidad and Tobago) both made appearances for their respective national teams.
- The Redhawks return 25 players from last season's roster.
- 19 upperclassmen lead a veteran team in 2022
- The Redhawks were tabbed sixth in the WAC Preseason Coaches' Poll
- Julie Woodward enters her 26th season at the helm of Seattle U women's soccer. She has compiled a 324-142-52 record during her tenure.
- The Redhawks will host the 2022 WAC Tournament at Championship Field. Their first time hosting since 2019.
- Seattle U has won six WAC regular season and five tournament titles since 2013 and have appeared in five NCAA tournaments.
