SATURDAY'S PREVIEW...

UNLV (0-4/0-1) heads to San Antonio for a first-ever meeting with UTSA (4-0/1-0) Saturday ... The game, which marks UNLV's first trip to the Lone Star State since playing at Houston in 2014, will be available on the digital streaming platform ESPN+, which requires a subscription ... This marks the second time in the first five weeks that the Rebels will face a team for the first time, joining the season-opener vs. Eastern Washington ... Last time out, the Rebels opened Mountain West play with a 38-30 loss at No. 18 Fresno State while the Roadrunners remained unbeaten with a 31-28 win at Memphis ... UNLV just finished playing three consecutive ranked FBS teams for the first time in program history and the Rebels' first five opponents, including UTSA (which is receiving votes in both polls) currently boast an eye-popping combined record of 17-4 ... UNLV stands 13-6 vs. programs currently in C-USA but has played against a team that was in the league at the time of the game just twice -- a loss to North Texas in the 2014 Heart of Dallas Bowl and a home win over UTEP in 2018 ... The Roadrunners will return the game by coming to Allegiant Stadium on Sept. 25, 2027 ... The storied Alamodome will become the fifth indoor stadium that the Rebels will compete in, joining their own new home at Allegiant Stadium, the Houston Astrodome (1990), Idaho's Kibbie Dome (1977, 2010, 2017) and Idaho State's Holt Arena (1970, 1975) ... UNLV's Super Senior Charles Williams heads in with the most career net rushing yards gained on the FBS level (3,296) among all current players. UTSA's Sincere McCormick is sixth on that list with 2,902. Liberty's Joshua Mack has more career rush yards but a majority of them were gained on the FCS level before transferring to his current school ... UNLV PK Daniel Gutierrez has made 12 consecutive field goals, which is tied for the fourth-longest streak in the nation ... UTSA becomes the 10th school from the state of Texas that UNLV has faced (TCU, Houston, SMU, UTEP, North Texas, Rice, Baylor, West Texas A&M and Prairie View A&M) ... 11 current Rebels are Texas high school grads: Kevon Ivy (Dallas); Marsel McDuffie and Deamikkio Nathan (Grand Prairie); Johnathan Baldwin, Patrick Ballard and Ricky Johnson (Houston); Brennon Scott (Lancaster); Eliel Ehimare (Katy); Jaylen Lane (Pearland); Cameron Oliver (Richmond); and Phillip Hill (Spring).

REBELATIONS...

The Rebels are one of 11 teams still perfect in the red zone this season (12-12) and one of just nine at 100% after having made double-digit trips inside the opponent 20-yard line ... After finishing last year at minus-four in turnovers, UNLV sits at plus-two this season, which is tied for 42nd in the FBS ... UNLV started a different quarterback in the first three games of the season (all of whom were making their first collegiate start) before Doug Brumfield took the opening snap at Fresno State for his second start. Former TCU transfer Justin Rogers started the season-opener before Brumfield relieved him in the second half. Brumfield then started at ASU before being knocked out with an injury. That necessitated true freshman Cameron Friel making his collegiate debut vs. Iowa State in Week Three, making him the first true freshman to start at QB for UNLV since Omar Clayton in 2007 ... UNLV has already had four QBs attempt passes this fall as the ISU game also saw the Rebel debut of walk-on grad transfer Tate Martell, a summer addition who starred at Las Vegas' Bishop Gorman High School before signing with Ohio State and then transferring to Miami ... Brumfield, who threw his first two collegiate touchdown passes last week in Fresno, has led his team to scoring 58 of its 76 total points (76%) this season despite only appearing in all or parts of eight of 16 quarters (50%) ... As a rookie in 2020, Brumfield played in the final two games of the season, spelling six-game starting senior Max Gilliam ... During last year's abbreviated six-date schedule, UNLV started the same quarterback (Gilliam) for every game in a season for the first time since local product Jon Denton out of Green Valley High School started all 12 in 1996 ... UNLV RB Charles Williams, who is a 2016 graduate of Fresno's Bullard High School, had his fifth and final meeting with Fresno State and ran for 102 yards and caught a career-high 96 receiving yards. In his career, the Chuck Wagon ended up averaging 109 rushing yards per game vs. his hometown Bulldogs ... The Rebels already have four interceptions (coming from three different players, including two from Phillip Hill) after only picking off two passes all of last season ... Senior Tyleek Collins was outstanding vs. Fresno State on Friday, hauling in four passes for 88 yards and rushing once for seven yards to go with 62 kickoff return yards and a long punt return that was wiped out by a penalty. The highlight came on the very first play of the second half when Brumfield found Collins for a screen that popped for an 80-yard touchdown that tied for the ninth-longest pass play in UNLV history ... Las Vegas native and former TCU transfer Adam Plant Jr. leads the team with two

