This Week for the Redhawks:

The Seattle University women's soccer team will open up the 2011 campaign in Northern California. The Redhawks will kick off the year at Sacramento State on Friday, Aug. 19. SU will square off with the Hornets in a 5 p.m. match. Two days later, Seattle U will travel to UC Davis for a 1 p.m. game with the Aggies.

ment teams, seeing victories over Sacramento State and UC Irvine.

The season also saw the progression of the program at the NCAA Division I level, as the team was regionally ranked in the NCAA West Regional Top-10 Poll for a majority of the season. Graduating senior Kara Kuttler also marked Seattle U's first Pacific All-Region selection.

A Look at 2010:

The Redhawks completed their third year competing as an NCAA Division I Independent team last season. Seattle U put together a seven-game unbeaten streak and went on to finish with a 12-5-2 overall record. They once again faced a tough slate of opponents, including four NCAA Tournament participating squads. The Redhawks went 2-2 versus tourna-

What Woodward Says:

"We are very excited about our first game and I feel like we had a good preseason. We have good additions to the team that we feel are going to contribute. As a coaching staff we are excited to see how we are going to look in our first game, since have only had an intersquad game this pre-season," said head coach Julie Woodward.

HEAD COACH JULIE WOODWARD*15TH SEASON/SEATTLE UNIVERSITY '93

The dean of coaches at Seattle University, Julie Woodward has earned the respect of her peers with her style of coaching. During her 14 coaching seasons, she boasts 13 winning seasons, establishing her as the winningest coach in SU women's soccer history with a 194-72-25 overall record and a .709 winning percentage.

Seattle University's former two-time NAIA All-American soccer player came home to her alma mater as the head coach of the Redhawks women's soccer program over a decade ago. She has coached the Redhawks to three NCAA Division II Tournament appearances (2004, 2006 and 2007). A 2004 Far West Coach of the Year, she boasts three NSCAA/adidas NCAA Division II honorees, 18 Far West Region selections, three GNAC Player's of the Year, eight GNAC all-conference team honorees and 27 players who have earned NAIA All-America accolades. Her team's have also boasted great academic success in her tenure, including a 2007 NCAA Woman of the Year, five CoSIDA ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans and 20 CoSIDA ESPN The Magazine All-District selections.

Welcome Back:

The Redhawks return 20 letterwinners this season, including senior defender Jordan Salisbury, who has been an anchor in the backline for SU. Up top, Seattle U will look to junior Emma Levy to build on her six goal and four assist sophomore campaign.

The Newbies:

While the SU roster is chalk full of returning talent, the Redhawks welcome six true freshmen to the squad. The class of 2016 boasts a talented group, including forward Stephanie Verdoia who was named the 2010-11 Utah Gatorade Player of the Year.

Final Year of Independence:

2011 will mark SU's final season playing as an NCAA DI Independent. On July 1, 2012 Seattle U will officially join the Western Athletic Conference as full members.

Another Tough Year Ahead:

Resilient road warriors, the Redhawks will have another testing season ahead of them. They not only open their first 10 on the road, but will only play at home five times this season. In 2010, SU played 10 games on the road, playing as close as Portland, Ore. and as far as Waco, Texas.

Scouting Sacramento State:

The Hornets of Sacramento State are coming off a 9-10-1 overall, 4-3 Big Sky season in 2010. CSUS finished in third place in their conference and saw postseason play in the NCAA Tournament. They return 13 letterwinners and lost three starters from last year's team. The squad also adds six newcomers this season.

The Last Time Seattle U Faced Sacramento State:

The Redhawks defeated the Hornets in a thrilling 3-2 double overtime victory to capture the Redhawk Invitational title in Seattle on Sept. 26, 2010.

Scouting UC Davis:

UC Davis will open up the season with the Redhawks, following a pair of exhibition contests. They return 21 letterwinners from last season and have 11 newcomers joining the team in 2011. The Aggies went 7-9-2 overall, 2-5-1 Big West last year.

The Last Time Seattle U Faced UC Davis:

This will be the Redhawks first meeting with the Aggies since reclassifying back to full NCAA Division I status in 2008-09.
