How Your Gift Helps

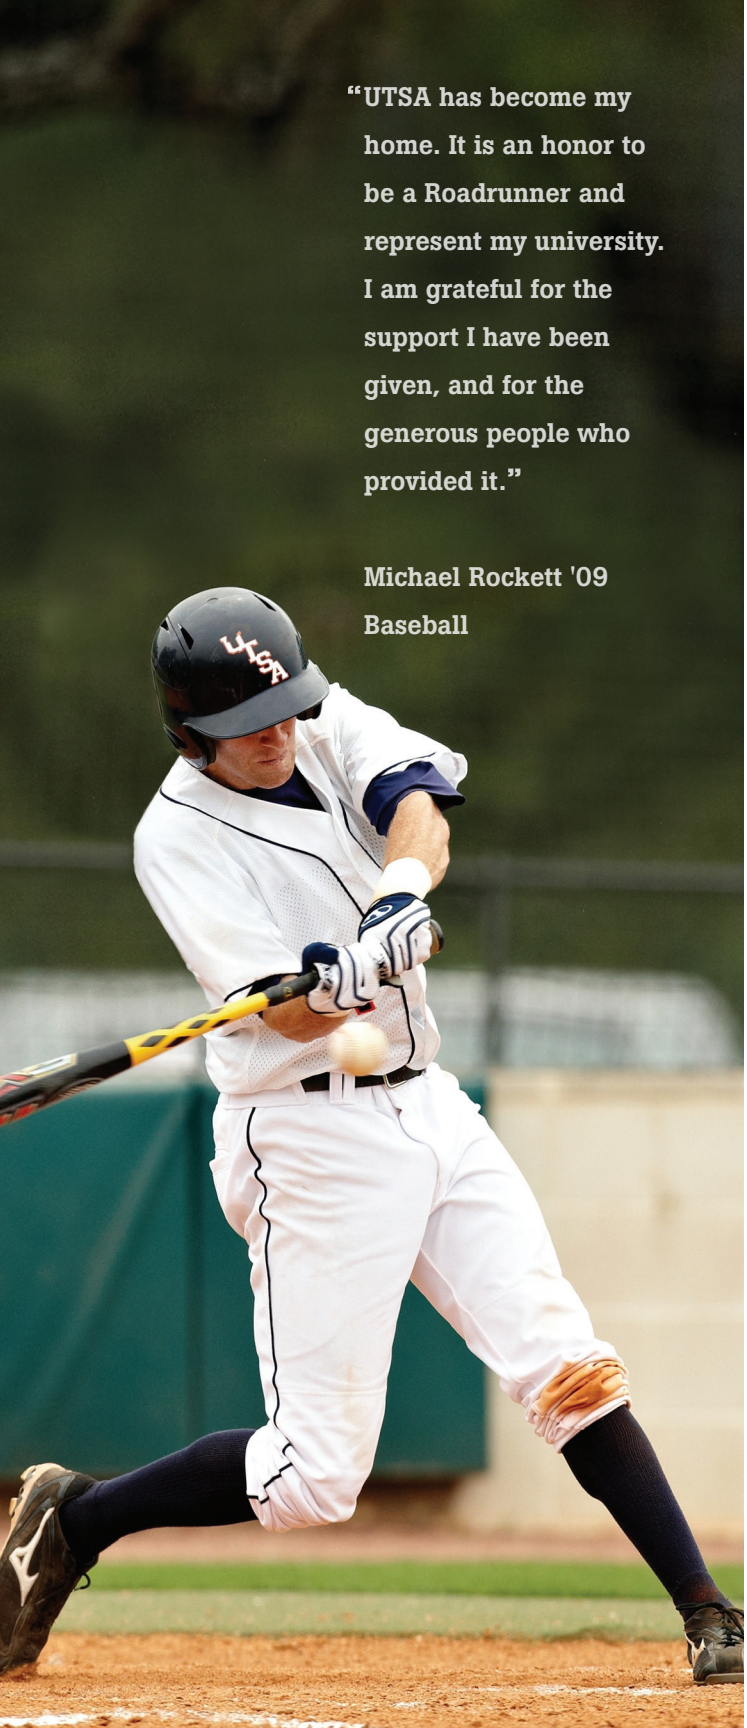

Your support through the Roadrunner Athletic Fund is used to offset the cost of UTSA athletic programs. The fund provides direct scholarship support to student-athletes participating in all 17 intercollegiate sports, including the establishment of UTSA Roadrunner Football. Current scholarship costs for the Department of Athletics to the university for grants-in-aid for the 2009–10 academic year are nearly $3 million. They are projected to be $6 million by the 2014–15 academic year with the addition of football.

The Fund also helps to cover costs of these typical expenses:

Expense	Benefit
$180	Outfit one volleyball student-athlete for match competition
$250	Life skills education for one student-athlete
$600	Books for one semester for one student-athlete
$1,500	Tennis balls for one tennis team for one year
$3,000	Team bus expenses to a Southland Conference Tournament
$6,000	Tuition and fees for two semesters for resident student-athletes