SUPER SENIORS

- Clayton Bradley (OL)
- Giovanni Fauolo Sr. (TE)*
- Julio Garcia II (OL)*

*Sixth season at UNLV

QB sacks ... UNLV's roster includes nine Super Seniors made possible when the NCAA did not count 2020 against player eligibility because of COVID-19. The unusual group of Rebels includes four sixth-year players and one -- offensive lineman Clayton Bradley, who transferred to Las Vegas as a sixth-year graduate of USC a year ago and chose to play one more fall -- who is one of 18 players lining up for their SEVENTH season across the FBS this fall ... UNLV features four new full-time assistant coaches in 2021 (OL coach TJ Woods, WRs Jonathan Krause, CBs Clay Jennings and TEs Nate Longshore, the latter of whom spent 2020 as offensive analyst) as the staff continues to bring impressive combined on-field experience to Las Vegas. Not only is head coach Marcus Arroyo the first former Power Five coordinator to take over the Rebels, of his 10 current full-time assistant coaches, five came directly from P5 programs spread out among the Pac-12 (3) and Big 12 (2). UNLV's head coach, offensive coordinator and defensive coordinator also boast NFL experience on their resumes. Arroyo was the interim offensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2014, defensive coordinator Peter Hansen spent three years with the San Francisco 49ers in between stints at Stanford, and offensive coordinator Glenn Thomas spent six years with the Atlanta Falcons ... UNLV has not returned a punt for a touchdown in 20 years -- the longest drought in the nation. The last Rebel to do it was Troy Mason, who went 52 yards vs. San Diego State on Oct. 13, 2001, at Sam Boyd Stadium ... UNLV attracted no less than five Power 5 transfers from the portal this off-season: Former USC lineman Connor Murphy and former Arizona lineman Kylan Wilborn are both grad transfers on the two-deep while WR Jordan Jakes (Indiana), RB Jayvaun Wilson (Oregon) and walk-on QB Martell (Ohio State & Miami) are competing for time.

SIMPLY REB, PLEASE!

Please remember, UNLV (acronym on all references, please) is home to the REBEL football team -- not the Runnin' Rebels! Only the men's basketball team at UNLV is nicknamed the Runnin' Rebels.

HEAD COACH @COACHARROYO

Marcus Arroyo was formally introduced Dec. 13, 2019, as the 12th head coach in the history of UNLV Football. Arroyo then used his next two months to hire a staff, win a Rose Bowl and then secure a record-setting recruiting haul of future Rebels.

Case in point: on Feb. 5, 2020, Arroyo announced his first UNLV recruiting class and the impressive group set multiple program records, including earning the No. 1 ranking in the Mountain West by Rivals and No. 2 by 247Sports. One year later, the 2021 class turned heads nationally, ranking eighth among all Group of 5 schools. Its standing of 67th overall was a stunning 36 spots higher than the average ranking for UNLV's classes in the decade previous to Arroyo's arrival on campus (averaged 103rd from 2010-19). In addition, the Class of 2021's average 247Sports per-player rating of .8324 shattered Year One's school-record mark of .8145. This also marked the first time since the introduction of the recruiting rankings that the Rebels finished in the top two of the Mountain West in consecutive years.

