NEWS AND NOTES

Charlotte opened up C-USA play with a 71-59 road win at UTEP on Thursday night. The 49ers closed out the Miners with a dominant fourth quarter scoring 22 points while holding UTEP to just six. The Niners defense dominated the final 10 minutes not allowing a FG in nine of those final 10 minutes. Octavia Jett-Wilson dropped a game-high 24, Jada McMillian added a season-high 16 while Mikayla Boykin and Molina Williams each had 11.

The 12-point win in El Paso was the Niners third-straight victory opening up C-USA play. It was just the second win all-time in El Paso, the other coming in 2014.

On Thursday, the six points in the fourth quarter by UTEP was a season-low by the Niners defense and became the seventh time this season holding an opponent to single digits in a period. The victory also became the first of the season when the 49ers trailed after three and were out-rebounded in the game.

Stellar defense in long distance shooting appeared again for the 49ers Thursday as the held the Miners to 4-of-19 shooting (21%) from behind the arc.

Charlotte leads the all-time series vs. the Roadrunners 6-1 winning each of the last six. The Niners have won two of their three in San Antonio.

As conference play begins, Octavia Jett-Wilson is currently third in scoring averaging 18 points/game. Jada McMillian currently leads C-USA averaging 4.90 assists/game.

Mikayla Boykin scored 11 points in Thursday's road win at UTEP marking her 8th-straight game with double figures. Boykin has climbed into the league's top-20 in scoring averaging 12.64 points/game.

 GUARD • 5-6 • FRESHMAN
 YORK, S.C. / CLOVER HS

Consuegra on Wade's Addition:

"Aylesha brings energy and a sense of competition, that young lady is going to compete. You can see that from her every day in practice. When she's on the court, I certainly expect her to help us grow and prepare for being the next point guard that will run our program. She brings those characteristics right away."

Consuegra on McGraw's Potential Impact:

"Mya can bring us an important post presence that we're going to need. We lost a lot of our post players from a year ago and even though she's a freshman, she's done a great job stepping in, learning quickly and competing for minutes right off the bat. I certainly expect her to be somebody that can bring us a great presence in the paint."

CALI KONEK

GUARD • 5-7 • SOPHOMORE
PITTSBURGH, PA. / FRANKLIN REGIONAL HS

Consuegra on Konek's Return:

"Cali is a player who really took advantage of her opt-out year by getting herself in the best shape that she has been in. That time off helped her to re-evaluate the game of basketball and she's come back with such a renewed sense of joy. She's working hard, making great strides on the defensive end and being that three-point sniper that we need her to be. I expect her to be able to impact our team in some really significant ways this year."

TAMIA DAVIS

GUARD • 5-7 • JUNIOR
RALEIGH, N.C. / KANSAS / SE RALEIGH HS

Consuegra on Davis' Potential This Season:

"Tamia is another player that I expect to take a big jump this year. She was essentially like a freshman in our program last year, still learning a lot and battling through injuries. She's worked really hard to put herself in a better position in terms of her conditioning and knowing the system. I think she has an opportunity to impact our team because she's more confident in the system. I also expect her to be a player that can come in and knock down shots for us."

DAZIA LAWRENCE

Consuegra on Lawrence's Growth in 21-22:

"I think Dazia is another player that used the opt-out year to get back to who she is. I think she was able to use the opt-out time to reset her priorities and find her why in terms of playing basketball. She has come back showing great effort, is working very hard and continuing to grow in our program in terms of re-learning everything. She's certainly making some really good strides."

MIKAYLA BOYKIN

GUARD • 5-9 • REDSHIRT SENIOR
CLINTON, N.C. / DUKE / CLINTON HS

Consuegra on Boykin's Leadership:

"Mikayla has really stepped in as a new player. Mikayla has been fun to watch bringing all the experience that she has from her time playing college basketball. While she's a new player on our roster, she's not new in knowing the game. It's been fun to watch her buy into our values, playing with heart and bringing the knowledge she has from her time at Duke. Her ability to change the game offensively is going to be a huge way that she can impact our team, but also her leadership in terms of being a veteran player."

OCTAVIA JETT-WILSON

GUARD • 5-8 • 5TH YEAR SENIOR
GREENBELT, MD. / ELEANOR ROOSEVELT HS

Consuegra on Octavia Ready for a Big Year:

"Last year was really the first year she had a full season where she was healthy. You could see what a player like her can be when she has the ability to really showcase who she can be. I think we finally saw the player we always knew was in there, but had obstacles in her way. We finally saw that player last year and that player is one of the best in C-USA. I expect Tae to do a lot more of the same. We have a lot more pieces around her that could change her role a little bit. But, Octavia is going to be a go-to scorer for us. She's going to be very difficult for people to stop in our league. She's grown as a defender, somebody I'd love to challenge to be on the all-conference defensive team. She's always going to be one that leads us. She very much dictates the temperature of our team. We're also going to go very much as Octavia goes."

Consuegra on Busick's Impact in Year Two:

"I think Jacee had such a good freshman season but even with being an All-Freshman Team member, there are still big strides she can take in her game. Consistency is going to be huge for us on the offensive and defensive ends. I see her as a player who can really step up for us being an elite communicator on the court. She's outstanding in scout defense and all of that has come from having a year under her belt. She is one of our most important players in terms of making hustle plays and doing whatever the team needs her to do for us to be successful."

MOLINA WILLIAMS

FORWARD • 6-0 • SOPHOMORE
GRAHAM, N.C. / THE BURLINGTON SCHOOL

Consuegra on Williams Building Confidence:

"I expect her to take a really big jump this year. Molina ended up making the all-freshman team last year but I really felt that she became confident in her role near the end of January and then played outstanding in February and March. For me, I want her to be able to carry over that confidence and be someone who can be really consistent for us. Her versatility on the defensive end being able to guard multiple spots and versatility on the offensive end scoring in so many different ways, I really expect her to be a tough matchup for our opponents this season."

KEKE MCKINNEY

FORWARD • 6-1 • 5TH YEAR SENIOR
KNOXVILLE, TENN. / KENTUCKY / FULTON HS

Consuegra's on KeKe's Immediate Impact:
"KeKe has made an impact from the day she stepped on campus. She's built like us. Her energy is contagious. She changes a room when she walks into it, for that reason, she's been able to impact us from the start. She's been a great leader, a tremendous mentor for our younger players, and is another versatile player that is going to be a really tough matchup for our opponents. She can guard pretty much one through five. She has expanded her game to be able to score inside and outside. I expect to use her in a lot of positions that will hopefully give our opponents some trouble."

ANGEL MIDDLETON

CENTER • 6-6 • REDSHIRT SOPHOMORE
CHARLESTON, S.C. / FIRST BAPTIST SCHOOL

Consuegra on Middleton's Challenge:
"Angel probably has the biggest challenge coming back from a year ago because she was not with our team, she was at home in Charleston. Just having her back here number one is a huge win for us and two, it's also a big challenge for her needing to get back in the shape she needs to be in. In some ways, it's feeling like a restart for her and re-learning everything. To her credit, she has met the challenge head-on. She is working extremely hard to put herself in the best position she can which will ultimately help our team. There are also not many players in C-USA that are built like Angel and we're going to use that to our advantage. We're going to make sure we're feeding the ball to her in the post, she has to protect the basket for us and those are things where she can really make a difference."