Arroyo, who turned 41 in January, took over the Rebels after most recently serving as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Oregon. Behind his play-calling, the Ducks won 2019 Pac-12 Conference Championship and then defeated Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl, which marked the eighth bowl game of Arroyo's career. During his time in Eugene, the Ducks went 28-12 overall, including winning 15 of their last 17 outings.

Arroyo was instrumental in the development of quarterback Justin Herbert, the MVP of the Rose Bowl who became the No. 6 overall NFL draft pick and went on to be named the NFL Rookie of the Year after setting multiple league records for a first-year player. Another one of Arroyo's players, offensive lineman Penei Sewell, became the first Oregon player to win the Outland Trophy, which is awarded to the most outstanding interior lineman in college football. Arroyo joined Oregon after spending two years as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State, and brought experience as a coach for every offensive position except the offensive line. Prior to going to Stillwater, Arroyo spent the 2014-15 season in the NFL as interim offensive coordinator and play-caller for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Before making the move to the NFL, Arroyo spent the 2013 college football season as the offensive coordinator and outside receivers coach at Southern Mississippi. Arroyo's first stint in the Pac-12 saw him spend 2011 and 2012 as the passing-game coordinator and play-caller at California. He spent the 2009 and 2010 campaigns at Wyoming as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, developing quarterback Austyn Carta-Samuels into the Mountain West Freshman of the Year in 2009. In fact, with UNLV rookie receiver Kyle Williams earning Freshman All-America and MW Freshman of the Year honors in 2020, Arroyo has now coached four freshman honorees in the last decade alone: WR Williams (UNLV), QB Carta-Samuels (Wyoming), QB Nick Mullens (C-USA All-Freshman Team at Southern Miss) and RB Justice Hill (Freshman All-America and nation's top rookie rusher at Oklahoma State).

Prior to his time in Laramie, Arroyo was the co-offensive coordinator for two seasons and quarterbacks coach for three campaigns at his alma mater, San Jose State. He was the quarterbacks coach and play-caller for the Spartans in 2006, and added co-offensive coordinator duties from 2007-08 under head coach Dick Tomey.

Arroyo began his coaching career with the Spartans in 2003 as an undergraduate assistant coach. He was the offensive coordinator at Prairie View A&M in 2004 before returning to SJSU as a graduate assistant in 2005.

A native of Colfax, California, Arroyo was a three-year letterman at San Jose State, where he played quarterback from 1998-2002. In 2000, he passed for 2,334 yards and 15 touchdowns while leading the Spartans to seven wins, their most in eight seasons. Arroyo graduated from San Jose State in 2003 with a degree in kinesiology. He is married to the former Kelly Thoni and the couple has one daughter, Cruz, born in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, in 2013, and recently welcomed a son, Noble Fox Arroyo, in July 2021.

RIDING THE “CHUCK WAGON”

A veteran tailback who is one of nine Rebels returning for a Super Senior season this fall, Charles Billy Dee Williams Jr. was the 2019 regular-season rushing champion of the Mountain West and an honors candidate in what is his sixth and final campaign ... He has led the team in rushing in three different seasons ... In July he became the first Rebel football player ever named a CoSIDA Academic All-America Team member as he was one of four RBs on the 2020-21 list ... Named 2021 Second Team Preseason All-MW by Athlon and Mountain West Wire ... His 3,296 career rushing yards gained on the FBS level are the most for any current player in the nation ... The “Chuck Wagon” headed into 2021 ranking fourth on the school’s career rushing list and after four games needs 256 yards to move past former teammate Lexington “Lightning” Thomas into second and is only 437 yards short of UNLV record-holder Tim Cornett, who posted 3,733 from 2010-13 ... Williams is also fourth among all Rebels with 12 career 100-yard rushing games and sixth with 22 all-time rushing touchdowns ... He became just the fourth Rebel to lead a conference in rushing yards during the 2019 regular season, joining former UNLV backs Dominique Dorsey (2004), Ickey Woods (1987) and Kirk Jones (1984) ... The top freshman running back in the conference in 2016 earned the starting spot as a sophomore in 2017 but suffered a season-ending injury in the opener and was instead awarded a medical redshirt while Lexington Thomas emerged as the team’s top runner for two seasons ... Also an impressive student who already earned his bachelor’s degree in May 2020 in journalism & media studies and is currently pursuing a master’s in general studies ... Welcomed a daughter, Kamiyah, in March 2021

QB1(HUNDRED)

When Max Gilliam (pictured) bolted to a career-high 139 net yards rushing (despite being sacked six times) against Fresno State in 2020, he became the 11th different UNLV quarterback to post a century-mark game on the ground. There have been only 18 such games in history but a full 10 of those have happened since the start of the 2016 season. The list includes five from former Rebel Armani Rogers -- highlighted by a school-record 193-yard effort in a win at New Mexico in 2017. Rogers and Jason Thomas (three) are the only

STATES OF THE PROGRAM

From Hawaii to Florida, from Alaska to Australia -- the 2021 Rebels come from hometowns spread across the continent and beyond. In fact, no less than 19 different states and two countries are represented on this year's roster. While a vast majority of Rebels naturally hail from California (45) and Nevada (12), a state that continues to become even more fertile recruiting ground is Texas as a dozen UNLV players are products of the Lone Star State. Six Hawaiians are here as part of the Ninth Island. Meanwhile, Arizona and Georgia are home to no less than five current Rebels and talent-rich Louisiana and Oregon state supply four apiece. Washington and South Carolina both have three while Tennessee volunteered two Rebels. Florida, Alaska, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, New Jersey and Utah all are home to one UNLV player. In addition, punter Charlton Butt is the first Aussie to sign a scholarship with the program.

HISTORY MADE: PRIME CHUCK

This summer, running back Charles Williams became the first UNLV football player in history to be voted an academic All-American by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The Chuck Wagon, returns as a Super Senior this fall and was announced as one of four running backs on CoSIDA's 2020-21 Academic All-America® Division

I Football Teams. The native of Fresno, California, and graduate of Bullard High School ranks fourth on UNLV's career rushing list with 2,940 yards and needs 739 more to pass all-time leader Tim Cornett (2010-13). Also, named in May as UNLV's Mehdi Bouras Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year, Williams is pursuing his master's degree in general studies after earning a bachelor's in journalism & media studies in 2020. He has earned a spot on the Mountain West Academic All-Conference Team for four consecutive years and was a member of the Dean's Honor List his last four semesters as an undergraduate.

FERTITTA FOOTBALL COMPLEX: A STATE-OF-THE ART FOOTBALL HOME

On October 3, 2019, UNLV Athletics celebrated the official ribbon-cutting of its new, $34.8 million, state-of-the-art training center the Fertitta Football Complex. Just over three years ago the department announced the largest single gift in its history as the Fertitta Family pledged an initial $10 million toward the construction. The 73,000-square-foot, two-level complex was built on campus in the north end of the team's practice area and overlooks the Ernie Becker Sr. Football Fields at Bill "Wildcat" Morris Rebel Park. The FFC is now the day-to-day home of the program and includes an academic center, locker rooms, offices, meeting rooms, strength & conditioning center, media room, training table and nutrition bar, athletic training center, player lounge and even a barbershop.

SCHOLARSHIP-HIP-HURRAY

Veteran place-kicker Daniel Gutierrez was surprised with a full scholarship during a scrimmage at Allegiant Stadium on August 11. The final play was a field-goal attempt and as expected, the senior nailed it with ease but then something unexpected happened as he was surprised with a highlight video on the stadium's big screen that closed with a special message that he was being put on full scholarship this fall. A two-year returning starter who has earned three letters after walking onto the squad out of Granada Hills Charter High School in California, Gutierrez responded by turning in a career night in the opener vs. EWU, nailing all four of his field-goal attempts, including a personal-best 51-yarder and earning a spot as a Lou Groza Star of the Week. After hitting one attempt each at ASU, ISU and Fresno State, Gutierrez is currently tied for 10th in the nation with 1.75 FG per game and is one of just six kickers in the country to be perfect with more than six attempts. His career field goal numbers of 28-of-34 rank him first in school history with a percentage of 82.4 and he also heads into this week an impressive 20-of-21 all-time from 39 yards or closer. In 2020, he rebounded from missing his first field goal and extra-point attempt in the season opener at San Diego State to make all 16 of his remaining attempts on the year, which means he now has made 28 straight combined kicks overall.

WATCHING THE REBELS

A trio of Rebels made official Watch Lists during the preseason for their on-field talents. Senior wide receiver and kick returner Tyleek Collins is one of 57 players up for the 2021 Paul Hornung Award, which goes out annually to the most versatile player in major college football from the Louisville Sports Commission in honor of the late football legend Paul Hornung. Collins has led the team twice in kickoff returns and punt returns during his career, including both categories last fall. UNLV sophomore offensive lineman Leif Fautanu (LEEF faw-TAH-new) is one of 63 players from 31 FBS schools around the nation named to the 2021 Watch List for the Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Award. Finally, UNLV senior long snapper Rex Goossen is one of 31 players on the 2021 Patrick Mannelly Award Watch List, which was named after former Duke University and longtime Chicago Bears long snapper Patrick Mannelly. The award goes to college football's top player at the special teams position each year and Goossen is in his third season as the team's starting long snapper.

NON-SATURDAY SUCCESS

In its 53-year history, UNLV has played 18 Thursday games, 18 Friday contests, one Sunday matchup, one Wednesday outing and one Monday game on Labor Day 2005 at New Mexico. The Rebels hold an 8-9-1 record on Fridays and an overall non-Saturday record of 18-20-1.

UNLV saw its two-game win streak in overtime snapped with a double-OT loss in the opener to Eastern Washington. It also dropped the program's home record in OT to 4-9. In 2016, the Rebels broke a two-game losing streak in overtime games with its historic 69-66 victory over Wyoming. It marked the only time that the Rebels won a game that went longer than one overtime period and set a school record for points in extra time with 17. In 2008, the Rebels won back-to-back OT games at No. 13 Arizona State and then at home vs. Big 12 team Iowa State.

BLACK ICE

UNLV added a fourth jersey color to its repertoire when it debuted a new black jersey and helmet for the season opener at Allegiant Stadium. It joined last year's new duds that included a darker anthracite color to go with red and white. In 2020, UNLV wore a white helmet for the first time in program history as part of Coach Marcus Arroyo's Nike makeover.

POLL POSITIONS

UNLV has played 51 teams ranked in at least one of the two major polls at the time of the game. The Rebels hold a 5-46 record against such competitors. The Rebels' most recent win over a ranked team came in 2008 when they upset No. 15/13 Arizona State, 23-20 in overtime (pictured, below). In fact, the last four UNLV wins over ranked opponents have come on the road.

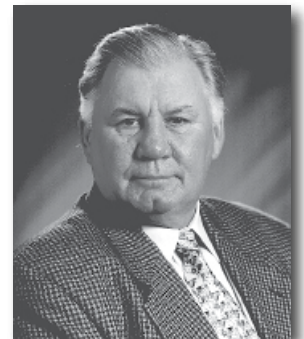

GARCIA WINS WIESNER

Before UNLV's home-opening football game vs. EWU, Super Senior offensive lineman Julio Garcia II was recognized as this year's recipient of the Tom Wiesner Award (pronounced "WEEZE-ner"). For the 20th consecutive year, the team selected the player who best exemplifies the courage, enthusiasm, dedication and toughness of the late Mr. Tom Wiesner. Garcia, who has started games in every season as a Rebel and is the team's nominee for the Wuerffel Trophy, was also a team captain in Week 1. An honors candidate who was named preseason Fourth Team All-MW by Phil Steele and Third Team by Athlon, Garcia is the fourth offensive lineman to earn the Wiesner. A Wisconsin native and three-time letterman on the Badger football team, Mr. Wiesner sought his fortune out West and became one of the Las Vegas' leading businessmen, philanthropists, politicians and ambassadors. The founder of the successful restaurants that are part of Big Dog's Hospitality Group, Mr. Wiesner helped guide Rebel Athletics from their infancy and was inducted into the UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame as a Distinguished Contributor in 1994. Also a member of the Nevada Board of Regents, he died in 2002 at the age of 63 after a battle with Leukemia.

REBELS RALLY BUT FALL FOOT SHORT IN OPENER

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - UNLV finished a foot short of tying the game in double-overtime, being stopped at the goal-line on a two-point conversion attempt and falling 35-33 to Eastern Washington Thursday night at Allegiant Stadium.

In the first-ever meeting with the Eagles, the Rebels, who rallied from a 20-6 deficit to send the game into overtime at 20 apiece, lost their first game played in their new stadium with full capacity for fans. Former TCU transfer Justin Rogers made his first career start at quarterback as UNLV led 6-3 at halftime. Freshman Doug Brumfield replaced him in the third quarter after EWU scored 17 unanswered points. The hosts kicked two field goals and then a 16-yard Charles Williams rush to draw within two before Brumfield threw a two-point conversion to Courtney Reese to knot the game.

The teams traded touchdowns twice in overtime but EWU made its two-point attempt to force the Rebels to go for two on what became the final play of the game.

REBEL OF THE GAME: Senior place-kicker Daniel Gutierrez tied a school record with four made field goals, including a career-long 51-yarder, which saw the former walk-on score his team's first 12 points, allowing them to mount the big comeback. Gutierrez was awarded a scholarship during fall camp.

STAT OF THE GAME: Senior running back Charles Williams finished with his second-most rushing yards as a Rebel, carrying the ball 27 times for 172 yards and the two scores.

REBEL NOTES

- Gutierrez improved to 25-of-31 on field goals in his career, which raised his career percentage to 80.6, which is the highest in school history
- The Chuck Wagon's big night gave him 3,112 yards in his career, making him just the fourth Rebel in history to reach the 3,000-yard mark
- Williams' 11th career 100-yard rushing game moved him into a tie with Dominique Dorsey (2001-04) in fourth place all-time at UNLV
- Williams' two rushing touchdowns moved him up two spots on the school's career list as his 21 all-time scores pushed him to sixth place
- UNLV got two interceptions vs. the Eagles, one by Phillip Hill and one by true freshman Cameron Oliver, to match the team's entire pick total from the short 2020 season
- The Rebels won the turnover battle 3-2 after Kue Olotoa forced and recovered a fumble on an EWU kickoff return to help complete the comeback in regulation
- Jacoby Windmon and Austin Ajiake each had 10 total tackles to pace UNLV
- Evan Silva made his Rebel debut at punter, finishing with six attempts for a 35.2-yard average
- Former Oregon transfer Jayvaun Wilson got his first college carry, gaining nine yards
- UNLV fell to 24-30 all-time in season-openers and 19-10 when they happened at home
- The Rebels fell to 36-16-1 vs. teams that currently make up the Big Sky Conference

NO. 23 ARIZONA STATE PULLS AWAY LATE

TEMPE, AZ (UNLVRebels.com) - UNLV (0-2) held two modest leads before seeing No. 23 Arizona State (2-0) ultimately post a 37-10 victory Saturday night in front of 42,918 fans at Sun Devil Stadium in only the second all-time meeting between the schools located just 300 miles apart.

The Rebels, who won here in overtime in dramatic fashion back in 2008, led 3-0 and then 10-7 during the first half and were trailing 14-10 with under a minute left in the third quarter. That's when ASU scored back-to-back rushing touchdowns to pull away as UNLV's starting quarterback, Doug Brumfield, was knocked out of the game with an undisclosed injury. The hosts would score three total touchdowns in a nine-minute span in the second half.

Brumfield, a redshirt freshman making his first collegiate start, jumped into the end zone for a four-yard score in the second quarter to post the Rebels' lone touchdown on a 10-play drive. UNLV was sparked early when cornerback Nohl Williams thwarted the Sun Devils' opening drive by intercepting Jayden Daniels in the end zone. The Rebels then made their way down field on a 16-play drive and scored first with a 28-yard field goal by Daniel Gutierrez.

REBEL OF THE GAME: Brumfield had zero turnovers and led the team both in passing (60) and rushing yards (43) despite not playing for much of the second half.

STAT OF THE GAME: When Nohl Williams intercepted Jayden Daniels in the end zone on the game's opening drive, it marked the third pick of the young season for the Rebels, which already exceeds the squad's total of two from 2020's six-game campaign.

REBEL NOTES

- PK Daniel Gutierrez improved to 5-for-5 on field goals this season and 26-of-32 in his career, which raised his career percentage to 81.3 -- the highest in school history
- UNLV has not trailed after the first quarter this season, leading ASU by three and sitting in a scoreless tie in the Week One vs. EWU
- Charles Williams rushed for 35 tough yards on 13 carries, which gave him 3,147 yards in his career and moved him up to third in Rebel history
- Jacoby Windmon and Jalen Dixon combined for a sack on an ASU fourth down
- Windmon and fellow LB Austin Ajiake and DB Bryce Jackson tied for the team lead with nine total tackles each
- UNLV's last win over a ranked opponent was in Tempe nearly 13 years ago to the day when the Rebels stunned the No. 13 Sun Devils
- UNLV fell to 2-5 in games played in the Grand Canyon State
- Five Rebels who are natives of Arizona returned to play in their home state: Bryce Jackson, Connor Murphy, Kolo Uasike, Seth Robinson and Rex Goossen
- The game marked the first by UNLV vs. a Pac-12 Conference opponent since opening the 2018 season at No. 15 USC
- ASU was scheduled to start this home-and-home series last year at Allegiant Stadium before the pandemic led to the cancellation of the nonconference schedule. The Sun Devils will instead return the game in 2027

REBELS FALL TO 14TH-RANKED CYCLONES

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - UNLV (0-3), forced to play a true freshman at quarterback because of an injury to starter Doug Brumfield, struggled to move the ball against a high-powered Iowa State defense and the Cyclones (2-1) downed the Rebels 48-3 in front of a big gathering at Allegiant Stadium Saturday night. In fact, the crowd of 35,931 marked the seventh-largest ever to watch a UNLV football game in Las Vegas.

Playing a ranked opponent for the second consecutive week for the first time since 2010, UNLV started a different quarterback for the third time in as many weeks as Cameron Friel from Hawai'i made his collegiate debut. He became the first true freshman to start at QB for the Rebels since Omar Clayton on Oct. 20, 2007. Graduate transfer and Las Vegas native Tate Martell also logged time to mark four Rebel signal-callers seeing the field in the season's first three games. Friel finished 8-of-13 passing for 67 yards and one interception.

The Cyclones, who were the highest-ranked team to face the Rebels in Las Vegas since No. 13 UCLA in 2015, led by 31 points before UNLV staged its best drive of the night, going 66 yards in 14 plays over 7:18, capped by a 30-yard field goal by Daniel Gutierrez.

ISU's two big names were both impressive as quarterback Brock Purdy only missed on three of his 24 pass attempts for 288 yards and a trio of touchdowns while running back Breece Hall finished with 100 yards and two more scores for the visitors.

STAT OF THE GAME: PK Daniel Gutierrez improved to 6-for-6 on field goals this season and 27-of-33 in his career, which raised his career percentage to 81.8 – the highest in school history

REBEL NOTES

- The teams tied in the turnover battle at one each. The Rebels earned their takeaway when safety Bryce Jackson forced a fumble that DL Kolo Uasike recovered
- UNLV trailed after the first quarter for the first time this season as Iowa State led 7-0
- Charles Williams rushed for 42 net yards on 19 carries, which gave him 3,189 yards in his career
- Safety Tyson Player, making his first career start, led the Rebels with 10 total tackles
- UNLV fell to 3-10 all-time vs. teams that were members of the Big 12 Conference at the time of the game
- ISU was scheduled to start this home-and-home series last year in Ames before the pandemic led to the cancellation of the nonconference schedule. The Rebels will instead head to play ISU on Sept. 14, 2030
- In a scheduling quirk, this marked the second time that UNLV played at Arizona State and then hosted Iowa State the very next week, also doing so in 2008 when they won both games
- The Cyclones improved to 5-1 all-time vs. the Rebels

REBELS FALL LATE AT NO. 22 FRESNO STATE

FRESNO, CA (UNLVRebels.com) - Tied Facing a ranked opponent for the third straight week for the first time in school history, UNLV (0-4/0-1) put a big scare in No. 22 Fresno State (4-1/1-0) before falling 38-30 in a thriller at Bulldog Stadium Friday night.

UNLV led for much of the game, jumping out to a 14-0 advantage at the end of the first quarter, 14-9 at halftime, and was up 30-29 with under seven minutes left before the Bulldogs scored the final nine points in front of a crowd of 35,093.

The Rebels, who were opening Mountain West play, were forced to play two different quarterbacks again as starter Doug Brumfield left the game with an injury. True freshman Cameron Friel spelled Brumfield, who actually returned in the third quarter to engineer an 80-yard catch-and-run for a score by Tyleek Collins that built the visitor's lead to 21-9. Brumfield threw his first two career touchdowns in finishing with 143 yards while Friel 9-of-15 attempts for 138 yards.

REBEL OF THE GAME: Playing in front of his hometown for the final time, including 50 family and friends in the UNLV section, Super Senior Charles Williams led his team in both rushing and receiving yards. He ran for 102 yards and one touchdown and caught three passes for a career-high 96 yards, including a 50-yard sprint. The Chuck Wagon averaged nearly 110 yards rushing per game in five career matchups with the Bulldogs.

STAT OF THE GAME: PK Daniel Gutierrez improved to 7-for-7 on field goals this season and 28-of-34 in his career, which raised his career percentage to 82.4 – the highest in school history.

QUOTABLE: "I didn't want to disappoint them. I put it all on the line. It may be the last time they get to see me play in person because the next level is not guaranteed. So I wanted to give them all I could."
- UNLV Running Back Charles Williams about playing in front of his extended family

REBEL NOTES

- The Rebels fell to 13-27 in conference openers
- UNLV dropped to 8-9-1 in games played on Friday
- UNLV has now trailed after the first quarter in just one game this season – 7-0 last week vs. Iowa State
- This marked the third time FS was ranked while facing UNLV (2013, 2018)
- Jacoby Windmon led the way defensively, finishing with eight total tackles, including one TFL
- Las Vegas native Adam Plant had UNLV's lone QB sack for a loss of seven yards
- Phillip Hill hauled in his second interception of the season and the fourth by UNLV this season, which doubles the total the Rebels had in all six games in 2020
- The game featured two of the nation's top four running backs in career FBS rushing yards. Williams came in ranked No. 1 in the nation while FS standout Mosby 1.0-5; Boehm 0.5-1.
- Ronnie Rivers was fourth and finished with 48 yards on 14 carries
- UNLV outrushed the home team 152-83
- The Rebels remained perfect in the red zone in 2021 by scoring all four times vs. the Bulldogs
